actions just now by Fu Yechuan. In everyone's opinion, it was more like letting go on purpose.

Seeing this, Chen Mian quickly ran over to stop Fu Yechuan.

I'm afraid he will do something stupid again.

"Mr. Fu, are you alright?"

Fu Yechuan lay down on the seat lifelessly with his eyes closed, without any response.

Chen Mian subconsciously tried the neck artery, heaved a sigh of relief, and looked at Su Qi gratefully.

"Thank you, Master Su, President Fu is probably just too tired. He hasn't closed his eyes for several days."

Su Qi glanced at Fu Yechuan with complicated eyes.

"Take him back, just leave the staff here to cooperate with me."

Chen Mian nodded immediately and agreed, if Su Qilian didn't want the staff, then he would have to worry about whether Fu Yechuan would rip him off when he woke up.

Su Qi had already called someone to answer it, hung up the phone, and watched Chen Mian hesitate.

"Is there anything else?"

Chen Mian pursed her lips, thought for a while, and then opened her mouth.

"What Su Shao said just now is heartbreaking. I know that you want President Fu to retreat."

Su Qi didn't look away. It doesn't matter whether Chen Mian can guess it or not.

He wasn't that kind, but he wasn't that cruel either.

Chen Mian continued:

“After Mr. Fu and Miss Su divorced, they have been reflecting and suffering. Some misunderstandings were not caused by him, but indirectly hurt Miss Su. He has always wanted to make up for it, although it was of no avail.

But Master Su, Fu The general heart, never cheating, regret is real, and feelings are also real.”

As for this, Chen Mian thought that he had said too much and had overstepped his identity.

If Miss Su heard these words here, how would she feel?

Su Qi was silent for a few seconds, did not stay any longer, and went straight to the helicopter that came to pick him up.

When I got to the passenger ship below, I looked up at the sky.

I have to say, if it weren't for too many things happening between them, Fu Yechuan and Su Nan would be a match made in heaven in every respect.

It's a pity...

Su Qi's chest is full of grief, no matter if Fu Yechuan has feelings for Su Nan or not, Su Nan will not come back... The sea breeze blows, Su Qi stands on the deck and doesn't care The temperature was icy cold, and the cold wind blew on his face.

That perfect face without a trace of regret, was a little rougher than that, and in those eyes that once shone brightly, there was all gloom and grief...

a small island a thousand nautical miles away.

Su Nan slowly opened his eyes, and what he saw was the wet leaves fluttering on the ground in a mess.

She couldn't move, she was tied up by something!

As soon as she turned her head, she saw a savage squatting beside her and winking at her, with marks of various colors on her black face. She was horrified and couldn't help screaming.

The savage even smiled at her.

His upper body was naked, his long hair was draped in a messy way, he wore animal bone-like ornaments around his neck, and a circle of leaves was surrounding his lower body.

Su Nan trembled with fright, and smiled deathly?

She sat up in fear, moved away from him, and looked around.

Surrounded by rudimentary tent-like shapes made of many leafy branches, the most common in the woods.

The curvature of the branches is very flexible, and the dense branches and leaves are layered, which can shield from wind and rain.

But the space is small, there is no ventilation gap, and it is damp and dark inside.

Su Nan's sluggish face was ugly and pale, and the feeling of being cold, thirsty, and hungry became more unbearable as she woke up.

She still hasn't left this ghost place?

Fingers clenched tightly, fingertips pale.

The savage stepped forward to touch her, but Su Nan screamed and ducked.

On one side, there are dozens of identically dressed savages not far away!

They look fierce, their features are deep and protruding, and they look like foreign... savages!

Yes, it's a savage!

Her heart sank more and more, like falling into the abyss.

This... what the hell is this place?

Su Nan realized this phenomenon, and her back suddenly felt a chill. Could it be that it was a savage who carried her back like a corpse?

The group of people had already set up firewood in front of them, and a savage with a strong leader was sitting there.

Others took a long thin log and drilled and drilled on a thick dry log. The wood was smoking.

The fire gradually rose, and then put it on another pair of dry leaves. In an instant, the fire decreased, and the firewood burned very quickly.

“Drilling wood to make fire? Primitive civilization?”

Su Nan’s face was full of disbelief, and God was just playing a huge joke on her!

Chapter 262 There are shoelaces

Chapter 262 There is such a ghost place as shoelaces , Su Nan really can’t stay for a moment!

Before he had time to go deep into his grief, he saw one of the stout men pointing in the direction of Su Nan, reaching out to gesture on the fire, and then putting on his mouth, he made a gesture of eating.

No need to translate, all the ghosts know that these savages want to roast her!

It’s been eight lifetimes of bad luck!

Su Nan’s body trembled in panic and looked up at the savage staring at him in front of him.

She gave a smile that was uglier than crying.

“Excuse me, farewell.”

She rolled and crawled up and ran, but before she could take two steps, there were too many sticks and branches on the ground, and she tripped all of a sudden...

