

Divorce 2251

Chapter 2,251 Without This Person

Su Nan's heart trembled.

She understood that there was a result.

I don't know if it's too late.

She immediately apologized, and then went to the side to answer the phone.

"Su Nan, I just checked, there is no one named Li Jeff in Canada, whether it is investment banking or other fields.

I even asked a friend from the police to investigate, and only found that the registrant of one shell company was Li Jeff, but there was no contact information or useful clues, and this person was not currently in Canada.

Is there something wrong with this person you want to check?

Su Jin's words made Su Nan completely freeze.

There is no one named Lijeff.

Shell companies.

She understood immediately.

It was Li Jeff's name that registered the company, but whether it was a real person, not necessarily.

Su Nan hung up the phone, and his heart was cold.

She thought about the lonely back in a wheelchair she saw on the deck, sitting there as if she were a person who did not exist in this world at all.

He was not alive and lifeless, but there was always a lingering sadness and despair.

When leaving.

He didn't get off the elevator.

Means not following the cruise ship ashore.

He's still at the bottom of the sea.

Thinking of this, she felt that the blood all over her body began to freeze.

There is a lingering panic circulating.

She didn't know why, she would react so much to a person in danger.

Obviously they didn't know each other before.

Is it just because she wants to find some similar qualities to Shang Qian in him?

She clutched her clothes tightly, and her fingertips began to turn white.

If he becomes a test specimen, then his already crippled life will completely disappear to the bottom of the sea that no one knows.

How pitiful!

Meng Chen looked at her face that was not quite right, and sighed:

“Miss Su, can you help us find that place, we need to end this farce, otherwise, I don’t know how much terrible price we have to pay!”

Su Nan pursed her lips, she wanted to find that place more than they did.

Thinking, she immediately called Rong Yi over.

Rong Yi is also a little inexplicable.

“Mr. Su, is something wrong?”

Su Nan paused, “Contact that cruise ship, just say that my important jewelry has been left in the room and must be found.”

Then I contacted Shengshi and said that I was suddenly interested in that project, I wanted to invest, and I wanted to go again.

Rong Yi looked at her in shock, almost forgetting expression management.

Meng Chen on the side looked at Meng Liqin happily.

It seems that I didn’t expect Su Nan to be so helpful!

“Thank you, Miss Su, I’ll contact the people of the group and the police and let them go together.”

Meng Chen looked at Meng Liqin excitedly.

Meng Liqin rubbed his hands, his face solemn and motionless.

Su Nan took a deep breath: “Miss Meng, don’t be happy too early, I backtrack, Sheng Shi may not agree to me going back, and he doesn’t need me this choice at present.” George , who has cancer but has amazing financial resources, should be his most satisfied partner.

No one wants to live more than a patient.

Now that you see hope, you will definitely help you.

It is much better than the wandering Su Nan.

Rong Yi turned around and went out to contact.

It didn’t take long for him to come back and shake his head:

“Miss Su, the people on the cruise said that the value of your jewelry is great, and they can compensate according to the price, but they can’t go on the cruise without an invitation.” Mr. Sheng’s secretary replied that he looked forward to the next cooperation. The room was silent for a few seconds.

Meng Chen’s face changed from expectation to disappointment, but it was only a few seconds.

Su Nan clenched his palms, and his face was also a little pale.

She didn’t gaffe because she tried to control her emotions.

Even if you can’t save that person, it’s nothing, insignificant people, why spend so much effort.

Just thinking that that person will tragically become a test specimen to spend this life.

It is inevitable that there will be a little sadness and throbbing pain in my heart.

For this.

She consoled herself and blamed the cause, a stand-in.

But Shang Qian is irreplaceable.

He is the most brilliant existence in his own life, and he should not be a dark and dead person like Lijief, who does not even have an identity.

She hated the feeling.

So she secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

Perhaps, it is a good thing that he disappeared?

She hung her head, and then raised her head to look at them:

“Then I have no other way, Miss Meng, I don’t know how else to help you?”

Meng Chen also had some regrets and smiled:

“It’s okay, Miss Su, when will you leave here and return to China?”

Su Nan paused, “If nothing happens, I’ll leave tomorrow.”

Meng Chen paused in frustration, and the light in his eyes also dimmed.

“So soon?”

Su Nan is the only one who can provide clues.

She oneGo, their group is going to spin around like headless flies again, and I don’t know when to find Shengshi.

However, she didn’t seem to have any reason to ask Su Nan to stay and help them.

After all, the theft of this achievement is their business.

Innocent people should not be involved.

Su Nan pursed his lips, and was just about to say something, when he suddenly saw the butler coming over.

“Miss, there are guests visiting.”

Saying that, he also took out a very particular greeting post.

Su Nan took it, still a little puzzled, I don't know who it is.

The greetings written with a quill on it are very exquisite, and the final payment is: Linda.

She didn't know.

It's hard to refuse, though.

So he looked at Meng Chen.

Meng Chen and Meng Liqin understood what she meant and both stood up.

“In that case, thank you Miss Su for your help, we won't bother.”

Meng Liqin's voice was dull, and he couldn't distinguish his emotions.

Although Meng Chen didn't want to give up so quickly, he could only leave first.

Su Nan nodded, and then looked at the butler:

“Let the little fish come over.”

She looked at Meng Chen and Meng Liqin and said with a smile: “You guys rarely meet, Xiaoyu'er can't bear you, let him send you away, so it won't be too sudden.”

Meng Chen nodded with red eyes.

Looking at Su Nan's eyes, they were all grateful.

Soon.

The little fish jumped over.

He stood in front of Su Nan and did not run over to hug his father and mommy.

Although he has been with them for a day and a night, compared with Su Nan, who is with her every day, Xiaoyuer is closer to her.

Xiao Yu'er's clear eyes were filled with reluctance, although with a bit of rustiness and hesitation, but he was even more reluctant to leave his parents.

But there is no way.

He knows.

No matter what he did, or cried or made trouble, his parents would still leave him.

So he could only stand there quietly at this time, watching them leave.

Meng Chen went up and hugged him reluctantly:

“Little fish, daddy mommy is leaving, and the next time we return to China to see you, you have to take care of yourself!”

Meng Liqin next to him went over and touched his head:

“Don’t forget what Daddy told you, when you grow up, you will be a man, you must learn to take care of others, and you will grow up to be a valuable person in the future.”

The little fish nodded obediently.

Chapter 2,252 Price Exchange

Although he was still calm, tears were already in his red eyes.

Su Nan touched his shoulder, “Let’s go, Xiaoyu’er said goodbye to Daddy Mommy.”

“Goodbye Daddy Mommy, I’ll be obedient.”

Xiao Yu’er sensibly took their hand.

Meng Chen was reluctant to take a breath, looked at Su Nan and said:

“Since Miss Su has a guest, there is no need to send it, thank you for helping us.”

Su Nan smiled, but insisted on sending them outside.

Watching their car leave, Xiaoyuer stood there low, hanging his head, a little sad.

Su Nan sighed and touched his head:

“Next time when your uncle is on a business trip, let him take you with him, you can come over to see them, uncle often comes here.”

Xiao Yu’er nodded, smiled and looked up at her.

“Tell me about the third uncle?”

Su Nan asked him, he had called Su Qi just now, he should know.

Xiao Yu’er replied with a smile: “They went shopping, and my sister brought me a lot of gifts...”

Su Nan looked at his instantly improved mood, and unconsciously became happy:

” Okay, then you go in and wait, I still have business.”

“Okay!”

The little fish jumped and ran in again.

Su Nan looked at the butler, and the butler hurriedly spoke:

“The people who came are waiting in the small living room on the west side.”

Su Nan nodded, and then walked to the west side hall.

The area of the side hall is more delicate.

When she entered, she looked at the woman sitting there, a little shocked.

The woman looked about forty years old, with long yellow hair slightly curly, delicately groomed and meticulous.

But looking at the back, it is very elegant and clean, full of nobility.

