Chapter 61 Broken Things

Chapter 61 In a split second, she seemed to feel that Cheng Yi was serious and seductive, but she was lost for a moment.

He's not the same as the condescending son three years ago.

She panicked and condensed her expression to prevent him from seeing the clue. No matter who it was, she didn't want to fall into the so-called love vortex again.

"Cheng Ershao, your ability to coax women is really getting bigger and bigger?"

Cheng Yi was slightly startled, smiled, and took a step back, "No one else is qualified to coax me."

"Yes, your daughter When your friends line up to go around the world, others will coax you." Su Nan raised an eyebrow and looked at him jokingly, who didn't know Cheng Yi's romantic deeds.

Cheng Yi laughed, "It's over, you know it's all fake, I'm very innocent..."

"Okay, thank you for comforting me, but I'm really tired..."

She couldn't fall into another man's tenderness, not to mention how many years Cheng Yi had been a friend, and she didn't want to lose this friend.

Seeing that she wasn't as lost as before, he touched her head, his eyes were gentle and indulgent, "Then I'm leaving, you have a good rest."

Cheng Yi was a little less frivolous, and his gestures showed a mature and noble temperament. , it's hard not to fall into it.

What a monster! Su Nan cursed.

With a glance, she saw the jade pipe on the table that she hadn't had time to put away. She curled her lips into a smile, walked over, picked it up and looked at it. The smile gradually cooled, and then she casually put it aside and went to rest.

If Mr. Fu knew that his beloved baby was treated like this, he would be mad!

I slept until ten o'clock in the evening, and got up to see the message from Su Jin: If you have something to go abroad for three days, you should watch the company.

His heart is really big, how many days did Su Nan take over? Are you so relieved?

It is estimated that it is inconvenient to make a phone call now on the plane. Su Nan replied with a message: You can't blame me for the trouble, and you must be ready to clean up the mess, brother!

Ding dong – message replied.

Su Jin helplessly replied to his sister: Don't go bankrupt, everything is easy to say.

Su Nan was relieved, and suddenly remembered the things in the living room, jumped out, turned on the lights, chose the angle, took a close-up photo of Cuiyu pipe, and sent it to the circle of friends:

"The new taochang thing, welcome Tasting!"

She is not happy, why make others happy?

Soon, Qin Yu and Cheng Yi reposted it for her, and they soon became Fu Yechuan's circle.

Now, everyone knows that Mr. Fu's family heirloom has become a "broken thing" in Su Nan's hands!

Su Nan ate something, and went back to sleep regardless. Naturally, he didn't know that because of this photo, Mr. Fu was so angry that he didn't eat all night!

Woke up at around eight in the morning and received a call from Qin Yu in a daze.

"What's the matter?"

"You didn't see that in your Moments I reposted, there are a lot of people asking for a price, and they want to buy the pipe in your hand at a high price, but someone paid 60 million!"

Su Nan woke up. Smile, it's doubled, it's more valuable than expected.

"Just take a look, I don't plan to sell it."

Qin Yu laughed out loud, "I know one of them, and I took a look at it. Guess what, it was ordered by Lu Qi. It seems that it was Fu Yechuan's intention. They probably I can't sit still."

Su Nan raised her eyebrows, as expected, when she sold what she got, did she really think she was an idiot?

After talking to Qin Yu for a while, seeing that the time was almost up, she was ready to go to work. She couldn't be lazy when Su Jin wasn't here.

Planning to drive over by herself and choose a car in the garage, Su Yifeng sent all the luxury cars ordered from abroad. The whole garage was like a luxury car exhibition.

The most low-key gray Porsche Cayenne, although the price is quite bright, but the design is somewhat restrained, and it does not look so high-profile.

That's it!

As soon as Su Nan sat up, the housekeeper of the old house saw Su Nan in the garage through remote monitoring and hurriedly called.

"Miss, do you need a driver? It'll be there in five minutes."