Su Nan originally I was dizzy and had a fever, and I slept a little better. Now I suddenly fell to the ground, and my mind was full of dazzling whiteness!

Lying on the ground for a long time, he didn’t regain his senses ... Another savage came over and said to the savage wearing shoes before him.

Wait, the shoes worn by the savage in front of him, although they are wrapped in mud, can’t see their original appearance, but the mud-covered shoelaces on the shoes hang down on them.

Here is a primitive tribe, how could there be shoes with laces.

Su Nan's eyes lit up, not knowing where the strength came from, suddenly got up and grabbed his shoes.

That man was tall, tall and strong, how could Su Nan possibly shake him?

She can clearly see the vague trademark, Lasportive, the world's top Italian brand, and its outdoor sports equipment is even more famous all over the world.

Could it be that there are really people like her here?

She subconsciously raised her head to look at the savage. He was painted in colors and couldn't see his facial features, but his eyes, shining brightly, winked at her and smiled.

As soon as her eyes met, she suddenly felt a strong sense of familiarity...

"You are..."

Fake Savage!

Before she could finish speaking, someone suddenly came over, grabbed her arm roughly, and dragged her towards the fire.

She never dreamed that in her lifetime, she would be roasted and eaten by a group of savages who were supposed to stay in the museum as specimens?

"No no no... help..."

She shouted, more and more savages gathered, glanced over, and couldn't tell which one was the fake savage just now!

Surrounded by dense woods, the sky is dark, and the surrounding area is pitch-black. The sound of the sea breeze roars in the distance, like a beast lurking in the dark, feeding machines swallowing everything here.

The bonfire was burning vigorously, and the group of wild men stared at her as if they were staring at their prey.

Although they were different in height and height, they were all bare upper body, dirty, with various colors on their faces, and their lower bodies were skirts made of branches and leaves, and they looked extremely terrifying and fierce.

Standard savage look.

"Hello?"

"Ah, do you have Hasai?"

“Hello?”

“Taijun?”

...

She tried sixteen languages, but the savages in front of her didn't respond. own language.

The silence made her despair!

What about the fake savage in shoes just now?

I don't know if I heard it wrong, but in the chatter, I suddenly heard an obvious sneer.

That kind of laughter, with the obvious emotions of someone like her.

She raised her head suddenly and met a pair of bright eyes.

But before she could be happy, a few savages lifted her up and walked towards the bonfire.

She was terribly cold, and there was only one thought in her mind, wouldn't they really bake her?

“Eating people is against the law...”

She shouted in horror, and the group of savages suddenly let go and threw her to the ground.

She didn't care about the pain in her body, just as she was about to stand up, she saw those people walking to the bonfire, picking up the wood from the fire, and surrounding her.

The enclosed circle is not big or small. Gradually, more and more people participate in the circle, and the circle is getting bigger and bigger.

The wild people held torches, formed a circle, sang and danced, and it was very strange.

Su Nan became more and more flustered. Every time she wanted to run out of this circle, she would be roasted back in the middle by the people surrounding her.

They won't let her out.

The temperature rose, the flames burned her all over, and the thick smoke made her cough continuously.

Su Nan turned around in a hurry, she didn't know what to do at all.

who will save her...

Chapter 263 You bite them yourself

Chapter 263 You bite them yourself

. Su Nan coughed violently while covering her mouth and nose. Su Xiaohu, who had been quietly pretending to be dead, scratched her pocket.

“Mama, I searched my think tank, it's like some kind of ancient sacrifice.”

Su Nan's heart was completely cold when he heard it.

Is it really dead?

“Su Xiaohu, you are a tiger, can you jump out and bite them?”

Su Xiaohu was silent for a few seconds before he spoke up.

“The system that Silently designed for me has 20% aggressiveness. After being transformed by Su Ming, my aggressiveness is zero. Mama, go out and bite yourself...”

Su Nan : “...”

Well, she was offended by a stupid tiger.

Just as Su Nan was about to ask Su Xiaohu where to run, he saw that the savages in front of him suddenly stopped singing and dancing, and his expression became serious.

She immediately shut up and couldn't let them discover Su Xiaohu's existence.

Otherwise she's the only one who can talk... oh, the tiger is gone.

At this moment, everyone suddenly stopped talking, looked strange, and looked up at the sky.

Quiet, you can only hear the crackling sound of the flames burning, gloomy, fearful, and chilling.

At this moment, the savage leader took a few steps back with the scepter, and a gap appeared in the circle.

An older woman with a wrinkled face came in holding a large leaf.

The woman looked up at Su Nan, put the leaves in front of her, and said something she couldn't understand.

He pointed to something on the ground, then pointed to his mouth, and made a gesture of eating.

Then she untied the tough branches that bound her hands, and turned away.

The people around formed a circle again.

Everyone quietly looked at Su Nan in the middle, and countless eyes stared at her like beasts in the dark.

Su Nan looked down and saw that the leaves on the leaves turned out to be dried meat, dried fish, and two wild fruits?

