

Divorce 2241

Chapter 2,241 Says or Doesn't Say

Rong Yi subconsciously looked down.

Sure enough, it's about the child's brilliant and valuable diamond hair card.

"Thank you, this is our eldest lady's favorite thing recently."

He quickly crouched down and picked it up.

You can't afford to lose him!

Meantime.

Lijeff controlled the wheelchair and went back to his room.

Rong Yi picked up the moment he issued the card.

Suddenly my mind was confused.

As if someone had smashed a stick from behind, the feeling of dizziness enveloped him instantly.

What did that Lijeff call him?

Rong assistant?

But Rong Yi had never seen this person at all, or Fu Yechuan pointed out the identity of this Lijief, and he knew it.

How could he know himself?

How will you know your surname Rong?

And, most importantly, how could he know in such detail that his identity was an assistant?

He took the story to say that the young lady had been playing since he got on the cruise, and his identity was never revealed.

This man...

He fell silent for a moment.

Only the wheelchair disappeared in front of you.

He was completely panicked.

Rong Yi wanted to leave, his room was below.

But Su Nan called him.

Let him go to her room first.

Rong Yi walked to the door in a lost spirit, and only then did he react that he was still holding the hair card in his hand.

He took a deep breath and knocked on the door.

Hearing Su Nan's familiar voice, he went in.

He didn't know whether to tell Su Nan what he had just discovered.

Is Shang Qian really alive?

Talk about the child being so attached to him, is it because father and daughter are connected?

But if he is alive, how can he not return home?

If it is fake, how does he know his identity?

Rong Yi felt a mess in his heart.

Su Nan was holding and talking about the children playing, and Su Qi was also coaxing on the side.

Talk about the child's mood has returned to stability.

When she looked at Rong Yi, she smiled and said:

"It's true, I don't believe you ask him, he also saw Daddy!"

Su Nan looked at Rong Yi in surprise, and then frowned slightly:

"Assistant Rong, what's wrong with you?" Why is the face so bad?

Su Nan looked at him with concern:

"I'll go find you a doctor?" Where is the body uncomfortable?

Rong Yi reacted, and quickly shook his head:

"No need, I'm just a little seasick, just a while."

This is to talk about the hair card that fell on the ground.

He handed it over.

Su Nan took it with a smile and gave it back and said:

"Tell me if the children are careless, I won't buy you the exact same hair card!"

Talking about the child's surprise to take it, he quickly promised:

"No, no, thank you Uncle Rong Yi."

Su Nan put down the little friend and touched her head:

"Go clean up your little room yourself, Mommy has to talk to Uncle and Uncle Rong Yi about things."

Speaking of which, the child simply nodded and couldn't wait to run to her new room.

Su Nan stood up and looked at Rong Yi:

"Sit down."

Su Qi did not see outside, and went to the bar to make coffee.

Su Nan looked at Rong Yi sitting there, his face was not very good, and he didn't hesitate much:

"Assistant Rong, did something unpleasant happen just now?"

It's all to blame that this room is so well soundproofed, I just squinted for a while, I didn't hear anything, what the hell is going on outside?"

Su Qi poured the brewed coffee into the cup, and the three cups of coffee were just right and brought to the table.

"Assistant Rong, speak slowly, I also want to know."

Rong Yi took a sip of coffee and gasped hot.

Su Nan twisted his eyebrows to see that something was wrong with him.

Even Su Qi found out.

Rong Yi hurriedly put it down, wiped it with a tissue, pursed his lips and said:

"In fact, it was a misunderstanding, saying that the young lady recognized the wrong person, and felt that Lijief was the president of business, and refused to come down alive, and President Fu didn't know how to see it, so he came over and said a few words..."

He pursed his lips and said it word by word.

He did not hide the slightest.

After all, he would not say good things for Fu Yechuan, and what Fu Yechuan said was really said by him, which was difficult to hear.

It's just that he didn't say anything about what happened after they left.

That card issuing thing.

Because he needs to verify it.

Miss Su can't be made happy in vain.

Wouldn't it be too disappointing if it were just a coincidence?"

After listening quietly, Su Nan was expressionless, but his face was a little indifferent and disgusted.

This Fu Yechuan has seriously affected their lives.

It seems that we must clearly keep our distance from him.

Su Qi laughed, slowly took the coffee and said:

"I see that Mr. Fu has no bad intentions, he wants to be courteous but finds the wrong direction."

Of course, it's okay to please and talk about children, but if you talk about children who are not ordinary people, give some sweetness and go along.

And our little princess has been spoiled since she was a child, he is so strict, it will only make the talk hate him more and more, President Fu still made a mistake!

Su Nan gave him a white look:

“Third brother, can you not say cool words?” You disappeared from this performance, why did you suddenly appear?

Su Qi smiled:

“No way, I went to a show these days, I knew that I had to make an appointment for me, I can’t let your third sister-in-law’s pigeons, she even collected the money for me, I can only go.”

But fortunately, there was no delay, I got on the cruise in time, by the way, you went to see the project? How’s the inspection going?

Su Nan pursed her lips, “It’s not good, I’m not interested.”

“That’s fine, anyway, the eldest brother originally let you come out to relax.”

Su Qi said indifferently.

Rong Yi paused and couldn’t help but stand up:

“President Su, if there is nothing else, I will go back to rest.”

Su Nan saw that his face was not good, and nodded:

“I’ll let the doctor on the ship take a look at it.”

“I really don’t need to, I brought medicine.”

Rong Yi said.

Su Nan: “Okay. After

Su Qi’s eyes flashed, and he hesitated a little:

“I haven’t heard that Assistant Rong is seasick, he said seasickness earlier, so he simply took it with him.”

Su Nan smiled helplessly:

“Please, it’s not here to play, how can you choose one at random?”

Su Qi raised his eyebrows, “Okay, but you can’t be soft on Fu Yechuan this time, you must let him change his temper, otherwise if you really get together, wouldn’t it...”

Before he finished speaking, he looked at Su Nan staring at him with a bad face.

Su Qi swallowed the rest of the words back in time.

“I mean in case, forget it, he won’t be able to take the position for a while anyway.”

But what he said also makes sense, we can't lie and talk for too long, otherwise we won't see people, and the child will be suspicious.

Su Qi finished speaking.

Su Nan fell silent.

She nodded lightly: "I know, I will think of a way that will not hurt her."

Su Qi took a sip of coffee and looked left and right:

"Well, which room do I live in?"

Su Nan looked at him quietly:

"You don't live here."

Chapter 2,242: Restaurant Encounter

"What?"

Su Qi was shocked.

"I didn't arrange your room in this suite, you let the butler open one for you!"

Su Qi helplessly stretched out his hand:

"I don't have an invitation, I can't open it upstairs, I don't want to live in the room downstairs, there are too many people and too much."

And I want to protect you with me, what if bad guys break in in the middle of the night and hurt you and talk about children? His excuses sounded high.

Su Nan smiled, his eyes seemed to reflect the starry sky, and he had a look:

"Third brother, I admire your cheeky technique, which makes people have nothing to say!"

