

Divorce 1911

Chapter 1911 Menstruation comes uninvited

Fang Xiao still did not answer, but her entire body was completely squatting down. Her waist was also bent into a ball, and the pain in her stomach had already made it impossible for her to hold on any longer.

Only then did Dongfang Yunheng completely realize that Fang Xiao did not answer his question because she was angry with him, but because she had other reasons. Seeing that she was squatting down, he also squatted down. The hands that were originally holding her were finally released, and he used both hands to support her shoulders instead. The face that was angry just now suddenly became nervous and uneasy.

“Xiao Xiao, I’m sorry.” Dongfang Yunheng’s voice finally softened completely. He stared at her and asked gently, “Xiao Xiao, what’s wrong with you? Don’t scare me.”

“I. . . My relatives are here...” after a sharp pain, Fang Xiao finally recovered her breath. Her pale face and forehead were covered with a layer of fine sweat, and her voice trembled slightly ...

“relatives are here?” Dongfang Yunheng did not react in time. Seeing that Fang Xiao had her head lowered, he followed her gaze and looked down. He only understood when he saw that the flesh-colored socks on her legs were all red.

“You damn woman, why didn’t you say so earlier?” Dongfang Yunheng glared at her fiercely. Then, he quickly got up and walked towards the bedroom. He hurriedly asked, “then... where do you keep your tampons?”

“I... Don’t have any TAMPONS.” Fang Xiao was so embarrassed that she wanted to crawl into the ground. What was going on? Why was she so unlucky?

“No tampons?” Dongfang Yunheng was stunned again when he heard this. He could not help but turn around and glare at her. “How are you a woman? Don’t you know how to prepare such things?”

“I thought it would only come the day after tomorrow.” Fang Xiao lowered her head. Her hands were still pressed on her abdomen, but she continued to explain, “I originally wanted to buy it tomorrow, but who knew...”

“Alright, go to the bathroom and take a shower to change your clothes. I’ll go and buy it for you.” Dongfang Yunheng was finally no longer angry with her. At this moment, there was definitely nothing more important than helping her buy tampons.

Fortunately, this was not the first time he had done this kind of thing. He had also helped her buy tampons once when she had an abortion, so it could be considered as a walk in the park. He was only going to the 24-hour convenience store.

“There’s no need for you to buy it. There’s toilet paper in the bathroom. I’ll use toilet paper to deal with it briefly later. I’ll pass by the convenience store when I go to your villa to do the cleaning tomorrow.”

As Fang Xiao spoke, she had already stood up by leaning against the wall. Then, she slowly walked towards the bathroom.

“What do you mean by there’s no need?” When Dongfang Yunheng heard her say this, he immediately became unhappy. He reached over and helped her up. “Hurry up and go to the bathroom to take a shower and deal with it. I’ll buy it for you very soon. There’s a 24-hour convenience store nearby.”

Fang Xiao could not help but struggle. She did not want him to help her up, but her stomach hurt so badly that she could only let him help her up to the bathroom door.

“Hurry up and go in and take off your clothes. I’ll go to the cloakroom and help you find your underwear and pajamas.” As Dongfang Yunheng spoke, he had already quickly turned around and ran to the cloakroom.

Although Fang Xiao was usually the one who helped him tidy up his own clothes, it did not mean that he was so stupid that he did not even know where to put her clothes. Moreover, the cloakroom was only so big.

This woman’s things had always been very regular. Usually, small clothes were kept in the drawer at the bottom of the wardrobe because he had once seen her underwear when he was changing in the cloakroom and looking for his underwear.

Chapter 1912 buying brown sugar for her

Sure enough, her clothes were neatly placed underneath. He quickly helped her to get a light-colored pair of underwear. However, when he held it in his hand, he pondered for a moment. Then, he thought of something and quickly went back to change a pair of dark-colored underwear for her.

After he found the pajamas, when he came to the bathroom door, she had already closed the bathroom door tightly. He used his hand to twist the bathroom door, but of course, he could not open it. Therefore, his face darkened. What did she mean by this? What part of her body had he not seen before? Was it worth it to treat him like this?

