Chapter 156 The car is out of gas

Chapter 156 The car is out of gas.

Fu Yechuan grabbed her blood-stained arm and asked in a low voice.

Su Nan broke free speechlessly and was silent for a moment.

“No, it’s not mine.”

After that, she got in the car and started the car.

Now that the police has been reported, the rest of the matter will be resolved by the police.

Instead of staying here and looking at Fu Yechuan, she might as well go back to sleep!

Fu Yechuan stared at her darkly, aware of her coldness, and his face was tense.

Chen Mian controlled the fugitive and ran over quickly.

“Miss Su, do you want to take you to the hospital for a checkup?”

Su Nan looked at him and smiled, “No, thank you.”

She was always polite to Chen Mian.

Because he was the only person who treated her kindly and did not despise her in those three years.

No matter how low her background was, Chen Mian always regarded her as Mrs. Fu.

It was the only goodwill in three years.

Chen Mian was still very worried, “I think it’s better not to drive. If you are shocked, if there is another accident, it will be troublesome. Why don’t you find a chauffeur...”

Su Nan was silent for a moment, as if he was really thinking about Chen Mian Mian words.

She really doesn’t want to drive, but it takes time to wait for a driver.

Chen Mian knew her worries and spoke immediately.

“Why don’t you let me...” Chen Mian almost bit his tongue when he noticed a cold and cold gaze on him.

Almost forgot, the big boss is still there!

The voice changed, “Let’s President Fu... send you back!”

He stayed to guard the fugitives.

The icy gaze of death finally moved away.

He breathed a sigh of relief.

It seemed that he was hovering on the brink of death for a moment.

It is estimated that I almost lost my job...and my future!

Su Nan glanced at Fu Yechuan and refused without thinking.

Let Fu Yechuan give her a contemporary driver?

She would rather meet ten more fugitives!

It was just that the car that had just started turned off suddenly.

Su Nan frowned and started again.

It didn’t work out?

This brand-new Ferrari was just bought for her by her uncle from Europe, it shouldn’t be...

Chen Mian glanced at it with a probe, and his tone was heavy.

“Miss Su, your car... is out of gas!”

Su Nan: “?” The situation has changed drastically!

Fu Yechuan glanced at her lightly, a cold smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and then got into his brand new Range Rover.

Chen Mian paused, “Miss Su, come to our car, it’s getting late, I’ll send you back first.”

Su Nan didn't want to!

"No, I'll find someone to pick me up."

She lowered her head and took out her mobile phone, wanting to call Yu Lou.

Coincidentally, the phone rang suddenly.

is silent.

"Susu, we succeeded. The smart chip can enter the human body without obstruction, check the health of the human body in three seconds to make a report and diagnosis, and use artificial intelligence to control the central nervous system. Our most important step has been successful!"

Su Nan was shocked, but did not expect the surprise to come so quickly.

In addition to the intelligent life assisted by artificial intelligence, the solution of this project is intelligent technology in medicine.

This is the most difficult, because it requires continuous input of human experience, and the division of labor involved in each body part is different. It is a very difficult and huge job to coordinate.

But once it is successful and popularized in life, people can get the fastest physical health results without going to the hospital, which is accurate.

This is a giant step in human history!

When Su Nan heard the news, it was hard to hide his surprise.

She can't wait to fly to Silent's side now to see her great cause.

But...the car ran out of gas!

Fu Yechuan also received this good news. They are also two people who have infinite expectations in the field of artificial intelligence. At this time, their hearts are surging!

"Chen Mian, I'm going to find Ringo, you are waiting here."

"Yes." Chen Mian replied.

Su Nan immediately opened the car door and got out of the car, and threw the key to Chen Mian, "I'm leaving too."

At this time, what are the old and new grudges?

Of course, the most important thing is to witness history!

Open the door and get in the car, fasten your seat belt.

Fu Yechuan glanced at her lightly, but he was not in a hurry, and tapped the steering wheel twice with both hands.

