Chapter 271 You are the IQ of finding a needle in a haystack

Chapter 271 You are the IQ who is looking for a needle in a haystack.

Su Qi was shocked and stunned in place. He has been afraid to think about it for the past few days, and dare not recognize the reality. What if it happens?

But until Su Ming finished speaking, he suddenly bowed down and trembled violently, a big man actually started to cry.

Yu Lou also flushed his eyes with excitement, feeling the same way.

Su Ming looked at him silently.

“Sorry, I came out too late.”

If it wasn't for that closed secret research, he would have come out long ago.

But with his high IQ, he calmly analyzed all the details and possibilities, and corrected all the deviations little by little.

Su Xiaohu's positioning device didn't respond at all, and he couldn't find any traces on the satellite map. It was estimated that it was blocked by some high-tech equipment.

Therefore, their search range should be set in the sea area two thousand nautical miles away from their current location.

Su Qi called everyone to stop the search and rescue work here and turned around immediately.

Su Ming kept checking the satellite map on the computer, looking at the specific situation of that sea area little by little.

There are many small islands, which means more dangers...

He was a little silent.

Su Qi excitedly called Su Yifeng to announce the good news, and told him not to rush to donate his property, and was scolded by Su Yifeng. At this time, he was still thinking about money, or was he not a person?

Su Ming looked at Su Qi who was stunned, and snorted coldly.

“You are an IQ who finds a needle in a haystack.”

Su Qi wanted to talk back, but after thinking about it, let it go. Who made Su Ming really crush everyone in terms of IQ?

When the leader of a mercenary army heard that he was going to that sea area, he questioned it, and they didn't want to go.

Su Qi finally saw hope, and of course he couldn't give up.

“You can make a price, money is not a problem.”

The mercenary shook his head and refused.

“It's not about money. The situation in that sea area is complicated. We might die if we go there. The reason why governments from all over the world have not sent peacekeepers there is that that place is the exclusive area of pirates, and their base camp is here. One of the islands, once you enter, there is no return.”

Su Qi's heart was half cold, and he looked at Su Ming as if asking for help.

What to do now?

Su Ming hesitated for a moment, then picked up the satellite phone and called Su Jin.

Before hanging up the phone, Su Jin only said, “Got it, wait for the news.”

Su Jin was silent for a full minute, and went to Fu's house with his mobile phone.

Fu's old house.

Mr. Fu had locked Fu Yechuan in the room for two days and two nights.

He doesn't eat anything, but there are wine bottles all over the room.

The whole person was depressed without a trace of anger, hugged the bottle and huddled in the corner, and kept saying Su Nan's name.

Lu Qi and Wei Chenglai persuaded several times to no avail.

In front of this Fu Yechuan, where is the high-spirited, cold and noble President Fu they knew?

He is really possessed by Su Nan!

When Su Jin went, he couldn't help frowning slightly when he saw that scene.

"Mr. Fu, if I tell you, maybe Su Nan... can come back?"

If he remembered correctly, when Fu Yechuan first took over the Fu Group, several elders in the group were not convinced. They teamed up to give him a set.

When the crude oil of several giant ships was passing through the Atlantic waters at sea, they were suddenly attacked by pirates and looted.

At that time in foreign countries, the official and the military did not care about such international disputes.

When this happens, most people can only consider themselves unlucky.

But Fu Yechuan drove a speedboat and rushed into the pirate group. Just when everyone thought he was dead, he not only came back by himself, but also brought back crude oil!

This incident shocked all levels at home and abroad.

Fu Yechuan was the first person who could escape from the hands of the pirates and let the pirates go home empty-handed.

Therefore, if there is any hope for this rescue operation, it can only look at Fu Yechuan.

Regardless of whether Fu Yechuan drank too much, Su Jin explained everything one by one.

If the pirates want money, all is well.

The most feared thing is that they want their lives.

As soon as Su Jin left, Fu Yechuan got up in a panic and asked Chen Mian to contact the plane. He must go there immediately.

He took out an old phone and a gun in the safe and walked away.

Mr. Fu's people couldn't stop the crazy Fu Yechuan, they could only watch him leave, stomping his feet angrily.

As long as Su Nan still has a glimmer of hope, even if he wants to risk his life, he is willing!

Chapter 272 The first unlucky

egg Su Nan was chewing the fish without any condiments, and she didn't taste the original deliciousness.

The fish was washed ashore by the sea, and Fu Yanni picked it up and roasted some dried leaves.

In addition to the fishy and salty, it is bland and tasteless.

"I really want to eat that old French restaurant on the streets of Paris in country F, and it's perfect with a glass of white wine."

Fu Yan and Ni Zheng ate happily. Hearing this, he glanced at her and leaned forward with a smile.

"Susu, if you don't want to eat it, give it to me..." As she said that, she was about to get the piece of fish in her hand.

Su Nan ducked and glared at him protectively.

