Chapter 1341 They are about to die Such a well-behaved younger brother, in the last period of his life, was extraordinarily rebellious.

Shang Nei probably suddenly understood that his existence was not the imaginary star holding the moon.

His eyes turned red.

“I don’t want your shares, you can go.”

Shang Qian’s voice was cold, and he ordered the expulsion.

The woman was stunned for a moment.

She stood up, “Just take it for Mike, don’t say no.”

That’s all she could do.

Falling into trouble was something she had long wanted to do but never had the chance to do.

After speaking, she snuffed out the cigarette in her hand, turned around and left the office.

Shang Qian looked at the document and was speechless.

The assistant came in, looked at his gloomy face, and sighed:

“It’s been so many years, she must have a purpose in coming here now.” After speaking, she saw the document on his desk.

Slightly stunned.

“This woman has a big move in her hand...”

The sourness of Shang Qian’s nose has not yet completely disappeared.

It seemed calm.

“Well, it’s for Mike. When he becomes an adult, it will be officially transferred to his name.”

Shang Qian closed his eyes and rubbed his eyebrows.

That young man never saw his mother before he died.

But he still thinks that his mother loves him very, very much...

..... The night is coming.

Green Club.

Inside the box, there were sounds of drinking and laughing.

The people inside are all the sons and brothers of the rich second-generation circle, and they have a good relationship with Fu Yechuan.

In the game of Lu Qi’s team, he came early.

Wei Chengyi came in, glanced, and leaned over to Lu Qi’s side:

“Can the old man really come? He hasn’t attended our party for a long time.”

“Don’t worry, he will definitely come this time!”

Lu Qi said firmly.

It was probably because there were rumors about Su Nan and Shang Qian dating in the circle, they looked at Fu Yechuan’s face and didn’t dare to say anything more.

The cautious look made Fu Yechuan inexplicably angry.

So he simply cut down on the number of parties he attended.

Originally, many people were looking forward to getting closer to Fu Yechuan through gatherings, but as a result, Fu Yechuan didn’t show up, and they couldn’t find a chance to get close to him.

Ten minutes passed.

The box door was pushed open again.

Fu Yechuan's tall and upright figure appeared at the door. Lu Qi hurried up to meet him, "You're late, I will punish myself with three cups

!" Everyone looked at it and let go. Everyone re-entered into drinking and singing. Lu Qi was fiddling with his mobile phone. Fu Yechuan was a little impatient, "What are you trying to say?" Lu Qi smiled mysteriously: "I tell you, old man, Su Nan has shifted his target!"

As soon as he heard Su Nan's name, the impatience on Fu Yechuan's face disappeared instantly.

His eyes darkened: "What?"

Lu Qi showed him the video he had saved in advance.

Fu Yechuan watched this video with deep eyes. In just a few dozen seconds, he watched it over and over several times.

Lu Qi couldn't help but bring it over:

"Look, the violin player looks so attractive to women, I've inquired about it, it's a newly signed artist from Huaying Entertainment, named Mu Yi, who hasn't debuted yet... .."

Fu Yechuan's face was slightly gloomy, and he suddenly understood something.

Lu Qi: "Yu Fei at the time, and Mu Yi now, are completely based on women's preferences."

"So, what do you want to say?"

"Old Master, what does this mean? It explains Su Nan. The relationship with Shang Qian is about to end!"

Lu Qi couldn't help but feel excited.

Chapter 1342 Without the supporters

, Shang Qian and Su Nan, the two of them broke up, and the people around Fu Yechuan would be much better off.

I originally thought that Su Nan and Shang Qian were serious, but after seeing this video, I thought it was nothing more than that.

It is mainly a woman with a status like Su Nan, who has too many choices.

How can you be hanged on a rope?

Fu Yechuan's expression was complicated and his face was tense.

"Su Nan is just playing with them, as long as she and Shang Qian are separated, your chance will come!"

Lu Qi continued to analyze his bright road to him.

But Fu Yechuan's face remained calm, and he couldn't tell whether he was happy or unhappy at all.

in the dark.

