Chapter 741 Your face is big

Chapter 741 Your face is big,

Su Nan will not take the initiative to pick things up, but to prevent those greedy people from making a comeback, he can only leave evidence.

Yu Lou looked at her in admiration and nodded.

Su Nan even coaxed and frightened such a complicated and difficult scene to reveal it?

Mr. Su, he really deserves to be Mr. Su!

She went to the office to rest and breathed a sigh of relief.

After half an hour.

Chen Jian panted and climbed upstairs.

“President Su, everyone is gone...”

Su Nan raised his eyebrows, “Really? How was the reaction?”

Chen Jian really wanted to applaud her, it was wonderful!

“Half of the people took the money and left, and there are five or six who want to work. I have left their information, and the rest are scattered...”

Su Nan smiled and rubbed it. Cup rim.

Those who didn't take the money were probably afraid of what would be pursued after taking the money...

It's a good thing to be cautious and take care of your family.

“The leader has already been dealt with?”

Chen Jian nodded, “The police took it away. Some people said that it was Zhang Licheng's brother-in-law. This trouble has nothing to do with Zhang Licheng!”

Su Nan pursed his lips, “It must be Be careful, don't make any mistakes before the project is unveiled!”

Chen Jian also knew the stakes, and after Su Nan said this, he had to be more careful when he looked back.

“Mr. Su, Li Hui admitted that the accounts were fraudulent, all of which were instigated by Zhang Licheng. The evidence was in front of him, and Zhang Licheng had to admit it, but...”

Chen Jian hesitated, “This Zhang Licheng has used this project. There are many stumbling blocks, and the lives of those who came out will not be recognized.

His father-in-law and brother-in-law were the constructors of the project. They have never been replaced. As soon as a person died, the construction had to be stopped, but the money was not less. Because of this, we bid for a new construction party before, and he was also scolded by his father-in-law and brother-in-law. Obstruction, the entire S City did not dare to bid. “

Su Nan paused and glanced at him, “Where did you find it? “

Since it didn't go well, but he didn't mention it, it means that the problem has been solved.

Chen Jian: “It was introduced by President Fu. Su Nan raised his eyelids , stared at him, but did not speak.

Chen Jian bit his head and explained, “It was recommended by Li Bureau, and it was also clearly stated that President Fu asked him to tell him. He knows the construction party here. I couldn't find it, so I recommended a new one.

However, after my investigation, the construction party has a clean origin and a good reputation, and there is no black history. “The implication is that the construction company recommended by Fu Yechuan is like an angel falling from the sky?

Su Nan twitched the corners of his mouth and lowered his eyes, how could Fu Yechuan care about this trivial matter...

“Since the background is no problem, let's use it. Although Fu Yechuan lost to us, he is not despicable enough to play tricks on the construction party. “

This is not in line with Fu Yechuan's identity.

Chen Jian heaved a sigh of relief and nodded immediately, and the words he said did not go through his brain.

“I guess I don’t want to worry about such trivial matters. President Fu still looks at your face...”

Yu Lou gave him a side-by-side look, hehe, the flattery was in the wrong place.

Su Nan pursed his lips indifferently, “Okay, Manager Chen, after the project is finalized, the company should be cancelled, the Su Group will not I’ll take over all the business and leave the rest to you.”

Chen Jian nodded shyly, Su Nan stood up and glanced at Yu Lou, “Let’s go back to the hotel first.”

Yu Lou nodded.

Su’s hotel was not well decorated, so she booked another apartment-style high-end hotel for her.

As soon as Su Nan left, he responded to a few urgent emails, and then changed clothes to rest.

Yu Lou still has to collect information about Zhicheng Company, so he can’t follow her all the time.

When she woke up, it was dark outside the window.

Chapter seven hundred and forty second hired killer

Chapter 742 The hired killer is dark in the sky, and there is a lot of traffic downstairs.

The cold wind is mixed with a biting chill, and this winter seems to be extraordinarily cold.

Su Nan felt hungry.

Suddenly seeing someone eating oden in the convenience store opposite downstairs, she felt a little itchy.

I haven’t eaten it in years.

She had a big appetite, and after thinking about it, she chose to give up the craftsmanship of the hotel’s five-star chef.

Putting on her coat, taking her wallet and mobile phone, she dressed casually and comfortably, and she went downstairs directly.

