Chapter 1301 Check whether or not those shareholders are required, they will not easily sell the shares in their hands.

However, in just a few days, Su Nan has collected 54% of the shares, occupying the largest share of the Shang Group, which is unexpected.

But now, no one knows that the owner of the Shang Group is about to change.

Shang Qian's brows were gloomy, and he sat there looking out the window.

The assistant coughed and couldn't help reminding:

"Mr. Shang, maybe the business has offended too many people, and they can't stand it any longer."

Shang Qian didn't say anything. After a few seconds of silence, he suddenly said:

"Fu Yechuan is still here. Country M?"

Assistant: "Mr. Fu has acquired the largest old car brand in country M, and the capital of Z side has been injected into country M, which is unprecedented in the history of automobiles in country M.

He has also been very busy recently. There were a lot of problems in his acquisition road, so he couldn't get distracted to intervene in the business of the Shang Group.

However...some overseas Chinese groups in country M all supported his acquisition, so once the acquisition was completed, he took a private jet and left country M."

"Away?" Shang Qian asked.

"Yes."

Shang Qian was a little dissatisfied.

He came and Fu Yechuan left.

Who knows if this Fu Yechuan will harass Su Nan?

All his attention was drawn to the incident.

Immediately began to feel uneasy.

The assistant had followed him for so many years, and was a little surprised when he noticed the change in his mood.

Shang Qian has always been very stable, no matter how big the storm is outside, he is standing here in a soft voice and rarely sees his emotions leaking out.

Therefore, seeing the mood swings on his face, I suddenly felt a little uncomfortable...

Could it be because of that Miss Su in country Z?

Before he could react, Shang Qian picked up the phone, "I'll make a call." The assistant nodded immediately and left his office subconsciously.

He closed the door with hindsight and shook his head suspiciously.

definitely is.

Su's house.

When Su Nan picked up the phone, the uncle, the housekeeper, knocked on the door:

"Miss, Mr. Fu is here..."

Shang Qian, who was on the phone, just heard this sentence, and his face immediately became nervous. stand up.

"Su Nan..."

Su Nan responded, raised his head, and saw that Fu Yechuan had reached the door.

"Shang Qian, I'll call you later, there's something to do here, goodbye?"

Shang Qian gritted his teeth, but said calmly, "goodbye".

As soon as he hung up the phone, he became restless.

He shouldn't have returned to M country so hastily!

Su Nan put down his hand, took a document from the side and walked down.

in the living room.

Su Qi was stunned when he saw Fu Yechuan, and said with a smile,

“Mr. Fu, you are here, do you have a long way to welcome him?”

Fu Yechuan pursed his lips and went to M country for a whole month. When he came back, he didn't even have his own company. Go and come to Su's house.

He wanted to see Su Nan for the first time.

He was not so angry at Su Qi's yin and yang's strange tone.

He smiled slightly, “Third brother, it's been a long time, I heard that you are studying drama performance in Europe, and I look forward to your new achievements.”

Su Qi: “...”

Well, it's the first time I've seen such seriousness Fu Yechuan, who was stunned, seemed to have hit cotton with a punch, asking for no fun.

He pulled the corner of his lips and glanced upstairs.

“Xiao Wu, I'm looking for you?”

Su Nan was already wearing slippers, looking in a hurry.

She solemnly handed the document to Fu Yechuan, “Mr. Fu, thank you for your help.”

Fu Yechuan smiled and looked at her reluctantly.

“It's your duty to help you.”

Su Nan handed the document forward, and Fu Yechuan frowned in confusion:

“What is this?”

“Would you like a check?”

...

Chapter 1302 Exchange of Interests

Chapter

1302 Su Nan's casual tone of benefit exchange gave Fu Yechuan an illusion.

That is their relationship has tended to ease.

Fu Yechuan took it with a smile, "Definitely not."

He helped her so much, and Su Nan would not use the number on the check to measure this help.

He also knew it in his heart.

He just wanted a chance, a chance to get close to her.

Only by standing on a step can Su Nan be able to look at him.

Staying at home all the time, she changed into a more homely dress and looked a little gentler.