Su Qi gave her a white look: "Then I'll go and talk about living, anyway, she's still young, let her live in a crib, I live in her big bed!"

With that, he was about to occupy the room of talk.

Su Nan was helpless: "Forget it, you go to lie on your side, I am recently cultivating her habit of sleeping independently, I can't destroy it for you."

Su Qi showed a triumphant smile:

"It's about the same."

Satisfied, he went to clean up the room.

Even the second bedroom of the upstairs suite has a superb view.

And the decoration facilities are unimaginably luxurious, not at all comparable to those rooms downstairs.

Moreover, Su Yifeng strictly demanded that he not leave her room for half a step at night.

You must watch Su Nan fall asleep before he can squint for a while.

Old father's words, he can't help but listen ah!

Rong Yi went out.

Would have wanted to take the elevator to leave.

But Mu Ran arrived at the elevator.

Suddenly I saw a man in a wheelchair.

He was stunned for a moment, and his hands clenched sharply.

I was very excited.

Once that thought came to him, he felt that talking about a child's intuition might not be vexatious.

He stepped forward and looked at Lijief nervously and carefully:

"Mr. Shang, are you Mr. Shang?"

Lijeff's eyes were dark, and he looked at him for more than ten seconds.

He slowly tugged at the corners of his lips.

No one noticed that his hands were clutching the handle of the wheelchair, and his fingertips were slightly white.

He smiled and showed an unfamiliar smile:

"What business? I don't understand.

Rong Yi twisted his eyebrows, and his face changed:

"But if it's not the president of Shang, how can you know my identity?"

He stared closely at the person in front of him, trying to find a flaw in his expression.

Use this to prove your inference.

But Lijeff's expression has always been indignant, morbid and pale.

There was a certain dark gloom in his eyes, which was completely different from Shang Qian.

"Your identity? I don't know, I went to inspect the project with President Su before, she said that she came with her daughter and Assistant Rong, the only child on this cruise is Miss Su's daughter, you by her side, isn't it Assistant Rong?"

He seemed to be testing Rong Yi.

Rong Yi also noticed it and pursed his lips:

“It turned out that President Su said it.”

He muttered, not knowing if it was loss or what.

Lijief smiled and continued to speak calmly:

“By the way, I want to ask Assistant Rong, what is President Su’s next trip, is she not interested in this project?”

Rong Yi instantly became vigilant:

“Do you want to inquire about our President Su?”

His years of professional habits immediately sobered him up.

Li Jeff smiled lightly: “If there is any cooperation in the future, I can’t afford to treat you.”

“Sir said and laughed, we Su have not failed me, there is no need for you to worry.”

After Rong Yi finished speaking, he nodded directly and entered the elevator.

I don’t want to say more.

It was he who guessed wrong, how could this person be Shang Qian?

If it was really Shang Qian, how could he see Su Nan and Miss Talk, and still be indifferent?

Because the big taboo in the workplace is to say too much to people you don’t know.

He had thought that this Lijeff was a good man.

It seems that his good is only in disguise, and the real purpose is to get close to President Su.

He can’t let others take advantage of it!

How could such a person be Shang Qian?

He immediately expressed ignorance in his heart about the suspicion just now.

A person as bright and clear as President Shang, the man in a wheelchair, is not comparable in this life!

The elevator closed slowly.

Lijeff breathed a slow sigh of relief outside.

Time seems to freeze.

He then lifted his burden, and he suddenly relaxed.

The straight back suddenly bent down, and there was a bit of a downcast look.

The whole person is haunted by loneliness.

It turns out that he was right to choose Rong Yi in the first place.

This person has no tricky Taoism, and he is also straightforward and frank, but not annoying.

If it is by Shang Qian's side, Rong Yi is not suitable.

But put it in the business map of country Z, What Shang Qian needed at that time was a loyal person, not much cleverness.

So Shang Qian chose Rong Yi.

Shang Qian, who was on Wall Street in country M, chose Jiang Ying, who was full of thoughts.

Jiang Ying has long disappeared, and Rong Yi has become more and more capable.

After he subconsciously revealed his identity ten minutes ago because of a reminder.

He did not hesitate and waited here because he understood Rong Yi.

Rong Yi will definitely find a way to come over and ask for verification.

Sure enough, as expected.

He looked fixedly in the direction of Su Nan's room.

I don't know how long it took, sighed in a low voice, and went to the next room.

Talk about the children who are tired of playing and sleep.

Neither Su Nan nor Su Qi bothered her.

But it was getting late.

The sea breeze outside inevitably blew in, and the sound of the sea made Su Nan feel dull in his heart.

No matter how comfortable the room was, she couldn't stay.

So while talking about sleeping, she changed into a more casual dress and planned to go out.

Su Qi saw it and asked in surprise, "Where are you going?"

"I'll go to the restaurant."

"Isn't it food delivery?"

Originally, after the private dinner, the rest of the time would be served by a butler.

If you are interested in cooperation, you can also have dinner with Shengshi.

But Su Nan obviously did not have this interest.

She brushed her messy hair and sighed:

"I'll go to the restaurant to breathe, you wait for the butler to send it, and take care of it by the way."

Su Qi: "..."

How

does he feel that living here is not very free?

Su Nan closed the door and left.

At the top of this cruise ship, they restrict private dining rooms, except for the ten VIPs upstairs, guests downstairs are not allowed to come up to eat.

So the environment is quieter.

And these ten guests are busy investing in Shengshi projects, and they will not be in the mood to come out to eat.

When Su Nan came up, he saw that there was no other figure at all.

Just close to the deck, looking at the back of a figure in a wheelchair, slightly curled forward, arms on the wheelchair, lonely.

It seems to merge with the vast sea, swallowed by it, and only a fragile black dot is reflected in the eyes.

Chapter 2,243 Yesterday Met

The

huge waves hit, and there was no trace in an instant.

Su Nan somehow met him a little frequently recently, but thinking about the area is so large, of course, it is inevitable.

When they return to China, there will probably be no chance to meet again.

She didn't want to disturb Jeff's alone time.

It seems a little abrupt.

After all, the two people are not familiar with each other.

Although the familiar feeling he gave her before was too exciting.

Thinking, she planned to turn around and leave.

But the person sitting there suddenly turned around.

Probably heard movement.

Lijeff was still wearing a mask and hat, and the whole person was shrouded in the shadow range he had set himself.

It seems to have wrapped itself in a thick cocoon, and no one can walk in.

When he saw Su Nan, he was a little surprised, and his eyes were slightly startled.

Su Nan pursed her lips and smiled embarrassedly:

"Sorry, I didn't know there was someone on it."

Li Jeff nodded lightly, his voice was a little low, and it sounded like the mood just now was not high:

"Miss Su, please sit."

Su Nan hesitated for a few seconds before walking over.

If you go directly, it will seem rude.

A small part of the deck is open air.

The low roar of the sea breeze.