Chapter 62: Just a Car

Chapter 62 There is only one car

In his opinion, there is no place where the eldest lady drives the car in person, and the driver and the steward must accompany you when you go out. He is not thoughtful.

Su Nan smiled, "No need, uncle housekeeper, I can do it myself, don't worry."

She didn't say much, just hung up the phone, drove out of the garage, and went directly to the company.

There are no traffic jams on the road, and the driving is very smooth, but I don't understand why the cars around the car take the initiative to evade when the car hits the road. During the waiting time at the traffic lights, the cars around the front and rear are separated by several meters.

Is it because she is a female driver?

Arriving downstairs in the company, he handed the key to the doorman to park the car. Su Nan stepped in with high heels and saw Lin Shuang staring at her angrily, his disgusting eyes undisguised.

Su Nan was inexplicable. Did she know that she had handed over the recording to Su Jin?

Shouldn't know so soon!

"Manager Lin, why don't you go up after work?"

Lin Shuang snorted coldly, squinting at her strangely, "Mr. Su really likes you. It cost you more than two million for sending you such a valuable car, right?"

"Can Su Nan afford a Porsche Cayenne by himself?"

Look at that configuration, or the highest grade!

Su Nan frowned, then remembered something, laughed lightly, brushed the broken hair in her ear, "It's just a car, do you need someone else to give it? I can afford it..."

She Gently glanced at Lin Shuang's flushed face, and turned to the CEO's exclusive elevator as if nothing had happened.

Do you really think of her as a woman who can get away with a second-hand Audi?

Yu Lou greeted her upstairs and told her about the meeting for a while.

Su Nan stepped on high heels and went directly to the conference room. Lin Shuang also went in at the same time. Su Nan glanced at everyone, and it was almost time to come, "Let's start."

The cooperation negotiation of Juli Group has reached a preliminary agreement, and the rest is to further deepen the details, but their core interest is that within these ubiquitous details, a step is huge profit, so it is even more important. Repeated consultations.

Several shareholders are the heads of the departments. They were very dissatisfied with the airborne Su Nan, and they were not so proactive in cooperating with Su Nan when Su Jin went abroad.

Several parties couldn't argue for a long time. The plan proposed by Su Nanfang's people, they shied away from left and right, and glanced around. Most of them were watching the show, and she already knew it.

Lin Shuang sat and sneered, and Zhang Ming rarely attended the meeting. Without saying a word, seeing Su Nan being embarrassed by everyone, he smiled like an old fox and let her go down the steps.

"Vice President Su is still young after all. Although he won the project with Juli Group, in the final analysis, this project is not yet mature in this field. In the end, it is possible to make or lose money. Naturally, everyone does not dare to take too much risk. Vice President Su needs to understand the people below..."

Su Nan hooked his lips, "Understand? According to Director Zhang's intention, are you going to break the contract with Juli Group?"

Zhang Ming's face froze, Because he broke the contract with one word? When Su Jin came back, he was afraid to kill him!

"Of course not, it's just that President Su is going abroad, and everyone can't make up their minds. It's better to put it on hold for the time being and wait for President Su to come back..."

Procrastinating?

Every minute and every second is the first opportunity. Without the first opportunity, the Su Group will lose its dominance in this project. Even if it participates, it is of little significance.

Su Nan lowered his head and smiled, his eyes sank slightly, his face became colder, and he looked at the circle of people below.

"So, if President Su doesn't come back, will you all not be able to work? Are you going to strike?"

Su Nan, who has always been good-natured, suddenly became angry. Everyone didn't expect it. This Vice President Su looked like Jin who was under the care of him. Canary, but her temper is not easy to handle...

"You are one of a hundred people in the workplace. If your boss is not there, you will delay the progress again and again. Will you bear the final loss? Can you afford it? Which company dares to ask for such a person?"

