

Divorce 2211

Chapter 2211

Shang Qian's voice

Ningzhi paused and sighed:

"I'm not worried about my past being known, did I do anything wrong, there's nothing shameful, so if this kind of thing happens again in the future, don't worry, I don't dare to resist.

But it shouldn't be in the future.

After this time, our relationship should be officially exposed. It seems that I will wear a hat and a mask when I go out, just like you. The most important thing is that someone will stare at them in the future, and if there is any sign, it will become the vane of their marriage failure.

Su Qi touched her head:

"My little knower, I've made you feel wronged."

...

Su Nan got on the plane anyway.

Not only Su Nan, but also Chang Li, Rong Yi and Yu Lou.

And Su Qi.

Su Qi was still thrown by Su Nan's side, and he had to go.

Especially these two days are happy, Ning Zhi is also blowing pillow wind, let him follow to take care of Su Nan.

Said that the children and the little fish had to follow.

Su Yifeng suggested that there is their villa there anyway, so it's not that there is no place to live, so let's go there and relax together.

So I brought talk and Xiaoyuer.

When they got to the villa, they said that they wanted to play hide-and-seek with Xiaoyuer.

But no one has the energy to accompany him.

Fortunately, the housekeeper and servants in the villa prepared everything for them very thoughtfully, which is very worry-free.

Su Nan called Su Jin in the study to discuss this private reception.

Although the invitations were obtained, the identities of other VIPs present were kept confidential.

She wasn't sure how difficult it would be to bring in the program.

But before that, there are still a few days left.

Su Nan directly took the talk that the child went to a university.

Little Mike went directly to school here. This is a prestigious school with a long history and the best school for his favorite major.

After receiving a call from Su Nan, Little Mike hurriedly rode his bicycle out of the inside. He was stunned when he looked at them, and then ran over to hug him excitedly:

“Pretty sister!” The novel says that he was very pleasantly surprised to see Little Mike. Clap your hands and let him hug you.

Little Mike also squeezed her cheek happily, and then picked her up, looking very happy:

“Tell me about my sister, do you miss my brother?”

“I miss my brother...”

Said very much. Nodding to the face.

Little Mike’s joy was undisguised.

He is already at the age of a teenager, but the childishness in his eyebrows has not taken off, and there is always an air of youth that cannot be concealed. In this school, it is harmonious and beautiful.

“Sister, forget it, Daddy wants to scold me again, why didn’t he come?”

Little Mike didn’t want to pay attention to the name, but he was also pleasantly surprised to see his relatives in a foreign country.

Su Nan smiled: “I’m here to talk about business, and I’ll see you by the way. Can you keep up in school?”

He is the youngest, but he should not be underestimated.

Coincidentally, his idol is Su Ming. Although he has never met him, he has always regarded him as a great god!

“Small idea, why don’t I take you to go shopping?”

Su Nan raised an eyebrow and nodded:

“Okay.”

She looked at it and said, giving a wink.

Talking about the child receiving it, she immediately got off him softly and cutely: “Brother, I’m going by myself, I’m afraid I’ll be tired of you!”

She also touched her brother’s little hand, as if she was tired from holding her just now.

Little Mike smiled, and he sat on the back of the bicycle and tidied up her little skirt.

“Where’s Xiao Yu’er, where do you get that follower?” The two children are inseparable, why is there only one left?

Talking about the child, he curled his lips: “Don’t take him!”

Su Nan smiled: “Xiaoyuer’s daddy and mommy are here on business trips, and just sent him over to reunite.”

Little Mike clicked: “So Coincidence?”

Su Nan was wearing a casual beige dress and a beautiful hat, looking youthful and bright.

In this campus, it seems to have become a unique landscape that cannot be removed from the eyes.

Little Mike took a few more glances, but it was a little different.

He has long regarded her as his family.

Those embarrassing things in the past seem to have become the catalyst for Shang Qian to pursue her.

To be honest, if it wasn’t for him, Shang Qian might not have caught Su Nan so smoothly.

It’s just that he realized it was too late!

The wood is done.

Whether he became a family member, the mummy he dreamed of was like this, it could be either mummy or sister.

It can’t be someone else anyway.

Only this time, I felt that Su Nan’s expression was a little sad.

“Where’s Daddy? Sister, is he too busy to see me?”

Little Mike said aggrieved.

Su Nan paused, glanced at him, smiled, but her eyes turned red.

He just looked back and talked about the little boy, opened his mouth and closed it again.

But at this time, the little friend reached out and revealed her phone watch:

“Brother, Daddy is here!”

She clicked and dialed a number, and soon, the phone was connected.

Shang Qian’s voice came:

“Tell me about baby?” The familiar warmth and softness.

“Daddy, brother and talk about missing Daddy!”

Said the little boy happily, then raised his hand and asked little Mike to talk to Daddy too.

Little Mike was about to speak, when he saw the number on it, he paused slightly.

His smile faded slowly.

His eyes changed from surprise to surprise, and then slowly calmed down.

He touched the child's arm and said, "Brother doesn't want Daddy, did you tell Daddy to come here?"
The

child nodded and said happily to the phone,

"Let's see brother, brother is very happy. Those who are obedient are also very obedient when they talk, but Xiaoyuer is not obedient!"

The voice in the watch was familiar and brisk, and he smiled:

"Tell me that the children are the best!"

There was no difference in the tone of voice.

But it still made little Mike feel a chill.

He looked at Su Nan.

full of doubts.

Su Nan took little Mike out of the car:

"Go play for a while, don't run too far, will you be back in ten minutes?"

Said the child with a happy smile, "Okay!"

She couldn't stay still for a long time. , I wish the freedom to run around on my own.

Once on the ground, she was like a butterfly that couldn't be caught, and ran away without a trace.

This is the school, and Chang Li is watching from not far away, so there will be no problem.

A sycamore tree in the distance, tall and sturdy, seems to have a history of hundreds of years.

Under the tree is a thick layer of fallen leaves, and the wildness is beautiful.

It seems that everywhere you look, there are beautiful scenery.

"Auntie, I don't understand. It's not a person who is talking to my sister, is it the code of a machine?"

That's what he's in contact with now, and the voice in his sister's watch can easily be faked.

As soon as he saw the number on his phone, he knew it was fake.

But say I don't know.

She was still very surprised to share her happiness with her daddy!

But if Shang Qian is all right and safe, why use a fake one?

Chapter 2212

The Kindness of Others

Little Mike's face turned pale, and his beautiful blue eyes were full of panic.

"Where's Daddy?"

Su Nan took a deep breath.

Do your best to suppress the emotions that are surging in your heart.

She paused and said calmly:

"Little Mike, you should have heard of the earthquake in China some time ago, right? We happened to experience that earthquake, and Shang Qian... didn't find it."

Little Mike's face instantly pale.

He stood there, very shocked.

Su Nan took a deep breath, "Mike, I'm here to tell you this because I don't want to hide anything from you. If you can't get in touch with him, you'll be suspicious, so I want to tell you in person.

You are a strong man. Child, no matter where he is, he hopes you can grow up healthily, he has paved your way for you, and he loves you no less than anyone else.

Mike, we are all your family, You can tell me anything you have, and I will take care of you like your daddy."

Mike's face changed a few times, and the sadness in his eyes was about to overflow:

"How could it be? Is it fake? ?"

Su Nan's calm expression contained a bit of sadness.

She pulled the corners of her lips:

"I hope it's fake more than anyone else!"

But unfortunately, it's real, it's not a dream.

Mike stood there silently, unable to hide his pained expression.

He was brought up by Shang Qian. Even if he didn't have time, he took care of him a little bit, but he stumbled and grew up with his eyes full of love.