His eyebrows were sharp and his voice was cold:

"Is it Shang Qian's hand when something happened to the Shang Group?"

Lu Qi was taken aback.

"Can't you? No matter how tense the relationship between him and the businessman is, he won't put his family in a dead end, right?"

After all, the businessman is his backer. If he doesn't have the businessman, what background would he have? It's impossible."

Lu Qi had heard something about foreign affairs.

Although with the mentality of watching a good show, but such a big company encounters such a sensational trouble, the way to deal with it has become a negative teaching material and a joke in the entire shopping mall.

Fu Yechuan took a light sip of wine, his throat moved slightly, but he didn't say anything.

As far as he knows, the person who is really manipulating the stock market behind the scenes is Shang Qian.

He actually tried to bring down the Shang Group for Su Nan's sake?

I have to say that this Shang Qian is much more ruthless than he imagined.

The Shang Group's coping plan is full of jokes.

The business group is helpless in the face of difficulties.

In order to decentralize, all the powers were given to Shang Yi.

However, I didn't expect Shang Yi to sit firmly on the surface, but in fact his power has long been overridden by the people around him.

He stayed in the Shang Group for a few days, and his hair turned white.

All the methods were rejected by the board of directors one by one. Even if the order was given, no one actually implemented it?

There are more and more demonstrators besieged at the entrance of the building. At first, they may be stockholders who were cut off with leeks, and later they are groups with purpose and gangs.

The company had to let employees work from home, and meetings could only be held by video conference.

Shang Qun finally felt helpless sadness.

But looking at the company's decline day by day and not under their own control, those high-level executives still go their own way and can't see any sense of crisis.

Those in the political circles also began to realize the crisis and began to shy away from the Shang Group.

He finally began to contact those shareholders privately in an attempt to regain power back into his own hands.

But every time I contacted those shareholders, either there was something to shirk, or I avoided talking about the purchase of shares.

His heart began to hang.

Suddenly I remembered that my wife, who was not divorced, still had 20% of the shares.

He called right away.

But the other party didn't answer.

Hit it again, it's turned off.

All business of Shang's enterprise has almost stopped, and consumers' boycott of Shang's has reached the point of madness.

The billions of dollars they cut leaks also disappeared inexplicably from their accounts.

The lack of funds, internal rot, and the strength of those demonstrators forced the Shang family to come out and admit their mistakes.

Shang Qun stood up at an age, stood in front of the media, and admitted his mistake.

This is the only way.

He begged the demonstrators to let them go.

The attitude is very sincere.

But the protesters didn't buy it...

environment has become turbulent to a certain extent, and even the political circles have begun to warn that Shang's enterprises must solve this matter quickly in order to avoid social unrest.

In the face of countless long guns and short guns, the business group can only choose to delist.

But the delisting at this juncture has already missed the best time.

The funding vacancy within them is simply too large to be filled.

Someone on the board offered to be acquired.

The angry business group entered the hospital at once.

He never dreamed that the Shang Group would have this day.

It can be seen how bad the business has managed the entire company!

Once this solution was proposed, there was hope.

It is impossible to make a comeback, and we can only count on being acquired to temporarily alleviate the current shortage of funds.

then.

Regardless of the objections of the business group, the board of directors is scheduled to start discussing the acquisition the day after tomorrow.

As soon as the news was released, it immediately caused a huge sensation.

The once glorious Shang Group has become so lonely?

Countless peers are sighing and eager to participate in this acquisition.

But the prices are not very high.

They are also watching how things unfold.

...

Su Nan took a deep breath when he landed in Country M.

No one knew that she had arrived in the M country, not even Shang Qian, she did not reveal the wind.

Yu Lou and Chang Li followed behind, making Su Nan's temperament outstanding, cold and noble.

Many people watched them, but Su Nan didn't stop there and got into the car.

to the hotel.

Su Nan reconfirmed the plan with Su Jin in the video.

The two hit it off.

the next day.

The business group's meeting was scheduled in the conference center of another hotel, and they took great pains to hide it from being discovered by protesters and reporters.

Su Nan had been waiting for this day for a long time. Early in the morning, he left the hotel and got into the car.