"Be careful Su Xiaohu bites you..."

Su Xiaohu made a ferocious grin on the side.

Fu Yanni said tentatively, "If you're bored, put on savage clothes, and I'll take you to see their tribe."

Su Nan immediately shook his head, should he die if he's bored?

Not to mention putting on their clothes, just hearing the word "savage" made her tremble!

Impossible!

There are no clouds in the sky, the blue is clear and clean, and the sea breeze blows in bursts, refreshing and natural.

But Su Nan didn't mean to appreciate it at all. When will the restless and thrilling days come to an end...

While immersed in boundless sadness, suddenly the rumbling sound of the engine came from the distant sea.

Before Fu Yanni could react, Su Nan ran out and waved at the little shadow in the sea from a high place.

“Help me...”

The speedboat was getting closer and the sound was getting closer.

It's just that before Su Nan was happy, Fu Yanni pulled her and ran away, her voice cold and decisive.

“Come on, it's the pirates.”

Su Nan's face was terrified, she stopped her voice, picked up Su Xiaohu and ran away.

Fu Yanni almost laughed when she saw her running for her life so well.

“Run deep into the woods...”

Su Nan's voice hesitated, but his footsteps did not stop.

“Isn't there a wildling there?”

“That's better than a pirate...”

Also!

The two of them ran without looking back, firm and resolute, the cold wind blowing on their faces, it was cold and painful.

They ran out of breath, but didn't dare to stop for a moment, even more serious than the situation that night!

Because they could hear the chaotic footsteps and unbridled laughter behind them, and a few shots were fired as a warning.

Like a wild and primitive chase game!

They are the prey being chased.

Su Nan's fear has never passed so quickly in the future, and almost every nerve is shaking with fear.

Suddenly, her feet slipped, and her knees slammed to the ground with a dull sound, as if her bones were broken!

Fu Yanni turned back and saw that she bit her lower lip in pain, her face was pale, and she planned to go forward and carry her on her back.

Su Nan pushed him away, gritted his teeth and stood up with his hands on the ground, showing a bleak smile.

“Save your strength, I can still run.”

Fu Yechuan looked at her, nodded, stretched out his hand and pulled her arm to run forward without stopping for a moment.

That knee hurt so badly, it seemed like a whole leg was going to be abolished.

But she couldn't stop, she was still running numbly, the cold sweat on her forehead betrayed the severe pain she had endured at this time!

I heard the sound of gunfire coming closer and closer, and the sound of footsteps gradually approaching.

Su Nanran's heart was beating violently, as if a hand was pinching her throat, the limits of her body were fighting against her consciousness.

There is no doubt that she did not hesitate at all, and could only obey the orders of her consciousness.

The cold wind is mixed with gunshots from time to time, and they dare not relax!

Their faces became more and more ugly, and they could only quicken their pace and run forward desperately.

Those pirates must have caught up after seeing the SOS mark left by Su Nan.

Seeing the thick smoke rising from the location of the savage tribe, they breathed loose, Fu Yanni pulled her around from the side, and went straight to the back, behind a thick tree.

This was where they kept the dry branches, which still had the fishy smell of fish oil she had once smelled.

“boom—“

...

Chapter 273 Life hangs by a thread

Chapter Two Hundred and Seventy-Third

A shot rang out, and the savages were alerted and stood up with wooden sticks in panic and vigilance.

Su Nan and Fu Yanni looked at each other, his expression became unusually serious, his eyes were vigilant, his index finger was placed on his lips, and he made a shush.

Immediately afterwards, they heard countless hurried footsteps, the savages running and stepping on the branches, and they shouted loudly in a language they couldn't understand.

Like a serious warning.

The angry insults of the pirates were accompanied by the sound of their guns, and the atmosphere became tense for a while. The pirates, because they had guns, were naturally not afraid of these savages.

However, there are not as many savages, the number of bullets is limited, and the advantage is not much.

They were even more angry that they came here with the "prey", and they found nothing except the savages.

Been played.

"There are savages in this place? Damn it, killing them is a waste of bullets!"

"That explorer should be nearby, I wonder if it's a fat fish?"

"You can see if you catch it, it's not fat. Just kill him." There were only three pirates who came, and the voices of their English conversations reached their ears, which was horrifying.

Su Nan's heart was in his throat, and his nervous heart was about to jump out!

The three men began firing unscrupulously, do not know if someone is injured, some savage frightened, began to chaos around channeling escape.

The twigs of the other savages were weaker than their guns.

They roamed the tribe, kicking over their tents and firewood, and savagely kicking the emaciated savages aside.

Immediately, the shouts and screams of the savages, and the happy and wanton laughter of the pirates, untimely merged into one.

The loud noise was getting closer and closer, almost behind the tree where they were hiding.

Su Nan almost held her breath, her body was stiff, and she did not dare to make a slight movement.