Although he was unhappy, he still endured it. He reached out and knocked on the door. “Fang Xiao, open the door. I’ve found your pajamas.”

After waiting for a while, the door opened a crack. Then, a fair and slender hand reached out. He was angry, but in the end, he handed all the clothes in his hand to her.

Fang Xiao grabbed the clothes in her hand and quickly pulled them in. Then, with a bang, she closed the door. It was obvious that she did not want Dongfang Yunheng to squeeze in.

Dongfang Yunheng sighed. In the end, he didn’t say anything. He turned around and walked out of the door. He didn’t forget that she didn’t have any tampons.

It was already past midnight. However, Binhai was a place with many 24-hour convenience stores. Moreover, Yunxiao Pavilion was in the center of the city, so Dongfang Yunheng found one within two blocks of driving.

It wasn't the first time Dongfang Yunheng had helped Fang Xiao buy tampons. He had helped her buy tampons the last time she had an abortion, so this time he was quite familiar with it.

However, the last time was a miscarriage, and this time it was her period. Unfortunately, her stomach still hurt so much that he could not help but worry. He wondered if she could also take some medicine for her period pain.

Therefore, after he took the same pack of Tampons for daily and night use, he thickened his skin and asked the waiter if there was any medicine that women took when they had their period that did not hurt so much.

The waiter shook his head at her and said that she did not have this kind of medicine here. He estimated that it would only be available at a pharmacy. However, the pharmacy was closed long ago. If he wanted his woman to relieve her period pain, he could buy some brown sugar to go back and flush water for her to drink.

Therefore, he bought the brown sugar as instructed and then quickly drove back. Fortunately, the illness was not very far away, so his round trip only took half an hour.

By the time he rushed back to Yunxiao Pavilion, Fang Xiao had already taken a shower and used toilet paper to save the emergency. After that, she laid down on the bed. Because of the pain in her stomach, her entire body was almost curled up, and her body was still trembling slightly under the blanket.

Dongfang Yunheng walked forward. When he saw such an uncomfortable woman, he could not help but sigh again. He placed the small plastic bag in his hand on the bedside table, lifted up her blanket, and pulled her head out with his hands.

"Hurry up and change. I've already bought it for you." He helped her up with a little force and pointed at the sanitary pad on the bedside table.

Fang Xiao nodded. At this moment, she could not be bothered to argue with Dongfang Yunheng. At this moment, there was nothing more important to her than sanitary pads.

When Fang Xiao came out of the bathroom after changing the sanitary pad, Dongfang Yunheng had already rinsed the brown sugar water for her. He was drying it in a big bowl for her.. Seeing her, he said gently, "they said that a woman's period pain is because of the cold. Drinking some brown sugar water will be better, so I bought it for you. "

Hearing this, Fang Xiao was instinctively stunned, and could not help but look at Dongfang Yunheng.

They said Who were they referring to here Gu Chenchen?

Chapter 1913: I'm sorry

It should be that she was his fiancée and also the woman he loved deeply. Dongfang Yunheng was such a gentleman, and even she, the mistress he bought with money, was so considerate. He drove late at night to buy her tampons, so how he treated Gu Chenchen.. It was unknown how considerate he was.

Therefore, she silently picked up the bowl of steaming brown sugar water and poured it into her mouth. Actually, it was still a little hot, but she put it to her mouth and slowly drank it. The brown sugar water slid down her throat and into her stomach. Her originally cold body gradually warmed up.

However, her body was warm, but her heart was still as cold as before. She knew that this warmth did not belong to her, but to Gu Chenchen. What she was enjoying now was only stolen from Gu Chenchen.

The taste of the brown sugar water had a burning sweetness, and this sweetness actually had a trace of bitterness in the end. She could not help but think of the love between her and Dongfang Yunheng, the sweetness from the beginning to the bitterness now.

She thought that she was still a nostalgic person, but she knew that Dongfang Yunheng was not a nostalgic person. Therefore, these things that should or should not have, the warmth that did not belong to her, could not be loved at all.

Dongfang Yunheng watched her slowly drink the brown sugar water bit by bit. As he watched her pale face gradually recover, his originally expressionless face finally revealed a smile. She was no longer in pain, so he was not so worried.