Chang Li still came over to report calmly:

"Last night, three people with good skills came up. They put medicine in the red wine you ordered. The red wine has been cleaned up, and the three people have also been dismissed."

Su Nan hummed indifferently . .

It has to be said that the power of the business group is still there. Since she landed, there has been constant contact and trouble secretly coming to her door.

But they only saw Chang Li and didn't notice that Su Nan was secretly asking others to protect him.

How could she come unprepared?

The businessman secretly took action, and he must have known that Su Nan came over at this juncture, which was related to the future of the Shang Group.

Shang Qun refused to let Su Nan pick up a bargain and go back.

So, let's just calculate Shang Yi's account together.

Yu Lou handed over the document:

"I have already agreed with the vice president who is now the acting president, and he will fully support us at the meeting, but Mr. Su, the Shang Group still needs 20% of the shares to be owned by Mrs. Shang. This is always a hidden danger.

If Mrs. Shang expresses her position to support the business group, even if our shares are dominant, I am afraid that we will not be able to win the whole situation smoothly. "

Su Nan glanced at the s of the document lightly, then closed it gently and rubbed her eyes.

"It's okay, we can't contact Mrs. Shang, and the business group may not be able to."

Yu Lou nodded and handed over the prepared breakfast.

to the conference center.

The meeting had already started, but Su Nan didn't care that he was late.

Yu Lou showed the certificate, and the person at the door immediately let go.

Push the door in.

There are already many people in the huge conference center.

The future of the Shang Group lies in the hands of these people.

As soon as he entered, Su Nan immediately attracted the attention of those present...

Chapter 1344

Su Nan glanced at him, and the person who sat on it and presided over the meeting was the vice president of the Shang Group.

There were many other group executives who were invited to the meeting, and they were all interested in the Shang Group.

After all, being able to swallow such a large group in one bite is enough to cause a sensation in the world.

The rest are the shareholders and directors of the Shang Group.

On the side seat was Shang Qun. He was in a wheelchair and looked at Su Nan who came in with a gloomy expression.

As soon as Su Nan arrived in country M, he received the news.

But the people who sent it all failed miserably, and even received news from the underworld, telling him not to draw Su Nan's attention.

Because Su Nan has reached a protection agreement with Black and White, as long as she is safe and sound within the scope of Country M, she will pay a very objective remuneration after she leaves Country M.

The power of the Shang family is no longer enough to be feared. Of course, there is money to be made in the black and white, so the action of the business group has not succeeded at all.

Shang Qun snorted coldly, his voice cold and cruel:

"You are not welcome here, the Su Group is not on our invitation list."

Su Nan stood directly below, slightly raised his head and looked at Shang Qun on the stage, with beautiful facial features, bright and beautiful, the lower body is a fishtail skirt, and the upper body is the latest white shirt.

Although it is a formal dress for formal occasions, it is not difficult to see that the countless details on her clothes are completely different from ordinary textures.

She stood there with an indifferent sense of alienation.

Let people only dare to see, not to think.

at that time.

She hooked her lips, and her voice was clear and cold:

“It’s almost been acquired, and now who is buying it? Mayor Shang really wants to suffer!”

Su Nan spoke without restraint, piercing the illusion that he was still trying to maintain his high status.

Shang Qun’s face blushed in an instant, and stared at her with an ugly look:

“Su Nan, don’t go too far, don’t think I really can’t do anything about you, the Shang family will never be bought by you!”

Su Nan smiled Laughing, sitting in the empty seat beside him did not speak.

A man from M country raised his hand, “Director, I agree with your opinion. The relationship between the two of us has always been good. Now the business is in trouble. I am willing to buy your company and will definitely give you the best treatment.

” The vice president smiled and let them be quiet first.

“Wait a minute—” A voice suddenly came from the door.

The door was opened again.

Everyone look back.

“Shang Qian? Does Shang Qian even want to participate?”

“Isn’t he the boss of operating capital? Interested in the Shang Group?”

“He has always been the illegitimate son of Shang Qun, but now he has not deliberately concealed his identity. “

So, has Shang Qian been decided in today’s meeting? Mayor Shang wants Shang Qian to take over the Shang Group?”