She folded her hands and looked at him:

"That's thank you, I'm a person with clear grievances. It was your people who helped me contact several major shareholders of the Shang Group and asked them to secretly sell their shares to me willingly.

I've accepted this favor, but I can't be a white-collar worker, this is the thank you gift you need most, so you're welcome."

After speaking, she smiled, "I have a video conference in two minutes, so I'll go up and prepare first, you Do it yourself." It was n't that she was not polite, Su Nan really didn't want to see Fu Yechuan's affectionate eyes.

It's really awkward.

Since you don't plan to start over, don't give even the slightest chance.

After speaking, she stepped directly upstairs in her slippers.

Fu Yechuan's expression condensed slightly and pursed his lips.

Immediately, his throat tightened.

Watching her go upstairs, she wanted to say something and then shut her mouth.

Now, not too fast.

Not a good time.

Looking at the kraft paper bag in front of him, he opened it directly.

A land transfer agreement came into view.

His face stiffened and his eyes glanced.

The inside is that a piece of land was transferred to the Fu Group at a very low price, just like a free gift.

And this land is a crucial piece of the new project he recently planned secretly.

If this piece of land does not belong to you, then progress in other areas will be affected and hindered, and it will even cost more to maintain.

He knew that this piece of land belonged to the Su Group, but he did not act.

He was hesitating whether to pull the Su Group into this project, which was tantamount to a happy event that fell from the sky.

But...

it turns out that she has always known about this secret project plan.

That's right, the surrounding land fell into his hands one by one, so the keen Su Nan must be able to detect something.

Indeed, for the Fu Group, this thank you gift is really enough, which is much more effective than a check!

His blueprint was pieced together, which was a crucial part, and Su Nan perfectly made it up for him.

There are only a lot of thanks for him pulling the strings!

But Fu Yechuan's heart seemed to be weighed down by a huge boulder, and he had difficulty breathing heavily.

It really is an exchange of interests.

No one takes advantage of anyone else.

But Fu Yechuan was not happy.

Even if Su Nan said "thank you" lightly, even if she didn't care to reveal the matter, even if she didn't even say a word of thanks...

Fu Yechuan felt that he would not feel so uncomfortable.

His hand clenched the document tightly.

The veins on the hands are slightly raised.

Obviously, very hard.

He knew that Su Nan was distancing himself from him.

The interests are non-aggression.

Such a feeling is really bad.

Su Qi's expression became extremely fast as he watched Fu Yechuan go from entering to exiting.

He wanted to say a few words, but Fu Yechuan's face was ashen and cold, it was really hard to mess with.

After thinking about it, he swallowed the words.

Su Qi to go upstairs. Su Nan is holding a video conference with a calm face. Seeing Su Qi leaning against the door frame, she raises her eyebrows slightly.

Su Qi put the document bag in his hand on the table, turned around and went down.

glanced.

Su Nan was stunned for a moment, then immediately recovered his face, calmly listening to the people in the video reporting the situation.

He didn't take the thank you gift.

Even if it's just what the Fu Group needs most.

Twenty minutes later.

End of the meeting.

Su Nan looked at the document calmly and lay there quietly.

Fu Yechuan really had the guts, and wanted to owe him all his life?

She doesn't!

Su Nan called, "Assistant Yu, come here."

It took Yu Lou 25 minutes to travel from the company to Su's house.

Su Nan stretched and went downstairs, holding a glass of hot milk in his hand, with a clear circle of milky white above his lips.

Yu Lou looked at him and smiled, "Mr. Su, are you in a good mood?"

Su Nan paused, "How did you see it?"

Yu Lou rolled his eyes: "Intuition."

Su Nan rolled his eyes at him.

Then, pass the document in his hand.

"Send it to the Fu Group, give it to Fu Yechuan, and let him keep it.

If he doesn't want it, then give him a check... In any case, you have to choose the same."

Yu Lou's smile froze.

Sure enough, Su Nan was in a good mood, and his hard days might come.

Fu Yechuan, Mr. Fu is not easy to deal with!

"President Su, let President Fu take the check?

I'm afraid that President Fu never thought in his life that there are women who send him checks, right?"

Su Nan showed the image of a domineering president vividly.

