Chapter Five Hundred and Twenty-One People Distressed You

The phone was silent for two seconds.

Fu Yechuan's voice was cold.

"Tear your face? What are you talking about?"

Su Nan took a deep look at Qu Qing, she was already panicking.

"Mrs. Fu brought your fiancée to humiliate me and President Shang. Is it your intention or that of Mr. Fu?" Through the phone, I could feel Fu Yechuan's chill.

"Where?"

Su Nan didn't answer, just hung up the phone.

Her purpose was never to call him.

Instead, let their Fu family manage Xu Qing.

She is no longer the daughter-in-law of the Fu family, and there is no need to get used to her stinky stinky lady!

Qu Qing did not expect that Su Nan would dare to call Fu Yechuan directly.

To be honest, she herself was a little afraid of this son.

Fu Yingying hadn't even a little bit of whereabouts, she almost forgot this lesson.

Hong Yihuan felt that Qu Qing was starting to tremble, and hurried over to help her.

"Auntie, shall we go and sit next door?"

Qu Qing wanted to say something, but looked at Su Nan's eyes, her throat seemed to be blocked with cotton, and she couldn't make a sound.

The surroundings finally quieted down.

Su Nan continued to eat as if nothing had happened, Shang Qian took a deep look at her and pursed his lips.

“Miss Su, you...”

Aren't you angry at all?

Su Nan smiled, “I'm used to it, but it's just implicated President Shang, and our little Mike. People who don't care, don't think about it.”

Little Mike took a quick step, took Su Nan's hand, held it in front of him, and looked at her with clear eyes.

“Beautiful sister, people really love you so much. They will protect you. When I grow up and inherit the inheritance, I can take you out of here and never have to see these annoying people again!”

Shang Qian's face darkened, He looked at little Mike speechlessly, wanting to be angry, but helpless.

Why does he think about inheriting his inheritance all day long?

I need to clean up!

Shang Qian endured and looked at Su Nan solemnly and distressedly.

“I'm not angry either, I just... just feel sorry for you.”

Because you like someone, you have to endure so much injustice!

How ridiculous...

Shang Qian's voice was low and serious, staring at her with pity.

Su Nan's heart involuntarily beat two beats faster.

The next second, she lowered her head and smiled.

The phone rang again.

Su Nan glanced at it, didn't answer, just hung up.

Finished meal.

Little Mike refused to follow Shang Qian. Shang Qian had an important meeting in the afternoon and had to leave early.

Su Nan called Qin Yu and asked her out to relax.

What Qin Yu thought was relaxing was going to the bar to drink, sing, dance, and flirt with male models.

So she is very sexy and beautiful.

However, when Su Nan came to pick her up, there was a young lady in the car.

Little Mike waved at her, familiar with it.

Hello Auntie.” Haha!

Qin Yu gasped and was about to get out of the car, but Su Nan didn't give her a chance and started the car directly.

“Go shopping, Miss Qin...”

As a result, Su Nan drove the car to the private playground!

As soon as little Mike entered, he ran like a joy.

This playground is not open to the public, but only receives a few regular customers a day.

Su Nan knew the owner, so everything went smoothly.

Each child is looked after by two personal maids who are responsible for safety and other requirements.

Su Nan and Qin Yu can also relax and sit in the leisure area with a cup of coffee each.

Qin Yu looked at her in low interest and suddenly remembered something.

“Have you heard that the Fu family is getting married?”

Su Nan nodded.

“It turns out to be true? I thought Fu Yechuan would not agree...”

“Marriage is not a matter of one person in a family like ours, and personal opinions are not important.”

She raised her face, beautiful and eye-catching . .

The phone suddenly rang.

I looked at the number, and there was an unfamiliar call.

She hesitated for a moment, then picked up.

“President Su, I’m Hong Yihuan, can you intercede for Mrs. Fu...”

...

Chapter 522 I want to hug you

Chapter Five Hundred and Twenty Two I Want to Hug You

Su Nan hung up the phone before the other party finished speaking.

By the way, the number was pulled into the blacklist.

In a few days, the company’s team building day arrived.

The location was in a CS venue in the suburbs, and there were 12 people who went there. Three of them were high-level executives of other companies, and the relationship has always been good.

It’s just that Su Nan didn’t expect that Fu Yechuan would appear here.

He watched Su Nan hesitate to speak, but was blocked by Su Jin and did not give them a chance to be alone.

It’s his own brother!

Su Nan was very interested in this from the beginning. The clothes are all uniform styles of arms, and the weapons are harmless guns and ammunition.

When changing clothes in the locker room, Su Nan moved quickly, and as soon as he went out, he was blocked by a tall shadow.