Hear movement.

The woman turned around, it was a beauty with blue eyes and yellow hair, deep eye sockets, the beauty of Western beauties was vividly highlighted on her body, and those deep eyes seemed to have great attraction and undisguised ambition.

Su Nan was slightly shocked in his heart, and suddenly understood who the woman in front of him was.

The woman walked around, walked towards her, looked at Su Nan with a smile, and then stretched out her hand and used the standard Chinese conversation:

“Hello, my name is Linda.”

Su Nan reached out and shook her briefly:

“I know, Mike’s aunt?”

Linda’s eyes flashed with amazement:

“Yes, Miss Su is really smart, no wonder every time he sees Mike, he hangs on his lips, saying that you are the most beautiful and smartest, the best and best woman he has ever seen, and he said that you can become his family and the favor of fate.”

Su Nan’s eyes moved slightly, and his heart was like a warm current rushing through.

They met Mike when he was not tall, and at that time, he didn’t know anything.

Then he was sent abroad by Shang Qian to study, and the number of times he came back was also very few.

It was this handful of times, and his evaluation of Su Nan was so high, which Su Nan did not expect.

Su Nan smiled and looked at her:

“Thank you for telling me this, I have not done enough.”

Linda raised her eyebrows and said with a smile:

“I heard that Shang Qian died, that’s why I came to you on purpose.”

Su Nan’s face sank slightly, and the corners of his mouth converged a little.

Linda looked at her face, and then sat down unceremoniously, took a sip of coffee, and praised it:

“The coffee you brewed at home is really good, I like it very much.”

“If you like it, drink more.”

Su Nan walked over patiently.

She could vaguely sense that the comer was not kind.

In addition, Shang Qian told her before that Mike’s aunt wanted to take Mike away, and the background behind her was very impure.

If Mike is really taken away by her, his future may be ruined.

Then the road that Shang Qian had paved for him so carefully was all nullified.

Su Nan took a deep breath, sat down, and looked at Linda, who had a beautiful posture.

Linda put down the coffee, her eyes shining with shrewdness:

“Originally, we could have met yesterday, but someone bought my ferry ticket at a high price, I can only come to the door later, presumably who bought it, Miss Su should know, right?”

Su Nan nonchalantly tugged at the corners of his mouth:

“I don’t know, who is it?”

She asked knowingly.

Linda tilted her head sideways and said, “Fu Yechuan, for this ticket, he found a lot of my old acquaintances, and it was he who told me the news of Shang Qian’s death, if it wasn’t for him to provide valuable information, how could I give up the opportunity to make a scene?”

Su Nan’s heart was extremely disgusted, and he knew that Fu Yechuan had no good intentions.

It’s just that she didn’t show anything on her face, knowing that the purpose of this Linda coming was far from telling her this insignificant news.

Linda looked at her expression, not feeling her eyes darken slightly.

The reaction was not right as she expected, and it was inevitable that there would be some disappointment.

“It seems that you don’t mean anything to him, how is it different from what he said, if you can’t get back together, then can you still give up custody of Mike?”

Su Nan finally understood in his heart.

She wanted custody of Mike.

Su Nan twisted her eyebrows, and her eyelashes trembled slightly:

“Linda, there is something to say directly, I have nothing to do with Mr. Fu, please don’t speculate for no reason here.

Linda smiled and pondered for a few seconds before slowly speaking:

“Shang Qian didn’t agree to me taking Mike before, and Mike listened to him very much, so he kept ignoring me.

But after all, he is my own nephew, how can I leave him alone?

My sister died early, and since I gave birth to him, then I, who is an aunt, naturally have an unshirkable responsibility to take care of him for my sister.

Since Shang Qian is dead, and you have your own child, naturally you will not be willing to put too much effort into a child who is not your own, give him to me, and I will raise him well.

Su Nan smiled, with a bit of ridicule in his eyebrows.

“I can’t hand him over to you, Mike is taking the best path that Shang Qian planned for him now, following you, it won’t be better than now.”

Linda sneered:

“The best way? It’s nothing more than studying hard in school like everyone else, what is it?

No matter how good a student is, he is just a mediocre workaholic after growing up, but unlike me, I can give him the best everything from now on, what he wants, and he will be smoother than his friends and classmates in the future.

Please, wealth is a person’s best business card, no matter how much you read, it is useless, you are also capitalists, don’t you understand this truth?

Or are you deliberately trying to keep Mike away from the center of wealth and raise him to be an ordinary person who only knows how to work and study?

Linda’s blunt accusation directly spoke out of her heart.

Su Nan lowered her eyes, and the light coming through the window fell on her fair face, fragile and tough.

She only felt distressed.

Chapter 2,253 Things Lost

The future that

Shang Qian had planned for Mike so hard was worthless by this Linda.

But he couldn’t come out and defend himself.

It was as if sewage from all over the world could be poured on him.

Such a difference made her feel uncomfortable.

She slowly raised her eyes, with a cold look in her eyes:

“Linda, you haven’t raised him for a day, you are not qualified to beak Shang Qian’s cultivation of him, who is around you, you know it yourself, if Mike sends it to your side, can he really come out clean in the future?”

Her attitude made Linda slightly startled, as if she didn't expect this woman who was weak on the surface to have such a tough side.

She didn't care what Su Nan said of her, and she was even proud of it:

"Since you know the connections around me, you should know that Mike is here and can get things that others can't dream of.

The money, power, and enjoyment around me are endless, and Miss Su will even exceed your imagination.

Compared to your hard work, my life is already perfect.

If it weren't for Shang Qian's old antique to pull Mike on, he would definitely be a little prince that everyone envies now!

She stretched out her hand and made a gesture, the tail of her eyes slightly raised, and a very beautiful arc was cocked.

Su Nan chuckled:

"That's what you think you think, if Mike takes the same path as you, he will be ridiculed and looked down upon in his life."

She leaned back on the couch, languidly wrapped her arms around her, and looked at Linda with a light gaze.

She also directly ignored the anger that flashed on Linda's face.

Then he continued to say gently:

"Of course, Miss Linda has such an achievement that is your ability, for a woman, it is indeed enviable enough.

But Mike can't, he has to rely on himself, all we can do for him is give him a plan and purpose, but whether we can do it or not, is his own effort.

Those riches and powers do not conflict with the path he is taking now, and he will get them later.

I know that you as an aunt care about Mike as a matter of course.

But if you're going to meddle in planning Mike, then I'll have to take him home.

Linda's face changed slightly.

"You..."

Looking at Su Nan's calm smile, Linda gritted her teeth:

"I really didn't expect that Shang Qian is not easy to deal with, and the wife I find is so difficult to deal with, isn't it bad for you Z people to be stepmothers?"

Su Nan hooked her lips and smiled:

“You also know that this is good for children?”

Linda choked.

Su Nan smiled and said: “Whether it is my own mother or stepmother, Mike and I are a family, we trust and rely on each other, out of family affection, I can tolerate you to visit him, but if you dare to hit his attention, it is best not to even think about it, you know me, Mike will still listen.”

Linda’s face froze, and she stood up angrily and was about to leave.

But halfway to the road, he stopped and turned to look at her:

“Although I am angry, for the sake of you taking care of him, I can not worry about you.”

If you need my help here, you can come and beg me.

Of course, her hint was to beg her to pay the price.

Su Nan paused, don’t overdo it, “Butler, send off guests.”

“Yes.”

Linda gave her a meaningful look before turning to leave.

Su Nan sat there and looked out the window.

It was already afternoon, but the light was not so dazzling.

It seems that from morning to night, it is faintly thin.

It didn’t take long.

Yu Lou came back from outside.

He was dusty and looked like he had gone out early in the morning.

“Mr. Su, I have greeted and asked with Mike’s bodyguards and servants, and Mike’s aunt has tried to get close to Mike many times, but Mike has avoided it, soft and hard.

A few times they tried to take him away, but the bodyguards solved it.