My stomach feels like I haven't eaten for a few days.

She swallowed her saliva, she just picked it up and stuffed it into her mouth without caring about anything.

You don't need to worry about whether you have been drugged or not. In this hellish place, where did you get such high-grade poisons?

What etiquette education, upbringing demeanor, all at this moment, vanished into ashes!

Although I don't know what kind of meat it is, it tastes very fragrant, full of salty aroma, but it lacks some seasonings, but this should be the most fragrant meal she has ever eaten in her life.

The group of savages looked very satisfied when she saw that she had eaten all the things on the leaves.

Suddenly, before Su Nan could react, he watched the group of savages suddenly throw the torches in their hands on the ground.

In an instant, the flames formed a circle and encircled her.

Su Nan stood there in shock, trembling all over, and an inexplicable chill appeared on his back.

The branches were dipped in fish oil, and the fire became more prosperous. The flames more than one meter high gradually approached the circle, and the circle became smaller and smaller.

The thick smoke was even more choking, her cough could not be suppressed at all, and the thick smoke kept digging into her lungs.

They...want to burn her?

really.

Su Nan realized this reality, trembling all over in horror, and unable to restrain his anger.

The group of savages outside sang and danced excitedly, as if they were really completing some sacrificial ceremony!

In their eyes, Su Nan ate something and accepted the sacrifice.

Su Nan wanted to run, but couldn't sit still.

But in the darkness, except for the thick smoke, and their devilish voices and movements, nothing could be seen!

Just when the circle of flames shrank to only about a meter and a half away from her.

Suddenly, lightning pierced the bleak and dark night sky, dark clouds covered the sky, and thunder followed.

Everyone looked at each other strangely, and some people stared at Su Nan who was standing in the center of the flames unwillingly.

The next second, the icy rain poured down, everyone fled around, looking for a place to hide from the rain, but no one paid attention to Su Nan.

The torches that were going to burn her to death were doused by the mighty rain.

Taking advantage of the thick smoke, she was about to run away when suddenly a savage came in, grabbed her hand rudely and ran away.

Su Nan's struggle was like pediatrics. She ran after her sadly... When the smoke came out, she subconsciously looked down and saw that it was the fake savage wearing shoes!

Chapter 264 When in a desperate situation

Chapter 264 When

Su Nan realized that he was in a desperate situation, he suddenly breathed a sigh of relief.

The heavy rain washed over the night sky, and the dark night was as cold as an abyss.

The surrounding leaves were drenched by the heavy rain and made a loud noise, accompanied by the whistling of the sea and the sound of the wind. It was like a magic sound, icy and desperate.

She was soaked all over, shivering with cold, and the coolness almost penetrated into her bone marrow.

Just stopped breathing heavily, and suddenly heard the sound of countless footsteps chasing after him, and it was particularly clear in the darkness.

Su Nan and the fake savages looked at each other, raised their legs without hesitation and continued to run.

The cold windshield wiped on my face, and it hurt like a knife... In just a few minutes, I felt like my heart was about to jump out, my legs couldn't do anything, and the surrounding environment was dim and dark. Rain, I can't see anything at all.

The branches and leaves scattered on the ground can only run hard, or even roll and climb!

The savages in the back were chasing after him, and even threw the branches in their hands. Su Nan was hit in the back several times.

I don't know how many times I've been scratched by the branches and thorns, and it's already numb from the pain...

The fake savages in front are fast and agile, with flexible bodies and strong athletic qualities.

Su Nan didn't dare to fall in the slightest, and ran forward desperately.

The voice behind is getting closer, and if you catch up, you will die!

Suddenly, a sturdy tree trunk tripped over her and fell to the ground. Her elbow hurt and went numb, and she couldn't help screaming.

The fake savage looked back, Su Nan gritted his teeth and got up.

“It’s okay, run away...”

But suddenly, she just stepped on this tree trunk, stepped on the air, and her body fell!

She desperately grabbed everything she could with her hands, and a flexible tree bar restrained her hand.

All the weight of his body rests on this stalk, and his hands are already bleeding from the thorns on the thorns.

She could feel the tremors in her body, and she knew very well that her body had reached its limit.

The footsteps of the savage behind him sounded like a reminder, cold and frightening.

The feeling of despair has never been so strong, and the chill swept through her every pore...

But at the next moment, the fake savage who was supposed to run away suddenly appeared.

As soon as he reached out, he pulled her arm and dragged her out of the trap.

It’s like being born out of nowhere.

Before Su Nan could breathe a sigh of relief, she subconsciously looked back at the trap, and suddenly saw countless thick branches chopped into sharp barbs.

For a moment, she was horrified.

This is a trap set by the savages.

If she hadn’t caught that thorn, if she had fallen, then everything would have been lost in this deep, icy rainy night.

The fake savage dragged her, “Run...”

Su Nan wiped his face, not sure if it was rain or tears.

Before she could think too much, she could only follow along stiffly and numbly.