But...is it a mistake?

Who is the bossy president?

Does Fu Yechuan really not cut him?

Su Nan gave him a cold look, "Stop talking nonsense, and hurry up."

Yu Lou raised his eyebrows, of course he had no intention of rejecting it.

"Okay, I'll go right now."

After Yu Lou finished speaking, he turned to leave.

"By the way, since the police have issued a statement and announced the charges against Fu Qiu, let's start preparing for the press conference."

Su Nan added.

Yu Lou turned his head, "Okay, but will the press conference be held in City A or City S?"

Su Nan pursed his lips: "City S, it's better to hold it in front of the burned-out warehouse, let them see, our Su Group How much did you pay for this project, for the development of S City?"

Yu Lou nodded with a smile, "Yes, I'll go right now."

Su Nan thought thoughtfully.

The burned warehouse has not yet been rebuilt, and the building materials inside have been completely burned.

The inspection by the quality inspection department also had to be terminated.

However, the inspection results of the batch of building materials they took away that day, including the randomly selected owners in the first phase of the project, are now facing the truth.

Coupled with the police statement, now is the perfect time to hold a press conference.

Although Su Nan was not present, but Su Jin was there, she didn't need to worry at all.

During this time, Su Nan was recuperating at home, but the voices of caring about her from the outside never stopped.

Especially when she was kidnapped by the reporter that day, it was live broadcast, and countless people saw such a terrifying scene.

Although he was out of danger at the time, the media mentioned the incident of Su Nan indistinctly in the subsequent fire.

Only later did Su Nan find out that the people of the Su family did not deliberately conceal this matter at all.

Just to let the other party relax their vigilance and give them a chance to bring her back in secret.

Today, the news on the Internet is still fermenting...

Chapter 1304 Goddess Don't Die

Chapter 1304 Goddess Don't Die

Su Nan occasionally glances at it, it's all about her and the project in S City.

"Goddess Su wants to come back safely, you want to be the richest man in the world!"

"That reporter is really unprofessional. He has smeared the entire media industry. With just a little money, he can go out and frame him?"

"The Su Group It's really good that you are not afraid of shadows, and the quality inspection is the quality inspection. Even if you lose money, you have to say something. It's really good!"

"The fire prevention people are afraid that the quality inspection department will find out nothing wrong? It's ridiculous!"

"I can guarantee that , this fire was definitely not directed and acted by the Su Group, because they would not throw their female president into it and set it on fire.

I was there at the time of saving people, and Goddess Su was almost unable to save her, and the door was locked. Now , there are three ambulances and a police car.

There was a very handsome man who rushed into the fire and took him out. I have to say, that man is really handsome!"

"It's obviously trying to set fire to destroy the evidence, Let others think that the Su family burned it yourself? The eyes of the masses are sharp!"

"Always believe in Goddess Su's innocence! I hope you get better soon, the business and entertainment circles without you will have no soul!"

“You must be severely punished . The murderer is so arrogant, even someone of Su Nan’s worth dared to kidnap?”

If it were ordinary people, would there be luck to survive?”

“Goddess, don’t die, in order to support your career, I bought ten sets in one go. The house!”

...

Su Nan let out a faint smile, the voices on the Internet are really rich, but fortunately, the Su Group is safe from this public opinion.

The phone suddenly rang.

At first glance, it was Qin Yu.

She picks up.

Qin Yu called out tentatively, “Xiao Wu?”

Su Nan frowned and looked at it, yes, it was her.

“Why? Why is the sound so weird?”

Qin Yu breathed a sigh of relief, “You’re still alive, you scared me to death!”

Su Nan: “Can I scare you to death by living?”

Qin Yu quickly denied: “No No, there are rumors in major circles that you have been burned to death, how long have you been out of the house?”

Su Nan pursed her lips, as if she had never left the house except for going to the airport that day and then coming back immediately.

“I’ve been busy recently, and my body hasn’t recovered yet. The doctor asked me to rest at home.”

“I said, if something happens to you, will the Su family be so peaceful?”

Qin Yu said a few words, she couldn’t bear it any longer:

” Either you squeak on the Internet, and don’t let people start to incense you...”

