Even if there is no Fu Yechuan, there is a way for Su Jin to know Zheng Bureau.

The two are in a competitive relationship in this project, but it is not yet known who will win.

The male is male, they are clearly separated.

Fu Yechuan was bound to win this project. When he entered the door, some people who were still thinking about it had already turned off the flames.

But Su Jin will not.

The Su Group will not lose to the Fu Group in terms of strength and reputation.

Su Jin got up, glanced at Shang Qian and nodded, then followed Fu Yechuan away.

He said so, also wanting to relieve these two people.

Fu Yechuan has deep roots in City A, and his forces are intricate.

If he really fights, he is worried that Shang Qian will lose out accidentally.

After all, he is his own brother-in-law, and he still has to protect him.

Shang Qian looked at the back of Fu Yechuan leaving, his face sank a little.

The phone lit up, and it was Su Nan who replied to the message he had just said:

"I'm going to find Qin Yu for shopping in the mall. You can go directly to her to pick me up when the time comes."

Shang Qian eased his face, and the corners of his lips twitched slightly. a radian.

I remembered what Fu Yechuan said just now.

They met.

This made him a little careless. He didn't expect Fu Yechuan to be so shameless, and he went directly to Su Nan.

He wanted to ask Su Nan if he had seen him, but what?

Somewhat apprehensive.

Did she not remember who Fu Yechuan was now?

Then if he asks, she will continue to ask, how will she reply then?

For the first time, he felt that a problem would be so difficult!

After hesitating for a few minutes, forget it, it's not worth mentioning.

If she really thinks of Fu Yechuan, but hasn't thought of him yet, he will really go crazy with jealousy!

He didn't pay attention to the greetings from the people in front of him.

Someone called him "Shang Zong" several times before he reacted and smiled apologetically.

The other party smiled meaningfully: "Mr. Shang is so fascinated, is it possible that he is thinking of some big money-making project?" The reason why he knew him was because his wife Meng Xue had been in frequent contact with Su Nan during this time, and sometimes Su Nan would ask him to greet him in the video, and he would occasionally see Li Suizhou beside Meng Xue. In City B, the strength of the Li family should not be underestimated. I heard Su Jin talk about the Li family's interest in that military project just now, so it's not hard to guess why Li Suizhou is here. He smiled warmly, stroked his brows, and said a little apologetically: "I'm thinking about something else, Mr. Li is joking." Li Suizhou's facial features are enchanting, born with peach blossom eyes, and he looks seductive. At the beginning, he was also the subject of gossip, but after marriage, the gossip disappeared automatically. He is very capable, he controlled the Li family at a young age, and his status in City B is one of the best. Because of Su Nan, he was somewhat familiar with Li Suizhou. Li Suizhou hooked his lips, touched the glass in his hand lightly with his, and took a sip of wine:

"Everyone else is fighting for the project, Mr. Shang is all alone here, and he looks like he has a chance to win. I just came to ask for advice. Don't you blame me for taking the liberty?"

Shang Qian raised his eyebrows, "How could that be?"

Li Suizhou sat aside and watched He glanced at him:

"My wife Meng Xue invested in a project with you before. Although the money is not much, the woman is very enthusiastic.

But I see the prospects of this project are average, I really don't know why you are so optimistic about shared education. ?”

Li Suizhou looked humbly asking for advice, but Shang Qian felt a bit oppressed.

Shang Qian bowed his head and smiled, without hiding, and said bluntly:

“Not every project I invest in will be successful, it's just luck.

That project is not a big one . Earned project, my wife heard me and others talking about this project during that time, and told your wife, in fact, as I said about the risks, investment should be cautious, don't blindly follow the trend.”

Li Suizhou looked at him like this , the original anger has disappeared.

Originally, Meng Xue's brainless woman had always regarded Shang Qian as a myth in the investment world, so she was about to hang Shang Qian's portrait at home.

If it weren't for him to stop it, Meng Xue's woman would have changed the screen of her mobile phone to Shang Qian.

You can see how obsessed it is.

But what she is obsessed with is not this person, but the myth that Shang Qian has always been undefeated in the investment world.

This makes this woman who has repeatedly failed almost as if she has seen faith.

He even invested 200 million in the project introduced by Shang Qian.