When she arrived at the convenience store, she completely forgot her regular diet. The smell of oden was really tempting. She sat in front of the floor-to-ceiling window and ate a lot.

After eating, she sat for a while, watching the cars outside gradually decrease.

The light of the street lamps permeated the coldness.

Get up and leave.

Before crossing the road, the red light on the opposite side came on.

She stopped.

There was silence all around.

The phone suddenly rang, it was Chen Jian.

She frowned and picked it up, "Manager Chen..."

"Mr. Su, the police just went here to investigate all the monitoring of the project, and suddenly found a suspicious point.

There will be people watching the construction accident site. Suspicious, he has always been in charge of the transportation of tower cranes at high altitudes, this person always leaves the construction site within a few days, and he is there before every incident..."

Su Nan froze in his chest, and sure enough, those accidents happened. , most likely not by accident.

The red light on the opposite side turns green.

She said as she walked, "Do you know who it is? If it shows up every time, it's likely to be local..." The side lights flashed, and suddenly there was a huge roar.

Su Nan was shocked and turned her head to look, the dazzling light made her dizzy for a while.

The person on the phone continued to speak, "The police have already begun to investigate. That person has obvious scars on his face. It is very likely that he is the killer hired by Zhang Licheng..."

Su Nan roared in his ears, not knowing. Hear it or not.

But the oncoming truck was so fast that you didn't have time to react.

But her eyes, so accurately, saw the driver...

the scar on his face! At that moment, the whistle and the cold wind seemed to engulf her, and everything around her fell silent.

The car came straight at her...

Su Nan's heart was suffocated, as if her whole body was drained of strength, but her subconscious reaction speed was a few tenths of a second faster than that of ordinary people.

Suddenly, she stepped back, her whole body leaning back.

However, the strong wind around the huge truck seemed to wrap her under the car. The cold wind was mixed with the steaming engine exhaust gas, and it came towards her without hesitation...

Her face turned pale!

Suddenly, a big hand behind her suddenly grabbed her arm, firm and warm, generous and quiet, she seemed to be pulled out of hell, and the feeling of escaping from death made her sweaty.

The car roared away, Su Nan fell to the ground, she heard a part of her body break, and she twitched in pain.

She didn't have such good luck, and Fu Yechuan always pushed her away from behind.

The real pain strikes, it's the cramps and evisceration after numbness!

It was dim and dark in front of her eyes, her head was dizzy, and the surroundings were extremely silent.

She was speechless, but her eyes were looking up at the sky.

The man behind him picked her up, his voice both familiar and unfamiliar.

What she tried to distinguish was Shang Qian.

"Su Nan, don't go to sleep, you'll be at the hospital soon..."

She had never seen Shang Qian like this, Wen Runqian's mask was taken off, and the whole person went crazy, her eyes were scarlet, Carefully but firmly hugged her shoulders...

...

Chapter 743 is the blood he donated

Chapter 743 is the blood he donated

"What should I do? If Director Su knew that Miss Su had an accident with me, I really couldn't afford to lose ten lives..."

Chen Jian panicked. Open your mouth.

Yu Lou: "Manager Chen just do his own thing. I have informed Su Dong and her brother about Miss Su. They will come soon. We just need to cooperate with the police and provide evidence."

Yu Lou's voice It was still calm, but the fear that was hard to hide was deeply suppressed.

He couldn't imagine what the consequences would be if Su Nan died...

That was his dereliction of duty!

He can only force himself to calm down and stay calm in the face of danger, which is his profession.

Su Nan looked at the warm sunshine outside the window and the branches swaying by the wind.

At that moment, her mind was filled with the dim night and the dazzling light, and the extremely fast car crashed towards her in an instant.

She shuddered and breathed a sigh of relief.

Yu Lou has been closely observing the movement in the ward, watching her open her eyes and pushing the door in excitedly.

The voices became a little choked up.

"Mr. Su..."

Su Nan blinked, it seemed true, "Has anyone caught it?"

Her voice was a little hoarse.

Yu Lou hurried over to pour her a glass of warm water and handed her a straw.

Su Nan took a sip and felt much better and her mind was clear.

“I got it, the bodyguard who was protecting you in the dark didn’t let him go. His car hit a big tree and he passed out. Now he has been questioned at the police station. He is the one who appeared on the construction site. .”