Everyone wears masks, and no one knows anyone, so there is no mercy.

But Su Nan still recognized the person in front of him.

Fu Yechuan.

She stared at him without saying a word.

He changed into a military uniform, tall and cold, and his eagle-like eyes showed a majesty and coldness.

As if it was that autumn five years ago, on the streets of Europe, that's how he suddenly appeared in her life.

Shaking for a moment.

Su Nan pursed her lips, "Get out of the way!"

Fu Yechuan looked down at her condescendingly, with turbulent eyes.

The phone call made him uneasy.

He knew that Qu Qing would not say anything nice.

But when I heard that she had an intimate meal with Shang Qian and his son, her heart twitched.

It hurts badly.

He pursed his lips, his voice low and hoarse.

"I'm sorry for letting you hear those ugly words."

He clearly promised her that he would never let anyone in the Fu family speak ill of her again.

But Qu Qing still broke the rules.

He told Mr. Fu, and regardless of Qu Qing's commotion, he sent her to a nursing home abroad.

Mr. Fu also agreed that even if they didn't get married, there was absolutely no reason to be an enemy of the Su family!

Su Nan: "It's not what you said, what do you apologize for?"

"Do you want to hear her apologize?"

Su Nan: "I don't want to see her!"

Fu Yechuan laughed lowly, looking at her angry look, suddenly I think it's cute.

"Su Nan, I want to hug you."

He had already thought about it.

“No.”

Before Su Nan finished speaking, a big hand held her back close to his chest, her heartbeat steady.

Su Nan angrily kicked over, not dodging or dodging, and just hit his wound.

He groaned and almost fell back.

Su Nan was so frightened that he reached out and pulled him.

Then his head slammed into his chest hard.

A deep smile came from his chest.

Only then did Su Nan realize that he was tricked by him!

Fu Yechuan stretched out his hand to straighten her helmet, and took a step back before she started.

“I’ll let you win in a while.”

He said firmly.

Su Nan was so angry that he wanted to kick him to death!

“What a big breath!”

Can’t you win?

Where did he get his bullshit confidence?

Oh, so angry!

But she was wearing a mask, helmet and sunglasses, so she couldn’t use her expression and eyes to deter this dog man!

Su Jin urged outside, Su Nan could not hurry out.

Su Jin held two signs, two red signs.

“Everyone has been divided into groups, there are two left, you are one team.”

Su Nan took over without caring.

Fu Yechuan was quite polite, stepped forward and accepted the signature.

“Thank you bro.”

Fuck!

Su Jin froze all over, so scared that he almost fell!

Everyone looked at them strangely, and the soul of the “big brother” screamed out of the body.

Su Nan: “Have you started yet?”

“Started!”

Su Nan raised the gun in his hand and shot at the back of the person in front of him without hesitation.

“Bang——”

Fu Yechuan was dead!

“Hey, you are teammates!”

Another red team member couldn't help reminding.

...

Chapter Five Hundred and Twenty-Three Hands Up Surrender

Chapter Five Hundred and Twenty-Three

The first second of raising hands to surrender.

Fu Yechuan is offline?

No one dreamed of this coming out.

Fu Yechuan turned back and looked at Su Nan aggrievedly. Although he was offline, he was very calm and reluctantly made a gesture of surrender.

Su Nan retracted his gun, sighed with relief, and snorted coldly.

“Pig teammate, I don't want it!”

After speaking, she ran directly over him to a nearby trench to ambush, and quickly entered the state.

Everyone was speechless for a moment, and quickly entered the state.

No way, who made them enemies!

Everyone thought that it might be Fu Yechuan's "big brother" calling Su Jin that stimulated Su Nan.

That's why I started so simply and neatly.

Fu Yechuan acted as the referee by the side, watching from a high place, he could take a look at the whole situation.

He could see that Su Nan was somewhat organized and flexible, and her movements and routes were close to the professional level.

Others, some were too fat to run, and were killed directly.

There are also some who exercise regularly and are very flexible and skillful, but they can be compared with Su Nan, and there are only two or three of them at the same level.

Soon, the blue team was left with three and the red team with two.

Everyone is about the same level.

Wearing the same clothes, it was difficult to identify who was who. The two of the red team were struggling to support, and it was a little difficult.

However, one of them was relatively thin and very fast. He ran to the other team member and said a few words, and the two dispersed.

Someone quietly ran behind the other person. In order to avoid alarming the enemy teammates, she didn't use a gun. She went straight up with a flexible posture, covered her mouth all at once, and made a throat-locking action.

But the man didn't hold on and fell to the ground all of a sudden.

"Oh, my old waist..."

Hearing the voice, it sounded like a high-level executive of Shengshi Group.