Although he was not short of money, he had clearly analyzed with her that the prospect of the project was not too profitable, but she didn't believe it. He even questioned his ability again and again. Could he not be angry?

So he came here and wanted to ask Shang Qian more clearly.

Unexpectedly, there are still some misunderstandings in it.

Shang Qian said with a smile on his eyebrows: "Otherwise, can I explain it to your wife? Or let my wife explain? Maybe it's too late to withdraw the capital now."

Looking at Shang Qian's attitude, there is no arrogance and arguing, and it is very understandable.

Li Suizhou breathed a sigh of relief, his neckline was slightly open, and he leaned loosely on the back:

"No need, just let her fall, save it..." The province regarded Shang Qian as a god all day.

He didn't say the last sentence, but he already had an idea in his heart.

Don't you believe him?

Then eat at a loss!

When she has fallen in with Shang Qian, she will know whose words are more credible!

snort!

Shang Qian smiled and didn't force it.

In any case, although the project will not make a lot of money, it is unlikely that it will lose money.

It can only be said that there is no profit or loss!

"Why doesn't Mr. Li communicate? Isn't he very interested in the project?"

Li Suizhou raised his eyebrows, "So you see that I am interested in that big project?"

"It's not just you."

Li Suizhou smiled, With a bit of randomness:

"That's right, there was still some chance of winning, but now it can only depend on luck. When Fu Yechuan comes, I really have no bottom." In terms of strength, they can be said to be evenly matched.

But Fu Yechuan was born in the army after all, and he was able to speak in the army. This advantage is really not comparable to ordinary people.

So he's almost given up now.

Shang Qian hooked his lips silently, and there was a dim light in his eyes.

Fu Yechuan...how can it be so scary?

Looking at Shang Qian's calm appearance, Li Suizhou was thoughtful.

The relationship between them, he also heard from that woman Meng Xue, is it true?

If it is really the same situation, why is nothing happening now?

This time, even if you can't get that mysterious big project, you can't come home empty-handed!

Unfortunately, there is no gossip as expected.

The banquet has been very lively, and no one left halfway.

By the time it was over, it was almost evening.

Shang Qian looked at his phone, Su Nan didn't have any information and should still be with Qin Yu.

He still sat in his seat and chatted with others indifferently, and did not show how interested he was in these projects, indifferent and unconcerned.

When the first thousand eight hundred and thirty-three chapters were interested in who was nearing the end, Su Jin and Fu Yechuan had said everything they should have said, and the conditions and advantages that should be revealed were almost the same.

The rest depends on how they compete in private.

This banquet is just the beginning.

They left one after another, and Shang Qian stayed at the end quietly.

Someone came to say goodbye, and Shang Qian also smiled and accepted.

“Mr. Shang, I haven’t seen Mr. Su for a long time. Say hello to me.”

Shang Qian nodded and said with a smile:

“I must bring it here. Su Nan has always been full of praise for the cooperation with you, and we will play together next time.

” It must be sure!”

Everyone left one after another, talking and laughing.

It wasn’t until Bureau Zheng was about to leave that he sorted out his clothes and followed.

When Bureau Zheng was about to get into the car, Shang Qian stopped him:

“Junior Zheng...”

After all, he was born in the army. Although he was quite old, he was well-built and showed no signs of middle-aged fat.

Zheng He turned back and narrowed his eyes.

It can be seen that this person is Shang Qian, who has recently been in the city of A. His investment projects are not small, and his background is even more mysterious, but he is a low-key person.

The most high-profile time was the wedding with the eldest Miss of the Su Group.

But that time, not many people were able to attend the wedding, they were all relatives and friends they invited from the past.

What I don’t know is that he relies on the Su family to gain a firm foothold here.

But you know, when he came with a project that had never been seen before in China, he won the Z country market in one fell swoop, and also opened up the field of European smart technology. He is already a legendary figure.

But his field has very little contact with the political world, so there has been little contact.

In particular, he has no foundation in China, and it is because he settled down in the country during this time that he began to value his name gradually.

But...

Zheng He raised his eyes, smiled, and said with a bit of drunkenness:

“Mr. Shang, it’s getting late. If there is anything else, why don’t you talk about it next time?”

