The body of Shang Qun who can act in his eyes trembled.

He really felt that he was getting old, and the people and things in the group seemed to have nothing to do with him.

The killer weapons he took out one by one couldn't change the situation at all.

The overall situation has been decided, he lost!

Shang Qun gasped violently, and fell on the stage in the next second.

Photographed by someone with a heart.

posted online.

Some people say that this fall is the collapse of a business empire.

That's right.

Shang Qun was sent to the hospital, and Shang Qian's people watched.

Inside the venue, continue.

Of course, the new board of directors is based on the list that Su Nan has prepared for a long time.

The vice president is still the vice president, but before Su Nan's share transfer agreement takes effect, Su Nan temporarily serves as the president of the Shang Group.

There is no objection to this proposal.

Things finally settled down.

Once the new appointment was announced, it caused a huge discussion in the market.

However, it was also announced that the Shang Group would suspend the rectification, and the rectification period was not clearly stipulated.

The Shang Group is on the cusp of the storm, and it takes a period of precipitation to calm everyone's anger.

without hesitation.

Su Nan went directly to the headquarters of the Shang Group.

Those shareholders knew that Shang Qun had stepped down, and they all danced with joy to celebrate the collapse of the Shang Group.

Gradually, the demonstrators at the gate also left.

Su Nan went directly to the president's office.

The lighting and architecture here should be the best in the entire building.

How can the second generation ancestor, who Shang Yi enjoys so well, make do with it?

Shang Qian followed, staring at Su Nan's back, as if he couldn't see enough.

Yu Lou silently noticed Shang Qian's gaze.

He felt that if his eyes could make a play, Shang Qian would definitely be the best actor!

The vice president happily followed behind Su Nan and introduced:

"Miss Su, this is the president's office. If you don't like it, you can tear it down and redesign it..."

Su Nan smiled, with a cold temperament. Also expensive.

The vice president didn't take this little girl to heart.

However, the information he had inquired from country Z, coupled with the contact, Su Nan's methods and attitude, there were few opponents in the market.

"No, it's pretty good here."

"Shang Yi said he was the president, but he actually didn't come to work for a few days. He usually goes to the clubhouse, bar and club during his working hours, doing things for fun, so this office has been idle for a long time... .." The vice president chuckled lightly, disdainfully.

"If he doesn't show up, how do you sign those important documents?"

Su Nan was puzzled.

The vice president smiled, "Anyone can sign for him, and he will recognize it, because he doesn't understand it at all."

After speaking, he looked at Shang Qian behind her:

"Actually, at the beginning, The person most favored by the board of directors is the young master Shang Qian, he is the person who really understands business, but unfortunately..."

He smiled, "Chairman Shang... Oh, the business group is determined to go his own way and feels that no matter what. Shang Yi is so crazy, most of the business of the Shang Group will not go bankrupt, but I didn't expect it to come!

For more than ten years, the people within the group have been disorganized, and the most incompetent and useless people are, but no one dares to change, as long as Shang Yi says a word, a chef can be placed in the position of chief financial officer, do you believe it? "

Su Nan twitched the corners of his mouth.

Wow.

Sure enough, the decline of this group had already been foreshadowed.

It really deserved it.

Shang Qian stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, his angular face and peach blossom eyes were clear and cold.

His words to the vice president He didn't catch a cold, just smiled lightly.

These absurd things abound, and he already knew it.

Who made Shang Yi the favorite son of Shang Qun?

but these things that should have been in his heart, after today, the moment standing here, suddenly dissipated.

Like a cloud of smoke.

He had no family, but Su Nan became his family.

very nice.

Su Nan stood there, admiring the precious paintings on the wall.

There are several pairs, all genuine from auctions. She turned her head, looked at the vice president and smiled:

“Please send me all the middle and high-level employees, their family background and personal information, you are right, I will review it again.”

Nod immediately.

“Okay, no problem, I’ll ask the secretary to bring it here.”

Shang Qian turned back with a smile:

“Vice President, my dad is still a shareholder, and he hasn’t completely divorced himself, so aren’t you afraid that he will turn his head and deal with you?” The vice president was stunned For a moment.

