Chapter 251 to be announced?

Chapter 251 is it going to be announced?

Silence for a moment.

The reporter continued to ask questions, but this time the question was eased a lot.

“Then, can there be an explanation for Professor Meng Kang’s video?”

If you admit plagiarism, it is Professor Meng Kang’s fraud!

This is the most intolerable existence in academia!

Su Nan smiled, a bright smile with a magnanimous confidence.

She stood up, her voice soft and firm.

“The results of the tripartite cooperation project are not the so-called Meng Kang, but the secrets stolen by Meng Kang.

Now, let me introduce the central figure of our research, the scientist who once won the top Similan Gold Award in the industry, Su Ming. .”

As soon as her voice fell, the voices in the venue were instantly quiet, and everyone was as sluggish as chickens.

From another door of the venue, a gentle and handsome young man walked out calmly.

The genius scientist who could only be seen on TV or in magazines is now in front of you.

Su Ming’s temperament is not like a traditional scientist, pedantic and dull, on the contrary, he has a luxurious sense of indifference.

As a reporter, who doesn’t know Su Ming?

In an instant, there was warm applause in the venue!

Countless flashes of lights flickered incessantly.

As we all know, this great god does not like to be interviewed, and it is a pleasant surprise to let him say a few words.

He was willing to come forward to explain this trivial matter?

As soon as Su Ming appeared, all the rumors were self-defeating.

His status is world-class certified, needless to say.

Meng Kang's innuendo is simply a play directed and acted by himself!

What kind of expert professor, compared with Su Ming, his status is simply insignificant and not worth mentioning.

Dare to touch the porcelain of the Great God?

I am afraid that the entire industry will no longer have a place for Meng Kang.

He deliberately stood there for a few seconds, and then heard Su Nan's gentle voice.

"Come up and sit..."

Su Ming obediently walked around from the side, saw Su Nan smiling, and the two looked at each other with a tacit understanding.

The reporters' cameras didn't miss the moment.

"It's so sweet..."

"Is Su always a male god harvester?"

"It's worth dying to be seen by the great god!"

"Mr. Su married me..."

Su Ming sat down Next, he smiled without pressure and began to explain the matter.

Maybe no one noticed that Ringo and Fu Yechuan on the side had very complicated expressions.

Ringo spoke in a low voice that only the two of them could hear.

"I really invited the Great God, Mr. Su has a lot of face, and I don't believe it if they say it doesn't matter..."

Fu Yechuan's face was gloomy and cold, and the appearance of Su Ming made him very unhappy.

"What does it have to do with you?"

Ringo smiled when he heard the unpleasantness in his words.

"Yes, it has something to do with you. You have another rival in love."

Fu Yechuan's expression turned cold, and just as he was about to speak, he suddenly heard a reporter gossip.

"Mr. Su, what's your relationship with God Su Ming? Are you a friend? Or a boyfriend or girlfriend?"

The atmosphere at the venue kept quiet.

Everyone is waiting for an answer.

Although this question is out of line, someone can interrupt and block it at any time and change the topic.

But Su Nan did not show any unhappiness.

She smiled lightly, and looked at Su Ming.

Don't lower your voice.

"Do you want to announce it?"

Everyone's hearts were raised.

Su Ming: "Let's look at your needs."

Everyone's hearts were raised in their throats.

Seems to be facing a huge news!

Should not be missed!

Fu Yechuan's face was tense and ugly, his hands were instantly clenched, and his fists were clenched tightly.

Su Nan paused for a few seconds, deliberately hanging everyone's appetite.

She smiled meaningfully.

The atmosphere instantly became tense.

Under the spotlight, in front of many reporters, she took Su Ming's hand and clasped her fingers together.

Her voice was gentle with a hint of pride.

"Then let me introduce to you, this is my second brother Su Ming, Su of the Su Group, and Su of my father Su Yifeng, a very powerful scientist."

...

Chapter 252 She is like a little white rabbit

Chapter 252 She just finished speaking like a little white rabbit

, and the field was silent.

In the next second, violent cheers erupted instantly!

The online barrage is even more intense.

"I'm going! What kind of reversal is this!"

"I thought I was about to lose my love, and President Su married me!"

"Ah, ah, why didn't you give me one of Su Nan's three immortal brothers?"

"I thought Su After Qi becomes Young Master Su, there will be no more secrets. How did the Su family cultivate elites in various industries?"

"The Great God Su Ming turned out to be a rich second generation! No one knows about such a low-key background!"

"You can totally rely on your family, but you have to rely on your own benchmark."

"We Yu Fei still have a chance, Mr. Su remembers to miss him..."

...

In the venue, everyone's voices were covered. The original tone of speech was extended by more than half an hour.

Ringo didn't let go of Fu Yechuan's sleeve.

"Did you hear it?"

Fu Yechuan suddenly returned to his senses, of course he heard it.