Shang Qian stepped forward steadily . , his eyebrows are warm and modest, the dark light in his eyes flashes, and there is a polite smile on his face, but there is no nonsense in what he said.

“Zheng Bureau, I have a few words. If I keep it until next time, I am afraid of delaying things, so I want to borrow a few minutes of your time. If you think it is useful, you can consider it

. As soon as the words came out, Zheng He’s face remained unchanged, and he looked at the driver with a smile.

The driver nodded, then left the car and walked to the far corner to wait.

Know the rules.

Zheng He stretched out his hand and pointed to the back seat in the car:

“If you don’t mind, please?”

He guessed that Shang Qian’s words wouldn’t be too light, otherwise he wouldn’t put it now.

Either way, he has to choose an environment where he feels more secure.

Shang Qian nodded slightly, and the two got into the car, half of his face in the shadows.

Zheng He took some guesses.

“Mr. Shang, aren’t you also interested in that military project?”

He also went straight and directly blocked Shang Qian’s mouth.

A lot of people have already expressed interest in that project tonight.

Some of the unqualified, he joked in a few words, and did not mention this matter.

Only Fu Yechuan and Su Jin discussed this project with him in depth, and he would choose one of the two groups that he liked the most.

Even Li Suizhou, who came from City B, is not qualified.

The purpose of tonight's meeting has been achieved, and the rest depends on who can show more sincerity between the Fu Group and the Su Group.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

In fact, with him, these two have passed the test.

Fu Yechuan was born in the army, so he has an advantage in this respect, not to mention the background strength of the Fu Group.

However, the ideas proposed by the Su Group are very creative, and in some aspects of construction are almost the same as their original intentions, and the Su Group has overlapping parts in some project areas, which is also their advantage.

Therefore, to make a real decision, further study and judgment are needed, and an attitude will not be revealed prematurely.

As for Shang Qian...

After listening to Zheng He's words, Shang Qian smiled, without much expectation and enthusiasm on his face.

At this moment, Zheng He was confused and didn't know what he really wanted to say.

After a few seconds, Shang Qian said lightly:

"Who wouldn't be interested? It's just that I know that I won't touch that project."

Zheng He breathed a sigh of relief, with a bit of regret in his words:

"Actually, business The overall strength is obvious to all, if there is a chance, I will recommend it, but..."

Since Shang Qian already has self-knowledge, it is not difficult to say the next words.

“But you also know that the military industry has extremely demanding background requirements. President Shang came back from country M, and he has a good reputation in country M. Country M is now eyeing our development in this area. We can't be careful, so... ..”

Zheng Huo paused, and the rest of the words were not spoken.

Shang Qian smiled, there was no disappointment on his face, he nodded understandingly:

“Of course I understand your concerns, this is not a problem that money can solve, and I will not rashly intervene in this project, your side I have my own considerations, and I will not be hard on others.”

Zheng He's face became lighter, and he raised his eyebrows, “Then what you want to say... Is it related to the Su Group?”

Although the Su Group participates in this project, it will only be decided after comprehensive research and judgment. Yes .”

He knew about the relationship between Shang Qian and the Su Group, and married the eldest lady of the Su Group, Su Jin's brother-in-law.

The two family members are even more powerful.

If Shang Qian spoke for the Su Group, it would make sense.

So Zheng He had a bottom line in his heart in an instant. It turned out that Shang Qian wanted to speak for the Su family.

The light inside the car was dim, and the expressions on each other's faces could not be seen clearly.

But when he heard Shang Qian chuckle, his voice was neither fast nor slow: “Neither.”

“Neither?”

Zheng He was startled.

Shang Qian loosened his collar and said,

“I have two military test bases in South Africa. They are not very large, but they have their own technological core and world-class weapons and equipment.

Most importantly, With Zheng Bureau, you have the core technology needed in the later stage of this military project.

The cooperation I want to talk about is not this project, but the core achievements behind the project.

By cooperating with me, your project can save at least ten years and surpass the world. Once the project is completed, it can become the top priority of the entire layout.”

For a while.

The atmosphere in the car cooled down, Zheng He’s heart was secretly shocked, and now, he can’t even utter a word.

The easy speculation just now was instantly dignified and surprised.

