Divorce billionaire heiress chapter 2612-Su Qi glanced at him with a strange look before leaving dissatisfied.

I am a majestic actor, but I was crushed by a straight man?

Who would believe it?

Fu Yechuan lowered his head and smiled lightly, then shook his head before he got his mood together and walked in.

If I had known that Su Qi was a child, I couldn't change it after so many years.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have hugged Su Yifeng's thigh and acted like a baby.

Su Yifeng looked at all this, and there was no disturbance in his heart, and he sat there thinking about it.

Fu Yechuan walked over and bowed lightly, "Su Dong, I formally apologize to you for my recklessness last time."

active.

But for Su Yifeng, it is not the severity of the injury that can determine the size of the matter.

This small disturbance indeed aroused a lot of resentment in the Su family.

But he has to do it.

He couldn't give up on Ning Yue just because he was concerned about the Su family.

Su Yifeng took a sip of the tea next to him, and then raised his eyes lightly, "Mr. Fu, didn't you already apologize last time? Needless to say, this kind of superficial politeness, I didn't cooperate with you. Yes, I'm because your wife is my daughter's friend."

Fu Yechuan pursed his lips, his expression was stern, showing a bit of modesty, "No matter what, you have helped me, I am very grateful and sorry, I am not being polite, I'm not acting, Su Dong, I sincerely want to express my apology."

He paused, his eyes flickering a little dark.

After a pause for a few seconds, he took out the contract that he had already prepared.

“I know you don’t need anything, but this is my sincerity. I don’t want the shares that Su Yinian sold to me, so I take it as my sincerity to shock you.” Su Yifeng took it over, and his face changed when he heard Fu Yechuan’s words. Very ugly.

When he opened the contract, his expression changed drastically.

Although he is no longer in the company, the more important projects in the company will be brought back for review.

Sometimes through the conversation between Su Nan and Su Jin at home, he can also know what projects the Su Group is currently handling.

The Huagong project in front of him has changed from the headquarters of the Su Group to Su Yinian of J City.

And the equity transfer letter below was signed by Su Yinian himself, transferring the shares in his hand to Fu Yechuan.

He watched it for three full minutes.

Su Yinian’s face became more and more ugly little by little.

Even breathing became a little short.

His face was livid.

He threw the things in his hand on the ground abruptly,

“What’s going on, Fu Yechuan, did you set up the scheme because of Su Group’s shares, or did Su Yinian come to the door by himself?”

Su Yifeng asked very directly.

Fu Yechuan pursed his lips, with a stern aura and a bit of silence, but in front of Su Yinian, it was enough to lower his airs.

“Su Dong, if I wanted the Su Group, I would have had a lot of opportunities at the beginning. I would not do anything to the Su Group, not because I couldn’t, but because I couldn’t. It was Su Yinian who came to me to cooperate with me.” , He took the initiative to propose the transfer of equity, just to let the resources of your group headquarters be shifted to J City, maybe when the group is sold out, his chance will come again.” Fu Yechuan’s tone was cold, as if there was no emotion.

He is arrogant and self-confident, but he also has gaps in his chest. He can explain patiently here because of his previous apology.

Maybe there is also a little apology to Su Nan.

Su Yi Fengqi's chest rose and fell, and he covered his chest, his face turned blue with anger.

"This bastard, he still doesn't give up. I haven't treated him badly, so how could he..."

How could he be restless at all?

This time he had a birthday banquet, he originally wanted to have a quiet meal.

It was Su Yinian who came all the way here just to celebrate his birthday, and said that it must be more grand.

The relationship between the brothers was finally repaired, so Su Yifeng naturally would not refuse his proposal.

"Su Dong, you have read the contract. I haven't signed the equity transfer, and nothing has come into effect.

I handed over these things to you. How to deal with them is your business. I hope my sincerity can satisfy you.

But I want to remind you In a word, if you don't stop, you will suffer from it.

If he finds other people next time, they will not have my sincerity."

Fu Yechuan nodded slightly, then turned around and left here.

Su Yifeng sat there for a long time, watching his back quietly until he left.

There seemed to be a lot of things to say in his eyes, but he didn't know where to start when he got to his mouth.

Su Yinian had already come outside, entertaining the guests as the Su family.

He has an almost loving passion for socializing.

Su Jin frowned slightly, but couldn't say anything.

Until someone let Su Jin and Su Nan into the lounge.

The two people put down the things in their hands and went inside.

Su Nan went in and looked at Su Yifeng sitting stiffly on the chair, his expression was gloomy and gloomy, and he was completely different from the happy and joyful look just now.

“Dad, what’s the matter, did the third brother make you angry?”

Su Jin paused, “I just saw Fu Yechuan go out from here, what did he say?”

Su Yifeng slowly raised his head, knocked on the table, and pointed to the contract that was thrown on the ground not far away,

“Look at it This.”

Su Jin picked it up from the ground with a serious face, and after a few glances, his expression changed.

Su Nan saw it too, her heart sank, and her eyes instantly turned cold.

“Second Uncle is going to sell his shares? Or sell them to Fu Yechuan?”

Su Jin’s tone was cold and serious, “Not only that, he took advantage of the loopholes of cooperation, took away the opportunity of cooperation between the group and Fu’s Group, and became a subsidiary of J City Cooperate with the Fu Group. Moreover, the Fu Group occupies the home court, and the Su Group has become a foil. Not only have we become a foil, but we also need to pay twice as much resources in terms of conditions. This second uncle, he wants to make the entire group Is it sold to make him himself?”

Su Nan’s face was ugly, “Is he crazy? I’m so confused!”

Su Jin’s expression was indifferent, “At that time, the group will have to move resources to J City for this contract, and other projects It will be empty, and under the shortage of funds, the crisis of the Su Group is coming.”

He gritted his teeth irritably, “This second uncle is really crazy!”

Su Yifeng sat there silently, sighed

“He It’s okay to say that we have already asked him to sign the agreement, only to get dividends, without the right to transfer and use, but he may have forgotten this, thinking that there are dividends to get, so he is still a shareholder of the Su Group. I asked He guards the city of j, and the little rich will be safe, but he wants to make such a big mess. You say, what should we do?”

The Jiangshan he wrote down with one song was given to the two most suitable children.

They never let themselves down.

If the company is handed over to Su Yinian, it will really be destroyed.