Shang Qian gently spoiled him when he was a child, and disciplined him strictly when he grew up. This is his love.

Even if he knew that he was not Shang Qian's biological son, he did not become alienated.

Shang Qian has always been actively involved in his growth.

Even if Shang Qian got married and had his own daughter, he never regarded him as an outsider.

His existence has never been in an awkward position.

Su Nan walked over, touched his hair, and gently hugged his shoulder:

“Mike, we are a family, we will never leave you behind.”

Little Mike’s tears fell, she could I could feel my shoulders getting wet.

My heart is also as uncomfortable as being slashed by a sharp weapon.

It’s just that this kind of grief is too familiar to her, and she has gradually come out.

But Mike was just facing it.

Accidents always come and take away the important things you thought would be with you in your life.

So she learned to cherish the people around her.

“Mummy, brother...”

Said that the little child ran over from a distance with a small skirt.

Her carefree appearance is really easy to infect the people around her.

Little Mike took a deep breath and quickly wiped away his tears.

Su Nan paused for a while before speaking: “She doesn’t know anything, she always wanted daddy at first, no way, there is a little tiger at home who can imitate other people’s voices.”

Mike nodded: “Hold it first Come on, tell me that my sister is too young.”

How could she be allowed to face such a cruel thing?

Su Nan smiled and remembered one thing:

“By the way, I heard before that your aunt wanted to come and recognize you, what did you think?”

Little Mike was silent for a few seconds:

“Daddy disagrees, let me concentrate on school.”

Su Nan nodded: “I’m ahead of schedule . I understand that the family’s background is not pure, it is very complicated, and it is difficult for you to face it alone, so let’s listen to your daddy for now.”

Little Mike nodded.

Su Nan sighed.

Said that the child had arrived, and she held a delicate rose in her hand and handed it to little Mike:

“Brother, for you...”

Little Mike paused, “Who will give it to you? What?” The little boy turned around and pointed to the person behind him:

“He...”

Little Mike and Su Nan looked over.

Immediately.

Su Nan’s expression became complicated.

The visitor was wearing an English-style suit, with a straight body and clear facial features, and he came to him full of aura.

“It’s such a coincidence, Su Nan?”

Su Nan raised her eyes and glanced at Fu Yechuan, her tone was neither cold nor indifferent:

The mood just now was inexplicably blocked, she could not wait Get out of here now.

Fu Yechuan had a faint smile on his face, and his gestures were a little less cold.

It’s a bit more...soft and gentle.

This feeling is very strange to him.

The two auras were mixed, as if he was deliberately restraining his indifference and depression.

Little Mike looked at him and suddenly said:

“I remembered, a mysterious person who donated supplies came out from the school a few days ago, couldn’t it be you?”

Fu Yechuan raised his eyebrows, “It’s me, Mike, don’t worry about thanking me, it’s all for the sake of education. share.”

He came a few days in advance.

In order to avoid meeting Su Nan deliberately and rigidly, she deliberately came to Mike’s school where she would definitely come to donate.

Only had the opportunity to meet today.

Such a complicated meeting in circles, he really exhausted his brains and his financial resources.

Hearing the words, Little Mike chuckled:

“Fu is always from country Z, trying his best for education abroad? Of course I have to thank you for cultivating so many talents abroad!”

Fu Yechuan’s face froze slightly.

Su Nan laughed softly, with a bit of mockery.

But the next second.

Fu Yechuan glanced at him calmly and smiled:

“Mike thinks too much, all my money is donated to the foundation that supports people in Z country to go to school, foreign students can’t enjoy it, don’t worry, every penny counts. It was spent on the blade!”

Little Mike rolled his eyes, snorted coldly, and went over to pick up his sister and put them in the back of the car.

“Sister, would you like to take you for a ride?”

Said the little friend dancing happily: “Okay!”

Su Nan smiled: “Mike, it’s getting late, why don’t you go back to the villa for dinner with me, your third uncle is also there.”

Little Mike agreed at once:

“Okay, but let’s walk around with my little sister first before leaving!”

Saying that the little girl was so happy and excited, he really couldn’t bear to take her away like this.

She should have fun anyway!

Su Nan nodded and could only agree.

She didn’t even look at Fu Yechuan, and went to sit on the steps beside her.

Fu Yechuan took off his coat first and put her on the ground.

Su Nan’s movements froze, and he slowly stood up straight.

She glanced at Fu Yechuan meaningfully, then picked up the clothes and handed them to him:

“Mr. Fu, you should leave your gentleman’s demeanor to others, I don’t need it.”

Fu Yechuan’s face tightened, and his eyes narrowed. Followed a little deeper.

He put his clothes on his arms and asked her lightly:

“Su Nan, I don’t deny that I am courting you, but as an ordinary friend, is it so difficult to accept the kindness of others?”

Chapter 2213

requires my father

to listen to Fu Yechuan’s words.

The air in his ears seemed to stagnate for a moment.

It’s just that she thought for a second lightly, and found that she had no fluctuations or feelings in her heart.

No emotion, no shock, no regrets and regrets.

Nothing works.

It's like facing a stranger.

She raised her head and looked at Fu Yechuan's face.

It's familiar, but it doesn't feel like it.

She twitched the corners of her mouth, and her voice was as slow as the wind:

"Fu Yechuan, it is because I saw your good intentions that I refused your hospitality. Do you understand what I said?"

Fu Yechuan's eyes narrowed fiercely. For a moment.

He frowned, and his facial features were as delicate as knife cuts, but at this time, there was a bit of resentment and incomprehension in his eyebrows:

"Why? He's gone, I can understand that you can't get over it for a while, but it can't be forever. That 's all.

Since you can get out of your pain, you can naturally get out of your feelings for him, right?"

Su Nan looked at him, his tone became a little cold:

"No, he will never be able to get rid of me He came out of his heart, and I never left the pain behind. I just paused the pain, not forgetting.

I love him, and of course I can't forget it for a moment.

Even if I fall in love with someone again one day, I will definitely Only when Shang Qian stands in front of me will I fall in love."

It was Shang Qian's appearance that made every emotion she gave a tenfold response.

What makes her feel is the warmth and kindness all the time, as well as the irreplaceable sense of security.

No one in this world could make her feel the same way.

The injury she suffered in Fu Yechuan had healed long ago and was intact.

The feeling of being loved is already so abundant, how can she see other people's selfishness?

Fu Yechuan's expression became stiff every inch.

There was a deep suppressed emotion in his eyes, as if he was injured.

"You... also loved me that much?" In those three years, he didn't respond to her feelings.

Three years later, every day is torture.

He wanted to recall this beauty again, but couldn't find a trace of it.

She has given all her love to another person.

Su Nan looked directly at him, his expression did not fluctuate in the slightest:

"No, it's different. Fu Yechuan, before Shang Qian and I were together, I thought that my love for you was a passion and love, but it's not like that. Maybe it's more of my unwillingness.

I knew you didn't like me at the beginning, but it was my wishful thinking to force you to marry me.

Later, the marriage ended bleak and I felt that you were sorry for me, but in fact you just looked down on me

Those three years are very important to me, but they are nothing to you. Speaking of which, I kidnapped you a little bit.

But after I was with Shang Qian, I felt stupid before, that was not love, that is a kind of paranoid treatment of not being able to get feelings.

Shang Qian and I are together, that is love, every feeling we give will have a response, we will not ignore any changes in each other, we cherish together Every minute and every second will not feel wasted."

She said here, as if recalling something beautiful, and smiled with her head down.

She smiled, the profile was beautiful and delicate, and the light in the distance outlined her profile to be extra soft and beautiful.

It seemed to envelope her in a faint halo.

It was as if time stood still.