The blue team lost another one, and at the same time, another red team hit another blue team.

But that red team was also hit by the blue team.

There is one left on each side.

The people who left the venue all stood together and sighed, Fu Yechuan glanced at him, and there was no Su Nan.

Then the only remaining red team member is Su Nan.

There was a hint of admiration in the man's eyes.

The girl he saw was really amazing!

“Wait, that member of the blue team is President Su Jinsu, right?”

Someone asked.

Sure enough, only Su Nan and Su Jin did not come back!

These two brothers and sisters became rivals?

But there is a good show.

Everyone cheered, and some even took out binoculars.

But before everyone could seriously look for it, they heard a gunshot of “Bang——”.

Oh, it's over.

The BLU team showed signs of being shot.

Everyone cheered happily.

Su Nan ran out happily, holding the blue team member, Su Jin, like a koala.

She knew that Su Jin let her!

In the first game, the red team wins!

Fu Yechuan looked deeply at the excited Su Nan. This was the first time he saw her so happy.

Very unpleasant in my heart.

He seems to have missed a lot of her joys and sorrows.

The tip of his tongue pressed his teeth with a “tsk”, and his heart was sour.

Take a break.

Everyone starts the second round.

Fortunately, Su Nan held the blue ticket, and Fu Yechuan held the red ticket.

They are rivals.

Fu Yechuan’s blood was vaguely excited, and his eyes were full of arrogance!

He hasn’t held a gun for a long time, that kind of deep-seated belief, those memories of gunpowder and war buried deep in his heart, like sea water, surging forward.

Fu Yechuan had long been familiar with the terrain and planned to run to the best spot for sniping as soon as possible.

But before he took two steps, “Bang——” A dull pain came from his body.

Can’t believe he died again?

“You are opponents in this game...” Someone reminded.

It is no longer a pig teammate!

Su Nan frowned, “Yes, it’s the opponent who killed him!”

Shouldn’t it be?

Everyone was silent: they were speechless!

Chapter 524 I let you win

Chapter Five Hundred and Twenty-Four

Fu Yechuan, who I told you to win, returned before taking two steps: I’m really a little angry!

Both times were folded in Su Nan’s hands.

She said it wasn’t intentional, and everyone didn’t believe it!

Fu Yechuan looked at Su Nan sadly and restrainedly. The two faced each other. The people around didn't dare to watch the show and ran away immediately.

Su Nan also wanted to keep up, but was blocked by Fu Yechuan.

"You did it on purpose?"

He looked at her with deep eyes, his pupils reflected light in the sun, deep and dark, and the wind was surging.

"Can't afford to lose?"

Su Nan snorted softly, she was deliberately provocative and a little disdainful.

She had beaten him twice, and the victory was decided.

"I let you win", Su Nan didn't need him to say.

Fu Yechuan chuckled softly: "I can afford to lose."

He underestimated the enemy!

Fu Yechuan had never lost, but when he met Su Nan, he was a complete loser.

Su Nan raised his head to look at Fu Yechuan, his eyes were indifferent, and his tone was laziness, "You're here for nothing today, don't be in the sun, go and rest!"

Fu Yechuan couldn't help but breathe harder.

So angry!

Just as Su Nan was about to leave, Fu Yechuan wrapped one hand around her waist and whispered, "Don't be too happy, there is one more round."

He had to win!

After losing three games in a row, in front of Su Nan, he will never raise his head!

It's about dignity!

Su Nan sneered, flicked his hand away suddenly, and ran into the trench.

Fu Yechuan raised his eyebrows, let go of his hand, and looked at her back with a smile.

Those eyes were wicked and romantic, with a faint desire to conquer.

In the second game, Su Nan was careless and didn't pay attention. The red team took the lead and was shot!

The winner is Su Jin!

Su Nan was also happy for him, and swiftly went to hand over the water to get the towel.

"Brother, you are great!"

Su Jin smiled, glanced at Fu Yechuan's unwilling and envious look, and said nothing.

The executives on the side couldn't help but say, "President Su and you are rivals! We don't even have the treatment of drinking water..."

Everyone laughed.

Su Nan rolled their eyes at them.

"No way, I double standard." The third game.

Fu Yechuan and Su Nan were still rivals.

Everyone tacitly looked at Fu Yechuan with sympathy.

Who doesn't know that the purpose of Fu Yechuan's participation in the team building is for Su Nan!

Otherwise, he can't even arrange the appointment time, but he is doing team building here?

They played at least the first two games.

Fu Yechuan didn't even have a chance to play!

At the beginning, Su Nan still subconsciously searched for Fu Yechuan's figure.

Kill him first!

When he turned around, no one was there.

Oh, so long memory so soon?