Su Nan's voice filled his mind.

Like a loop, it repeats and plays continuously.

Su Ming is the son of the Su Group and the elder brother of Su Nan.

He should have thought that Su Ming is also surnamed Su...

On the surface, he was calm and calm, but he couldn't help but cheer up.

I was almost overwhelmed by anger just now.

Ringo's tone was rather regretful.

"I didn't expect it to be a brother and sister. It seems that President Su doesn't like the type of Su Ming..." Fu Yechuan's mouth was slightly raised, and the edges and corners of his mandible were distinct, which made his whole personality look noble and noble. Incomparable.

"Su Nan's vision has always been very high..."

Otherwise, how could he have liked him in the first place...

After that, Ringo didn't want to pay attention to this person anymore.

Praise yourself in a different way?

It's a pity that Su Nan's taste has changed.

At the end of the press conference, Su Nan and Su Ming politely sent people away.

The reporters gained a lot today, not only seeing Fu Yechuan's rare smile, but also the appearance of Su Ming, which was a pleasant surprise.

Ringo and Fu Yechuan said goodbye at the door. Ringo's assistant urged him many times. He watched Fu Yechuan check the time again and again.

Not in a hurry or slow, it's really leisurely.

His eyes swept over Su Nan, who was arranging the rest of the work in the venue, and the refreshing and sassy dress was indeed eye-catching.

He smiled and sighed softly.

“I didn’t expect that such a tricky thing would be solved by Su Nan in one move.

Although he broke his arm, the good reputation of the Su Group is a certainty. This time, we won a beautiful victory

! The one who retreated from the mall was Su Nan, the little fox.”

Fu Yechuan’s eyes sank slightly, his expression seemed a little dissatisfied.

His voice was low and hoarse.

“She is obviously a little white rabbit.”

In his opinion, her methods were still too soft.

Although everything was handled properly, the top management of City J should take full responsibility, not just lose money.

Ringo twitched the corners of his mouth, and his eyes flashed.

Some speechless.

Su Nan had already come over, with an official polite smile and no extra emotions.

Without looking at Fu Yechuan, he spoke directly to Ringo.

“This matter will pass quickly. I’m really sorry for causing trouble for everyone.”

Ringo raised his eyebrows and didn’t care.

“It’s good that the matter is settled. President Su has done a very good job. Today’s news must be enough to bring the Su Group’s falling stock price back to its peak, congratulations...”

He was referring to Su Ming’s announcement of his identity.

Su Nan smiled, “It’s obviously a win-win situation. I also congratulate President Lin.”

“It’s getting late, I have something to do in my company. See you later.”

After Lingo finished speaking, he nodded slightly, glanced at Fu Yechuan, and turned to leave. .

Fu Yechuan looked at Su Nan, who was elegant and decent in every gesture, and looked at him with an official smirk.

My heart sank slightly.

“I would also like to thank President Fu for asking President Lin to remind me of what happened in J City.”

Su Nan spoke first.

Fu Yechuan pondered slightly, “Then how are you going to thank me?”

...

Chapter 253 Unfortunate news

Chapter 253 Unfortunate news,

eh?

Su Nan was startled, a little surprised.

Shouldn't his next words be: No thanks, a hand?

The freak Fu Yechuan really didn't play cards according to the routine.

Su Nan rolled his eyes in his heart and smiled calmly on the surface.

“I just thanked me.”

After that, she raised her foot and was about to leave.

Fu Yechuan spoke behind her.

“Whether you believe it or not, what happened to Song Chi that night has nothing to do with me.”

His expression was tense and a little ugly.

Who is Fu Yechuan, who will keep it in his heart because of a trivial matter?

And he even opened his mouth to explain?

In his mind, he repeatedly remembered the way she looked at him that night.

Total distrust.

It was like there was a knife cutting out his heart.

For the first time, he felt the helplessness of being untrusted.

She kicked him out of her world, so she stopped believing a word of him.

Su Nan's back froze slightly as he turned his back.

She remembered Yu Lou's investigation, so she completely forgot about it.

For her, yes or no, it doesn't matter.

Fu Yechuan's attitude and explanation were somewhat inexplicable.

"Mr. Fu, it doesn't matter whether it's true or not, this matter has passed."

Su Nan smiled and left.

The matter of plagiarism is a certainty, and the so-called Professor Meng Kang has become a street rat that everyone yells at.

The person who stole the chip was a little lover of Professor Meng Kang, an intern who had just joined the Juli Group, and a classmate of Shen Li's relatives.

It has now been transferred to the police station.

Companies in City J have already begun bankruptcy proceedings.

Su Yi Nian refused to give up easily, and repeatedly came to the Su Group and refused to leave. Those who made a fuss would have to see Su Yifeng.

"How dare you treat me like this? I'm from the Su family too!"

Su Nan was sitting in the office eating dessert.