“I can’t guarantee that’s not the case.”

"I heard that Shang Yi and Shang Qian were at odds, so Shang Qian left ." The businessman, Shang also had an accident, and Shang Qian came back naturally."

... There was a lot of rustling in the venue.

Especially when Shang Qian appeared, everyone's reaction was even more mixed.

After all, the existence of Shang Qian may affect their acquisition. If Shang Qian's strength really wants to take over the Shang Group, it may not be impossible.

Su Nan narrowed his eyes and watched Shang Qian approach from the door.

With a casual smile, his whole person has an uninhibited taste, but the gentleness and modesty between his eyebrows and eyes disappears...

...

Chapter 1345 let me in

Shang Qian and walked to the front, my eyes flashed and I saw Su Nan.

He raised an eyebrow.

Su Nan turned his head away as if nothing had happened, this kind of situation is still not suitable for reminiscing.

She came to M country without contacting him. She originally planned to contact him after this matter was dealt with.

After all, it was his biological father, and it was too cruel for him to let him watch him do this with his own eyes.

But I didn't expect to meet here.

But yes, how could he not show up?

Not really out of the way.

To pretend not to know.

But Shang Qian had already walked to her side.

His voice was low and smooth, with a familiar feeling that he hadn't seen in a long time:

"Please let me sit in?"

Su Nan froze.

She pursed her lips, only to realize that the seat next to her was empty.

His face became hot for a moment.

But the first few rows seem to be the only two empty seats. It seems inappropriate for him to sit in the back.

Su Nan immediately stood up to give him a place to enter.

But before she could stand up, his hands supported her shoulders, and he put his hands on her shoulders.

With a low voice and a smile:

"There is enough space, I can get in."

The seating arrangement in the conference center is not compact, and there is enough space in the back for a fat man to pass by.

Only then did Su Nan react, and glared at him speechlessly.

When she was angry, Shang Qian was very happy, and the corners of her eyes were a bit warm, a bit familiar to her.

It is much more pleasing to the eye than pretending not to know him.

However, the others only focused on talking about the purpose of Shang Qian's coming here, and did not notice the interaction between Shang Qian and Su Nan.

Only Chang Li and Yu Lou on the side watched secretly, but did not dare to speak.

As soon as Shang Qian sat down, the expressions of Shang Qun on the stage were obviously much better.

You say you don't care, but can you really care?

A dead skinny camel is bigger than a horse. Who wouldn't want to take a bite of this fatty meat?

The vice president on the stage indeed glanced meaningfully at Shang Qian, then glanced at Su Nan, and finally withdrew his gaze.

“Since everyone is here, let’s start today’s meeting.

First of all, in view of the current situation of the Shang Group, the board of directors of the Shang Group unanimously decided to hold today’s meeting to discuss the future of the Shang Group.

During the three Two-thirds of the shareholders proposed to be acquired, suspending the current situation, shareholders, is there any objection to this resolution?”

Most of the people agreed, otherwise they would not have reached this stage.

But Shang Qun still insisted on his objection:

“As long as someone takes over, the troubles of the Shang Group can be solved in time, so what is the acquisition? A big group is not afraid of being laughed at? The Shang Group can still have a foothold in the M country Land?”

The people below responded with a smile:

“Director Shang, that’s better than the Shang Group’s announcement of bankruptcy. Once it goes bankrupt, people will laugh at it...”

“Yes, Director of Commerce, now the world This is the trend of the world, no group can stand still, it is still necessary to follow the trend and follow the trend!”

“That’s right, now the only way out for the Shang Group is to be acquired to survive. Otherwise, how to solve so many debts?”

“Let’s be acquired, our company’s conditions are very generous, business director. Think about it...”

...

The following people persuaded Shang Qun to change their minds with the mood of watching a good show.

Seeing this, the vice president above coughed:

“Well, all shareholders raise their hands to vote, and those who agree to be acquired raise their hands!”

Chapter 1346

The faces of him and his stepmother's son, Shang Qun, were a bit ugly.

In terms of the number of shareholders, he is not dominant here.