Su Nan took a few steps forward, and something like a gun barrel pressed against her waist.

Cold and shivering.

Su Nan paused, and Fu Yechuan was hiding in the ditch beside him.

“Let you go once, Su Nan, if I arrest you three times, how about you promise me one thing?” The man’s tone was full of arrogance, which was wild and confident in his bones.

Su Nan gave him a cold look.

“What if you can’t catch it?”

“I promise you one thing.”

Su Nan: “Okay.”

She will let him get out of her world completely.

Fu Yechuan’s gun barrel was taken away, and Su Nan quickly ran to the trenches of her teammates. The feeling of the wind blowing on her face made her blood rush all over her body.

Competitive spirit was aroused, she didn’t believe that he could arrest her three times!

What a shame!

Fu Yechuan’s Lan Fang seemed to be discussing, attacking back and forth and solving them one by one.

Hearing the sound of thumping across his ears, Su Nan’s heartbeat became faster and faster, and their fighting power seemed to suddenly increase...

Chapter 525 I am a traitor

others, Fu Yechuan and Su Jin are both blue and red.

But Su Nan’s target is only one person – Fu Yechuan.

got windy.

There are wind noises everywhere, mixed with the sounds of walking and running, and it is difficult to distinguish.

Su Nan quietly nestled in a corner and quietly solved the two blue squares from behind.

But his red side also lost four.

After a fierce battle, as expected, Su Nan was the only one left.

As for Lan Fang, there are also Fu Yechuan and Su Jin.

Su Nan thought for a while, and in order to divert his attention, he simply took off the red label on his body and threw it away.

In front of the entrance of the woods, a Lanfang team member was looking for her. I didn't know if it was Fu Yechuan or Su Jin.

Su Nan quietly approached slowly.

Just as he was about to attack the man's back, he suddenly felt cold on his waist, and a chill suddenly appeared behind him.

Fu Yechuan curled the corner of his lower lip, and held her hand from behind with one hand, tightly hugging her halfway into his arms.

In fact, he wanted to prevent her from resisting.

Su Nan struggled with a dark face.

How dare this person take advantage of her?

"Don't move, be careful not to be seen." He lowered his voice.

"Release." Su Nan said.

"This is the second time, Su Nan, you have to be careful."

His voice was low and hoarse, his breathing was close at hand, with a dangerous and aggressive voice.

He's winning.

He has always tolerated and humbled her in the past, and he was happy with it.

But this time, for that promise, he must win!

Su Nan's blood was flowing backwards, and the moment he let go, he raised his weapon backwards, but within a few seconds, he disappeared without a trace.

Su Nan took a deep breath and immediately hid himself in the dark.

The group of teammates who had been killed in advance watched that scene clearly!

"What kind of occasion, are the two of them flirting?"

"Fu Yechuan actually caught Su Nan and let him go, pity Xiangxiyu?"

"I think Fu is always humiliating Mr. Su!"

...

They are in There is a hurry, can the blue side win!

In order to please Su Nan, Fu Yechuan simply killed himself!

A group of spectators saw a meal of dog food, so angry!

Su Nan couldn't just hide, she wanted to attack, the wind disturbed her mood.

She hunched into the woods.

After a few seconds, the steady steps behind her approached. Su Nan was extremely alert, and the surrounding weeds could cover her body. Without blinking her eyes, she passed through many trees to cover her figure.

She held her weapon tightly in her hand.

The steps behind her followed closely, as if a string was taut in her mind, and she could not relax at all times.

Su Nan became cautious even when breathing. She hid behind the thick tree trunk and couldn't move forward. There was an unobstructed waterway in front of her, and her water was not good.

Fight back!

She quietly picked up the gun, and at the moment she carefully recognized the approaching footsteps, she didn't even think about it, in a coherent movement, she simply turned her head and shot!

“Bang——” The

voice pierced through the forest.

The wind rustled.

The next second, the voice of the other party in the distance sounded, and at the same time, a tall and slender figure rushed towards her.

Blocked the shot for her.

“Brother?”

Su Nan subconsciously went to help him, Su Jin waved his hand and got up.

He brushed his hit back.

He licked his lips casually.

“I’m fine.”

Fu Yechuan came over from a distance and frowned.

Obviously, they are teammates. Su Jin blocked the shot for Su Nan. What’s the matter?

Su Jin took off his label without blushing.

He glanced at Fu Yechuan and explained, “Oh, I’m a traitor.”

Fu

Yechuan: “...” Su Nan: “...”

Su Jin gave them a light look, “You continue, I Off the assembly line.”

He said, and left the stage with his own things.

rest of Su Nan and Fu Yechuan were separated by about five meters. Their eyes met in the air, and the two quickly picked up their weapons in unison.