Zheng He couldn’t smile at all.

His heart was shocked at first, and then he reacted, and gradually ignited like a flame, and his excitement spread...

Finally, his eyes glowed, “Mr. Shang, you didn’t lie to me?”

If it is true, then This project has not yet seen success, and has the potential to become the most important strategic project in the country.

Shang Qian smiled and raised his hand to check the time:

“I will send the relevant information to your mailbox later, and it is not too late for you to decide after reading it.”

Zheng He didn’t know what to say for a while, and the whole person was in a state of extreme excitement:

“If your technology is no problem, then not to mention saving billions of costs here, not even time. There’s a problem.” After speaking, he suddenly calmed down and was stunned for a moment:

“Is the project you have your own? Or is there someone from M?”

He couldn't help worrying that if Shang Qian lied to him, he would lose in the end. It is still the interests of the country, and he himself will not be guaranteed.

Shang Qian said with a smile:

“In this sensitive investment, I will not cooperate with others, otherwise it is very important to be forcibly confiscated, which is why I choose South Africa.

If you are willing, wait and see . After the materials, you can pick two people over to see it, and I hope our cooperation can stand the test.”

Zheng He couldn't hide the smile no matter what, he reached out and patted Shang Qian's shoulder:

“It's really unbelievable. , President Shang, I would like to think that you are just an investor, but I didn't expect that the projects you invest in are so broad! It's amazing!”

Shang Qian's lips curled into a smile:

“It's just a whim, I didn't expect that you could still It will take a day.

Besides, I will live in country Z in the future, and my wife and daughter are not used to living abroad. If there is any problem, we can communicate at any time.”

The last sentence he said was undoubtedly to Zheng He took a reassurance pill.

“Oh? Miss Su gave birth to a daughter? We didn't get the news, congratulations!”

Shang Qian's smile deepened, and he nodded politely:

“Thank you, because she is still a little weak and doesn't want to be too tired, so we didn't spread the news, and we'll let everyone know when we have a chance to find a convenience!”

Zheng He was satisfied Nodding: “I will definitely come and have a glass of wine then!”

“Welcome!”

Shang Qian tidied up his cuffs, “It's almost time, Bureau Zheng should go back to rest, I can't disturb, then we'll do it next time. Talk!”

Zheng He was completely drunk at this time, and the whole person was very excited, how could he be willing to let him go?

But at the beginning, all the words were released, and I couldn't be too enthusiastic, so as not to be passive in the situation.

I could only look at him regretfully and think for a while:

“Okay, let's talk after I read the email.”

Shang Qian nodded with a smile, then pushed the door and got out of the car.

Zheng He also followed and sent him off.

Such a situation is rare.

“Wait, President Shang...”

He suddenly realized something.

A certain logic flashed through my mind.

Shang Qian turned back.

Zheng He: “You just want to cooperate? Are there any other conditions?”

Shang Qian: “Of course not. Does Zheng Bureau think that I will use this as a condition to let you give the project to the Su Group?”

Zheng He Squinted.

In the end is scheming, can not think too much.

Isn't that what he's worried about?

If this is the case, it will take a lot of effort for the person who has the final decision-making power.

“Don't you want the Su family to get this project?”

He asked back.

Shang Qian lowered his eyes, thought for a few seconds, and then said:

“My wife is from the Su Shi Group. Out of emotion and recognition of her ability, I certainly hope that the Su Group will get the project.

But you also said, what exactly is there? Who gets it depends on the final judgment.”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

, Shang Qian's words, are not leaking, and no one can find any faults.

Zheng He squinted his eyes in thought.

Shang Qian: "It may be that investors are used to it and changed their identities for a while. I have to make it clear.

After you test our cooperation, if the cooperation is reached, the project on my side is not allowed to exclude political and technical personnel. Outsiders interfered.

That is to say, the group that you will cooperate with in the future, whether it is the Su Group or the Fu Group, has no right to point fingers at me.

Even... at some point, they have to listen Mine."

After Shang Qian finished speaking, he quietly looked at Zheng He's expression.

The smile converges and gradually sinks.

Really an old fox.

You have picked up a bargain yourself, and you still don't allow others to make conditions?

Zheng He completely understood what Shang Qian meant.