He took a deep look at Shang Qian, who was more than 20 years older than Shang Qian, and he had a deep understanding of how he behaved.

“Shang Qian, why do you only become the vice president when you know that I have come to this day?”

Shang Qian looked directly at him.

The two looked at each other as if they saw each other.

Vice President: “If the group is good, I will have more interests. I am not a charge person, but someone has to lead us to charge forward.”

If not, then everyone will sit together and wait to die, or he will change.

In any case, the most important thing is to be competitive.

He is not foolish at all.

Will Shang Qun turn around and deal with him?

Will not.

It wasn't him who sold the business group, it was Shang Yi's stupidity, and it was the countless shareholders who were dissatisfied with the company behind them.

Even if Shang Qun hated, they would only hate Su Nan and Shang Qian.

Others, I'm afraid they won't be ranked!

Shang Qian raised his eyebrows, indicating that he understood.

The vice president is indeed a smart man.

Su Nan smiled, "Vice President, let's have dinner together for a while?" The Vice President looked at Shang Qian and smiled, "No, you can eat, I won't bother, if you still need help here, feel free to come to me. "

Su Nan didn't ask for it, and nodded.

Such a vice president has the most sense of proportion. He will not talk to you about human feelings. He will only look at interests.

Su Nan has brought him more benefits, so he is giving up now.

As soon as they left, Su Nan and Shang Qian, Yu Lou and Chang Li were left in the office.

Su Nan finally relaxed and seriously admired the artwork on the wall.

She smiled:

"It's really good, when I leave, pack these and take them away!"

Yu Lou responded behind him: "Okay!"

But the next second, a cold body wrapped around her from behind. He hugged her, his chin rested on her shoulders, his hands were wrapped around her slender waist, and he was ambiguous and intimate.

He had long wanted to do it.

Su Nan froze slightly.

Behind him, Yu Lou coughed and walked out.

He looked at Chang Li standing in the corner, staring intently at the two people who were hugging and making out, and suddenly wanted to pull him along.

But Chang Li didn't want to leave like this.

How could he let Su Nan take half a step away from his eyeliner?

That's so unprofessional!

Yu Lou tried his best, but Chang Li didn't move.

Helpless, he had to go out by himself.

Sorry, Mr. Su, he tried his best!

Su Nan didn't move, the warm and cold fragrance on his body was light and fragrant, it smelled very good, and there was an inexplicable peace of mind.

But he didn't just hug, his lips fell on the back of her neck a little bit. Originally it was just a shallow taste, but gradually, his hands were not honest.

Su Nan knew that Chang Li was still there and did not want to be visited.

She immediately blocked his hand and lowered her voice:

"Don't move around, be careful that Chang Li will come up to bite you!"

...

Chapter 1353 You are so enthusiastic

Shang Qian was stunned, he didn't know Chang Li was still there, he thought Chang Li followed Yu Lou.

Looking back, sure enough, Chang Li was watching them intently.

Suddenly, Shang Qian felt that he could be choked to death by his eyes!

He silently released his hand.

"Uncle Su asked him to come with you?"

Su Nan responded.

after awhile.

Seemingly understatement, he said again:

“Then he will tell Uncle Su no matter what?”

Su Nan glanced at him, a little strange:

“Of course, he is in our house and only listens to my father.

” The meaning is that even her words, Chang Li can refuse.

Shang Qian’s face was even more ugly.

Done.

If Chang Li went back and described what he did to Su Nan to Su Yifeng, would he have been blacklisted by the Su family?

It’s all my fault for my rude hands!

After Su Nan finished speaking, he realized what he was worried about.

smiled.

She glanced at Chang Li and waved her hand.

Chang Li nodded, turned and left.

Shang Qian was stunned: “...”

Su Nan smiled: “Now he is outside, he only listens to what I say.”

Shang Qian choked, stretched out his long arms, and took her into his arms again.

“You didn’t tell me sooner, you little bastard!”

He looked down at her raised smile, those bright lips, unable to help, slowly fell.

At first it was a kiss with the wind and drizzle, and gradually, his kiss began to become uncontrollable and strong.