Yu Lou looked at her face.

"Or, let the security ask people out?"

In fact, the employees have already had this idea.

It's just because Su Yinian is Su Nan's second uncle, he doesn't dare to come forward and propose.

Su Nan looked gloomy when looking at the photos on the computer from the people in J City.

"Invite the second uncle in."

Yu Lou was slightly surprised, but he didn't dare to object, so he went out immediately.

"I thought you were hiding and didn't dare to see anyone, Su Nan, why are you so cold-blooded..."

Su Yi Nian's beard was unshaven, and he didn't look like he had cleaned up.

I'm afraid I've only been anxious to get angry these days.

Su Nan poured him a cup of tea and put it on the table.

"Second uncle, let me tell you some unfortunate news."

Su Yinian was taken aback.

Su Nan's voice was calm and indifferent.

"Just ten minutes ago, the financial department of the company in J city found that all the funds on your account were gone, and all the real estate and fund stocks under your name were sold.

You have to compensate the partner. Money, even the fraction is gone..."

Before Su Yinian could sit down, his body stiffened and he suddenly coughed.

His face flushed red.

"You... you are talking nonsense!"

Su Nan cast the photo on the computer directly on the wall.

Let him see clearly.

"When you came here to make trouble, your lover and daughter have already run away with the money, and took the security guard husband and flew away. Second uncle, are you not even that wary of outsiders?"

Su Yinian's face was ashen and ugly. .

His red eyes were cloudy and cloudy, and he stared at the pictures on the wall.

Three people and two women coaxed him around softly all day long.

In the photo, the two women are supporting a middle-aged man with a squat body at this time, and the sneaky back can't help but make people imagine.

He is no stranger to that man.

After Su Nan's birthday party, he asked someone to investigate.

Shen Jie's husband, Shen Li's father.

And now, he is making trouble here like a joke!

Looking at his reaction, Su Nan knew that the heat was almost over.

"Second uncle, my father said that he can take the compensation for you, but the condition is that you withdraw from all of Su's business, including... give up the shares of Su's group that you secretly bought."

Words, needless to say too slow, point to the end.

Chapter 254, of course to go

Chapter 254 Of course,

Su Yinian's body froze fiercely, and his face was inexplicably ugly.

"You...you actually know?"

He thought that things had been done secretly enough.

I specifically picked those small shareholders who later joined the Su Group to buy their shares. Unexpectedly, they were discovered.

Su Nan smiled.

"The Su Group is my dad's hard work, not ancestral property. Logically, there is no reason to get a share of your pie.

I haven't broken anything about you. It's my dad who is worried about breaking up with your brother. If the trouble continues, this The affection is gone..."

Su Yinian was completely speechless, and there was a hint of remorse in his eyes.

At this time, he is no longer as angry as when he just came.

Like an eggplant beaten by frost, no.

Su Nan put the printed photo in Su Yinian's hand, "Second uncle, you don't want the money of the Su family to fall into the hands of those two women?"

Su Yinian turned around without saying a word go.

Su Nan snorted softly, lowered his head and sent a text message to Su Yifeng: It's time to go home!

Yu Lou looked at him in surprise, "Mr. Su, do you want to capture Shen Jie and Shen Li's mother and daughter?"

Such a large sum of money took away almost all the belongings of the enterprises in J City.

Su Nan raised an eyebrow.

"No need, let the second uncle find it, he will have a sense of accomplishment in what he does in person..."

Only when he arrests people in person will he know how much he hates them!

When this matter was settled, Su Jindu couldn't help but praise her for a long time when she was in the meeting.

Now that everyone in the group knows about this matter, Su Nan's method is straightforward, not at all a novice who is just entering the workplace, nor a daughter who knows nothing, which is indeed impressive.

Fu Group.

When Fu Yechuan came out of the conference room just now, Chen Mian followed.

"Mr. Fu, the invitation list for the World Business Conference is out, and you are on the invitation list again. Do you need to arrange your itinerary in advance?"

This kind of conference is a private gathering of famous entrepreneurs in the world, and it does not matter how expensive they are.

What I really look at is my influence in the world business community.

There are only a dozen or so places in the world, and many people have only heard of it, but have not seen it with their own eyes.

Fu Yechuan blinked when he saw that Chen Mian was holding the black and luxurious gilded invitation.

“Isn’t it possible to invite members to participate?”

Chen Mian looked shocked.

As an introducer, there are also people who bring a rising star in the shopping mall when they attend the conference every year.

But few people bring people to the meeting, because the stability of a circle depends on the balance of various reference values.

Some people come and some people leave.

“President Fu... Who do you want to bring?”

Lu Qi?

I’m afraid he doesn’t have the qualifications, right?

Fu Yechuan frowned slightly, and gave him a heavy look.

“Give the invitation to Su Nan, it’s up to her to decide whether to go or not.”