The sky is high and the sea is wide, and the feeling of huge waves in the wilderness gives people a sense of grandeur that washes the world.

And near the railing, there is a chair and a table.

There was originally a chair opposite the table, but it was taken away.

Because the location of Lijief's wheelchair is where the chair was originally placed.

She sat in her chair, vaguely hearing the symphony downstairs, the lively ball, as if it was not happening at the same time.

"Listening to what my third brother said before, it was my daughter who recognized the wrong person, she is young, I apologize to you for her."

Lijeff's face turned white and he held back some emotions.

A few seconds later.

Only then did he speak calmly: "It's nothing, the children are cute and don't bother me."

Su Nan secretly breathed a sigh of relief, and was relieved to hear that he was not angry.

However, listening to Su Qi before, this person is not a bad person, so he is also extremely patient with talking.

If she could take a closer look at the face under the mask, she would find that his breathing was much heavier at this time, his eyelids were slightly red, and the blue tendons on the back of his hands were bulging.

"Actually, before this, we seem to have met, yesterday in the amusement park, there was a drama performance, I temporarily changed seats with someone, and I was sitting next to you at that time, Mr. Li, do you have any impression?"

Su Nan couldn't help but ask him.

It took a while.

Li Jeff hesitated to speak: "No, although I went at that time, but because of temporary things, I left quickly, unfortunately I didn't pay attention to others, Miss Su forgive me."

Su Nan smiled, not caring much.

They hadn't known each other before, and if she hadn't felt a familiar feeling in Lijief, she would have paid extra attention, otherwise she wouldn't even look at it.

Presumably, in Li Jeff's eyes, looking at her is the same as looking at ordinary people present.

Strange to the point that there is no way to notice.

Thinking like this, Su Nan naturally wanted to open some.

"It's okay, I'm just curious, how did you end up there then?"

Li Jeff's expression tightened slightly, he pursed his lips, and his tone was calm:

"I heard that the performance of the speech drama changed its form, and I just wanted to make a scene."

Su Nan nodded, so it was.

After all, there were not a few people who went for that drama performance at that time, both adults and children.

The two were silent for a while.

Lijief looked at everything in the void on the sea, and he couldn't see what he was thinking in his eyes.

Su Nan is also a rare calm.

It didn't take a while.

The director of the restaurant came over with someone and looked at the two people with a smile:

"Mr. Li, Miss Su, if you want to eat something, our chef can prepare it for you at any time."

Li Jeff paused, "I'm not hungry, thank you." Su

Nan didn't come up to eat, she just wanted to breathe.

Right now, she didn't have much to eat.

I thought for a few seconds before I said,

"Give me a cup of coffee?"

Before the supervisor gladly agreed, he listened to Lijief subconsciously said:

"Drinking coffee at night is not good for the body."

Su Nan and the restaurant supervisor looked at him in surprise.

Lijeff suddenly realized his gaffe.

Most of the people in the mall also refreshed themselves with coffee at night, which is the most normal thing for Su Nan.

But Su Nan fell silent because of these words.

More than silence.

The thunder in her chest made it difficult for her to restrain her, and the familiar feeling in Lijeff came back to her mind.

Faces are strange, people are strange.

But that feeling just can't deceive people.

Why?

Can there be such a similar feeling between two complete strangers?

Drinking coffee at night is not good for the body.

This sentence is what Shang Qian often whispers in her ear, familiar words, every word, every tone, it is familiar!

Su Nan gradually stopped drinking coffee in the evening or evening.

It's just that after Shang Qian left, she couldn't sleep all night and didn't want to fall asleep.

The things in the coffee can make her body relax for a moment, allowing her to get rid of stress and torture.

So she returned to her previous habits.

It's just that no one whispers in her ear all day long, chanting such things as coffee is bad for her health.

Hearing what the person in front of her said, she was in a momentary trance.

It was as if her lover was still around.

As if none of the catastrophe had happened.

When Su Nan subconsciously looked at Li Jeff, he looked away nervously.

His whole body tensed, and his clenched fists revealed his nervousness.

He smiled pale and made up for what he had just said:

"This is just my personal suggestion, because I often drank coffee and lost sleep for a while, so I was like this."

Su Nan's original hope slowly dimmed.

Instead, it was a thick disappointment and pain that could not be erased.

But as soon as she lowered her eyes, she suppressed all her emotions.

Just lightly tugged at the corners of his mouth:

"Also, it just reminds me of a person who often whispers this sentence in my ear, but I may never hear it again in the future."

There was a moment of silence and coldness in the air.

Li Jeff's face was slightly pale, his fingertips grabbed the wheelchair, and he forcefully revealed his emotions.

"Is it? That seems to be someone who is important to you.

Su Nan smiled and looked at the director of the restaurant:

"Give me a glass of milk."

"Okay, Miss Su, please wait."

They have already talked about another topic, and naturally they don't want others to be present to listen to it together.

As soon as the restaurant supervisor left.

There was a very subtle ripple between the two people.

Su Nan continued on the topic and couldn't help but speak:

"It's very important, it's my husband, the reason why my daughter will recognize the wrong person, probably feels that Mr. Li is a little like him to some extent."

Chapter 2,244 He Doesn't Care

Su Nan didn't know why, facing Li Jeff, she had the idea of talking.

Obviously, she didn't even say these words to her family.

Perhaps facing the sea and facing strangers, so that her emotions can be steadily withdrawn, stand in the perspective of a bystander, and calmly analyze the reasons for her emotional changes.

Won't meet again in the future anyway.

Just think of him as a tree hole.

It's just that Li Jeff took a long time to react, and his voice was slightly dull and dry:

"Where is it like? Does it look alike?"

Su Nan shook his head, his voice distant and gentle:

"No, it's not like it at all, I can't say it, it may be temperamental."

She was also very confused, how could Li Jeff's sense of familiarity be exactly the same as Shang Qian?

Li Jeff relaxed slightly, sat in a wheelchair, crossed his hands in front of him, his eyes were far away, with a bit of calmness: "That's a coincidence, if you have the opportunity, I hope to meet and say hello."

Su Nan's face changed slightly, and his heart seemed to be stabbed fiercely by a thorn, and his face turned white with pain:

"Maybe, there is no chance, right?"

Her voice was a little trembling, holding back her emotions.

Lijeff immediately regretted what he said.

He forgot how much Shang Qian's departure would affect Su Nan!

He was being tortured, so why wasn't she?

But now.

He gritted his teeth, but he still pretended to be nothing, ignorant, and asked her lightly:

"Oh? Why? He was so cruel.

At this time, although he was facing the sea, he was no longer attracted by the sea for a minute.

Su Nan's voice was very soft, gentle not like her original voice.

A gentle voice, speaking with a cruel truth:

"He may or may not be in this world anymore."

After speaking, I felt the air freeze for a moment.

The sea breeze is cool.

The surrounding sounds froze inch by inch, and a confined space seemed to be shrouded between the two of them.

No one can penetrate.

Lijeff felt as if his heart was being clenched fiercely.