You can’t turn around, you can’t stop, you can’t even take a second off.

After running through the woods, there were more paths ahead. The fake savage turned a few turns in front of the savage, throwing the savage away, and the footsteps of the savage in the back clearly drifted away.

He finally stopped and looked back at her.

Under the dark night light, in the rustling light and shadow, she was soaked all over, and her face was full of tears.

It took her less than thirty seconds to go from being quiet to sobbing, from sob to crying, to howling.

The backlog of tears in the past few days finally had the strength to cry... The cry was hysterical, but it was not too abrupt when it was drowned in the sound of rain.

The fake savage in front squatted in front of her, his voice a little helpless.

“Stop crying...”

Su Nan vented, feeling much better, but now is not the time to relax.

Wildlings will find their tracks at any time, and they can't stay here too long.

She wiped her face, her voice hoarse and quiet.

“Let's go.”

The face of the fake savage was washed away by the rain, revealing his original appearance, deep facial features, impeccable, somewhat mixed-race appearance, bright eyes, Su Qi even better-looking, looks like a young and handsome Handsome big guy.

This person must be a gift from God!

The man watched Su Nan's emotions subside so quickly, slightly surprised, but still led the way.

“It'll be safe soon, don't worry.”

Calm down, Su Nan has 10,000 question marks in her heart, and she doesn't know where to start.

“How did you get here?”

“Where are your clothes?”

“How long have you been here?”

...

Chapter 265 He didn't even starve

Chapter 265 He didn't even starve

The man smiled. In the dark night, his laughter was mellow and clear.

A sly look flashed in his eyes.

“I won't tell you!”

Su Nan: “...”

However, his relaxation made her feel much better.

Looking at the only partner in front of her, she still felt inexplicably close!

She followed up with a smile, and touched his bare arm, which was painted with dirty colors, rough and sturdy, with no intention of taking advantage.

“Are you cold? Shall I give you my coat?” As she spoke, she was about to take off the tightly wrapped trench coat.

Nothing else, she was simply afraid that he would freeze to death.

With his hands stopped, the man spoke.

“No, I'm not cold.”

Su Nan didn't continue because she suddenly remembered that there was Su Xiaohu in her pocket.

“My name is Su Nan, what about you?”

Hearing the name, the man's back froze slightly, and he turned to ask her directly, “Is your brother Su Qi?”

Su Nan's shocked eyes lit up.

“You know my brother? Do you know me?”

The man gave a “uh” and picked a question to answer.

“Didn’t you often appear on hot searches some time ago?”

Su Nan was shocked again.

“You just came here?”

After all, the hot search is also a matter of this time.

The man laughed, and kept pushing the branches away in front of him, his voice light and brisk.

“Yes, it’s only a month earlier than you.”

When you first came, can you be so familiar and become one of the savages?

If it weren’t for the shoes, she wouldn’t even recognize them.

Talent is indeed a talent!

Admired!

But then, Su Nan’s heart sank slightly, and immediately felt a huge boulder pressing down on his chest, which was heavy and depressed.

He has been here for a month, and he has not been saved. When will he be able to leave this ghost place?

“What’s your name?”

she asked eagerly.

“Fu Yanni.”

Su Nan frowned, “To perfunctory me?”

“My name is Fu Yanni!” The man sighed helplessly and could not help speeding up his pace.

“Your surname is Fu? Are you related to Fu Yechuan?” The man was silent for two seconds, then replied immediately,

“How could I be related to someone rich? I’m a self-media explorer, and I make money from this.”

Su Nan Clearly nodded.

After all, among all the rich sons and brothers she knew, no one would come here to die.

Just hearing this surname, she couldn’t help thinking of that person.

Don’t know what he’s doing now?

On a cruise ship a thousand nautical miles away.

Countless helicopters circled and whistled overhead, and drones surveyed the material and life beneath the sea.

Even the military-specific survey equipment was used, but there was no gain at all.

Su Qi received a call from Su Jin.

“Fu Yechuan has returned.”

“Got it.” The old house of the Fu family.

When the private doctor came out of Fu Yechuan’s room, Mr. Fu hurriedly stepped forward to ask.

“How is Ye Chuan?” The personal doctor sighed, his tone solemn.

“Mr. Fu has been restless for days, his body has been consumed too much, and it has reached its limit. Now it is necessary to take a good rest. Nutrition is the most important thing.”

Mr. Fu nodded, and quickly ordered people to prepare various precious tonics.

Qu Qing said angrily from the side, “Su Nan, that scourge spirit, knows that he has harmed my son. God has eyes. Fortunately, she is dead, otherwise I will not let her go.”

Mr. Fu glared at her fiercely. at a glance.

“Shut up, if this word gets out, will the Su family let you go?”

Qu Qing moved her lips shyly, "Isn't this in our own home?"

Mr. Fu was thinking about things with serious eyes, and Qu Qing Strike while the iron is hot.

"Dad, Su Nan is also dead, can you bring Yingying back?"

