Chapter 2,231 Becoming a Disabled

Fu Yichuan furrowed his brows and his face darkened:

“Su Nan, you believe me, I really saw him sneaking up on you.”

Su Nan’s face was cold, and he looked at Sheng Shi and Li Jeff apologetically, and then turned away from here.

Went to the direction of Chen Xudong.

She suddenly felt that Chen Xudong could hear more than this Fu Yichuan!

He’s already crazy!

Li Jeff glanced at the back of Su Nan’s departure, and his eyes calmly withdrew.

Turning to look at Fu Yichuan coolly, the tone was lukewarm and lukewarm:

“Although I don’t have to explain to you why I appeared there, and the purpose, but since Fu Zong is curious, I will say that I am waiting there for a friend, a friend comes to pick me up, I get in his car and leave.”

I haven’t seen Fu Zong and Miss Su, but Fu Zong, you are really concerned about me, can any passerby be treated as a tramp by you?

Fu Yichuan’s face darkened, just about to say something.

But Sheng Shi coughed at the side:

“Well, it’s all a misunderstanding, don’t continue on this occasion today.”

Since the two of them have no personal grudge, why should they make a bad scene? Miss Su is already very embarrassed, Mr. Fu, don’t you see it? As soon as he reminded him, Fu Yichuan’s face changed slightly.

He was only on guard against the others, not paying attention to the speechless look in Su Nan’s eyes when he left.

Thoughts.

He pursed his lips, “Since I think too much, then I apologize, but I hope I think wrong.”

Fu Yichuan finished speaking, turned around and left.

Sheng Shi was relieved at the side, pushing the wheelchair in the past, but did not push.

Only then did I remember that Jeff’s wheelchair was a trait, that he could control it himself, and that he didn’t need help at all.

“Don’t disturb your mood, Jeff, I’m glad you’re here.”

Li Jeff nodded, "You go busy, are you going to start officially?"

"Yes, start right away."

As he spoke, he walked to the center and looked at everyone with a flying look: "Gentlemen
, our highlight is coming soon, which is why I invite you to come this time, and I will invite you to visit my achievements in a moment, and we will talk about other things later."

Everyone's attention is also drawn to the past.

Su Nan looked sideways, and his mood was slightly better.

Chen Xudong came over from the other people with great interest, slipped over to Su Nan's side, and said with a smile:

"Miss Su, does that Fu Yichuan like you?"

Su Nan's eyelids jumped, very unhappy:

"No."

"Nothing, I can see it, since he came in, the eyes have not taken away from you, so many people he does not communicate, it can be seen that you are the most important person in his eyes." J

Su Nan looked at him with meaningful jokes, suppressed the unhappiness in his heart, and said indifferently:

"Like to fight with stalking is two different things, General Manager Chen should not pay too much attention to these things."

"It's good and good."

Chen Xudong smiled and sighed

"But the man in the wheelchair seems to like you too, and he has been secretly watching you!"

Su Nan gave a slight pause.

Finally I couldn't help but glance at him fiercely.

Chen Xudong seriously considered it for a moment and sighed:

"I think if you have to choose, you should still choose Fu Zong, at least he has money and his body is normal."

The man was sitting in a wheelchair, looking at the face, as if he had not lived long, or forget it.

He muttered to himself.

However, these two words were like a thorn in Su Nan's heart.

I don't know which word made her heart ache.

The way it will be to live.

She knew she shouldn't react as much to a strange man.

But when she heard others say this, she felt inexplicably unhappy in her heart.

She put down what she was holding, turned around with a calm face, and walked in the direction of the prosperous world.

Chen Xudong also followed, after all, everyone went there.

Sheng Shi looked at his watch, and then a group of waiters came over with a few boxes, and one was placed in front of one person.

"It's the clothes you need to wear to enter the laboratory, please change them."

Everyone took a tacit look, although it was troublesome, but because they were too curious, they all changed into white coats in the box.

Chen Xudong came to Su Nan's side and smiled:

"Miss Su, you dress like a doctor, my second wife is a doctor, do you know?" When she first met me, I almost died..."

Su Nan pursed her lips, and finally couldn't help but look at Chen Xudong.

How can this person be so noisy?

But Chen Xudong did not know that he was very noisy, and he was still sharing his love history with his three wives.

The person in front of him had already followed Sheng Shi to the direction of the elevator.

In order not to be with Chen Xudong, Su Nan deliberately lagged behind a few steps.

However, Fu Yichuan even deliberately lagged behind.

And Lijeff, who has limited mobility, naturally came to the back.

The group of people in front of them went down, and the elevator couldn't fit all the people.

They can only wait for the next batch.

Su Nan walked over, out of guilt for his attitude of recognizing the wrong person, looked at Li Jeff and said,

"Need help?"

She looked at his wheelchair and thought he might be inconvenient.

And there is no switch like a button to watch in a wheelchair.

Li Jeff looked at his wheelchair, lowered his eyes slightly, covered the black screens on both sides of the wheelchair with his large scarred hands, and nodded:

“That will trouble Miss Sue.”

Su Nan smiled, “No trouble.”

Su Nan stood behind Li Jeff, just about to help push the wheelchair.

Fu Yichuan came over and held out his hand

“I’ll come.”

Su Nan thought about his attitude towards Li Jeff just now and shook his head:

“No, I’ll just come.”

Lest something happen again.

Fu Yichuan’s eyes darkly watched the two men leave.

The inexplicable unhappiness in my heart.

But he told himself that it was just a disabled person and that he was not competitive compared to him!

No, why should he be compared to a disabled person?

Scold.....

What is he?

Fu Yichuan thought, his face eased up a little, and he did not hurry to keep up.

The elevator just came up again, opened the door, and the housekeeper was inside, laughing and walking out:

“Miss Sue, please come in.”

Su Nan smiled and nodded, pushing the wheelchair in.

The housekeeper wanted to say something, but watching them get along, there was not much to say.

It’s weird.

Didn’t Sheng always say, don’t deliberately take care of Li Jeff? He said that since his disability, he had become sensitive and suspicious.

Anyone who tries to pity and help him will resent him.

Moreover, his wheelchair is the latest intelligent wheelchair, even if you don’t need to use your fingers, you can control the wheelchair with your voice.

Do you still use people to push?

But he didn’t think about it that much, and he didn’t poke it.

As soon as Fu Yichuan came up, he went up and pressed the elevator down button.

Chapter 2232

Him The speed of the elevator going down is not fast or slow, just in time to see the scene from top to bottom.

Going down, it wasn't the desert and the bottom of the sea she had seen when she came.

It is the next layer of the wine banquet, this wine banquet is very crowded, talking and laughing is very lively.

Only through the elevator can see the outside, but people outside can not find the elevator.

It is also one of the secret passages.

Fu Yichuan was still calm, he had never seen any scene, and such a little trick could only be regarded as sensationalism in his eyes.

But Su Nan smiled and said
casually,
"Sheng Zong really has a heart."

The butler smiled and agreed:

"Indeed, Miss Su, this elevator can go straight to the bottom of the sea, which is the undersea laboratory that we have invested heavily in building, if it were not for the location of the cruise ship, no one would know this method."

Even if the people on the outside come with it, they are just having fun.

Su Nan nodded in surprise.

The elevator on the cruise ship actually goes straight to the bottom of the sea!

That said, this undersea laboratory really can't be underestimated.

But what she didn't expect was that she didn't see the underwater world outside, and there wasn't a single bit of breathless suffocation in the sea.

The elevator presents a delightful exhibition of oil paintings, world-famous paintings, as if entering a museum, fascinating.

I have to say that her good feelings for this banquet have secretly increased by a few points.

Although I can't feel how fast the elevator is going down.

But in less than three minutes, it arrived, and it is estimated that it will not be too slow.

It's just that they don't have a feeling of discomfort, and there is no sense of weightlessness up and down, which shows that they have also worked hard in the elevator.

Fu Yichuan suddenly opened his mouth from behind:

"I don't know where Mr. Li Jeff is tall?"