Do you need to send more people around him?

Su Nan paused and twisted her eyebrows slightly, “When she came over today, I thought she was going to do something, and the purpose was guessed, but the result was a little unexpected.”

She didn’t seem to be too strong and insistent on taking Mike, nor did she insist too much.

Yu Lou was stunned for a few seconds, and suddenly thought of something:

“Oh, by the way, I heard that she is pregnant, but in less than two months, it is estimated that she has her own child, naturally she will not force Mike.”

Su Nan nodded clearly.

If that's the reason, then it makes sense.

In this way, she was relieved.

"The number of people still has to be increased, and when we leave, I don't know if she will take the opportunity to do something, or it is better to be prepared."

Yu Lou nodded.

Next second.

He suddenly thought of something:

"President Su, I met someone outside just now, and I knew where Rong Yi went in the early morning before yesterday?"

Su Nan paused, listening to him and couldn't wait to say: "It seems that I went to the hotel suite that the president of Shang has chartered all year round to find something, but the thing is gone..."

Before

Su Nan could react, Rong Yi had already stood at the door:

"Assistant Yu, I didn't get that thing, don't talk nonsense."

Yu Lou was caught off guard, and he was not embarrassed, so he smiled and stood behind Su Nan.

Su Nan rolled his eyes speechlessly.

This Yu Lou, isn't this action suggesting that she asked him to inquire?

It's really not brainy.

But fortunately, Rong Yi's reaction was not abnormal, and he sighed:

"Mr. Su, there was originally a hard disk, which contained some important secrets of the General Manager, and it may be used for transfer procedures.

But that day, the hotel suddenly called me and said that his safe had been touched, and I was startled and quickly ran over to see that the hard disk inside was missing. The hard drive inside is missing?

Su Nan twisted his eyebrows, "Didn't the monitoring in the hotel find anything abnormal?"

Rong Yi touched his head, and was also a little puzzled.

"No, and there is no trace of theft, there are still many jewels and gold bars in the safe, no one has touched it, I now wonder, is it possible that I remembered it wrong?"

There is nothing else weird, then you can only blame yourself for the cause.

Rong Yi's face hesitated: "Or perhaps, Shang Zong put it in other places I don't know, after all, if someone steals it, he won't put gold bars and jewelry and not take it, but take a U disk with various firewalls, right?"

Yu Lou also nodded with a deep groan:

“Maybe I remembered wrong, will that one reveal any secrets?”

Rong Yi pursed his lips: “Even if it is lost, the other party can’t solve it, don’t say it, it’s nothing if it’s unlocked by luck, there are no important secrets in it, but the investment territory and network resources of the general manager from the beginning to the present will not cause any uncomfortable results.” ”

Chapter 2,254 Someone Fled

Su Nan nodded

, “Forget it, since you can’t find it, don’t waste time, pack up your things, and tomorrow’s plane will leave here.”

Rong Yi and Yu Lou nodded.

Far away.

I heard the children shouting the name of the little fish.

The crisp and soft sound is very recognizable.

It seems that he came back from shopping with Su Qi.

The servants carried their belongings from the cart in large bags.

Let Rong Yi pause slightly:

“So many gifts?”

Yu Lou was not surprised: “It was brought to the family, our third young master is so rich.” Rong Yi, who has never seen this kind of world, feels that he has seen it for a long time.

After all, he would only personally pick it out when he was preparing for Shang Qian’s New Year ceremony.

Su Qi came in with a smile, and the man’s smooth jawline looked exceptionally handsome:

“What about my sister?”

Yu Lou smiled: “Inside.”

Su Qi nodded, looked at the little fish running around to talk about the children, and did not forget to tell her to pay attention to safety.

Then he turned around and went to the small side hall inside.

Su Nan sat there leisurely drinking coffee, and the rich aroma of coffee filled the air, making the afternoon long and scattered.

Her legs were crossed on the sofa, covered with a blanket, and she smiled absentmindedly, looking at Su Qi who came in:

“Third brother, have you played until now?”

Su Qi sighed: “Let’s talk about children and you have a fight, when you buy things, you can be assertive, I said that she said that I have no taste, and she dislikes my eyes, exactly the same stinky problem as you.”

Su Nan raised his chin and said with a smile:

“This is called exquisite, of course my daughter is like me.”

The housekeeper came in with a cup of coffee, Su Qi took it with a smile, and then chatted a few words.

Seeing that Yu Lou and Rong Yi had taken people upstairs, they sat back and looked at Su Nan solemnly:

“I met someone.”

Su Nan blinked, not understanding what he meant so solemnly.

“Lu Yuning, An Qi, Fu Yechuan’s... Ex?”

Su Nan’s smile stiffened slightly, and instantly converged.

“Miss Lu?”

Su Qi bowed his head, took a sip of coffee, and put it on the table:

“She should have secretly run out, I don’t know why, she hid in my car, but I didn’t let her out, I don’t know how she was there, does Fu Yechuan know?”

Su Nan took a deep breath, and his face was solemn and ugly.

But in my heart, a little strange thing vaguely rose.

If so, then they seem to have a breakthrough in finding the prosperous world.

This is simply an opportunity to be sent to the front of you.

“It has nothing to do with Fu Yechuan, she is not An Qi, she is an experimental object...”

Su Nan paused.

“Test specimen?”

Su Qi was incredulous.

Su Nan nodded, she didn’t want to say what she saw before, because she was not interested and felt disgusted.

But since she had reached this step, she couldn’t hide it from Su Qi.

So she said it all.

Su Qi’s face changed and changed, and his face was complicated and ugly:

He also couldn't seem to find a particularly appropriate adjective to express his mood.

Let's say it's disdainful, in case people can really come back to life and really change the world, but the progress of science and technology cannot be criticized.

Let's say it's sought after, but I really can't say words of praise.

He stayed out of the matter and didn't think much of it was appropriate to evaluate.

Su Qi twisted his eyebrows: "I wanted to send someone to Fu Yechuan before to respond to him, but I didn't expect it to be in vain."

Su Nan tugged at the corners of his mouth, "Leave the people to me, it seems that we can't leave tomorrow."

Now that she had the opportunity, she didn't want to give up so much.

What if it's too late?

The back in the wheelchair, no matter how much she persuaded herself to be ruthless and ignore his life and death, she couldn't gently reveal it as a passing eye.

Even insignificant people should try their best.

Su Qi raised his eyebrows and looked at her as a matter of course:

"Of course, you can feel free, in a hotel in the city center, I let people look at her."

Su Qi said, and stood up.

Su Nan pursed her lips, put on her shoes directly, and walked out with her mobile phone.

"Third brother, it's handed over to you here, I'll go out."

She found out the business card Meng Liqin gave by Meng Chen.

Didn't look closely before.

On Meng Liqin's business card, there is no company's position, only his name and contact information.

Be simple and generous.

Chang Li watched her come out, and opened the car door for her without saying a word:

"Miss, where to go?"

Su Nan told him the address of the hotel, and then got in the car.

The phone called, and soon someone answered:

"Hey, hello."

"I'm Su Nan."

"Miss Su?" Meng Liqin's voice was low.

Su Nan sighed: "Lu Yuning ran out, just in a hotel in the city center, she must know more than me, if you are interested, maybe you can find her with me?"

"Of course, we'll go now."

Although they have been away for a while, such an important matter will be rushed over no matter how far away.

Hang up.

Meng Liqin told Meng Chen about this.

Meng Chen was overjoyed.

"I'll contact the company's people and get the hospital's research room ready to see where the trial has come?"

Meng Liqin nodded in a deep voice.

Soon.

Meng Liqin and Meng Chen had arrived for a while before Su Nan's car arrived.

Because they were afraid that they would go up and alarm Lu Yuning, they did not dare to act rashly.

Seeing Su Nan get out of the car, Meng Chen stepped forward excitedly:

"Miss Su, I really appreciate you, we didn't expect that there would be such a big surprise."