It was as if the eyes on the top of the head were watching him, the feeling of numbness in the scalp, as if to push them to death every inch.

what to do?

“Ah...”

At the critical moment, the savage shouted violently, and they began to fight back against the pirates and attack them.

In the next second, the pirate cursed angrily and avoided the sneak attack of the savages.

It also let Su Nan and Fu Yanni breathe a sigh of relief.

“Don’t kill people, a large number of savages are coming, it will anger them, let’s withdraw first!”

one of them shouted.

The situation was reversed quickly, and the unity of the savages was beyond imagination. Those savages who fled, all took up weapons and planned to fight, waving the branches in their hands fiercely.

The pirates were not reconciled but had to leave, otherwise the bullets ran out and they would not end if they were caught!

They ran quickly and injured a few savages. The rest of the savages rushed to chase...

Su Nan and Fu Yanni looked at each other, the two were pale and relieved, revealing a robbery A smile for the rest of your life.

Fu Yanni did not relax his vigilance, and carefully searched for the existence of the remaining savages around him.

“Let’s go another way, don’t collide with the savages.”

Of course Su Nan believed in his professional ability, and nodded in agreement immediately.

The two were about to leave when they suddenly heard a roaring sound in the air.

Kind of like the movement of a helicopter, more than one.

Su Xiaohu suddenly got out of Su Nan's pocket.

"Someone cracked my positioning code and started to locate my location with satellites, Mama, it may be Silent or Su Ming."

...

Chapter 274 No, I'm afraid

Chapter Two Hundred and Seventy-Fourth No I was afraid that when Su Nan heard the name, tears almost came out, and I couldn't wait to jump up with joy.

"My brother is here!"

She almost thought she was going to die here!

There are countless heavy boulders in her chest, and it is about to make her unable to hold on!

The rumbling sound was incessant, as if beckoning them.

Su Nan never thought that the sound of the helicopter could pull her back from the brink of death.

It is simply the fire of her hope, the light of tomorrow!

She ran twice as fast as usual.

Fu Yanni was also very excited, he found another way to return in front, and looked back at her as he ran.

"Susu, we're going back together, you won't leave me, will you?"

Su Nan looked at him happily and smiled.

"Of course!"

"After you go back, no matter what happens, you can't ignore me..."

“Don’t worry, the rest of your life will be given to me!”

She thought he was worried that she would turn her face . Don’t recognize people!

Isn’t that a brother?

Can she afford it?

Excited for a while, she didn’t notice that the tree branch tripped her down suddenly, and Su Nan’s pained face turned pale.

Fu Yanni went up and pulled Su Nan up.

“Don’t worry, in case it’s a trap, aren’t we throwing ourselves into the net?”

Su Nan shook his head, excited and confident.

“No, it’s not a trap, it must be my brother, my brother is the genius with the highest IQ!”

As long as you can locate Su Xiaohu, you will definitely know that she is here!

For twenty minutes, they ran like they were dying.

Su Nan fell several times, and the clothes on his body were scratched, so dirty that he could not see the original appearance.

The original Bai Nen’s hands were full of scars and blood dripping traces, which was shocking.

But she didn’t care at all, and didn’t cry out in pain.

After running out of the woods, the beach with unobstructed reefs and sandy beaches, three helicopters were waiting, and the huge propellers kept spinning, which was deafening.

There are also eight speedboats not far from the coast. On each speedboat are six or seven foreign men, tall and fierce. They all have guns and sunglasses on their bodies, ready to fight.

The sea breeze swept the huge waves, slapped the reef angrily, cold and solemn, and the chill was awe-inspiring.

This battle was dignified and solemn, with a compelling chill that made people tremble.

The dangerous scene doesn’t look like it’s here to save people.

Especially when I saw three foreigners in foreign military uniforms standing closest to Su Nan and the others, each carrying a handful of robberies, standing there smoking leisurely...

Su Nan's heart rose. A cold chill, with fear even in the bones!

At this time, they were looking at Su Nan and Fu Yanni who had thrown themselves into the net, and the danger and chill in their surprised and playful eyes was creepy.

Invariably, they laughed arrogantly...

But the faces of Su Nan and Fu Yanni were as pale as a ghost...

Fu Yanni took Su Nan's hand and trembled slightly.

"Sea... pirates!"

Su Nan wanted to calm down, but her heart couldn't be calm anymore.

Intuition is always so accurate, looking at the three foreigners with guns, I know that they are the pirates who chased them just now.

After being driven away by the savages, stay here and wait for the rabbits!

This time, they took the initiative to send it to the door.

Su Nan stood there, his mind was blank, his heart seemed to be soaked in ice water, freezing to the bone.

Despair, which had never been so fierce, enveloped her head like a black cloud.

There are hearts that want to cry.

Why, challenge her bottom line of desperate survival again and again?

The three pirates threw away their cigarettes, looked at each other, and walked towards them both slowly.