Although Su Nan hated Fu Yichuan's behavior of pursuing the root cause, she would not rush to interject.

Jeff paused and slowly ticked the corners of his lips.

Although his face was pale and weak, his gaze was as dark as ice:

"What is high? Where would you want a disabled person? I was just a friend of the world, and I came to see the world after dipping his light. Fu Yichuan: "People who can come to this kind of occasion are not simple friends, right?"

"If Mr. Fu wants to know my details, he might as well wait until he leaves here and then go to someone to inquire."

If I say it, Mr. Fu may not believe it! Lijeff's words were already obvious.

He was also rude to Fu Yichuan, leaving no room and face.

Su Nan pushed the wheelchair, his face was pale, looking ahead.

The long boardwalk makes the place wide and mysterious.

But unlike the scene on the seabed, this should not be considered the deep sea.

Because the fish swimming along the way were still familiar, large and small, looking at several of them in amazement.

There is also no discomfort in breathing here.

Su Nan had suffered losses at sea, but now she didn't have a little fear.

I don't know why, but I feel very reassured.

The housekeeper saw that her face was normal, and only then was she slightly relieved.

Fu Yichuan looked at her, and his eyes softened a little.

Suddenly look at the baby shark swimming towards you.

He remembered something.

"Su Nan, you see, didn't that little Mike like sharks the most?"

Su Nan took a look, the shark is not too big, but it is not cute.

It swallowed the fish in front of it in one gulp, and the fish scattered in fright.

A biological chain is complete.

Su Nan withdrew her gaze and looked at him in a faint tone:

"So? Do you want to grab him a piece to keep?"

Fu Yichuan: "..."

He just made an excuse to talk to her.

Unexpectedly, the person in the wheelchair laughed softly.

To Fu Yichuan's ears, this was laughing at him!

Su Nan pursed her lips, and she also felt that she was talking too aggressively.

You can't reveal anything in front of the outside that he knows him well.

"Mr. Li, if Mr. Fu misunderstood before, I hope you don't take it to heart, I don't feel uncomfortable."

Li Jeff's eyes flickered slightly, but he still nodded:

"I don't blame him."

Because in this regard, Fu Yichuan's vigilance was really high and accurate.

Pity..... No patience!

Su Nan was relieved and felt that Li Jeff was really approachable.

Coupled with the fact that she regarded him as a conjecture object and felt guilty in her heart, that special emotion made her want to compensate him.

"Mr. Li, I still want to thank you for not blaming me?" Oh, is it just a coincidence that your monitoring is broken?

Fu Yichuan listened from the sidelines and was very dissatisfied.

Lijeff didn't want to take care of him.

But Gu Nian thought that Su Nan was behind, and then patiently explained:

"Fu Zong, is it that as soon as I go, the monitoring will be broken?"

Fu Yichuan choked.

Of course not.

His men said it was broken a few days in advance.

But this still does not rule out his innocence.

"But why didn't every monitor capture you?"

This is also the skeptical character he has developed over the years.

The more seemingly ordinary things are, as long as there is a little suspicious, it means that there must be a problem!

This Lijeff, seemingly harmless, but there is always an evil atmosphere that makes him feel uncomfortable.

Li Jeff smiled lightly, and seemed helpless.

“Do you blame me for not taking a picture?” I am not a fugitive, there is no need to hide, I did not photograph me, it is their problem, not mine. Miss Sue, are you saying that this is the truth?

Su Nan immediately nodded, “Yes.”

Fu Yichuan: “...”

He took a deep breath.

Let yourself be patient.

Lijeff smiled, and then his eyes dimmed.

Anyway, he had to admit that the people who could accompany Su Nan now were no more suitable except Fu Yichuan!

How can a lady of heaven be with a disabled person?

The butler pressed his fingerprint in front of him, opened the door, and said, “It’s here, please come in.”

In front of them was an oval-shaped door, and they patronized and spoke, not paying attention to what the shape looked like.

But as soon as you enter, the field of view is vast, and the estimated area is not small.

Sheng Shi was laughing inside, and everyone else was waiting for them.

“Here we go, we can go in.”

Chen Xudong couldn’t help but sigh:

“It’s so mysterious, my curiosity has been hooked!”

The crowd laughed.

Su Nan was still pushing a wheelchair and walking behind.

Sheng Shi led them to open a door.

Inside the door is a white decoration design, similar to high-tech equipment like a laboratory.

As soon as they entered, they watched as the whole large room was divided into many areas.

There are a lot of test tubes on the east side of the test bench and stuff like that.

To the west is a lot of computers, and there’s still something editing on the computers.

Chen Xudong couldn’t help but look east and west.

However, when he was about to push open another door, he was stopped by Shengshi.

“Wait a minute.”

“What’s wrong?”

Chen Xudong nodded in surprise.

Chapter 2,233 The Mysterious Experiment

Sheng Shi smiled and hurriedly walked over:

“This is not a place to visit, I am afraid it will cause discomfort to everyone, so don’t go in.”

“What place is so mysterious, how can we be uncomfortable?” Mr. Sheng, are you hiding good things from us?

Sheng Shi smiled low-keyly:

“It is also a laboratory inside, but it is not the same as the outside, it is an anatomical room to be precise.”

You are all decent people, the process is a bit bloody, or don’t look at it, it is better to see the result directly? When he said this, it was even more curious to hide it.

Su Nan also began to be curious.

Bloody?

However, before it was her turn to object, that Chen Xudong couldn’t wait to see:

“Sheng Zong, what does it mean to just look at the results?” Let’s look at your project in all directions, so let’s open our eyes! The man next to him echoed, “Yes, look at it!”

“Look, all of them are coming, Sheng Zong don’t hide it!”

.....

Sheng Shi flashed a little tangled on his face, and hesitated to look in Su Nan’s direction:

“Well, then, Miss Su, if you are timid, don’t look at it, it is really not suitable for ladies to visit.”

Su Nan smiled and nodded, “Well, I’ll watch and do it, don’t worry about me.”

As soon as he said this, he was even more curious, and she had to see it.

Sheng Shi walked to the door, took a deep breath, and then pushed the door open.

The men laughed and walked in.

But the next second.

They all covered their mouths and ran out with a look of vomit, their faces livid and ugly.

Not at all as decent as it was just now.

And everyone is.

Especially Chen Xudong, he vomited even more, and his face was ugly to death.

Su Nan was stunned for a moment, and Fu Yichuan twisted his eyebrows and subconsciously went to see her.

He pursed his lips, "Don't go first, I'll see and then say." With that, he walked over.

Fu Yichuan walked in less than a minute and came out.

Although he didn't throw up and down like those people, his face was also gray and ugly.

His face tensed, as if he were hiding something.

"Fu Yichuan?"

Su Nan stood there looking at him, what was wrong inside, and even made everyone react?

Fu Yichuan had a long time to react, and he took a meaningful look at the prosperous world, but there was no kindness in that look.

Sheng Shi smiled and beckoned the housekeeper to bring the water and towel over:

"Guys, I'll just say it's still not good inside..."

Chen Xudong poured himself a bottle of water before suppressing the nausea

"It's not that I haven't seen a dead body that kills people, but like you, it's really much more disgusting than those people, Sheng Zong, you are really powerful!"

Su Nan paused, released her wheelchair, and walked toward the door.

"Miss Su, forget it..."

Sheng Shi advised her.

"Yes, Miss Su, don't look at it, I see you can't eat for a few days."

"That's right, that's right, it's terrible, I regret coming here!"

Chen Xudong opened his mouth unceremoniously.

Isn't that spending money to find guilt?

Su Nan could not suppress his curiosity, or he had to go inside.

Fu Yichuan didn't stop it, and he knew he couldn't stop it.

It was just that he casually glanced at Li Jeff, and he looked at Su Nan's look, and it was all worry.

That kind of worry is not deliberately disguised.

Instead, it was his heartfelt outpouring of feelings.

Fu Yichuan's face instantly darkened.