Fang Xiao woke up late.

This could not be blamed on her laziness. It was mainly because she had her period last night and came back late, so in the end, when Dongfang Yunheng bought sanitary pads and brown sugar water for her to drink, it was already past one o'clock in the morning.

Last night, Dongfang Yunheng was unusually gentle. He hugged her in his arms, used his big hand to massage her lower abdomen, and even apologized to her in a low voice.

"I'm sorry, Xiao Xiao. I shouldn't have lost my temper," Dongfang Yunheng's voice whispered in her ear, and his warm breath sprayed on her delicate neck. It was warm and itchy.

Fang Xiao did not make a sound. She nestled herself in his arms. Later, her stomach gradually became less painful, and his hand, which was originally rubbing her lower abdomen, gradually moved to her.

Fortunately, he did not act like a beast. Although his hand had been tyrannically covering her soft snow peak, he had always been used to being overbearing. When she was about to fall asleep.. He was still saying to her, "don't be together with Zheng Zihao in the future, okay? If the Zheng family knew about our relationship, they would not have agreed to let you and Zheng Zihao be together. "

She closed her eyes and pretended to sleep. In fact, she did not fall asleep. She just did not want to pay attention to her because he did not need to remind her of these things. The Zheng Family would not allow a woman like her to enter the house. And she did treat Zheng Zihao as a normal friend. She did not have any improper thoughts at all.

Fang Xiao could not remember how she fell asleep in the end. Anyway, once she fell asleep, she slept until daybreak. She did not even know when Dongfang Yunheng got up and left.

When she opened her eyes, it was already past ten in the morning. Well, she had never slept so late. The work that she was supposed to do at Dongfang Yunheng's lakeside villa this morning could only be moved to the afternoon.

As for the morning, it was better to go to Jiangnan's famous city. After all, there was no cleaning there yesterday afternoon. If she did not go today, it would be two days later. Dongfang Yunheng, who claimed to be a neat freak.. If she were to go to Jiangnan's famous city with Gu Chenchen on a whim today and saw how dirty the place was, she would probably have to deduct her salary again.

Chapter 1914: Looking for a job

Therefore, she quickly got up, washed up, and left the house without even eating breakfast. She only wanted to rush to Jiangnan's famous city as soon as possible, so she could not delay the work that she needed to do.

However, just as she walked out of the door and was waiting for the elevator at the elevator, her phone rang. It was actually Dongfang Yunheng. It was rare for him, a CEO, to have such a precious time in the morning, to actually find time to call her.

She was slightly stunned for a moment, but in the end, she still pressed the answer button. Before she could speak in a hurry, Dongfang Yunheng's deep voice was heard, "Xiaoxiao, are you up? "

"Yes, I'm up, " she replied indifferently. There was someone by the elevator. She immediately took her phone and walked to the window. She asked casually, "what's the matter? "

Dongfang Yunheng's low laughter came from the other side of the phone, followed by a gentle voice. "Don't go to work today. Rest at home. I'll give you a week's monthly leave. "

" ... " Fang Xiao was immediately speechless. After a long while, she asked, "Um, will your salary be deducted during the holiday? "

"Um... "

On the other end of the phone, Dongfang Yunheng was silent for a long time. No one knew whether he was busy or angry, but he finally lowered his voice after a long time. He even gritted his teeth and said, no, it was a single word, "yes. "

After Dongfang Yunheng said this word, he hung up the phone. Fang Xiao looked at her phone and shrugged, not going to delve into the meaning behind Dongfang Yunheng's final word.

It didn't matter. Anyway, she and Dongfang Yunheng would soon be separated. Whether he was gritting his teeth or angry, she wouldn't take it to heart. As long as he returned her salary during the holiday, it would be fine.

Because it was a holiday, Fang Xiao was free all of a sudden. For a week's holiday, she only needed to clean up Yunxiao pavilion and then Cook for herself.

Generally, girls' desire for holidays was to go shopping. However, Fang Xiao didn't like to go shopping. At the same time, she had her period, so it wasn't suitable for her to exercise. Therefore, she stayed in Dongfang Yunheng's Yunxiao pavilion all day and couldn't even be bothered to go downstairs.