He stared at her quietly, his heart was already bleeding from the wound with the knife.

But he had to smile and listen to her calmly, she didn't love him.

This feeling is really painful.

She had already let go, but he could never let go.

It's really not fair.

Why is the time to fall in love wrong?

He lowered his eyes and chuckled lightly.

"What you said, there is no way to convince me, since Shang Qian can take advantage of the two of us to get in after the divorce, then there is nothing wrong with me.

Besides, you can't be alone forever, talk... It is also necessary A father, right?"

Su Nan frowned, her face sank slightly.

“Fu Yechuan, don’t you understand human language? I don’t seem to have given you such an illusion, right?”

She thought he should have let it go long ago.

But looking at the frequency of his appearance and the words he said, Su Nan was very disgusted now.

Especially during the time when Shang Qian was away, it was impossible for her to adapt to the existence of another man.

Fu Yechuan’s expression tightened. What he had already decided in his heart would not be easily changed.

What’s more, this is a good opportunity given to him by God.

He looked at her without changing his face, and said in a deep tone:

“You have the right to reject me, but I will not change my decision.

Su Nan, I will not let go of your hand easily this time.”

He stared at Su Nan affectionately, wishing to imprint her deeply in his heart.

He thought about a day, it’s been a long time.

Su Nan glanced at him indifferently, and it was difficult to hide some kind of impatience in his eyes.

Then she just turned her head away, raised her feet and left.

“Mike, let’s talk about it...”

she shouted, Mike slipped out of nowhere, and the car rode smoothly.

Talk about the children being amused and laughing.

Got into the car.

Mike didn’t look very good at her, and he couldn’t get his energy up because of Shang Qian’s affairs.

Thinking about that Fu Yechuan again, hehe, he probably didn’t have any good intentions.

At this time, it is really strange that Su Nan can pay more attention to him!

Su Nan was silent for a while, and noticed that the atmosphere in the car was a little heavy, so he found a topic:

“Mike, are you living far away from here? Do the bodyguards and nanny live with you? I need to find more for you. Personal?”

Mike smiled: “No need, Uncle Bodyguard and Susan have taken care of me since childhood. We are already like family, and it will be very uncomfortable to have one more person.

” He picked out that the bodyguard and Susan were orphans with no family background, but they worked neatly and took care of Mike very carefully.

Su Nan nodded and touched his head:

“In that time, stay with me. When we return to China, you can continue to live in the villa, or invite your classmates and friends to go on vacation.”

Mike was helpless . the smile:

“Sister, the homework assigned by Daddy is very busy. The apartment I live in is very good. I don’t need to move the place. The conditions are not bad at all. Don’t think that I live in a slum, you should know My economic strength.”

Su Nan was taken aback.

I suddenly remembered that when he was a child, he had done extraordinary things, and gold jewelry could be given away.

Indeed, she thought too much.

Mike achieved financial freedom from an early age.

Chapter 2214

The childhood sweetheart

Su Nan hooked the corner of his mouth, “Well, tell me what you need.”

Mike nodded, turned his head and began to tease and talk.

Su Nan looked at the rapidly changing scenery outside the window, and her heart was calm.

If only he was there.

If he was still in this world, he would definitely come back to her.

But when will he come back?

to the villa.

Said to be a villa, it is actually more like a castle, a Gothic-style building, with a sense of nobility and history.

The housekeeper stayed here to take care of the house, so he took good care of the surroundings.

It was said that the child took Mike’s hand and ran in, and the housekeeper immediately came out to greet him.

When Xiaoyuer saw that her sister was back, she ran over and hugged her excitedly.

Su Nan was stunned when he looked at Xiaoyuer:

“Xiaoyuer, weren’t you picked up by your parents? Are you coming back so soon?”

Xiaoyuer pouted in disappointment, scratched his head, and said white Bai Nennen’s little face had a pitiful look of grievance.

Yu Lou next to him coughed and came over to explain:

“I sent him over and met his parents, and they asked me to bring them back without even having a meal. They were so busy. , it’s still a matter of seconds before we meet...”

Su Nan was stunned for a moment.

Looking at the little fish sadly.

Although he didn’t hear Xiaoyuer’s homesickness during the time he lived in Su’s house, it didn’t mean he didn’t want to.

But she couldn’t say anything.

Su Nan walked over and touched Xiao Yu’er’s head, then said with a smile:

“Then our little fish will have a good time. We asked them to prepare your favorite cheese lobster for lunch. Would you like to take you out to play tomorrow?”

Originally, it was a rare time for children to come out, but she also planned to let them play. Happy to leave.

Xiao Yu’er’s eyes lit up, she smiled happily, and she nodded solemnly:

“Well, we want to go to the playground to watch a play.”

“Okay, then you are responsible for taking care of the children!”

“No problem. Mom!”

Xiao Yu’er’s heart is so sweet that no one needs to coax her, which is really endearing.

Talking about the children’s admiration for the big brother, they have been revolving around little Mike.

When little Mike went to the kitchen, she would follow him eagerly, like a little tail.

In the end, Xiaoyu’er used Ultraman’s robot to attract the talking children.

Xiaoyuer looked at it and said that the child was wearing a skirt for Ultraman.

Some can’t bear to look straight.

He pinched the talkie child’s face, which was soft and pouted and smiled:

“Tell me, do you want to go out to play tomorrow?” The talkie child nodded and looked at him expectantly.

Xiaoyuer pointed to his face, and said that the child immediately reacted and ran over to give him a kiss.

Yu Lou and Rong Yi on the side were stunned, they put down their work and watched this scene.

The feelings of childhood sweethearts are really sweet and sweet!

Sweet toothache!

Xiaoyuer reluctantly pointed to the face on the other side.

Motion for her to kiss again.

This trick is still learned from Shang Qian's father.

Really useful.

But talking about the children's patience, she was a little angry, thinking that Xiaoyu'er went back on her word.

The next second, she didn't kiss her, and slapped Xiao Yu'er on the other side of the face.

She snorted angrily, picked up the toy next to her and smashed it.

a time.

The warm atmosphere disappeared without a trace.

The two children switched to war mode.

To be precise, one hands-on, the other beaten.

Yu Lou and Rong Yi looked at each other for a second.

Oh, childhood sweethearts' feelings are also a bit sour.

Sweet and sour!

Little Mike came back from upstairs and was shocked to see the two fighting.

Su Nan had become accustomed to it, and asked little Mike to wash his hands:

"It's alright, they are still good friends after the fight."

After all, neither of the two children hold grudges, and they can be forgotten in a blink of an eye.

Yu Lou and Rong Yi were honored that they were not kicked out of the hotel.

There is nothing else in the castle, there are many rooms.

So they enjoy being awake in a well-lit state.

The dense forest outside is lush, bringing the fragrance of wild grass.

Mike and Su Nan were playing tennis outside. The two of them changed into casual clothes and were sweating profusely.

Don't look at Mike's young age, but he grows fast, especially at this age, he can already see that his future appearance and height will not be bad.

Su Nan has not played for a long time, and is a little rusty. After losing several goals in a row, he was aroused by the desire to win.

The match between the two was in full swing.

By the time a few children woke up, it was already afternoon.

Su Nan and Mike also rested.

Go downstairs.

The housekeeper passed on Su Qi's words:

"Miss Su, Third Young Master goes out to meet a friend, he will meet you directly on the cruise."

Su Nan nodded.

Rong Yi is going to take Su Nan to deal with Shang Qian's investment project here.

So in the afternoon, I asked Mike and Yu Lou to stay and talk with Xiaoyuer.

There are local buildings with unique style on the street, and it can be seen that the pace of life of the people here is very slow.