Lose sleep over something?

Why would a stranger who has just met someone have such a worried mood?

Obviously, the closest talent should have a reaction, how could this Li Jeff react so big?

Moreover, the others, even Chen Xudong, who spoke to Su Nan the most, did not look at her in this way.

Fu Yichuan's heart continued to sink in an instant, and there was a faint feeling of badness.

After Su Nan entered, he looked at the countless test benches inside.

On the cold test bench were countless sea creatures, large and small, but without exception they were dissected.

Blood flowed directly down the test bench to the ground, where there were sewer channels, and I didn't know what to use to collect this blood.

It didn't drain into the sea because the blood didn't attract more creatures.

Whale sharks are among the insignificant fish.

But other kinds of creatures were lying there, and in a desperate posture they were cut open in the stomach.

Looking around, many people wearing white protective clothing are holding professional utensils for autopsy, and their movements are single-minded and crisp, ruthless and indifferent, as if they are not a living animal in front of them.

Some are not even completely dead, and the silent gaze is gradually scattered...

They put the dissected parts into the freshness jar, which was bloody and terrifying.

I don't know, I thought it was in the shooting base, and it was all fake molds.

But the moment when I was standing here.

Su Nan felt cold all over his body, as if he had been brutalized. He punched hard and smashed it in the chest, and it was unbearable.

The smell of blood accompanied by the smell of sea water rushed into her nasal cavity, making her eyes full of scarlet unprepared.

It's so cruel.

That moment.

The stomach and blood suddenly surged up and down, and the whole person felt uncomfortable.

Someone came in from outside and dragged her out without saying a word.

Fu Yichuan's face was ugly and he glanced at the direction inside.

Then he thought about Su Nan: "Is it all right?"

Su Nan covered his mouth, inevitably, like them, and couldn't help but want to spit out everything anymore.

She ran to the other side, desperate to get out of here now.

What kind of ghost high-tech is to cruelly harm marine life?

The others looked gray and silent, as if they had not yet recovered from the shock they had just experienced.

Only Sheng Shi quietly closed the door and walked over with a smile:

"Everyone is all right, I just said don't look at it, these things are really not to see, Miss Su, are you okay?"

Su Nan's face was livid, glowing a little cold.

"Mr. Sheng, what is this achievement, and don't you want to sell Guanzi?"

People on the side couldn't help but echo this:

"That is, everyone is very busy, and I would not have wasted my time coming here if I had known that it was these things."

Sheng Shi smiled faintly, "It's my fault, it's been too long to delay here, let's go ahead, the front is what I want to show you."

Everyone's face was unhappy, and they didn't seem to be in a good mood.

It's just that when I get here, I can only follow it hard.

Fu Yichuan handed Su Nan a handkerchief, and at the same time, Li Jeff, who was in a wheelchair, handed her a bottle of water.

Su Nan took a deep breath, and she glanced at Fu Yichuan's handkerchief, which was the kind he usually used, and it was really not suitable for taking over.

Instead, the water that Lijeff handed over was Evian on a nearby shelf, which had not yet been opened, let alone used.

Like it was specially prepared for them

Chapter 2,234 Resurrection from the Dead

Su Nan slowed down, thanked him, took the water, gargled his mouth, and threw up without daring to swallow.

Li Jeff sat there and looked up at her, with a warm and calm smile in his eyebrows, and gently comforted her:

“Miss Su, it’s all right, hold on a little longer, and you can leave here in a little while.”

Su Nan nodded with her eyes closed.

She was obviously not so fragile, but when she heard Li Jeff’s words, she still felt a kind of déjà vu warmth.

But seeing that face that he was not familiar with at all, the feeling of déjà vu quietly disappeared.

Fu Yichuan’s hand holding the handkerchief was still in mid-air, and his face was even darker as he watched this scene.

Next second.

He forcefully used a handkerchief to wipe the water stains on the corners of her mouth, and although the action was sudden, he was afraid of really hurting her.

The moment he touched the corner of her mouth, he gathered some strength.

When the others saw this, everyone smiled meaningfully.

“It turns out that when Fu Zong attended the cocktail party, did he mean that the drunkard was not in the wine?”

Chen Xudong’s damn tongue began to stop himself again and began to gossip about others.

The others followed suit.

At least the mood has eased a little.

Su Nan glared at Fu Yichuan fiercely, and had to snatch the handkerchief and do it himself.

Otherwise, I am really afraid that this madman will do something else.

Su Nan was so angry, Fu Yichuan was actually happy.

Yu Guang looked at Li Jeff’s stiff look, and his heart was even more fluttering.

Lijeff looked away with great measure, and the gentleness on his face receded slightly, with some indescribable lowness.

On the last pretext of not smelling fishy, he put on a mask and hat to cover himself up.

As if deliberately hiding something.

He slowly pulled the wheelchair back and left Su Nan’s side.

Sheng Shi mysteriously led everyone to the place in front of him.

Fu Yichuan saw the situation and inexplicably felt better.

It was just that Su Nan turned his head and watched Li Jeff’s wheelchair follow the crowd.

No one helped him push, and he fell behind everyone.

When I saw the situation, I felt a little lost.

Su Nan sorted out her emotions.

She shouldn't have superfluous emotions.

Since he didn't need help, he certainly wouldn't rush to get together.

Fu Yichuan stood by and waited for her, saw that her face was much better, and smiled:

"I just said to ask you not to come, you will not be interested in these."

Su Nan looked at him,

"Did you already know?"

Fu Yichuan pursed his lips slightly, and his face stiffened:

"You know, before this project, he wanted to invest in me, but I refused."

Su Nan was really surprised at this moment.

"Now that the results are so great, will Mr. Fu regret it?"

"No, there is nothing humane, even if there is a result, do not dare to put it on the surface, can not make money, you see, people in other countries may think about it, but we...

We will not allow such cruel things to exist, and even if the results can surpass the progress of all mankind, no one can withstand the criticism of journalists and the whole world.

Fu Yichuan's speech speed was slow and low.

Su Nan also sunk her face, she finally understood.

Fu Yichuan is really a shrewd businessman, who cares about face and cares about Lizi.

He will not let his career map be stained with this stain, even if it is enough to cause a sensation in the world.

If you are not careful, it will be full of plates.

In fact, when Su Nan saw the things inside, he had already retreated.

She wouldn't handle such a cruel thing, even if it was a million profits.

"Mr. Fu is really far-sighted, so do you know what Sheng Zong's achievements are?"

Su Nan asked him.

Fu Yichuan pursed his lips, "I don't know, I'm not interested." " Oh well...

Su Nan did not say anything more.

Because, soon, she herself will know.

Sheng Shi led them to an exhibition hall.

The lights in the exhibition hall are bright, the materials of the walls are transparent, and the blue ocean can be seen everywhere.

Special wall lamps are installed on the outside of the walls, so that you can see the outside scene clearly, rather than the dark sea at a glance.

As soon as everyone entered, Sheng Shi smiled and let the waiters go out.

Chen Xudong couldn't help but urge: "Hurry up, Mr. Sheng, my wife is already anxious to let me go home."

He was just not interested in making an excuse.

Sheng Shi smiled and eased their emotions:

"Let's see, do you recognize this person?"

Sheng Shi clapped his hands, and soon a person came out of a door in this exhibition hall.

It's a woman.

When they saw this person, the others present did not react at all.

But Fu Yichuan and Su Nan's faces changed instantly.

"Angie?" Su Nan looked at that familiar face in disbelief.

To be precise, it is Lu Yuning.

But she already knew that Lu Yuning was Anqi's plastic surgery disguise.

Therefore, as soon as her subconscious heart sank, she felt that Anqi was standing in front of her.

That timid and innocent gaze was once so familiar to Fu Yanni.

Fu Yichuan's eyes were also momentarily grim, and he took a step forward and tightly pinched the neck of Lu Yuning:

"Anqi, you are not dead?"

Lu Yuning looked at Sheng Shi in shock and panic and asked for help.