Of course, she didn't stay in Yunxiao pavilion just to eat, sleep, and eat. Because her agreement with Dongfang Yunheng was about to expire, she had to make plans for her final destination.

She had already received a reply to the resume she sent out last time. There were several emails in her mailbox, and one of them was from the landscaping company. They said that they wanted to continue with a talent like her. As long as she went over, if she did well.. They would definitely not mistreat her in terms of salary.

At the same time, two foreign trade companies and a wedding company replied to her email. Because she wanted to stay away from Binhai, she didn't consider these companies and directly replied to the landscaping company's email She said that she could go to work next month.

Perhaps it was because of her period, Dongfang Yunheng hadn't come to the Cloud Sky Pavilion in the past two days. She didn't take it to heart. Anyway, that man and his fiancée needed to take care of both. It was normal for him not to come to her place.

Fang Xiao thought that her vacation this week would be spent in such a quiet and relaxing place. However, there were always some accidents that happened. For example, some people would appear in front of you unexpectedly, such as Gu Chenchen!

To be honest, Fang Xiao had never thought of meeting Gu Chenchen alone. She had even less thought of sitting down and having a private chat with Gu Chenchen. After all, the two of them were not on the same level.

Chapter 1915 we are not familiar with each other

However, sometimes things that you did not expect will happen, and when this happens, it happens that you want to avoid it, but you can't avoid it even if you want to.

The encounter with Gu Chenchen was an accident. This was also the last day of her week-long holiday, and her period had been completely cleared on the first day of the holiday, which meant that her period had finally passed.

She had eaten noodles for a week, and it was rare for her body to feel relaxed, so she came downstairs and thought of buying some food to cook some rice and stir-fry a few dishes. It could also be considered as improving her life.

Cloud Sky Pavilion was located in the financial center, and there wasn't even a vegetable market nearby. If she wanted to buy food, she could only go to the supermarket in the high-end mall across the country.

In this high-end mall, which mainly consisted of department stores, there were jewelry counters and cosmetics counters on the first floor. The third floor was a supermarket, and it was said that the third floor was for women, and the fourth floor was for men. Of course, Fang Xiao wasn't sure whether it was true or not That was because she usually didn't go upstairs when she reached the second floor.

This time, as usual, she went straight to the second floor. She didn't even turn her head when she passed by the jewelry counters and cosmetics counters on the first floor, because these things weren't something she could afford, and it was a waste of time to look at things she couldn't afford It was a waste of time.

She originally wanted to walk to the second floor by the escalator, but she was stopped by a slightly familiar voice when she passed by a cosmetics counter called estee lauder.

Fang Xiao was stunned for a moment before she turned her body to the side. Only then did she see the woman who was sitting on the VIP chair of the cosmetics counter turning around. It was actually Dongfang Yunheng’s fiancée, Gu Chenchen.

“Miss Gu, ” Fang Xiao nodded her head faintly. The expression on her face was indifferent and distant, because she was not in the same circle as her.

“Miss Fang, ” Gu Chenchen appeared to be very enthusiastic. He stood up from the VIP chair and immediately came over to hold Fang Xiao’s hand. As if he was very close to her, he said, “we haven’t seen each other for a long time. It’s such a coincidence that we met today. Let’s go have a cup of coffee. “

Fang Xiao was very unaccustomed to her enthusiasm at this moment. She frowned slightly and then said indifferently, “Miss Gu, it seems that we’re not that close. Let’s skip the coffee. “

“not familiar with each other? ” Gu Chenchen leaned his head against her head. His Pink Lips moved closer to Fang Xiao’s ear and said in a low voice, “we share the same man. How can we be considered familiar if we are not familiar with each other? “

Fang Xiao was stunned instinctively. Her relationship with Dongfang Yunheng was supposed to be very secretive, and she believed that Dongfang Yunheng would not tell Gu Chenchen about them.

Since that was the case, how did Gu Chenchen know about it? Or, did Dongfang Yunheng never hide anything from Gu Chenchen? He told her everything?

It was already September, and it was actually midsummer in the south. On the other hand, Gu Chenchen was wearing a limited-edition Beige dress that was newly released in France. She was originally a fashion model. This dress made her look like a fairy who did not live in the mortal world.