Su Nan: “...”

Is it such an exaggeration?

Qin Yu firmly told her to take a break, otherwise the media would really start using her “death news” to gain attention.

Su Nan answered and chatted with her a few more words before hanging up.

Then he took his mobile phone to his account, thought about it, and posted a message:

“Squeak—“

Su Nan’s account has 15 million followers, so she sent a word, just a few short. Within minutes, tens of thousands of comments flooded in.

It was too late for Su Nan to click, and little red dots kept popping up.

She was at a loss for a while.

Suddenly, I saw the first reply below my comment:

“Meow—”

Su Nan was puzzled, looked at the person who replied, and felt that the nickname was familiar, especially the avatar.

When I opened it, I saw that the avatar turned out to be a photo of Mike’s life. It was a picture of Mike wearing big pink glasses, holding his tender face in his hands, and looking at the camera ignorantly.

It looks like a little model on the Internet.

By the way, this is Shang Qian’s account!

...

Chapter 1305 Spend money to buy popularity

Chapter 1305

The comment on spending money to buy the popularity of Shang Qian is actually the first!

The following people poured in:

“What does this mean?”

“Is Goddess Su feeling better? We miss you very much!”

“We are rich, the only company that doesn’t want to go bankrupt is the Su Group, you It’s getting better!”

“I don’t know if you have noticed that the first hot comment is like a couple’s conversation?”

Below this comment, next to several comments:

“Impossible!”

“No way, my goddess Always single!”

“Mice and cats? Anyone can meow, don’t talk about the entertainment industry, you can also be a hot comment if you are lucky!”

“That’s right, it’s purely a coincidence!”

Su Nanzuo Looking to the right, the rising comments and likes made her even more puzzled.

So, she directly sent that screenshot to Shang Qian.

Shang Qian replied in seconds: “?”

Su Nan: “It’s not you?”

Shang Qian: “It’s me.”

Su Nan confirmed that he was not mistaken before replying slowly:

“You spend all your time online? Don’t you have business affairs when you return to country M?”

Shang Qian: “Hmm.”

Su Nan sneered, what does um mean?

Do you mean you don’t want to answer?

She has no interest in talking anymore.

Just as he was about to shut down and start working, Shang Qian immediately popped up another message:

“I’ve only followed you alone, that’s why I received your news in such a timely manner.”

Su Nan was startled.

Another message from Shang Qian popped up again:

“There is something serious, but it will be resolved soon.”

Su Nan’s face softened slightly . For the sake of his patience, please forgive him!

“But how did you become number one?”

According to his speed, others were several times faster than him.

Shang Qian: “The popularity of spending money to buy.”

Wow!

What a straightforward and candid explanation!

Su Nan really wanted to laugh.

“Meow—what does it mean?”

Shang Qian: “The synonyms of squeak are all tone particles, and I think they fit well.”

Shang Qian typed with a smile and explained seriously.

Even if it is a dynamic on the Internet, he is too full of presence.

But...

people on the Internet don’t believe it, this is a couple’s reply!

He and Su Nan are a couple!

There are even Su Nan’s die-hard fans who stand up and clear the relationship for Su Nan, saying that Su Nan is single!

Shang Qian sneered, isn’t he worthy?

Su Nan laughed speechlessly, and replied:

“Well, it’s really suitable.”

Shang Qian’s mood suddenly improved, as if the sun had cleared the clouds, and he was scolded by netizens just now, but Su Nan’s information made him suddenly clear Miles.

Life is simply too beautiful!

The assistant on the side was busy, looking at Shang Qian’s face, it was cloudy and sunny, it was terrifying.

It’s faster than a woman’s temper!

He was really curious, what kind of person is that Miss Su in country Z?

Shang Qian suddenly remembered something, “By the way, have you seen the surprise for you?”

Su Nan was stunned for a second.

Oh, she forgot!

Immediately after returning from the airport, I threw myself into work and self-cultivation, completely forgetting about it.

She hurriedly found a palm-sized sandalwood box from the drawer that the housekeeper brought up, which looked very delicate.

Once opened.

It’s a few keys and addresses.

Su Nan frowned slightly.