Everyone pays more attention to enjoying life.

Su Nan was wearing a long gray dress, the scene was decorated with beautiful patterns, elegant and wild, which made the whole person cold and noble.

After getting out of the car, Rong Yi pointed to the high-rise building in front of him:

"Madam, the owner of this building is the General Manager of Commerce, but it has been rented to many companies, one of which is a medical device company. Although it is small in size, its quality and reputation are high. They are all world-renowned."

Su Nan nodded, the results of this stage of project venture capital have already come out, in fact, if there is no problem, just follow the investment in the second stage.

But Rong Yi specially pulled her over to introduce him, not knowing what to do.

She followed her in, and sure enough, this brand was well-received all over the world.

She glanced at Rong Yi.

Rong Yi pursed his lips and said with a solemn expression:

"The procedures for other projects are actually easy to handle, but this company, because it was a family business before, and Europeans place great importance on the inheritance of their own business, businessmen always spend a lot of money. It took a lot of effort to invest the money, but recently they want to use their own power to squeeze out the total share of the business."

When other people got on the elevator, Rong Yi could only lower his voice and continued in Chinese:

"So they have not put into production the next batch of products, and the advertising slogan they advertised is to support the pure European economy."

This is to use external force to directly let Shang Qian retire?

Su Nan immediately understood: "I see, does this mean that you will smash the pot after eating?"

Rong Yi said that his description of her was very appropriate.

"That's right, that's what it means."

Su Nan clicked his tongue, "Then withdraw, why do you have to throw in?"

Rong Yi glanced at her and explained in a low voice,

"According to the contract, if we become Shareholders, then all the theater products of this medical device will be sold in the country at cost price.

You must know that before we invest, the circulation of these products is completely avoided in country Z. If we want to introduce products in China, we can only pass Other channels are imported from other countries, so our cost and tariffs add up to nearly ten times the cost price."

Chapter 2215

accommodate her world

Su Nan fell silent, her heart sank slightly.

No wonder Rong Yi deliberately pulled her over. "Ma'am, if Mr. Shang is here, it may be possible to restrain them, but they don't know how to know the news of Mr. Shang's accident, so they start to make trouble."

It's easy, but the price to pay later is a bit high.

This is also the reason why Shang Qian took great pains to get this project.

Just in order to introduce domestic products, they can be easy to use and cheap, and at least ordinary people who need them can afford them.

Su Nan blinked, unable to express his feelings.

Shang Qian, who is not a prostitute or a businessman, will also go to great troubles for his sincere heart.

She had learned a lot from it before, and this time she refreshed her horizons again.

I have a feeling of admiration for him in my heart, he has never said this.

Perhaps in his opinion, it is really a trivial matter that is not worth mentioning!

The elevator arrived and everyone got down.

Rong Yi: "We're still upstairs."

Su Nan nodded and looked at him: "When did this happen?"

Rong Yi thought for a while: "I'm marrying you soon."

Rong Yi sighed, smiled casually: "Actually, he and the business manager I know are completely different. When I met him, he was in country M, but he had a great insight into the affairs of various countries.

Although it is important, it is not the most important, because there are many restrictions on domestic investment in foreign countries.

But after being with you, he almost forgot that he was an unbelieving businessman. He read newspapers with Su Dong every day, cared about the domestic market conditions, and regarded himself as a responsible entrepreneur. I thought it was an out-and-out Z country! “

He said that, but Su Nan’s heart trembled slightly when he said it. The tip of his heart seemed to be brushed by a feather, and the feeling was sour and sour, and he wanted to cry.

Now is not the time.

When she didn’t know, he slowed down. Change yourself slowly and let him gradually get closer to her pace.

She never thought if he would be uncomfortable or unhappy.

Because he doesn’t bother her with these things every day, these are just them together It is just one of the difficulties that must be overcome. When she thinks of this now, she suddenly feels very sad and feels like she has been pulled by someone.

Of course she enjoys his thoughtful and tender care, but she has never given the same care.

She She ‘s really not a qualified lover.

And it’s too late to know. If she had known earlier, she would have loved him more than before.

But now, what’s the use of talking about it? The elevator is here.

Rong Yi brings He walked out with Su Nan and watched the front desk of the company standing there looking at them politely.

“Excuse me, do you two have an appointment? Rong Yi stepped forward: “

This is Shang Qian’s wife, the current shareholder of your company, I have already greeted Zerke in advance. “The front desk paused and looked down at the message:

“Please wait.” “

After a while, a foreigner in a suit came out:

“Mrs. Shang, please come in...”

When he saw Su Nan, there was a flash of surprise in his eyes, but he quickly subsided.

Rong Yi glanced at Su Nan and nodded.

Although Su Nan only knew the ins and outs of the matter, but he had some idea in his heart.

According to her experience in doing business abroad, it is not good for a thing to be delayed for too long and too complicated.

This is not the same as the way in the country.

People from abroad pay attention to efficiency and results.

Su Nan calmly followed and walked over, not the office, but a casual cafe for employees.

Not everyone is drinking coffee, and some people are working with laptops in front of them, and they don't want to waste a minute.

Rong Yi took her to the seat by the window, where a foreigner with a beard was sitting.

"Madam, that's Jerke, the company's president." Rong Yi said in a low voice.

Watching them come over, especially when he saw Su Nan, his eyes were slightly stunned, with some scrutiny and appreciation:

"Mrs. Shang, it's an honor to meet you." The one with open arms was about to hug and kiss her.

Su Nan was very familiar with this kind of western etiquette, but when she met the other person's eyes, she felt uncomfortable for some reason, so she took the initiative to reach out.

"Hello."

Jerke was stunned for a moment, then smiled and shook hands:

"Oriental woman, restrained, I understand." Su Nan twitched the corners of his mouth, smiling but not smiling

She simply felt that Czerk had bad intentions.

Rong Yi went over to say hello, Zerke obviously knew him, and reached out for the two of them to sit down.

Then, he beckoned for the waiter.

"What should Mrs. Shang drink?"

Su Nan: "Latte, thank you."

Zelke looked at her with admiration and enthusiasm of Chi Guoguo, without concealing:

"I have seen Mrs. Shang before. The most beautiful woman in country Z, she is so beautiful!"

"Thank you."

Su Nan nodded lightly.

But Rong Yi's face turned green on the side, isn't that bullying President Shang?

He was a little regretful that he had stirred Su Nan in.

After a while, the coffee came, and Czech's secretary came with the documents.

Zerke glanced at Su Nan meaningfully, and then put the document in front of her:

"We regret the matter of President Shang. I have always respected President Shang, but it has already happened, please Mrs. Shang's condolences. Let's go with the change.

Since President Shang has left, please ask the wife to sign this document. We want to redeem the shares in the hands of President Shang, which is also the decision of our board of directors."

Su Nan looked at the document in front of him and opened it. .

She was carefully reading every clause, but this contract was meant to fool laymen.

Many of the clauses are taking advantage and picking up loopholes, and people who know it can see that there is a problem at a glance.

"Mrs. Shang, the amount we gave is the real-time price of the current stock price, and it is also more than double the original investment by the total businessman. In fact, the general businessman has already made enough money. I think the next company of our country F will let us do it ourselves. It's better to do business."

There was a bit of arrogance in Jerke's expression.

He thought that Shang Qian married her because of her beauty. Shang Qian never took her to these occasions, which showed that she knew nothing about these shopping malls.

Once Shang Qian died, he could take back what belonged to him, and he would no longer have to be controlled by Shang Qian.

Because country Z is indeed a big market, he exports to country Z through channels from other countries, and the profit he gets is several times the profit, not just a cost price.

He wanted to swallow this big piece of fat too much, so he couldn't wait.

