Chapter 1291 The excellent excessive

Su Nan nodded.

Su Jin frowned:

“He actually came, we have no news at all.”

Su Nan: “It’s not just us, Fu Yechuan doesn’t know about M country, that is under his nose, the power of Shang Qun should not be underestimated, then The fire was set by his people.”

Su Jin’s face became a little cold, and there was a cold chill in his eyes.

“He already knew, he came here on purpose to find you, and wanted to cause an accident when you were not prepared, but I didn’t expect you to run away...”

Su Nan nodded, and for a moment, everyone’s heart was full of surprises. very heavy.

She is not afraid of future panics.

But there is always a knife hanging over his head, no matter how he thinks, he feels awkward.

This matter should be resolved as soon as possible.

Silent for a few seconds.

No one spoke.

Su Jin was the first to break the silence: “I’ll ask Chang Li to follow you right away.”

Su Yifeng nodded in agreement.

Su Nan smiled, but it didn’t really matter.

But with Chang Li around, she felt more at ease.

“Brother, don’t worry about dealing with the project problems in City S. The quality inspection can almost start the second phase of the project, there is no need to delay too long, the loss will be too great.

Now the public opinion in the media should be under control, after all, so many people watch When I'm threatened with kidnapping, you won't believe that I'm an exercise, right?"

Su Jin sneered: "Don't worry, almost everyone on the Internet sympathizes with you, no one believes that there is something wrong with our things, and the owners who make trouble have stopped. .

Yesterday, the quality inspection people came over and asked me if I wanted to continue the quality inspection. They suggested that it should be done by pretending. After all, the delay is too long, and it is the least cost-effective for them. "

Su Nan raised his eyebrows, that's fine.

" Leave the matter here to me, and the business group to me." "

Su Jin raised his head lightly, "Do you have a solution?" "

Su Nan smiled, "Of course. "

"Okay, you can figure it out. If you need help, just say it." "

. Su Nan nodded his head

a few people chatted for a few, hung up the video.

Sunan stretch, intend to stand up and went upstairs to bed.

Su Yi wind stopped her:

" There's something I, The most important thing for you now is to rest, don't worry about the business group. "

Su Nan smiled and lowered his eyes:

"Dad, you should believe that I can solve this matter, and you can always trust me." "

She seems to smile harmlessly, but she is not a child anymore.

There is a bit of edge hidden in the smile, and he, as a father, should know very well.

He loves her experience, but he is also sure of her ability.

Now, What she faced was not the complicated struggles in the shopping mall, but something more dangerous than the commercial struggle.

But for her, it was not a bolt from the blue.

Su Yifeng paused and watched her walk up the stairs lightly . Su Xiaohu I don't know which corner to get out of, and leaned into Su Yifeng's arms and rubbed it.

Su Yifeng touched it and sighed:

"I always want to make her a little princess who doesn't know the world, but she is too good. ,right? "

Su Xiaohu lay in his arms and wagged his tail in agreement.

Express that he strongly agrees with this point of view.

Su Qi, who was playing games and pretending to be dead, snorted and was ignored.

Su Nan looked at the phone, except for the messages sent by Qin Yu, Ningzhi and Cheng Yi, it was Fu Yechuan's message.

Fu Yechuan just asked her how she was doing, but Su Nan didn't plan to reply.

He has been talking to himself for a long time.

Su Nan plans to block him when he can't bear it any longer.

The first thousand two hundred and ninety-two chapters

The first thousand two hundred and ninety-two chapters are closed, but when I look at Shang Qian's page, it is empty, not a message or a phone call!

Something's not quite right.

Su Nan frowned, this could never have happened before.

Perhaps, he just went back, delayed a lot of work, and hasn't finished it yet?

After she took a bath, she thought about it, not knowing who he hadn't slept.

I still decided to send him a text message to greet him:

"I'm going to bed, good night!" Before closing his eyes, Shang Qian replied in seconds: "Good night, I wish you a good dream!"

Su Nan looked at this reply for a long time , the mood gradually calmed down.

Turn off the phone and go to sleep.

Early the next morning, Su Nan called Yu Lou.

When she came back, Yu Lou naturally followed.

