Divorce billionaire heiress chapter 2601-After all, new and old hatreds are not so easy to erase.

Ning Yue's face was as calm as ever.

He just frowned slightly when he heard Shang Qian's name.

She felt it was impossible.

It is impossible to get involved with Su Nan.

soon.

Chen Mian coughed, "No, Boss Shang has been having a great time that night, and he has to help you drink, and is busy taking care of Miss Shuo, so he has no chance."

"That's the person he arranged." Fu Yechuan was decisive.

Chen Mian paused, "But there are more people in the Su Group. Mr. Fu, Su Yinian, the general manager of the branch of the Su Group, also came. Although he didn't come with Ms. Su Nan, his identity is also the same. People from the Su Group."

As soon as Chen Mian finished speaking, Fu Yechuan's face turned cold.

There was a bit of coldness in the eyes.

Su Yinian was somewhat impressed by him. Su Yinian's wife, Shen Jie, had troubled Su Nan back then, but she was quickly dismissed.

In recent years, the people in the second bedroom of the Su family have always been invisible people with no real power, and they just pay dividends every year.

Su Yifeng has enough conscience.

This person has been invisible for so long, and he has always been eclipsed by the background of the Su family.

Why did he suddenly attend Fu Yechuan's wedding?

Chen Mian pursed his lips, feeling very suspicious of his motives, "Mr. Fu, although we strictly played the role of guests, Su Yinian is actually quite popular in the mall because of his relationship with the Su family. It's open, but when it comes to interests, everyone will be more cautious. Maybe my guess is wrong, and other people's investigations are also in progress."

Ning Yue sat on the sofa with her back straight, and turned her head to look at Fu Yechuan, "I have a very direct solution."

"What?"

"Let's hold a return invitation to invite these people and the Ning family. Don't you know who it is by then?"

What she said was straightforward, but also dangerous.

As a result of beating the grass and scaring the snake, the revenge may come even more violently.

Fu Yechuan was silent for a few seconds, and chuckled, "Okay."

Ning Yue was not afraid, and it was even less likely that he would back down.

Chen Mian nodded, and immediately went to prepare for this return invitation.

But the people who went back naturally didn't have as many people who attended the wedding.

But Su Nan and Ning Zhi still participated.

Shang Qian didn't come, because there was something wrong with the country, so he rushed over.

Ning Zhile's lower abdomen bulges slightly, and it can be seen that it has been almost three months.

However, she was wearing looser clothes, which was not very obvious.

Ning Zhiliu handed the gift to Ning Yue, smiled and hugged her, "Last time, I regretted not being able to go to the wedding. Su Qi is to blame. He took away my ID card."

Ning Yue couldn't help but smiled, and was really happy for her, "But don't, you should be more careful now, can't we still meet now? Be more careful when there are many people, I am very happy that you can come Already!"

Both of them were the ones who helped her in her most difficult time.

Ning Yue took them to a quiet place, brought Ning Zhi a glass of milk, and handed Su Nan a glass of cocktail.

Su Nan froze for a moment.

Ning Zhi, who was next to him, couldn't help but chuckled, "Miss Ning, it's useless. Mr. Shang told me before he left that she must never be allowed to drink alcohol."

"Why?"

Ning Zhi knew his stomach, and glanced at Su Nan's stomach again.

Su Nan couldn't help but smiled helplessly, and touched her stomach, "Don't make a fuss."

Ning Yue understood instantly, and her eyes widened in surprise, "Really?"

Su Nan smiled and nodded, "It hasn't been announced yet, Shang Qian said to wait a little longer."

"Congratulations!"

Ning Zhi smiled, "You're almost there, and the three of us can go out for a walk with the kids."

Ning Yue smiled.

The three of them talked very happily.

Fu Yechuan was bringing people over. When he saw Su Nan, he was stunned for a second, then looked away calmly, "

Yue'er, come, let me introduce you."

Ning Yue put down the cup in her hand, looked past.

Su Nan couldn't help frowning,

"Second Uncle? Why are you here?"

Su Yinian mixed among a group of successful businessmen and greeted Fu Yechuan.

He was taken aback when he saw Su Nan, and then he smiled naturally,

"I haven't left City A yet, your father celebrates his birthday in a few days, so let me leave a few days later, just in time for Mr. I thought about coming here to join in the fun, but I didn't expect you to come too."

Su Nan nodded curtly, but was actually not interested at all.

She didn't get close to this second uncle in the first place, let alone the incident of his wife Shen Jie and Shen Jie's daughter acting as a demon. It would be a lie if she said she didn't mind.

But Su Yinian is Su Yifeng's younger brother after all, and Su Yifeng still has feelings for this younger brother.

At least he kept his glory and wealth.

It's also pity that he doesn't have any biological children, otherwise he wouldn't be affected to this extent by the daughter brought by Shen Jie.

Ning Yue turned her head to look over, her gaze carried a bit of scrutiny and scrutiny.

When Su Yinian saw Ning Yue, he smiled more politely ,

" Mrs. is really beautiful. She and Mr. Fu are a natural match. When I was on the small island, I thought she was a talented woman, but now I think it is very connotative. The scenes in the movie are even better."

"Why does Boss Su keep praising Mrs. Fu, and if Boss Fu gets jealous later, we can't afford it?"

The people next to him couldn't help laughing.

Su Yinian sighed and smiled, "Mr. Fu, don't blame me. My wife's daughter is already this old. Looking at Mrs. Fu is like looking at her.

But she was sent abroad. Although she did something wrong, But if she gets married, I guess I'll feel bad too."

Fu Yechuan's dark eyes were scrutinizing, and the people next to him might know the inside story, so they didn't make a sound.

After all, Su Nan is still here, wouldn't sympathizing with him mean offending Su Nan?

People are not people who can't figure it out.

Su Nan couldn't help but rolled her eyes, "If the second uncle is reluctant, then go abroad together, no one is stopping you!"

After she finished speaking, she turned around and left with Ning Zhi.

Ning Zhi said in the back speechlessly, "Why is your second uncle going crazy? Didn't he get divorced?"

Su Nan snorted lightly, "No divorce, the agreement was signed at that time, but Shen Jie didn't know what to say, the second uncle softened again. Besides, he felt that he couldn't do without people by his side, and Shen Jie's care was considerate, so he planned to make do with it. However, it was impossible for Shen Jie to join the company, and Shen Li was also sent away. During this period of time, he was still honest, and he didn't hear of any troubles. "

As long as they don't make trouble, Su Nan won't mind Su Yifeng raising this family of trash.

Now it seems that Su Yinian's family is really honest.

It's just that they frequently go to such occasions, probably because they want to get some cooperation , to regain control of the company's power.

This is understandable.