Mr. Fu didn't even look at her, feeling ridiculous for this unintelligent daughter-in-law.

"You did this as soon as the Su family had an accident. You wanted to tell the Su family that they wanted to set off firecrackers to celebrate Su Nan's death?

If Su Jin started targeting the Fu family, would you come forward and settle it?"

Qu Qing's face was pale, and she couldn't hide her disappointed eyes.

"Master, Mr. Fu is awake..."

Everyone was overjoyed, and Mr. Fu walked quickly to his room, "Ye Chuan..."

Chapter 266 He regretted that

Fu Yechuan opened his eyes and looked at the familiar furnishings around him. His face was startled, and he sat up suddenly. He didn't care that the needle in his hand pierced the blood vessels under the skin, so he pulled it out and left.

"Where are you going..."

Mr. Fu's face turned pale with anger, and his old voice was full of momentum.

The housekeeper and servants stopped him, and no one dared to speak for a while.

Fu Yechuan's face was ugly and his tone was firm.

"I'm going to find Su Nan..."

"She's already dead..."

Mr. Fu's words hit Fu Yechuan like a bolt from the blue. He didn't want to know what everyone knew!

But these words suddenly touched the deepest reality buried in his heart.

Makes him like a frightened bird.

The tight string was broken.

He looked up, his red eyes were full of red blood, and his face was tight and cold.

"She didn't, she won't!"

His voice was surprisingly cold, how could he have thrown Su Nan into the sea alone?

Whatever he found, he was going to take her home.

He stood up and was about to go out, but Mr. Fu immediately gave the housekeeper a wink, and the housekeeper brought the servant forward and trapped the frail Fu Yechuan on his bed.

"Master, your body hasn't recovered yet..."

"Get out of the way!"

His voice was cold and icy, like counting ice in nine cold days.

Mr. Fu frowned in dissatisfaction.

"I know, you always feel that our Fu family owes that girl. If she lives, I won't stop you from doing anything for her, but if she dies, you don't need to risk your life. Is the family buried with her?"

Do you know that during the time you went to find her, the rumors outside, our Fu family is about to become a joke!"

"I don't care, she won't die, I must find her! "You must tell her personally how important she is to him.

Be sure to take the words of apology and liking seriously.

No one would know that when he heard the news of Su Nan's accident, his heart seemed to be hollowed out by a knife.

His soul is gone.

Mr. Fu looked at his grandson, who made him the most proud of himself. He was excellent, decisive, and fierce. In just a few years, he became a resident candidate on the Forbes list.

But to die for a woman?

“Take care of the door, and don’t allow him to step out of this room!” After Mr.

Fu finished speaking, he turned around and was about to leave.

Even with extreme means, he cannot destroy Fu Yechuan, who was cultivated by his Fu family’s hard work, because of one woman.

Time will smooth everything out, and when he recognizes the reality, he will look away.

At that time, that woman doesn’t matter anymore.

The air was silent and cold.

They did not dare to leave without authorization, but they were afraid of Fu Yechuan’s vigorous counterattack.

Everyone could feel Fu Yechuan’s great grief.

The kind of sadness that overflows from the bones is sad and moving.

He suddenly curled up his body fiercely, and a trace of fragility and huge regret crossed his resolute and frosty face.

“I regret it, Su Nan, I regret the divorce.”

Father Fu, who walked to the door, stomped his footsteps and looked back at Fu Yechuan with a complicated expression.

The room was silent, even breathing carefully.

I have never seen Fu Yechuan like this. He has always been a confident, proud, and invincible myth.

But just one woman can make him bow his head and admit defeat and let him admit his regret...

It can be seen that this woman is more important than life to him...

Chapter two hundred and sixty-seventh wig as the custom

Chapter 267 The wig that went into the countryside has been walking for more than 20 minutes. Su Nan felt that his legs were numb, and his feet also had a lot of blisters, which made him sore.

When he followed him to his destination, the heavy rain just stopped.

The sound of the waves on the sea surface is more compact, the wind is surging, the huge waves beat on the reefs and wash the beach, and the sound of the tsunami is particularly cold.

Leaving the woods, the ground near the sea was muddy and wet, and the soft soil made it impossible to lift one's feet.

The man in front walked firmly and strongly. After running for so long, he didn't mean to be tired at all.

It seems to be used to this environment.

Under the continuous reef, and walking to the lee of the hillside, Fu Yanni moved a half-human-high stone to the side.

Then he greeted the shocked and sluggish Su Nan, who had already got into the small cave behind the stone.

Don't be fooled?

Su Nan followed him in, a small space that could only accommodate two people, and the water was trickling down from the crevices, and there was no place to stay at all.

Fu Yanni slid in through a gap of less than 40 centimeters on the side.

He greeted him inside, and Su Nan followed his example and got in, and his vision suddenly widened.

There's even a light?

The inside is clean, with dry and clean branches and leaves, but the air is a little humid, but it is more than ten times better than the outside.