Trembling, pain, thousands of times accumulated in his body.

Even if he is now facing people who think about it day and night.

However, they cannot reveal their true identity.

A perfect person like Su Nan should have a more perfect life.

Standing beside her is decent, glamorous, and able to be by her side to take care of her for the rest of her life.

But that person should not be who he is now.

He couldn't walk upright on his legs, run and jump freely, or even pick her and the child.

Such a self, appearing by her side, in addition to bringing her more ridicule and sarcasm and sarcasm, what is left?

Even if she doesn't care for three or five years.

But what about ten or twenty years?

Looking at the happiness of other people's families, will she really have no regrets in her heart?

I don't regret it, why didn't I die in the earthquake?

Why drag her crippled body into her life?

Why let her glamorous life carry an indelible stain?

He knew that Su Nan was not that kind of person.

But he will care.

He cares about others sending sympathetic glances around her and talking.

Sympathize with such an excellent mother and daughter, the husband and father around him turned out to be a disability!

Talking about it will become inferior, sensitive, and will hate him more and more as a father.

All affection will gradually be smoothed out in ordinary life.

If Su Nanhe had even the slightest thought of regret and inferiority in his heart, he would not want to die in that earthquake.

That is the most exciting cold blade, which can cut him a thousand times!

Therefore, he did not dare to go back, did not dare to face, did not dare to meet the indifference after the euphoria.

He is a man of strong self-esteem, and he cannot accept being rejected like this.

He could feel her pain, but there was nothing he could do.

He could only lower his head even more, silent, and let his heart throb.

For a while.

Listening to Su Nan, he suddenly asked him:

"Will he come back?"

Her voice was faint and a little helpless.

Li Jeff's gaze was dark:

"Whether he will come back or not, I hope you and your family are safe and healthy."

Su Nan chuckled, with a low sarcasm:

"Peace? His wish should be told to me personally, others regard him as such a kind person, but I know that he has a strong sense of boundaries and protection in his life.

He hates people being involved in our lives, so I wonder if his wish is for me to accompany him. The voice was lost.

Lijeff jerked his head up at her.

The pain and horror in his eyes did not have time to hide.

The sharp pain in his chest came, making his limbs feel numb and cold.

His lips turned white and he opened his mouth, What do you want to say.

But then the housekeeper of the restaurant came, and he put two glasses of milk on the table, one for each person:

“Please use slowly.”

Su Nan nodded and said with a smile: “Thank you.” The restaurant supervisor left with a smile.

But when he arrived, he disturbed all the emotions of the people in the wheelchair.

He suddenly didn’t know how to speak.

He looked at the person sitting there looking at the sea, his eyebrows calm and gentle.

The evening sun enveloped her, and she was surrounded by a halo of light colors.

The side face is beautifully outlined and still looks stunning.

Just lost some weight, she almost lost a whole circle.

The man’s eyes were sour as he watched from the side, and suddenly his heart was dull, like a boulder weighing heavily on his heart.

That indescribable despair, like a boulder crushing a straw, made him unable to stand up straight.

Su Nan did not touch the glass of milk.

But she kept looking out into the sea, the tumbling waves crashing against the deck below.

Some of the sea washes up and disappears in an instant.

The evening breeze blows a chill.

The two people above seemed to be immersed in the wind.

I don’t know hot or cold.

But at the moment.

Li Jeff couldn’t calm down, looked at Su Nan, pursed his lips and spoke:

“Miss Su, what you thought just now, don’t think about it, I... I don’t think he wants you to accompany him, you still have such a well-behaved daughter, how can you leave her alone?”

There was some nervousness and apprehension in his eyes.

Even he didn’t notice it, and his palms were oozing sweat.

He always felt that Su Nan was strong, how could he not think about it because of his departure?

Time will get her out of the haze and gradually get better and better.

His chest was no longer calm, as if he had been hit hard by a drum, jumping so hard that even his breathing became no longer peaceful.

There is still talk around her, not without nostalgia.

He had never thought of this layer.

Maybe I didn't think about it at all.

But her thoughts were determined and dangerous, and the danger made him fearful.

Chapter 2,245 Dating Him

Su Nan's response was very calm, she smiled, and her smile seemed to be shrouded in a mist.

Can't tell the emotions in your eyes.

"Yes, I can't help but think about it, my relatives should not bear to lose me because of my husband, no matter how much I love him, I have to live."

Her voice was a little low, dispersed with the wind.

But every word fell to his heart.

He breathed a long sigh of relief, but felt lost.

The pain of being tightened by a thin thread came, but it was not as decisive as the gentle smile of the woman in front of me.

His eyes were full of distress and complexity, but he couldn't say a word.

The third time, he felt powerless to himself.

The first time was when he was born and could not choose his own family.

The second time was when the earthquake came, and the natural disaster could not stop it, and when he fell from the top of the mountain, there was only one thought in his heart, that is: What can his Su Nan do?

The third time, now.

The sea waved up, covering all his voices.

No one could hear the roar and struggle of his chest.

He wanted to cry and complain about the injustice of fate, but he couldn't.

He couldn't give away the slightest bit of uneasiness.

He is Lijeff.

Not Shang Qian.

He wanted to comfort her, as a bystander.

But he can't do it now.

He couldn't say a word, his throat seemed to burn, and the pain made his whole person twitch tightly.

Fortunately, Su Nan was immersed in his despair and did not find anything wrong with him.

It took a while.

Su Nan's mobile phone rang.

It was Su Qi who called her on the video call.

Su Nan didn't want to pick it up.

"Mommy, people didn't see you when they woke up, they missed you so much..."

Talk about the child looking at Su Nan in the camera softly, pouting coquettishly.

Su Qi on the side reluctantly straightened her mobile phone:

"Come, talk about the big baby refusing to drink milk, she said unless you coax her."

Su Nan's heart softened, and a completely different smile appeared on his face than just now.

Gentle, revealing temperature.

That smile seemed to have an opportunity to comfort the rest of your life.

She smiled: "Baby has to be good, drink grandma to grow tall, to fight monsters."

Talk about the child obediently lifting his chin, his big eyes flashing with a smart look:

"Mommy, are you dating Daddy?"

Su Nan paused, smiled, and then moved the phone to a position:

"This is Uncle Lijief, not Daddy!"

Say that the children saw Lijief, and their excited eyes lit up:

"It's Daddy, Daddy who has changed, don't lie to the children, I'll wait for you to come back, in vain..."

Talk about the principle that children should not disturb Daddy and Mommy on a date, I couldn't bear to hang up the phone.

Holding Su Qi excitedly, he rolled around: "Oh, oh, third uncle, my daddy is back!"

Su Qi, who was pressed under him as a horse: "..."

Connivance is also helpless.

Su Nan looked at the hung up mobile phone, and was forced to swallow before he could explain.

She could only look at Lijief apologetically:

“I’m sorry, my daughter just misses Daddy too much, I’ll explain it to her.”

Li Jeff couldn’t force himself even a smile.

He felt that he was even breathing painfully, and his whole body was trembling with pain.