Yu Lou found the information of the Shang Group and sent it over. They were all up-to-date and detailed.

He has followed Su Nan to the study since then.

The housekeeper wanted to deliver snacks, but was stopped by Su Yifeng.

Uncle the housekeeper was very disappointed:

"When the eldest miss was doing her homework, she liked to eat the snacks I made the most..."

Su Yifeng: "She is an exam, not an ordinary homework!"

"Okay, I'll deliver it. To the third young master."

in the study.

Su Nan tapped the three computers in front of her. The stock rally chart on the computer screen was very complicated, but in her opinion, she was not at all stage frightened.

Yu Lou on the side made several plans and handed it to her:

"Mr. Su, this is currently the largest field in the business group industry. The pharmaceutical sector has always been the most cutting-edge and the most promising."

Su Nan took it over and looked at it. Their group has the best trader control, and the stock's performance A very good one.

The ups and downs are very regular, and the layman can't see it, but the layman can see it at a glance.

It's no wonder that a veteran of cutting leeks can earn a lot of money.

Su Nan stared at it for ten minutes before squinting and calculating the time from the middle.

“Usually there will be a cyclical cycle of one or two years, but now we can’t wait that long.

A week later, it will be a relatively important festival in country M. Medicine is indispensable

. After a week, the news that the merchants are also paralyzed will be spread everywhere, and their stocks will be green and panic...”

As the heir of the Shang Group, it is already a sure-fire fact.

If he was suddenly paralyzed, it would definitely cause quite a stir.

Not to mention how unbearable the reason for his paralysis is, the fact that the Shang Group has no leader will only make people feel distrusted and anxious about the future of this group.

This is why these big groups are desperately trying to maintain their own image.

Because of the slightest negative impact, there will be a series of chain reactions.

Yu Lou nodded again and again and paused:

“Mr. Su, after all, Shang is always an expert, and the Shang is the one he knows best. Shall we ask him for his opinion?”

Su Nan glanced at him and said in a very light tone:

” After all, there is still a blood relationship, so don’t let him get involved in the affairs of the Su family and the merchant.”

Whether he likes it or not, it’s embarrassing for him to have his identity there.

Yu Lou nodded silently.

The two stayed upstairs for more than two hours before Yu Lou hurried downstairs and went to the company to make preparations.

Su Nan stayed for a while before slowly opening the door and going out.

Su Xiaohu circled around the door, watching her come out and rubbing her feet.

Su Nan bent over and picked it up, “Are you too excited to see Si Mo?" Su Xiaohu was covered in fur: "No, no!"

...

The first thousand two hundred and ninety-three chapters are you

The first thousand two hundred and ninety-three chapters you only hurt

Su Xiaohu. Every tiger hair is full of rejection.

It doesn't want to silence that female nerve at all!

Su Nan smiled, hooked his lips and walked down.

Coincidentally, the phone below rang. Su Nan just went down and picked up:

"Hello, who is it?" The other party was silent for a few seconds before he said solemnly:

"Miss Su, it's been a long time." The bottom was cold:

"Chairman Shang?"

"It's me, Miss Su, are you feeling better?"

There was some deep meaning in the words.

Su Nan heard it.

Did he expect him to die soon?

She smiled, "Thanks to you, I'm much better, and I can live a few more decades..."

Shang Qun was silent for a few seconds.

Expected to be angry.

"Young man, don't be too mad, because you have a strong background in your family, you will make trouble everywhere. Your father never taught you, do you want to be a man with your tail tucked when you go out?"

His tone was hoarse and low, suppressing his gloomy expression. Emotional, slow voice threatening.

Su Nan sneered, his voice very calm:

“My father taught me, if anyone dares to touch my finger, he will be punished to death!

Ha... Chairman Shang, I am afraid you didn't teach me. Have your son Shang Yi be a good person?”

In a word, there was silence on the phone for a full minute.

Shang Qun's tone was solemn and cold, and across the phone, one could feel the danger in Shang Qun's tone:

“What did you just say?”

“Do you want me to repeat it?”

Shang Qun's voice was terribly cold:

“Who told you Shang Qian?”

Su Nan: “Guess, did Shang Yi take the initiative to tell me this thing worth showing off?”