Her face was covered with exquisite makeup, but it was light makeup. It was fresh and natural. Although it was a face after makeup, it definitely did not give people the feeling of vulgar makeup.

On the other hand, Fang Xiao had not put on makeup. Although her face was clean, it did not have the luster of meticulous makeup. Her eyebrows had not been trimmed either. Because she had been lazy in the past few days, she did not even put on lipstick when she went out today. At this time, she had even started to peel because of the dryness.

Chapter 1916. We’re not familiar with each other

She was wearing a simple cotton t-shirt, casual jeans, and a pair of flat sandals. She was a very casual woman. When she stood next to Gu Chenchen, who was full of jewelry, it could be said that one was in the sky and the other was on the ground. How should we go for coffee?

Just as Fang Xiao was hesitating, Gu Chenchen had already pulled her hand and walked out of the shopping mall She even introduced enthusiastically, “there’s a starbucks next to it. The coffee there is very delicious. The two of us will go for coffee and chat. I believe that we should have a lot of common topics to talk about. “

Fang Xiao originally didn’t want to go with her, but when she thought of Gu Chenchen’s words about sharing a man, she vaguely felt that Gu Chenchen might have some prejudice against her, afraid that she would ruin the marriage between her and Dongfang Yunheng.

It was good. Regardless of whether Dongfang Yunheng told Gu Chenchen about their relationship, she felt that she had to tell Gu Chenchen that she would soon leave Binhai and would have nothing to do with Dongfang Yunheng in the future.

The two of them came to the starbucks together. Gu Chenchen picked a corner. It was around 11 o’clock in the morning. There were very few people drinking coffee, so it was very good for them to sit down and chat.

Fang Xiao thought that Gu Chenchen was looking for her to question her about the matter between her and Dongfang Yunheng, and she was wondering if she should tell her about the agreement between her and Dongfang Yunheng.

However, as soon as Gu Chenchen opened his mouth, she immediately knew that she was wrong, because Gu Chenchen did not question her about anything between her and Dongfang Yunheng, but told her the love story between her and Dongfang Yunheng. “...”

“I’ve known Yun Heng since I was five years old. ” Gu Chenchen stirred the coffee in the Cup with a spoon With a shy and embarrassed expression, she said, “at that time, I was five years old and he was seven years old. The two of US met on that Glorious Peach Blossom Day... “

Gu Chenchen and Dongfang Yunheng had known each other since they were young. However, they did not get to know each other very well. They only met each other once a year during the holidays. They did not have much to talk about. They were just friends.

As for Dongfang Yunheng, he was very cool when he was young. He was different from his twin brother, Yun. He did not like girls because girls would always cry or something. He did not have the patience to coax girls Therefore, girls who grew up like him were not particularly close to him, and Gu Chenchen was no exception.

However, this matter changed when Gu Chenchen said it. She used very literary sentences to describe the things that happened between her and Dongfang Yunheng when they were young so beautifully and so well It was as if she and Dongfang Yunheng were young and had no guesses.

It was when she was eating soup when she was young that she was scalded. Dongfang Yunheng, who was sitting at the side, saw her crying so annoyingly and impatiently that he stuffed a tissue for her to wipe away her tears and Snot so as not to affect his appetite She had described how deeply Dongfang Yunheng loved her.

“At that time, I was only nine years old, and he was 11 years old.” Gu Chenchen was completely immersed in her memories. There was a blissful smile on her face. “He used a tissue to carefully wipe my mouth, afraid that I would burn my little lips...”

Fang Xiao was really speechless. What did Gu Chenchen mean by this? Why did she tell her about Dongfang Yunheng and the things she did when she was young? Who had not played with a few boys and girls when they were young?

Chapter 1917, five years ago

“Miss Gu, if there’s nothing else, I think I’ll take my leave first.” Fang Xiao finally could not help but interrupt Gu Chenchen, who was talking with great interest, and then quickly added, “I still have other things to do.”