Su Nan was very cooperative at first, but later felt out of breath.

She nudged his shoulder, but didn’t.

Later, when his lips went deeper, she bit on it...

Shang Qian was in pain and reluctantly let go.

Su Nan was a little surprised when he saw the blood on his lips.

Are you working so hard?

Shang Qian looked at her helplessly:

“Are you so enthusiastic?”

Su Nan was a little flustered and embarrassed:

“I’m sorry, I didn’t mean to...”

This excuse is really pale.

Didn’t she do it on purpose?

But Shang Qian didn’t reveal it. He smiled, rubbed her hair, and pressed his handkerchief to the bleeding spot.

Su Nan was really upset.

It’s been a long time since they kissed for the first time, and she bit someone and bleeds?

Say it, how can you meet people?

Shang Qian leaned on the table next to him, he stood on his side, his body was straight, the slender figure was pulled by the light of the elder.

This picture is more like a work of art than the oil painting on the wall.

She hesitated for a moment.

Shang Qian looked at her in a daze, smiled, and stretched out his hand:

“What are you looking at?”

Su Nan put his hand on it, he pulled it gently, and he was in her arms.

The two were so close, they could feel each other’s breath.

Su Nan smiled, without concealing his admiration for his appearance:

“Just now, if I was photographed, I would have won the photography award on purpose!”

Shang Qian was dumbfounded by her wild thoughts.

Did she turn the page so soon?

With his skill, he pointed to his bitten lip:

“What about this?”

Su Nan was stunned for a moment.

“You have to pay me!” Shang Qian slowly induced.

Su Nan frowned, “How to pay?”

“You can only turn the story by kissing me.”

Again?

Su Nan felt that Shang Qian really didn’t have a long memory.

Shang Qian smiled, “Don’t worry, I’ll stop at this time.”

Originally, he planned to coax her a few more words, but without any hesitation, Su Nan dragged his neckline down and kissed him on the lips. .

...

Chapter 1354 let her take it away

Chapter 1354 asked her to take

Shang Qian away for a moment.

She gently kissed the place where she was bitten, as if to express her apology.

Just when Shang Qian couldn’t help it and wanted to kiss him deeply, she suddenly pushed him away.

She took a step back herself, keeping a safe distance.

“You said, click until now!”

She definitely clicked until the end.

Shang Qian was helpless, he could only control his dark eyes, and his voice was hoarse:

“You have the final say.”

He just missed her too much.

I finally know why couples do some intimate actions to express their love for each other.

It's not all about the physiological response, but also the fit and closeness of the soul. Only in this way can we express our thoughts to the extreme.

Su Nan's brows and eyes were a little bit charming, and she didn't even notice it herself, but her frown and smile made people want to stop.

Fortunately, there was no one else in this room, and no one other than him would appreciate this beauty.

Shang Qian withdrew his hot gaze in time, walked to the wall she had just seen, and was about to take off the painting on the wall.

She likes it, of course she wants to take it back!

Su Nan pursed his lips, suddenly thought of something, and looked at her with a smile: “Did you not think about me coming back today?”

Shang Qian smiled helplessly:

“Didn't you tell me when you called last time ? Will it come?”

Su Nan curled his lips:

“I didn't tell you when to arrive, how could you guess?”

Shang Qian was silent, and said, “I knew such a day would come when you started taking the shares from those people.”

Su Nan looked up at him subconsciously. His back was slender, and the muscles on his arms were smooth and beautiful. , the action is meticulous.

“Among those people, are there any of you?”

Shang Qian smiled: "It doesn't count, but there are some people who are dissatisfied with Shang Yi and want to unite with me to seize power."

Su Nan nodded, no wonder!

She really thought her plan was seamless, but Shang Qian knew it long ago.

"The vice president just now, is it available?"

Shang Qian: "He has 11% of the shares in his hands, but he didn't sell them all to you, right?"

He looked back at her and asked.

Su Nan nodded: "Other people are easy to deal with, it's just a little more money to get the shares. After all, no one wants to guard the empty shell of the building and lose the shares in their hands.