Whimpered in pain and couldn't speak.

Sheng Shi rushed forward and pulled him away.

As if pampering the landing rain condensation is a fragile treasure.

"Mr. Fu calm down, you see the wrong person, this is called Lu Yuning, not Anqi!"

"Mr. Fu, you know, who is this woman, Mr. Sheng is so mysterious, we have never seen her!"

“That is, we don’t know!”

Fu Yichuan’s face was complex and changeable.

The chill that condensed in his eyes for a moment was enough to freeze to death.

And no one noticed that Li Jeff, who was sitting in a wheelchair, looked very ugly in an instant.

The danger that accumulated in an instant was even more tragic.

Only very quickly, Su Nan pulled out of the shock, and quickly stepped forward to pull Fu Yichuan back, and whispered,

“She’s not Anqi, you take a closer look.”

Although that face is exactly the same.

But her figure is completely different, Anqi because of the perennial sword and sword rain abroad, so the body is very strong and strong, more than this Lu Yu condensed and stronger, and five or six centimeters taller.

But this Lu Yu condensed in front of him, slightly fat, slightly short, and very weak.

She presents a long-term malnutrition, resulting in a bone shelf that is not very healthy.

So if you look closely, it’s easy to tell.

The crowd was still confused.

Fu Yichuan eased his emotions and took a few steps back.

His falcon-like eyes stared dead at the landing rain condensation.

Slowly, I was relieved of my guard and coldness.

Lu Yuning hid behind Sheng Shi in fright, not daring to look up.

Sheng Shi patted her shoulder:

“It doesn’t matter, don’t be afraid, it’s because someone had plastic surgery to look like you before, so I was misunderstood by Fu Zong.”

Su Nan looked up at him in surprise,

“How does Mr. Sheng know?”

Chapter 2,235 She Is an Experimental

Product Sheng Shi smiled, “Because that young lady met her when I went to Southeast Asia to attract business, and by the way, helped her do fine-tuning surgery.” “Fine-tuning

? It’s like changing a face, right?

Su Nan couldn’t help but say sarcastically.

Suddenly, there is an explanation of the past.

I didn't expect that the person who helped Angel with her plastic surgery was actually the prosperous world in front of her.

However, that technology really has nothing to say, I am afraid that the most advanced plastic surgery technology is also in front of him.

They didn't find any hint of Angie's plastic surgery at all.

It can be seen how successful her plastic surgery is!

Sheng Shi smiled modestly, "It's okay, but look at her."

As if recommending his own treasure, Sheng Shi introduced himself to the crowd:

"She is our experimental product, and this is the most successful result of this time."

"What do you say?" Someone asked.

Fu Yichuan stared expressionlessly at the opening: "Isn't she already dead?"

The crowd looked at it in horror.

Sheng Shi nodded, "Originally, she was already dead, but I brought her back, spent seventy-two hours on the road, and after I came back, I changed the blood, and tailored her broken internal organs, and everyone saw that she was now standing alive in front of our eyes!" Everyone looked at the two people in shock.

Really unbelievable.

This is simply beyond everyone's understanding of the status quo.

Fu Yichuan's eyes were cold, "Why her?"

"Because someone has already replaced her, then the real she is naturally not important."

Sheng Shi smiled and explained faintly.

He looked at the others, and his voice became serious: "Gentlemen

, people have life, old age, illness and death, but who does not want to live for a few more years, especially rich and powerful people like you, who have struggled all their lives, and the money they get will not be spent in several lifetimes."

Is it really time to be tormented by illness and life, and to be powerless to pin your hopes on your cold-blooded and ruthless family? The crowd looked cold.

A few rich and powerful people can't make any jokes when faced with all this.

Sheng Shi continued, "What you saw just now is very cruel, but when you go to the living people standing here, do you still feel cruel?"

The ocean is the wealth that is given to us, and I am simply using the creatures in the ocean to extract their genes or tissues that are beneficial to human beings, and reassemble the human body with the most cutting-edge technology according to the needs of each person's body part.

The ink white shark in the depths of the ocean is extremely precious, but the gene of the ink white shark can activate the brain cells of human death, is this discovery not enough to change the entire human race?

Everyone watched in shock, and their faces became colorful.

Everyone's faces seemed to have lost sympathy for the fish killed in the laboratory.

Instead, it was tinged with excitement and mystery.

There are still some doubts.

Only Su Nan's heart went all the way down.

She never expected that the project of Shengshi would actually play this idea!

"Guys, I won't fake it, but this Miss Lu is indeed dead, you see..."

Sheng Shi opened the big screen in front of him with a remote control.

Above is a record of the process of landing rain condensation from here to here, and then to the laboratory, to perform the operation.

The video is long and has been edited and accelerated.

But the crowd was obviously very impressed when they looked at it.

Lying on the bed breathless, Lu Yuning was marked with the inscription: "The ninetyth hour of death."
The

next clip is that someone began to replace the kidneys on Lu Yuning's body with fresh kidneys and began surgery.

Sheng Shi paused and said:

"Our private customized organs, unlike those on the market now, will not produce rejection reactions, and they will also be integrated into them through micro-nanoscale intelligent black technology, monitoring the changes in the body's indicators at any time, and through their own imitation immune system, the body's operation will be clear."

Chen Xudong asked as if he understood something,

"Is this organ real or fake?"

Sheng Shi smiled, "True or false, it just works."

Chen Xudong: "No, if it is fake, isn't it all plastic in the body?" If so, what is the raw material of those organs?

Sheng Shi smiled mysteriously, refused to say more, but said a few words:

"Our customized organs are no different from the organs in our bodies, not metal and plastic, but really flesh and blood!"

Another asked,

"Is that blood and flesh human blood and human flesh?"

Sheng Shi narrowed his smile: "Guys

, the deeper one is a trade secret, unless it is our partner, otherwise I have no comment on other things, but in order not to let everyone run away in vain, I will give you a gift."

As he spoke, he told them to walk toward the wall.

The wall is a wide angle edge of 120 degrees, which is weird, but it looks ordinary and there is nothing special about it.

Sheng Shi held out his hand to one of the skinny but noble men:

"Mr. George, if you go there and stand there first, you will know, everyone can go to a station, know the current situation of your body, and only then can you make up for the loss in time!"

The George didn't believe it, but he walked over with some impatience, his steps vain, and he didn't seem to have much vitality or strength.

Su Nan frowned slightly, and she remembered that among the investigators, George had cancer.

The next moment.

When GeorgeAs soon as he approached the corner, Sheng Shi handed him a headset and explained with a smile:

"Personal privacy, we will not reveal it, you can listen to it yourself."

George's yellowed face took it with puzzlement and put it on.

A few minutes later.

Then George's face gradually became solemn, and finally he covered his heart and breathed excitedly.

Followed by.

He was emotionally a little worried, and then he looked at the prosperous world with surprise.

This series of expressions, everyone looks at it inexplicably.

But soon, George took off his headphones.

Excitedly, he ran to Sheng Shi, lowered his voice, and said,

“Can you really change my heart?” Although my heart has been successfully transplanted, I still have to go to the hospital regularly every year, and the state of the past two years is very bad, and I feel that I am about to have a rejection reaction with my body.

Sheng Shi nodded with a smile, lowered his voice and said:

“Yes, yes, our private customized heart, there is no possibility of rejection, black technology plus the most precious marine animals, you know, only the juvenile ink white shark has the fusion gene that is not rejected by humans, and ten thousand juvenile ink white sharks, to customize a heart.

George, our results are not empty, they all have a price.

George stood there excitedly, eyes in the deep eye sockets shining with a dim light.

It was a greed and shock at seeing hope, and an infinite joy.

“Well, if what you say is true, then I invested in this project, how much money is not a problem, I have money!”

Chapter 2,236 He was moved

Sheng Shi was not in a hurry to agree, but just smiled and nodded, looking at the others:

“Then the next one, when everyone has experienced it, we will talk about cooperation.”