I have been running around in the past few days, not knowing how much money I spent, and only recovered some minority shareholders' shares.

The other major shareholders remained unmoved and did not seem to ask for a price at all.

The business group knows that things are not so simple.

Shareholders below raised their hands.

The atmosphere in the field became warm for a while.

It seems that he has already met the end of his own division of the Shang clan.

What a joy!

Shang Qun stared at Shang Qian darkly, he came, but did not do anything?

What is he going to do?

Finally, seeing that the vice president is about to make a final decision.

Shang Qun finally couldn't help it, looked at Shang Qian, and said:

"Wait a minute, everyone, everyone should know that I have a son, and he is..."

Before saying Shang Qian's name, Shang Qian's face suddenly cold.

He was reluctant to announce the fact that he was an illegitimate child on this occasion.

This business group, for its own selfish interests, is as annoying as ever.

But it happened that the vice president interrupted:

“Director businessman, what’s the use of talking about this now? Don’t you think there are not enough scandals in the business?”

He sat on it, and his voice clearly passed through the microphone to everyone ear.

The venue fell silent for a moment.

Shang Qun looked at the vice president beside him with an ugly expression.

The vice president sighed earnestly:

“I don’t think I can hide it now. Over the years, you have worked so hard to support the businessman Yishang to reach this position, giving him rights and money, and let him experience.

But he once Is it really right?

Since he took over the Shang Group, his talents have been boasted, in fact, since he took over, the company’s profits have always been negative growth, don’t you think you can’t see it?”

The people below sighed. .

If Shang Qian can stand up, the Shang Group will still be saved.

But Shang Qun seemed to realize that what the vice president said next was definitely not to introduce Shang Qian.

“Because of what, you know in your heart, isn’t it because Shang Yi is your own son?”

In one sentence, it was like throwing a boulder on the calm water.

Ripples appeared.

The scene was instantly embarrassing.

“What? Shang Yi is Director Shang’s son? Isn’t he his younger brother?”

“What is his relationship with the last Mrs. Shang?”

“The last Mrs. Shang was Director Shang’s stepmother. I heard that she died at a young age. ...”

“Oh my God, there is such a scandal that a businessman has such a disregard for ethics!”

“It’s no wonder that when the business director’s own son died, he didn’t look sad at the funeral.

At that time, I thought it was the illegitimate son of the businessman. It seems that it is the son of Shang Yi who is really favored!”

“How can such a family teach a good heir, the Shang Group has been in the hands of Shang Yi, and it has long been favored. It’s a waste of money...”

“In this way, isn’t bankruptcy a matter of time? I think our purchase price should be reduced by 10%...”

...

Shang Qun’s breathing became rapid, his chest heaving violently.

He never dreamed that a secret that had been hidden for many years would be revealed in this way.

Although there is no media, the people present are all elites in the business world, and their words can set off a huge wave in the shopping mall.

In this way, the business has really become a joke!

He widened his eyes and looked in Shang Qian’s direction.

Only he...and Su Nan by his side knew who was present!

...

Chapter 1347 Who has the final say

Chapter 1347 Who has the final say on this matter, and who said it out?

Shang Qian sat there calmly, unaffected at all, completely keeping himself out of the way.

However, Su Nan did not hide her feelings of watching a good show, her brows were pretty and happy, with a hint of sarcasm.

Shang Qun felt that the blood flowed backwards all over his body, and even his breathing began to struggle.

But he stared at Shang Qian, hated or disgusted, but why didn’t he stand up?

The vice president saw that it was almost time, and picked up the microphone:

“This matter has passed, and Shang Yi has obtained his own results. We should not worry about it.

Ladies and gentlemen, the acquisition problem of the Shang Group will continue.”

“Bang——”

Shang Qun threw the microphone on the stage with a livid face.

Make a loud noise.

Everyone looked in shock.

“I don’t agree. I firmly disagree with the acquisition. As the company’s major shareholder, I have the right to veto. Don’t even think about it!”

Shang Qun couldn’t wait for Shang Qian to stand up, but he couldn’t help himself.