Yu Lou methodically reported the investigation to her.

Su Nan is fine, he has the backbone, and everything he does is valuable.

Su Nan nodded and suddenly remembered something.

“It was Shang Qian who saved me?”

Yu Lou nodded heavily, “Mr. Shang got off the plane and was on a business trip in S City. He asked me your address and said that he wanted to deliver meals to you. I...”

He also specially sent a text message to Su Nan to tell her about Shang Qian.

But after the accident, he discovered that the text message was unread.

Su Nan rolled his eyes, but didn’t see him.

“What about him?”

Yu Lou lowered his eyes, his eyes were a little red.

“President Su, your blood type is special. There is no suitable blood source in the blood bank here. If it is too late to go to Xicheng, President Shang will draw your blood for you.”

Su Nan’s eyes trembled slightly, obviously a little surprised.

This fact made her tremble slightly, even a little flustered. The nature in her heart was filled with grievances, and she even wanted to cry.

“You have lost too much blood, and President Shang has donated more than twice the amount of blood. Now he is lying in the ward and hasn’t woken up yet...”

Shang Qian is actually the same blood type as her?

For a brief moment, I was stunned, but my heart was full of waves.

Panicked and embarrassed.

It reminded her of the three years she spent with Fu Yechuan, when she donated blood to other women. Time and time again, she wasted her life and patience.

She is very aware of the rarity and preciousness of this blood type. In order to protect this daughter, Su Yifeng regularly finds people to donate blood at a high price in the private hospital in Xicheng, just to meet emergency needs.

But in order to like a person, she is willing to sacrifice her life and dignity at the feet of others, and donate blood to her rival again and again, but what in return?

It's nothing more than a self-inflicted humiliation again and again.

The humbleness in her bones that she tried to forget, but it was like thousands of ants gnawing at her bone marrow, rushing out at this moment.

What was the difference between her back then and the present Shang Qian?

Chapter seven hundred and forty fourth vulnerable

Chapter 744 Unbearable In his mind, every scene in his mind is that Shang Qian is so humble and tender that he carefully expresses his feelings to her, afraid that she will refuse, and that she will not know.

The heart seemed to be pinched by a big hand, a little distressed, suffocating and uncomfortable.

Some parts of my heart seemed to soften quietly.

Su Nan pursed her lips. Fortunately, Shang Qian arrived in time to survive. In any case, she owed him.

"Mr. Su, the doctor said that you are out of the dangerous period now, but your right leg is broken and you need to rest in bed. I will contact the hospital at home. Let's go back..." As for medical resources, of course, it is from Xicheng. The medical resources are the best, and the people in the Su family can take better care of her.

Su Nan paused, "When President Shang wakes up, let's go together."

No wonder she felt something was wrong with her right leg, and the pain was unpleasant. It must have been anesthesia.

Fortunately, it was just a fracture.

She got her life back, I don't know how lucky

she is ... It seems that she still underestimated Zhang Licheng's power, others have been locked in, but the actions outside are not ambiguous at all.

Still want to do something to her?

Thinking of this, her face sank, she had to pull out the stinger...

Fu Yechuan always has the eyes and ears of Fu Yechuan in S city. I rushed over, just finished the meeting in the evening, and after a day and a night, I drove to the hospital in S City.

Standing at the door of the ward, his heart beating violently was filled with a sense of uneasy fear. The indifference and grimness that permeated from his bones made him uncontrollably want to take revenge.

He wants to kill!

But just before the door was pushed in, Yu Lou's words made him instantly stiff, like a basin of cold water pouring it down, making him sober and unable to move.

Shang Qian is actually the same blood type as Su Nan?

At that moment, my heart twitched suddenly.

How could he forget why Su Nan divorced him in the first place, because he forced her to donate blood to Qiao Wanrou, because he regarded her as a mobile blood bank, because he stepped on her underfoot again and again.

Up to now, the person who saved her was Shang Qian, and the person who donated blood was also Shang Qian.

So what did he do?

Across the door, Fu Yechuan suddenly felt as if he had been slapped, and it was hot.

He had no face to go in, no face to evoke Su Nan's sad memory.

That's not glorious.

He wanted to start over, based on the fact that she still liked him.