The prey is already in the pocket, do you still need to worry?

Su Nan gritted his teeth and suppressed the huge fear in his heart.

"Run..."

Fu Yanni's voice suppressed a trembling.

“No, I’m afraid, they have guns.”

...

Chapter 275 Lamb to be slaughtered

Chapter 275

Su Nan, the lamb to be slaughtered, immediately dismissed the idea of turning around and running.

It would be too unfair to be shot from behind!

But what if you don’t run?

The atmosphere was terribly cold, and the smell of gunpowder, accompanied by the salty sea water, whistled around.

The three people were just in front of them, and the two of them were almost unable to stand.

Fu Yanni was so frightened that he started to tremble, thinking that he, an explorer, had never seen such a battle!

Although Su Nan didn’t get much better, seeing the pirates approaching, her heart gradually calmed down.

Three men approached, two tall and strong.

The other was a little shorter and thinner, but his face was gloomy, and those falcon-like eyes were the most terrifying.

Seeing her face clearly, her eyes were a little surprised and greedy.

Although she was dressed in a very embarrassed manner, her facial features could not be concealed.

Aware of his gaze, Su Nan glared fiercely at the shorter, thinner man who was closest to him.

The man sneered provocatively, his eyes cold and stern, with sharp danger.

He blew a whistle and looked at her even more recklessly.

The next moment, the man held the barrel of the gun and placed the evil charm on her chin coldly, forcing her to raise her head.

He looked at the spoils with the attitude of a victor, joking with his companions in a devilish voice, indifferent and greedy.

“Look, this woman is really good looking, this time I have gained a lot...”

Everyone laughed together, arrogant and presumptuous!

Their eyes, like the letter of a poisonous snake, are licking Su Nan’s neck...

This is their territory, and Su Nan is just their prey.

The pirates on the yacht in the distance watched this scene with relish.

The atmosphere was tense, everyone knew that they couldn’t escape!

Su Nan was stiff all over, but his heart sank unexpectedly.

The roaring sea wind around her was blowing on her face, causing pain, but it made her extraordinarily sober and calm.

The fist on his side was tightly clenched, and the blood from his fingernails was nothing.

The barrel on the chin can also smell the ammo burning after the gun is fired.

It was a death warning.

At the moment when they looked at each other and laughed, Su Nan suddenly stretched out his hand, clenched the gun in front of him tightly, turned his body in an instant, and pulled it forward fiercely.

The other hand tried his best to break the man’s fingers, only to hear the man groan.

Looking at her eyes was a little unbelievable for a moment.

In front of this weak and embarrassed woman, dare to fight with him?

The next second, Su Nan didn’t give him a chance to fight back. In the blink of an eye, the gun was already in her hands.

With one hand, she changed the direction of the gun neatly and kicked the man to the ground again, forming a posture of kneeling on one knee.

The other two had long since restrained their smiles, and looked at Su Nan vigilantly, with obvious anger and grimness on their faces.

Two guns were aimed at her, while Su Nan's gun was aimed at the head of the man on the ground.

In an instant, the situation changed.

The relaxed and arrogant pirates had turned into indifference and nervousness.

Su Nan sneered, they are not lambs to be slaughtered, and pirates are not invulnerable wolves.

Fu Yanni watched this scene in shock, and immediately stood beside Su Nan and helped Su Nan suppress the man on the ground.

Su Nan gave him a good look.

The pirate opposite said a dirty word, and stared at Su Nan with stern eyes.

This damn woman!

Their guns are not decorations, and they can shoot bullets from the muzzle in the next second.

"Are you looking for death? Let him go!"

Su Nan's eyes were gloomy, and he hit the man on the ground with a gun on the head, and sneered.

"I want a helicopter."

"It's impossible."

One of them yelled, calling her out of her mind!

Dare to threaten pirates on their turf?

She is courting death!

Su Nan also didn't expect his lion's big mouth to be satisfied.

It's just that she has the bargaining chip, and she is suddenly less afraid.

Another person shouted in the distance, and the people on the submarine quickly dispatched together.

With a well-trained response with fierce killing intent, countless gun holes were quickly aimed at Su Nan...

Chapter 276 How much is she worth

Chapter 276 How Much Is She Worth

? At this moment, the situation is changing, and the black clouds are hanging above the sea. When the wind and rain are about to come, the sea is extraordinarily calm.

It seemed to herald an impending intense situation.

The dead silence looked at each other, and the cold and heavy atmosphere was extremely tense and dangerous, as if it was about to explode.

In front of him are well-trained pirates who kill without blinking an eye.

And Su Nan is just a survivor living here.

But she didn't have the slightest fear, the hand holding the gun did not shake, and the muzzle of the gun pointed at the head of the pirate she stepped on, making sure that he did not dare to struggle!

He raised his eyes and looked firmly and calmly at the dozens of guns in front of him aimed at him.