The eyes of the crowd changed from doubt to anticipation.

So many people, only Su Nan and Fu Yichuan did not experience it in the past.

Su Nan himself was not interested, while Fu Yichuan was dismissive.

They didn't notice.

When Lijeff was carried down from there, his face was even paler.

It was just that he subconsciously looked up to see the direction of Su Nan and Fu Yichuan.

The emotions in the dark eyes were restrained and stoic.

He's struggling and struggling.

“You have different degrees of damage to your internal organs, crushing fractures of both legs, and although rescued, it is recommended to amputate the leg below the calf stem or it will cause necrosis.

We will provide you with a professional treatment plan.

If you are willing to customize our organs, after your amputation, the new legs will be long with your incision within a week, within a month, you can stand freely and use, after a year, you can run and jump to do strenuous exercise.

It is recommended that you make a decision immediately...”

The voice just now is too gentle, gently saying such a cruel truth.

At the same time, it also threw out a temptation that was enough to subvert his position.

So attractive, how could he not be moved?

He had only come to see her.

With just one glance, he could be satisfied.

But at the moment, he didn't want to let go.

If the prosperous world can really restore him to his original state, and let him stand by her side with dignity, then his life is not a rebirth.

But he could see that although Shengshi's project was a bit of a real skill, it was too cruel.

If it is made public, it will be scolded and banned by the whole world.

Human nature and morality, his scales are swinging.

Sheng Shi walked over to Su Nan and asked politely,

"Miss Su, don't you really want to experience it?"

Su Nan shook her head.

Sheng Shi sighed regretfully, "Okay,

then there will be a chance to cooperate later."

Su Nan nodded.

Although Sheng Shi felt sorry, fortunately, there were others who secretly told him that they were very interested in this project.

Originally, if he opened his own project, specifically for these world's rich, he could also make a lot of money.

But not enough.

And dangerous.

His background and strength will not stop all the risks ahead.

If there is a world-class big man who can help him advance, then he can see the wealth that these few customers can bring.

That's why he took so much trouble to gather people here.

Without Su Nan, there were others.

It's not a loss.

The richer the person, the more he spares his life.

Su Nan wanted to go out to breathe, and Lu Yuning was very thoughtful to guide her to the nearby rest area.

The view of the beautiful seabed is really refreshing.

It's just that all she has in her head now is those things in the laboratory, and she is not in the mood to appreciate them at all.

However, Lu Yu condensed the water and the snack and put it in front of her.

Su Nan smiled and thanked her, looking at her:

"What is it like to come back from the dead?"

Lu Yuning smiled and said, "If I simply come back to life, I don't want to, because before I was alive, I didn't mean anything, and I was bullied everywhere."

Su Nan slightly twisted his eyebrows: "Someone pretended to be you before, my friend investigated, you came to find your brother?"

Lu Yu nodded, his face ugly and bowed his head.

"I can help you."

Su Nan looked at her and said.

Lu Yuning did not hesitate to grit his teeth and shake his head.

"No, the reason why I have an accident is because of my brother, I took a picture of him, but he refused to come forward, my black-hearted sister-in-law let people deceive me to other places, which made people bullied, I will never recognize him as a brother!" 』

Su Nan was shocked for a moment and immediately apologized:

"I didn't know there were so many other things, I'm really sorry."

Lu Yuning shook his head, "It's all right, you are all good people."

"Good man, how do you know?"

Lu Yu narrowed his eyes slightly, hesitated for a moment, and then said,

"Because you and Mr. Fu did not promise Sheng Zong."

Su Nan's eyes flickered slightly, and he smiled and said

, "You said this, as if there is a problem with this project?"

"I don't know anything about the project, I just know that I really appreciate that he can save me, although he treats me as an experimental object, but I am still grateful to him, he let me be born again, no one will have such an opportunity for me." 』

Su Nan nodded, "That's true." I'm afraid that this Lu Yuning's experience was filmed, and no one could believe it.

After all, the resurrection of the dead is really ridiculous...

But if Shengshi can really do it, then isn't Shang Qian...

Her heart lifted in an instant.

Wrong.

She didn't even find Shang Qian whether he was dead or alive now, even if she had a way and a method, what could she do?

She pursed her lips, "The cost of the results of this project is really shocking, too cruel, if it is known internationally, it will certainly be condemned, and I don't know if it is illegal."

She thought and furrowed her brows.

Although she could think of not being allowed by the various non-profit organizations of the United Nations that protect animals, the ocean should not be legally considered to belong to any country.

Moreover, his undersea tunnel is extremely mysterious, like a huge undersea research institute.

If you want to find it, I am afraid it is also a problem.

Lu Yuning: "I don't know if it is illegal or not, but Sheng Zong is very confident, after all, he is really doing a very good and great cause."

Su Nan looked at her, smiled and did not continue.

Soon.

Fu Yichuan followed out from inside.

Seeing Lu Yu Ning standing next to her talking, his face instantly sank:

"What are you doing here?"

Lu Yu froze for a moment and looked at Su Nan with some confusion.

"I..."

Su Nan pursed her lips, "Miss Lu saw that I was uncomfortable and took me out, General Manager Fu, after reading inside?"

Fu Yichuan furrowed his brows and sat down across from her:

"One by one, it was as if they were fainting, rushing to send money, so I wasn't so stupid, and I didn't do this kind of immoral and unflattering thing."

Lu Yu froze for a moment and suddenly said

"How can this be a lack of morality?" Isn't it great to be able to have a healthy body?"

Otherwise, if you are sick, why do you go to the hospital?

Why should a medical advance be so bad?

Fu Yichuan's face was difficult to see the pole, and his face was dark and shrouded in a bit of coldness:
"Progress

? Kill everything in the ocean in exchange for progress? Have you asked them?

Are those animals willing to sacrifice for your survival?

I see that you are cheap and sell well, do you think you survived greatly?

You survived, so many animals died, what joy do you have? "

Chapter 2,237 Much Like a Person

Lu Yuning stood there with a pale face and took a fragile step back.

Panic and pain were written between the eyebrows.

She was already cruel to these experiments.

But she has been brainwashed by the prosperous era, so she feels that these sacrifices are worth it.

But I didn't expect Fu Yechuan to accuse her of surviving so bluntly that it was a mistake.

It made her feel a little painful for a moment.

Su Nan pursed her lips and looked at Fu Yechuan:

"President Fu, can you not vent your emotions towards An Qi on others, you can see clearly, she is not An Qi."

Fu Yechuan choked for a moment, and his black face did not look over.

Only then did Su Nan look at Lu Yuning and smile and speak:

"Sorry, Miss Lu, no one can accuse anyone of being alive, and neither can he."

Please don't take it to heart, you go first.

Su Nan looked at it immediately, and Sheng Shi seemed to be looking for her.

Lu Yuning nodded with a fragile face, did not dare to look at Fu Yechuan, turned around and ran.

Su Nan took a deep breath, "President Fu, because you are now healthy, disease-free, and in your prime, you have no interest in these.

But when you really need it, you may not think so.

Fu Yechuan twisted his eyebrows to look at her, unable to figure out why Su Nan said this.

Because what Su Nan was thinking at this time was.

If Shang Qian needed it, she would let him give it a try, even if she gave everything.

Humanity and morality.

She wanted to choose Shang Qian.

As soon as Fu Yechuan was about to say something, Sheng Shi walked out radiantly.

“Okay, then it’s settled, Mr. Yu, I hope our cooperation can go smoothly!”

It seems that Shengshi has found the best investor.

Everyone changed the height just now, but kept talking around the prosperous world.

And Lijeff is at the back, but like an outlier.

Su Nan was shocked in his heart, and quickly got up to follow.

Sheng Shi looked at them and said with a smile:

“Miss Su, if you can’t wait, you can go to the cruise ship to play and rest first, and you can leave tomorrow afternoon.”

Su Nan had this intention and nodded:

“Okay, then don’t bother.”

Sheng Shi smiled.