Meng Liqin frowned slightly:

"Miss Su, did you suddenly change your mind?"

Su Nan knew that he had misunderstood, and was not angry, but explained with a faint smile:

"People are hidden in my third brother's car, everyone doesn't know, he just told me when he came back, I also hope that you can find Sheng Shi, there is a very important friend in his place, I am afraid of him..."

Meng Chen immediately understood, sighed, and went over to shake her hand:

"Miss Su don't worry, we will do our best."

Su Nan nodded.

Everyone goes straight in.

Su Qi has always done things thickly and finely, and it is impossible to deceive her.

He said that the whole floor was wrapped up, and there was a row of people standing at the door of that room, and it was impossible for her to leave unless she jumped through the window of more than seventy floors.

Standing closest at the door was Su Qi's person, who knew Su Nan and immediately nodded:

“Miss.”

Su Nan walked over with a smile, “People inside?” The other nodded.

She looked at Meng Chen, then stepped forward and approached the door and knocked.

There were clattering footsteps from inside, and then someone opened the door from the inside...

Chapter 2,255 He Tricked Me

Lu Yu stood there with red eyes, some of the pear blossoms with rain that I saw pity, their eyes were red, and their faces looked even weaker and pale, perhaps because of fear.

When she saw Su Nan, she reacted for a few seconds before remembering.

“Miss Su?”

Su Nan nodded: “If you don’t mind, I brought two friends, can you go in?”

She was so polite, in fact, it was completely unnecessary.

But out of sympathy for Lu Yuning, she respected and pity the person in front of her.

Lu Yuning nodded and let go of the door.

Meng Chen is a woman, so Lu Yuning has a relatively high acceptance degree.

But Meng Liqin is tall and strong, which makes people feel very oppressive when they look at it.

Lu Yuning didn’t want him to come in, but seeing that Su Nan had already gone to sit inside, he didn’t say anything.

Shut the door.

There were only four people in the room.

Meng Chen looked at Lu Yuning, not knowing what he was thinking.

Su Nan looked at her, smiled, and spoke in a very gentle tone:

“Why did Miss Lu run out? When I listened to my third brother, I still didn’t believe it?”

“That person is your third brother? He looks like a star I’ve ever met, but he’s a bit fierce and won’t let me out.

Lu Yuning said with a blank expression.

Su Nan lowered his eyes slightly, and explained with a smile:

“I apologize to you for him, he has no malice, he just recognized the wrong person.”

Meng Chen coughed on the side, looked at Su Nan, and seemed to be a little anxious.

Su Nan smiled heartily.

“Miss Lu, there’s a reason why you ran out and didn’t want President Sheng to find out, right? If you tell me, maybe I can help you.

Su Nan looked at her, although she was on the ship before, she had a lot of maintenance for Sheng Shi.

But it can be seen that she herself is also in a state of confusion.

Lu Yuning lowered his eyes slightly, and his hands tightly clutched his clothes.

“I have nothing to ask for help, I just want to come out and see, I have come back to life, but he won’t let me go out, let me stay in the sea all the time, I want to live a normal life.”

Meng Chen couldn’t help but interrupt her:

“Normal people? Don’t you feel that every aspect of your body is declining? Originally, your organ damage was not great, if you can receive timely treatment from the hospital, there is a great hope that you can return to normal.

But he changed it all for you, and for the results of his experiment, the changed organs have begun to react in your body, and it won’t be long before the functions in your body will gradually decline, and then consume your life force.

Lu Yuning’s face turned pale for a while, and even the corners of his mouth turned white.

Meng Liqin looked at her: “You can’t lift your strength, you are often thirsty, and you will feel unbearable pain in your body for no reason, right?”

Lu Yuning’s gaze froze fiercely, shocked, and only felt that five thunders were banging.

A little panic flashed on her face, and she quickly explained:

“No, no, no, Mr. Sheng said that this is a normal reaction, as long as I take medicine on time, it will slowly get better, and I have to take medicine on time.”

Meng Chen looked at her sympathetically:

“Those drugs are just relieving your pain, because none of the drugs can solve the current problem of incompatibility of internal organs for transplantation gene editing.”

Lu Yuning’s breathing became slightly rapid.

Her face was so pale that it was blue, as if she could faint at any moment.

Su Nan pursed her lips, “Miss Lu, I know that you are very grateful and trusting of President Sheng, but he used you for human experimentation only because someone happened to live instead of you, and your life and death did not matter.”

The test of the prosperous world was stolen, and the only people who can save you now are the two in front of you, who are the founders of this experiment.

If you are willing to cooperate with them, I believe it will be good for your body.

Su Nan really couldn’t tell a lie like that there would be nothing.

Because now it feels very uncomfortable to cheat on a dying person.

Lu Yu sat there dumbfounded, his eyes like a puppet, gradually desperate and indifferent.

“He really lied to me.”

She slowly clutched her chest, her voice was so low that if she didn't get close, she couldn't hear it clearly:

“I can feel that my heartbeat is different, and he asked me to endure it.”

Her tears fell, and the next second, she reached out and pulled her hair, and the wig that she had originally worn on her head was instantly thrown to the ground.

The two women looked at her in shock, and then their eyes were extremely sympathetic to Lu Yuning.

The woman with a bare head seemed to want to hide it anymore.

She is not a fool who blindly trusts others.

Shengshi is good to her, but only as a result.

Because she has use value in her.

Just like her previous family, when she dropped out of school to earn tuition for her eldest brother, his eldest brother said that he would repay her.

But when the eldest brother had a sister-in-law and she was cornered, the eldest brother still let the sister-in-law bully her into the wilderness.

She experienced it once, and she remembered it for a long time.

Only now in a foreign country, she doesn't know anything, doesn't know.

Meng Chen sighed, grabbed her hand, and said softly:

“You come with us, if you can, we are willing to do our best to help you.”

This project was created by our group, and no one knows how this mechanism works better than we do.

Your body is almost depleted, and without our help, it will soon run out of oil.

The internal organs inside are not your own, so they don't really protect you.

So I hope you can cooperate with us, Shengshi stole our results, if you can't find him, he will deceive people like you to do experiments, and many people will be deceived.

Miss Lu, our ability does not have the strength to spread this project, and we must stop it, otherwise it will really cause great trouble. Shengshi's ambition is not small.

The people I look for are people who are either rich or expensive.

Once something happens to these people, it is not simply a matter of losing money if they want to rest the matter.

It may even involve disputes between countries or to their disadvantage.

They must immediately put an end to the prosperous behavior.

Meng Chen looked at her nervously.

Lu Yu was silent for a few seconds, his eyes flickered slightly, looking nervous and tangled:

“But... He did save me, his project was a success, if I betray him, will it be bad for him?”

She looked at Su Nan with difficulty and shook her head:

“I can’t do this, he at least helped me.”

Her heart was tangled and painful.

Sheng Shi really treats her as a showpiece.

But it did save her from death.

So she is in a foreign country and can only rely on the prosperous world.

Compared to her eldest brother and sister-in-law, Sheng Shi is probably the best person for her.

She couldn’t betray him.

Su Nan pursed her lips, reached out and pressed her shoulder:

“Miss Lu, he is not helping you, he is helping himself.”

Now he has used you to attract a huge amount of money, specifically, in fact, you have no use value, so until now, he has not gone to you, because you can no longer go back.

Chapter 2,256 Can Work Together

Lu Yuning’s face changed slightly, and she looked at Su Nan sharply.

Su Nan’s voice was gentle and calm:

“Even if you don’t run, he will find a way to deal with you, and when you run, it just takes advantage of his mind, because he knows that your time is running out, and he knows that you have no relatives abroad, so he is not worried that you will run around and cause trouble, Miss Lu, everything you are worried about, he will not know gratitude.”

And your body can no longer be delayed, these two in front of you are the initiators of this project, only they can help you.

Lu Yuning clenched his teeth nervously.