Ask him, “What is this place?”

Seeing her asking, Shang Qian knew she hadn’t gone.

He smiled and was not disappointed...

Shang Qian without answering.

Instead, he sold a trick: "You'll know when you go and have a look. Don't go by yourself. Go with your friends. It's very safe inside."

Su Nan replied, "Okay."

Looking at that location, she had never been there before. There are some strangers who don't know what to do.

It really piqued her curiosity.

Preparations for the press conference have come to an end.

This time, it is still in the form of live broadcast.

The person sitting in the middle is still Chen Jian.

The person watching from below changed from Su Nan to Su Jin.

Chen Jian had already drunk three bottles of water before he took the stage, but he couldn't help being nervous and trembling all over.

When Su Nan was here, he was not so nervous.

It's killing me.

Seeing that there are more and more reporters, more and more cameras, and the start is about to begin, Chen Jian still can't overcome his nervousness.

Su Nan connected at the site of Su Mansion and watched the layout of the site.

When the camera swept across Chen Jian, she suddenly said, "Stop—" The screen freezes in Chen Jian's direction.

She squinted her eyes for a few seconds, and her face was not very good.

Although she had long known that Chen Jian's abilities were finished before he was 30 years old, she was still willing to give him a chance to stay in the Su Group.

It's not because there is no one to replace this position, but because I don't want the old employees to have the illusion that a rabbit is a dead dog.

But this Chen Jian, why is his performance getting worse and worse?

She called Su Jin directly.

Su Jin sat below and talked with his assistant about today's question and answer session.

Although the question is tricky, but everyone sees blood for a while, only in this way can it arouse the resonance and empathy of netizens.

Instead of blindly asking questions in the direction that is beneficial to the Su Group.

What consumers and netizens care about most is their vital interests.

Therefore, the main aspect of this question is still on the quality of building materials.

When he received the call, his tone was very indifferent:

"Hello?"

"Brother, Manager Chen has not encountered anything recently, right? Why is his mood not right?"

Su Jin raised his head and glanced at the sweaty people on the stage. Chen Jian frowned slightly.

The sharp eyes instantly cooled down.

"He's always been like this, I'll change people right away."

"Wait, brother, it's too late to change people now. The person who knows this project best is Chen Jian.

Well, I'll give him a call later and ask.

Wait a minute. When the matter is over, transfer him back to the company by the way when you come back, and I will assign another person to take over."

Su Jin was silent for a few seconds, his expression was cold:

he said "um", "Assign in my name. "

Su Nan: "Okay."

Su Jin was well-intentioned. In this case, the decision was made by Su Jin, and it had nothing to do with Su Nan.

Su Nan: "You pay more attention to the scene. If Chen Jian is too unreliable, eldest brother, you have to go to rescue the scene yourself..."

Su Jin answered and hung up the phone.

He looked at Chen Jian with dark eyes, and looked at it steadily.

Chen Jiang just took a sip of water and glanced in Su Jin's direction.

Seeing him looking at him, Chen Jian was so frightened that he almost choked to death!

The next second, when he looked up again, Su Jin had turned around and continued to explain the process to the people around him.

Chen Jian breathed a sigh of relief, and the phone suddenly rang.

At first glance, it was Su Nan.

He immediately picked it up respectfully:

"Mr. Su?"

He immediately stood up and spoke, with a humble attitude, not showing off at all.

Su Jin glanced here and frowned slightly.

Looking inexplicably surprised?

...

Chapter 1307 Respect President Su

Chapter 1307 Respecting President Su

Chen Jian completely admired and felt guilty for Su Nan, so he respected this little President Su from the bottom of his heart.

But for Su Jin, he was fearful in his bones.

I don't know why, but looking at Su Jin, I know that his requirements for this position are not his own standards.

He occupies this position, that is, the dove occupies the magpie's nest.

So, in the final analysis, there is still fear.

Su Nan: "Manager Chen, the troubles in City S have been resolved smoothly, thanks to the credit of Manager Chen. When the press conference is over, I will ask my father to invite Manager Chen to come and sit at home."

Chen Jian looked flattered:

"I don't dare not Dare, Mr. Su, it's all I should do.