“Boom—” Two voices.

It’s just sound.

The wind roared.

No one was hit.

Su Nan turned over and rolled onto the sturdy tree trunk, gasping for breath.

Fu Yechuan quickly rolled into the grass.

His speed was even faster, and before Su Nan could breathe a sigh of relief, he took advantage of the momentum. The moment his gun appeared behind her, hers also pressed against his lower abdomen.

The admiration in Fu Yechuan’s eyes was undisguised.

He is professional, she is more advanced!

Do not give in to each other.

Su Nan glanced at him: “Who do you think has won now?”

She relaxed her vigilance and wanted to negotiate the outcome.

Fu Yechuan curled his lips into a smile, and while she was shaking her head for half a second, suddenly one hand quickly removed the gun that was touching his lower abdomen, turned her wrist, and used her gun barrel to push her against the tree trunk, pinning her long legs. Her legs made her unable to move.

Su Nan was shocked for a moment, is he a sneak attack?

She is strong, but still not strong enough.

Between the lights and flint, the situation is on top of each other.

His breathing was very close, and the wildness and fierceness in his eyes that had not yet faded made Su Nan stunned for a moment.

But soon, there was a smile and a smug look in his eyes.

He approached her ear, looked at her then fair skin, his eyes deepened, and his voice was hoarse:

“Su Nan, this is the third time, I won.”

Su Nan wanted to curse, but he was despicable and shameless, and took the opportunity to sneak attack!

But suddenly thought, in the first two rounds, she also used sneak attack to win him!

The two of them are half a catty!

Hold!

Su Nan looked into his eyes and was stunned for a moment.

There is no businessman’s calculation, it is all joy and joy, clean and wild.

But the next second, the man’s lips suddenly approached.

He wants to kiss her!

Su Nan had no choice but to bend his knees, but his long legs pinned her extremely arrogantly, and there was no chance for her to dodge.

Su Nan turned his face away, his cool lips rubbed against her cheek, already ecstatic.

She said coldly: “Get away from me.”

Fu Yechuan smiled, like a rogue, not angry at all.

He took a step back, Su Nan was free, glared at him fiercely, turned around and walked back.

Damn, Fu Yechuan is a rogue bastard, she has refreshed the bottom line of her understanding of him!

Fu Yechuan held something for her and followed, the corner of his mouth couldn’t hide the curvature.

“I won, Su Nan, you have to promise me a condition.”

Su Nan stopped and looked at him, “Say.”

Losing means losing.

Count her unlucky!

“Shall we remarry?” he said cheerfully.

“Go away.”

It was simply a fantasy.

“Then you kiss me?” he asked tentatively again.

“Go away.” She gritted her teeth.

If she dares to make unreasonable demands, she will not be able to resist!

Fu Yechuan paused for a few seconds, his eyes serious, “You have to give me a chance.”

Her eyes flashed slightly, but she didn't say a word.

“I've always been chasing you, Su Nan, and I am now.”

Every moment since he regretted it, he was chasing her.

Su Nan has a calm attitude and persuades him earnestly:

“Fu Yechuan, you are only a temporary novelty to me, you are just unwilling to give up after I liked you for so long, you just don't want me to give up without your consent. I just like you, it's not liking, it's unwilling!”

Fu Yechuan looked at her, his eyes were deep and dark, and he was silent for a long time.

He seemed to have lost all his strength, and his heart was shaking.

His regret, his liking, his humbleness, in her opinion, are just unwilling?

“Su Nan, I can still tell the difference between unwillingness and love.”

He smiled dejectedly.

A huge emptiness suddenly appeared in his chest, as if someone had placed the love in his heart as heavy as Mount Tai, and he gently waved his hand, like a goose feather, and fell to the ground.

Chapter five hundred and twenty seventh excuse to send soup

Chapter Five Hundred and Twenty Seven The excuse to send Tang

Fu Yechuan has strong self-control for anything that can be addicted.

However, his feelings for Su Nan, which are strong day after day, seem to never be broken.

Perhaps, in those five years, Su Nan had quietly taken root in his heart, but he never realized it, and now he has broken through the soil and grown into a towering tree.

It is no longer possible to ignore a single cent.

Su Nan frowned and wanted to say something. Several executives over there were shouting at them:

“Come back, who of you won?”

“It must be President Su who won, two of three games.”

“According to Mr. Fu’s temper will definitely not win the third round, how can he be so aggressive in chasing women?”

“That’s right, congratulations to Mr. Su for the grand slam!”

... I

don’t want to say more.

Su Nan and Fu Yechuan went back one after the other.

“Congratulations to President Su for the Grand Slam!”

Su Nan glanced at them, “President Fu won the third game.”