Instead of suddenly breaking in now, polishing the last bit of magnanimity.

After a while, Fu Yechuan withdrew his hand, turned around, and left silently.

Like never came.

She is fine, and the rest can come to Japan.

Yu Lou said a few words, and seeing that she was tired, he went out consciously.

Not long after, Su Yifeng came with his two sons, Su Jin and Su Qi.

Su Yifeng's eyes were red, while Su Qi supported him.

Yu Lou walked over and greeted respectfully.

Su Yifeng and Su Qi went directly to the ward.

Su Jin was very calm, and stood at the door to ask about the situation.

But now his face is cold and gloomy.

Everyone knows that this is the inverse scale of the Su family.

Zhang Licheng thought that if he had a little power in S City, he could be a lawless demon.

The previous deaths gave him enough courage, thinking that no one had found him, and he acted even more recklessly.

So he hated Su Nan, who he never saw but made him a complete defeat.

This woman ruined everything he ran, how could he let her go?

Therefore, even if he is in prison, he can make Su Nan regret coming here!

Chapter 745: The Passionate Family

Chapter 745 The family

Yu Lou and everyone understand that Zhang Licheng did it, but there is no evidence.

“The police have tried their best to investigate...”

But the driver hasn't uttered a word yet.

After Su Jin heard this, his face was extremely cold and depressed.

“The efficiency is too slow. To directly investigate the driver's identity and find his family members, no matter who they are, they must taste the pain that Su Nan has experienced...”

If there is no family, then arrange our people directly. Go in, let this driver...and Zhang Licheng, regret coming into this world.”

He did not hesitate to use the most terrifying means, and he also wanted to breathe a sigh of relief for Su Nan.

The Su Group is for her to play, not to make her work hard.

Whoever dares to threaten her life will only have room to regret it for the rest of her life.

Yu Lou has followed Su Jin for so long, from when he started wandering in a gray area, to now a little bit of openness.

He knew very well that Su Jin's character was very similar to Fu Yechuan's. They had both seen the cruelest side of the world, so they were hard-hearted and cold-hearted, and they were extremely indifferent to everyone except the one they loved the most.

Compared with Su Jin's strength, Zhang Licheng's power was simply vulnerable.

Yu Lou nodded immediately, “Yes, I'll do it right away.”

He followed Su Nan for a long time, and was so used to seeing the sunshine and her magnanimity that he almost forgot himself.

Su Nan opened his eyes in a daze and saw someone sitting with his back to her.

Then, the man turned around, and Su Qi's handsome face suddenly appeared.

Seeing her awake, she smiled brightly.

“Su Xiaosi, look, this is my signature, but it's valuable!”

On the plaster of her right foot, it was painted with bells and whistles, and Su Qi's name was signed.

Su Nan rolled his eyes and muttered, "Give me a dollar and I'll sell it to you."

Su Qi clicked his tongue, and just as he was about to say something, Su Yifeng stood up and looked at her with tears in his eyes.

"Little Si, does it still hurt? Dad is so heartbroken!"

Su Nan looked at him moved, almost never seeing such a good family again, and suddenly felt a warm feeling in his heart.

Su Qi silently walked away.

It's just a broken bone, is it worth it?

He was injured while filming and had three steel nails in his back. After lying on the bed for half a year, Su Yifeng didn't shed a single tear. At that time, he advised him to change careers...

Is it his own?

Su Jin pushed open the door and came in, watching her wake up, her Yin Li face suddenly softened a lot.

"Are you okay? I'll call the doctor over here?"

Su Nan smiled, "No need, it's already fine."

Su Yifeng sighed and looked at Su Jin, "Quick, get ready to go back, I always feel uncomfortable here. Be solid."

Su Jin nodded, Su Nan couldn't help but said, "Mr. Shang saved me, he hasn't woken up yet, let's go together when he wakes up..."

So, the four members of the Su family added the video Su Ming on the phone began to discuss the next arrangements around Su Nan's hospital bed.

Su Nan is like this, Su Yifeng will not agree with her to continue to work in the company, she must be allowed to rest at home.

Su Jin agreed.

Su Qi agreed.

Su Ming was busy doing experiments and did not participate in the discussion.

An hour later, the doctor knocked on the door and came in.