Su Nan's eyes were cold and stern. Glancing at the people below, do you want to slap her while Su Jin is away?

Unfortunately, she is not easy to bully!

Chapter 63: The Mawei

conference room was so quiet that it remained silent for a full minute!

Zhang Ming's face was ashen, he didn't expect Su Nan to pull back a game, he was about to speak, "I didn't mean..."

Su Nan interrupted him without looking at it: "I believe you have already received this morning. Notice, Mr. Su is not here, I am in charge of the company's affairs, I am leading this project, from now on, if you don't want to do it, write a resignation letter immediately, the position will be taken by the deputy, and I will explain it from Mr. Su!"

The people present Suddenly, his chest trembled, and there was no sound. Whoever mixed in today is fighting over, and the deputy below is eyeing them. Originally, there are more wolves and less meat. Who dares to be stupid at this time?

Although I didn't like Su Nan's airborne, from the first day, I could see that Su Jin supported her, and Su Nan couldn't be offended!

They began to regret the fact that they gave Su Nan a slap in the face by Zhang Ming today.

The air pressure in the entire conference room was low and cold, and no one dared to make a sound. Zhang Ming felt that the situation was over, and no one dared to continue to embarrass her at this time.

"Manager Shen of the planning department, can you come up with the planning plan today?"

Shen Xidong, who was named, suddenly raised his head, "Yes, Vice President Su, our planning department will go back and have a meeting to study it immediately, and we must come up with the best in the fastest time possible. This plan will not drag the company back!"

Today, who is not an old fritter who sees the wind?

You have to go down a step, or you will fall to your death!

Su Nan nodded with satisfaction, his voice slowed down, and looked at the others: "What about other departments?"

"We will go back and study immediately, we will not disappoint the company!"

"Yes, we do too."

"Of course, we It's already ready, ready for a big fight!"

Everyone spoke to each other, calming down the atmosphere. Su Nan did not continue to be cold, but resumed a gentle smile and voice, and participated in the discussion.

It's not that they are unprepared. On the contrary, everyone is well prepared. After all, everyone in charge of a large group is very capable, and they are not really incapable of winking.

Zhang Ming and Lin Shuang, who were deliberately ignored, were pale and ugly.

Su Nan didn't care, anyway, they were all grasshoppers from the post-autumn era, and they wouldn't be around for long.

As the meeting was drawing to a close, Su Nan saw that the time was almost up, "Although the core research team is in the Juli Group this time, we have to make preparations. I have discussed with Mr. Lin from the Juli Group before, although I can't participate. For the research and development of core technologies, he also agreed that we will send two researchers to participate in the later research and development. Our company must provide the best guarantee for these two staff members, but they must be reliable and can start looking for candidates. HR should pay more attention. "

Su Nan is very satisfied with today's meeting. At the end of the meeting, everyone intentionally stayed to chat with her and get closer, and Su Nan responded one by one, smiling warmly and brightly, making it impossible to see the urgency just now. The person is her.

Yu Lou hurried over and whispered in his ear, "Vice President Su, Chairman Fu of the Fu Group is here."

Su Nan raised his eyebrows, so fast, Mr. Fu couldn't hold his breath more than she imagined.

After all, he is the chairman of the Fu Group, so he can't be neglected either in public or in private, Su Nan nodded and left.

"He's waiting in the reception room?" Su Nan asked.

Yu Lou shook his head, "He went directly to your office."

Su Nan was a little surprised, but relieved, it was obviously aimed at the jade pipe in her hand.

Bowing her head and laughing, Su Nan pushed open the door and walked in. She didn't realize that it was not only Mr. Fu, but also Fu Yingying.

"No rules, don't you know how to knock on the door when you come in?" Mr. Fu sat upright on the sofa and looked at the person at the door with a cold face.

Get off the horse?

She has just experienced it once, again?

“Chairman Fu, I never knock on the door when I enter my office.”