Only the one just now. No matter what, he will not sell it.

But he is willing to let me temporarily hold his shares for three years, and after three years, I will return it to him, although it is not very cost-effective, but there is no other way right now."

Shang Qian He lowered his head and smiled, sure enough, the vice president didn't let go easily.

"But how do you know?" Su Nan asked him.

Shang Qian glanced at her: "he was the last chairman, that is, my grandfather's subordinate. If it wasn't for the sudden death of his grandfather, he would be the one who took over as chairman.

His ability is very good, and his grandfather appreciates it very much, he doesn't care about taking over. Is the person from the business person?

As long as he is good to the group, he will use whoever, but unfortunately..."

Shang Qian smiled, and a trace of mockery flashed across his eyes.

"It's still where it is today."

Su Nan paused, "It sounds like you still like your grandfather?"

Shang Qian looked at her seriously:

“Well, he forced Shang Qun to take me to the master. Home, originally Shang Qun planned to let me disappear.”

Su Nan was shocked and stood up straight in surprise.

“how come.....”

...

The first thousand three hundred and fifty-five chapters are over

The first thousand three hundred and fifty-five chapters are all over

, Shang Qian smiled, twitched the corners of his mouth, the smile disappeared completely:

“It’s ridiculous, I haven’t told anyone about this, even Shang Qun doesn’t know that I have I see.

Before my mother jumped off the building, she was driven crazy. Why?

Because she already knew that Shang Qun could not tolerate her, and she could not tolerate me, so her hope of taking advantage of me was lost.

Not only that, Shang Qun ruined her She has no choice but to die.”

Su Nan stood there for a long time, unable to wake up from such shocking news.

Although she knew that Shang Qian’s identity was definitely not popular, at most she was a little wronged in terms of living conditions.

Unexpectedly, he has such a big secret hidden in his heart!

He tore apart his deepest hidden darkness, and fluttered about the most hurtful past.

Just hearing it, word by word, was enough to make her breathless.

Unexpectedly...

these are all things he has experienced.

While experiencing it, he felt his own powerlessness, as if all the cruel things in this world had fallen on him alone.

Su Nan couldn’t say a word, she just stared at him blankly, with mixed feelings in her heart.

If only I could give him half of my luck...

Shang Qian stood there, took off the painting, and put it on the table beside him, cautiously afraid of breaking it.

Looking back at her, seeing her standing silently, the elation and excitement in her eyes just now had completely disappeared.

He froze for a second, walked over, and lowered his voice as low as possible:

“Scared you? I’m sorry, I won’t bring this up again...”

Su Nan’s eyes were sore for a moment, she suddenly reached out and threw herself into his arms.

Shang Qian froze for a moment, and then slowly put his hand on her shoulder.

Nothing was said.

Su Nan felt terrible in his heart.

In this world, there are always people who were born with a golden spoon in their hands but lived in a daze.

There are always people who come out of the mud and live hard and brave.

She was so lucky to have met such a brave man.

For a long time, Shang Qian put his hand on her head and was silent.

Su Nan resisted the urge to cry.

But her voice was still a little hoarse and choked:

“But what I heard was completely different. They said it as if you killed your mother and your father. How can they talk nonsense?

” Black and white, how did he persist day after day?

How could he just smile and ignore these trumped-up accusations when he heard them?

It’s nothing more than a habit of listening!

Su Nan's heart really hurts like a needle stick, and the dense pain comes, and some can't bear to think about it.

But in front of Shang Qian, it seems that he has never hated anyone, let alone the world.

Shang Qian touched her hair silently, as if to soothe her excited emotions:

"It doesn't matter, the more they say that, the safer I will be. When everyone believes that I am the kind of person they say, My presence is no threat to them."

That's why, after Shang Nei died and he married Mike's mother, Shang Yi didn't kill him.

Because at that time, Shang Qian's reputation was already bad, and there were scandals everywhere.

For Shang Yi, there is no more threat.

after a while before Su Nan gradually calmed down his emotions.

But her eyes were still a little red.

Shang Qian wiped the corner of her eyes in distress, reached out and rubbed her earlobe, and sighed:

"Okay, I'll give you a surprise."