Long.

Only then did he hear his own voice calm understanding:

“It’s okay, I don’t mind.”

Su Nan smiled gratefully, and there was lingering bitterness in her smile:

“I can only wait for a long time, wait for her to grow up a little slowly, and wait until it is sure that there is no news from him again, then this matter can be announced.”

Lijeff’s expression was stiff and broken.

If not wearing a mask, hiding his expression.

He had long been seen that something was wrong.

I don’t know how long it has been.

He suddenly plucked up his courage and asked in a faint voice:

“Miss Su is thinking about starting over, instead of waiting for someone who has no result, it is better to find someone who can work together for the rest of his life, maybe it will be better.”

After he finished speaking, he felt the slightest throbbing pain in his heart.

The cold all over the body seems to be wrapped in the seawater, churning up and down.

He was looking forward to seeing her perfect life.

I also regret that it is not herself who accompanies her.

But as long as she can be happy, even if he is on the other side of the world, he is willing to bless from afar.

But when he went to see her.

Seeing her quietly shed tears, like hot oil dripping on his heart.

He couldn’t calm down anymore.

He realized with all the sloop of cruelty his words, rubbing salt on her wounds and ignoring her sincerity and feelings.

This is not something Shang Qian can do.

His breathing began to take heavier:

“I’m sorry, Su Nan, I didn’t mean that...”

Can you just say that he didn’t say it.

He was incoherent and didn’t know what to say.

He almost blurted out, he is Shang Qian, he is not dead, he is here, right in front of his eyes...

But the next second.

She wiped her tears lightly and stood up indifferently.

She didn’t say a word, turned around and left, her footsteps crisp and heavy.

The sound of high heels fell on his heart with every step, dull and painful, as if tearing away from him.

It’s more like a stone chiseled through the heart, uncomfortable and unable to say a word of apology.

His eyebrows furrowed, tears fell out uncontrollably, and his eyes were scarlet.

He beat his legs hard in hatred, hating why couldn’t he catch up and comfort her?

Why do you want to say those words, why do you doubt her, why hurt her?

I hate my life even more, I have seen the bottom at a bleak glance, but I can’t do anything.

When the director of the restaurant saw his scene, his face changed slightly, and he did not dare to go up.

But immediately called Shengshi.

He remembered clearly that each of the ten VIPs above was the most distinguished guest.

Soon.

A rush of footsteps gradually approached from behind.

At this time, Lijeff had quieted down.

He could hardly raise his head in frustration, as if he had lost his soul.

Sheng Shi sighed and called him:

“President Li, even if you refuse to cooperate with me anymore, you have to accept this little kindness I sent you, obviously there is a chance to stand up, why do you have to embarrass yourself?”

Powerful people, how many people have the same conscience as you?

Others have no chance to stand here, and if there is, I am afraid that they would have already pounced on them like the other eight people.

Lijeff hung his head and was silent, but he clenched his fists tightly, his eyes dark and deep.

He’s not a good guy, he always knew that.

He also knows the lack of virtue that Sheng Shi has done.

He didn't think Sheng Shi could succeed, but just gave him a little money.

This little money was kept in the heart of Sheng Shi.

But I didn't expect him to really succeed.

If it was Shang Qian in the past, he would not hesitate to join and make use of this project to the extreme.

And you can get out without any burden in the state of earning a lot of money.

But he has long been not the Shang Qian he used to be.

Chapter 2,246 His Jealousy

Su Nan taught him gentleness and sincerity, frankness and love, as well as kindness and kindness.

After he came, he was shaken.

But when he watched Su Nan and Fu Yechuan refuse to cooperate.

The back of two people leaving together.

As if for dirtiness and profit cutting, they despise such despicable behavior at a cost for their own health.

They.....

This would make him think that they were the people of the world.

Fu Yechuan's righteousness, cleanliness, and pure jealousy.

Even if Su Nan didn't even look at Fu Yechuan.

But he still couldn't help but use his dark psychology to compare and measure Fu Yechuan's integrity and light.

Right.

The people standing beside Su Nan should be like this, not for their own interests, ignoring the death and life of so many creatures.

Even if it's just some fish.

But that's not just some fish, either.

It is a rare marine animal that is about to become extinct.

It is the conscience of the rich.

So he left there, suppressed the greed that rose in his heart, and restrained his greed.

He really wanted to prove that he and Su Nan were the same people as Fu Yechuan.

He blinked.

His eyes were dry and painful, and the place where the tears from the sea breeze flowed tightened his skin, making him feel slightly uncomfortable.

But he didn't dare to rub and scrub.

The potion is not on the body.

Will show the stuffing.

"Mr. Sheng, didn't I remind you that this risk is too great, so you are not afraid of being banned by international organizations?"

His voice returned to indifference.

Sheng Shi smiled, and his words were full of pride:

"I have long found a way out for myself, I have prepared a new identity, and the money I earn will be credited to a new account, and when I use this project to earn this sum, before they can react, I will run away."

That would have to wait ten or eight years.

Isn't it a good thing that my project is enough to change humanity?

More and more people will throw sky-high prices just to survive.

He stepped forward and patted Jeff's thin shoulder:

"Before this, I wanted to cure you the most, it was you who gave me hope, without you there would be no me today."

Lijief's face was tense, his eyes were dark and dull, like ink, and he couldn't distinguish the emotions inside.

The psychological pain was better than the pain in his body.

"Come with me, I have a new experiment, such as using the poison of marine organisms plus microatoms, combined with stimulating necrotic bone cells, and maybe there will be a response."

Lu Yuning can't meet this test requirement, but you can.

Mr. Li, no one is more suitable than you.

Sheng Shi's words slowly reached his ears.

Slowly.

Lijief raised his head, a little scarlet blood appeared in his gloomy eyes, and his voice seemed to be scratched by rough frost: "What if it fails?"

Sheng Shi's smile was suffocated, he paused, his eyes flickered, but he also said bluntly:

"If you fail, we will do our best to rescue you."

.....

Su Nan walked back, feeling very blocked.

I don't know why, but those words were probably what everyone wanted to say to her.

But from Lijeff's mouth.

She felt an indescribable sadness.

Whether it's true or false, she doesn't care.

This person made her feel uncomfortable, so she also withdrew her heart to talk, closed herself, and left immediately.

But no matter how much she ignored it, she felt sad.

Walked to the door.

The opposite door suddenly opened.

Fu Yechuan changed into gray casual clothes and stood there, looking at her and pursing her lips:

"Wait a minute."

He bent down, lowered his head and picked up something from the ground, and handed it over:

"I made me cry, I didn't mean to, give it to her."

"No thanks."

Su Nan suddenly felt very tired.

Fu Yechuan stubbornly raised his arm, his face seemed to be a little embarrassed:

"Give it to her, say sorry for me, I don't know how to coax the little girl, make her unhappy, I'm sorry."

Su Nan glanced at him and saw that he did not mention anything else, and his expression was also full of guilt.

She sighed, took it, and gave it a casual look.