“Su Nan...”

...

Chapter 157 They are okay

Chapter 157 They don’t mind

Su Nan looking at him sideways, with a cold smile in his smile.

“Mr. Fu, you want to take the opportunity to negotiate terms, right?”

She looked at him with burning eyes.

That posture, as if he dared to say yes, he is dead!

Not a rhetorical question, but a threat!

Fu Yechuan withdrew his gaze, started the car, and stepped on the accelerator!

Indeed.

But suddenly he didn’t want to.

What he owes her has not been repaid, what qualifications does he have to negotiate conditions?

Make her forgive the past?

Impossible to think about.

Arriving at the project base, Su Nan couldn’t wait to get out of the car.

Unexpectedly, seeing Su Ming standing at the door, Su Nan ran up to hug him and jumped up excitedly.

“Is it really successful?”

Su Ming smiled indulgently and said “um”, seeing Fu Yechuan who was walking slowly, his face was dark and ugly.

Unconsciously.

Su Nan hung on him like an octopus, so warm that he didn't want to come down.

“Why is my brother outside?”

“Waiting for you...”

He stroked her hair, “Go in.”

The two people in front of them came together, like a couple in love.

Fu Yechuan looked at it, it was really dazzling.

The sullen breath on his chest loomed over him, making him unable to breathe.

As soon as he entered the door, Ringo came up to meet him and was very excited to see Su Ming.

“Su Nan, where did you get this sunner? He's a genius!”

Su Nan smiled, slightly surprised.

“What do you mean?”

“The most difficult project, the most difficult technology, was solved perfectly by his few formulas, without any flaws! He saved us ten years of time and tens of billions of costs!”

Lin Ge was so excited that he was beyond words, looked at Su Ming for a while, his attitude was a little more polite.

“Let him stay, I will offer ten times the market price... No, a hundred times the annual salary, as long as he stays, I can give him my shares!”

Su Ming lowered his face expressionlessly eye.

“Not interested.”

Su Nan looked at Ringo sympathetically, which was the truth.

To Su Ming, money is just a number.

“He only promised to help for one month, and he has already signed a contract with other places...”

“You can break the contract, and I will pay for the break-up fee!”

No matter how much money, it is the most wise to keep this genius!

“National Research Institute.” Su Nan said lightly.

If she doesn't speak up, Ringo will not give up.

Ringo was taken aback, what?

Su Nan pursed her lips, pulled Su Ming and went in.

Fu Yechuan standing behind looked at Ringo with sympathy.

decided to tell the truth.

“Sunner is Su Ming. If you still want your company, just give up your idea.”

Do you have the courage to snatch people from the state?

He patted Ringo on the shoulder, sighed, and hurried in.

Ringo's body stiffened in surprise.

Sunner is Su Ming?

The legendary world genius who won the industry's top Similan Gold Award at the age of seventeen?

The intern who started him here this month?

How could he connect the two together?

He followed Fu Yechuan behind him.

“What does he have to do with Su Nan?” Can

Su Nan be employed for a month without getting paid?

“It's okay.”

Fu Yechuan spit out three words coldly.

Ringo obviously doesn't believe it!

inside the laboratory.

Silently and excitedly, he showed Su Nan this irregular circle the size of a palm.

"This is a miniature biological carrier that does not require blood tests. Just put your hand on it for three seconds, and it can sense whether every part of your body is healthy.

If this can be popularized, it can completely replace outpatient medical care. Save manpower and material resources!"

Su Nan looked at it in surprise, a little unbelievable.

But with Su Ming there, there is no miracle that does not exist.

She thought about it and put her hand up.

This irregular oval-shaped three-dimensional instantly emits a warm feeling, surrounded by light blue light.

One second...

two seconds...

three seconds...ding!

"Report of physical abnormalities, there is a wound of 3 inches and 9 minutes on the inner side of the left arm, the depth is 4mm, platelets are coagulated, white blood cells are normal, mild bacterial infection, it is recommended to use disinfectants such as alcohol, and anti-inflammatory drugs Pudilan, it is expected to return to normal in three to four days. ."