Everyone looked at Fu Yechuan with a strange expression.

This President Fu chases women, why doesn’t he play cards according to the routine?

Fu Yechuan didn’t care about their eyes at all, he won anyway.

Su Jin took a towel to wipe Su Nan’s sweat, looked at Fu Yechuan meaningfully and smiled.

“President Fu’s last round, he really spared no effort...”

Fu Yechuan took a few sips of water and nodded honestly.

“Big brother, if you want to win Su Nan, of course you have to work hard.”

In everyone’s eyes, Mr. Fu’s emotional intelligence at critical moments is not enough!

How good is it to let Su Nan go in a grand slam and leave happily, only to win a game in the end?

Afterwards, everyone had a meal together, and Su Nan left the venue early on the excuse that something was wrong.

Everyone looked at Fu Yechuan’s excited look, and they were extremely puzzled, but they couldn’t ask questions, so they broke up in confusion.

Su Nan’s whole body seemed to be loose, and she was a little tired. She just wanted to go back to sleep.

Su Nan didn’t care about Fu Yechuan’s condition. If it was too much, she wouldn’t agree.

Just after leaving the company, I received a call from Ringo...

Fu Group.

Fu Yechuan took a shower and changed his clothes. He was obviously in a good mood.

When Chen Mian saw it, he took advantage of the situation to speak out about the recent troublesome things. As expected, Fu Yechuan was not angry, but patiently instructed the people below on how to solve it.

There was a knock on the door outside, and the secretary came in.

“Mr. Fu, Mr. Fu has someone give you something.”

Fu Yechuan frowned, who knows what Mr. Fu is going to do?

“Come in.” The secretary gave way, and a well-dressed woman came in behind her, standing there timidly, with a little anticipation in her weakness.

It is Hong Yihuan.

“Mr. Fu, the old man said that you are busy with work and you have made soup at home, so let me bring it to you.”

When Hong Yihuan spoke, he deliberately spoke softly. Only in this way can he restrain his inner tension.

Fu Yechuan paused, his eyes instantly cold.

“Why haven’t you left yet?”

His voice was cold and distant.

It was Qu Qing who left her in the old house temporarily, Qu Qing has left, shouldn’t she leave?

Hong Yihuan’s face was pale, and the smile on his face was shaky.

She pursed her lips, with a pleasing smile.

“The old man left me to stay for a few more days, so I won’t disturb everyone.”

Fu Yechuan’s eyes deepened a little, and he remained silent.

Chen Mian quickly took the soup from her hand, and gave it to Fu Yechuan, “Thank you, Miss Hong.”

Fu Yechuan obviously didn’t want to continue talking with her, and Chen Mian stood aside, wondering if he should speak to see the guest.

But in the next second, Hong Yihuan suddenly stepped forward, bit his lower lip, and summoned his courage to speak:

“Mr. Fu, I know that I am not as good as Miss Su, but I can work hard to be a good person for the person I like. The man, the old man said that by your side, you can learn a lot, even if it is a small employee, I am willing...”

...

Chapter 528 Want to be Mrs. Fu

Chapter 528 Want to be Mrs.

Fu Fu Yechuan’s eyes flashed with disdain and indifference, but Hong Yihuan did not miss a trace of emotion on his face, and instantly felt that his heart was pierced.

Painful convulsions.

He looked up and looked at her.

“The reason for your dismissal by Su’s family should be clear. Fu’s family will not admit a staff member who has not even passed the internship period.

And, with all due respect, don’t compare yourself with Su Nan. You are not from the same world at all.”

One sky, one earth, what’s the comparison?

The words are too straight, and she doesn’t care whether Hong Yihuan’s self-esteem will be hurt or not, her face is pale.

Even Chen Mian felt pity for her.

But unexpectedly, Hong Yihuan didn’t leave, she stood there, looking at Fu Yechuan sadly and pitifully, her fingers tightly clasped together.

“But Mr. Fu said that Miss Su is too strong. You send Miss Fu away for her, and then send Mrs. Fu away. She will only make trouble with the Fu family when she is with you. You...you Do you really not consider the consequences at all?”

Chen Mian stood by, trembling and sweating.

Fu Yechuan’s good mood was completely destroyed by this Hong Yihuan, and even he couldn’t resist the heavy gloom in his eyes.

Hong Yihuan self-righteously gave him the biggest stake in the analysis. She didn’t believe it. How could a businessman like Fu Yechuan be unshakable?

Mr. Fu hinted that she would show her face more in front of Fu Yechuan and cultivate her feelings. Doesn’t this mean that she is more suitable for the position of Fu Yechuan’s wife than Su Nan?