This vice-president clearly didn’t agree with him. If he kept talking, he was afraid that the businessman would be exposed.

Everyone looked at the business group with complicated eyes.

Indeed, as long as he holds the shares in his hand tightly, and he disagrees, this acquisition will not be able to continue.

The atmosphere at the venue was stagnant for a while.

Shang Qun stared at Shang Qian, his face ashen, his eyes gloomy.

In the next second, someone in the venue said something:

“Whether your company is a big shareholder or not, who has the final say?”

Shang Qun paused for a moment, frowning.

He has already estimated the distribution of shares hundreds of times in his heart, although there are a few major shareholders who have a lot of shares in their hands, which together have an advantage over him.

But they couldn’t easily unite together, and they couldn’t push out one person to unite people’s hearts.

Otherwise, in the previous period of civil unrest, someone would have stood up and seized power.

Since there is no, it means that they have no leader.

“Since it is about the future of the company, of course, the shareholders should have the final say. The person with the most shareholders has the right to decide the future of the company!”

Shang Qun was satisfied, and if he singled out one of them, he would not There may be more of him.

The vice president gave him a meaningful look, then lowered his head silently.

There was a moment of silence in the venue.

Suddenly, a clear and lingering female voice said, “I also agree with Mayor Shang. Of course, the amount of shareholding determines the amount of power.”

It was Su Nan who spoke.

Although Shang Qian was sitting next to her, it was impossible for her to change the ultimate purpose of her visit.

As long as Shang Qun still has the backhand strength, then she cannot be completely safe whether she is at home or abroad.

Shang Qun frowned and looked at Su Nan, his eyes gloomy and gloomy.

“Su Nan, I have nothing to do with you here, nor do I have anything to do with you. Next is the shareholders’ meeting within our Shang Group.

Next, please leave this venue for those who don’t matter!”

Shang Qun didn’t want to see these beatings . The person with the idea of the company.

Those who are trying to acquire are really reluctant to turn around and leave like this.

Su Nan smiled and looked calm, but there was a faint chill between his brows and eyes.

“Director Shang, since it’s a general meeting of shareholders, I have to be present.”

Shang Qun's face changed instantly, and his voice was cloudy and solemn: "What did you say

? What does the general meeting of shareholders have to do with you?"

A not-so-good idea had already surfaced.

...

The first thousand three hundred and forty-eight chapters

The one thousand three hundred and forty-eight chapters who backtracked suddenly, Shang Qun was sitting in a wheelchair and became irritable.

Su Nan raised his eyebrows, looked at Yu Lou behind him, and nodded slightly.

Yu Lou walked to the computer with a notarized share transfer contract and projected it on the big screen in front of him.

"Everyone, please give a warm welcome below, the largest shareholders of the Shang Group, Su Nan, Miss Su!"

Yu Lou's voice fell, and he took the lead in applauding.

All of a sudden, everyone has not yet reacted, this news is too shocking.

It was clearly written that Su Nan already held the shares of the Shang Group, accounting for 54%, and became the largest shareholder of the Shang Group.

The crowd was in an uproar.

Others have different expressions.

Shang Qun's eyes widened in shock, as if he couldn't believe it, but he had to believe it.

In other words, other major shareholders have already sold all their shares to Su Nan.

He didn't even know the wind at all!

They are equivalent to betraying him and betraying the Shang Group.

Salary from the bottom of the pot is really high!

The hope in his eyes shattered a little.

until there was no hope.

The look on his face was ashen.

Out of curiosity and shock to Su Nan, applause broke out one after another in the venue, which lasted for a long time...

The business group turned around and looked at the vice president of the host.

He had a smile on his face, as if he had expected today.

Those major shareholders may have already reached an agreement with Su Nan in private, and he was completely kept in the dark.

The vice president looked at his cold eyes, pursed his lips, and looked away.

It doesn't take much for anything.

Even when Shang Qun was in office, the Shang Group had not been defeated, and their shares were not worth as much as Su Nankai!

The highest bidder gets it!

What's more, Su Nan not only offered the price, but also offered exceptionally favorable conditions.

None of them are fools.

Of course, where do you go where you make money?