Su Nan watched for a long time, and Jerke became impatient:

"Mrs. Shang, if you don't understand, you might as well ask the assistant next to you to help, just sign it, don't worry too much, we all cooperate It's been so long, how can I cheat on you?"

Chapter 2216

Rong Yi frowned: "Zerke, how can our wife not understand? She is the president of the Su Group, not a housewife who doesn't understand anything. She is usually a lawyer. I have to read the documents word by word, so I'm in a hurry after only a few minutes?"

Jerke's face changed slightly, as if he didn't understand:

“What? Who is she?”

He asked again in disbelief once again.

Seeing that Su Nan had no reaction or opinion, Rong Yi repeated her identity again.

Zerke’s expression suddenly became solemn. He looked at Su Nan solemnly, and there was no longer that frivolous look in his eyes.

“President Su?”

He muttered, “Several hospitals under the Su Group are very popular with us, and we would also like to cooperate with Su’s hospitals. If our products can... .”

Su Nan raised his hand, interrupted him, put the document on the table, with an indifferent smile:

“Let’s talk about the cooperation with the Su family, we are one yard, I am I’m here for Shang Qian. I don’t think your document is suitable, and according to your country’s industry norms, we need to agree to sell shares.

Now I officially inform you that Shang Qian and I do not agree with this. As for the matter, he is not here. Naturally, I have the final say. There is no doubt about that.”

“Mr. Su, but the board of directors has unanimously approved it...”

“We are the second largest shareholder, and we did not attend the general meeting of shareholders. , I can’t pass any documents of more than real significance.”

Su Nan said lightly, she took a sip of coffee and pursed her lips:

“Jerke, I don’t think we will lose even if we go through legal procedures. Right?”

Although their country has relative protection measures.

But to a certain extent, once the legal process is gone, the image of the entire company is bound to be exposed to the public.

They pretend that they are pure European blood, but in fact they are not, which is a bit of deceiving consumers.

And in fact, the longer the pull time, the only delaying the opportunity for their products to go online.

It is impossible for them to completely ignore the cost of this time.

Now, it’s just a mental battle with each other.

But after Jerke knew Su Nan’s identity, he didn’t dare to despise him any more.

Therefore, taking a document to fool people is more like a ridiculous evidence at this time, and it makes people blush in front of them.

“Sorry, Mr. Su, it was my misconception, but it is my old father’s last wish to get this share back. He has not had a few days. When Mr. Shang bought the shares from him, he always felt in his heart. Guilt.

My family's business has been around for hundreds of years, and I hope to get the shares back and return to the family before my father's death."

Jerke's attitude at this moment was much more modest and cautious than just now.

Su Nan raised her head and glanced at him, and hooked her lips lightly:

"Zerke, I'm afraid we're going to break down this time, so why don't we just send a lawyer's letter next time." After speaking

, she stood up. .

Czerk didn't expect that it would be useless for him to say these things, and thought that the people of Z country were the most emotional.

In the end, she didn't have much empathy. She was going to leave before he said anything?

"Mr. Su, Mrs. Shang, I'm sorry, I apologize for my attitude just now. I don't know your true identity.

But about the shares, can you discuss it again? This is my father's dying wish... ."

Su Nan raised his eyelids, glanced at him, and smiled very gently:

"No, since it's your father's will, what does it have to do with me, I'm a businessman, not a philanthropist who helps others realize their dreams. , I think you know better than anyone else."

Jerke's face really couldn't hold back, it became too obvious.

Even Rong Yi swallowed his saliva.

After working with Shang Qian for a long time, Shang Qian's way of doing things is somewhat unpredictable.

But he rarely refuses so straightforwardly, even if he is angry, he will save some face on the scene.

But Su Nan is different. She is blunt, as if she is a teacher teaching students to do things.

So cool!

Especially seeing Zerke, who has always looked down on the people of Z country, is shriveled, it is very happy.

Su Nan hooked her lips, "Goodbye then."

As she said that, she raised her feet and was about to leave.

"Wait a minute, Mrs. Shang..."

Jerke's complexion changed, and he finally gritted his teeth and made up his mind:

"OK, if you really don't agree, there's nothing we can do, but I'm going to One makes another request."

If Su Nan is another identity, he may be able to delay the time, and he is confident that he can get his shares back.

But she is Su Nan. Several ZF joint hospitals built by the Su Group are the most famous international joint hospitals, and many medical achievements will be verified there.

Those who make medical devices want the opportunity to cooperate with these hospitals for a long time.

Now, he can only fight for the greatest rights.

“I hope you can facilitate our cooperation with ZF United Hospital so that our products can be used in your hospital.”

The channels that can open up the International United Hospital are not only in country F, but all over the country will sell their products.

In this way, their products can be improved to the next level.

Compared with the profit of going to the Z country, he is actually more optimistic about the benefits that the latter can bring.

Su Nan pursed his lips, as if thinking about this issue seriously.

Czerk looked nervously at this beautiful but calm woman.

During their conversation, Su Nan unknowingly led the theme.

He was completely unaware that this was actually a top-level business negotiation.

The reason why Su Nan was able to say those rejections in public was not euphemistic at all.

It was because of her confidence that she was allowed to do so.

She was not afraid to offend Czerk, because she had nothing to ask of him.

“Okay, I can say hello to the person in charge of the hospital, but I said in advance that we will only sell products that are beneficial to the hospital and patients. You can’t sell them aggressively. Let’s see how to talk about it when the time comes.

” Shangxi:

“Okay, thank you very much.”

Su Nan nodded and took out a business card from her bag:

“Just call the other party.”

This business card belongs to the person in charge of the hospital. She arrived at F. After the country, I left more preparations.

Now comes in handy.

Su Nan and Rong Yi left here, and Czech sent them downstairs enthusiastically.

Rong Yi was still immersed in Czerk’s changing mood:

“Is this the end? Will Czerk really not mention the issue of shares again?”

Su Nan raised his eyebrows, “No, this person is very skilled, and it’s ridiculous to even play emotional cards.”

Chapter 2217

Rong Yi, a familiar person, twitched the corners of his mouth and thought it was a little funny:

“You are not fooled by the fact that Zerke is not quite, and all those feelings that have been brewed are in vain.

But madam, why is he so Want to cooperate with United Hospital?”

Su Nan smiled and glanced out the window:

“The medical equipment that can be used in United Hospital is the most advanced in the world. This is a proof and an honor. Their The brand and quality are good, but compared with other world brands, it also takes strength to get ahead.”

Judging from his expression, I am afraid they have been looking for opportunities but can’t find them.

“So that’s it, fortunately you are here this time, otherwise it would be really tricky.”

Rong Yi touched his head and breathed a sigh of relief.

Su Nan’s victory in the first battle gave him a lot of confidence.

Su Nan was silent for a moment, then suddenly asked him,

“Do you have the list of other guests for the private dinner in two days?”

At least she needs to know who is going?

Knowing yourself and knowing your enemy can win a hundred battles.

Rong Yi: “I only know that the private dinner was set on a luxury cruise ship, and only ten people were invited to the core reception. The invitation card in your hand is one of them.

There are also interested world-class technology giants George and Lowe, yes. Now, there is one person who has a special identity, you should pay more attention, it is little Mike’s aunt, and I have no news of the rest.”

Su Nan frowned slightly:

“Little Mike’s aunt? What is she doing there?”

” Who knows? She may just be interested in the people at the reception, after all, she can eat both black and white now, and she only needs connections.”

Su Nan nodded.

“But there are also non-core cocktail parties. Some celebrities are invited, just for socializing. You can participate or not.”

After explaining, Rong Yi smiled:

“It’s quite lively there, why don’t you talk about it? Miss, let’s go and have a look?”