His voice was a little cold, and he went straight into the office after speaking.

Chen Mian didn’t guess Fu Yechuan’s mind, so he couldn’t wait to beat his chest!

At this time, will there be other candidates?

of course not!

It’s just such a high-level closed private business meeting. As soon as Su Nan came forward, the momentum of the Su family became even more unstoppable.

Su Group’s office.

Su Nan looked at the invitation in front of her and did not write the name of the specific inviter, but she could feel the heavy weight of the invitation.

It’s not like any conference I’ve been to before.

She had heard about the mystery of this conference when she went to school in Europe to start a business.

How many people can’t get in without breaking their heads...

Yu Lou looked at Su Nan carefully, when Chen Mian left just now, something was wrong with her.

“Mr. Su, do you want to go or not? I see what Assistant Chen Mian means, Mr. Fu will definitely go to this meeting...”

“Go, of course.”

Chapter 255 There are still fifty seconds

Chapter 255

Yu Lou was very shocked. Usually, where Fu Yechuan appeared, Su Nan could not wait to retreat and was unwilling to meet. Why did he not avoid this meeting?

Su Nan held the invitation card and raised her eyebrows slightly, although she wondered how Fu Yechuan would be so kind and tell her about such an opportunity.

But she will not let this rare opportunity pass.

“Book a plane ticket for me...”

Su Nan looked at Yu Lou and said.

Yu Lou paused, “Assistant Chen said that Mr. Fu has already booked. If Mr. Su wants to go, just get on the plane.”

Su Nan: “...”

Fu Yechuan, a nasty bastard, also said I really saw her very clearly.

After a while, she went directly to Su Jin with the invitation.

“Big brother, that bastard Fu Yechuan gave me this invitation, I’m going to take a look.”

Su Jin was still a little surprised when he saw it, but he smiled and was very calm.

“I originally wanted to take you there in a few years. You are young and have little qualifications, so people won’t take them too seriously, but if you want to join in the fun, you can.”

Su Nan looked at him happily.

“Brother, are you going too?”

Su Jin opened the drawer and took out a thick stack of invitations. The organizers were all sponsors of the R country business conference.

“I’ve never been there once, so I’m too lazy to deal with them.”

Su Nan swallowed silently.

Sure enough, Su Jin inadvertently revealed the temperament of a Versailles boss, which has never disappointed anyone.

Two days later.

Su Nan appeared at the airport in a low-key manner with a little tiger wearing an Italian cashmere Malo shawl.

Su Xiaohu was tightly wrapped in a shawl, but every now and then he stuck his head out to see the excitement around him.

If it weren’t for the fear of causing riots, Su Nan wouldn’t have to do this.

“You’re good, I’ll let you come out to play when you get to country R.”

On the plane, there was no one next to the business class.

Su Nan paused, and suddenly received an unfamiliar text message on his phone.

“Mr. Su, Mr. Fu has something to do temporarily. The flight is changed to seven o’clock in the evening. Someone will pick you up when you go. Chen Mian.”

She frowned slightly and sneered coldly.

That’s really good.

Otherwise, it would be very hard to take the same flight...

Su Xiaohu has attracted a lot of attention along the way, although she has explained it many times, this is an intelligent tiger.

Su Xiaohu also cooperated with her. According to the way she was shutting down during the drill, she lay obediently in Su Nan’s palm and pretended to be dead

. Leaving, Su Nan touched its head.

“It’s over, Su Xiaohu, you just pretended to be a cat.”

...

The plane took off smoothly, Su Nan looked at the documents for a while, and was just about to squint for a while, when he suddenly heard a “Boom—” Boom!

The whole plane began to vibrate violently!

Su Nan was so frightened that he woke up instantly, only to feel the plane shaking violently, as if he could no longer control it!

People around started screaming and calling for help, the crew’s English and cries began to sound at the same time...

No one was in the mood to listen...

She hugged Su Xiaohu tightly in an instant, her face was pale, only gray clouds could be seen outside, accompanied by lightning and thunder, strange and terrifying!

If I had known, she would not come!

Su Xiaohu struggled out, his pupils turned, and infrared rays swept in the direction of the nose.

But in just a few seconds, the artificial intelligence system finally played its normal function.

Its sound is serious.

“Mama, the power system of the aircraft has been irreversibly damaged. It is still 5,000 feet from the ground. It is currently at 80 east longitude and 100 north latitude. The braking system of the aircraft cannot land at the airport, and it is very likely to crash.”

Su Nan ‘s face paled.

“What should I do?”

Everyone’s desperate voices were right in their ears, and she shuddered as she held the armrest tightly, her eyes bleak.

From her countless experiences to the present, she swears that she never thought she would die in this way today.

All kinds of past experiences seem to be insignificant and not worth mentioning.

“Mama, put on a life jacket, put on an oxygen mask, and the plane is out of control in a minute, get ready to parachute, the chance of survival, fifty percent...”

