Divorce billionaire heiress chapter 2626-Shen Jie was silent for a moment, then pursed her lips.

“I don’t care what method you use, you must let them see her, otherwise, I will give this bottle of potassium cyanide to your parents.”

Ning Zhenzhen raised her head suddenly, her face extremely pale.

“Understood.”

she whispered.

The uneasiness and fear in his eyes could not be concealed.

...

within a few days.

The timing just came.

At a charity auction, Fu Yechuan specially brought Ning Yue to attend it in order to relax her mind.

Moreover, he also took a lot of jewelry and antiques in a very high-profile way, and soon became the focus of the venue.

After the auction, there will be a charity dinner.

Ning Zhenzhen’s parents managed to get an invitation through various channels.

Shen Jie had already been in the center of the venue, and originally wanted to watch this good show as the third person.

But Ning Zhenzhen’s parents came late, and the crowd dispersed when they arrived.

Shen Jieqi’s teeth itch.

If you miss this opportunity, how long will you have to wait for the next opportunity?

The Su family will definitely deal with the matter of shares as soon as possible.

She had to get rid of Ning Yue before they did it.

In this way, no one else will compete with themselves.

soon.

The eldest aunt of the Ning family hid in a panicked place where no one was around.

Holding that bottle of familiar medicine, I was about to pour it into the wine as soon as I opened it.

But by coincidence, a man who had drunk too much happened to come out and knocked her down.

The eldest aunt of the Ning family groaned in pain, and quickly attracted the attention of others.

The bottle of medicine rolled into a corner where no one noticed.

Just a little bit.

Shen Jie watched the scene indifferently.

It's really a family with more success than failure.

The uncle of the Ning family also turned pale with fright and trembled all over. He went over and grabbed the hand of the eldest aunt, shouting for help in a panic, calling for an ambulance.

Naturally, there was a doctor in the venue. With the help of everyone watching, the two were put on a stretcher and sent away.

Shen Jie's face turned blue with anger.

Wait for the crowd to disperse.

She walked to that corner by herself, and held the bottle of medicine in her hand while no one was paying attention.

She took a chance and sprinkled the medicine in the red wine, which quickly melted into the rich liquid.

After doing all this, Shen Jie's palms were sweating.

Even if she wanted to kill someone herself, when things came to an end, she would still feel weak and sweaty from the nervous hands and feet.

She swirled the glass of wine, took a deep breath, and calmed herself down.

Holding the glass of wine, she walked towards Ning Yue.

The passing waiter was also carrying a few glasses of wine, she paused, took one of the glasses down, and put the drugged wine on it.

“Go and deliver the wine to Mrs. Fu, I’m going to toast.”

The waiter paused, followed her without asking any further questions.

Shen Jie felt relieved.

As long as it is not by her own hands, even if Ning Yue dies before her eyes, it has nothing to do with her.

She thought, and walked over with a smile.

Ning Yue didn’t know her, but she knew Ning Yue.

Long before the plan started, she knew Ning Yue well.

Fu Yechuan was not by her side, and Ning Yue was surrounded by a group of ladies and ladies, chatting and joking.

Shen Jie walked over, putting on the usual hypocritical mask: “Mrs. Fu, it’s a great honor to meet you for the first time...”

She raised her glass to drink with Ning Yue: “I came here specially to say hello to you Yes, my husband and Mr. Fu still have a lot of cooperation!”

She introduced herself vaguely.

Looks like those ladies who want to curry favor.

In this vanity fair, there are many little people like her who are not well-known.

She made up her mind that Ning Yue would not ask the bottom line.

really.

Ning Yue just smiled politely and nodded, “Hi.”

Shen Jie raised her wine glass as a signal.

Ning Yue didn’t move.

The person next to him couldn’t help laughing:

“You let Mrs. Fu drink, but you filled your glass with pomegranate juice? Isn’t this bullying?”

Shen Jie was slightly taken aback.

Only then did I realize that the goblet I was holding was diamond-shaped as a whole, while other red wine glasses are common.

It is estimated that the red wine and the juice of the same color are arranged separately.

She secretly scolded herself for being careless, and actually focused all her attention on the Ning family.

She quickly took a new glass from the waiter, and then put another glass in front of Ning Yue.

“I made a mistake. Please don’t blame me, Mrs. Fu. I respect you for this cup.”

Shen Jie could not be mistaken, she just put the poisoned cup on the outside of the tray in the waiter’s hand, but she took the cup inside.

Ning Yue accepted it with a smile, and drank it down in front of everyone.

Shen Jie’s expression was shocked, and she immediately drank the cup in front of her.

But as soon as she swallowed it, she felt something was wrong.

There was a burning sensation in the stomach for a moment.

The cup in her hand fell to the ground and shattered into pieces.

Suddenly there was a shocked roar in his ear.

Everyone immediately gathered around.

Shen Jie only felt that she was in such pain that even her breathing hurt, her internal organs seemed to be split open, and the boundless pain swept all her rationality.

She curled up on the cold ground, trembling and shivering uncontrollably.

The pain got worse and worse.

Looking at Ning Yue in her dark eyes, she began to scream in shock, there was nothing wrong with her.

That glass of wine...

No, the one she drank was clearly not poisonous!

how so?

It's just that the consciousness gradually collapses.

She smelled the blood on her body, and the liquid flowing from her nose seemed very strong.

Gradually, her eyes dimmed, and she lost consciousness.

the terrified hind legs of everyone.

Security guards quickly came to surround and protect the scene.

The police also quickly got the news and rushed over.

The ambulance came first, but it was too late.

When it arrived, the person had lost his breath and became stiff.

Fu Yechuan was socializing in other places, and rushed over when he heard the commotion, and was looking at Ning Yue sitting there, his face pale with fright.

He hurried over and hugged her, covering her eyes.

The person next to him reacted and immediately began to explain: "Mr. Fu, it's not clear whether this woman wants to harm your wife or commit suicide.

She took the wine herself and handed a glass to your wife. What a shame. It's too scary, let's go to the hospital quickly!"

"Yes, how could this happen?"

...

Fu Yechuan's face tensed and he didn't speak.

The people at the venue dispersed everyone.

As a close contact, Ning Yue stayed behind to be questioned by the police.

She was startled and her face was very bad.

After all, people die before their eyes.

The police were also considerate and asked Fu Yechuan to accompany him.

The other side has already obtained the monitoring immediately.

The weird thing is.

at an angle.

Shen Jie poured the medicine into the cup by herself and shook it for fear that others would find out.

Then put the stuffed stuff on the waiter's tray.

The first time he went to Ning Yue.

But why did Shen Jie die?