Even if Shang Qun didn't believe it, Su Nan didn't want to involve Shang Qian.

So, she is diverting her eyes.

“He? He doesn't even know...”

Shang Qun's voice stopped immediately.

There is so much information in this sentence.

There is no need to tell Su Nan so much.

Suddenly, he fell into the trap of this little girl.

“Let me tell you, no one will believe what you know, even if you say it. If you want to blackmail me with this, there is no point at all.”

Shang Qun's tone contained a warning element.

Su Nan sneered:

“Didn’t the business director take the initiative to come and threaten me? How could I threaten you?”

Before waiting for the business group to reply, Su Nan hooked his lips and said straightforwardly:

“I’m not a gossip reporter, I’m not interested in this.

But I think that things like Shang Yi’s paralysis may become even more explosive news.”

Shang Qun’s face changed slightly, his eyes completely turned cold, his jaw tightened, and blue veins appeared on his forehead.

On the phone, Su Nan’s voice was clear and cold, with a hint of watching a good show:

“Do you know why I didn’t kill him completely? I just want to watch him lose everything he has with his eyes open. What doesn’t belong to him, he has taken it for too long, and it should be returned to others.”

Shang Qun’s face was gloomy . Very, Su Nan hung up the phone before he could speak.

She stood there pondering slightly, her eyes cold and severe.

Then, she took out her phone.

“Chang Li, go do something for me...”

The next few days.

Su Nan basically circled around the study, and occasionally when he had to go out, a few bodyguards followed closely.

Even Su Qi didn’t know Su Nan’s journey.

Shang Qian came over several times, but he was all in vain.

He still gets a few replies to his text messages, but the phone basically can’t get through...

The first thousand two hundred and ninety-four chapters

Chapter 1294 Can’t get out

, can't get in, Su Qi laughed at him a few times, privately complained to Su Ming that Su Nan had had enough fun and wanted to break up with Shang Qian?

Su Ming did not answer.

It wasn't until Su Qi couldn't get through on the phone that he felt that his status was inferior to Shang Qian.

Really slap in the face.

Su Yifeng just comforted Shang Qian and told him not to think too much. It is normal for Su Nan to be busy. After all, Su Jin is not there, and there are a lot of things waiting for her to deal with.

Shang Qian had to smile and leave.

a week later.

The stock market fell sharply.

In this turmoil, some of the investors in country M almost went bankrupt.

Attracted people to sell off the capital.

Ninety percent of people can't even keep their books.

Everyone was looking for the reason for the turmoil in the stock market, and a piece of inside information suddenly spread in the middle.

The big man behind the scenes who manipulated the stock market has been hit hard, and the future of the family is unclear, so they have to take the money and run away.

The most common method used by capitalists is to cut leeks.

This wave of turmoil is a precursor to cutting leeks.

Then, everyone saw that a company that was on the verge of bankruptcy suddenly came back to life overnight, and bought most of the stocks that went down in this volatile stock market.

But in just two days, the stock market suddenly rose inexplicably, and everyone who went up didn't even have time to react.

Among them, the person behind the most positions is Shang.

This wave of operations, people inside and outside can't understand it, that's blind.

Everyone in the turbulent stock market lost the bottom, and the Shang Group made a lot of money.

Everyone can see that many shareholders are besieged under the building of the Shang Group, waiting for them to give an explanation.

It seems that someone is manipulating behind the scenes and playing the investors as fools.

The law and order in country M is different from country Z. These investors have sufficient guns, ammunition and weapons, and they can do anything if they are excited.

Several able-bodied people rushed directly into the building under excitement, injuring several security personnel.

However, he was quickly arrested by the police who came over.

Although no one rushed in for a while, more and more people were besieging the entrance of the building. Those inside did not dare to come out, and those outside did not let them come out.

Just like this, after two days of stalemate, the front and rear doors were blocked!

All of a sudden, the sensational news hit the news of country M, and it was impossible to hold back.

The Shang Group was originally led by Shang Yi, and after the incident with Shang Yi, it went directly to the vice president.

The original focus of Shang Qun was revenge, so few people knew about his going to country Z.

But such a big thing happened in Country M, obviously it was aimed at the Shang Group.