“Mr. Su, the patient over there, Mr. Shang, has already woken up, and he has to come over to take a look.”

After saying that, the door was pushed open.

Shang Qian stood weakly at the door, his face pale due to excessive blood loss.

He looked at the people inside, stunned for a moment, and then nodded politely.

“Su Dong, everyone is here...”

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Su Yifeng's attitude towards Shang Qian is even more enthusiastic. After all, he is the one who saved Su Nan, and he is completely different from ordinary suitors!

“Shang Qian, you should have a good rest, are you feeling better now?”

Shang Qian nodded, his eyes moved to Su Nan, and his eyes shrank fiercely when he saw her right leg in plaster cast.

Su Nan smiled, “It's just a broken bone, it will be healed soon, Mr. Shang, thank you...”

This gratitude came from the bottom of my heart.

Under the circumstances at that time, no matter how fast the reaction was, it was not as fast as the speed of the car. If it wasn't for Shang Qian, she would have injured more than one right leg.

Shang Qian's eyes were still a little red, he twitched the corners of his mouth pale and smiled weakly.

“Well, you'll be fine.”

Su Qi smiled aside, “I think we should go out and let Xiao Si talk to President Shang alone!”

Shang Qian looked at Su Qi gratefully.

Su Yifeng slapped him on the back of the head, "Nonsense, the family should be together at this time, Shang Qian's family is not here, we are his family, how can we go out at this time? The two wounded, if they fainted What should I do?"

Su Qi rubbed his head in confusion, but nodded obediently.

"Dad's thoughtful consideration!"

"Humph!"

Su Yifeng rolled his eyes at him and hurried over to help Shang Qian.

"Come on, Shang Qian, the car is ready, it's waiting for you, and the hospital in Xicheng has been contacted. You will get good treatment in the past. Uncle will definitely raise you to be fat."

He told Shang Qian But one hundred and eighty degrees of enthusiasm doubled, especially after knowing that Shang Qian and Su Nan had the same blood type.

Shang Qian was flattered and walked over to sit down.

Su Jin raised his eyebrows inadvertently. Su Yifeng has always been close to Su Nan's suitors. Even Fu Yechuan can only call him "Su Dong", and so does Shang Qian.

But now he actually calls himself "Uncle"?

This change is a bit strange...

Su Nan smiled and looked at the nervous Shang Qian, and comforted him:

"My father is really grateful to you, he has always been so gentle and close, President Shang, you are welcome ."

Su Qi: "..."

Gentle and close?

Hehe...

Shang Qian nodded with a smile, with a morbid weakness on his warm face, "Then I will trouble Uncle Su."

"It should be, it should be!"

In order to make them feel like a cloud The comfort, Su Yifeng made people drive two Rolls-Royces, stability and comfort have nothing to say.

So, Shang Qian and Su Jin shared a car, Su Yifeng and Su Qi shared a car with Su Nan.

From time to time, Su Qi poked her plastered right leg, "Does it hurt?"

It was only a slight tingling, but as soon as the anesthetic wore off, the pain penetrated densely from the bones.

Su Nan rolled his eyes at him, this third brother is a real dog, can God accept him?

Su Nan was actually in great pain, but he was afraid that Su Yifeng would be worried and delayed too long on the road, so he smiled.

"It doesn't hurt, it's the kind of slight pain that can be endured!"

Su Yifeng looked at his strong daughter distressedly, and looked at Su Qi, who was cheap.

"Do you think it's all you? You have to take anesthesia for a stomachache. It's not known to the world for a little injury. You're not as good as your sister!"

Su Qi lowered his head silently, was it his fault that he was afraid of the pain?

in another car.

The atmosphere in the car fell silently.

The driver couldn't speak, Su Jin didn't know what to say, and Shang Qian didn't know what to say.

Halfway through, Su Jin suddenly thought of something and asked him.

"Why did the business manager suddenly go to City S?"

City S is far less developed than Xicheng and City A, and its development potential is not so great.

Shang Qian, a returnee from overseas, a famous investor in Wall Street in country M, how could he go to city S?

"Go see Su Nan."

Shang Qian said directly, smiled, and his voice was gentle and elegant.

...

Chapter seven hundred and forty seventh thoughts on her

Chapter 747 Thinking about her

Su Jin raised his eyebrows, hesitated for a few seconds, and then slowly asked him:

“I don’t understand, doesn’t Shang always have any thoughts about Su Nan?”