Su Nan frowned slightly, smiled, a little helpless:

“Let’s talk about it later, I’m afraid I can’t control her!” The two went to other places again, and it was late in the evening. Back to the villa.

Said that the child had thought of her all day, sullenly pounced on her and acted like a spoiled child.

Su Nan hugged her and said a few words, saying that the child immediately became happy.

Little Mike played with his two children all day, and was going back to school in the evening.

Su Nan originally wanted him to stay for a few more days, but he couldn’t let go of his schoolwork.

Yu Lou could only send him back.

It was said that when the little boy saw his brother was going to leave, he was even more saddened.

Xiao Yu’er folded her arms and watched coldly.

I feel very disdain to talk about children’s undignified prayers.

Disdain and jealousy!

soon.

He decided to let go of his dignity, ran to Mike’s other leg and hugged him, loudly calling out to his brother...

Little Mike sighed silently, how could these two slugs be so difficult to deal with?

Luckily, Su Nan picked one up in one hand and took them away.

After little Mike repeatedly promised to see them again, the two children reluctantly stood at the door and waved goodbye.

Like that, poor as hell.

Su Nan was preparing for Su Yifeng and the others to call to talk about the past two days.

But before going to the study, the housekeeper followed:

“Miss, there is a guest outside.”

“Who is it?”

“It’s Fu Yechuan, Mr. Fu.”

Su Nan’s smile soon sank, and his eyes crossed a few times. irritability and impatience.

He is really everywhere.

Su Nan frowned.

He came with great fanfare, and if she avoided it, it would easily spread that the Su family and the Fu family were at odds, causing a series of negative effects.

Moreover, considering his love for helping him find someone during the earthquake, he couldn't make the situation stiff.

"Invite him to come in."

Su Nan originally wanted to change clothes first, but now he felt it was unnecessary.

She turned back and walked downstairs directly, and Fu Yechuan walked in with something in his hand.

When he saw her, his eyes lit up.

His eyebrows were indifferent and warm, and he said in a gentle voice,

"I'm afraid to say that I'm not used to being here, so I brought some gifts on purpose."

As he was talking, he said that the children came running from the living room next door and looked up at Fu Yechuan at the door. .

She thought about it for a few seconds, and suddenly realized:

"Oh, it's you..."

Fu Yechuan smiled, "It's me."

Talking about the child looking at Mommy walking over, he said loudly:

"I like to lose my temper . The strange uncle is here..." for a while.

There was silence in the living room for a moment.

Fu Yechuan's smile was stagnant, and his expression was broken.

Su Nan couldn't help but chuckled, but still coughed:

"Talk about it, don't talk nonsense."

Talking about the little boy touching his hair, he felt that he didn't talk nonsense.

Fu Yechuan handed over the gift:

"Do you like the gift that the little one brought to talk about?" The little friend took it with both hands and said thank you politely.

Fu Yechuan's heart softened even more when he looked at such a well-behaved and obedient child.

His love for this child will never be reduced by half because he hates Shang Qian.

She should be her own daughter.

It's not too late.

He is still young and doesn't remember anything. When he is raised, he will naturally be his own daughter!

He looked at her lovingly and couldn't help but reach out and touch her head.

But the little fish who ran over ran and ran into Fu Yechuan.

He raised his head, covered his forehead, and started to shed tears of grievance.

Fu Yechuan was stunned.

Clenched fist.

He didn't know how to comfort such a delicate boy!

Talking about the distressed child, he hugged Xiaoyuer and exhaled softly:

"Dear little fish, don't cry, don't cry, huff, don't cry..." Said that the child is like a young lady, pulling The two of them left with Xiaoyuer.

As he walked, he said, "We ignore Uncle, it's all his fault..."

Fu Yechuan: "..."

Two unreasonable little brats!

Su Nan couldn't help laughing, looked at Fu Yechuan and said,

"Mr. Fu, what are you doing here? Just to give a gift?"

She said that children are not short of gifts since childhood, and she has everything.

She is not too rare.

Fu Yechuan paused, "I'm here to persuade you not to attend that private reception."

Su Nan raised his eyelids, "What?"

"I know what you are here for, but you'd better not go to that reception."

"Why??"

She was even more puzzled.

If it was an informal reception, she would not go.

But that project was inspected by Su Jin, and the invitation card was obtained with great difficulty.

Besides, the people who went there were all celebrities, and they were all decent people.

No matter what happens in private, it won't come out in the open.

Moreover, at this level of opportunity, security is needless to say.

So she did not doubt the purpose of this banquet.

Chapter 2218

I advise you not to go to

Fu Yechuan and give her a heavy look.

Su Nan understood, "Please come in." The housekeeper came over with the coffee and handed it to Fu Yechuan.

Fu Yechuan thanked him in a rare good-humored manner.

Su Nan was sitting on the sofa, holding a cup of tea in his hand, with no extra expression on his face:

"Mr. Fu, what did you mean just now?"

Fu Yechuan looked at her solemnly:

"As far as I know, the company's Science and technology exhibitions are a trap."

"What trap?"

"The interaction between artificial intelligence and emotion is already at a critical point that violates ethics. It is different from the simple cloning in the past. This time it is the gene replication of DNA, to be precise. , it is human beings who are going to use technology to transform life, which is not allowed in country Z."

Fu Yechuan said in a serious tone:

"It is not as simple as you think, this is not a simple exhibition, George, the world's technology giant, has long been diagnosed with cancer. , why do you think he is so interested in a reception?"

Su Nan frowned, as if he understood something.

"You mean, they are violating the laws of human growth, editing genes, and creating survival opportunities for the rich?"

Fu Yechuan gave her an admiring look:

"That's what it means."

Su Nan pursed his lips and lowered his eyes:

"I This time, I just came here to see and inspect, it's not really confirmed, Mr. Fu is overthinking it."

Gene editing has already made breakthroughs in China, if this time it will only be gene editing, then there is no need to make a lot of fanfare What technology exhibition to hold.

She faintly felt that there must be other black technologies.

Fu Yechuan said the rest:

"I know you won't trust me easily now, but I'm also doing it for your own good, it's always dangerous for you to come out alone, and I can't worry about it, why don't you let me protect you? ."

Before he finished speaking, Su Nan's cup fell to the ground.

She frowned and looked at:

"The tea is too hot, butler, clean up this place." The butler heard the movement and ran over to respond.

Su Nan glanced at Fu Yechuan expressionlessly:

"Mr. Fu, you have finished what you have to say?"

Fu Yechuan pursed his lips: "Then I won't bother, you can think about what I say."

He didn't mind Su . Nan has a bad attitude towards himself.

Originally, he had a lot of things that he couldn't feel sorry for her.

If there is no stumbling block of Shang Qian, he and her will still grow in the future!

He stood up and looked at her deeply, his eyes couldn't hide the nostalgia and enthusiasm:

"Goodbye."

This goodbye was meaningful.

Her indifference will not let him down, it will only make him feel that she still cares about him.

But Su Nan took a few steps back with a big head:

"No more."

After speaking, she turned and went upstairs.

Tomorrow I have to take Shuo and Xiaoyu to the playground, so I need to have enough energy!

As a result, the next day, there were three poles in the sun.

I overslept because I was so tired yesterday.

Said that the children and Xiaoyuer did not wait for Su Nan to come down after breakfast.

The two children disregarded Lou's dissuasion and insisted on going up to see Su Nan.

As a result, she was tossed.

When I woke up, I saw that two people took a chubby Ultraman, and the other took a very cute monster and fought on her.

It was said that the children couldn't beat the monsters, so they wanted to cheat, so they woke Su Nan.