Now, he can't go back.

“Director Shang, you really want to go back, or let President Shang go back together?”

Fu Qiu has been walking around the business group recently, just wanting to take the opportunity to meet Shang Qian, and then it would be best to follow him back to Country M.

Shang Qun twitched the corners of his mouth:

“I’ve looked for him a few times, but he never came to see me, so it can be seen that he is really not interested in Shang, but wait and see, when the woman is gone, he will naturally Come back obediently.”

No one can refuse the temptation of a consortium.

He did not believe that the bastard son of a refined egoist would turn a deaf ear to all wealth.

Fu Qiu frowned, thought about it, and carefully suggested:

“Then do you need me to help you?”

Shang Qun paused, “You stay, look at that woman, don’t disappear for no reason.”

Fu Qiu frowned. Qiu opened her mouth and wanted to say something, but she didn’t have the chance to make an inch.

Can you look at Su Nan yourself?

Just kidding!

Chapter 1295 waste son

Chapter 1295 The trash son

Fu Qiu has been shrouded in the shadow of Su Nan’s counterattack against her all the time recently.

For fear that when will Su Nan think of her?

But she still answered “Okay” obediently, and then watched him leave.

As soon as the business group arrived at the airport, several people in plainclothes surrounded him immediately.

He looked at them vigilantly and remained silent.

Before long, the sound of high heels was crisp and loud.

Su Nan was wearing a light-colored windbreaker to frame her neatly and neatly. She had a good figure and smiled brightly.

As she stood there, Shang Qun’s face suddenly became a little nervous.

I don't know why, but I'm just nervous.

This woman's aura is very strong, and he will not misunderstand it for so many years. Although she smiled softly and peacefully, there was no trace of warmth in those apricot eyes.

The two people who followed behind Shang Qun only then reacted with hindsight.

They took a step forward, trying to protect the business group behind.

But the people around Su Nan had already controlled the two of them one step ahead.

But Fu Qiu, who had been wanting to kneel and lick the business group, rushed over to see him off the plane. Watching this scene, he suddenly felt like he was looking for a dead end.

Su Nan glanced at her and hooked her lips.

I had already forgotten her existence, but looking at it this way, oh, she was careless!

She smiled, "Looks like Miss Fu is going back to Country M with President Shang for development?"

Fu Qiu turned pale and looked at Shang Qun nervously.

She is eager to leave with the business group right now!

Otherwise, I can only wait for Su Nan to settle accounts in the autumn.

But Shang Qun didn't care about her situation at all. A person who had used it would throw it away if he wanted to. This Fu Qiu was of little value.

Shang Qun didn't say anything, and Fu Qiu could only explain dryly:

"No, I'm just here to send people off..."

Su Nan twitched the corners of his mouth, not intending to waste time on her.

His eyes shifted to Shang Qun, Su Nan's eyes flashed, and his tone was cold:

"I failed to welcome the business director to Z country, I have to send the businessman to leave, otherwise it will look like my host is stingy. What?"

Shang Qun's face was dignified and solemn, and his eyes were cold as he stared at her:

“Do you think that this is the end, I will let you go?”

Su Nan smiled, and a trace of teasing crossed his eyebrows:

“Shang What Dong should be worried about now is whether I will let you go!”

She raised her eyebrows, this is the VIP waiting room, even if some people are curious, they can see at a glance that the people here are not simple.

Rich people don't mind their own business, they only care if they are enough to stay away from right and wrong.

Su Nan laughed, “That fire didn't burn me to death, fortunately, Director Shang, your waste son Shang Yi is just paralyzed. If you want him to die, just let him go!”

she said . When he fell, he heard Shang Qun's angry voice changed, and his voice rose:

“Do you dare?”

“Do you think I dare?”

Su Nan smiled, with a bit of wickedness and indifference. look.

No one questioned her courage.

Anyway, people have been abandoned, she doesn't mind sending him on the road.

She was a little regretful that she had softened her heart at the beginning.

Shang Qun's face was calm, his eyes fixed on her.

It was unexpected that she could detect his itinerary and stop him at the airport.

This shows that she has been staring at him all the time and knows everything about him.

This woman is not as simple as it seems.