Besides, I didn't help you much, you are the one who suffers, the idea is all yours, how can I get any credit?"

Su Nan's voice was gentle and made people listen to It was like a spring breeze, and there was no pretense:

"How can it be? You are in charge of the overall situation before and after the incident. This mess has not collapsed. The company knows it."

Chen Jian's nervousness gradually eased, and he looked relaxed. a lot.

He smiled, "I know, thank the company for supporting me, I will definitely live up to everyone's expectations."

Su Nan responded, "If you have any difficulties, just tell me, Manager Chen, today's press conference . It will be very important. You represent the image of the company, so don't make a fool of yourself!

From the side, we are the righteous side, even if it is unscripted, we should talk about it, don't lose the momentum!"

Chen Jian straightened his waist in an instant. Rod:

"Yes, Mr. Su is right, people fight for one breath, and the tree lives a piece of skin!"

Su Nan heard his tone firm, and knew that his goal was almost achieved.

She looked at the time, "Okay, I won't bother you anymore, you can watch the scene, I will also watch the live broadcast."

"Okay, Mr. Su, take care of your health."

Chen Jian doesn't care at all now . She treats her like a pampered little girl.

She is more like a commander commanding from behind.

After hanging up the phone, Chen Jian tidied up his suit and neckline. The nervousness has gradually disappeared, and his confidence has multiplied.

Su Jin casually glanced in his direction and observed his mood changes.

Just now, it was like two people.

What did Su Nan tell him?

A little curious.

But before he had time to ask, he directly sent Su Nan a WeChat message with a thumbs up expression.

Su Nan was inexplicable, and then looked at the changes in Chen Jian in front of the camera, and she smiled knowingly.

The press conference officially begins.

Su Nan sat there looking at the screen on the computer.

At the beginning, the number of live broadcasts was only tens of thousands.

As soon as the reporter came up, he asked a very controversial topic:

“Excuse me, after the reporter who reported the problem with the building materials and the suspect behind the scenes were arrested, will the quality inspection of the Su Group continue?”

”, but it makes sense.

But it will always leave a shadow in my heart.

Even if it is a malicious commercial competition, the possibility of fraud by the Su Group cannot be ruled out?

This question is so in-depth as soon as it comes up, it really surprises everyone.

The camera swept over Chen Jian on the stage. He was mature, steady, and unsmiling. After listening, he just nodded without blinking:

“Of course, every yard is a yard, the building materials in the Su Group’s warehouse will be inspected.

Unfortunately, a fire a few days ago almost burned up the building materials, but we have sent the rescued building materials to the relevant departments. Accept the quality inspection.

Again, we accept the supervision of everyone, we are willing to take responsibility for the health of the owners, and we hope more than anyone else to get a fair treatment!"

...

Chapter 1308 Lucky Numbers

Chapter 1308 Lucky Number

Chen Jian calmed down and his tone was sonorous and firm. This is the best attitude to face doubts.

Su Nan was completely relieved, and Chen Jian finally didn't lose the chain.

That's it.

None of the questions that followed was nonsense. The number of viewers in the live broadcast went from tens of thousands to hundreds of thousands, and it reached 200,000 in less than ten minutes.

And in the end, the number of viewers at the end was more than three million.

It can be seen how many people are paying attention to this press conference.

At the end, according to the process arrangement, a netizen will be randomly selected to answer the temporary question.

For this problem, the original arrangement was risky, because I didn't know who would be drawn.

It also has the ability to examine Chen Jian's adaptability.

Therefore, everyone has prepared countless answers to questions in advance, and anxiously awaits the last one.

Originally, Su Jin didn't want this arrangement, but Su Nan thought it was very interesting.

It can give netizens a sense of participation.

Finally, to the final stage.

The reporter in front suddenly called to stop during the phone call.

When I saw a number, the tail number was 8888, and it seemed to have a dignified air.

After the phone call, the other party rang a few times, and a low and warm voice came: "Hello?" The host: "Hello sir, you were selected as the lucky audience for this press conference, and only those who participated in the live broadcast can I was selected by the lottery, are you the owner of the Su Group?" The host guides in this way to guide the project and try to avoid some other embarrassing questions.