Of course, it is best to choose the Su Group, and there will be no hostility between the two of them.

But the Fu Group is different.

Let Fu Yechuan listen to him?

As soon as the two met, they could not wait to fight.

At the banquet just now, I already felt that the aura between the two people was different.

Undercurrents are surging, but everyone sees it and doesn't say it.

Shang Qian looks warm and smooth on the surface, but no one can understand the heart behind him.

At this time, Zheng He felt that he had underestimated him before!

If he had approached him from the start to bring this up.

Maybe he was completely partial to the Su Group and made it clear to Fu Yechuan, so he wouldn't stop Fu Yechuan from coming to the stage now.

Yes, if the Fu Group fails to compete this time, it will indeed be difficult to come down to Taiwan.

After all, judging from the current situation, Fu Yechuan's advantage occupies most of the hope.

It is even more hopeful than the Su Group!

Once Shang Qian's conditions are told to Fu Yechuan, Fu Yechuan will definitely not cooperate with him.

Zheng He was upset for a while.

He had been in the officialdom for so many years, how could he not see what Shang Qian meant?

This method is really high!

There was a stagnation in the air.

Shang Qian smiled, and looked at Zheng He lightly:

"Zheng Bureau don't have to rush to reply me, the choice is in your hands, you can make a decision after weighing the pros and cons."

He smiled and nodded, then turned and left.

Seeing this, Zheng He's driver trotted over and opened the door for Zheng He:

"Zheng Bureau..."

Zheng He was stunned for a moment, and then got into the car.

The conditions offered by Shang Qian were too tempting to refuse.

Even if it is considered above, it should be agreed.

it was a little dark.

Shang Qian saw that it was getting late, and he had no other information in his hand. Did Su Nan have enough fun?

After getting in the car, I took out my phone to make a call.

After a few beeps, he was picked up:

“Mr. Shang, come pick up your wife, she

’s drinking too much!” It was Qin Yu who spoke, and she herself was drunk.

Shang Qian paused, his heart tightened, and he felt helpless.

Even with the amount of alcohol Su Nan has, he is still greedy for a glass, which is really helpless!

He immediately drove to Qin Yu’s side.

Shen Liang was on a business trip for a project, and Qin Yu took Su Nan to taste his collection of good wine, and they both drank too much accidentally.

Shang Qian knocked on the door and went in, and it was the servant at home who came to open the door.

“Mr. Shang, Miss Su is inside...”

Shang Qian thanked him and went in.

Seeing Su Nan lying on the sofa sleeping, Qin Yu was videotaping with Shen Liang with her mobile phone, while rummaging for something...

Shang Qian frowned, walked over and patted Su Nan on the shoulder, she She had already fallen asleep, and she had no intention of waking up.

When Qin Yu looked back and saw him, he was very surprised:

“Shang Qian, when did you come, why didn’t you tell me?”

asked her to work overtime

. Qin Yu touched her hair, and suddenly realized, "I forgot, why am I at your house, I'll leave now!"

She took her mobile phone and went out.

The person on the phone said in a suppressed tone:

"Qin Yu, hurry back to your room and go to bed!"

In a word, Qin Yu was stunned in place.

She looked around dully, trying to recognize whose home this place is?

Shang Qian hugged Su Nan.

"Miss Qin, go back and rest. I'll take Su Nan with me."

Fortunately, they drank at home. If it was outside, it would be a lot of trouble.

Qin Yu was stunned for a while, "Oh, go back, goodbye!"

A voice came from the phone in her hand again:

"Qin Yu, hurry up and go back to sleep, next time you drink so much wine, what do you think I will do? Clean up you!"

Shen Liang is really a man of many harsh words, and he was so angry that he was helpless in the video.

The servant sent Shang Qian out, while exhorting:

"Mr. Shang, go back and have someone make some sober soup for Miss Su before going to bed, or she will have a headache the next day, they don't drink a lot, just a lot of wine. It's all mixed together, so the reaction is so big..."

Shang Qian thanked him, and then walked away with Su Nan in his arms.

The servant went back to see Qin Yu reaching for the wine in the wine cabinet again, so frightened that she hurried over to stop her.

“Madam, don’t drink anymore!”

Her phone was thrown on the sofa at some point.