Su Nan smiled coldly.

She stepped forward and said indifferently:

“By the way, I also prepared a generous gift as a reward. I heard that the business director was also a well-known figure in the business. It is my honor to be able to fight with you, don't let me down.”

Chapter 1296 Knowing it was a trap

After Su Nan finished speaking, the corners of his mouth curled up, he took a step back, and reached out his hand gently:

“Get on the plane...”

Shang Qun twitched the corners of his mouth, the forehead Blue veins jump.

He wanted to kill this woman, but he had no power at all.

On the contrary, it was easy for her to kill the business group who sneaked over.

“Miss Su, I underestimated you.

But don't forget, there is a man next to you, also surnamed Shang.”

He reminded through gritted teeth.

Even if it is to respond to her, I don't want Shang Qian to catch up with Su Nan.

Together, they are like a tiger with wings.

For him, there is no benefit.

heard.

Su Nan raised an eyebrow and smiled.

“Director Shang, do you know why I didn't kill you while you were here?”

Her voice was nice and soft, but her words were particularly harsh.

Shang Qun's face changed.

“Because I don't want Shang Qian to have the slightest distaste for the land of country Z.

You should be grateful that he is your son, otherwise...”

Su Nan didn't say what he said next.

But everyone understood, even Fu Qiu.

She stood there, shivering all over.

Looking at Su Nan like this, it was like a different person, all the jealousy and unwillingness in her heart were swept away.

That is not the height she can achieve by studying hard, and it is not everything she can get by working hard.

Even imitating, she is not like.

Shang Qun stared at Su Nan in front of him with cloudy eyes:

"How long do you think he can be infatuated with you? He has the huge wealth of the Shang Group at his fingertips, and everything in Shang Yi will belong to him. Will he still choose you then?"

His voice was low and hoarse, with a hint of inexplicable joy.

I want to look at the woman in front of me crazy!

The two looked at each other silently, and within two seconds, a familiar, warm voice came from behind, with a bit of coldness:

"Yes, I will always choose her."

Footsteps gradually approached.

side head.

Su Nan looked at Shang Qian standing in front of him in amazement. He was a bit sloppy, but his shirt was not messed up, and his face was still bright and clear.

Shang Qian looked at the business group in front of him with a cold look, his expression was cold and determined.

"I've said it countless times, I'm not going to ask for a penny from your family, I've got a lawyer, signed a waiver of property, and it will be sent to your mailbox shortly.

So, don't take my word for it. ."

Shang Qun's pupils shrank suddenly, staring at him tightly, his face trembling slightly.

“Shang Qian—”

Shang Qian hooked his lips, “it’s useless to be angry here, it’s better to go back to M country to deal with the mess.

After all, the CSRC has summoned you for the second time, if you don’t explain it again, The Shang family is about to face the risk of delisting.”

It was really hard to breathe, and Shang Qun was so angry that his face was red.

He looked at Shang Qian, and then at Su Nan, and sneered twice:

“Okay...Okay, the white-eyed wolf I raised, you are ruthless!”

He gritted his teeth and was ruthless.

His own eyesight in country M told him that the stock market turmoil this time was not a natural risk to the economy.

Most likely, it is man-made.

And there are not many people on Wall Street who have the ability to manipulate the stock market and set up such a big bureau.

Shang Qian is one of them.

The vigorous stock market is in a commotion.

On the surface, although merchants make a lot of money, their assets are frozen.

It can be said that it is facing huge risks, and the changes every day are tornado-like darkness.

He never dreamed that he could be folded on the body of his own son!

Chapter 1297 There are surprises at home

Chapter 1297 There are surprises at home

, but I have to rethink it.

Shang Qun knew that he underestimated Su Nan and Shang Qian.

Shang Qun turned around coldly and left.

Su Nan's people did not stop him.

Seeing him enter the boarding gate, Su Nan turned his head, "How are you..." The words were not finished.

Shang Qian's hand suddenly rested on Su Nan's shoulder, and as soon as he approached, he could smell the gentle and familiar fragrance on his body.

His warm lips fell gently on her forehead, and Su Nan felt as if she was electrocuted, and her heart trembled violently.