Su Nan looked at him dully.

Shang Qian took out a document from the bag beside him.

Su Nan opened it and was stunned.

"Isn't this the 20% of the shares that Mrs. Shang transferred to you?"

Shang Qian nodded and smiled:

"Look below..."

Su Nan glanced at it, and his eyes suddenly changed slightly. deep.

“You let me hold it on your behalf?”

Shang Qian hooked his lips, looked at Su Nan, and simply stated:

“I was a little worried that you didn’t have enough shares in your hand, or that the business group bought other people to turn against the water, and the situation will change at that time. You are not good, I have already prepared this document.”

Su Nan sniffed, “It turned out to be a surprise!”

“But the surprise you gave me was even more unexpected, and it was ahead of me. “

Shang Qian glanced at her with a half-smile but not a smile.

He will never forget her actions at the meeting.

It’s not the so-called shares, but when people, including his biological father, humiliated and slandered him, only she stood firmly by his side.

Such Su Nan deserves everything he can do to love her.

Su Nan raised his eyebrows proudly, “You’re welcome, it’s all yours anyway, this is what Mr. Su has built for you, you can take it with peace of mind!”

Shang Qian stood there dumbfounded, let go of his hand, and spoke solemnly.

“However, I don’t want to take over. Since it’s all yours, keep it and find a professional manager to help you manage it.

To be honest, although the Shang family has been going downhill in recent years, there are still many people who take their own Your life and wealth are all on this group.”

Su Nan frowned, “Of course the best candidate is you, this book should belong to you.”

Shang Qian’s brows narrowed slightly, his lips tightened:

“Everything about the business has nothing to do with me.”

Su Nan paused, reaching out and holding his hand.

“I know what you’re thinking. Of course you don’t care about this business group that is about to go bankrupt. It’s thankless, but you have to think about it, what about little Mike?

If you don’t want it, won’t it be cheaper for others?

Wait for me to go. , the people of Shang Qun will definitely make a comeback, has the Shang Group fallen into his hands again? Will he return it to Mike then?”

Shang Qian’s face instantly turned gloomy.

He didn’t think about it, but Su Nan didn’t work hard for this game?

Su Nan sighed arrogantly:

“I originally came here to express my anger, and I like to do things that get down to earth, but cleaning up messes is not my hobby.

You know, our family is still waiting for me to get rich . Well, my eldest brother has stopped thinking about progress since he got married, the second brother and the third brother cannot be counted on, and the fourth eldest Su Xiaohu is a fake tiger again, and it is all up to me!”

Shang Qian’s eyelids trembled slightly, the corners of his mouth twitched. I couldn’t stop laughing.

I thought she was joking, but her serious look doesn’t seem to be!

“So, you have already made plans?” Shang Qian looked at her.

Su Nan smiled, her brows and eyes were curved, like the scorching sun inside.

“Of course, I know it’s not difficult for you. You should save money for little Mike. In the future, the company will hand him over, and our little Mike will not only know how to spend money!”

Shang Qian: “... ..”

...

Chapter 1357: The awkward little cutie

Chapter 1357 The awkward little cute

Su Nan had a good plan.

But Shang Qian got into this trouble.

Seeing his hesitation, Su Nan thought about it and said,

“Actually, there’s no need to make the group so brilliant, it’s just fine to be able to live a little.

In fact, I've thought of many ways, acquisition is the easiest, but one I can't swallow a fat man in one breath. For such a large group, the integration and reorganization of various fields is too time-consuming.

If it fails, it will affect the acquisition group, which will outweigh the gains. That's why I decided to maintain it like this first and see the situation! "

Shang Qian was silent and nodded.

"Okay, but I can only take over this period of time. Once I get back on track, I will hand it over to a professional manager. I won't give my life to the surnamed merchant."

He doesn't hate it, it doesn't mean he doesn't hate it.

Su Nan readily agreed.

If he can agree, it is already a big step backward!

Mainly the current situation is a bit tricky, and it will take a lot of time and energy to solve it.

But if you want to find a manager who is knowledgeable and has a good understanding of the specific situation of the Shang Group, you will not be able to find it for a while.