Fu Yanni's face was extremely pale when he saw this scene.

He couldn't help but kneel on the ground with his legs weak.

Su Nan glanced at him and spoke in Chinese because the pirates could not understand.

"Don't be afraid, stand behind me, run back as soon as the gun rings, don't look back."

With the woods behind, you have a better chance of escaping!

Fu Yan was shocked, he is an explorer, what danger has he not encountered before?

He has overcome the endless difficulties that nature brought him, no food, no water, no fire...

Even if it is an attack by a savage tribe, even if it falls off a cliff, even if it is robbed by pirates on the sea... .. he has experienced them all.

But right now, he was afraid, trembling with fear in his bones.

It was a suffocating feeling close to death, tingling the scalp and chilling the soles of the feet.

Human beings are always afraid and powerless in the face of death!

Such a scene, I am afraid Hollywood can not film.

But what does this delicate hypocrite Su Nan say?

Let him not be afraid?

Let him stand behind her?

Let him not look back?

Fu Yanni gritted his teeth and stood up with a stiff back, the panic in his eyes was gradually suppressed.

Can he get a woman in his way?

“I won’t run, I said, I will protect you!”

Although he just said it casually at the time, he now firmly remembers this promise.

Su Nan also wanted him to run away, and one who could live was one.

But before the words were spoken, the pirate on the opposite side gave orders in English extremely impatiently.

“Stop talking nonsense, shoot...”

Su Nan’s face changed drastically, secretly saying that it was not good.

This one in her hand is definitely not an important role.

Otherwise, people wouldn’t care so much about life and death.

For a split second, she could feel the actions of the people on the opposite side without hesitation carrying a murderous aura.

She glanced cautiously out of the corner of her eye.

A few dozen meters to the left is a reef, which is a good place for cover.

Once the fight started, the gun in her hand didn't have many bullets.

There are so many opponents, and there is almost no chance of winning...

How long can you delay?

Either way, she's lost!

"Wait..."

She took a deep breath and spoke in English:

"Let's talk about..."

The pirate on the opposite side was very rampant and angry, and there was no room for negotiation in his fierce eyes.

The indifference infiltrates people, making people feel eerie.

Su Nan continued:

"Talk about your conditions. The plane I was on crashed. We didn't intend to come here. We have no necessary conflict of interest. Let us go and you can make an offer."

The man looked at Su Nan with disdain. , the fierce face is cold and angry.

Offering price? How much do you think you're worth?" Su Nan was about to speak when the man who was being suppressed on the ground suddenly stood up, broke free to fight back, and waved his fist at Su Nan.

She was forced to take two steps back, and just took the opportunity to kick Fu Yannu behind the reef on the other side.

"What nonsense, being so insulted by a woman, still don't shoot?" The shorter and thinner pirate ordered.

After speaking, the gunfire and Su Nan responded at the same time.

She lowered her body instantly and quickly hid behind a lower reef.

"Bang Bang Bang——"

Countless bullets rushed towards her, and the sound cut through the sky!

The sound of bullets breaking apart on rocks, stray bullets passed by her ears, her blood was surging, her body was cold, her scalp was numb... Death was so close to her!

...

Chapter 277 I will take him away

Chapter 277 I took him away With the bullets flying, Su Nan suddenly recalled that four years ago, on the streets of Europe, the battle of life and death.

The originally peaceful and romantic street was suddenly bombed by terrorists.

They attacked countless civilians, and she rushed out of the safe to save a three-year-old whose parents both died there.

The bomb exploded beside her, and no matter how fast she was, she couldn't escape.

She and the child were both bounced by the air flow set off by the bomb, and they were about to become cannon fodder...

The next second, a tall and generous man covered her.

That was the first time she saw Fu Yechuan.

Since she owes him a life.

He was wearing the military uniform of country Z, his back was soaked with blood, and his expression was determined and calm.

Seeing that Su Nan and the child were all right, he immediately left to save the next person and helped the local police catch many fleeing terrorists.

That attack made the terrorists aware of Fu Yechuan, a soldier of the Z country.

Revenge came too quickly.

The second time I saw him was in an underground boxing venue.

Countless black boxers surrounded him, Fu Yechuan was covered in blood and wounds, and his consciousness was close to the limit of a coma.

As soon as he stood up, he was unfairly attacked, knocking him to the ground.

They want him to die!

The spectators were outraged, but not a single one protested.

In the darkness, someone laughed wildly.

“Look at this self-righteous Z country, stupid and arrogant, do you think you are a hero?”

“Hahahaha, it’s really wonderful, you can continue to fight if you have the ability...”

“Well, as long as someone can take you out, as long as you go out alive, we’ll let you go, hahaha...”

They were sure that no one would dare to meddle in their own business.

But Su Nan heard it. In the darkness, no one paid attention to a woman.