The men in the video are going crazy.

“Aunt Sun, take this woman into the bedroom. If she doesn’t obey, just lock the door and leave her alone!” The servant promised again and again, but didn’t dare to pull her hard.

This lady has been precious and precious since she was a child, and she can leave a mark with just a touch. Don’t look at what Shang Qian said. If she sees it later, I don’t know how much I feel sorry for her!

She went over to hold the wine bottle and carefully coaxed Qin Yu into the bedroom:

“Ma’am, let’s go drink in the bedroom, I’ll clean it up!”

Qin Yu followed the bottle in a daze:

“That’s good. Ah, where’s Su Nan, where has she been?”

“Miss Su is home, and her husband just came to pick it up!” The servant sighed as she spoke, it was she who made the phone call just now!

Fortunately, the wine bottle in the servant’s hand was already empty, Qin Yu just held it and didn’t let go. She burped while lying on the bed, and fell asleep in a daze.

Aunt Sun gave her hot water, wiped her face, covered the quilt, and went out carefully.

Before Qin Yu’s video call was hung up, Shen Liang’s voice came out:

“She fell asleep?”

Aunt Sun went over: “Yes, my wife is very obedient after drinking too much, she has already fallen asleep.”

Shen Liang sarcastically With a chuckle, is she obedient?

But after laughing, I still ordered Aunt Sun:

“Go and cook her a bowl of sober soup. Don’t look back and have a stomachache. I’ll go back in two days. Take a good look at her, and don’t let her drink these days.”

Aunt Sun responded again and again. , My heart is beating, how can she control his wife?

But Shen Liang thought of this afterward.

He turned around and called the company.

“Is the company not busy recently?”

For convenience, he chose one of his own to be Qin Yu’s assistant, Zeng Yao.

With good looks and sweet mouth, Qin Yu has no objection to this assistant.

Zeng Yao immediately replied: “I’m busy, Mr. Shen, I didn’t go home to rest last night, aren’t you anxious for Chenfeng’s cooperation case?”

Shen Liang paused: “I think you, Mr. Qin, are very busy. You are so busy and ask President Qin to help you more, otherwise you will not want overtime pay.”

Zeng Yao: “President Shen, what do you mean... let President Qin work overtime

A mouthful of dog food

Zeng Yao had to ask clearly.

Before Shen Liang’s business trip, he clearly instructed that the company’s affairs should not affect Qin Yu’s normal life.

That is to say, they have solved the trivial matters below.

What does this call mean now?

Make her work overtime?

He was afraid that he would be wrong, so he wanted to ask clearly.

Shen Liang said in a light voice across the phone:

“Just find something for her to do, because I’m not here, Mr. Qin has a little insomnia. If she can divert her attention, she will be better.”

Zeng Yao: “Understood, Mr. Shen can rest assured. Well, make sure that President Qin can fall asleep as soon as he gets home!”

It turned out to be the case.

Before he knew it, he ate another mouthful of dog food!

Shen Liang hummed and hung up the phone with satisfaction.

As expected of the person he picked, he really knows everything!

the next day.

Qin Yu woke up and felt sick in her stomach. Fortunately, Aunt Sun prepared sober soup, and she felt much better after drinking it.

Originally, she planned not to go to work for a day, how comfortable it would be to sleep in bed all day!

But suddenly something happened in the company.

Zeng Yao kept calling one after another:

“Mr. Qin, there seems to be a problem with the cooperation case. Would you like to come to the company to take a look?”

“Mr. Qin, the lawyer said to study the agreement. Would you like to come and participate?”

“Qin Boss, everyone has a dinner at noon, and I especially hope that you can attend!”

“President Qin...”

All in all, Qin Yu’s phone calls never stopped.

She turned off the phone, and the call went to the landline at home, and there was not a moment of calm.

Finally unplugged the wire.

Not long after, I called Aunt Sun.

Aunt Sun hesitated and knocked on the door: "Ma'am, the company said something happened. If you don't go, they will come to the house to find you to make up your mind!"

Qin Yu went to change her clothes reluctantly.

She never knew that she played such a big role in the company!

It looks like she can't function for a moment without her!

Thirty minutes later, she arrived at the company coldly and watched everyone talking and laughing about what to eat for lunch.