It is the latest Barbie doll, very beautiful figure.

She pursed her lips: "You don't have to apologize, if you were facing a bad person at that time, I should be grateful to you for doing that, talk about being spoiled since childhood, so the personality is a little flamboyant, I have already told her."

It was rare for Su Nan to talk to him so much.

Fu Yechuan's face looked better I don't know how many times.

He suppressed the excitement in his eyes, and the corners of his lips rose slightly:

"It's okay, girls should have a little temper, so that they won't be bullied." Did she like this gift? If she likes it, I still have a lot..."

Su Nan's mind was a mess.

Her head cut him off:

"She doesn't like it, you don't have to bother in the future, she doesn't like such dolls the most, and the family doesn't know how many have been donated."

Fu Yechuan nodded in frustration, his eyes dark, without radical questioning and anger.

"Okay, I know, Su Nan, what I really want to apologize for is not the attitude, it is that Shang Qian's death should not be exposed in public."

Su Nan's face sank.

She was already in a bad mood.

There was also a bit of impatience in the tone:

"You know, how our family educates children, it's not the turn of others to intervene, I hope you don't stand in the wrong position."

She was more like saying not to be amorous.

But at this time, Fu Yechuan's eyebrows were gloomy, and he did not have the slightest spirit.

Obviously standing in front of her, a head taller than her, but inexplicably with some caution and flattery.

She suddenly couldn't continue.

There was silence for a few seconds.

She gritted her teeth: "Shang Qian's matter, I don't want to tell my daughter through the mouth of an outsider, Fu Yechuan, I tell you clearly, she has a father, she doesn't need someone else, even if Shang Qian really dies, she won't become someone else."

Fu Yechuan's face turned inch-by-inch.

He tensed his body and felt weak.

"Well, I won't go to her and talk nonsense again, but Su Nan, I won't give up like this.

I've missed so much that it doesn't feel good to see you get married together. He wanted to get her.

This idea is very firm.

Now, there is no Shang Qian by her side, and there is no one else beside him.

Isn't it the best time?

The rest of the words, thinking about her mood, did not come out.

But he has already begun to go on the offensive.

Su Nan didn't want to listen to this boring nonsense, so he turned around and opened the door and entered his room.

When I went in, I realized that I was still carrying a toy that I didn't like.

She didn't want to turn back and go out to see him again.

It was placed directly at the door.

Su Qi heard the movement and came out of the child's room, sweating profusely:

"Finally back, I'm exhausted!"

Chapter 2,248 as an Experimental Object

Fu Yechuan also breathed a sigh when he came out.

The driver was waiting for Su Nan on the side, and she did not say hello to Fu Yechuan and got into the car directly.

Rong Yi followed.

Before he could leave, he looked at Chen Xudong and walked over to this side with a smile.

He had a smile on his face and was followed by a blonde girl.

"Miss Su, wait a minute..."

Su Nan looked over and frowned slightly.

"Mr. Chen?"

Among so many people, she was most impressed by this Chen Xudong.

It's not just the glorious deeds of him marrying three wives.

And the mouth he chattered about.

It's really impressive.

Chen Xudong walked over with a smile and handed over a business card:

"Miss Su, this is my business card, I'm going home, I can't meet often in the future, but I can contact me often."

Su Nan smiled, took it, and glanced at Rong Yi.

Rong Yi immediately took out her business card.

She took it and handed it over, and said with a smile:

"This is my business card, Mr. Chen, you will go back?" Not interested in this project?

Chen Xudong sighed and looked into the distance:

"I thought about it, investment is risky, you need to be cautious when taking money, I still have four wives to raise in my family, let others do this kind of groundbreaking thing!"

Su Nan twisted his eyebrows: "Four?" Isn't it three?

Chen Xudong smiled and pointed to the blonde girl behind him.

"This is the fourth, she promised to go back with me, I will have a fourth soon!"

Su Nan was like eating a fly for a while.

She didn't know what to say about this Chen Xudong.

It may be that the customs and laws of the country are different, and Chen Xudong's behavior is really difficult to understand for a while.

Call him, he likes a woman and marries someone, and he is quite responsible.

But in other ways, it's really not disgusting.

Fortunately, there will be no business intersection in the future, so it is not difficult to maintain a superficial politeness.

Su Nan looked at him with a smile: "Then congratulations to President Chen." This topic could have ended here.

But Chen Xudong watched Fu Yechuan come over here, and his eyes moved slightly.

He originally didn't like Fu Yechuan's domineering, so he deliberately approached Su Nan to anger him.

"Miss Su, do you remember what the disabled person sitting on the wheel is called?"

Su Nan nodded subconsciously.

"I heard that in order to attract investment, Shengshi planned to let him be a test specimen, and several capitals formed a bet, and if Shengshi could restore this person to normal, their investment would quadruple.

If it doesn't work out, there's no next step in their investment.

It sounds like there are really two brushes in this prosperous world, you said that this disabled person will not be the trust found by the prosperous world, right?

Su Nan's face gradually faded to blood, and even the corners of her lips were slightly white.

Test Specimens...

Not sure why.

When she heard the news, she felt her chest sink fiercely, as if she had been hit hard by something heavy.

Suddenly the dull pain did not stop, and I panicked for a moment.

“Miss Su, why are you looking so bad?”

Chen Xudong didn't know what to say made her unhappy.

Su Nan pursed his lips stiffly.

Fu Yechuan stepped forward and pushed Chen Xudong away:

“What did you say?”

Chen Xudong stood there at a loss, scratching his head for a while:

“I don't know?”

Su Nan watched Fu Yechuan come over, and the panic was gradually replaced by irritability.

“It's nothing, I just got off the boat and didn't react, Mr. Chen, I'm sorry, I'm going back first.”

Chen Xudong nodded hurriedly:

“Go back, Miss Su, let's talk later.”

“He has nothing to talk about with you, Mr. Chen should take care of himself in the future.”

Fu Yechuan couldn't help but speak.

Chen Xudong sneered and looked at Mr. Fu:

“That's more than you can talk about, the matter between me and Miss Su, Mr. Fu don't worry about it!”

After speaking, Chen Xudong sorted out his clothes, happily hummed a song and walked towards the blonde beauty.

The mood is simply not too good!

Fu Yechuan's face was dark and ugly in the back.

Rong Yi didn't know the reason for Su Nan's sudden change.

Just a little worried about her physical condition.

“Miss Su, shall we go home now?”

Su Nan nodded.

Fu Yechuan glanced at her worriedly:

“Let's go to the hospital first, right?”

Su Nan pursed her lips and gradually regained her calm while her heart was taking advantage of it.

“No need, I'll go back first, goodbye.”

She said and closed the door.

Not giving Fu Yechuan any hope is what she can do.

The driver started the car.

Rong Yi sniffed Lips, opening:

“Is Miss Su because of that person Li Jeff?”

Su Nan’s gaze moved slightly, and the name of that person could make her chest feel suffocated.

“You know him?”

“He used to look for me.”