“Fifty percent? Are you fooling the ghost? “

Su Nan's pale face followed Su Xiaohu's instructions step by step. Although his hands were shaking constantly, it never stopped.

"Fifty seconds...forty seconds..."

"Bang——" The

world stopped for a second.

Chapter 256 She is on the death list

Chapter 256 She is on the death list of the Fu Corporation.

It was almost dusk when Fu Yechuan came out of the conference room.

The setting sun hung obliquely on the treetop branches outside the office, like countless ordinary evenings.

He had forty minutes to get on the plane. He didn't forget that Su Nan was waiting for him in Country R.

He loosened his tie and was about to ask Chen Mian to fetch the signed documents when he saw Chen Mian running in from the outside in a hurry.

A pale and flustered face.

Chen Mian has been his assistant for so many years, and he has never been so rude.

"Fu...President Fu..."

Fu Yechuan frowned, his brows slightly calm, waiting for him to finish.

"I got the news an hour ago that the flight that Miss Su took, the plane crashed. After searching and verifying, it was determined that... no one survived."

Chen Mian's voice became lower and lower, and the last four words were almost just Lips are moving.

Behind Fu Yechuan was a huge floor-to-ceiling window, and at a glance, he could see the elder who was pulling his tall and slender figure by the sunset.

At this time, the temperature in the office was as cold and gloomy as an ice cellar.

Fu Yechuan's face gradually became stiff, dark, and a huge storm was brewing in his deep eyes.

“What did you say?”

His voice was hoarse and cold, with scarlet bloodshots in his eyes.

He must have heard it wrong!

Chen Mian didn't even have the courage to repeat what he just said, his eyes were red.

“It's true, Miss Su's name is written on the death list.

Everyone in the Su Group has been informed that Chairman Su Yifeng has returned from H Nan, and was hospitalized with excessive sadness...”

After he finished speaking, there was a deadly silence in the office, accompanied by a strong chill, and a huge sadness that pervaded the surroundings.

Fu Yechuan stood there stiffly, staring at Chen Mian.

He never felt that his heart was pierced by a blunt instrument, and the barb's thorn was pulled out, dripping with blood.

Can't even say the pain.

Only felt numbness and trembling.

At that moment, his whole body was cold and trembling, as if his soul had been taken away by life, his face was pale and bloodless.

In the next second, he waved and swept the items on the table to the ground with sadness and anger.

“I don't believe it, she won't die, how could she die!”

he roared, clenching his teeth.

Su Nan is a person who loves life!

She is positive, optimistic, cheerful, beautiful and generous, and always has her happy and unhappy written on her face.

Even when Song Chi asked someone to kidnap her, she didn't even frown.

In those three years, she always looked at him with expectant and tender eyes.

After the divorce, she lived so recklessly.

She was playing the violin on the stage, she was negotiating at the business table, she was smoking openly, and she was dismissive of herself. It seemed that every scene was deeply imprinted in his mind...

Before he knew it, she had long been involved with his world, embedded in the bone marrow, and could not be peeled off!

He hasn't asked her for forgiveness...

He can't imagine how he will live without her in the future... On that handsome and perfect face, the expression is broken, full of sadness, and almost lost his voice.

Looking at Fu Yechuan's appearance, Chen Mian couldn't hold back for a while, and also burst into tears.

The news of the plane crash In the case of all kinds of news, the official flight of country M finally came out to clarify the cause.

Due to the improper operation of the aircraft's internal operating system, it did not respond in time when crossing the lightning strike area, resulting in an accident.

The plane did not have time to call for help on the ground, and fell directly into the sea, and there was no news.

And that sea area is deep sea, and the search and rescue plane did not find any vital signs on the sea.

No one called for help.

Almost the whole afternoon, everyone was mourning and grieving for this unfortunate air crash.

It's hard for everyone to imagine how desperate it was when the plane crashed without even saying goodbye... On the official list of personnel, Su Nan's name appeared impressively, instantly putting the scene in the spotlight. The air crash has pushed the heartache of thousands of people in the direction.

The female president who has long occupied the hot search on the Internet, Xiang Xiaoyu died, it is difficult not to attract everyone's attention.

In this regard, it even almost caused the paralysis of the network.

The three brothers Su Jin, Su Ming and Su Qi rarely speak out for the same thing on the Internet.

They posted the same .

It's all four words: Waiting for good news.

Chapter 257 She left this world

Chapter 257 She left this world. The Su Group sent more than a dozen private jets to search the sea area where the accident happened, and hired dozens of foreign mercenaries to salvage them nearby. They didn't give up.

Soon, it was still that sea area. Someone expanded the search area. Nearly 100 planes were hovering in the sky. The formation was huge and amazing.

The number of people diving into the sea has also increased dozens of times, causing a sensation and vigilance in many countries.