Meng Liqin paused, and looked at her with dark and deep eyes:

“Miss Lu, of course you can refuse us, it is better for you to contact him now, if he is willing to send someone to pick you up, we will not force you to stay, everything in front of us, just when we didn’t say it.”

His voice was deep, with a bit of clarity.

Lu Yuning’s face changed slightly, she didn’t know what came to mind, stood up abruptly, and went to the bed to find a half-old mobile phone.

Meng Chen was excited for a moment, and was just about to stand up when he was pulled by Meng Liqin.

That meant that she should not be in a hurry.

Meng Chen sat down.

Looking at Lu Yuning, he directly found a number and called.

Su Nan pursed his lips and thought, isn’t there no signal at the bottom of the sea?

Or is it just that when they visit, there is no signal when there are outsiders?

The phone rang for a long time before it was picked up.

“Mr. Sheng, I am Yu Ning.”

A prosperous voice came from the mobile phone:

“Oh, Yuning, where have you been, why didn’t I see you at the celebration banquet just now?”

Lu Yuning’s expression was slightly startled:

“I followed the cruise ship ashore, I am in the hotel now, can you come and pick me up?”

She glanced nervously at Su Nan and Meng Liqin in their direction.

The Sheng Shi in the mobile phone was silent for more than ten seconds.

It seems to have come to some quieter place.

“You went ashore?”

His voice was a little rough and dissatisfied.

Lu Yuning was a little weak-hearted, as if he had done something wrong:

“Well, I just want to come up and take a look, Mr. Sheng, you said that when you get the investment, you will let it out and breathe, can you send someone to pick me up?”

Her expression was a bit apprehensive and tentative.

Soon.

Sheng Shi sighed:

“Yu Ning, you ran away without even saying hello, how can I say good?”

You can come back if you want, but now is not the time, the cruise ship is docked on shore, and the sailing people have long gone.

In this way, you find a place to live for the time being, and I will go to you again after a while, you remember to take your medicine on time.”

By the way, your hospital can't be cured, don't go to the hospital, if you are not feeling well, take painkillers and sleeping pills, endure and pass, wait for me to find you.

There are still important things on my side, since you go out, go around and take a walk, you should be distracted.

After speaking, Shengshi's phone hung up.

Lu Yuning stood there with a pale face, as if he couldn't hold on any longer, and could fall like a fallen leaf at any time.

The phone went dark.

Meng Liqin stood up and looked at her with deep eyes:

“Miss Lu, you should already have a count in your heart, you have been abandoned, if you don't believe us, we have no way, if you are willing to cooperate with us, we will do our best to save you.”

If you don't want to, you can wait here for the prosperous world to come. Of course, if the prosperous world can really come over.

But the prosperous times on the phone just now have been hinted at clearly enough.

Speaking, he glanced at Meng Chen:

“Let's go.”

Meng Chen was stunned for a moment, a little unwilling, but looking at Meng Liqin's gaze, he did not insist.

She looked at Su Nan and pursed her lips:

“Miss Su, thank you for your kindness, but since Miss Lu herself is reluctant to help, we can't force others to make it difficult, let's go back?”

Su Nan nodded, and then stood up:

“Miss Lu, I will let everyone outside leave here, if you want to stay in this hotel, I will renew it for you for three months, and after three months, you will have to figure it out by yourself.”

After all, the rest of her time is only about three months.

Su Nan glanced at her, nodded lightly, and then turned and walked out.

But before the three people reached the door, Lu Yuning behind him suddenly spoke:

“Wait a minute.”

Meng Chen turned back sharply.

Lu Yuning looked at them: “I want to live, if you are willing to help me, I am willing to help you.”

Meng Chen smiled, “Good.”

Su Nan glanced back at her, and the cowardice on Lu Yuning’s face disappeared, replaced by disappointment and panic.

She is now a victim floating on the sea and will fall silent at any time.

Even if there is a piece of driftwood, it will be tightly clung to it.

Meng Liqin looked at Su Nan and pursed his lips:

“Miss Su, we have to take people away.”

Su Nan nodded, and she looked at Lu Yuning:

“I want to know the specific location of that laboratory, is there a fixed time for the cruise ship to enter and exit there?”

Lu Yu paused and shook his head:

“Unless President Sheng lets the cruise pass, there is no other chance.”

Only that cruise ship has a positioning device that can self-control. Move the passage to the undersea laboratory, otherwise, no one can find there.

“Then the prosperous world probably let the cruise go once in a few days?” With such a large laboratory, it is impossible to need food and water supplies for a long time, right?

Meng Chen asked.

Lu Yuning pondered for a few seconds: “In my memory, about once a week, I haven’t paid attention to it, because Shengshi generally doesn’t let me go on a cruise.”

Meng Chen nodded, looked at Meng Liqin and said, “It’s better for us to let people watch at the dock, if they pass, we can know.”

Meng Liqin nodded: “Yes, but this time is too long, I think Miss Su may not be able to wait, right?”

He looked at Su Nan.

Su Nan’s eyes changed slightly, nodded, and she said straightforwardly:

“I have a friend there, I am afraid that he will be deceived by Sheng Shi and have an accident, so I can’t wait too long.”

Lu Yuning hung his head, as if he thought of something, and suddenly raised his head to look at them:

“If it is to undergo surgery, your friend needs about a week to balance the physical indicators, which is what I heard the doctor say, President Sheng disliked the time too long and wanted to shorten the time, but the doctor refused.”

And if Mr. Sheng finds an investor, investors can enter and exit at will, which has no time and conditions restrictions.

Su Nan’s gaze flashed slightly, and Qi’er was lost again.

Unfortunately, she gave up, and it was difficult to enter again.

The most committed investor in Shengshi’s hands is George, the rich man with heart disease.

But she didn’t know George well, and she didn’t have much business dealings.

Suddenly fell into an insoluble dilemma.

Chapter 2,257 The Attitude of Asking for People There was silence for a few seconds.

Su Nan pursed her lips, looked at Meng Chen and Meng Liqin and said:

“In this way, I’ll go back and contact a few people to see if there is a way, you guys take Miss Lu back first, her body can’t be delayed.”

Meng Liqin nodded.

Su Nan looked at Lu Yuning and smiled, “Miss Lu, thank you for telling me, goodbye.”

With that, she left here.

Meng Chen walked to Lu Yuning’s side and picked up the wig she threw aside:

“Miss Lu, come with me?”

Lu Yuning nodded.

Su Nan went out and looked at Su Qi’s people outside, “No need to stay here, go back, right?”

“Yes, Miss.”

Downstairs, Chang Li opened the car door for her:

“Where are we going?”

“Go find Fu Yechuan.”

Su Nan spoke calmly, and she couldn’t help but rub her forehead.

I don’t even know how to speak.

Su Nan doesn’t do much of this kind of thing, but it is inevitable that he will come and go in the mall.

But she really didn’t want to have any more contact with Fu Yechuan.

But after going around in circles, he was finally asked to be.

Because she suddenly remembered something.

When she hadn't divorced at the beginning, she didn't know anything about Fu Yechuan's itinerary at all.

If she wanted to know, she had to know from the people around Fu Yechuan.

In addition to Chen Mian, it is the people of the Fu family.

She wanted to ask Fu Yechuan if she would go to dinner, but the phone called Fu Mansion, and Fu Yingying picked it up.

"My brother is going to dine with George George, the richest man in country M, there is no time to take care of you, so keep the garbage you make for yourself."

George , the richest man in country M.

Isn't it today, the George who has a heart attack?

If she remembers correctly, then it means that Fu Yechuan and George are in private contact.

If she goes to contact Su Jin now to take George's line, I am afraid that it will delay time, and things will not go well.

It is not as convenient as going directly to Fu Yechuan.

But can Fu Yechuan help her?

Su Nan looked out the window irritably.

Arrived at the hotel where Fu Yechuan was located.

She glanced up, then took a deep breath and walked in.