Rong Yi thought for a while and replied honestly:

“He promised me benefits and wanted to take the opportunity to get close to you, I guess he had bad intentions and wanted to get some benefits from you.”

But we’re leaving soon, and we shouldn’t have a chance to see each other.

He raised an eyebrow.

But the seat in the back was very calm.

He couldn’t help but glance back.

Su Nan closed his eyes slightly, as if he was asleep.

But she knew that her heart was surging.

If it was really as Rong Yi said, he deliberately approached her, but on the deck of the second floor of the cruise before, he did not show anything wrong.

On his body.

Su Nan could not see any worldly greed and the decay of fame and fortune.

His aura does not resemble that of a person who chases money and power.

The Lijief in her cognition turned out to be completely different from what Rong Yi saw.

Such awkwardness could not make her accept it.

Never mind.

She didn’t have to dwell on it.

It’s just a stranger who meets in Pingshui.

Her attention to Jeff has surpassed the importance of a stranger.

It shouldn’t be.

She was just looking for a trace of some kind of aura similar to Shang Qian in him.

But to really understand this person, maybe it will be the opposite.

It still doesn't have to be in vain.

Her life has to go on, and Li Jeff is just a passing shadow.

To the castle.

Su Nan dragged his tired body out of the car.

The housekeeper had already let the bathwater and meals be placed.

Su Nan doesn't have much appetite now, so let's take a bath and relax.

But I didn't wait to go upstairs.

The housekeeper went over to report:

"Miss, Xiao Yuer's parents are here, in the living room."

Su Nan raised his eyebrows and was watching the little fish running over.

"Godmother, tell me?"

Little fish can be seen to have a good time, and now there is sweat on his forehead.

Su Nan smiled and wiped his forehead:

"My sister should come back, if she doesn't come back, the third uncle took her shopping, if you are in a hurry, call them?"

Chapter 2,249 The prosperous world is fake

Xiao Yu'er nodded excitedly.

Then the parents who watched the little fish came over.

"Miss Su, it's really disturbing, our day is over, we should have sent it back last night, but Xiaoyu'er fell asleep, and we couldn't bear to send him overnight, so we waited until now."

Su Nan smiled: "It's always good to accompany him for a while, it's never too late to send it, it's better for the two of you to stay for dinner, right?"

Meng Chen looked at her with a smile: "We have been delayed for too long, I'm afraid we can't eat together, and next time if there is a chance, the two of us will invite you to eat together."

Su Nan: "You're welcome."

Meng Chen: "Yes, Miss Su takes care of Xiaoyu'er really carefully, we can see that Xiaoyu'er has not suffered any grievances in the Su family, and is happier than being by my father's side."

She just watched Su Nan wipe his sweat with a handkerchief that he didn't mind.

So gentle and casual, this kind of action is probably not once or twice.

If it weren't for the accumulated habits, the little fish's reaction would not be so calm.

It can be seen that they are also very thoughtful in the details of taking care of the little fish.

Meng Liqin nodded, took out the business card from the bag on the side, and handed it over:

"This is our contact information, Miss Su, if you need anything in the future, you can contact us at any time."

Su Nan took it with both hands, glanced at it subconsciously, and his face instantly froze.

Her voice didn't look like it came from herself:

"Shengshi Group?"

Meng Liqin nodded: "Miss Su has heard of it?"

Meng Chen glanced at her husband: "Who Miss Su is, it is not unusual to know, not to mention that the group is still a little famous here."

Meng Liqin nodded in agreement.

Su Nan couldn't help but turn white.

I squeezed the business card in my hand.

"Shengshi Group, the cocktail party I attended last night was organized by Shengshi Group, the cruise trip, it turned out to be your company?"

She always felt that in the dark, someone was desperately connecting her with Shengshi.

I don't understand.

She frowned, her face a little ugly:

"What are you working on, is the project of customizing human organs?"

Meng Chen and Meng Liqin looked at each other.

The faces of the two people instantly condensed seriously.

Meng Liqin stepped forward and stared at Su Nan tightly:

"It's not our group's project, and we haven't held any cruise drinks outside, Miss Su, have you seen the project you mentioned with your own eyes?"

Look at his tone is not good.

Meng Chen hurriedly pulled him and looked at Su Nan apologetically:

"Miss Su, he has no malice, because my husband is not only a researcher, but also has a certain position in the group, so what happened in the group, he will not be unaware."

Seeing that Su Nan's face was not quite right, Meng Chen stepped forward:

“That project, Miss Su didn’t join, right? That project has big problems, but don’t be impulsive.

Su Nan looked at her and pursed her lips, full of questions:

“I didn’t.” What’s the problem, though? If it wasn’t your group, how would you know about that project?

This cocktail party almost searched for the upper emergities of various countries, and the assets involved were no less than hundreds of billions, could it be that the prosperous era was deceiving people?

She paused, thinking about the mysterious-looking Shengshi, and suddenly she was confused:

“Shengshi, isn’t it the boss of your company?”

Meng Chen sighed: “Of course not, the company is not named Shengshi because the boss is called Shengshi, the company is the English name share, the person called Shengshi was one of the founders of the company at the beginning.”

Because it is too coincidental, the pronunciation to the outside world is prosperous.

But then the company grew and went against most people’s development philosophy, and he left the company, so he was not part of the company.

Miss Su, can you tell me where he is now? Did he take you to his research base?

In other words, the company is not prosperous.

So that prosperous era is also to deceive so many people under the guise of taking someone else’s company?

Su Nan looked at Meng Chen’s excited look, and he was also a little unsure.

The businessman’s acumen and sense of doubt make her dare not trust anyone.

What’s more, since Sheng Shi dared to take them there, it was because at that time at sea, everyone’s electronic instruments were shielded, and there was no signal.

So no one will know the most accurate location at all.

But Meng Chen’s reaction didn’t seem to be friendly to this prosperous world.

She didn’t know what to do?

Out of professionalism, she will not easily betray Shengshi.

Meng Chen looked at her hesitation and knew that he was too anxious.

She pursed her lips, sighed, and looked back at her husband:

“Forget it, let’s tell Miss Su, we need her help.”

Meng Liqin glanced at Su Nan with complicated eyes, then at his son, but nodded.

Three people sit down.

The housekeeper served coffee.

Xiao Yu'er twittered to Su Qi in the small living room on the other side and asked them to come back quickly.

Meng Chen's expression was solemn, and he rubbed his hands, looking a little nervous:

"Miss Su, don't misunderstand, we are not bad people. My husband and I are just pure researchers.

"Miss Meng, if you want any useful news from me, I need a reason."

Su Nan's reaction was also very straightforward.

She can't be blind because of the little fish Believe.

After all, a person is very complicated.

Not to mention someone she didn't know at all.

Meng Chen nodded and glanced at her husband.

Meng Liqin twisted his eyebrows, as if he was very solemn and difficult to say.

There was a bit of silence in the air.

Meng Chen was the first to speak:

"I understand what you mean, presumably Sheng Shi showed you his latest research results, and also brought out a girl who came back to life, right?"