Su Nan smiled and watched Fu Yanni take down the backpack, a classic model of the LaSportiva brand, from a high stone.

She recognized it at a glance, it was the same brand as the shoes he was wearing.

He took out a men's jacket and wore it on his body. It was a classic scarpa style, a well-known adventure brand.

He took out the same pants again, and was about to bend over to put them on when he suddenly realized something and looked up at Su Nan.

She was looking at him intently, her face not blushing or her heart beating, for fear that he would disappear from her eyes.

Fu Yanni smiled helplessly.

"Susu, if you want to see it, I don't mind?"

Su Nan was stunned, reacted immediately, and quickly turned his back.

His face was involuntarily hot.

"Aren't you thirsty? There are tools nearby, go get some sea water back, I can distill fresh water."

He deliberately relieved the embarrassment.

"Okay."

She hadn't touched Danshui for a long time, and the tasteless water was terribly missed!

Su Nan left subconsciously, looking at the "tool" on the stone, hesitating slightly.

Isn't this the "container" formed by several leaves tied together?

Forget it, this place is only worthy of this condition.

She went out depressed, and from the crevice of the stone next to her, she chose cleaner sea water and took it back.

Seeing that Fu Yanni was already dressed, his tall and slender body was sitting on the branches and leaves, with one leg curled up, and his head lowered, carefully fiddling with the tools in his hand.

The messy hair was gone, and it was a neat short haircut.

He looks handsome and handsome, even if he doesn't clean up very much, his deep facial features under the light are particularly charming, especially those bright eyes that seem to reflect the galaxy.

It looked like she was about the same age.

But what surprised Su Nan was not here.

“Did you just wear a wig?”

Fu Yanni nodded, “Do as the custom in the countryside...”

That’s what he said, but...

Su Nan twitched the corners of his mouth, “Who will prepare a wig with you?”

Fu Yanni blinked at her, smiling pure and wanton.

“I’m an explorer and I came prepared. I run a self-media, specializing in filming and studying primitive tribes.”

“So, you came here on purpose?”

Fu Yanni nodded.

“I randomly selected this small island. This is the smallest island on the north side of the Atlantic Ocean. I didn’t have any hope. I didn’t expect that there are really savages and primitive tribes here.”

Su Nan looked at him from the side . A black headphone-sized photographing instrument was taken out from the leaves of the sect, which is extremely inconspicuous, but here, it is extremely rare.

“So, do you have a way to leave?”

Her focus was here.

Fu Yan pursed his lips and frowned slightly, “No...”

“Then how do you go back, won’t you go back after your research?”

“This... I didn’t think about it before I came here, I have another adventure. My friend sent me by helicopter, but he went to Antarctica to explore, I don’t know if he is still alive...”

...

Chapter 268 He went to Antarctica to explore

Chapter 268 He went to Antarctica to explore

Antarctica?

Su Nan's heart sank suddenly.

Not sure if that friend will survive, save them?

It could be said to be delusional.

So, after working for a long time, is there still no hope?

Su Nan's face was pale, and Fu Yanni took out the prepared lighter from his bag and started to boil water.

"Then...then can't you communicate with the outside world?"

Fu Yanni gave her a sincere look, dispelling her hopes.

"No."

"Have you never thought about how to leave? " "Have you thought about it

, I want a fool to come here too, so that when someone saves her, they will also take me out by the way. Anyway, the materials I am looking for are almost the same. Now ."

Su Nan: "..."

So, is she the fool?

This news blew away the joy, it was sad enough!

Fu Yanni skillfully distilled the seawater, and then reprocessed and distilled the distilled seawater. He went back and forth several times before he lowered his head to taste it, took a sip, and handed the rest to Su Nan.

"Drink it, haven't you drunk water for several days?"

Su Nan took it, "I haven't had a drink since I came here."

She still remembered that the last thing she drank before coming here was the cup that Young Master Kong handed her to her. Champagne Rose.

She drank it after a few sips, and looked at Fu Yanni blankly.

"No..." she said guiltily.

“Next time.”

Who asked her to bring back so much seawater?

Not much more for one distillation!

“Are you enough?”

She clearly saw that he didn't drink much.

Fu Yanni looked at her with raised eyebrows and smiled, “Like our explorers, we can live without fresh water and tools.”

Isn't urine also life-saving when people are at their limit?

But looking at Su Nan's delicate appearance, it is estimated that she would rather die than rely on that to save her life.

“You've been here for so long, have you been acting as a savage?”

Su Nan couldn't help but ask, she didn't understand why those savages wanted to burn her but not Fu Yanni?

Fu Yanni saw her thoughts and nodded.

“If you don't become their enemies, you can only become their companions. They don't have such a high IQ and won't recognize them.”

Su Nan nodded, if only they had met earlier.

It's really too late to meet, this word is used here, it is really suitable!

When Su Nan remembered the scene of being burned, she felt terrified and terrified.

I can't imagine that if it hadn't been for that timely rain, 80% of her would have turned into ashes now.