A cute voice came from the bottom, everyone was stunned, but Su Nan was very surprised.

Can the hidden wound under the sleeve be detected?

Silent Mo and Su Ming didn't have time to react.

I saw Fu Yechuan stepped forward a few steps, grabbed her arm, and his voice was extremely cold.

"Didn't you get hurt?"

...

Chapter 158 I just want to make up for it

Chapter 158 I just want to make up for it

Su Nan frowned, why was Fu Yechuan's reaction so big?

She is injured, what does it have to do with him?

"Mr. Fu, let me do it."

Su Ming stretched out her hand, took her arm back from his hand, and rubbed the red part that he pinched.

Su Ming did not like Fu Yechuan.

Su Nan's ex-husband, isn't it okay?

Of course, there is no need to trouble Fu Yechuan to worry about this kind of concern!

He gently pulled Su Nan to the lounge and found the first aid kit to put medicine on.

"How could you be injured?"

Su Nan was still immersed in the research and development of the intelligent detection, and was ecstatic.

I don't care about my little injury at all.

"It's nothing, I encountered a robber, and when I was cleaning up, I accidentally scratched it, brother, that is really powerful!"

Knowing her skills, ordinary people only get beaten up compared to her.

Su Ming lightly hooked her lips and gently disinfected her.

"It's just pediatrics, it's not worth being so happy."

Su Nan: "..."

Sure enough, the success of a genius is different from that of an ordinary person.

Anyway, it's really exciting.

"Then it's time to bring it to the market!"

Su Ming glanced at her and frowned slightly.

Su Nan wondered, “Why?”

“Although this smart chip can detect diseases in the human body, everything is based on the human body balance value we set for it. The medical difficulties involved are very complicated, and it is difficult for major complex disease treatment plans to replace myself. If you can easily replace medical experts, it would be fantastic.”

“Medical experts can’t replace it, so ordinary minor illnesses can always be, just like it can tell the treatment medicine just now, doesn’t it save a lot of procedures?”

Su Ming shook his head, “It’s not just Pudilan that can reduce inflammation, there are hundreds of medicines that are expensive or cheap, ranging from traditional Chinese medicine to Western medicine.

If it is introduced to the world, it will involve thousands of medicines, but there are country-to-country restrictions on medicines. There are strict regulations, and the drugs recommended by the smart chip may not meet the artificial standards.”

Su Nan widened her eyes, she didn’t think so much at all!

Thinking about it this way, the road ahead is long, and it seems that there are still many difficulties to overcome!

But today’s step is already the progress of the entire era!

Su Ming tapped her forehead.

“Don’t worry, the current results are enough to double your worth.”

Su Nan’s eyes lit up. Although mass production cannot be achieved immediately, this news will undoubtedly inspire the entire stock market.

She seemed to see the glittering wealth beckoning to her!

Su Nan went out and watched Fu Yechuan and Ringo discussing matters. Su Nan stopped by and heard Ringo mention his name.

“Su Nan is injured, why are you so nervous? President Fu, you won’t like your ex-wife, will you?”

Fu Yechuan leaned back against them, looking at the surging river beneath the tall buildings, and the neon lights.

He frowned and was silent for a moment, his voice flat and indifferent.

“No, I just want to make up for her and ease everyone’s relationship out of guilt.”

Like?

Shouldn’t be.

He couldn’t tell himself, did he like this kind of focused concern?

But to outsiders, he didn’t want to admit his feelings other than apologetic.

After all, he and Su Nan are not even friends now!

Every word he said, Su Nan could hear clearly and loudly.

Like a stone, it fell heavily on her heart.

The unspeakable sourness and heaviness suddenly brought her back to the feeling she had before the divorce.

Suffocating, uncomfortable, desperate!

She lowered her eyes slightly, hiding the hurt in her eyes.

Fortunately, she pulled away in time.