Su Nan looked at Lijief, thinking if he wanted to go with him, so that she could help him push the wheelchair.

Li Jeff also looked at Sheng Shi at this time, and his voice was a little weak:

“President Sheng, I won’t stay, go up and rest, goodbye.”

Sheng Shi pursed his lips and frowned to say something.

But seeing that he had already made a decision, it was not easy to force it, so he could only nod.

If Lijeff could agree to customize his new legs, his recovery would have been a little faster.

It’s just that he doesn’t seem interested.

Su Nan stepped forward a few steps: “Then let’s go together?”

Li Jeff wore a mask, did not see the emotion, but nodded nonchalantly.

Finally they left the place and met the butler who sent them down.

The three returned to the cruise.

Seeing that scene is like a dream.

The housekeeper smiled and handed the three of them different key cards:

“If you need anything, you can always find me, you have my phone in your room, I hope you all have a good time.”

Su Nan smiled and thanked him.

Fu Yechuan didn't say anything, just took it and took a look.

And Li Jeff's key card was squeezed in his hand.

Su Nan glanced at it, as if it was next door to her.

Although Su Nan was very tired, he hadn't forgotten to say that the children had also followed.

She took a deep breath:

“Then I'll go back, goodbye two.”

She took the key card and smiled, then left.

Fu Yechuan caught up and wanted to say something:

“Wait a minute...”

Su Nan looked back at him.

Fu Yechuan glanced at Li Jeff, and a little vigilance crossed his eyes:

“I'll send you back.”

Su Nan rolled his eyes helplessly, turned around and left.

Fu Yechuan followed.

Watching her enter the room, he went to the opposite room.

Also a coincidence.

Being so close made him feel more comfortable.

And Lijeff sat in a wheelchair, motionless.

It didn't take long.

Su Nan made a phone call and brought Rong Yihe with him.

They knew that these two were brought by Su Nan and would not prevent them from coming to the room on the upper floor.

Talk about the children sweating when they play outside, but they don't feel tired at all.

Instead, he was in high spirits, running up and down, and he was excited.

Rong Yi finally took her hand and patiently coaxed her:

“I'm going to see Mommy soon, be more behaved, otherwise I'll tell Mommy about the woman you just pulled off that woman's tail.”

Speaking of the child's pouting mouth, looking at Rong Yi very ignorantly:
<B1147> "But people don't know, why does she have a cat's tail on her ass?" She was dressed like a cat with her hair off..."

Coincidentally, the elevator arrived.

Rong Yi was so frightened that he quickly covered her mouth.

"Don't talk nonsense..."

He shouldn't take her down to play, although the following are also upper-class people, but they don't pay attention to the occasion.

Someone was wearing erotic underwear with a cuddle in the bathroom, but through the crack in the door, he was said to have broken in and saw it, and pulled his tail off.

Fortunately, the parties were too involved and did not notice.

But when Rong Yi saw it, she was startled, and she ran away holding her.

If President Su knew about this matter, he was afraid that he would be finished!

I don't know if the young lady listens to the scare!

But as soon as the door opened.

Speaking of this, he broke free from his hand and walked in the direction of the man in the wheelchair.

"Daddy..."

She ran there happily.

Rong Yi was so frightened that his face turned pale in an instant, and he couldn't catch up.

The man in the wheelchair had his back to them, unable to see clearly.

But the person who can appear at the top, Miss Su said, must not be rash.

So he was so surprised and panicked.

Next second.

Talk about throwing yourself on the front of the wheelchair.

She flexibly wanted to climb up, but her small short legs did not allow it.

She could only pull the clothes holding the man and not let go, twittering and complaining aggrievedly:

"Daddy doesn't want me, I haven't seen and talked about it for a long time, did you come to find Mommy, Xiaoyu'er said that you miss Mommy the most, I don't believe it, Daddy obviously wants to talk about it the most..."

Talk about being nestled in the man's arms all the time, and didn't look up at all.

The man stiffened for a moment.

If not wearing a mask.

At this point his expression will definitely betray all his disguise.

He was shocked first, then shocked and suddenly surprised.

But when Rong Yi's footsteps approached behind, the hand he wanted to hold the little baby in his arms froze in the air.

It has not been left behind.

That kind of entanglement and pain made him lower his eyes and flash through the slow struggle and reluctance.

"Sorry, I'm really sorry, this is our eldest miss, she recognized the wrong person, sorry sir."

Rong Yi walked quickly, and wanted to take the talking child off the man.

But children are not so obedient children.

Especially because she saw Daddy, people all over the world dared to offend!

Chapter 2,238: The Transformed Daddy

No matter what Rong Yi said or not, he just refused to come down.

He helplessly wiped the sweat from his head.

Talk about the little friend pouting his little ass and crying and wiping his tears, it's pitiful:

"Daddy, you quickly let Uncle Rong Yi go away, people don't want him to follow."

Rong Yi's face paused with a tangled expression.

Because the child is too young to accept Shang Qian's death, Su Nan has been hiding the news from her.

It is impossible for these people around them to reveal a little wind.

But how could the disabled person in front of him in a wheelchair be the impetuous Shang Qian at the beginning?

He paused and looked at Li Jeff apologetically:

"I'm really sorry sir, our young lady recognized the wrong person, don't be surprised, I'll let our President Su come out immediately."

He helplessly took out his phone.

I was just about to call Su Nan and ask her to come over to solve it.

But the person in the wheelchair paused, and finally spoke in a hoarse voice:

"It's okay, little one, it's cute, it won't bother me."

His hand fell on the body of the little friend who was talking, patted her gently, and said with a smile:

“Where did such a cute and beautiful little princess come from?”

Speaking of the child, who thought that Shang Qian was teasing her, raised his head happily, and said with a smile:

“People are your little baby...”

Lijeff looked at her darkly, soft and tender child, smiling harmlessly at him.

That feeling seemed to be stripped away from his heart, the most important place.

It is clear that the pain is not to be born, but it is necessary to pretend that nothing happens.

His face gradually turned white, and he looked at her speechless for a while.

Rong Yi hurriedly stepped forward and held her little arm with both hands:

“Talk about Miss, you can see clearly, this is not your father, have you recognized the wrong person?”

The child reluctantly glanced at him before carefully staring at Li Jeff’s face hidden under the mask.

There was a bit of doubt on her immature little face, and it was Rong Yi’s eyes that doubted.

Such a big person, unexpectedly bad eyes!

She stared at the man carefully.

Rong Yi hopes that the man will take off the mask and let the children see.

But this request is too rash and will seem very abrupt, so I can only hope that the child can see the difference in his eyes and temperament.

After all, there is nothing to talk about the intelligence and wit of children.

But for a dozen seconds.

Speaking of which, the child still put his arm around Li Jeff’s neck again.

The immature face was attached to his mask, and he said softly and tenderly:

“Daddy is the best-looking daddy in the world, and Daddy’s body is fragrant, I know as soon as I smell it.”

Her soft voice also carried a bit of delicate and sweet sugar.

Rong Yi held his forehead for a while, if it was really Shang Qian here, I am afraid he would feel very happy.

After all, when it comes to children’s coquetry, few people can resist it.

But this one in front of you is not at all!

He looked at Lijeff with a bitter face.

Lijeff’s eyes flashed slightly, he smiled, and then took off his mask.

“Little friend, you really recognized the wrong person, do I look like your father?”

Speaking of which, the child's eyes widened in shock, looking at the completely unfamiliar face.

Time.

The expression on the little face is very rich.

She was first shocked, tangled, and twisted her brows tightly, and then suddenly opened her mouth and touched Jeff's face with her soft little hand:

"Daddy, you transformed? Did Ultraman make you look like this? I want too..."

Rong Yi originally thought that it would be selfish to say that it was not Shang Qian to see it.

Who knew that he would even think of such a reason?

He paused.

Looking at the man in the wheelchair, he also stiffened slightly, and the corners of his lips pursed into a straight line.

His eyes flickered with incomprehensible emotions, deep and dark.