Su Nan looked puzzled and surprised.

“Then you know, why did they burn me to death?”

“It should be a sacrifice. I read it in a biography jointly produced by Europe and Africa. Among the primitive tribes, people with strange appearances and unknown behaviors should be sent to them. She goes to heaven, oh, it is to send you to heaven to get blessings.

This kind of sacrifice is to use fire as a guide, and then give you their best food, let you leave with food, and bless them with more food.

But if If you fail in the middle, you can only stop immediately, so when it rains, I will take you away...”

Su Nan pursed his lips, similar to what Su Xiaohu said.

Forget it, I don't want to.

This kind of thing, once in a lifetime is enough!

Her gloomy mood improved slightly, and this should be the most relaxing moment in the past few days.

She smiled and suddenly remembered an important point, with a little doubt.

“Is the location of this island on the map?”

Logically speaking, if something happened to her, the Su family would not be indifferent.

If no one could be found in the waters where the plane crashed, the people of the Su family would not fail to expand the area.

But after so many days, there is no sign of coming to save her, as if the whole world has forgotten.

She couldn't help but wonder if this place existed.

Fu Yanni looked slightly solemn and sighed.

“Yes, yes, but...”

“But what?”

Fu Yanni asked thoughtfully:

“But this place is included in the international forbidden area, because there are often pirates in the surrounding hundreds of seas, no matter which country ships only After passing through, it will definitely cause international disputes and huge losses, so the pirates blocked this place from the satellite map and used special equipment...”

Su Nan was speechless on the spot.

So, is there anything worse than this?

Su Nan felt like a boulder fell from his heart.

It was so heavy it was hard to breathe.

Every time she felt desperate, there was always a shocking fact.

“That is to say, we can’t go out except staying here?”

The planes and boats that rescued people would not find it here, and they dared not expect a group of pirates to save people. It would be better to be eaten by savages.

Feel the atmosphere a little dignified.

Fu Yanni smiled and gave her a relaxed smile.

“Don’t worry, you’re not alone.”

Chapter 269 I’m short of money

Su Nan’s eyes are slightly sour, “They must think I’m dead, my dad and my brother are so sad...”

Fu Yan Ni was slightly taken aback, and looked up at her. At a glance, seeing her desperate look, she couldn’t bear it.

“We...still have hope.”

“What hope is there?”

Su Nan looked up at him, her eyes twinkling like a reflection of the sea of stars.

Fu Yanni was stunned, and opened his mouth to make up: “In history, there were also people who crossed the sea and swam back...”

Su Nan: “Can you shut up?”

“Oh, okay.”

Su Nan didn’t know When did he lie down on the leaves and fall asleep.

When Su Xiaohu realized that there was no danger, he got out of Su Nan’s pocket and visited the cave on his own.

Fu Yanni quickly grabbed Su Xiaohu and looked at it.

“Susu still carries pets with her?”

Su Xiaohu kicked all four legs in the air.

“Let go of others, they are tigers, not pets!”

Fu Yanni’s eyes lit up.

“Is it a talking fake tiger?”

Su Xiaohu’s beard is shaking in anger, which is simply insulting its self-esteem as a tiger!

“I’m a real tiger!”

Fu Yanni smiled, holding his tail in circles, like holding a mouse.

Su Xiaohu shouted angrily: “Mama save me, someone is going to kill a tiger...”

Fu Yanni covered Su Xiaohu’s mouth for a moment, glanced at Su Nan, who was sleeping soundly, and breathed a sigh of relief. .

“Don’t scream.”

He let go of his hand, and Su Xiaohu jumped to the ground, with his head held high and his chest held high in the style of a king.

It’s a pity that it is dirty all over, and it can no longer look clean and cute before.

But he still raised his head and looked at him cutely.

“I know you, Fu Yanni is a well-known self-media person on the Internet. Your documentary adventure documentary has won five consecutive international awards, and your fans are all over the world.

You are also the grandson of the chairman of the Fu Group, and your family is rich.

” Fu Yanni was just surprised, and when he heard the last sentence, his eyes narrowed slightly.

“You know quite a lot...”

When he was popular, he was revealed by his friends, but he disappeared soon.

“Of course, my search think tank covers global knowledge. As long as it has appeared on the Internet, I know it.”

Fu Yanni smiled, picked it up and put it in his hand.

“You can’t tell Su Su that Fu Yechuan is my uncle, otherwise... I wonder if those savages like tigers?”

Su Xiaohu rolled his round eyes.

“You dare to threaten the tiger?”

Fu Yanni: “Yeah...”

Su Xiaohu’s momentum was obviously weakened.

“Mama hates the people of your Fu family the most. Are you afraid that when someone comes to rescue her, throw you away...”

Fu Yanni raised her eyebrows, huh, was a fake tiger seen through?

It ‘s quite capable... After a night, Su Nan rarely got a good night’s sleep, so he didn’t have to worry about being roasted by a savage.