The other party: "It will be soon."

The host asked excitedly: "So you are very confident in the Su Group's project?" The other party's voice was decisive: "Of course, I have never questioned the existence of this scam. The Su Group is a very good company. Nan is also a very good leader, I admire very much!" For a while, the silent movement on the Internet suddenly became noisy.

"God, I clearly said what was in my heart, but this little brother is too straightforward, right?"

"Hahaha, it feels like a confession!"

"The voice of the little brother is really nice, the voice is controlled. I

'm about to be pregnant!" "This questioner should be very handsome, and his voice is amazing!"

... The

host smiled and asked: "What questions do you want to ask? Our staff will provide answers to your site.

alive, you have nothing to say, you can. "

the other party hesitated for a moment, warm voice spoke up:" Zhu Sunan happy happy every day "!

wow – "

this is the goddess of diehard powder Sunan

Right ?" "Hahaha, I wish Su Nan a happy life? That spokesperson's face became speechless!"

“It really speaks our hearts out, I hope the goddess will always be happy and happy!”

“I wish our goddess more and more Money!”

... The

host was stunned for a moment, and then immediately restored the order of the scene:

“Thank you for this kind future owner, I believe that President Su will definitely hear your blessing.”

after the end.

Su Jin took no immediate stand.

He frowned and asked the host to call over.

“The number I dialed just now, let me take a look?” The host paused and quickly found the number.

Numbers with 8888 digits are rare.

The host thought that Su Jin would have something important to contact.

As a result, Su Jin casually entered the first few numbers in his mobile phone address book.

Finally, a name pops up: Shang Qian.

The first thousand three hundred and nine chapters show no mercy

Chapter 1309

Su Jin looked at the name for a few seconds, and finally sneered, turned off the phone, and turned to leave.

This Shang Qian is really everywhere.

The host didn't understand what happened in the end. What's the use of Su Jin asking for this number?

Su Jin glanced back at the assistant who followed, and ordered,

“Let Chen Jian come over.”

“Yes.”

Chen Jian sent the reporter away, and then went to Su Jin’s office tremblingly.

Su Jin said very straightforwardly:

“Manager Chen, I’m going back in two days, you can go back with me, the project department is still in charge of you for the time being, the projects here are temporarily handed over to others, and the handover procedures will be handled within two days. It’s done.”

Chen Jian paused, his face paled slightly, and what should have come is still here.

His performance today is not really outstanding, it can only be regarded as quite satisfactory and not ashamed.

However, there are many talents in the Su Group, and if you find any young man, his behavior and conversation will be much better than his.

So Su Jin finally expressed his dissatisfaction with him.

“Mr. Su, am I doing something wrong?”

Chen Jian’s voice was weak.

He also knew that there was nothing good about what he had done, and that he had caused so much trouble.

To be honest, if it wasn’t for Su Nan who came first, he might have gone home long ago.

But Su Nan didn’t let him go, indicating that he still had a chance.

Su Jin stared at him for a few seconds, his eyes were dark and cold, and he chuckled lightly:

“Manager Chen, whether you are doing well, you should know in your heart, right?”

Chen Jian’s face turned pale.

“Mr. Su, I...”

Su Jin raised his hand to stop him from continuing to speak, not wanting to listen to him saying something useless and wasting time.

“Manager Chen, in one sentence, by staying here, can you guarantee that there will be no accidents in the follow-up of this project?”

If you can, you will stay.

If you can't, leave.”

Su Jin didn't give him any chance And leeway, almost with a crushing momentum, he made a choice under the circumstances.

The cost of this project has already exceeded the estimated 20%. If it exceeds the cost, it will start to lose money.

A shrewd person like Su Jin would not have smashed such a project into his hands.

Chen Jian has been in the Su Group for so many years, and he is well aware of Su Jin's temper.

Hearing what he said, I knew there was no hope for him.

He sighed.

nodded.

“Okay, Mr. Su, I'll go back.”

Su Jin looked down at his phone indifferently, and said casually:

“There should be major changes in the middle and high-level positions in a few days, and I will let personnel inform you . It's been a long time in the Su Group, but to be honest, the solutions to the things encountered during this period can really be regarded as negative teaching materials in the industry. It is really inappropriate to stay in this position, what do you think? ?”