Su Nan nodded, his face full of doubt.

"Yes, that girl named Lu Yuning has passed away before, and I'm pretty sure that someone has plastic surgery to look like her before, appearing in front of us, disguised as Miss Lu's identity, but the real Miss Lu has... But this time, she really appeared in front of her.

Meng Liqin's face was even more ugly.

"That's fake, it's all a trick, Sheng Shi stole the company's research results, used them as his own capital, swagger, we have been looking for him, but we have not found where his secret laboratory is!"

Meng Chen nodded solemnly:

"Yes, that research, which my husband and I participated in, was stolen by Sheng Shi in the final finishing stage, so our team's research had to be stopped.

But these are not the most important, the research results stolen by Shengshi are biased, we have not yet conducted clinical trials, and we do not have the conditions for popularization, and he will definitely kill himself in promoting the project like this. "

Chapter 2,250 No Black Technology

"What?"

Su Nan was surprised.

Meng Chen nodded, "Because this is a secret within our group, and this experiment was carried out decades ago, and there has only been a breakthrough in recent years, but in recent years, the care for humanitarianism has ordered that this experiment not be allowed."

So we haven't really put it into human experiments, let alone made it public.

It is for this reason that Shengshi dares to brazenly recruit people and privately set up shell companies, but in fact, the experiment is not feasible.

The woman he called "saved" was not actually the result of the project.

Su Nan's face gradually turned white.

Suddenly remembered the gaze that Lijeff looked at her when he left the elevator.

If the project of Shengshi is not mature, in case of failure, then George and others, who have cancer, will not bury themselves earlier?

Lijeff, who still has to stay ...

Chen Xudong said that he would become a test specimen for the prosperous world, and if it was true, his already bleak life would never have the opportunity to spy on the light again.

She didn't believe that Li Jeff was the kind of person Rong Yi said.

She trusts her instincts more.

Jerked.

She stood up suddenly.

"Wait a minute, I'll make a call first."

She interrupted Meng Chen, who was surprised for a moment and nodded.

Su Nan took out his mobile phone and called Su Jin directly.

Su Jin, who is far away in country Z, should be at night at this time.

But when answering the phone, he was still calm and self-contained:

"Hey, Little Four, what's the matter?"

He may choose to be impatient with the disturbance of others, but he does not have any temper towards Su Nan.

Wen Xiang on the side seemed to have been woken up.

"Is it a little sister? Did something happen?"

Su Jin made a booing gesture and comforted her softly: "It's okay, you sleep first, I'll go to the study."

Su Nan listened to the sound of Xi Xi, and hurriedly spoke:

“Big brother, there is a person named Li Jeff in Canada, have you ever heard of this person?” It seems to be in the field of investment banking.

Su Jin walked a few steps before speaking:

“No, I don’t have any impression, I have stayed in Canada before, and there is no such person in the investment bank.”

Maybe it’s too long, I can contact a local friend, do you want the result now?

Su Nan responded and said firmly:

“Yes, immediately, it is best to get the contact number of Lijief himself.”

“Okay, hang up first.”

Su Jin hung up the phone directly, and then investigated the matter for her.

Su Nan paused, took a deep breath, and stepped back.

Looking at Meng Liqin’s ugly face and Meng Chen’s same anxious and solemn look, Su Nan gradually began to believe their words in his heart.

Such a thing as bringing the dead back to life will not occur even if mankind advances for another hundred years.

Violating the normal laws of human ethics looks like a huge trap.

She walked over, her face was dull, and she looked at them very seriously:

“Then can you tell me, how much do you know about Lu Yuning?”

George and Luo Wei were tempted because they really saw Lu Yuning’s existence.

She is a living sign of the prosperous world.

But how did Shengshi do it?

She really didn’t dare to think about it.

Meng Liqin said in a calm voice:

“It is gene cloning technology, such technology is not considered advanced, but the difference is that it is now possible to extract genes on organs, edit genes, prevent the growth of the human body, and clone exactly the same organs in the fastest time.”

In cloning, cells were copied into individuals.

Now it is possible to edit to copy a part of the body at will, and our team has spent more than ten years of research to break through this technology, which is no different from private customization, but it is expensive.

The genetic assistance of some rare animals and plants in the deep sea is needed to ensure that the copied organs will not be rejected by individuals and produce rejection reactions.

Su Nan slowly understood.

I also suddenly knew why Shengshi's research room was at the bottom of the sea.

Such a large undersea research base, I'm afraid he spent a lot of effort.

Meng Chen continued: "That Lu Yuning, she was not dead at all, when she was brought back, she should be alive, but someone gave her a high-concentration medicine to make her have a state and feeling of suspended animation, so she will have a sense of trust in rebirth when she wakes up."

Although the organs inside her body are edited, the shortcoming of this technology is that the cloning and editing technology of the organs is uncontrollable, even if her internal organs have been replaced with new ones, it will not exceed three months, and her life will not last.

When they spoke, it was as if they were talking to a set of experimental data.

No emotion, but precise and clear.

Su Nan's heart sank slightly, that Lu Yuning was still happy because he survived before.

"Why?"

"Because the current research lies in the cloning and editing of organs, although it can be copied in the shortest possible time, it is the same size as the original.

However, the drug that is spawned is a medium liquid that often has problems in the laboratory at present, and the disadvantage of this liquid is that after cell generation, it will destroy the reproduction and metabolism of cells, because it cannot be recognized by the body, and the function of the organ will soon be lost.

So I guess that this Miss Lu should have recovered in the past two days, and was eagerly pulled out of the exhibition by Sheng Shi, fearing that she would soon lose her use value.

Su Nan's heart was secretly surprised.

I don't know if it's more to rejoice or worry more.

Meng Liqin chuckled, and his tone was indifferent:

"What so-called black technology is nothing more than using existing technology to piece together, and it will not break through the existing limitations at all, and this prosperous era will affect our group sooner or later."

He said, about to take out his phone.

Meng Chen hurriedly stopped him and frowned:

"Don't be impulsive, we don't know where Shengshi's base is, there is no evidence, it's useless to tell anyone, the group has issued a gag order, and it is forbidden to mention this research again."

Let's wait and see if he shows any horse's feet, right?

Meng Chen said, and looked at Su Nan:

“Miss Su, can you provide any clues?”

Su Nan pursed his lips, “As soon as the cruise ship entered the sea, we lost contact with the outside world, and we didn’t think so much at the time, but his research base is at the bottom of the sea, and the elevator of the cruise ship can go directly to the bottom of the sea.”

But the cruise ship is wandering around, and how to find the entrance to the elevator without the cruise ship, I find it difficult.

Meng Chen lowered his eyes and was a little silent, secretly shocked.

“No wonder the people we sent out couldn’t find his laboratory, it turned out to be so deep.”

Meng Liqin: “Sooner or later, there will be trouble.”

Su Nan was just about to say something when suddenly the mobile phone rang.

It was Su Jin’s call back.