The sea washes against the stones, and the wind roars so loudly that it wakes her up.

Opening his eyes, only Su Xiaohu squatted beside her and looked at her roundly, looking very cute.

As soon as Su Nan stretched out his hand, Su Xiaohu jumped into her palm very tacitly and rubbed her chin.

“Fu Yanni went to fetch sea water, Mama, I love you...”

Su Nan smiled and stretched.

“I love you too...”

When Fu Yanni came in, he was about to start distilling fresh water with seawater.

Buying a way, he can handle everything himself, but this hypocritical ghost Su Nan, but he can’t.

Su Nan thought for a while, but he couldn't sit still and started picking up some reflective stones by the seaside, and placed the SOS symbol on the huge stone wall.

In case a plane passes by and sees it...

Su Xiaohu reluctantly uses his small and cute tiger legs to help Su Nan push the stone!

"Mr. Fu..."

"Just call me Ni Ni."

Fu Yanni took a sip of a glass of precious fresh water leisurely, winked at her, smiled, very kind.

His familiar character made Su Nan feel very comfortable.

Su Nan was stunned, okay, he doesn't think it sounds bad.

"Ni Ni, do you have any wishes? When you go back, I will help you realize it."

Fu Yanni paused, looking at her very seriously and sincerely.

"I'm short of money."

Chapter 270 Don't be impulsive to donate money

Chapter 270 Don't be impulsive to donate money

. Su Nan has long felt that Fu Yanni is short of money. If he is not short of money, is it such a lifeless job?

She tapped him on the shoulder.

"Don't worry, I have money, and we will go out in the future. As long as I am here, I will not worry about having no money to spend!"

Fu Yanni became excited for a moment, wishing to look at her with tears in his eyes.

"Susu, I will rely on you for the next life."

"No problem."

Su Nan agreed, with her net worth, is it difficult to raise a younger brother?

The capital of country Z.

When Su Ming came out of the closed laboratory of the research institute, he heard about Su Nan. Without saying a word, he immediately took a private jet to the sea area.

Su Qi didn't come back, which means that everything has not been settled.

Those celebrities and dignitaries who had some friendship with the Su family on weekdays did not dare to poke at their sadness at this time.

But there are those who have high self-esteem and are smart, and hurriedly inquired about Su Nan's house, and sent flowers to mourn again and again.

Su Yifeng's body just got better, and he went back to the hospital again.

Su Jin directly issued a ban order, whoever dares to send another bouquet of flowers will directly return the flowers to his hometown!

Now, those who can't sit still can be considered quiet.

Even the news about Su Nan's death on the Internet has become a taboo word.

The platform media gave a death order not to talk about this matter.

Everyone can see that the Su family does not admit that Su Nan has passed away

Su Ming's plane landed on the giant ship where Su Qi was on for more than ten hours in a row.

The wreckage of the plane was salvaged and shattered, but none of the people on it were found.

I'm afraid, he would have been buried in the belly of the fish long ago.

The longer the time passed, the more ugly Su Qi's face became.

As soon as Su Ming arrived on the cruise, he watched Su Qi drinking and watching the underwater diving scene. There were bloodshot eyes all over his eyes, and he didn't know that he hadn't groomed for a few days.

Yu Lou did not dare to persuade him, but he was pleasantly surprised to see Su Ming coming.

"Second Master Su."

Su Ming nodded slightly, and had his computer moved to the boat.

“Stop drinking, Dad wants to donate all the family’s property, including yours...”

Su Qi didn’t care, his face was decadent.

“Just donate...”

Su Ming looked sideways.

“You didn’t think about it, what would she do if the little four came back and found that she was a pauper?”

Su Qi frowned, “Then you can’t donate... Wait, she can come back?” Su Qi frowned

. Ming pounded on the computer with a dignified expression, and stared at the strings of English words that flashed by in seconds. He nodded in response without hesitation.

Su Qi stood up excitedly, ran over, and surrounded Su Ming, tears streaming down his face.

“Really? Really?”

Apart from Su Yifeng, the most authoritative person in this family is Su Jin, and the one with the highest IQ is Su Ming, which is recognized.

Apart from being good-looking, Su Qi has no other advantage at all.

So Su Ming said this, which made Su Qi more confident and excited.

Su Ming’s voice was calm and composed.

“The black box on the plane was taken away by country M. I contacted a hacker friend and hacked the flight record of the black box for me.”

Su Qi’s eyes widened, wouldn’t it cause international disputes?

“Within a minute before the plane exploded, there was a huge deviation in the driving route of the plane. Although the location of the explosion was right in this sea area, but...”

Su Qi was very anxious and asked quickly. .

“But what?”

Su Ming pursed her lips and opened her mouth with deep eyes.

“But in that minute, a mysterious signal once tried to correct the flight deviation.

That signal was sent by Su Xiaohu, and the location where it finally disappeared was a thousand nautical miles before the fall.

If Su Xiaohu’s professionalism is high enough , then it will guide the little four to make early warning preparations.”