The lobby of the hotel is a palatial luxury, exquisite visible to the naked eye, the decoration does not need to be mentioned, and the people who come and go are not affordable for ordinary people.

If she remembered correctly, this hotel was Fu Yechuan's.

She was just about to go to the front desk to say hello, when suddenly a small person ran in from the door, with a look of surprise in her voice:

"Auntie?"

When she looked back, it was Fu Yunche.

He still had a burger in his hand, ate half of it, and happily dropped a few vegetable leaves when he ran in.

But no one dared to come over and scold him for his faux pas.

Some people are waiting to come and clean up.

“Why are you here?”

Su Nan asked him.

Fu Yunche smiled and put away the burger embarrassedly:

“I’m hungry, daddy is in a meeting, no one dares to bring food in, so I ran out by myself.”

Su Nan was stunned: “Hungry?”

Fu Yechuan took him with him, which shows that he really doesn’t care much.

He himself wasted his work and forgot to eat, and did not let people deliver food, so he forgot that Fu Yunche also wanted to eat.

He didn’t speak, and the people in the hotel naturally didn’t dare to send it, and they wouldn’t take the initiative to come up and please a son who was not liked by Fu Yechuan.

Moreover, it is not necessary.

If it was in the past, Su Nan might have scolded Fu Yechuan a few words, and he would not be nosy.

But now, she has a child herself, and she has special empathy and empathy for children of this age.

Looking at Fu Yunche’s life at a young age to see his own father’s face, he suddenly felt a little sad.

Su Nan touched his head, “Where Auntie lives, you can go and talk about playing with Xiaoyueren, if you are interested, but you can only come alone!”

Fu Yunche’s eyes lit up, and a bit of surprise appeared in his beautiful eyes.

He nodded heavily: “Hmm.”

Su Nan was just about to say something when he heard heavy footsteps behind him.

“Mr. Fu...” The

waiter on the side hurriedly looked respectfully behind Su Nan.

Immediately after, footsteps arrived not far away.

“Su Nan, is it you?”

Fu Yechuan’s voice could not hide his joy.

Fu Yunche stood there timidly, hid the burger behind him, and shouted: “Daddy.”

Fu Yechuan ignored him, he walked over and looked at Su Nan, very surprised:

“Why did you come here?”

Su Nan pursed her lips, “I thought you were back in China?”

“I know you refunded your ticket, I refunded it, and I’ll leave whenever you go back.”

Fu Yechuan said his purpose very calmly.

Su Nan's heart was heavy as if he was being pressed by some heavy object.

Su Nan calmed himself down and turned to look at him: <B1142>

"There is something I want to beg you."

"Of course, I will do anything you say for you."

Fu Yechuan's cold facial features rarely floated with closeness and joy.

Su Nan lowered his eyes.

Fu Yechuan glanced outside: "You haven't eaten yet, go up together?" He certainly wouldn't miss such a great opportunity.

Su Nan twisted his eyebrows, although he didn't want to eat, but he also knew that he couldn't open his mouth stiffly.

Otherwise it will backfire.

She glanced at Fu Yunche and nodded:

"Okay, then let's go together."

Fu Yunche glanced at her happily, but he was soon lost because of Fu Yechuan's gaze.

Fu Yechuan noticed Su Nan's gaze and frowned at Fu Yunche.

Especially when he saw the burger he hid behind him, his face suddenly became cold:

"Who told you to eat this garbage?"

As if he had done something wrong, Fu Yunche hid the burger behind him, bowing his head and being helpless.

His immature face was full of panic, and his eyes were slightly red.

His white and tender little face was full of worry and chagrin, as if he had really done something wrong!

But he was so hungry that he went to ask the driver's uncle what he could eat in his stomach immediately, only this, and the last time they ate with their beautiful aunt and sister, Daddy was clearly happy.

Why, in the blink of an eye, do you have to blame him for eating these "junk food"?

I saw him crying.

Fu Yechuan scolded him even more impatiently:

"Enough, since you like to eat so much, then don't eat the main meal, go back to the room and reflect."

Fu Yunche's little face looked up at him full of grievances, and the tears in his eyes quickly fell like beads with broken threads.

Su Nan's heart tightened, she herself has children, and she can't see others treat children like this.

Fu Yechuan obviously hasn't changed from his identity and hasn't really participated in Fu Yunche's growth, so he doesn't have much affection for him.

But she has no position to accuse Fu Yechuan, not to mention that she is still here to ask for someone.

You can't ask for someone before you say it, first pick someone else's fault.

Chapter 2,258 Junk Food

Su Nan pursed her lips and coughed:

"Young Master Fu hasn't been seen for a long time, let's go together, it just so happens that I heard that the restaurant here is good, children will like it, you help me taste what children like to eat, I'll take it back to tell my sister, okay?"

Fu Yunche's eyes flashed, and he looked timidly at Fu Yechuan.

I didn't dare to speak, let alone agree.

Of course he is willing, of course he is willing to be with a beautiful aunt, and he is more willing to taste food for his sister.

But he was afraid of Fu Yechuan.

Fu Yechuan glanced at Su Nan with complicated eyes, although he was very reluctant, he was relieved:

"Forget it this time, next time you eat these junk food, you won't have to eat for a day."

Fu Yunche nodded timidly.

Fu Yechuan looked at Su Nan and stretched his eyebrows:

"Let's go."

Su Nan reached out and took Fu Yunche's small hand.

Fu Yunche's originally wrinkled pitiful little face slowly softened, and then he tilted his head and smiled at her from the bottom of his heart.

It's nice to have a beautiful aunt around!

Fu Yechuan was just about to follow to the elevator, when he suddenly looked at the driver at the door and stopped talking.

He thought there was something.

He looked at Su Nan and said, "You guys go up first, the seat is booked, I'll go later." It's better not to take the same elevator with him, Su Nan also sighed.

Fu Yechuan walked over: "Something?" The driver nodded and rubbed his hands:

"Mr. Fu, I want to ask, didn't the young master eat a bad stomach?"

Fu Yechuan twisted his eyebrows and looked at him silently.

Without asking, the driver gave it all.

“The young master hasn’t eaten for a day, I really can’t bear it, I bought two burgers outside to eat by myself, and then he said he was too hungry, so I gave him one.”

Now that I think about it, it’s me who thinks it incorrectly, how can the identity of the young master eat that kind of fast food? I’m afraid that the unhygiene outside will make him eat a bad stomach, so I’m a little worried...”

Fu Yechuan glanced at him darkly, not knowing what it was like.

For a while, the gaze became complicated.

Fu Yunche’s little face that wanted to cry just now seemed to condemn him for his irresponsibility.

After a day without eating, of course the little ones will be hungry.

He didn’t even know?

It was already commonplace for him not to eat himself, but he neglected to let people deliver food to Fu Yunche.

What a damn!

His face became more and more ugly, and the driver was still wondering if he had done something wrong.

“Mr. Fu, I’m sorry, I won’t next time...”

He thought later, it was really wrong for him, how could Young Master Fu’s noble identity be the same as eating the same thing as him?

Fu Yechuan still doesn’t peel his skin?

Less than three seconds passed.

Fu Yechuan glanced at him with a dark face, “Forget it.” The driver breathed a sigh of relief and his face relaxed.

Fu Yechuan’s voice was deep:

“After returning to China, you go to Chen Mian and raise your salary by 20 percent.”

The driver was stunned, shocked and did not react.

But Fu Yechuan had already turned around and walked inside.

The driver was smashed down by a huge surprise and didn’t know how to react for a while!

Got upstairs.

They didn’t know Su Nan, but they knew Fu Yunche.

The waiter immediately greeted him:

“Is it to go to the place booked by President Fu?” Please come here...”

Su Nan nodded and pulled Fu Yunche to sit over.

Fu Yunche sat beside her, and the corners of his mouth rose unconsciously.

When the waiters all went out, Fu Yunche leaned over and said carefully:

“Auntie, I like you very much.”