The only remaining shares in his hand, apart from the 6% of the shares he recently received, plus the 39% of his and Shang Yi, if they fight hard, Su Nan will not be able to take away the Shang family. Group's.

But...

his hands clenched the armrests of the wheelchair instantly.

Of his thirty-nine percent of the shares, twenty percent of them...

Before his thoughts were clear, Su Nan had already stood up with a smile.

That smile, in the eyes of Shang Qun, was showing off and sarcasm.

Her voice was soft, clear and firm:

“Since I have become the largest shareholder of the Shang Group, then I will have the final say. If you are interested, you don’t have to leave. You will find out sooner or later.”

She doesn’t care . Will anyone see it.

Anyway, it wasn’t her who was embarrassed.

The vice president nodded in agreement:

“If you have no opinion, the meeting will proceed as normal. Next, please Miss Su...”

” Wait—”

Shang Qun on the side looked ashen, but he was not reconciled. Gritting his teeth, he forced himself to calm down.

“According to the company’s regulations, even the largest shareholder is not necessarily qualified to control the Shang Group.

The Shang Group clearly has regulations, and the talents of the business have the final decision-making power. Let’s not say how she came to Su Nan’s shares. , even if she holds the most shares, she can’t show off her power in the Shang Group!”

The people below suddenly sighed:

“That’s not what Director Shang said just now...”

“That’s right, Chairman Shang is making a fuss. How about playing? It’s really useless when you’re too old!”

“You’re old, you can’t accept defeat!”

“Win or lose has been decided, and Chairman Shang is struggling to the death, but it’s really disgraceful.”

“Who said it wasn’t?”

..

...

Chapter 1349 betrayed him

The first thousand three hundred and forty-nine chapters betrayed that the people below him had great opinions on the behavior of the business group.

Although this benefit does not fall on his head, he cannot see such dishonest behavior.

Just like a rascal.

Shang Qun's face was ashen, blue and red alternated, and the expression on his face was simply wonderful.

Su Nan smiled:

"With the group like this, how can you still have the right to make decisions?"

I believe that if Chairman Shang continues to remain on the board of directors, the entire group will probably go bankrupt!"

"Su Nan, don't be too much. Proud!" Shang Qun said viciously.

Su Nan glanced at him calmly and snorted softly.

When it is hostile in the market, it is not sympathetic.

There is no distinction between elders and juniors, seniors and juniors.

When competing, they are just opponents.

So what Su Nan said was not polite.

"Otherwise? Handing the group into the hands of a renegade person like you, it's no wonder that the Shang family will be defeated."

Shang Qun looked ugly, stared at her fiercely, and wanted to peel her off!

"Shang Qian—"

Shang Qun shouted, pointing at the man next to Su Nan:

"Are you really indifferent? Are you indifferent even when this woman wants to kill the Shang Group?"

He didn't wait for Shang Qian Answering, he suddenly stood up and pointed at Su Nan, his voice was hoarse, but it resounded throughout the venue.

"Su Nan, you deliberately seduce Shang Qian to let him cooperate with you, just to take away the Shang Group?"

Shang Qian, have you ever thought that after this woman has used you, will she continue to be with you?

There are countless suitors behind her, and her family background is much stronger than yours. You have even betrayed the only business group that can support you. What will she think of you in the future? ” For a moment.

There was silence in the venue. Those who could understand, but couldn't quite understand, all stared blankly at Shang Qun's gaffe.

It seemed that there was a more powerful secret.

Su Nan raised his eyelids expressionlessly, The smile on her face disappeared long ago, and there was a slight chill between her brows and eyes.

She was restraining something.

But she was still cold and cold, and there was no turbulence.

On the side of Shang Qian, he was light on the surface, but on the back of his hand. His blue veins bulged because he was clenched . He turned his eyes to the side and looked at Su Nan, his whole body tense. It was as if he was falling down.

This question

should not be answered by him.

He never told her that he What role does he play in this business battle.

Shang Qun's words have been said clearly enough.

But she... but she is indifferent.

He never thought of making her grateful, but this should not be the reaction Or , how much of Shang Qun's words are true?