Fu Yechuan joined the search and rescue without hesitation, just for that one person.

He didn't forget that the invitation card was given to her by him.

If it wasn't for him, she wouldn't have to go through this, don't be afraid, don't have an accident, don't disappear, or even...die.

He couldn't imagine what she was thinking at the moment the plane fell, did she think of him?

Maybe, hate him even more...

But at that time, the proud little girl who was not afraid of the sky, she was so afraid...

If, he was also on the plane, it would be great what!

But for several days, the search and rescue team did not have any news.

The wreckage of the plane salvaged from the deep seabed is also incomplete.

The shattered fracture surface and the charred shape make it hard not to guess how tragic the moment the plane exploded!

The moment he saw the wreckage of the plane, Fu Yechuan's back, which he had been holding on for a long time, instantly bent down.

He stood on the helicopter and looked down. The boundless sea, the blue reflection of strong and dazzling light, the roaring waves from time to time, and the salty sea breeze that rushed to his face, all concealed the huge power under the sea that was enough to devour all things.

Life seems so small at this moment.

The body holding the door frame trembled slightly, and Chen Mian, who was behind him, immediately stepped forward.

The same sad face with a trace of unbearable.

Compared with Fu Yechuan who had been indifferent to Su Nan for three years, Chen Mian had more contact with Su Nan. He had almost witnessed her despair, transformation and growth. He felt sorry for her experience and was even more pleased with her strength.

But the moment he learned the bad news, he felt more, suffocation.

Seeing that Fu Yechuan followed the rescue team to search and rescue on the plane for several days without rest, he felt even more saddened by Fu Yechuan's lifelessness.

Not only guilt and self-blame, but also all kinds of vitality in him.

"Mr. Fu, it's been so many days. The company needs you to go back and decide. Why don't you go back first. Once there is news here, I will tell you in time." What Chen Mian dared not say is that he fell into the sea for dozens of minutes. It can be drowned, and it has been three or four days now, and nothing has been found.

Miss Su, it is very likely that you are no longer in this world... The sea is full of carnivorous fish, and even the corpses will not be found.

Fu Yechuan's body stood at the door, but his sculptural facial features were in a state of confusion at this time, and his unshaven beard was very casual.

There was a bleak gray defeat in his cold eyes, but he didn't want to give up.

What if... what if Su Nan was waiting for him to save her?

"No, let the old man handle the company's affairs, increase the search range, and detect the surrounding sea area as important."

His voice was hoarse and magnetic, and his eyes were heavy.

Chen Mian sighed and turned to continue receiving the search signal.

Su Qi also persisted.

Su Yifeng was hospitalized, Su Jin wanted to take care of the company and his father, Su Qi took the initiative to come to search and rescue.

In the past few days, his attitude towards Fu Yechuan has changed obviously.

From being dismissive in the past, to resentment and anger when she learned about Su Nan's reason for going abroad, and now to sadness.

Su Jin was right, as a guest official, this matter was not Fu Yechuan's fault.

How could they put all the blame on Fu Yechuan?

He looks like he might as well be dead these days...

The popularity of the Internet is coming and going faster.

The news of the plane crash has long since passed, and Su Nan can only be remembered on the Internet.

Soon there will be new hot topics instead of the first hot search, no one believes that Su Nan can live...

Chapter 258 Are you not a tiger?

Chapter 258 Aren't you a tiger?

The place where the search distance is nearly a thousand nautical miles, the island that was attacked by the waves, was deserted.

The rich pine green covers the sky and the sun, and outside the woods, there are surging waves and a cold and salty sea breeze.

Su Nan spent three days in this ghost place, but couldn't find fresh water and fifteen, so he didn't drink a sip of water or eat anything.

Lips are starting to become very dry.

The scarf on Su Xiaohu's body became her shawl, and Su Xiaohu tucked into her coat pocket obediently, like an eggplant hit by frost.

Fortunately, she was faster than the others. Just before the plane exploded, she took the lead in opening the escape door and jumped down with a parachute without hesitation.

One second is a deviation of several hundred nautical miles, which spared Su Nan.

In addition to being afraid, she felt sad for others.

But it didn't take long for her to doubt whether she could survive on this small island.

The phone fell into the sea and the communication tool was lost.

Su Xiaohu may have fallen too hard when he landed, causing the internal intelligent system to become disordered, and with no signal at sea, he could not contact the outside at all.

She could only passively wait for rescue.

There is nothing here, especially fresh water.

People can last up to seven days without water.

Now, it's getting close to the limit.

Sitting on a rock, she felt like she was going to lose it, desperate.

Why didn't anyone save her?

For so many days, there has been no news or movement of rescue at all.

Did she really think she was dead?

And that damn Fu Yechuan, why did you give her this unfortunate invitation to send her to Huangquan Road?

They are really intertwined!

Now, she really has 10,000 reasons to hate this man to death.