When he looked up again, his eyes were firmer than ever before!

Divorce is the right choice!

Coincidentally, Su Ming changed clothes inside and came out.

“Let’s go...”

Hearing the movement, Fu Yechuan froze slightly and turned around slowly.

At that moment, he suddenly felt a little flustered.

Afraid of what she will hear...

Chapter 159: Her love triangle

Chapter 159 Her Love Triangle

Then Ringo walked over excitedly, in high spirits.

“Su Nan, we decided to hold a press conference tomorrow to announce this good news. In the whole world, we are at the forefront!”

Su Nan also thought so, lest there be too many dreams in the night, she smiled and became emotionally high.

It was as if he just didn't know anything.

“Okay, I'll attend on time.”

“sunner, join us?” Ringo was looking forward to it.

Su Ming's name can even push this project to the top of the world.

Su Ming shook his head and refused, with a clear attitude.

Ringo was a little lost, but he also knew that such a great god would not dare to force it!

Fu Yechuan's dark eyes stared at her arm tightly, but at this time he was not very excited.

Somewhat anomalous.

But Su Nan didn't care.

“Is the wound okay? Should we postpone the press conference?” The man looked at her, his breathing suddenly became extremely slow.

Su Nan raised her eyebrows and looked at him, the corners of her lips curved with a cold arc.

“I can't die for the time being, thank you Mr. Fu for your concern.” Stop pretending!

How ridiculous!

She looked at Su Ming, who was beside her, with glittering eyes.

“Let's go home?”

Su Ming responded, put the coat on her hand, and fastened her buttons patiently.

Although the clothes are big, they look a bit cute and playful.

This scene made Ringo look terrified.

How can the great god's hands that are turning clouds and rains change the world to button up?

Fu Yechuan was scolded by Su Nan, and when he heard the indifference and alienation in her words, his heart sank slightly.

His face was already a little unhappy. Seeing the intimate actions of Su Ming and Su Nan, the brows became even more gloomy.

go home?

What relationship can I use the word "go home"?

There was an unnoticeable chill in his heart.

"Do you need to send you off separately?"

he asked suddenly, and even Ringo was surprised.

President Fu is mainly going to be a driver for others?

Unbelievable?

Su Nan rolled his eyes at him, "You're not on our way with us."

We and him are two boundaries!

Fu Yechuan's face instantly turned ugly.

Su Nan and Su Ming left decisively, until they disappeared in front of them, Fu Yechuan didn't say a word out of anger!

His face was ashen!

Ringo couldn't help smiling beside him.

Hehe...

that question has been answered just now.

Duplicity is not Fu Yechuan, but also today?

See through but not say through.

Ringo restrained his smile and said a sarcastic remark lightly, adding fuel to the fire.

“Are they living together?” He stabbed Mr. Fu’s heart with a knife!

Facing Ringo, he really couldn’t stay for a second!

Fu Yechuan snorted coldly, raised his legs with a cold face, and left.

Enough has happened this night.

As soon as he got home, Su Nan felt a little tired. As soon as he lay on the bed, he fell asleep immediately.

In the early morning of the next day, the dazzling light outside poured in through the tulle curtains, and Su Nan was reluctant to open his eyes.

But the ringing of the phone had made her completely awake.

When I saw the caller ID, I knew it.

She sighed.

Why don’t her girlfriends understand the benefits of being lazy in the morning?

Then, his voice was a little hoarse.

“Understood, what’s the matter?”

“The news about you Bao Yufei has been flying all over the sky, so are you still in the mood to sleep?”

“What? I am Bao Yufei?” Su Nan’s eyes widened.

Yesterday was the first time they met...

Ning Zhi laughed and fell into trouble.

“Yesterday, the video of Yu Fei’s speech was edited, and with Su Qi, the love triangle between you has almost been made into a novel. Guess who did it?”

The person who was most able to pick things up last night was Xu Yin!

That ugly bastard!