Shang Qian’s pale face A smile floated up.

“Yes, I’ve been chasing her.” In the face of Mr. Su, who can read people’s hearts, and perhaps the future brother-in-law, Shang Qian felt that it would be better not to hide it at all.

Su Jin curled his lips into a smile, an unexpected answer.

“Mr. Su thinks, do I have hope?”

Shang Qian couldn’t help but speak, thinking of this, he felt up and down in his heart, and wanted to find some self-confidence in Su Jin.

After all, he is Su Nan’s brother.

Su Jin meaningfully curved the corners of his lips, lowered his eyes, and there was some gloating pity in his voice.

“Mr. Shang, in our family, our opinions are useless. Su Nan always has the right to veto.”

No one can control her thoughts. When Su Nan broke away from the Su family and married Fu Yechuan, what they said was useless. Instead, it aroused her rebellion.

Now, they no longer dare to test her thoughts.

Forget it, as long as she is happy, what does it matter who she is with?

Anyway, with the Su family here, who would dare to bully Su Nan like that?

After listening to Shang Qian, he was stunned for half a second. He seemed to notice a trace of sadness in Su Jin’s tone, and nodded with a silent and gentle smile.

The upbringing he received from a young age told him that it is best not to try to explore secrets that others did not intend to confess to you.

The car soon arrived at the West City.

Su Yifeng has a good relationship with the director of that high-level private hospital. The patients in that hospital are never ordinary people, and the medical equipment used is also the world's top.

Also, the most expensive.

Su Nan's special blood type doesn't get the highest priority in ordinary hospitals, but here, it can.

As soon as they went, they did a full inspection again.

Su Nan's foot was severely fractured and she couldn't walk. The nurse beside her was very polite and came over to help her push the wheelchair.

After a series of tedious inspections, more than an hour has passed.

At the end, the nurse enthusiastically pushed her back to the arranged ward and saw Shang Qian at the door.

He sat there, his hands clenched loosely into a fist, resting on his forehead.

Su Nan paused, turned her head to let the nurse leave first, pressed the button of the wheelchair, and walked over slowly.

For Shang Qian, her heart is extremely complicated.

She felt sorry for him, just as she felt sorry for her humble self during those three years.

But Su Nan didn't want Shang Qian to become the second self at all. That kind of sour and unspeakable taste was really uncomfortable.

It will break a person's arrogance and make his self-confidence to ashes.

Shang Qian raised his eyes and saw her, there was still scarlet in his eyes, but it was as warm as ever.

He smiled, his face still pale, and then his concerned eyes landed on her lap.

"How do you say, does it still hurt?"

Su Nan's pain was the first thing he noticed after getting out of the car. Her lips were almost bitten with blood, and she couldn't bear it.

A burst of warmth crossed her chest, and she smiled, "It's gone for a long time."

Shang Qian's brows and eyes were gentle, and the peaks of his eyebrows were like green mountains. He heard the words and smiled lightly, "It's fine."

Su Nan paused, "I didn't expect that you have the same blood type as mine, and you are someone who can't be saved if something goes wrong."

Shang Qian's smile narrowed, and he looked at her solemnly.

"Su Nan, the blood type is rare, but the people are warm. There is no one who can't be saved, such as you."

Su Nan was slightly startled. Except for the three years she spent as a mobile blood bank for Qiao Wanrou, she always cherished her life.

now and in the future, as well.

"By the way, have you finished your trip to City S?"

"I'm going to find you."

Maybe his eyes were too hot, and his words had a warm air, so that Su Nan didn't dare to look up easily. .

She pursed her lips and blinked, trying to look calm.

"Is there anything you need to do with me?"

Shang Qian looked at her seriously, his eyes seemed to reflect a faint galaxy, and when he got to the bottom of it, it was bright.

After watching for a few seconds, he suddenly chuckled, and the smile on the corner of his lips was a little delusional.

"I have ulterior motives for you, and of course I will find ways to meet you."

Su Nan froze, not expecting that Shang Qian would suddenly say such blatant words.

For a while, she didn't know how to answer.

Looking at her tangled appearance, Shang Qian's eyes flashed slightly, and he opened his mouth with a smile.