She rushed up without hesitation and attacked the black boxer’s crotch with the fastest speed.

They screamed, and in an instant, the situation changed instantly.

Su Nan put him on his shoulders, and led him away step by step under everyone’s attention.

In front of him, the door as high as the gate of the temple opened, and the light from the outside penetrated in, piercing the darkness.

Fu Yechuan had been in a coma for a long time, and she handed him over to his companion.

This time, she paid off what she owed him.

The eyes are blurry, Su Nan doesn’t know why he thinks of Fu Yechuan at this moment of life and death, tense crisis?

He should never have known that they met before they got married.

She fell in love with him earlier than he thought.

Bullets are flying, the sea breeze is howling, the situation is irreversible, and every second is extremely dangerous.

Fu Yanni looked at her sluggishly, and shouted loudly, “Su Nan—you hide!”

“Bang bang bang—” The gunshots could not stop.

A repressive victory is more like a kind of torture, making her life worse than death every minute!

Su Nan closed his eyes, took a deep breath, and suddenly raised the gun in his hand.

No matter, even if it is death, it has to be worth dying.

She turned her head abruptly, moved from under the reef, found a suitable position, put it down without hesitation, and fired!

“boom—“

She can be sure that the shot she just shot must have hit one of them in the shoulder.

She doesn't kill because she is different from them, she is restrained enough and arrogant enough!

After all, she was someone who had learned professional shooting.

Su Nan's counterattack aroused their anger and more intensive counterattacks.

The bullet slid past her, as easy as rain!

She dared not run out of bullets at once.

She estimated how long it would last, a minute... or two minutes?

Her life is about to end.

Fu Yanni scolded people in English there, and the more she scolded, the more vigorous she became, attracting firepower for her.

Su Nan's lips turned white with a smile, and he pulled the trigger without hesitation!

“Bang——” accompanied by a shrill scream!

The second shot hit a pirate who was about to jump in the leg.

Their anger was aggressive, scattered the layout, and blocked shots from all around.

They have no way to go, and Su Nan knows that waiting for them is a dead end!

Fu Yanni gave up cursing, and turned around and couldn't help praising her.

"Susu, you are awesome, your talent has overshadowed your beauty?"

He didn't forget to blow a rainbow fart when he was about to die.

Su Nan responded with a bleak smile.

"No, it mainly depends on beauty."

When Su Nan pressed the third shot, the bullet was gone...

...

Chapter 278 She heard him coming

Chapter 278 She heard him coming.

Su Nan closed her eyes, she clearly wanted to cry, but there were no tears.

She thought about it many times and had a lot of things she wanted to say before she died, but at this moment her mind was blank.

The stone fragments that collapsed next to her scratched on her hand, dripping with blood.

New wounds and old scars are intertwined, and it is terrifying that the original appearance cannot be seen!

The sound of their footsteps was right in front of them, like the voice of death.

If only there was one more bullet, she'd keep it to herself.

Out of the corner of her eyes, a black gun appeared to the side, and she closed her eyes in despair...

Suddenly, there was a rumbling sound in the air, from far to near, very quickly.

It is a giant helicopter, dozens of which are densely hovering in the sky, covering the sky and the sun.

The pirates' gunfire ceased, and they realized that the danger at this moment was not with the woman.

It was a giant helicopter that suddenly appeared.

The muzzles turned, and their targets changed directions.

Giant helicopters painted in military camouflage, each filled with people.

People from Z country!

They regularly hang helicopters with heavy weapons in the air and lower the ladders with light weapons, forming a siege to the dozens of pirates below.

The tide turned so quickly.

The crowd is surging, the momentum is like a rainbow, just like the eyes.

Su Nan didn't have the strength to see who it was, but when he heard Fu Yannu suddenly shouted in surprise.

"Fu Yechuan, uncle, I'm your favorite nephew..."

Oh, it's Fu Yechuan, here he is!

She opened her eyes diligently and looked at the beach in front of her, where the giant helicopter stopped closest to her.

He was wearing a black trench coat, tall and slender, and his eyes were cold and stern.

He descended the hanging ladder, and behind him was the turbulent sea, the giant helicopter above, and a gun in his right hand.

Facing the pirates and dangers behind her, he walked towards her without hesitation.

In front of him, there was less of his usual dignity and grace, and his unruly eyes were filled with arrogance and murderous intent.

The figures overlapped, and Su Nan was in a trance, as if he saw the hero who was fighting against people on the streets of Europe.

However, it seemed that all her strength was gradually being drawn away, and her consciousness was gradually blurred.

Until he picked her up and saw the gunshot wound on her chest, he hoarsely shouted her name.

She thought, it turns out that Fu Yechuan would be in a hurry...

The next second, the darkness completely swallowed her up.

The tide of indifference was surging, and the battle was fierce and confrontational, and both sides had the full smell of gunpowder.

Unlike Su Nan's merciful subordinates, he cherishes human life.