Su Nan raised his eyebrows slightly and smiled:

“Is it? Thank you for liking. She also likes such cute and straightforward children.

Fu Yunche looked at her with clear eyes:

“Daddy likes you too, but you don’t like Daddy, right?”

Su Nan raised his eyebrows, is it so obvious?

Even children can understand it, but Fu Yechuan still doesn’t understand?

Fu Yunche pursed his lips, lowered his head and said, “Although I really want you to be my mommy, and I also want to talk about being my sister, but you don’t like daddy.

And Daddy’s temper is not very good, I am afraid that he will scold you, and I am afraid that he will scold and talk about my sister, then you will be as afraid as me.

So forget it, I don’t want you to be like me. I don’t want to let my sister eat like him, but also look at Daddy’s face.

It’s cruel.

After listening to his words, Su Nan didn’t know why, and a sour feeling suddenly welled up in his heart.

Such a young child, not a few months older than Xiaoyuer, but his mind can already be so mature for the sake of others.

Suppress your own thoughts and want others to be happy.

Such a simple behavior is something that many adults cannot do.

However, as the little young master of the Fu Group, he actually learned to observe words and colors.

This is not sensible, it is pitiful.

Although

Xiao Yuer was put into the Su family by his family, he did not send grievances under the fence, but looked like a serf who turned over and sang consciously.

He walked around talking all day, and he was like a fish in water in the Su family.

But in his own home, Fu Yunche honed a temperament of observing words and colors.

Isn't this pitiful?

She reached out and touched Fu Yunche's head, looking at him distressedly: "Young Master Fu, if you feel that your father has lost his temper indiscriminately

, or paid too little attention to you, you don't bear it, you have to tell him bluntly."

"Daddy doesn't like my mommy, I already know, Mommy died, Daddy is the happiest person, I was born by Mommy, so he doesn't like me either."

When Fu Yunche said this, his head was lowered and his voice was low.

These are the words of his heart.

No matter in his heart, in the heart of outsiders, or in Fu Yechuan's heart.

He is all superfluous.

There is a him in Fu Yechuan's world, which is a stain and a burden.

It was so superfluous that he even had to look at his face when he ate.

Blood is not the bond that binds family together.

It's just that Fu Yechuan has to keep his responsibility.

He knows.

Su Nan's heart was shocked, and she narrowed her eyes.

I don't know who said these words in front of him, but it was obvious.

It must be Fu Yechuan and the people around Fu Yechuan who have shown such indifference and disgust that will make him have such thoughts.

He is the tool An Qi uses to tie Fu Yechuan.

But he was just a child.

What did he do wrong?

She touched his head and sighed:

"Young Master Fu, don't think like this, maybe your father likes you more than you think, if he doesn't care, he won't let you into the Fu family."

Maybe he is just so careless, and he doesn't mean to embarrass you on purpose.

You see, he is also a father to someone else for the first time, he has no experience, you have little communication, he does not know what you think in your heart, if you tell him, maybe he will make a change.

Fu Yunche looked up at her in awe, his eyes full of ignorance and confusion:

“Will it?”

Chapter 2,259 Refusing to Help

Su Nan smiled, “Maybe?” And eating too much fast food such as burgers is not good for the body, the nutritional value is not high, and I usually don’t let my sister and little fish eat.

Out of concern for you, he doesn’t want you to eat these things with good intentions, Young Master Fu you have to tell him that you are hungry, he will know!” “

She really has some pity for Fu Yunche.

But as a father, even if Fu Yechuan does not do it well, it is not bad.

At least he didn’t leave Fu Yunche still in an unknown corner.

Instead, let him appear in the eyes of the public in a dignified manner and announce his identity, which means that Fu Yunche’s position is irreplaceable.

It’s just that some people who don’t have long eyes look at Fu Yechuan’s attitude and order dishes, which will more or less make Fu Yunche feel uncomfortable.

Not all of them, like Shang Qian, are fascinated and happy about being a father.

Come to think of it.

Su Nan suddenly fell silent.

Shang Qian took care of the children meticulously, and even penetrated into her emotions.

When a child learns to speak, he can keenly know what the child wants to say.

This once shocked Su Nan.

Therefore, children have not experienced the beatings of family and society so far.

But a figure slumped over suddenly appeared in his mind.

The way he left on crutches, facing the sea in a wheelchair, seemed to form a stereotype in her mind.

How can it linger.

I don’t know when, Fu Yechuan came over.

This location is located next to the window, and the outside is covered by a screen, forming a semi-open space.

But when you sit down, you can clearly see the people coming in from the outside.

Su Nan was immersed in his own world, so he didn’t notice that Fu Yechuan had done it in front of him.

His fingers curled and tapped on the tabletop.

“Have you ordered?”

Su Nan paused, “No.”

Fu Yechuan pursed his lips, and was not polite, glanced at Fu Yunche, who was sitting obediently, and his eyes were a little complicated:

“Then try the chef’s specialty dishes.” He said hello to the waiter.

Not long after, the waiter came over with a children’s set menu and put it in front of Fu Yunche.

Fu Yunche looked at Fu Yechuan on the opposite side in surprise.

Fu Yechuan pursed his lips, his eyes dark

“Didn’t you eat?” Eat it.

Fu Yunche blinked flattered and looked at Su Nan again.

He gritted his teeth, and there was still a bit of grievance in his watery eyes, but he quickly raised his face and smiled:

“Thank you Daddy.”

Fu Yechuan snorted expressionlessly, he pursed his lips and looked at it, his face was serious:

“In the future, if you are hungry, you will go directly upstairs to find a restaurant, you don’t have to be sent to your room, are you not a three-year-old child, waiting for others to feed it to your mouth?”
Seeing

that the atmosphere that had just eased instantly solidified again.

Su Nan looked at this change in shock.

Suddenly there was some indescribable helplessness.

Fu Yunche nodded silently.

Su Nan coughed and took a deep breath:

“Mr. Fu, I came here today, in fact, I wanted to ask you for help.”

Fu Yechuan glanced at her darkly, and his eyes restrained some complicated emotions.

“You know, I’m not going to refuse any of your requests.

Su Nan: “I know that you and George know each other, if it is convenient, can you introduce me?”

Fu Yechuan looked at her abruptly and frowned slightly:

“Why?” Do you have something to do with him?

Su Nan fell silent.

She didn't want to say it.

Fu Yechuan lowered his eyes slightly: "If you don't tell me, I won't help you, because I'm not sure if it's dangerous for you, Su Nan, you know I want you to be fine." "

Like today, they sit peacefully together to eat and chat, and there should be plenty of opportunities in the future."

They will eventually become a family.

Su Nan rubbed his forehead and glanced out the window:

"I'm going to find Shengshi, his experimental results are the beginning, not feasible yet, I have friends around me who are the initiators of this project, they need to stop Shengshi's experiment."

Shengshi refused to let unrelated people enter the laboratory again, and I could not find a specific location, unless it was his partner.

If I'm not mistaken, when we went on a tour together, George agreed to invest.

After she said simply, she looked at Fu Yechuan's face looking at her solemnly, with indescribable emotions in her eyes.

"Gone?"

"What more?"

Su Nan was puzzled.

Fu Yechuan pursed his lips: "Also, you want to rescue that cripple, right?"

Su Nan's face stiffened slightly.

Her gaze cooled.

I don't know if it's because he saw through her motives, or because of Fu Yechuan's unqualified title against Jeff.

She was disgusted in her heart.

"Innocent people, shouldn't they be saved?"

She asked patiently.

Fu Yechuan: "So many innocent people in the world, biased to save him?"

"Among so many innocent people, I only know him and help casually, Mr. Fu, I don't understand, why are you targeting a stranger so much?"

Su Nan looked at him and didn't understand.

Lijeff should have offended him in no way.

But Fu Yechuan targeted him everywhere and couldn't look at him.

When she said this, Fu Yechuan was also slightly stunned.

Perhaps he himself did not expect why he had such a cold attitude towards Lijeff.