“Yun Heng and I truly fell in love five years ago.” Gu Chenchen finally stopped talking about the things that happened when they were young, but she did not intend to let Fang Xiao leave either. Instead, she continued, “that was five years ago in the winter. The State of New Jersey in the United States was so cold that there was almost no temperature at all, and my Yun Heng almost died in New Jersey that year.”

Fang Xiao’s brows furrowed instinctively. Five years ago in the winter of New Jersey in the United States, that was the day she broke up with Xi Lingheng. That time, she had actually almost died in the ice and snow.

“Yun Heng was abandoned by a heartless woman in New Jersey. That woman’s heart was extraordinarily vicious. She actually threw away my Yun Heng in a snowstorm that was hard to come by in decades, and Yun Heng...”

Gu Chenchen was so upset that she could hardly speak. Tears welled up in her eyes. She covered her nose and mouth with a tissue and sobbed for a long time before she spoke again.

“When I rushed to New Jersey, Yun Heng was lying on the bed in his small apartment. He was so skinny that he didn’t even react when he saw me.”

“You don’t know how much my heart hurts. I sat beside him and held his warm hand in my own. But his hand was so cold. No matter how I held it, his hand couldn’t warm up.”

“Yun Heng was too stupid. He was really too stupid.” Gu Chenchen couldn’t hold back her tears when she spoke of the depths of her love. Her voice was choked with sobs. “that woman who loves vanity, that woman who covets wealth and wealth, is also worthy of him being so sad and sad. She didn’t even eat or drink for a few days, and in the end, she even gave herself a stomach ache.”

Fang Xiao originally did not plan to listen to what Gu Chenchen said, but this woman kept talking. She even talked about New Jersey five years ago and the situation after she and Xi Lingheng broke up.

She did not know how exaggerated Gu Chenchen’s words were, but when Gu Chenchen said that Xi Lingheng did not eat or drink for a few days and nights, that he was cold and had no temperature, she admitted that her heart hurt. It was as though a sharp blade had pierced into her chest, causing her to almost suffocate in that instant.

Those days, after parting with Xi Lingheng, she had left in a hurry back then. She had not even gone to inquire about what would happen to him in the future, or to think about how he would return to his apartment in that world of ice and snow.

Shi Guang had walked so far, and the story between her and him was now being brought up by his fiancée. It was undoubtedly to tell her that many things would pass by in the past, and that time could not be reversed, and that she and he would not be able to start over.

“Five years ago, New Jersey was so cold. Yun Heng and I were living in that tiny apartment of his. He refused to eat, and I fed him with a spoon without eating. In the end, I had no choice but to feed him with my mouth, letting him eat something. Otherwise, he would have died

“and his body was so cold that there was no warmth. In the end, I could only disregard the differences between men and women and climb onto his bed by myself, using my body to warm his body...”

Gu Chenchen paused for a moment. Then, she took a deep breath and said, “Miss Fang, you may look down on me, but I love him so much. I won’t allow him to die because of another woman. And that vicious woman, I will never let her return to Yun Heng’s side.”

Chapter 1918: help me buy a pair of shoes

Fang Xiao smiled bitterly when she heard Gu Chenchen’s words. After a long while, she said indifferently, “Miss Gu, why would I look down on you? You are so great. To be able to rush over at the most painful and helpless moment for the man you love, and to be able to take care of him in such a way, I think he will definitely be very touched. He will definitely repay you with a deeper and truer love.”

Fang Xiao stood up when she said this. She picked up the cup of coffee in front of her that had long been cold and brought it to her mouth. She drank it in one gulp until it was finished, until the bitter taste came from her mouth. Only then did she remember that she had not added milk and sugar to the coffee.

She put down the coffee cup and looked at Gu Chenchen. “Miss Gu, if you have finished your story, I will go back. In addition, I wish you and Mr. Dongfang a happy life. You will grow old together and will be together forever!”

After saying this, Fang Xiao turned around and walked towards the entrance of the Starbucks. She had nothing more to say to Gu Chenchen. She also knew the purpose of Gu Chenchen looking for her today.

She would not stay by Dongfang Yunheng’s side. She had less than two weeks left, and she had already found a job. Once the deadline was up, she would leave immediately.