The people brought by Fu Yechuan were used to fighting on the battlefield, and such aura would only arouse their desire to conquer.

Su Qi took Su Nan from Fu Yechuan's arms and returned to the plane. It was only a few days ago, and it was as light as a piece of paper.

Fu Yechuan stood there, looking at the shorter and thinner pirate in front of him, and seeing him taking the woman away, he was extremely angry.

He recognized the pirate sharply.

The leader of these people!

"David, treat my woman like this, you'll scare her."

His voice was cold as if it had been quenched.

The pirate leader was trampled underfoot by Su Nan and held as a hostage. How could such humiliation easily let her go?

He was hysterical and gritted his teeth.

"Damn her, she almost burst my head with her gun."

Fu Yechuan curled his lips indifferently and dangerously.

"Really? Then you deserve it..."

Disdainful, frivolous, and arrogant.

His girl is really amazing!

The pirate leader pointed his gun at him angrily, "I let you go a few years ago, but you still dare to come?"

"I dare..." The two sides confronted each other, not giving an inch.

The sea breeze swept the strong smell of gunpowder, and this confrontation was about to break out!

The shootout just now was just his unilateral suppression, and Su Nan had no power to fight back.

But now... Fu Yechuan has more people, and all of them are well-trained.

Their weapons and equipment are fully equipped, and the pirate group can't get cheap, but they are still ready to fight.

That's the balance.

The pirate's hideous face narrowed slightly, and the eagle-like eyes narrowed.

He ordered people to put away the guns, and in the interests of the interests, there was only negotiation.

"Fu, let's talk, otherwise, even if you win, you won't be able to get out of this Atlantic Ocean. That woman hurt my two brothers. This account has to be settled."

Fu Yechuan was silent for a few seconds, then chuckled lightly.

"Okay, you make an offer." The pirate smiled, arrogantly, and stretched out five fingers.

He pointed to Fu Yanni who was hiding behind the reef.

"And this useless, double the two."

Fu Yechuan glanced at him with a cold tone.

"He's worthless."

Chapter 279 She is the one who saved you.

Before the giant helicopter took off, Fu Yechuan stood on it, facing the surging sea breeze, and looked at the pirate leader below.

Fu Yechuan's words were clear and chilling: "In your account, the money is tripled, 15 billion US dollars."

One person took five billion US dollars, and he took out three people's money.

The shot is not ordinary generosity!

The pirate leader was extremely pleasantly surprised, and a greedy smile flashed in those falcon-like dark eyes.

This trip was not in vain.

But the next second.

“Bang——” The

sound of gunshots rang out, and the short and thin pirate leader smiled stiffly. He was hit in the chest, and blood spread, and everyone was shocked.

Fu Yechuan's attitude was indifferent, and he was not worried at all about whether it would anger them.

His indifferent eyes were cold and gloomy.

He retracted his hand and looked at the pirate chief.

His tone was deadly cold.

“This gun is yours.”

No one can take Su Nan's life. The gun on her chest must be returned!

In addition to the pirate leader, three people, 15 billion US dollars, no more or no less, just right.

This shot made the situation that was relaxed just now tense again.

Everyone looked nervous, ready to fight, and raised their weapons again.

However, the weapons, equipment and manpower of the pirate regiment were simply vulnerable compared to what Fu Yechuan brought.

More than a dozen giant helicopters hovered in the sky, forming an encirclement trend.

The dark shadows covered the sky and the sun, and the air pressure shrouded the entire island.

Even if he was extremely unwilling, he could only watch Fu Yechuan's giant helicopter disappear in front of his eyes.

On a giant ship two thousand nautical miles away.

On the shaky sea, Su Nan didn't sleep well enough.

She had been avoiding the pirates' attacks in her mind, as if countless bullets flew overhead.

Under the hail of bullets, she kept running, running endlessly...

Suddenly, her feet were empty, like falling into an abyss.

She shuddered and woke up suddenly!

But her head was dizzy, half awake, unable to resist the heavy drowsiness.

Indistinctly, I heard an unfamiliar voice talking outside.

"Old Master, my sister-in-law is very powerful. In such a dangerous situation, she dared to point the gun at the pirates, and one person would injure both of them!

If it wasn't for the pirate chief David and your nephew who said this, I would I can't believe it...it's really impressive!"

Fu Yechuan's lips curled into an imperceptible arc.

"She has always been so brave."

If she knelt down and begged for mercy, it would not be her Su Nan's character.

When her car was passive, her first reaction was not to cry. She was not afraid to back down in the face of the thugs brought by Song Chi.

Fu Yechuan knew that Su Nan was a courageous and proud person.

However, in such a ferocious environment, if he hadn't arrived in time, his Su Nan had really died in the hail of bullets, and he didn't even dare to think about it, what a scene it was!

If so, he would rather she not be so brave.