Chapter 64 Please make an appointment in advance

Su Nan said, went directly to the chair behind the table and sat down, threw the document there, and turned on the computer.

Mr. Fu, who was ignored, was even more angry and snorted coldly.

“Su Nan, I underestimated you. You are quite capable. No wonder you took the initiative to file for a divorce. It turned out that you were looking for a good family? Once you divorced, you changed your body and became the vice president of the Su Group. It seems that Su Jin is very important. You...”

Su Nan smiled and looked at the two people, Fu Yingying was obviously worried and didn't dare to talk much, but Mr. Fu came prepared.

“Didn't you force me to get a divorce? Chairman Fu, you have to call me to the old house to lecture me every week, and let me know how unworthy I am from your lofty Fu family. Now that you are divorced, you You should be happy, why did you come to me?”

She didn't forget that Mr. Fu asked her to go back to the old house every week, not for the so-called family reunion, but to make Qu Qing and Fu Yingying go there without fear. Tormenting her, from physical to psychological, made her feel the difference between herself and the Fu family inch by inch.

It was because of Father Fu's connivance that Qu Qing and Fu Yingying bullied her without any scruples, and none of the Fu family's servants looked down on her.

A daughter-in-law who lives in a joke finally gave up, shouldn't she raise her glass to celebrate?

“What do you mean? Do you want to turn over the old accounts with me? Is that how you talk to your elders?” Mr. Fu was very dissatisfied with Su Nan's attitude.

The woman who was submissive back then dared to contradict him?

It's the opposite of her!

Su Nan sneered, "This is the company, there are no elders or juniors, only superiors and subordinates. As the chairman of the Fu Group, I should do it to receive you. Chairman Fu still has something to say, don't waste everyone's money. Time, after all, you have not made an appointment, I have to deal with a lot of things next, and there is not much time."

She deliberately looked down at her watch, and looked blankly at the livid Old Master Fu over there.

Who are you looking at?

Do you really think she's still the stupid woman from three years ago?

"Su Nan, how dare you talk to grandpa like that? He's already old, do you want to be mad at him?"

Seeing this, Fu Yingying hurriedly reprimanded, Su Nan really doesn't care about anyone?

Su Nan glanced at her and laughed softly, "I have nothing to do with your Fu family, do you still expect me to look down on people's faces? You come here uninvited, just to get angry? If so, then forgive me. I can't entertain you enough, so I'll ask the secretary to escort the two down."

She didn't rush to beg them to come over, how dare Fu Yingying say that?

Fu Yingying's face panicked and she looked at Mr. Fu, "Grandpa, I..." Mr.

Fu was very shrewd. Knowing that she would not eat hard, she snorted coldly and said straight.

"Okay, Su Nan, I'll talk straight, my daughter-in-law and this girl stole my things to show off, but I didn't want to be put together by you. Cuiyu pipe is my lifeblood. How much does it cost to take it out?"

Su Nan raised her eyebrows, "Oh, it's because of this..." She deliberately lengthened her voice, "But I already said it. , I don't sell that thing."

Mr. Fu's face was ugly, his body stiffened, and he glared at her, "I said, no matter how much money, you can pick it up, after this village there is no such shop!"

She knew The Fu Group is rich, but she is not poor, she does not need this opportunity!

"Chairman Fu, when you gave me a divorce, didn't you also give me a chance to make an offer? I didn't ask for it at first, and I don't want it this time either."

They all thought that she was marrying Fu Yechuan for money, but these three In addition to the money Fu Yechuan gave her after donating blood, the Fu family did not let her touch a penny of the Fu family's money. It was like preventing a thief. She knew it perfectly.

Mr. Fu's face was gloomy and cold, his face sank, and his breathing increased.

"Su Nan, you just hate our Fu family, don't you? You just don't want to make our family feel better, don't you? You didn't return the pipe to grandpa on purpose, didn't you?"