My heart, which had been cooling these days, suddenly began to beat, and it became warm.

Her expression softened unconsciously.

But the next second, the airport rang a reminder for the flight attendant to take the flight.

Shang Qian let go of the situation and looked at her with deep eyes:

"I'm going to M country on this plane, and I'll tell you when I get back."

Su Nan looked at him in shock:

"So suddenly?"

Shang Qian nodded, with a slight smile on the corner of his mouth, looked at her and said:

"You can't always let you dare not go out, living in danger, I will solve this matter, don't worry, everything will be very easy in the future. Okay."

Su Nan frowned slightly, listening to what he said was not right.

She reached out and took his hand, "I don't understand, what's the use of you going back?"

The people in the business know our relationship, and they won't be against you. If you go back, it will be dangerous."

Shang Qian smiled and reached out to touch it. touched her hair.

The two exchanged the emotions in their eyes as if no one else was there, and in the eyes of the third party, it was considered a deep affection.

For example, Fu Qiu, she is very jealous, but she can't insert any sense of existence.

They were like no one else in their own home.

Intimate and firm.

Especially when they look like a pair of beautiful people.

"Don't worry, I won't have anything to do. The business people dare not touch me. The things in my hand are enough to ruin their reputation."

Su Nan pursed his lips and looked up at him:

"The man who manipulated the turmoil in the stock market of M country. , is that you?"

She has been doubting this question these days.

She wanted to start with the stock market, but it involved a lot of assets and energy, and she had to manage a lot of preparations.

But before she could start, someone took the lead.

This time, the action is vigorous and merciless, and there is no retreat.

Originally thought it was a coincidence, but when the securities regulatory bureau of country M found the business, she vaguely realized that this turmoil was man-made.

But who can help her so much?

She hadn't thought of who it was, so she just followed the trend...

A springboard in front of her, she didn't have to use it for nothing.

But at this moment, she suddenly felt that Shang Qian was inseparable from this stock market turmoil.

Shang Qian stood there, wearing a black woolen coat, with a strong aura, exuding a faint coldness all over his body.

But when he looked at Su Nan, he was still as gentle as jade.

Every time Su Nan looked at him, it was as if he had met a rain after autumn.

Shang Qian just smiled and didn't answer, as if this matter was not worth mentioning.

Su Nan took a deep breath:

“Do you know the consequences if you are found out?”

Shang Qian’s smile contained a hint of disdain.

“Don’t forget, that’s my turf, and I have the final say on Wall Street.”

For the first time, he made no secret of his abilities and showed off his achievements without exaggeration.

Su Nan was stunned for a moment, Shang Qian reached out and pinched her earlobe, his voice was low and hoarse:

“Go home and see, I have a surprise for you, a gift you like.”

...

Chapter 1298 You are very similar to her

Chapter 1298 You are very similar to her

Su Nan looked up at him, Shang Qian just smiled and walked closer to the boarding gate.

Seeing his back disappear, Su Nan silently returned to his senses.

Things have already begun and cannot be stopped halfway through.

There must be an outcome to this.

After sorting out her thoughts, her face instantly returned to a cold and calm expression.

back.

I saw Fu Qiu standing there.

The eyes of the two of them looked at each other, and Fu Qiu’s eyes were obviously avoided.

Su Nan hooked her lips, “Miss Fu, if you really want to follow me, I don’t think I can help you.”

Fu Qiu paused.

Immediately, looking embarrassed and embarrassed, he could not wait to find a crack to burrow in.

She understood the meaning of Su Nan's words very well.

No matter how much she misses Shang Qian, she can't follow him on the plane after seeing him and Su Nan kissing me and me.

It looks like it can't wait.

"No, I'm here to see the business director."

She bit her lower lip and turned to leave.

But Su Nan's bodyguard quickly blocked her way.

Su Nan walked over slowly and narrowed his eyes.

"The reporter has already confessed."

After Su Nan said this, Fu Qiu panicked.

"What's the confession? What does it have to do with me? I don't know any reporters at all?"

"Really?"

Fu Qiu bit the bullet and denied:

"Of course, if you have the ability, you can show evidence, otherwise, it will be slander!"

She was certain that even if the reporter involved her, she would not be able to show any substantive evidence.