However, just as she walked out of the Starbucks and turned in the direction of the large shopping mall, she passed by a cold drink shop and met a girl who walked out of the door. She instinctively felt that the girl was somewhat familiar. However, she could not remember where she had seen her before.

The girl clearly saw her and actually turned around to smile at her. It was precisely because the girl turned around that she was at the bottom of the stairs, so her body was unstable and she twisted her foot.

Fang Xiao almost instinctively stopped in her tracks. The young girl's face was already showing a trace of pain. When she saw her, she could not help but shout, "Miss, can you do me a favor? "

"What favor? " Fang Xiao still walked over and squatted down to look at her foot. To be honest, it was not serious. It was just a little red, not even swollen.

"My shoes are broken. " The young girl pointed at her sandals Then, she muttered to herself, "I just wore this pair of shoes today. Just now, I sprained my foot, and it actually broke off. The things on the Internet are indeed very watery. "

Fang Xiao could not help but laugh when she heard the girl's words. Looking at the sandals on her feet, she guessed that she had bought them online Thus, she indifferently added, "shoes are still not suitable for online shopping. You can only buy them after trying them on in a physical store. The Internet talks about it in all sorts of ways, but it's useless no matter how cheap they are when you buy them. "

"Yes, yes, yes. " The girl immediately echoed her words and then said pitifully to her, "look, my shoes are broken. Can you help me buy a pair of shoes? I forgot to ask my mother for money when I went out today. "

Fang Xiao frowned when she heard the girl's words. To be honest, such a pair of shoes, even if they were not real leather, would probably cost more than a hundred. And she was not familiar with this girl.

"I will return the money for the shoes to you in the future. " The girl saw her hesitation She immediately covered her feet with her hands and said, "If I don't buy a pair of the same shoes, my mom will know that my shoes are broken after only wearing them for a day. She will definitely not let me shop online in the future, and she will even stop my Internet connection.

Chapter 1919 you will marry a good husband

Fang Xiao saw how pitiful the girl sounded and finally nodded. She pointed at a shoe store diagonally across the street and said, "let's go to that shoe store and see if they have shoes like yours. "

"Okay. " The girl immediately became happy. She lifted her feet and was about to walk, but her shoes were rotten and she could not walk. So she looked at Fang Xiao with a bitter face.

"I can't carry you, " Fang Xiao said almost instinctively. Although this girl still looked like a girl, she was taller than her. It would be strange if she could carry her.

The young girl looked at her and nodded. Then, she said sympathetically, "that's true. You're so short. You're not even 170, right? I'm 175. It would be strange if you could carry me. "

Fang Xiao was so angry that she was speechless. This girl couldn't be bored to mock her for being short, right But what did her short stature have to do with this girl?

“Take off one of your shoes and give it to me. I’ll go over and buy a pair for you.” Fang Xiao didn’t want to be entangled with this girl anymore. Then, she said indifferently, “I’ll leave my card number with you later. When you go back, just transfer the money for this pair of shoes to my card.”

The girl nodded and immediately took off the broken shoe and handed it to her. At the same time, she also said, “you’re such a good person. You’ll definitely be able to marry a good husband in the future.”

“I’m already divorced,” Fang Xiao replied indifferently when she took the shoe.

“Oh... I’m sorry.” The girl didn’t expect that her words would hit Fang Xiao’s sore spot. Then, she quickly added, “I’m talking about you in the future. You’ll definitely be able to find a good husband when you get married for the second time.”

The corner of Fang Xiao’s mouth twitched instinctively, but she stopped chewing. She took the girl’s sandals and walked towards the fashion shoe store opposite the shoes, hoping to find a pair of identical shoes.

Because Fang Xiao had been walking seriously without turning back, she did not notice the meaningful smile on the girl’s face.

The girl’s sandals were fashion shoes. The style was novel, but because they were not branded or limited edition, they were usually available in the shoe stores on the street. Fang Xiao quickly bought a pair of identical shoes for her.

When Fang Xiao returned with the pair of shoes, the girl was already sitting on the steps eating popsicles. She frowned instinctively. Didn’t the girl say that she didn’t have money? Where did she get popsicles from?