The military doctor watched Fu Yechuan's eyes dim, and he suddenly thought of something:

"But don't you think she looks like that girl? She rescued you with the help of the European black boxing gang, and then disappeared. By the way, I just found a photo some time ago, and it really looks like it!" The military doctor hurriedly went Looking for that photo, I didn't notice that Fu Yechuan's face was extremely pale, and there were huge waves in his eyes!

the noisy voice is instantly silent.

Su Nan scratched his ears, thinking that the noise outside was the sound of a dream, he was quiet, and fell into a coma again.

She didn't know how long she had been in a coma, but she could feel that someone was holding her hand all the time.

Those hands were rough but warm, the man was chattering all the time, Su Nan couldn't understand what he said.

on the deck.

The waves continued to wash over the deck, and the afterglow of the setting sun was scattered over the sea.

The giant ship has been traveling for nearly ten days and will return to country Z at the fastest speed.

Less than two days to go.

Su Ming held Su Xiaohu in his arms and took a glass of soda to enjoy the scenery.

When the sound of heavy footsteps came from behind, he didn't turn his head, he was used to it.

"Mr. Fu, don't worry too much. The doctors said that Su Nan is fine. The bullet just hit the shoulder."

Fu Yechuan has lost a lot of weight these days, and his gloomy temperament is even colder.

But Su Ming's attitude towards him has changed a lot.

...

Chapter 280 Do you wish it was her?

Chapter 280 Do you hope it's her?

Remember that Fu Yechuan got on the plane and held Su Nan, who was unconscious and covered in blood, and even cried silently.

There were all his old comrades on the plane. Seeing this scene, he was speechless in shock!

Fortunately, an old comrade-in-arms, Jiang Zhe, was a military doctor. He took some first aid measures, and only started the operation when he arrived on the giant ship.

During the operation, Fu Yechuan watched the whole process, staring at Su Nan's face without blinking, for fear it was a dream!

During Jiang Zhe's process of taking the bullet, Fu Yechuan was more nervous than anyone else, his face was sweaty and tense, and he didn't know if he was angry or sad.

After the operation, Jiang Zhe sneered and looked at Fu Yechuan.

"I've never done such a useless operation! Every time I make a knife, you want to eat me, do you want to stab me back?"

Fu Yechuan stared silently at his bloodshot eyes.

Jiang Zhe raised his leg angrily and left, if it wasn't for a good relationship, he would have turned his face long ago!

Su Ming kept staring at the side, Fu Yechuan's actions gave him no reason to continue targeting a person who saved his sister.

Su Qi has been scrambling with Fu Yechuan to take care of Su Nan. Fu Yechuan would drive Su Qi out every time because of the crowd.

Only Su Ming did not stop Fu Yechuan from approaching Su Nan.

Because he knew that Fu Yechuan's feelings for Su Nan were deeper than anyone could imagine!

Fu Yechuan stood on the deck with a dignified and complicated temperament.

Holding the photo taken by passers-by on a European street in his hand, his fingertips turned white.

Perhaps this scene was too shocking, so the photographer kept it on the wall of the cafe opposite the Black Fist Gang.

In his mind, he only remembered a woman with her back turned to him, who led him to open the palace-like door, the sun piercing the darkness, allowing his life to be reborn.

In the photo, it is the front of her, and the beautiful red dress makes her noble and bright.

But the darkness behind him enveloped his back.

Fu Yechuan, who was behind her, was covered in blood, unconscious and embarrassed.

But she looked resolute, and she brought him out of the Black Fist Gang's territory, and every step she took was extraordinarily firm.

When Fu Yechuan saw it, his eyes were shocked, his eyes were red, and when bravery and brightness were intertwined in this woman, did he really understand her?

“Is the person in the photo really Su Nan?”

His voice was hoarse and mellow and magnetic.

Su Ming glanced sideways, his eyes were light, and a smile appeared on the corner of his lips.

“Does President Fu hope it's her?”

Fu Yechuan's lips pursed into a straight line, too many questions in his mind were intertwined.

Why is she there?

Why would she be the woman who brought him out?

Why did she never mention it?

he couldn't find the answer, but he could feel that the answer seemed to outweigh the weight of his life.

He opened his mouth dryly, and before he could speak, he heard Su Qi shouting loudly inside.

“Su Nan is awake, where's the doctor?”

Fu Yechuan was shocked, he rushed in without thinking of anything in his mind.

Su Ming smiled lightly, followed Su Xiaohu's hair, and walked in slowly.

Su Xiaohu narrowed his eyes and rubbed comfortably in Su Ming's arms.

"Mama doesn't like him anymore, Mama doesn't want to see him when she wakes up, Fu Yechuan is a nuisance!"

Su Ming patted it lightly, "Don't talk nonsense."

Suddenly, he remembered something, "Oh, give it to you in silence. You changed the settings to make you hate him, I'll change it for you."