Chen Jian raised his head suddenly, his face changed slightly.

“Mr. Su... I have really tried my best, considering that I have done my best for the company for so many years—”

Su Jin remained unmoved, his face still indifferent, he reached out and stroked his forehead :

“Don’t worry, I won’t dismiss you. Su Nan wants to keep you in the project department, but I don’t think it’s appropriate.

Manager Chen, there is still a vacancy in the purchasing department. If you want to go, you can take the initiative to report.”

For the sake of this, how could Chen Jian, an old fried dough stick who has been in the workplace for many years, not be able to hear what Su Jin meant?

Chapter 1310 delivered to the door

The precondition that Su Jin , who was delivered to the door in Chapter 1310, would not voluntarily dismiss him, was that he voluntarily applied to the Purchasing Department.

It seems that it has been transferred to a fat poor position, but everyone in the company knows that the purchasing department is equivalent to logistics and has no power.

The atmosphere in the room was silent for a while.

Chen Jian’s face turned from white to red, as if he could not hold back anymore.

Su Jin lowered his eyebrows and took his mobile phone to deal with things, without any emotion, waiting for him to consider on the spot.

It seems that he has already determined that Chen Jian will not refuse this request.

After more than ten seconds, Chen Jian said nervously:

“Okay, I will take the initiative to apply.”

Su Jin responded lightly, rolled his eyelids, and glanced at him.

The next words, with a bit of warning:

“I will tell Su Nan, Manager Chen doesn’t have to tell her actively, Su Nan came here, and her body has not recovered yet, these things don’t need to go through her.”

Chen Jian’s face changed, and he nodded, “Yes.”

This was to tell him not to ask Su Nan for mercy.

cut off his last path.

When Chen Jian left, Su Jin picked up the phone and called Su Nan:

"I have already told Chen Jian to go back and let him go to the purchasing department to stay for the elderly."

Su Nan was still a little shocked, "Chen Jian agreed. ?"

"Well, there is no room for him to object, a project has been tossed to me like this, I didn't ask him to settle the account, it's already very good."

Su Jin's tone was full of alienation and indifference.

Su Nan paused, "Okay, it's fine to go there. The project in City S is temporarily taken over by the vice president of the project department."

"Okay, just do it like this."

After Su Jin finished speaking, he hung up the phone and instructed the company to issue a temporary task notice.

He never worried that Su Nan would object, she was even more eager to do so than him.

Once the press conference is over, it means that things are officially on the right track.

Su Nan can concentrate on dealing with the old fox in Shang Qun.

Fu Group.

Chen Mian looked at Yu Lou appearing in front of him, and was a little bit incredulous.

During the recent period, everyone who is close to Su Nan seems to want to go around Fu Yechuan.

There are still people who took the initiative to send them to the door? Yu Lou smiled politely and reminded carefully:

"What are you still doing? Assistant Chen, help me ask Mr. Fu if he has time to see me?" Ah, but... will Miss Su come?" He asked cautiously and tentatively. If Su Nan came, he wouldn't even ask, just let them in. He is such a dog! Yu Lou: "No, she won't come, so let me come." Chen Mian looked startled: "Then wait a moment, I'll ask." After that, he knocked on the door and went to Fu Yechuan's office. The atmosphere in Fu Yechuan's office was terribly cold, and there were no fish in the fish tank not far away. Wu Tutu, this useless dog, was sent to the Seine River by Fu Yechuan, so that he could enjoy the scenery of the Seine River. Therefore, ordinary people dare not come to his office easily.

“Mr. Fu, Miss Su’s assistant, Yu Lou, came to ask you if you have time, and said it was something important.”

Fu Yechuan pursed his lips, frowned slightly, hesitated for a few seconds, and then said,

“Let him in.”

Surprisingly among.

Chen Mian brought Yu Lou in and left by himself.

Yu Lou stood there and gently placed the document bag in his hand on Fu Yechuan’s desk.

Fu Yechuan looked at the familiar file bag in front of him, his pupils shrank slightly.