Is this going to cost 100,000 in a hurry?

Zeng Yao came out of the office and walked over with a smile:

"Mr. Qin, you are finally here!"

Qin Yu pouted: "I thought if I didn't come, the company would go bankrupt, but Shen Liangke never told me, the position of vice president is so important, it seems that my salary is really too little!"

Zeng Yao heard the reluctance in her tone, and said quickly:

"President Qin, President Shen is not here, everyone regards you as the backbone. , you are the lady boss again, who are we not looking for you?"

Qin Yu snorted coldly and walked into the office.

"I've ordered coffee for you, and I'll get it later when I arrive."

"Thank you, President Qin!"

Zeng Yao went in with a stack of documents when he followed.

Qin Yu was stunned when she saw it.

"What is this?"

"This is Chenfeng's project information. Mr. Shen is anxious to get an initial quotation from them on a business trip, but I still have a lot of things to do. Can you please..."

Qin Yu looked at him in shock:

"I'm the vice president!"

"I know," Zeng Yao scratched his head and smiled embarrassedly, "but these are all secrets, so don't worry about handing them over to outsiders. Going out, Mr. Shen's side will fall short!"

Qin Yu swallowed her saliva speechlessly, so the importance of this project is that she has to rummage through this group of materials?

Qin Yu frowned, her face was very ugly and unpleasant:

"Then I will do this kind of work from now on?"

Zeng Yao pursed his lips and smiled embarrassedly:

"Mr. Qin, Mr. Shen took away the people from the project department. , if they can keep people, it won't be like this."

looked at Qin Yu's reluctance, Zeng Yao coughed and said,

"If you really don't want to do it, just wait for me to do all the work at hand. I'll do it when I'm done, but I'll have to wait until tomorrow to delay some time..."

Seeing his embarrassed look, Qin Yu rolled her eyes.

In a good time, she is a vice president, and she wants to do things here that these little staff don't do!

Hehe...

"Okay, let it go, I'll look for it."

She was really helpless, but there was no other way!

When Shen Liang comes back, she must talk about this issue!

Zeng Yao's eyes lit up: "Really? Thank you, Mr. Qin, no wonder Mr. Shen said that if something happens, he will ask Mr. Qin to make up his mind. It's really not wrong!"

She twitched the corners of her mouth: "Stop talking nonsense, let's go. "

Zeng Yao nodded, and in a blink of an eye, the person was gone.

Qin Yu: "..."

Zeng Yao went out and sent a message to Shen Liang:

"Mr. Shen, if President Qin asks you to complain, I hope you won't deduct my salary!"

After all, he was also under orders!

Shen Liang replied: "I'll give you a raise!"

"Thank you boss!"

.....

Su Zhai.

Su Nan was still a little nervous when she slept. After she woke up, Shang Qian had already gone to the company.

She had forgotten how she got back, only remembered that she and Qin Yu had drunk a lot, but what happened later, she forgot all about it!

It was said that the children slept day and night, but now they were held in Su Yifeng's arms and fell asleep again.

Su Nan wanted to hug her in the past, but Su Yifeng refused to let her go, and told her not to disturb the children's sleep.

She curled her lips: "Dad, I haven't given a name yet!"

Su Yifeng glanced at her, "I picked the nickname, let Shang Qian pick the name, otherwise this father would be too uninvolved. "

Su Nan nodded, she doesn't have any opinion on anyone, as long as it sounds nice.

The uncle, the housekeeper, brought her a bowl of soup and said,

"Miss, let's have something to eat for a while, so that my stomach will feel better."

Su Nan touched her stomach, of course she wanted to eat, she smiled and nodded:

"I want to eat . Bird's nest."

Uncle the housekeeper smiled: "I've already prepared it!"

Su Yifeng chuckled: "Go, can you go out later?"

Su Nan hesitated.

Su Yifeng continued: "Mike's school is going on holiday. I plan to let him live at home and take care of him easily."

Su Nan paused, "Is it Shang Qian's eldest son?"

"It's yours too."

Su Yifeng was helpless.

Su Nan didn't even remember Shang Qian, and of course he didn't remember little Mike.

But in order to fear her misunderstanding, they have made the relationship clear.