The next itinerary was much easier, and she didn't have to hide it.

Now that Shang Qun's own movements are restricted, Su Nan's safety issues are suddenly relieved.

Sure enough, Su Nan didn't break his promise, and pushed all the business of the Shang Group to Shang Qian.

Shang Qian was helpless and could only take it one by one.

The people from the company met Shang Qian, some people were happy and others were worried.

Some people worry that this wave of operations is a change of soup rather than medicine, and that the crisis of the Shang Group will not be truly resolved.

Some people also know the identity of Shang Qian. He is not in harmony with the merchants and will not follow the old path again.

As soon as Shang Qian took over, the rest of the merchants began to move.

Many people want to meet him after stepping over the threshold, play emotional cards, and let Shang Qian continue to be their backing.

In this case, even if the business group leaves the company, their interests will not suffer any loss.

How could Shang Qian not know what they were thinking?

Not only did he refuse to meet with anyone, but he also opened up a series of useless middle and high-level leaders who had been promoted by the vice president, all at once.

This time, it boiled like a frying pan.

But this one will be done sooner or later.

Shang Qian wanted to solve it in the shortest possible time without too much trouble.

During that time, Shang Qian was surrounded by seven or eight bodyguards, and they did not dare to live in the same hotel as Su Nan, for fear of affecting her.

Su Nan played back and forth for a few days, brought some gifts to Qin Yu and Ning Zhi, and felt homesick.

But she really couldn't bear to leave Shang Qian alone in this mess, so she was very entangled in whether to speak.

Or Shang Qian saw her entanglement and asked her if the paintings should be shipped in advance?

When he asked, Su Nan was eating the bread he baked, which was full of fragrance.

It's almost like discovering the New World. It's even better than the bread baked by the housekeeper's uncle?

"So fast?"

Su Nan muttered.

Shang Qian looked at her with a smile, the corner of his mouth inadvertently raised a smile.

Even if he was homesick, he was still duplicitous.

How can this little girl be so cute?

But he also knew almost, Su Jin didn't know if she was looking for her, but Su Jin had called him last night.

Su Jin's original words were that Su Yifeng was worried about Su Nan's safety and had not slept well for several days, so he urged Su Nan to return home quickly!

Chapter 1358 He can handle it

Chapter 1358 He can handle

Shang Qian well. Knowing that she has been here long enough, if she doesn't leave, the people of the Su family will suspect that he has ulterior motives.

On this key point of establishing a good image of himself, Shang Qian must be honest.

When Su Nan was about to leave, he was very reluctant to part, holding Shang Qian's arm reluctantly in the airport.

Fortunately, it was in the VIP waiting room, and there were not many people in it, otherwise this scene was really shocking.

Su Nan has always been cool and cold when she leaves the country, and even being beautiful gives people a sense of distance.

But she is extraordinarily clingy, and her coquettish look is enough to overturn all previous impressions of her.

Not the high goddess, not the rich woman who plays with men's feelings at will.

Yu Loudou sat far away, the farther away he was from them, the better. He was panicking to eat the dog food these days!

Chang Li sat blankly behind them, watching calmly, not moving at all.

Su Nan finally got on the plane and started to sleep as soon as he got on the plane.

When the air encountered a turbulence, she woke up and asked for a cup of coffee.

Yu Lou sat next to her, and finally couldn't help but ask her:

"Mr. Su, there is something I've always wanted to ask, but Mr. Shang is here, so I'm too embarrassed to speak."

Su Nan glanced at him, her voice hoarse Calm:

“Speak.”

Yu Lou pursed his lips, “Shang Yi is paralyzed, and he is in a vegetative state at the moment, but Shang Qun... he will not give up, if the power in his hands is not cleared away. If you do, it’s hard to guarantee that there will be no more troubles.

But I have inquired, Shang Qun was locked in the hospital by Shang Qian, and no one can get in, and the people inside can’t get out.

But after all, it’s not a long-term solution. What did the general manager think? “

Su Nan’s eyes turned cold, and he glanced at him:

“Are you afraid that he will be soft-hearted? “

It’s hard to say if you are soft-hearted. President Shang has already torn his face with him in public for you. There is no doubt about that.”

