

Read Novel Divorce Billionaire Heiress Chapter 2618 [Chinese]

Divorce billionaire heiress chapter 2618-Ning Yue took his hand and shook her head.

But he couldn't speak.

She could only look at Fu Yechuan begging for help.

Fu Yechuan carried her down, "Go to sleep, don't disturb her rest."

Reluctantly, Fu Yunche reluctantly turned his head three times, wiped his tears and left.

Ning Yue looked at him a little angry.

blamed him for not having much patience with Fu Yunche.

Fu Yechuan sighed, sat down, took the ointment and applied it on her, "I'm really not in the mood to think about anything else right now, I'll apologize to him later, okay?"

Very soft.

People were found, and they all let go of their huge worries.

From the initial shock and grief, Ning Yue felt somewhat relieved now.

She felt that God treated her well.

Mr. Ning saved her and sent her back to hell.

But she climbed up from hell.

She also has her own career, and the man in front of her.

What else is she not satisfied with?

She was lucky.

She didn't fall into the mire, and she didn't let herself go because of misfortune.

She has worked very hard to live.

Fu Yechuan lowered his head, carefully applied the medicine to her, and moved cautiously.

I was afraid that my strength would hurt her too much.

Ning Yue's tears fell down in a daze, but she touched Fu Yechuan's face comfortingly, she was speechless, but her mouth was "It's okay, I don't hurt."

The corners of Fu Yechuan's eyes were slightly red, and he held her in his arms.

"If he succeeds, I will kill him, Ning Yue, I will definitely kill him."

Su Yinian didn't succeed, he beat people half to death.

If he succeeds, let alone, he will definitely go crazy, lose control, and make people pay for his life.

Of course Ning Yue believed Fu Yechuan's words.

After all, she saw him beating someone with her own eyes.

Fu Yechuan would not send people out so cheaply.

He sent Su Yinian to an unknown place.

Su Yinian had hypocritically said that he wanted to cooperate with him and begged him for help.

I'm afraid it's all an excuse he used to get close to Ning Yue.

The closer she gets to Fu Yechuan, the more Ning Yue will not doubt Su Yinian's intentions.

late at night.

Ning Yue fell asleep before Fu Yechuan went out.

Bodyguards are guarding here, and no one dares to approach here.

Su Yinian fainted in the cold, dark and damp room.

This is an old abandoned factory, which has nothing to do with the Fu Group.

Even if someone died here, no one would suspect Fu Yechuan.

He did all the preparations.

Including the death of the fish and breaking the net, naturally it also includes getting out of the body.

If a basin of cold water is poured on the head, no matter how drowsy a person is, there will be a stress response.

Su Yinian whimpered in pain, slowly raised his head, and looked at Fu Yechuan who was standing in the dark with a domineering aura.

He paused for a moment, then came to his senses, remembering what had happened, he trembled all over.

Fu Yechuan stood there and lit a cigarette for himself.

The smoke lingered, scattered in the air, diffused and dispersed, until nothing could be seen.

Su Yinian felt a cold fear.

It made him tremble unconsciously.

Seeing his reaction, Fu Yechuan chuckled.

“Boss Su, is that right?”

Boss Su reminded people of Ning Yue’s biological mother.

She didn’t even know his name.

It’s just that Ning Junchen introduced his President Su, and he became the President Su in her mouth.

She said, “President Su, let me go”, “President Su, please let me go, please.”

She also said, “I won’t let you go, I hate you to death.”

“I want you to die .”

In the end, only hysteria remained on that gentle face like water.

She and Ning Yue are indeed mother and daughter, they really look alike!

It seemed that every time he saw Ning Yue, he would unconsciously want to torture and abuse her.

They will all regard Ning Yue as her biological mother.

That face, beautiful and alluring.

It was that pitiful face that, while he was not paying attention, took a knife and injured his lower body, making him a man who was not a man, and a woman who was not a woman.

He hated that woman.

When Fu Yechuan stepped on his head with his foot.

His memory happened to be when the woman stood in front of the window and asked him, "Did you do Ning Junchen's death?"

At that time, Su Yinian, relying on the name of the Su Group, basically belonged to the family that no one dared to provoke. status.

Although Su Yifeng is well-known, everyone knows that he is kind and soft-hearted.

But Su Yinian is another side of him, he is ruthless in handling things.

Many projects met the Su Group only through him.

Su Yifeng didn't know that his younger brother would do these things, so he confidently handed over the power of the company to him.

At that time, it was his most brilliant moment.

Only later, because of a problem with a project, Su Yifeng no longer trusted him, and gradually withdrew these rights. When the Su Group established a subsidiary in J City, Su Yifeng let him leave the group.

He clearly knew that he was expelling him from the center of power.

He also agreed.

Because he hoped that his family would be the only one, always standing behind Su Yifeng, who would know Su Yinian's ability?

But he just escaped from Su Yifeng's control.

For a time the limelight was the same.

He proposed to let Ning Junchen send his wife to his home for him to play for a few days.

That wimpy Ning Junchen actually refused, and said that he would never continue in the future.

He regrets it.

Ridiculous, once it starts, how can there be any chance for him to regret it?

Do you think that one sentence of regret can make everything as if it never happened?

So as he was driving back, he fiddled with his brakes.

People do not know it.

Ning Junchen died, his wife must have no support, so she can only come to him.

Su Yinian's calculations were resounding.

He couldn't be happier.

A life would be gone, he didn't have the slightest fear, but felt an indescribable stimulation, like an electric current passing through his whole body, and wherever it went, it was densely packed.

Let him have a feeling of new life.

It turns out that this is killing people like hemp.

He looked at the woman on the windowsill who wanted to threaten with death, smiled, and told her how he felt at that time.

The woman was yelling like crazy.

He went up to force her, beat her, scolded her, and humiliated her as usual.

Even his child has been born, what is there to be dissatisfied with?

But she didn't know where to take out a knife, and ruthlessly pierced into his lower body.

He wanted to kill her all the time.

But before he could do it himself, the woman jumped off the balcony.

"Bang -" sound.

What is the sound of smashing.

The baby was crying loudly.

He seemed to hear nothing.

He looked at the woman downstairs, his head was blooming, tsk tsk, how cruel.

But my heart is still happy.

He's gone, erasing all traces of himself.

The Ning family didn't know anything, even if they knew, because of the project and Ning Junchen's active contact, they didn't dare to talk nonsense.

They can't afford to lose this man.