By then, she was still confident.

Su Nan looked at her and smiled.

"I didn't say that the person he confessed was you, why is Miss Fu nervous?" Fu

Qiu breathed a sigh of relief, and his face improved.

However, in the next second, Su Nan said:

"He confessed to the boss of your internship company, tsk, it seems that the surname is Zhao, and Mr. Zhao confessed to you." It was like a stone chosen on the top of her head, which completely hit her. on the head.

She was a little dizzy.

His face changed a bit.

“No...impossible!”

Even if the surnamed Zhao knew, it was impossible to bite her out.

He knew that behind him was the Fu family.

Su Nan smiled, “I heard that Fu Yechuan called him directly, let him tell the truth... Leave the rest to the police.”

Seeing that Fu Qiu’s face had faded from blood , there was no light in his eyes.

She gave the bodyguard a look, and the bodyguard understood immediately.

Su Nan stepped on high heels and left the airport.

The bodyguard sent Fu Qiu to the police station without even having a chance to run away.

Before night, Fu Qiu confessed everything, faster than expected.

She knew very well that since Su Nan told Fu Yechuan about the matter, she had no way out.

Fu Yechuan didn’t even protect Fu Yingying, let alone her relative who couldn’t fight.

Mr. Liang, the godfather, didn’t do much, he just let someone send a message in and let her stop the loss in time.

What is a timely stop loss?

Just don’t bet everything you have, you will only lose miserably.

Apart from that, the Liang family did not express any intentions.

When Shang Qian got off the plane, he sent Su Nan a text message to report safety.

When he left the airport, he just happened to meet the same group of businessmen at the door.

Shang Qun was very surprised to see him, and his face became a little ugly.

“Why are you here?”

In the first class cabin, he only cared about his anger and resentment, and then he was thinking about what to do next.

But I didn't expect that Shang Qian would go back to country M with him?

The first thousand two hundred and ninety-nine chapters are not welcome to see the carelessness of the business group, and he has not discovered it?

Shang Qian smiled, “I know you might not want to see me, so I deliberately changed from first class to business class to avoid everyone seeing each other.”

Shang Qun snorted coldly, “You can really do this for that woman. Come on, okay, let me see how long you can hold on?”

Shang Qun lowered his head, looked at his watch, and said calmly:

“Director Shang, I have calculated an account for you. Up to now, Shang Group has not made any decision on the stock market. Any reaction, Shang's stock will fall again and again, and it is about to fall out of the line.

Every minute you delay here, you will pay a sunk cost of 10 million.”

He said it lightly, and then smiled:

“Yes. Now, my major is this field, if you need help, please contact my assistant to make an appointment, although I will still reject you, but I don't mind giving you a hint.”

Shang Qun was given a few words by him . Surprised, his face became extremely ugly:

“Shang Qian, tell the truth, did you do this?”

Shang Qian: “Why do you say it so ugly? Of course I have to protect the people you touched me.”

The corners of Shang Qun's eyes twitched fiercely.

He admitted that.

Upright, frank and straightforward.

Shang Qian smiled, his mouth full of coldness.

Shang Qun gritted his teeth: "You actually attacked your own family for the sake of a woman. I really underestimate you!"

"My family? Business director and Shang Yi are one family. A well-received outsider.

Don't say it in such a high-sounding manner, as if you have contributed much to my growth?"

Shang Qian smiled deceitfully, lowered his head, and when he looked up again, there was a bit of gloom in his eyes:

"I'm waiting for Director Shang's counterattack, if you can't do anything, just call me, I'll accept your surrender at any time, of course, ask You should also know."

After Shang Qian finished speaking, he watched his driver drive to the front.

He walked straight away, bent over and got into the car.

Although part of his career has arrived in country Z, some of it cannot be transferred, and he has always had a place on Wall Street.

Everyone knows that when Shang Qian came back, those who were eager to move while he was away suddenly became honest.

The assistant was waiting for him in the company. "Mr. Shang, according to your instructions, although we lost money, everyone's eyes were on the Shang Group, but they were surprised. The response from the Shang Group was a bit...too naive."

A reaction is not indifference, nor is it justification.