Su Nan looked at this precious daughter and was really reluctant to give birth to her anger.

Xiaoyuer reminded helplessly:

"Godmother, the theater performance in our amusement park is about to start..."

Su Nan reluctantly got up, "You go out and wait, I want to wash up!"

Talking about the children nodding happily, he and Xiaoyuer ran out in tandem.

Twenty minutes later.

Everyone is ready and waiting for Su Nan.

Su Nan wore a casual polka-dot black long dress with a casual retro style, which made her whole person refreshing and neat.

When she went downstairs, she said that the children were holding their faces for face:

"Wow, Mommy is so beautiful!"

Xiaoyuer quickly followed suit:

"Wow, Mommy is so beautiful!"

Yu Lou and Rong Yi : "..."

They stood there awkwardly, not knowing how to answer.

Fortunately, Su Nan was not blown away by the flattery. He went downstairs and pinched his face alone:

"Come on, let's say today, whoever dares to cry, I will leave and come back, everyone will stop playing!"

"Promise Don't cry, don't make trouble!"

Talk and Xiaoyuer answered in unison.

Su Nan nodded with satisfaction.

This playground is still very famous in the local area. Not only children, but also many students and couples go there.

Very lively.

Speaking in English is okay, French is not smooth, but Xiaoyuer is stronger than her.

Yu Lou looked at these two children who were not afraid of giving birth, and couldn't help but give a thumbs up:

"When I was my age, I couldn't even speak my mother tongue!"

Su Nan gave him a half-smiling look:

"Do you see which of the two of them said it completely?"

It can only be said clearly and clearly.

Talking about the two people running and jumping in front of Xiaoyuer is very popular.

Su Nan followed closely behind, wearing a hat with sun protection. She had no interest in game projects.

The purpose of the two children is to perform in the theater.

Because there is an impromptu funny performance today, it is about the children's favorite Ultraman fighting monsters.

This is a performance that the playground has never seen before.

When Su Nan returned to the villa, he heard what the housekeeper had to say, otherwise he wouldn't have brought them here.

Seeing that it was almost time, Su Nan called them to the performance venue.

She looked at Yu Lou and Rong Yi:

"You two can go for a walk, I'll take them in to watch the show, and we'll meet when we leave."

Yu Lou nodded: "Then be careful, Mr. Su, if there is anything Call me."

"Okay."

Su Nan took a child with one hand and walked towards the venue.

Speaking of the excited look on the children's faces, I couldn't be more happy.

There were already a lot of people in the venue, and Su Nan originally reserved the three seats in the front.

When she took it over, she found that there were only two left.

Sitting next to her was a woman in a hurry.

The woman found Su Nan and quickly stood up and apologized:

"I'm sorry, is this your seat? I'm so sorry, I bought this seat for my child, mine was in the back, I didn't get two, I just coaxed him. It's really disturbing to go to the back."

Su Nan found that she was also from country Z, and her apology and explanation were also very sincere, so she would not deliberately embarrass her.

What's more, it was already very difficult to come out alone with a child. If you encounter a child who is disobedient, you can't control it at all.

Fortunately, she was taught very well by Shang Qian, and she would never make a fuss in public.

She smiled: "It doesn't matter, you can sit here. Your child is too young to be without people. I'll go to the back."

Chapter 2219

Strange feeling

Su Nan smiled and looked down at Shuaihe and Xiaoyuer:

"Then you two take care of each other here, okay?"

Shuai was still a little unhappy, pouting. Coquettish:

“But people want Mommy to accompany them. People will be afraid when they look at monsters...”

Su Nan twitched the corners of her mouth and looked at her helplessly:

“If you’re afraid, let’s stop watching. “

I’ll get over it, Mommy, go to the back, I’m a brave big baby!”

Said the little boy clenching his fist tightly.

The woman next to her couldn’t help laughing and complimenting:

“Is this your daughter? How can she be so cute, she looks a little smaller than my family, but she can express it so clearly, she’s really smart. ....”

Su Nan was also praised with joy in his heart.

How can a child be praised unhappy?

Talking about the child looking at the woman with a smile:

“Thank you auntie, your baby is also very cute!” The woman simply told the child that she was surprised and delighted, and then looked at her daughter in front of her, she dragged ignorantly The adults’ clothes are not allowed to go, and they look like they are about to cry at any time.

It’s really frustrating.

Su Nan smiled and looked at Xiaoyuer:

“Then Xiaoyuer, can you be brave?”

Xiaoyuer took the child’s hand and said,

“Don’t worry, Mommy, I will protect my sister.

”, After watching the performance, I will take you to eat something delicious and then go, I will watch you from behind, pay attention to the order of the scene...”

Su Nan reminded, Xiaoyuer and Shuoshu nodded in succession.

Needless to say, they know these things.

The teachers at home and Shang Qian told them these things countless times.

Remember it already!

The woman looked at Su Nan gratefully:

“Thank you so much, and I’m very embarrassed. I’ll invite you to dinner later, shall I?”

Su Nan shook his head and said with a smile:

“It doesn’t matter, they are all from the Z country, and helping each other is also It should be. Where is your position?” The woman quickly took out the ticket in her pocket, Su Nan exchanged it with her, and took it to the back.

Just a few minutes.

The venue was almost full.

Her position was at the back, next to the second seat in the hallway.

When she walked back, she saw that the back was also full of people, and the last second seat was empty.

But on the outermost seat, there was already one person sitting.

Faintly, that person gave people a very strange feeling.

He was wearing a gentleman’s suit, with a hat commonly seen in the West, covering half of his face, as well as sunglasses and a mask.

When she walked in that direction, it was obvious that the person noticed her.

I just don’t know why, he seemed to be tense for a moment.

Su Nan walked over, only to find that he also had a cane in his hand.

She stood in front of him, and he was motionless and stiff.

Su Nan suddenly had a very strong and wonderful feeling in his heart.

Her heart was beating violently, and she had an indescribable sense of familiarity.

But she is here, and there will be no one who makes her feel this way.

She took a deep breath, her voice still calm:

“Sir, my position is next to you.”

She held the small ticket that she pinched.

The man raised his head slightly, glanced at her through the sunglasses, and said nothing.

He didn’t get up to let her in.

Just slightly sideways to let her in.

This kind of behavior is not very polite.

But no one pursued this.

Su Nan went in, sat next to him, and looked in the direction ahead.

Talking about the children and Xiaoyuer excitedly turned around in front and waved to her.

The two of them laughed as brilliantly as sunflowers.

She also waved her hand, but couldn't smile.

For some reason, the person next to her gave her a very familiar feeling.

She couldn't help but look sideways.

I found that he was looking up and looking forward, leaning forward slightly, as if he was serious and excited.

The show hasn't started yet.

Why is he excited, why is he serious?

Su Nan was puzzled.

But she really wanted to get to know this person.

My heart seemed to be hooked up by a line, hanging in the air, unable to go up or down.

Very strong intuition, she seems to be familiar with him.

But just a few seconds.

He recovered his emotions and sat there, his body slightly hunched, like an old man.

But the refreshing breath on his body is not like an old person can have.

Su Nan felt surprised, but the feeling was too strong.

At the beginning of the performance, although the time was only ten minutes, it was enough to make the children present cheer.

Su Nan wanted to turn his attention to the previous talk and Xiaoyuer.

But she seemed uneasy.

There was no reason for that panic.

Finally, when it was about to end, she couldn't help but look at the person next to her.

The man next to him was still wearing sunglasses and a mask, so he couldn't see any appearance or emotions clearly.

But his aura is mysterious with a certain powerful force, but it makes people feel no danger.

Just when she was about to say hello, the phone on her lap suddenly dropped.

fell at the feet of two people.