In terms of identity, little Mike and Shang Qian have a father-son relationship, but in fact it is only an uncle and nephew relationship.

Little Mike was too young to say it so early.

Su Nan already knew that, but she felt a little distressed about this child.

"Okay, then I'll go pick him up?"

"You know him?"

"Didn't he know me?"

Su Nan said naturally.

Anyway, it's all my own, so I don't have to worry about not recognizing it, and it's not that I haven't met.

Su Yifeng nodded: "Let the housekeeper go with you, I'm worried you won't be able to find anyone."

"Okay."

Of course she had no objection.

After a simple meal, Su Nan went over to hug and talk about the children, and went upstairs to change clothes.

A beige dress complemented her beautiful complexion. She took her small bag and went downstairs, and saw that the housekeeper had already packed up and was waiting for her.

“Miss, shall we go?”

Su Nan nodded.

The car was parked in front of the school.

Looking at the time, there are five minutes left for school.

Just in time, Shang Qian sent a WeChat message:

“What are you doing?”

Su Nan thought about it, took a picture of the school and sent it to him.

Shang Qian replied: “So soon to choose a school?”

Su Nan couldn't help but chuckle a little, did he think he was talking about children choosing a school?

“I'm here to pick up little Mike from school, isn't he going on vacation?”

Shang Qian: “Really?”

Su Nan: “...”

Are they really father and son who have lived together for many years?

Shang Qian was a little guilty, and he didn't have the heart to work at the moment, but it was too late to see the time pass.

He directly called the servant who took care of little Mike:

“Master is on vacation?” The servant was stunned for a moment: “Yeah, it will be a holiday tomorrow.” I sent you a message, and you replied ‘I know’...” Could it be that you just replied, but didn’t take it to heart? Originally, they thought that Shang Qian would ignore little Mike when he had his own child, but now that he has a daughter, isn’t little Mike even more pitiful? Shang Qian was silent for a moment before replying: “Well, I saw it, I was too busy to forget.” After speaking, he hung up the phone. When it was time to get off work, he didn’t hesitate, just took the clothes and left. Mike was never a fussy kid. But he really neglected this time. After five minutes. Su Nan saw the curly-haired little boy, who was almost as high as her waist. The little thing was white and tender, and it was very good-looking. At first glance, it looked like a half-blood, making people want to pinch that little face.

“Beautiful sister!”

Little Mike ran over happily, pointed at Su Nan, and then hugged her tightly.

Su Nan blinked, she was quite nervous in the car just now, and didn’t know what to say in the first sentence.

There seems to be nothing to say now.

This kid is quite familiar.

He didn’t want to let go after holding enough, raised his head to look at her, those azure blue eyes were clean and clear, like the surface of a pure lake.

“Is the beautiful sister specially here to pick me up?”

Su Nan nodded with a smile, “Of course, you are staying at my house during the holiday, right?” “Okay, I can live with my beautiful sister, I can live anywhere!”

As if smeared with honey.

Su Nan smiled, and Uncle Steward came over to get his things:

“Little Master, get in the car?”

Little Mike nodded excitedly: “Thank you, Grandpa Steward.”

Then he went in and sat with Su Nan.

Su Nan could feel that this child liked her very much.

It's the kind of genuine love.

So is she.

Little Mike took out a book from his bag, "This is for you, beautiful sister, this is my gift..."

Su Nan was stunned for a moment, and saw that it was a French science and technology book. is thicker than a fist.

Pure French.

She blinked, smiled and said, "Thank you."

It's just a night reading.

"Open it and see."

Little Mike looked at her expectantly.

Su Nan paused and opened it in front of him.

one look.

A small shallow arc was dug inside, and a bunch of dried bouquets were placed.

The bouquets are very beautiful and very common, but the most rare thing is that the colors are bright and undiminished, as if they have retained the time of spring, and they are even more delicate and beautiful than those in professional flower shops.

"Did you do this?"

Su Nan was a little surprised.

Little Mike raised his chin proudly: "Of course, I was going to give it to you last vacation, but Daddy signed me up for the summer camp in Country F, and I've dragged it on until now."

He pouted . , very arrogant.

Su Nan carefully put it away.

"Thank you, I like it very much."