The girl saw her frown and explained indifferently, “I only have three yuan left on me. I bought this popsicle with one yuan and left two yuan for the bus back later.”

However, Fang Xiao did not criticize the girl’s behavior. After she handed the shoes to the girl, she took out a notepad and pen from her bag and quickly wrote her card number on the NOTEPAD.

“here, transfer the money for the shoes to my card when you go back.” Fang Xiao saw that the girl had already changed into the shoes, and then she added lightly, “the shoes are 98 yuan. Don’t transfer too much to me.”

“98 yuan? That’s so cheap?” The girl was obviously shocked when she heard her words. Seeing that she nodded, she could not help but lower her head and say, “I even bought them online for 115 yuan.”

Fang Xiao did not comment on the girl’s words. There were some things on the Internet that were cheaper than physical stores, but it did not mean that all of them were cheaper than physical stores. Occasionally, buying an item that was more expensive than physical stores was not something new.

Chapter 1920, familiar words

“Then I’ll take my leave first. You don’t have anything else to help me with, do you?” Fang Xiao saw the young girl trying to take two steps with her shoes on, so she asked indifferently.

“I don’t have anything else.” The young girl had a sweet smile on her face. Seeing that Fang Xiao was about to turn around.. She couldn’t help but say, “I used to think that you were just a woman who lost her gold and picked up the coal. Now I think that you are actually a very pragmatic and not hypocritical woman.”

Lost her gold and picked up the coal Fang Xiao was instinctively stunned. She felt that these words were familiar. She thought for a moment before she said it. It seemed like Dongfang Yunheng had brought her to attend some child’s full moon banquet. ...

No wonder she felt that this girl looked familiar. So it was the girl from that night. She was... ..

Fang Xiao was about to ask the girl what she meant by being here today, but when she looked up, the girl had already drifted far away and was not within her range of calling out to her.

Fang Xiao thought that meeting the young girl should be an accident. After all, the young girl was not familiar with her. Even though she had seen her at Dongfang Yunheng’s friend’s birthday party, they were still not familiar.

As for the money for the pair of shoes, it was only 98 yuan. She believed that the young girl would return it to her. After all, the young girls who could appear at such a party must be the children of rich families.

Of course, even if the young girl did not return it to her, it would only be 98 yuan. Although she was very poor, she could still afford to lose 98 yuan. 98 Yuan was gone, and it was not to the extent of leaving her with no way out.

This was her last day of vacation. Her mood, which she had originally wanted to buy vegetables and cook, had long been ruined because she met Gu Chenchen and the girl. Therefore, after the girl left, she did not return to the big shopping mall.

It was still early. She thought that she should go to the school to see her brother. After all, his last birthday was not good because he met Qiu Yitang, so she wanted to go and see him again today. Maybe her brother did not need to train today.

However, when she took the bus to the special school, she found out that her brother was not in school. Instead, he went to city g with the school’s basketball team to play a game. He even said that he would not come back until tomorrow.

“We have high hopes for this child, Fang Chen,” the principal said to Fang Xiao. “His iq is indeed not high. He is below 80, which means that he does not meet the standards of a normal person. However, his physical development, especially his sprinting and jumping, is much better than a normal person. Therefore, we are currently contacting the regular basketball team to see if we can transfer him to the regular Bincheng Youth Basketball Reserve team.”

“thank you.” When Fang Xiao heard the principal say this, she was immediately moved Her voice trembled because of her excitement. “thank you, principal. If I can let Fang Chen have a better development, I will work hard. Even if the expenses are higher, I will work hard to earn it.”

“Hehehe, it’s good that Fang Chen has a sister like you, ” the principal couldn’t help but laugh when she heard Fang Xiao’s words Then she said to her, “Oh right, we were just about to inform you. Because Fang Chen is a special student in our school, we are prepared to reduce his tuition fees. If he can officially join Binhai City’s Youth Basketball Reserve team, then he won’t have to pay tuition fees in the future. Moreover, he can receive a certain amount of living expenses every month. “

The principal paused for a moment, then looked at Fang Xiao and said, “so, you don’t have to work so hard in the future. Of course, Fang Chen still can’t do without your care and encouragement. You still have to come to the school more often to see him and chat with him more. “