Fu Yingying said excitedly, pointing at Su Nan's nose, wishing Expose her ugly face.

Su Nan spread his hands, "Yeah..."

Chapter 65 The taste of green tea

Chapter 65 The Taste of Green Tea

Su Nan admitted frankly that if it were someone else, she would never hold onto someone else's favorite thing for no reason.

She just hated the Fu family, she just didn't want them to live comfortably, she just bought the pipes on purpose, making them sleepless.

All this, she admits, is nothing to disguise.

"Miss Fu, I'm not a kind and weak person. People respect me one foot, and I respect others ten feet. How did you treat me in the first place? I can't pretend to have amnesia, right?" She looked so generous people?

Fu Yingying was trembling with anger, and what she wanted to say was instantly blocked by Su Nan's throat. Her frank admission was more irritating than her denial!

Fu Yingying's scolding attitude was glared by Old Master Fu, then took a deep breath, softened her voice, and looked at her with big innocent eyes while sobbing.

"Sister Su Nan, I used to be wrong. I was young and ignorant. You have a lot of adults, so please forgive me. I sincerely apologize to you. I'm sorry, as long as you forgive me, I'm willing to do anything. I hope You can give grandpa's pipe to him because I got into trouble, my mother was grounded, and grandpa taught me a lesson, if you are still angry, you can slap me twice."

She raised her eyes and said, Looking at Su Nan not only was not moved, but also looked at her with a smile that was not a smile.

For a moment, she suddenly felt that she couldn't play anymore, and stood there stiffly.

Su Nan stared at Fu Yingying as if watching a play. At that moment, she could smell the smell of green tea!

Seeing that Su Nan didn't respond, Mr. Fu coughed, suppressed the gloom in his eyes, and reluctantly spoke.

"Su Nan, you were indeed wronged at the Fu family. Yingying also took the initiative to come and apologize to you this time. You can raise any conditions you want."

Apologize?

I'm sorry, she doesn't think it's an apology, but rather an immoral moral kidnapping, which is a bit ridiculous.

Su Nan glanced at her lightly, "I won't accept the apology, and I won't give the pipe."

After saying so much, she just couldn't get in.

Mr. Fu's expression changed slightly, and the accumulated anger could not be suppressed, "Su Nan, what are you trying to do?" Ca n't help it?

"I don't want to do anything. If Chairman Fu has nothing else to do, I'll be busy."

After talking so much, she was also tired.

Mr. Fu snorted coldly, and his eyes flashed sharply.

"If you don't want to give you a chance, then don't blame me for being rude."

"Oh?" Su Nan raised his eyebrows, "What do you think?" Mr.

Fu took out the phone, "Su Jin is holding a divorced woman like this. I'm curious, does the chairman of the Su Group know? I still have some friendship with him, do you think if I tell him who you are, do you still have the right to sit here?" What he meant was all threats.

Su Nan paused for a few seconds, her smile deepened, and she stretched out her hand, "As you wish."

Is she afraid?

She couldn't wait to laugh three times in her heart, the chairman of the Su Group is her father!

Mr. Fu's eyes were cold. Seeing that Su Nan was ignorant, he dialed the number directly.

Fu Yingying looked at Su Nan proudly, as if she was about to have a disaster, waiting to see her good show!

Bell –

Waiting for a few seconds, Su Yifeng picked it up and responded with a leisurely voice.

“Chairman Fu, why are you in the mood to call me?”

Mr. Fu snorted softly, “Director Su, I heard that I went on vacation to Europe a few days ago, and I seem to be in a good mood...”

“That's right, when you're older, you'll have to go out for a walk. If you have nothing to do, hang up. I'm fishing...”

Su Nan raised his eyebrows, and the old man wanted to cut off the Fu family. , Are you still in the mood to socialize with him?

Mr. Fu's voice changed, “Su Dong, your son has been very close to a divorced woman recently. Do you know about this?”