He sacrificed everything just to fulfill her, what if she doesn't want him anymore? I never thought about this problem, but the panic of this problem swept through. Suddenly, he lowered

his eyes, concealing the uncontrollable panic, fear, and nervousness in his eyes.

He smiled in his heart.

He even has today?

Just as his heart continued to fall, as if there was no hope in sight, the abyss was calling...

suddenly.

The person beside him suddenly stood up.

She looked directly at the business group in front of her, neither humble nor arrogant, full of momentum.

“Chairman Shang doesn’t need to be in a hurry to sow discord. Your methods are too inferior!

I originally planned to announce things after the completion of the matter. It seems that I have to say it ahead of time today.”

Everyone looked at her.

Su Nan looked at Yu Lou and nodded.

Yu Lou pursed his lips, took out another document from his bag in silence, and showed it to everyone on the big screen...

Chapter 1350 She is generous

Chapter 1350 The generous

Shang Qian raised her eyes, saw the above, and was shocked.

Eyelashes trembled heavily.

“My God, what is the origin of this Miss Su? All the shares that she took so much effort to acquire were actually transferred to Shang Qian’s name?”

“Yeah, isn’t Shang Qian also a businessman? Why did it go back to the original point?”

“Shang Qian is an illegitimate child, so it’s hard to guarantee that he didn’t join forces with Miss Su to seize power!”

“But the Shang Group is already an empty shell, and it’s no good to ask for it...”

” But Miss Su is so generous!”

“What? What a confusing operation!”

...

Shang Qian looked at Su Nan in shock, stood up suddenly, his face tense.

“Su Nan...”

His heart skipped a beat, feeling that the falling stone in his heart suddenly fell to the ground, but there was an unreal feeling.

It was as if someone had hammered his chest.

After the pain, is the ultimate tenderness.

His voice was dry, “When did you...”

Su Nan’s soft and slender hand took his hand and smiled brightly.

“It’s been prepared for a long time, but I’m just afraid that you won’t agree, so I plan to kill it first and then play it.”

Shang Qun was almost shocked and didn’t say a word for a long time.

He couldn’t believe that Su Nan just transferred his shares to Shang Qian?

How can there be such a person?

Su Nan sensed his nervousness and touched his face:

“It should be yours in the first place. Don’t shy away because of your identity. You have nothing to hide from others. In my eyes, you are the cleanest person in the entire business!”

Unconsciously, his eyes seemed to have some famous.

He reached out and embraced her in his arms, tightly, wanting to rub her into his body.

It's good that his efforts have been rewarded.

He didn't lose.

Yu Lou couldn't bear to interrupt their intimacy, but on this occasion, every second counts.

Otherwise, the old man got excited and came up with a better way to suppress it?

He simply picked up the microphone:

"Everyone sees, our Miss Su is purely to help the Shang Group to tide over the difficulties. In the future, the Shang Group will still be surnamed Shang, so at this juncture, please take care of all shareholders. Consider, we are about to re-elect the board!"

This is their ultimate goal.

She wants to drive Shang Qun out of the board of directors and put Shang Qian in.

Shang Qun's complexion was ashen and full of anger.

His voice was hoarse:

"Wait, I still have 40% of the shares in my hand..."

Shang Qian released the man in his arms just in time.

He stood up straight and looked at Shang Qun.

"No, you don't have forty percent."

He finally spoke.

After coming to the venue, he has been watching.

Now finally speaking.

Shang Qian looked at Shang Qun with sharp eyebrows:

"The 20% of the shares you hold on your behalf belongs to Mrs. Shang. Now, Mrs. Shang has given it to me."

In a word, even Su Nan was surprised.

That Mrs. Shang who sees the dragon without seeing the end?

The shares are actually in his hands?

Shang Qian really did a big thing quietly.

Shang Qun's face instantly turned pale.

"What did you say?"

The corners of his eyes began to twitch, and he was shaking with anger.

"How could that slut give it to you?"

Shang Qian's face was cold:

"It was given to Shang Qi, but if it was not available, I took it for Mike. So, business director, the shares in your hands are far from enough. Criteria for getting into the board."