But in desperation, she felt that if he could save her now, she could forgive everything in the past.

Su Xiaohu stuck his head out of her pocket.

The two little paws clenched her clothes tightly, and the cute little tiger was not as fresh and beautiful as before. The white hair on its head turned gray, and it looked dirty as if it had been abandoned in a garbage heap.

“Mama, I can feel that you are not very happy...”

It may be that this intelligent tiger’s self-healing ability is too strong. From the beginning, he spoke intermittently, and now he has resumed his smooth words.

Su Nan glanced down at it, looking at it with hope.

“Can you feel it? Then can you send a distress signal and take us out?” The little tiger shook his head ignorantly, dispelling her thoughts.

“No, because there is no signal, people can’t get in touch with Silent.”

Su Nan’s heart twitched, and he looked at the waves in the distance, as if with the power to swallow people’s hearts, they rushed over layer by layer.

Is she really going to die here?

Su Nan sniffed, her eyes were sore, and tears were about to fall.

“I’m so hungry, I’m so rich, I won’t starve to death, right?”

She grumbled, no matter whether Su Xiaohu could understand or not.

“I also bought an island. My island is so beautiful. It cost me 2 billion. I haven’t seen it yet...”

Su Xiaohu digested Su Nan’s complaint very hard, and he was very sensitive. to capture the words.

“The infrared scanner has been repaired. It can scan edible non-toxic food. Mama, do you want to look for fruit or beasts?”

Su Nan frowned and couldn't help raising his voice.

"Beasts?"

Su Xiaohu said "um", "When Brother Su Qi accompanies me to watch TV shows, you must eat beasts to survive in the wild..."

Su Nan twitched the corners of his mouth, "Are you going to catch them??"

Su Xiaohu retracted into his pocket in embarrassment, every piece of artificial tiger hair expressed serious resistance.

"People are just a little tiger..."

Chapter 259 She is not miserable enough

Chapter 259 She wasn't miserable enough

Su Nan, with the last trace of courage in despair, re-entered the woods.

Fortunately, she changed her shoes to comfortable flat shoes before getting on the plane, otherwise she would really have to wait to die.

The trees in the woods are all very high, dozens of meters in height, not as lush and lush as the tropical rain forest, but each one is as thick as a few people surround it, and the trees are of a species she has never seen before.

She walked step by step weakly, her hands were already bleeding from the branches of the tree, and several bloodstains were very obvious, but she was not in the mood to care about this small injury.

After all, life is almost over.

"Su Xiaohu, have you seen the fruit?"

Su Nan asked weakly, her voice almost hoarse and dry.

Su Xiaohu shook his head, the answer was disappointing as always.

She moved her heavy steps vigorously, exhausted, and her dizzy head felt like the world was spinning.

Something caught under her feet, she leaned forward subconsciously, and fell hard on the muddy ground.

The pain woke her up for a moment.

Su Xiaohu anxiously crawled out of her pocket and circled around her.

Suddenly feeling something, he looked behind Su Nan, and then slipped into Su Nan's pocket.

"Mama, there are humans..."

Su Nan wanted to open her eyes, but she was out of control. She seemed to hear heavy footsteps beside her, saying gibberish... ..Which language is this? She has been familiar with seventeen languages since she was a child, but can't she understand it?

But there are people on this island?

It's a miracle, she had searched for so long before, but she didn't find this surprise at all!

But the imagined rescue doesn't seem right?

Why are you only pulling her limbs and carrying her away like she is going to be dismembered?

The bumps along the way seem to be dislocated!

Su Nan couldn't help thinking of a picture he had seen before, a fat pig was carried into the kitchen...

Maybe, she wasn't miserable enough!

She swore that if it was someone sent by Fu Yechuan, she would definitely thank him!

If it is from the Su family, she must go and complain to Su Jin. The person sent is too unprofessional, rude and impatient...

If it is a rescuer from other channels, just bear with it... ..

For a long time, before reaching the place, the bumps along the way completely plunged her consciousness into darkness.

a thousand nautical miles away.

The two helicopters met each other, and Chen Mian talked about it, and then invited Su Qi over. The two discussed the rescue operation, which would be smoother and faster.

Moreover, Fu Yechuan's state was close to madness and paranoia.

If it goes on like this, I'm afraid it won't last.

Su Qi walked over with a bottle of violent vodka. When Fu Yechuan looked up, his eyes were full of red blood, and it seemed that he hadn't slept for several days and nights.

Fu Yechuan narrowed his eyebrows and saw that Su Qilai didn't fluctuate too much.

It seemed that the only thing he could do for the rest of his life was saving people.

Su Qi walked to a box and sat down, without hesitation, opened the lid of the wine bottle with his teeth, and spit out into the sea wantonly.

Not for a moment did they hate the sea so much!

Yet powerless.

Su Qi raised his head, took a few sips of wine, and looked at Fu Yechuan with scarlet eyes mockingly.