She bent over to pick it up subconsciously, and when she picked up the phone, she accidentally touched the man's lap.

At that moment, there was a crisp sound of metal collision.

Su Nan was shocked and shocked.

She looked up at him subconsciously, wanting to apologize.

But the next second, the man stood up.

When the performance was over and everyone was immersed in joy, he turned around and walked out.

It was as if someone had spied on his secret, so he couldn't wait to escape.

He hunched his back, the cane in his hand was not a decoration, and his legs were limping, obviously disabled.

He was wearing black trousers covering his legs and looked normal on the surface.

But Su Nan's phone case was made of metal, and she could hear the business she just sent out.

The man's right leg is a prosthetic.

But in the blink of an eye, the man disappeared without a trace.

Su Nan subconsciously stood up.

At this moment, everyone stood up.

It turned out that the performance was over, the curtain call was completed, and everyone was cheering.

The audience started to leave one after another.

She looked in the direction of the door, and the man was long gone.

"Mommy, Mommy, did you see it? Ultraman defeated the monster, and the father of Ultra came to help his Ultra baby..."

Said the little boy who ran from the front excitedly and followed She described the performance that had never been fulfilled just now.

On the other hand, Xiao Yu'er was holding the talking child's hand tightly, for fear that she would be lost by the crowd.

Su Nan was stunned by the noise of the two children.

She paused, her heart didn't seem to be as throbbing as before, and everything seemed to have calmed down.

Chapter 2220

Is it Shang Qian? The crowd is getting crowded, Su Nan can only take the two children out of here first.

When she got outside, she was calling Yu Lou and Rong Yi and asked them to wait at the door.

As a result, the woman who was in the seat just now came over with her child in her arms:

"I really thank you just now, if it weren't for you, my child might not be able to control the trouble on the spot, you must know that this is abroad, and everyone has no tolerance. It's okay ."

Su Nan smiled and nodded politely:

"It's okay, you're welcome, next time you buy a seat, you must buy a consecutive number, otherwise you may not have such good luck next time."

That The woman sighed and shook her head helplessly:

"I think so too, but when I bought it, except for the three seats in the middle, which were connected and sold, I could only buy them one by one, and I bought one. , the others were snatched away..."

Su Nan's expression changed slightly, and he looked at her subconsciously:

"Can only buy one by one? When I first bought, I bought three at once. What..."

For some reason, she felt something was wrong in her heart.

The woman also frowned suspiciously:

"Maybe it's a bug in the system, I thought you were a VIP customer of the amusement park, so you were so lucky."

Such a coincidence of luck?

Su Nan lowered his eyes slightly and smiled:

"Maybe it's good luck." The woman must have felt close because she met someone from country Z, so she couldn't help but say a few more words:

"Yeah, it's really good luck, today This stage play was arranged very suddenly. It was not originally planned, it was changed temporarily.

To be honest, the types and repertoires of stage plays performed in this playground have a history of more than 100 years, and they have never changed.

Who knew that I was so lucky today to perform the Ultraman that children like today?

It's really strange, isn't this Ultraman something from Little Japan? Country F can actually see it? "

The more the other party said, the more strange Su Nan's face became.

It's really a great coincidence. It seems that this performance was deliberately arranged for someone.

But when you talk about the Ultraman you like, others also like it.

She is in her heart . A few signs appeared.

At this moment, Yu Lou and Rong Yi ran over with a bubble machine.

“Mr. Su, after reading this, do we want to go there and play? “

Talking about the children and Xiaoyuer happily took it over and looked at Su Nan expectantly.

Su Nan smiled, “Okay, let’s go.

She glanced at the woman who was talking, and the woman also realized that she had disturbed her a lot of time, and smiled apologetically: “

I’m talking too much, I’m really sorry, then you go play, I’m also going back. “

Su Nan nodded politely, and then the woman left with her child . She talked about playing happily with Xiaoyuer, but Su Nan couldn’t be more interested.

She always felt that she had met Acquaintance.

Not

so familiar. The aura of that man is really familiar.

Shang Qian!

The moment the name poured into my mind, the bone-piercing pain in my heart began to gnaw at her heart densely again.

Is it him? ?

wrong.

If it was him, how could he not see her, look for her, or recognize her?

How could he be willing to leave her behind?

The feeling in my heart is getting stronger and stronger.

Is he not dead?

Was he hiding somewhere and watching her?

Su Nan stood there sluggishly, all the sounds around her seemed to have disappeared, her eyes seemed to be shrouded in a thin film, and she stood in her own world.

No one can get in.

Rong Yi ran over and said several words, but she didn’t listen.

Finally, he tugged at Su Nan’s arm worriedly:

“Madam?”

His worried face turned pale.

Su Nan was stunned for a moment, then came back to his senses.

She blinked:

“What’s the matter?”

Rong Yi breathed a sigh of relief:

“You scared me to death, you’ll be fine, I just discussed with Assistant Yu, do you want to go through the formalities for the real estate and shares of the Shang Zong first? These are more troublesome...”

Su Nan’s heart tightened and he observed him thoughtfully for a few seconds:

“No, there is no need to go through any formalities.”

If he is still alive, then the transfer to her name will also It doesn’t make sense.

She doesn’t care about the wealth, she cares about the owner of the wealth.

Rong Yi looked at her in surprise for a moment, then Su Nan pursed his lips and looked at him: “

I ask you, who bought the tickets for this amusement park drama?”

“Me.”

Tighten his fists.

“I heard just now that tickets can only be bought one by one, and you can’t buy consecutive tickets all at once. How did you buy three consecutive seats at once?”

Rong Yi touched his head and said with pursed lips,

“I’m looking for I asked the person in charge of the amusement park to make it easier for him.”

Su Nan frowned, “Do you know?”

“Yes, the person in charge was originally a strong soldier under the General Manager of Commerce, and I was also a colleague, but he didn’t do it. I quit my job after a few years, and came back to inherit the family business, oh, this is the playground.”

Su Nan: “...”

Her originally excited emotions slowly calmed down.

Did she really think too much?

The people under Shang Qian...

Rong Yi’s answers could solve her doubts everywhere, but they also evoked other puzzles.

She felt like a stone was being weighed down heavily in her heart, making it hard to breathe.

She looked at Rong Yi, her tone was a little lower:

“The formalities will not be done, let’s talk about it after a while.”

Rong Yi looked at her and nodded.

She thought in her heart that she hadn't come out of Shang Qian's departure, and felt uncomfortable. Although Su Nan looked the same as before.

But after all, the feelings of the two people are not fake, their feelings are deep, how can it be so easy to be casual?

Perhaps this trip, taking her to meddle in Shang Qian's affairs is itself a kind of torture to her.

Forget it, let's wait until she actually comes out.

Su Nan couldn't hide the loss in his eyes.

Because she tried to see some flaws in lying on Rong Yi's face.

But no, he really doesn't seem to know anything.

But the back of the man leaning on a cane appeared in her mind more than once.

If it is really Shang Qian, how good it would be.

She has seen a corpse falling from a thousand meters. Even the luckiest one has only one breath left, but no one is so lucky to survive.

She still remembered the man who was still breathing when he was found. His lower body was gone, but he was still holding his breath.

It wasn't long before the breath was gone.

She didn't know if Shang Qian would be the same as that person.

Or maybe it was washed into the river, so nothing was found.

Didn't find it, don't know if it's a good thing or a bad thing.

Rong Yi turned back and took care of the two children with Yu Lou.

She stood here in silence, her whole body shrouded in dejected grief.

not far away.

A figure in a black suit hunched over, quietly looking in her direction, looking at her for a long time, her eyes sad and silent...