The vice president of the Shang Group did two things.

The first thing was to bribe the politicians in country M and let them speak out for the Shang Group.

There are really fools who listen to their words and come out to appease the intense emotions of those investors.

However, the effect did not meet expectations. Instead, it implicated the politician, hooked up a series of insider stories of power and money transactions, and staged another wonderful drama vigorously.

The second thing is to issue a statement in the name of the Shang Group, telling them the risks of stock market turbulence. All investors should calm down, actively take risks, and have the courage to face all hardships.

As soon as the statement was released, the group of enthusiastic investors almost rushed into the building of the Shang Group with guns.

It's a gesture of standing and talking without back pain.

Because the biggest winner in this turmoil is the Shang Group.

So their statement is also a matter of course, put it down gently...

The first thousand three hundred chapters are ugly

Chapter 1300

The reaction of the Shang Group is tantamount to rubbing salt on the wounds of the group of investors who are about to go bankrupt.

So in this way, the reputation of the Shang Group suddenly fell to the bottom, to the point of being reviled by everyone.

As soon as Shang Qun came back, he was so angry that he was faced with such a big mess.

Shang Qian looked at the latest progress report, snorted lightly, and threw it on the table with an indifferent expression:

"I gave them a chance, as long as they spit out the money in time and don't look so ugly, they won't get to this stage.

" Everyone knows that those are all investors who have been rolling in the stock market all the year round. They have no career and rely on the rise of the stock market to make money.

It's really hard to get a layer of skin off of them.

But the Shang Group not only did it, but also bit this layer of skin tightly in its mouth, showing off and publicizing it, can it not be courting death?

The assistant smiled calmly on the side:

“Shangshi Group looks bright on the surface, but the talents behind the scenes have long been poached, and several executives are too greedy and occupy more, and sooner or later problems will be exposed. .

Now it’s just a little bit of trouble, they don’t even have the strength to fight back, and they haven’t solved it for a long time. It can be seen that the company is already in a mess, and there is no countermeasure that can be taken out, so that people can take the whip. It ‘s ridiculous that a huge piece of pie fell on their heads. Not only did they have no sense of crisis, but they wanted to swallow it alone, and they were complacent.

Over the years, if it wasn’t for the fact that you were too lazy to do it, the entire Shang Group would have been complacent. There are no more pants left in the stock market.”

Shang Qian looked cold and looked at the time.

“When the business group comes back, countermeasures will inevitably be taken. He is not the same as the waste businessman. We must respond in time.”

The assistant paused and said,

“President Shang, even if the business director comes back to preside over the overall situation, I’m afraid... it won’t help.”

Shang Qian raised his eyebrows and looked at him.

The assistant pursed his lips:

“Before you asked me to pay close attention to the movements of the Shang Group, but I couldn’t interfere.

I didn’t hear any rumors a few days ago, but... this morning, I saw the Shang Group host The vice president of work has privately contacted a wealthy businessman in country Z.

I reconfirmed the shareholding of the Shang Group...” The assistant paused and glanced at Shang Qian, who pursed his lips and picked Mei looked at him:

“In addition to the 39.5% of Shang Group’s shares in the hands of Shangqun and Shangyi, the other 6% are in the hands of small shareholders, and the other major shareholders are nearly 54%. The shares of the company are no longer in their hands.”

Shang Qian's eyes narrowed slightly, "What did you say?"

His expression was obviously a little surprised.

The assistant said hesitantly:

"The whereabouts of the shares are unknown, but what is certain is that these shares have flowed into the hands of one person, not the wealthy businessman that Mr. Fu of the Shang family met today, but probably the power of country Z."

Shang Qian His eyebrows twitched slightly, as if he was thinking about something.

The assistant just said it clearly, what he suspected was secretly taken away by Su Nan.

Just no evidence.

It was hard-won for him to get this news. If it wasn't for some of those shareholders who supported Shang Qian and revealed it, he wanted Shang Qian to take advantage of it.

I am afraid that this news will have to wait until the real equity change is known.

By then, it was already too late.

But it's really shocking. The shares of the Shang Group have always been a sweet treat in the eyes of others. Although those shareholders do nothing, they also want to sit in their original positions and earn their money.