But soon, he reacted:

“That person doesn’t look like a good person, he deliberately followed you in Chinatown, believe it or not, I will never trust him anyway.”

Su Nan sighed.

There was nothing she could do to reverse his impression of Lijeff.

There was no way to tell him about her attitude towards Jeff, that subtle emotion, she didn’t know how to describe it.

Is it just a little similar to Shang Qian’s temperament?

No one will believe it!

Su Nan spread his hands, “Well, even if it is not because of him, my friend asked me to help, I will not turn a blind eye, how cruel the experiment of the prosperous world is You have seen it with your own eyes, if you don’t stop it, the people who are fooled will not be just these few.”

Fu Yechuan’s jawline was slightly beaten, and his eyes were dark and deep.

For his own sake, he didn’t want to be nosy.

At most, when leaving, say hello to the police, whether it can be destroyed or not is their business.

But Su Nan wanted to take care of this matter, and it was impossible for him to stay out of it.

“What if I don’t help with referrals?”

Fu Yechuan suddenly spoke.

Su Nan narrowed his eyes and stood up immediately.

What nonsense to talk about?

How could she pin her hopes on this person?

Simply blind!

She lifted her foot and walked out, not saying a word.

Fu Yechuan caught up with him a few steps, endured it, lowered his voice, and couldn’t care about the gazes cast around him:

“I just said if, what do you go?” ”

Chapter 2,260 puts forward a condition

: “Mr. Fu, I grow so big, if I don’t look at my face, I will be an idiot, since you are not in the mood to help, then forget it, I will not force people to be difficult.”

Anyway, I don't believe it, you are the only one who knows George, haven't you heard of a scientific law?

No more than five people you know can meet someone you've never met.

Su Nan glanced at him casually, and was about to leave after speaking.

Fu Yechuan gritted his teeth and sighed:

"I really can't do anything with you."

He chewed his words, with a bit of helplessness in his voice.

"It's better to beg someone than to beg me, you have to find at least five people to find George, and the other person won't necessarily meet you yet."

But if you beg me, I can let you see him now. His voice was deep, as if outlining a huge net in an attempt to trap her in it.

Su Nan is certainly not that stupid.

She immediately put down the shelf, ruffled her hair, and looked at him solemnly:

"I beg you."

She bent down by the way, and her posture was just right.

Fu Yechuan stiffened slightly, looking at her with complicated eyes, as if he had punched the cotton, and his heart was stuffed.

Let him not know how to open the rest of the words.

How could he pass up such a good opportunity?

He coughed:

"Okay, let's go back to eat first, let's talk slowly."

Su Nan knew that he didn't agree so quickly, pouted in his heart, and turned his head back.

It's not that I'm afraid of trouble, it's because time can't be delayed for too long.

If it can be solved today, it is best if it can be solved today, if it drags on too long, it will be bad for the people in the laboratory.

Fu Yunche blinked, completely incomprehensible to the topic they were talking about.

It's just that it is a rare thing to see so many complicated expressions on Fu Yechuan's face.

So he secretly glanced at it several times.

Seeing that they had come back again, he quickly bowed his head and continued to eat.

The waiter also came over with the food.

After they left, Fu Yechuan's face was slightly better.

"You are so sure that George can be persuaded by you, and he will help you, after all, he has no cure at the moment, and the prosperous life is his lifesaver." Seeing that Su Nan still looked bad because of what happened just now, he deliberately provoked this topic and asked her to divert her attention.

Really.

Su Nan paused.

She nodded: "Because the initiator of the real project is not Shengshi, Shengshi can't save him."

Fu Yechuan's eyebrows were obviously a little tired, and he hooked his lips:

"But your friend can't save him, can't he?"

"At least you won't be deceived, right?"

"How do you know, he is not willingly deceived, and the only person who can deceive him can cure cancer right now is Sheng Shi."

"Mr. Fu, do you want to help?"

Su Nan looked at him puzzled, why was he hitting her again and again?

Fu Yechuan raised his eyebrows and sighed:

"I will help you, but I have a condition."

"Just know you won't be cheap for me." Su Nan murmured in a low voice.

Fu Yechuan narrowed his eyes and couldn't hear clearly.

But Fu Yunche, who was sitting next to her, heard clearly.

He glanced at Fu Yechuan and wanted to say something, but hung his head again.

Forget it, Daddy liked beautiful aunt so much that he didn't immediately agree.

If he had spoken, Daddy wouldn't have agreed.

I really don't understand, doesn't liking someone mean wanting to give her all the good things?

Every time he looks at his sister, he wants to do this, although he doesn't have any good things, it's good to say that his sister doesn't dislike him every time they meet!

Su Nan looked at Fu Yechuan on the opposite side with a straight face:

"Say it."

Fu Yechuan paused, bowed his head and laughed:

"My conditions, you should know, are nothing more than ..."

Su Nan interrupted him in a deep voice, as if he knew what he wanted to say, but he had to say the ugly words in advance with a sense of seriousness:

“You know, I am not familiar with Mr. Li, my ability to pay for a stranger is limited, and the condition you propose must be less than the price I pay, and I will agree to your conditions.”

Otherwise, it is better not to open your mouth.

Fu Yechuan smiled after hearing this, as if his mood suddenly improved:

“You are trying to cover the white wolf empty, just say that you don’t want to agree to my conditions.”

Su

Nan: “...”

It’s not that she doesn’t want to agree, but she is afraid that Fu Yechuan will have to mention some messy conditions.

She was really exhausted.

“Don’t worry, I won’t take advantage of the danger to let you marry me, are you worried that I will put forward this condition?”

Fu Yechuan looked at her with burning eyes.

Su Nan was silent and did not make a sound.

But silence is tacit in a sense.

Fu Yechuan smiled bitterly and pulled the corners of his lips, his voice was a little low:

“I’m not so despicable and shameless, how can a waste let you marry me, that is simply insulting myself.”

Su Nan pursed her lips, “Then you say.”

Fu Yechuan’s gaze swept casually and put it on Fu Yunche, who was eating with his head down.

His eyebrows moved slightly:

“Su Jin’s son knows him, and he has a good relationship?” “

SueNan nodded: “Yes.”

“In this way, it is impossible for me to pick him up and drop him off from school in normal times, and the people below are not doing things properly, and Chen Mian is also exhausted with me.” After they leave school, you or your people take him back, and when I get off work to pick him up, if I don’t go, I will let others go, how?

Fu Yunche’s eyes suddenly lit up, looking at Fu Yechuan in disbelief.

Is this still his daddy?

Fu Yechuan looked at Su Nan, and she seemed to be considering his words.

He sighed: "He doesn't have a few friends, only Su Lin, if I didn't look at him pitiful, I wouldn't do more."

"Do you use me as a nursery?"

Su Nan was a little speechless.

Even if it is to spend money, she does not want to involve too much.

"It's not a nursery, I want to put him in Su Jin and be with Su Lin, but I heard that Mrs. Su is pregnant with a second child and can't be affected, so I can only start from you."

How's it going?

Fu Yechuan looked at her.

It's not a difficult thing to do.

Or even just a show of hands.

Take Fu Yunche to the old mansion to play with Su Lin for a while, and then wait for Fu Yechuan's people to pick him up.

It doesn't sound like a loss-making deal.

But the relationship between the Su family and the Fu family has not yet reached this step.

And if something happened to Fu Yunche in the Su family, they would not be able to explain it.

Fu Yechuan is gradually getting the relationship between the two families closer.

That was his real purpose.

Su Nan looked at him steadily, and did not say his thoughts directly.

It's just that she didn't have time to react, Fu Yunche on the side looked at Su Nan nervously, and then put down the spoon in his hand and carefully pulled Su Nan's sleeve:

"Auntie, I will be very well-behaved, you let me play with Su Lin, I promise not to make trouble, I don't want to go back and stay alone, The uncles and aunts who take care of me at home don't like me..."
