Divorce billionaire heiress chapter 2596-Have you been hiding secretly these days?

Ning Yue's face was pale and extremely ugly. She was a little afraid of heights, but there were hanging glass and ugly fish waiting to eat her meat.

It was really a double fear welling up in my heart, and I couldn't calm down at all.

Ning Zhenzhen smiled smugly, after appreciating the look on her face, she didn't mean to scare her.

She was wearing a bathing suit and walked to the switch next to her bare thighs.

Ning Yue shook her head in shock.

Tried to stop her, but to no avail.

Her legs and arms were bound and she struggled to stand up.

Ning Zhenzhen didn't give her a chance to speak at all, and was on guard to gag her from the beginning to the end.

She looks like a different person.

It was as if someone had aroused all the malice hidden in her bones.

next second.

Ning Yue felt empty, and immediately fell into the swimming pool.

She panicked and felt that the end of the world was coming.

The water level in the swimming pool reached the highest level, and the fish saw their prey, and they jumped on it one after another.

Out of the corner of her eye, Ning Yue seemed to see someone barging in.

But his ears were flooded with water, and the sounds from the outside world were all illusory, and he could only feel the boundless suffocation.

soon.

A fish pounced on her, and her ankle was stabbed suddenly, and a sharp pain made her tremble all over.

And the other fish also found the right time and bit her arm hard.

The wound was turned outward, and the blood instantly melted into the water of the swimming pool like silk.

She seemed to be thrown into an abyss in an undercurrent, the coldness and stinging pain made her convulse, tremble and shudder.

The sharp teeth of those ugly fish seemed to see the delicious food, and they scrambled to come up. The fear in Ning Yue's heart seemed to be infinitely magnified in an instant...

Fu Yechuan just came in, and saw this step.

Ning Yue was sunk into the swimming pool, while Ning Zhenzhen still had an indescribable pleasure on her face.

Just watching them come in, a trace of panic flashed across her face.

"Boss Fu..."

The next second.

Fu Yechuan took a step forward, raised his foot and kicked her hard on the chest.

Ning Zhenzhen immediately lay on the ground, with blood oozing from the corner of her mouth, she was in pain and didn't get up.

Before she could say anything, Fu Yechuan plunged into the water.

Soon, other bodyguards held Ning Zhenzhen in place.

Someone had already entered the water at the same time to help Fu Yechuan save people.

When Ning Zhenzhen watched Fu Yechuan lift the person out of the water, the fish all jumped at Fu Yechuan.

But he had a firm gaze, protecting the woman in his hand without fear, and lifted her out of the water.

There was already a light red ripple on the surface of the water.

The smell of blood permeates the surroundings, stimulating the taste buds and sense of smell.

Those fish, having run out of prey to their mouths, began to bite Fu Yechuan, as if they would not give up for a second.

And those bodyguards quickly lifted Ning Yue ashore from Fu Yechuan's hands, before Fu Yechuan dared to turn around and punched the water near the fish.

Perhaps his counterattack was too sudden and violent, and the ugly fish fled in all directions.

But Fu Yechuan's whole body was tense, he gathered all his energy, his face was dark and his veins were bulging, and he quickly got ashore in a few steps.

The bodyguard was checking Ning Yue's injuries, and untied the tape on her mouth and the ropes on her hands and feet.

But the person has already fainted, his face is deathly pale, it seems that he is dying, and he is about to disappear into this world soon.

Fu Yechuan didn't care about his injury, and hugged her up,

"Go and call the doctor!"

He didn't dare to move casually, and put her on the deck chair by the swimming pool.

After thinking about it, I started to do first aid and artificial respiration somewhat at a loss.

But it didn't work.

She didn't move a bit.

Fu Yechuan's eye sockets turned red slightly, and the emotions in his eyes surged up and down, trying his best to restrain the fear in his bones.

It seemed to be struggling for a few seconds.

He touched her neck cautiously, felt the slight beating, and he breathed a sigh of relief, his face suddenly became relaxed.

Ning Zhenzhen next to her was clearly shocked when she saw this scene.

Not only did Fu Yechuan jump down to save others, but in order to protect her, he even stood in the water for her until she was out of danger.

When he was testing Ning Yue's life and death just now, that hand was clearly shaking violently.

Trembling, is it afraid?

Fear flashed across Ning Zhenzhen's eyes.

That person told her that Fu Yechuan was just acting on occasion, not real.

How could it be possible that she really fell in love with Ning Yue?

The doctor came over quickly, and was startled when he saw Fu Yechuan who was also soaked and injured.

"Boss Fu, you..."

"Leave me alone, come and see her first."

Fu Yechuan ordered in a cold voice.

The doctor was very experienced and checked Ning Yue immediately.

He quickly checked Ning Yue's wound.

Her clothes were already thin, so the wounds were extraordinarily hideous, with her flesh turned up. There were more than a dozen wounds, large and small, the most obvious ones were on her arms and legs, and there were two more on her face.

The blood on her body seemed to be gushing from these places, and it quickly formed a blood clot.

Embarrassed, tragic.

Fu Yechuan's eyes were extremely dark, his whole expression was extremely gloomy, and there were turbulent whirlpools in his eyes, he was forbearing and restrained.

The doctor quickly called and asked other assistants to bring up the medicine.

After giving Ning Yue an injection and taking care of the wound, she turned her head to look at Fu Yechuan who was sitting silently waiting.

"Boss Fu, you are also injured and need to be dealt with."

Fu Yechuan raised his head slowly, "How is she?"

His voice was hoarse and difficult.

If only he could be more careful and careful, if only he could come faster and faster.

How could he hurt Ning Yue?

That person who has always been tough, has suffered so much, and he vowed to make her happy for the rest of her life.

But it was only a few days of marriage, and before the wedding was over, she was plotted against.

And it was under his nose.

Fu Yechuan hated the person who hurt her so much, and hated himself even more.

He clenched his fists tightly, but his voice was exceptionally calm, waiting for the doctor's reply.

The doctor paused and said, "Miss Ning has quite a lot of wounds. In order to avoid the spread of inflammation and toxins, we have done detoxification and anti-inflammatory treatment. Because the rescue was timely and the wounds were not deep, it was not fatal. Miss Ning should hold her breath. So there is no sign of drowning in the water. Generally speaking, it is not critical."

After hearing this, Fu Yechuan's face gradually softened a little, his fists were clenched and tightened, and his face was still covered with a layer of gloom.

"Why didn't she wake up?"

"These carnivorous fish are a special kind of fish in the ocean. When they attack, they will release a toxin from their teeth, which will make people fall into anesthesia. In recent years, this kind of fish has been genetically modified by Europeans. Dive field survival activities, content with some of their cruel games.

So the detoxification medicine is not difficult to find, it will not be life-threatening, and your wound also needs to be treated, Mr. Fu. "