"Is it useful? Now, who can I do it for?"

Fu Yechuan's jaw tightened, and the corners of his lips pursed into a straight line.

His eyes swept over Su Qi indifferently, looking at the sea where the huge waves were rolling.

Silence is depressing.

He didn't need to explain, and couldn't explain.

In the eyes of the Su family, he is an unforgivable person who hurt Su Nan.

Now, he personally pushed Su Nan to a dead end.

He couldn't forgive himself, let alone Su Qi?

Su Qi snorted coldly, and his gaze suddenly became cold and calm.

Also suppressed the huge emotional ups and downs.

“My dad said, you’ve done enough, you don’t owe us anything, and you don’t have to pay with your life.

Fu Yechuan, go back, my sister, I’ll find it myself.” The surrounding air was accompanied by a cold wind, and the temperature dropped suddenly.

Fu Yechuan’s dark eyes suddenly looked at him, his face was cold and his voice was hoarse.

“I’m not doing this for your Su family, I’m doing it for Su Nan.”

For the sake of survival!

No one was found, indicating that there is still hope, how could he leave her behind?

Su Qi paused slightly when he heard his words.

The words that he said stuck in his heart.

“Then why did you treat her like that before? Our whole family is reluctant to even say a heavy word to her, so let you throw it back like trash?”

In an instant, Fu Yechuan’s face turned bloody. .

...

Chapter 260 You don’t know her

Chapter 260 You don’t understand her

, Fu Yechuan’s thin lips parted slightly, and you don’t know what to say.

Su Qi raised his head and took a sip of wine again, and said without hesitation.

“When she went to study in Europe, my dad hired eight nannies to take care of her, but she secretly dismissed her.

Su Jin could not wait to cook for her 30 times a month, and Su Ming directly gave all her research bonuses to her. She is, I only filmed scenes in Europe during that time...

Oh, we thought that was the farthest time she was from us.

But she married you and didn’t contact us for three years, completely cut off All the circles.

Fu Yechuan, she takes you more seriously than us, but what happened?"

Su Qi paused, tears fell uncontrollably, he wiped it away, raised his head and drank the rest of the wine a clean.

Chen Mian and the man who flew the plane were sitting in front, and they didn't dare to let out the air.

The silence in the air is desperate!

Fu Yechuan couldn't hear the sound of his broken heart, but he could feel that someone was tearing at his heart fiercely.

Su Qi looked at his bloodless face, and under the influence of alcohol, he felt very relaxed in his chest.

They all said that he couldn't be blamed. Fu Yechuan was not the initiator. He didn't control the plane.

But he still couldn't help but think that if it wasn't for him, then Su Nan would not have boarded that plane!

Well, he still has a sister, his money is still spent, she can buy a yacht, a mansion, a small island... She can live!

Su Qi stood up, the cold wind made his clothes squeak, and his hair was already messed up.

He stood up carelessly.

Just throw it away, the wine bottle disappears in the air, in the sea...

"Fu Yechuan, let's go. Whether it's guilt or something, it's too late. Go back to your normal life."

Fu Yechuan's brows were gloomy, and his voice was hoarse and depressed.

"I'm not leaving, in case she's still alive..."

"Huh..." Su Qi sneered, her tears fell uncontrollably, her eyes were cold, and she said word by word.

"You don't know her at all, Fu Yechuan, Su Nan...she doesn't know how to swim."

So, there is no emergency.

The boundless sea has long swallowed everyone.

The silence of the atmosphere makes people feel the coldness and despair of dead silence.

Su Qi's last sentence was the last straw that overwhelmed Fu Yechuan's spine.

His face became extremely ugly and pale to the extreme.

The hand on his side suddenly clenched, the blue veins bulged, and the whole body trembled.

A person who can't swim falls into the sea, will the ending be unexpected?

Will not.

He doesn't know her, he doesn't know everything about her, he doesn't even know that she can't swim!

How ridiculous!

This is self-imposed, do you like her?

The roar of the helicopter suddenly amplified several times and penetrated his ears.

No, this might make Su Qi lie to him!

Fu Yechuan violently stepped forward and took a few steps, wanting to ask clearly.

The body suddenly trembled and swayed, the hand holding the cabin door suddenly loosened, and the whole body was about to lean forward and fall.

Halfway out, I saw the dark and deep sea, and saw Su Nan smiling at him...

Well, he should have been with her on that plane.

Everyone was shocked instantly.

"Mr. Fu—" "Be careful—"

... The cold wind blew on his face, causing pain, and the stench of sea water surged and rolled with huge waves. Su Qi grabbed Fu Yechuan's arm with one hand, pulled it back with force, and closed the hatch with his left hand. isolate the sea. "Fu Yechuan, why are you crazy? Can you make my sister come back like this? Everyone is gone, who are you showing your love to?"

...