But their relationship is too embarrassing after all, and I don’t know what his next move will be...”

Su Nan looked at the thick clouds passing through outside.

She knew it in her heart. The business group was at the end of the road , and Shang Qian will not reconcile with him, the gap between them can never be closed.

She never asked what the outcome of Shang Qun would be, but she felt at ease.

As long as he could be touched in Shang Qian In this place, it is absolutely impossible for Shang Qun to do anything unfavorable to her again.

Inexplicable peace of mind.

“Don’t worry about it, Shang Qian will take care of it. Without the Shang Group, how could Shang Qun make a comeback? “

Su Nan’s voice was cold, and there was a hint of mockery on the corner of his mouth.

Uprooting is the best way.

Who made Shang Qun so stupid and put all his bets on the prodigal son of Shang Yi. If he loses so badly, he has to be willing to bet .” Admit defeat!

Yu Lou saw that Su Nan knew what he had in mind, and he let go of his dangling heart.

“Okay, I just have some concerns, and Mr. Shang will definitely be able to handle it. “

Su Nan smiled, then narrowed his eyes, closed his eyes and continued to sleep.

Yu Lou: “...”

... In

a private hospital in country M.

Shang Qian came out of the airport and went directly to the hospital.

People from the hospital called and said that since Shang Qun woke up, he had been making troubles, getting emotional, and beating people.

They are concerned about the special status of the business group and do not know what countermeasures to take.

When Shang Qian arrived at the door of the ward, he heard Shang Qun screaming and scolding his mother.

“Shang Qian and Su Nan joined hands to kill me, that white-eyed wolf of Shang Qian is really a scumbag, let him come here!”

“Su Nan can’t die . . , let me go out, I’m going to kill this dead girl!”

“Do you think I lost? I won’t, the Shang Group can only be mine, mine alone!”

“...”

Shang Qian lit a cigarette outside, and when he was halfway through, he gently threw it aside, crushing his toes.

When Su Nan was there, in order to maintain his image, he never touched cigarettes.

He knew she didn’t like it.

But she was gone, and he sat here, feeling inexplicably tired.

I was so tired that I could only take a puff of cigarettes to relieve my stress.

The doctor came out from the inside, and the cursing voice inside gradually diminished.

“Mr. Shang?”

Shang Qian stood up indifferently, nodded, and looked inside slightly:

“It stopped?” The doctor: “I have already taken sedatives, and I will fall asleep in a while. If so, you can go in now.”

Shang Qian nodded, “Thank you.” The doctor left very politely, and Shang Qian, whose net worth was a mystery, but had no pretence at all, was very fond of the hospital.

Shang Qian went in and looked at the bed inside, where Shang Qun was lying, staring directly at the ceiling, his pupils gradually dilated, and his chest was panting violently.

It seemed that scolding someone just now wasn't pleasant enough, and my heart was still suffocating.

Shang Qian walked to the side chair and sat down, without a trace of warmth on his face.

His brows were indifferent and cold, as if showing his darkest side.

For the business group, he has always been like this.

After a few seconds.

He finally realized that Shang Qian had come in.

I tried to sit up with all my strength, but my body was paralyzed and weak, and I lay back in an instant.

Shang Qun gritted his teeth angrily:

“You white-eyed wolf, you imprisoned me here?

Do you want to imprison me for the rest of your life?

I'm your biological father. Whether you admit it or not, you can't change it!”

Shang Qian sat there , Qing Jun's profile was a little sarcastic, and a trace of disdain crossed his cold brows.

"This fact will only be used when it's useful to you, right?"

Shang Qian said indifferently, looking up at him:

"You don't have to waste your energy trying to get out, I'll send Shang Yi in after a while. "

As soon as he heard Shang Yi's name, Shang Qun became anxious, like a stress response:

"What do you want to do? Do you want to exterminate your entire family?"

Just for a woman?

You white-eyed wolf, just like Just like your mother, if someone gives you some color, it's like a dog licking it up, it's so cheap!"