The atmosphere in the office was quiet for a few seconds, and some coldness rose up.

Fu Yechuan looked at her with a stern gaze, stretched out his hand and stroked the brow bone, his movements were a bit wanton and evil.

Suddenly, Hong Yihuan felt a little uneasy.

He sneered lightly, his eyes full of chills, “Miss Hong, there are too few things in the Hong family, so you reached out to the Fu family?”

Hong Yihuan’s eyebrows trembled slightly, and he raised his head in a panic, just about to explain, Fu Yechuan didn’t give her a chance.

The next sentence sent her directly into hell.

“There are many people who want to be Mrs. Fu, but I don’t look for them in the trash, understand?”

This was too obvious, he disliked her like trash.

No matter how thick-skinned Hong Yihuan was, it was impossible for him to remain indifferent.

There was almost no blood on her pale face, tears fell from her eyes, and the courage the Hong family gave her disappeared in an instant.

She seemed to realize that Fu Yechuan might know her details and know that she was an illegitimate daughter.

Those identities and conversations that have been packaged are vulnerable in front of real aristocrats.

She has been pretending to be a lady for so long, Fu Yechuan can tell at a glance that she is a fake!

Is she still delusional about being Mrs. Fu?

Countless ridicules rushed towards her like needles in her mind. She bit her lower lip, unable to hold back any longer, she was about to turn and leave...

Suddenly she heard Chen Mian shout in surprise.

“Miss Su, President Lin?”

Su Nan and Ringo realized that the occasion was wrong and wanted to leave, but they were still a step too late.

I heard more or less what I said just now, and it has something to do with her.

Fu Yechuan changed his face, got up quickly, and walked over with a smile.

“I’m so lucky to see you twice today!”

Undoubtedly, this was what he said to Su Nan.

Ringo covered his face beside him, his teeth hurt and sour.

Su Nan frowned, took a step back, and kept a distance from him.

“Mr. Lin said that there is an urgent matter. We have a meeting.”

Fu Yechuan's face calmed down, and he turned his head and instructed Chen Mian, "Go to the conference room to prepare." "

Yes."

, looked back, "Miss Hong, President Fu is going to a meeting, you..."

Chapter five hundred and twentieth nine borrow his room

Chapter Five Hundred and Twenty-Nine

Hong Yihuan borrowed his room to see Su Nan, who was indifferent and didn't care. His heart was sour, he quietly pinched his skirt, and insisted on gritting his teeth.

As soon as she came, there was warmth in Fu Yechuan's eyes.

But she didn't want to admit defeat so embarrassedly and run away.

At least, before Su Nan and Fu Yechuan get married, she has hope.

Even if she is an illegitimate daughter and a fake, as long as she is admitted by the Hong family, she is the second young lady of the Hong family.

She took a deep breath and looked at Chen Mian pitifully: "Can I borrow Mr. Fu's room to wash my face?"

Stay for a while until Su Nan leaves. Seeing that she is in Fu Yechuan's office, she must not will be indifferent.

Chen Mian stood there in embarrassment, "This... No way, no one is allowed to use Mr. Fu's private space. Miss Hong should go to the bathroom outside?" be rejected.

His face turned white for a while, and there was really nothing good on his face, so he could only smile perfunctorily, said "OK", and left in a hurry.

in the conference room.

Ringo couldn't help joking Fu Yechuan who was following up: "President Fu is really peach blossoms, but his words are too poisonous, who can stand you?"

Fu Yechuan glanced at Su Nan's face, his expression was indifferent, nothing unusual.

He breathed a sigh of relief.

“If you feel bad, take it back.”

He replied to Ringo.

Ringo touched his nose, “I have a wife...”

Su Nan tapped on the table, “Let’s get down to business, I have an appointment.”

Ringo raised his eyebrows, “The artificial intelligence car chip we developed was delivered to Europe. When the European driverless research institute conducted the third test, something went wrong.” The air froze for a moment.

Fu Yechuan’s eyes narrowed slightly, and Su Nan also looked at Ringo closely.

This project is a derivation of the first project of the three cooperation. After opening the door to the medical field of artificial intelligence, the follow-up research has attracted much attention internationally.

Failure is tantamount to hitting the head.

Ringo handed the USB flash drive to Chen Mian, and Chen Mian put the information in it on the big screen as quickly as possible.

The whole video of the test site is in it. From the excitement at the beginning to the applause and cheers at the end, everything went so smoothly.

But...

the next second, “Bang——” After a perfect right-angle turn, the car crashed straight into the wall of an abandoned factory as if it had lost control.

The smoke of gunpowder concealed the panicked shouts of everyone. After the car collided with the wall, the front was instantly twisted and deformed, the wall fell and collapsed, and the stone smashed into the experimenter in the car... The video stopped.