He stared at the innocent little face of the child, and a shocking voice seemed to come from his chest.

I couldn't help but raise my hand and touch the child's face.

Although his face was expressionless, the light in his eyes was warm and clear, and at this time, it shrouded his body, as if every minute and second was a rare reward from heaven.

Rong Yi couldn't help but stomp his foot, but reason calmed him down.

But the next second.

Fu Yechuan, who came out from the other side, rescued him.

Fu Yechuan obviously came out to make a call, out of professional habits, he suspected that there would be some listening equipment in the room, and some work secrets were still good to come out.

So as soon as he came out, he saw this scene.

Talk about the child wrapping his arms around the disabled person's neck, and his eyebrows were full of excitement and joy.

How could she be so intimate with a strange man?

Moreover, in his eyes, that Lijief is not a good person!

Suddenly.

Fu Yechuan's face became solemn.

Out of the sense of responsibility he had built up and talked about the children, he hung up the phone and walked over directly.

"What to do?"

Rong Yi hurriedly said:

“It’s about Miss.” I mistakenly thought that this gentleman was the president of business, so...”

Fu Yechuan’s eyes flashed slightly, crossed a little indifference, and chuckled:

“It’s the wrong person, let’s talk about it, quickly get off someone else’s body, he is not your father.”

Speaking of the child, he shook his head, with an attitude that no one said:

“Don’t, Uncle Rong Yi quickly takes the strange uncle away, I want to be with my father!”

Rong Yi: “...” Look

, it’s useless for anyone to say.

Fu Yechuan’s face sank, his eyes were a little cold, and he looked at Li Jiefu:

“Mr. Li Jiefu, you are not suitable like this, haven’t you explained it to the children?”

His questioning made the scene suddenly fall into a very awkward and rigid situation.

Rong Yi also sensed that something was wrong.

Hurriedly spoke:

“Mr. Fu, this gentleman has already said, it is to say that the young lady does not believe it, probably to say that the young lady has not seen Daddy for too long, so she misses him so much, and it is understandable to admit her mistake for a while.”

Fu Yechuan’s face was gloomy, and his voice became indifferent:

“Then you can’t be so unruly, what if you disturb others?” Talk about it, come down quickly, I’ll take you to your mommy.

Talk about the child who didn’t like this strange uncle in the first place, especially his attitude was always arrogant and indifferent, with a condescending feeling, which made people feel scared.

No wonder even Fu Yunche’s brother didn’t like his father, she and Xiao Yu’er had discussed it in private, and they didn’t like this strange uncle even more.

Talk about the child’s stubborn temper came up, snorted coldly, and refused to let go of his hand.

The man in the wheelchair is also a little helpless and spoiled.

He gently patted the back of the child, and said in a gentle voice:

“It’s okay, when I talk to this child properly, she will understand.”

After speaking, Li Jeff glanced at Fu Yechuan meaningfully, with a bit of chill in his eyes:

“Besides, what rules do such a young child know? Mr. Fu is inevitably too strict...”

Chapter 2,239: Su Nan’s Meaning

This sentence really spoke to Rong Yi's heart.

Don't say that no one in the Su family dares to say this about Su Nan's daughter, even those who cooperate with the Su family Shang family dare not criticize Su Nan's precious daughter.

What's more, it is still a treasure that Shang Qian puts on the tip of his heart.

Fu Yechuan's words are really out of proportion.

He and Miss Su didn't skim each other, so he brought in the role of "stepfather" so early?

Rong Yi really regretted not taking Miss Talk away earlier.

Meeting Fu Yechuan is also unlucky enough.

But when Fu Yechuan heard Li Jie's words, his face instantly became cold:

"Are you teaching me a lesson?"

"I'm correcting you, not to mention such a well-behaved and sensible child, Mr. Fu will scare her like this."

Li Jeff held the child in his arms, and the two looked intimate, as if they were really biological father and daughter.

This deeply stabbed Fu Yechuan's heart.

Fu Yunche was as timid as a mouse, and he did not dare to get close to him, and he was not a rare son of An Qi.

But he talked about the child, but he really regarded her as his own child, and he would give her the best in the future, but now talk about the child, he doesn't like him so much?

Is he even inferior to a man in a wheelchair?

No, it's this Lijeff who is too good at coaxing others.

Just now he coaxed Su Nan to push a wheelchair for him.

Now he is coaxing a child who is less than three years old.

His intentions are really unimaginably vicious!

Fu Yechuan's gaze was a little deeper, and he looked at Li Jeff with dissatisfaction:

"I'm afraid that you think too much, and you manage too much, and I don't need others to teach me my style."

With that, he eased his expression, smiled gently, and looked at the child.

Immediately stretched out his hand: "Come, talk, come to uncle, uncle is not a stranger, uncle take you to play!"

Speaking of the child's unmoved lying on the man's shoulder, his voice was soft and firmly rejected him:

“No, I want Daddy!”

Lijeff smiled, and the smile was extremely harsh.

Fu Yechuan pursed his lips, and his voice sank unconsciously:

“He is not your daddy, your daddy is dead.”

Rong Yi looked up at him in shock, and couldn't wait to quickly step forward and cover the ears of the eldest lady.

But at the same time, one step ahead of Rong Yi is Li Jeff.

He covered the ears of the talking child, and his warm gaze quickly condensed, and he raised his eyes gloomy and looked at Fu Yechuan.

One in a wheelchair and one standing condescendingly.

Who has a greater sense of superiority can be imagined.

But at this time, Li Jiefu, who was in a wheelchair, did not lose his aura to Fu Yechuan at all.

The sickly paleness and weakness around him diminished a little, and the cold anger in his eyes silenced the air around him.

The salty sea breeze outside blew through the window, and the vast and silent waves and raging waves did not even move at this time.

But at this time, the children have already heard.

Speaking of which, the child stared at him angrily, and a few tears instantly appeared in his beautiful and lustrous big eyes:

“I hate weird uncle, I hate you, you go away, you are not allowed to bully my daddy!”

She looked at Rong Yi, almost in a commanding tone, but with a bit of softness and fragility:

“Uncle Rong Yi quickly drive him away, I don't want to see him, otherwise, I will let Daddy drive you away!”

In the matter of maintaining Daddy, it is said that the children have never backed down.

Rong Yi's face froze, but she understood the consequences of this young lady's anger.

On the problems that appeared in Fu Yechuan, he did not deal with them in time.

Just rushing this point, the people of the Su family will no longer let him get close to Miss Talk.

He immediately looked at Fu Yechuan and said politely:

“Mr. Fu, since we are talking about the meaning of the young lady, then don't force it, let this gentleman coax her well, I will wait here, I will naturally take the eldest miss away in a while, so you don't need to worry about it.”

Fu Yechuan's face was so gloomy that it could drip water.

His eyes snapped at Rong Yi.

Rong Yi was originally unbearable, but when he thought that he was Shang Qian's person, and he didn't eat his food, what was there to be afraid of?

Anyway, something happened, there is talk about the children topping.

Fu Yechuan stood there, his aura gloomy and powerful:

"I don't see the need, it's good that the child knows it earlier, and he can accept it earlier, you blindly deceive her, but it hurts her!"

Rong Yi's face was also not very happy:

"This is what Miss Su meant!"

Fu Yechuan paused slightly, and then pursed the corners of his lips, and his tone was cold and hard:

"She didn't come out herself, how could she bear to tell her daughter personally?"

Fu Yechuan said, and his heart fell unconsciously.

He was afraid of this sense of loss.

So subconsciously full of hostility towards Lijief in front of him.

He stepped forward, intending to pick up the child directly and forcefully from Li Jeff's leg:

"Give her to me, and I will give it to her mommy."

Li Jeff's eyes were indifferent, and for a moment the child hugged him tightly.

Speaking of which, the child seemed to have sensed some sense of crisis, and suddenly shrank uneasily into Li Jeff's arms.

Rong Yi also stepped forward in surprise, wanting to stop Fu Yechuan:

"President Fu, please calm down, you will scare our eldest miss like this."