Shang Qian's face sank completely, and there was a trace of dangerous ruthlessness.

"Let me remind you that scolding me now doesn't do you any good." After speaking , he stood up impatiently, tidied up his jacket, and was about to go out.

He hasn't recognized his situation yet, so he should wait a few more days.

Shang Qun's tone was rough and hoarse, as if he had rubbed it:

"Shang Qian, he is your brother after all. He is already paralyzed. Don't toss him.

He has nothing to fight with you, and he can't threaten you. Don't... don't touch him!"

There was finally panic in Shang Qun's eyes, fearing that Shang Yi, who was already paralyzed, would be hurt again.

Shang Qian was stunned for a second, then looked back at him, fixed it for a few seconds, and then withdrew his eyes darkly.

Without saying a word, he left here.

Chapter 1360 The rumor

doctor is coming.

“Mr. Shang, it’s over?”

Shang Qian nodded:

“The sanatorium has been contacted, and when he falls asleep, he will be sent there.

Also, Shang Yi will also be sent there, so that they can meet for an hour a day, more than No.” The doctor nodded, still a little worried:

“After all, the business director is not easy to deal with, if you can’t watch it...”

Shang Qian glanced at him very coldly, with some chill:

“Then Just focus on Shang Yi, if he dares to leave the sanatorium for half a step, he will stop Shang Yi’s medicine.”

Shang Yi was paralyzed and in a vegetative state, unable to take care of himself.

Once the drug is stopped, it means that there is nothing else to continue to maintain vital signs.

In less than a day, people’s lives are in danger.

“Yes.” The

doctor responded.

Shang Qian raised his foot and walked out.

The assistant in the car watched him come out, and started the car to pick him up:

“You solve the troubles of the Shang Group as soon as possible, just to go back to see her as soon as possible?”

Shang Qian didn’t answer, but he didn’t deny it either.

The assistant changed the topic:

“How is Shang Qun now? I’m afraid the gap in my heart isn’t even the slightest bit, right?”

Shang Qian raised his eyes lightly and pursed his lips:

“He himself can’t protect himself, and he is still letting me see the blood relationship. In terms of relationship, he is open to Shang Yiwang.

Why does a person like him treat Shangyi so well?

You say, why is he only good to businessmen? “

This is also what he is very puzzled about. For a sophisticated and selfish father like Shang Qun, he doesn’t care that his illegitimate son is justifiable. But he doesn’t even care about his legitimate son, Shang Zi.

He only cares about Shang Yi. The assistant looks at Looking at him, he coughed:

“I seem to have heard some rumors when dealing with the old people of the Shang Group these days. Shang Qian raised his eyes , looked at him, and motioned for him to speak quickly.

Assistant: “Shang Yi’s mother met Shang Qun before she married into a businessman, and she was still his first love.

But at that time, no one knew the identity of the business group, and they broke up for no reason after that.

Shang Yi’s mother was later married to a businessman by her family, and she met Shang Qun again.

The two meet again, and naturally they are together.

Soon after giving birth to Shang Yi, the person died. The business director may think that is his true love. He really loves the child he gave birth to at the risk of death, how can he not love it? After the main force finished speaking, there was a long silence in the car.

He even wondered, did he say something wrong?

... When

Su Nan returned home, he started to sleep with jet lag.

The whole Su's house was quiet, and no one dared to make a noise. As soon as Su Qi left, it was already a lot quieter, and those servants could keep their voices quieter when they did things.

She woke up again, and she was already looking at the stars outside the window and the darkness of the night. It's thick.

Looking at the time, it's already nine o'clock in the evening.

There was also a missed call on the phone, which belonged to Shang Qian.

After ringing twice, she didn't call again, but she left a message on WeChat:

"Have a good rest when you get home, wake up and call me back."

Su Nan thought about it, and went back directly.

As she got out of bed, she held her mobile phone, went over to open the curtains, and saw that the lights in the yard were all lit, and the stars were very beautiful.

She smiled and the phone was picked up.

"Su Nan, are you awake?"

Su Nan hummed with a hoarse voice.

"Are you going to sleep?"