The daughter of Gemini Entertainment spreads some rumors on the Internet and wants to hack a person, isn't it easy?

“Is it Xu Yin?”

“Congratulations, you got the answer right.”

Su Nan jumped up from the bed angrily and snorted coldly.

“Today is the day when I make a lot of money, how dare she make trouble for me? I have to kill her!”

Those who stand in her way must not be polite!

and hang up the phone, and Su Nan called Yu Lou directly.

“Is it too late to acquire a company before the press conference?”

Yu Lou paused, “It depends on the size of the acquired company.”

Is Su always addicted to acquisitions?

“Gemini Entertainment Company.”

That's not the same as the Xu family's company a few days ago, but...

“The procedures are a bit cumbersome and it will take a few days, but... we have a hundred shares in our hands. 16/16, Master Su Qi's Huaying Entertainment owns 30% of the shares, if you can buy 5% of the shares, you can become the largest shareholder and become the actual controlling shareholder.” In other words, with the acquisition of There is no difference!

Su Nan hummed and nodded in satisfaction.

“Do it as soon as possible.”

After saying that, she hung up the phone.

After changing the medicine for her wound, she made some sandwiches for herself in a hurry.

By the way, look at yourself on the headlines today.

“Yu Fei actually likes Mr. Su’s type, no matter what, I like it too!”

“I would spurn everyone else, but Su Nan, I think it’s so cool!”

“Su Qi is jealous, he I’m jealous, hahahaha...”

“Suddenly I think the sister and brother CP are a good match, I want to eat this pair!”

“Yu Fei is still a child, is Su Nan unspoken?”

“Listen Saying that Gemini Entertainment is going to release black material, the rich woman should save her brother...”

Su

Nan smiled lightly and put it aside.

There are so many scenes for everyone...

After breakfast, Su Nan was not in a hurry to go to the company, but went to Huaying Entertainment.

Since she was going to acquire Gemini Entertainment, someone had to take care of the trivial matters for her, and Du Yan was a very good choice.

As soon as I walked downstairs, I saw Xu Yin, who was wearing a big brand, also coming here, exuding the smell of expensive luxury all over her body, and her eyes were growing on the top of her head.

Like these ignorant and ignorant rich second-generation, who spend their money abroad with their family’s money, just to be self-satisfied with a little foreign style, in fact, they can’t even speak a complete sentence of English. I really don’t know where this Xu Yin’s confidence comes from?

Su Nan wanted to ignore her and go in directly, but Xu Yin called out to her excitedly when she saw Su Nan.

“Su Nan, come to ask for help early in the morning? Want Du Yan to help you with PR?”

Xu Yin’s smiling face was deformed, unable to hide the smug look in her eyes.

Su Nan paused, his eyes flashed slightly, looked at her, and curled the corners of his lips.

“What’s the matter with you? When did Huaying Entertainment have a place for you to talk?”

Seeing Su Nan being so rude, Xu Yin felt even more unhappy when she remembered that Fu Yechuan threw her down last night and went after Su Nan.

She restrained her smile and snorted coldly.

“Let me tell you, no one in the entire entertainment industry dares to offend me. I came here to make this fire even more prosperous!

No matter how powerful you are, Su Nan, you are still in a rut ! If you offend me, you will be punished. Everyone is scolded to death, and you doubt life, understand?”

Su Nan raised her eyebrows, and her tone became a little cold.

She folded her hands and tapped her own arm.

“So, the rumor on the Internet about my Bao Yufei is that you, Miss Xu, deliberately blacked me?”

Xu Yin lifted her chin proudly, and her indomitable appearance was disgusting.

“This is just to show you some color, don’t be too self-righteous, thinking that the whole world likes you? Does n’t Yu Fei admire you?

I want to hide him when he’s hot, I want everyone to know, what the hell is here? Who has the final say?”

She is not afraid of Su Nan, she stole Fu Yechuan three years ago, and three years later she wants to get it back with interest.

This is just a slap in the face!

How can she be proud of her, Su Nan?