Fu Yechuan's face was cold, and his tone was full of arrogance:

"If you let her continue to recognize a stranger, it will be cruel to her, and I will not hurt her, what are you afraid of?"

Speaking, he firmly planned to pick up the child with both hands.

But as soon as she met the child, she suddenly burst into tears as if she was frightened.

Fu Yechuan twisted his eyebrows, planning to grit his teeth and simply take her away.

But the next second.

The elevator suddenly came up and opened the door.

A person came out of it, and when he saw this scene, the corners of his mouth that had been smiling suddenly stiffened:

“Fu Yechuan, what are you doing, bullying our children?”

Su Qi is wearing a high-fashion suit, the whole person is handsome and graceful, and he has a noble temperament.

At this time, he looked at Fu Yechuan vigilantly.

Talk about the child crying hysterically in Lijeff’s arms, as if he would not be able to stop for a while.

Su Qi was even more anxious when he heard this, and took a few steps up to push Fu Yechuan away.

“Fu Yechuan, are you trying to bully my daughter while my sister is away?”

Fu Yechuan’s eyebrows were cold, and his face sank:

“Of course not, let’s talk about holding a stranger and treating him as a dead Shang Qian, I’m just worried that she will be used and hurt!”

Su Qi’s face sank, and suddenly became cold.

He glanced at the child worriedly, eagerly couldn’t care about anything, and scolded him directly:

“You put... What words? How can you talk nonsense in front of a child? Shang Qian’s death has not yet been decided, you can’t wait so much?”

Chapter 2,240: Goodbye

to Daddy Fu

Yechuan’s face was blue with iron, and his face was as cold as ice.

His eyes were even a little gloomy towards Su Qi.

The people of the Su family turned out to be more than Su Nan and talking about self-deception.

And so did everyone else!

It’s ridiculous!

“Su Shao, am I wrong? Well, leaving this matter aside, I’m afraid that strangers will hurt her, shouldn’t I help?”

Fu Yechuan’s tone was cold and hard, and he restrained his anger in his heart.

Su Qi twisted his eyebrows, glanced at the person in the wheelchair, and flashed a little sympathy.

However, he didn’t pay too much attention, just glanced at Rong Yi next to him:

“Aren’t there people around?” Fu is always too worried?

Rong Yi hurriedly spoke:

“Yes, I have been following the eldest miss, because the eldest miss recognized the wrong person, and she had to lie on this gentleman, this gentleman did not do anything, planning to coax the eldest miss to come...”

Fu Yechuan’s eyes were glazed, Suddenly glanced at Rong Yi with unkind eyes.

Su Qi nodded abruptly, his eyes flickered slightly, and he laughed:

“Mr. Fu, since you said that you sent it to the door, then coax it down, don’t scare the child into crying, our family said that the little baby is the least crying child!”

Fu Yechuan: “I...”

“We understand President Fu’s kindness, but when there is no danger, we can’t deliberately create danger, let’s talk about the most reasonable child, you can’t take the eyes of an adult to underestimate her!”

Su Qi said, stepping forward and taking a step.

He approached Fu Yechuan, patted him on the shoulder, and said in a low voice:

“Mr. Fu, I know that you want to use talk to chase my sister, but I advise you to change direction, don’t you know who brought up this child?”

It was my brother-in-law who brought up personally, and when she was a child, she lost a strand of her hair and had to collect it as a souvenir, talk about closing her eyes and knowing who is good to her!

Fu Yechuan’s face was as black as the bottom of a pot.

It really couldn’t be ugly anymore.

The moment his heart was pierced, he was nervous for a moment.

But Su Qi has acted in so many years, and he knows exactly how the plot of the script develops.

Fu Yechuan, a person who can’t act, how could he hide it from him as an actor?

Talk about still crying hysterically.

Lijief gently patted her back, and subconsciously touched the back of her neck, and gradually her crying was weakening.

Su Qi and none of them found this small detail.

Fu Yechuan’s eyes darkened, glanced at them, and said with a cold face:

“Since Su Shao is here, naturally it will not be my turn to do much, I still have things, take my leave.”

With that, he glanced deeply at Li Jeff.

When I left, there was a chill in my eyes.

Is it not better than a dead person, is it not better than a disabled person?

What he has is a chance.

Looking at him immediately, Su Qi's eyes deepened slightly.

He looked at Rong Yi next to him accusingly:

"What's going on, I'm crying when I talk about it, why don't you let Su Nan come over?"

Rong Yi was also stunned.

He didn't expect it here for a while, and Fu Yechuan was there at the time, he only felt dangerous.

However, Su Qi just said it casually and did not really complain about him.

After all, Rong Yi is not a nanny to talk about.

He smiled and looked at the still sobbing and choking talk, and looked at Li Jeff:

"Sir your surname?"

"My name is Li Jeff, Canadian."

He said, leaning forward slightly, wanting to hand over the talking child in his arms.

Su Qi was just about to reach out and take it, saying that the child hugged Li Jeff's neck with his backhand.

"Daddy don't leave me..."

She cried miserably, and tears fell one by one, breaking people's hearts.

In the past, when I was at home, everyone was petted, especially with little fish as company, and even crying was fake crying.

Rarely there is such hysteria.

Therefore, Su Qi took Fu Yechuan away for the first time.

Su Qi's eyes darkened, looked at the child with distress, and sighed.

He didn't snatch people up strongly, but a hand gently fell on her back:

"Tell me about the most well-behaved children, I am an uncle, I am your favorite third uncle!"

Speaking of the child's sobbing and raising his head, his red eyes made people feel distressed:

"Oh, third uncle."

Su Qi smiled and stretched out his hands:

"Come on, throw yourself into the arms of the third uncle, and the third uncle will take you out to play!"

Speaking of the child's pouting mouth, he touched Jeff's face very reluctantly and reluctantly:

"But people want to play with Daddy."

Su Qi smiled and glanced at Li Jeff:

“Oh, but Daddy has something, I can’t play with you, I don’t believe you asked him.”

Su Qi winked at Li Jeff.

A signal was delivered.

Talk about the child blinking at Lijeff with big eyes, pitifully shedding tears.

Lijeff lowered his eyes in distress.

Try to harden your heart.

How could he really stay?

But let him let go, he really can’t bear it!

But in front of Su Qi, he couldn’t show a single flaw.

Otherwise things won’t end well.

He looked at the child gently and smiled, and said apologetically:

“I really have something, let’s go with your uncle, okay?”

Let’s talk about children even if they are very reluctant to daddy.

But I also know that I can’t disturb my father’s work.

Because Daddy used to say that he would make a lot of money to buy her the planet Ott.

She wanted Planet Otter so much.

So he could only nod tangled, sobbing aggrievedly:

“Daddy wants to come to see me early, I will always wait for you.”

Lijeff smiled, unable to say anything hard.

The little friend in his arms, Yuxue is cute and has white skin, as if it really occupies his entire life.

When she cried, the tip of his heart hurt.

When she came out of the glass of life, he could feel his unforgettable pain and reluctance.

Life is so cruel.

It gave him a dangerous first half of his life, and gave him unattainable happiness.

Now, it robbed him of happiness and devoured his hope.

He only deserves to be in a dark corner, watching his former family from a distance.

Su Qi took the opportunity to open his arms:

“Come on baby, uncle is holding you...”

Speaking of which, the child reluctantly stretched out his hand and put it on Su Qi’s arm.

This signal made Su Qi understand in a second, he picked her up with both hands, she was not struggling, but she was still sobbing and did not slow down.

“Come, goodbye uncle.”

Su Qi reminded to be polite.

He waved his hand: “Goodbye Daddy!” Rong

Yi: “...”

Su Qi didn’t mind, anyway, she went back to sleep and forgot.

He nodded towards Lijief, hugged and walked in the direction of Su Nan’s room.

And Rong Yi on the side was just about to follow.

Suddenly he heard Lijief remind him:

“Assistant Rong, your things have fallen...”