It was really shocking to freeze at the last moment.

Su Nan’s pupils shrank slightly and looked at Ringo subconsciously.

Killed?

Ringo sighed, with a solemn expression on his face, "The tester was sent to the hospital and is out of danger, but the risk of this test has aroused the dissatisfaction of the European people, and it is very unfavorable for us to demand that we be banned from entering the market. "

Fu Yechuan remained silent, his expression indifferent and deep.

"What's the reason?"

Su Nan also wanted to know.

Ringo: "The test car is completely artificial intelligence. There is no manual operation function that other cars have on the car, so it is ruled out that it is the possibility of improper human operation. The problem lies in the chip. The chip has been left by the European side for investigation and evidence collection. I'm afraid it won't be easy for us to get it back..."

Su Nan looked at Fu Yechuan, Fu Yechuan pursed his lips, "I'll solve this problem, if it's the chip, we're on the road of unmanned driving, I'm afraid it is It fell over."

Chapter five hundred and thirtieth do not accept the blow

Chapter Five Hundred and Thirty Do not accept the attack

The public is both happy and afraid of artificial intelligence. While it facilitates life, it also brings risks.

Not as sensual as the human mind, without eyes and ears to see and hear.

Its rationality, analysis, data, overall planning, and optimization constitute a high-IQ but indifferent and sharp thinking chip. Once out of control, it is a fatal danger.

This is also the reason why the unmanned driving scene has never dominated the market after it was introduced.

Humans trust themselves more.

Once you lose your trust, even if it is a one in ten thousand chance, it will cause people's huge resentment.

Ringo said in a deep tone: "We are not the first in this field, but it is the most sophisticated. We have been optimizing the system to be more sensitive, faster, and warmer than others, but we can't help but plan for the worst, yes Stop the loss in time, or wait for the result?"

Obviously, 90% of the accident was a chip problem.

The public's disgust will cause the stock to plummet, the stock market will be turbulent, and even affect other levels of the group.

Su Nan paused, his voice indifferent: "I suggest, wait for the result, unmanned driving is a necessary condition for the future world, even if we fail again and again, we must not lose the qualification to enter the future world, there will always be someone who will succeed, Why not us?"

Ringo and Fu Yechuan looked at the woman involuntarily.

Just now, they were all weighing the pros and cons in their minds. Undoubtedly, stopping the loss in time is the best way.

However, it would be a pity to give up so lightly.

But Su Nan didn't even hesitate, her vision and mind were wider, and the words she said also made the two people in the room instantly excited, and there was no room for refutation.

This loss is nothing to them, but the loss of these opportunities is a heavy loss.

Ringo looked at Su Nan's eyes with a little more admiration and solemnity, nodded and agreed with her words.

"I think, since someone will always succeed, it doesn't make sense that it's not us."

Fu Yechuan kept his eyes on Su Nan, his surprise undisguised. He was willing to admire a woman who was stronger than himself, because she was Su Nan.

He curled the corners of his lips, and his eyes jumped with excitement and approval, "Then there is nothing to say, I will contact Europe to investigate the cause of the chip accident, but Mr. Lin, to be on the safe side, find two experts to go there together. ."

Ringo nodded.

Su Nan held his chin with one hand and thought, "Then I will investigate the process of the chip going to Europe, before and after the test, those people will come into contact with them, both inside and outside..." In case it's not the chip, but Did someone fiddle with the chip?

After all, this is the third test, and the first two were so smooth.

Fu Yechuan took a deep breath, sat up straight, looked at his watch, and looked at Su Nan.

“It’s almost time, let’s have dinner together?”

Su Nan packed up her things, “I made an appointment and said goodbye.”

After speaking, before everyone could react, the person had disappeared.

Ringo coughed and kindly cleared for him.

“Okay, I want to eat steak.”

Fu Yechuan’s smile sank a little, and lowered his eyes for a few seconds, “I have something to do, let Chen Mian eat with you.”

Ringo: “...”

So, don’t take him personally?

Chen Mian looked at Fu Yechuan in embarrassment, he also has a date tonight!

Ringo couldn’t help sneering, “President Fu’s remarks about not looking for women in the rubbish heap are really thought-provoking, but it’s a pity that she’s not a woman in the rubbish heap, and I don’t want to accompany you to dinner.”

Insinuate him!

Su Nan is different from Hong Yihuan, but people ignore you!

Fu Yechuan’s face froze, and he glanced at Ringo with a deep expression on his face.

“Mr. Lin is in such a mood to eat, then you can worry about the follow-up public opinion and the stock market.”

Ringo’s smile froze.

In an instant, the mood to laugh at him disappeared.
