Divorce billionaire heiress chapter 2602-As soon as Su Nan left, the waiter at the side came over with a bouquet of flowers.

Ning Yue was taken aback, then turned her head and sneezed.

Fu Yechuan quickly blocked Ning Yue's position, and glanced at the waiter with piercing eyes,

"No one has ordered flowers, who sent them?"

The waiter paused, and said nervously, "It's a guest of CK Group, and they said it was to congratulate you and My wife is newly married, so I specially sent a bouquet of flowers."

Fu Yechuan frowned, and said mercilessly, "Take it away, my wife is allergic to pollen, don't bring it in front of my wife."

"Yes."

The waiter quickly took the bouquet away.

Fu Yechuan looked slightly relaxed, and looked at the two people opposite, "Sorry, my wife is not in good health recently, if she drinks wine with pollen, she may be in danger of suffocation, so she needs to be extra careful. A little pollen."

The boss next to him nodded, "You have to be careful."

Su Yinian frowned puzzled, "But I remember that there were a lot of fresh flowers flown in at the wedding, and Mrs. Fu is allergic to some kind of pollen." Is it?"

Ning Yue smiled, holding Fu Yechuan's arm, "Of course it's not for a certain kind of flower. The flowers brought in by air have been specially treated to ensure that there will be no pollen scattered. Because of this matter, my husband paid a lot of money I put a lot of thought and brain into it, and I said there is no need to bother, just use fake flowers, but he just disagrees."

Fu Yechuan also laughed, "How can you use fake flowers, I guarantee that there will be no flowers in front of you. Pollen."

The two looked at each other and smiled, the warm atmosphere carried an intimacy that others could not penetrate.

The two people next to him looked at it, and one of them walked away embarrassed.

Su Yinian smiled, "Boss Fu and Mrs. Fu are really affectionate."

Ning Yue raised her eyebrows, looked at Fu Yechuan and said, "You guys go ahead, I'll go over there and say hello."

Fu Yechuan nodded and looked at Su Yechuan. Yi Nian said, "Mr. Su has something to say."

Su Yinian smiled embarrassedly. The reason why he didn't leave was that he had something to say, "Mr. Project, can you consider City J?"

Fu Yechuan looked at him with a playful smile, "Are you trying to grab business under Su Nan's nose?"

Su Yinian's expression changed, and he immediately denied it, "Of course not, I just want to join your team Cooperation, now J City has been following the path of the group headquarters, and there are actually a lot of inconveniences, if we can participate in a heavyweight cooperation, we can breathe a sigh of relief." He smiled tactfully, looking really embarrassed.

Su Nan's wrist can be regarded as both soft and hard, but she has rarely participated in the decision-making of J City recently, but Su Jin's wrist is very tough.

It almost emptied all the power in Su Yinian's hands.

Su Yinian also wanted to win by chance.

If Fu Yechuan didn't marry Su Nan, it would be easier to talk about business.

Fu Yechuan immediately understood what Su Yinian was thinking, and smiled lightly, wearing the usual indifferent mask used in shopping malls, "

Oh, for you to offend the Su family, what good do I have?"

He talked directly about the most realistic direction .

Su Yinian pursed his lips, "I'm willing to use all the shares in my hand as collateral."

Fu Yechuan froze slightly, still a little surprised.

Su Yinian's shares are not too many, but they are not many.

Su Yifeng is still very generous to this younger brother, and has never treated him badly in terms of money.

However, the overall composition of the Su Group is like an iron bucket. Many people want to go in to dilute their shares and get a piece of the pie, but they can't find a chance.

Su Yinian even took the initiative to exchange shares.

Fu Yechuan's eyes froze slightly, and the lowered eyes were pondering, as if thinking.

"Mr. Fu, I came here with sincerity. It's best to keep this matter a secret. If other people find out, our cooperation will really fail. I know you have always been a little jealous of the Su Group. This is a very serious situation." Good opportunity.

You are already married and have nothing to do with the Su Group, so you don't have to worry about anything, Mr. Fu, I believe you must have the right consideration, and I am waiting for your good news." Su Yinian said cup.

Fu Yechuan touched it lightly.

After the two drank together, they left separately.

Ning Yue's wine was still on the table.

Fu Yechuan forgot to take it.

Su Yinian glanced at it, paused, and left as if nothing had happened.

Su Nan didn't stay for long, and was coaxed away by Shang Qian's remote "care" call.

Now she has a younger brother and sister in her stomach who talk about the children's thoughts day and night, and talk about the children calling stories to the younger brothers and sisters every day before going to bed, and after telling the story, they also lull themselves to sleep.

Saved a lot of things.

Ning Yue was chatting with others, and she quickly adapted to her identity.

Because you don't need to curry favor with others, you just need to say a few innocuous nonsense when others come forward.

until the end of the banquet.

She was so tired that she didn't show up, Fu Yechuan ordered everyone to be sent away before turning back.

The waiter has checked the wine glasses one by one.

There are also countless cameras in various places and corners.

Just twenty minutes.

Ning Yue stood on the balcony, blowing the cold wind, thinking about everyone she saw.

They all seemed to be smiling and wearing a mask that couldn't be seen clearly.

That mask made it impossible for her to tell who was the real father who wanted to kill her.

Fu Yechuan walked in, sat beside her with a calm face, reached out and touched her shoulder, "Is the wound better?"

Ning Yue smiled and nodded, "It's much better, but it's a little itchy." Son, I'll get someone to remove some scars later, so there won't be any traces left."

Fu Yechuan's voice was low and hoarse, as he stroked her injured area, his eyes were extremely dark.

Every time he thought of that scene, it was enough to make him tremble with fear.

And never forget.

Ning Yue knew that his body was not less injured than hers, so she leaned her head gently on his shoulder, "Then does it hurt?"

Fu Yechuan paused in his chest, bowed his head and kissed her forehead, "It doesn't hurt, as long as you don't If it hurts, I won't hurt anymore."

He wrapped his arms around her waist and held her in his arms.

soon.

Chen Mian brought in the research report,

"Boss Fu, there isn't any pollen in the wine."

"Didn't he show up? Is there no chance to do it?"

Ning Yue was a little disappointed.

Chen Mian paused, "We should have given you a lot of opportunities, maybe the other party has noticed something, so there has been no movement."

Fu Yechuan remained silent and did not speak.

Until someone finished watching the surveillance and came in, "Boss Fu, I didn't find anyone tampering with anything."

Fu Yechuan slightly opened his eyes, touched Ning Yue's hair, and there seemed to be no disturbance, "Then come directly, let people approach them, and do a paternity test."
