

Read Novel Divorce Billionaire Heiress Chapter 2608 [Chinese]

Divorce billionaire heiress chapter 2608-“This little baby in my arms is very much like Junchen and I-I am looking forward to her growing up. She likes the swing downstairs and climbs up and down the stairs. She always sneaks up when I’m not paying attention. Slip away. She is a beam of light that is not strong, a bright and gentle moonlight, which makes my life a little brighter. Yue’er, in the previous year, my mother loved you, but I couldn’t continue to love you but the devil came with your paternity test and my love became a betrayal of my life. He asked me to continue in that disgusting relationship and I said no, I knew it was time. My life cannot be At the mercy of others. I would rather die to free myself. I have thought about taking you away, but I am reluctant. If you can survive, when you grow up, you must remember not to go to that devil. If you are me and Junchen’s child would be great, but I hope that I will never meet Ning Junchen in the next life.”

She hated that incompetent husband.

In the name of love, ask for everything from her to fulfill his own interests.

How could she love such a man to death?

Ning Yue looked at the three words “Ning Junchen” at the end of the note. The force was exceptionally strong, as if it could penetrate the paper.

All love and hate end with those three words.

Ning Yue seemed to be able to feel the helplessness and struggle of that woman when she wrote this diary decades ago.

This is her only outlet.

So she hid the diary under the bed. Even if the old man knew the truth, he wouldn’t let people look for his daughter-in-law to steal evidence.

Her tears fell, soaking the paper.

I can’t express the sadness in my heart.

The last kindness left to her by her mother was not to kill her.

Before reading this diary, she might feel it was unfair.

But after seeing this diary, she felt that her mother still loved her.

At that time, the devil's blood flowed in her blood, how disgusted and struggling the mother must have been.

She chose to end her life.

It must have been no accident.

Ning Yue's chest was slightly suffocated, and she trembled slightly.

outside the door.

The footsteps gradually approached.

A hand landed on Ning Yue's shoulder, with a familiar warm and cold taste, which made people feel very relieved.

It was Fu Yechuan who came.

Ning Yue turned her head and hugged him, sobbing softly. To some extent, her arrival was indeed unwelcome.

She can't resent anyone, even though she is innocent, but compared to her biological mother, she can't say the word innocent.

She also hated that Ning Junchen for his incompetence. If it wasn't for his compromise, nothing would have happened. She would be the apple of their eye, as bright and flamboyant as Su Nan.

Fu Yechuan gently stroked her hair.

After waiting for a while, until her emotions calmed down, she gently tilted her head to wipe her tears.

The movements are gentle and gentle.

"I heard from that woman that Mrs. Ning jumped from the window of this room."

He paused, his voice low, and looked at the only window in the princess' room.

Ning Yue looked along.

I can't imagine how the mother at that time jumped down from here with such a decisive mentality and back.

For some, being alive is a blessing.

But for her, life is really too difficult.

Ning Yue took a deep breath, holding the diary in her hand.

Now it is basically certain that Mr. Su is from the Su family.

Except for Su from the Su Group, no other Su family would be so powerful.

But Ning Yue's biological mother never wrote down Mr. Su's name, perhaps because she didn't even want to mention it.

Get out of this villa.

Ning Yue only took this diary with her.

Fu Yechuan didn't ask her what was written in this diary.

All the way to pay attention to her emotions.

When Ning Yue arrived at Fu's villa, she gradually regained her composure.

Haven't forgotten to tell Fu Yechuan,

"Yun Che is back today, come back for dinner early, don't let him wait too late."

Fu Yechuan looked at her deeply and nodded,

"I've already dismissed that woman from the Ning family. If she comes to look for her again You, you just push me, you don't have to see anyone you don't want to see."

Ning Yue pulled her lips and smiled.

"You still have something to do in your company, let's go!"

She heard his cell phone ring several times, but he ignored it.

Fu Yechuan was still a little worried about her,

"Do you really not need me to stay with you?"

"No need."

Ning Yue smiled, her eyes were a little red and swollen, but her emotions have been well controlled.

Fu Yechuan got out of the car, hugged her, and then drove to the group.

Ning Yue went upstairs, changed a piece of clothes, washed her face before going out with her bag.

She called Su Nan, but Su Nan didn't answer.

She called again, and after several rings, Su Nan followed up.

But neither of them spoke first.

Ning Yue sniffed, and her voice was as relaxed as possible, "Su Nan, I want to meet Su Dong, is that okay? I have something very important to ask him, and I won't bother him so boldly, but there are some things I just want to know an answer."

Su Nan was silent for a few seconds, "I can't make the decision, I want to ask my father."

"Okay, please tell him that I have an old thing from twenty years ago, please help him to identify it ."

Ning Yue hung up the phone.

Just sit in the car and wait.

Su Nan believed in her father, but Ning Yue's attitude and words were very serious, not like lying or deceiving others.

She went over and asked Su Yifeng if he would like to see her.

Of course Su Yifeng didn't want to, he only felt that he was in trouble now.

Su Nan paused, "Dad, I believe in your character, but Ning Yue is not a bad person. She said she only wanted to know one answer. She had a difficult life in the first half of her life. This time she was almost killed by her biological father." "Daddy, if I can, I want to help her."

Su Yifeng took a deep look at his daughter, "You, it's not good to be soft-hearted. There are so many people with miserable backgrounds, why don't you still Can you all help? Their life experience cannot be determined, but their future can be determined by themselves. She insists on being obsessed with her own life experience, but the one who owes her is not for you and me."

Su Nan squatted down and raised her head Looking at him, "Father, but she is with Fu Yechuan, I am so happy. During the time when Shang Qian disappeared, Fu Yechuan helped a lot, and it was always a timely help. I really don't want him to die alone. Now I'm finally with the person I really like, and Ning Yue is my friend again, so I can't just make sarcastic remarks, right? Dad, Fu Yechuan offended you, we will use our own methods to get revenge, but don't treat Ning Yue as a punching bag, okay? “

It's rare for Su Nan to plead so seriously.

Su Yifeng looked at her with deep eyes, and the expression on his face was a little complicated for a while.