"Are you too moved? If you are too moved..."

"Old Xiao, my daughter will be handed over to you. When she leaves the hospital, she must be alive and kicking!"

Su Yifeng suddenly heard from Su Nan's ward. The voice gradually approached the door.

"Don't worry, Miss Su is fine this time, thanks to her boyfriend, how did you find a boyfriend with the same blood type as her? You don't have to worry about her bumping into each other from time to time, they are together, absolutely Nothing will happen!"

An angry but old voice said with a smile.

Exactly, the door opened.

The four looked at each other.

Su Nan quickly reacted and nodded towards the man next to Su Yifeng with a smile.

"Dean Xiao, hello."

Su Nan has been here to see a doctor since he was a child, an old acquaintance.

Dean Xiao and Su Yifeng were not at all embarrassed of being overheard, old fried dough sticks are old fried dough sticks!

"Miss Su, your dad is bribing me here while warning me, your body should be better!"

Su Nan smiled, "The doctor said just now that it's not a big deal, and you'll be able to leave in a few months. ."

Dean Xiao nodded, Su Yifeng walked over with a smile and pushed Su Nan's wheelchair.

"Okay, don't disturb my daughter's rest, you go out!"

Dean Xiao said a few words and left, and Shang Qian followed.

“Uncle Su, I still have a lot of work to do. My people will come to pick me up in the afternoon. I’ve caused you trouble these two days.”

Su Yifeng was stunned, then patted his shoulder with a smile:

“Look. What you said, it’s very strange. You saved Su Nan, and you are the savior of our family. It’s not a problem. Your business matters, but in the future, I will let our chef bring you meals every day. Yes, until you recover...”

Shang Qian paused, “You don’t have to be so troublesome...”

“No trouble, it should be, I’ll just sit at home when I have nothing to do with my own home. Same.”

Shang Qian smiled and nodded.

Su Nan rubbed his brows, this Su Yifeng’s attitude towards Shang Qian had changed too quickly.

She remembered their conversation inside just now, and she felt a little ashamed of what they said.

It seems that they are reluctant to let Shang Qian leave because they are interested in the blood shed on him!

Their Su family is the one with ulterior motives.

Can’t the conversation between Su Yifeng and Dean Xiao be restrained?

Fortunately, Shang Qian didn’t show any dissatisfaction, otherwise she would really like to find a crack in the ground to get in.

this afternoon.

Su Yifeng couldn’t hold on anymore and went home to rest.

Su Nan was eating Su Qiqie’s fruit in the ward, and Su Jin came in a hurry.

He was holding a thick document in his hand, and his face was cold and ugly.

Su Qi wiped Su Nan’s hands with a wet towel, and looked at Su Jin with a smile.

“Looks like the eldest brother caught the murderer!”

Su Jin's cold eyes and hand it to Su Nan.

"The man with the scar is indeed Zhang Licheng's man. He specially created accidents at the construction site to delay the construction period."

Su Nan froze and his eyebrows sank.

Zhang Li has become money and treats human life as a child's play. Is it so worthless?

Su Qi slapped his thigh, "Damn, how much courage do you have to put your mind on Xiao Si's head now? You can't let him go like this. Before handing it over to the police, you must teach him a lesson!"

Su Jin glanced at him, his jaw tightened, his face a bit complicated and dark.

"I have investigated the family background of this scarred man. He is a worker from a construction site. The reason why he worked for Zhang Licheng is because his daughter has cancer and needs a lot of money. It's from Zhang Licheng's reward." After speaking, the room fell silent.

They are not vicious people, they will also be soft-hearted, and they will also regard kindness as their business card.

But after being hurt, Su Nan's heart was really complicated when he learned the answer.

Su Qi was the first to calm down, perhaps because he had done a lot of filming, and had read all the bloody scripts.

After listening to Su Jin's words, he acted the most disdainful and snorted coldly.

"In order to save his own daughter, he kills other people's daughters. He is hypocritical, and he kills so many innocent people. He is not afraid of his own child's loss of life?"

Su Nan felt sympathy for what happened to this scarred boy and daughter, but it was not the reason for his murder.

Especially having just experienced a life-and-death speed competition, she doesn't have so much leisure to care about other people's misfortunes.

Compared to a person who has done many evils, he who just escaped death is the unfortunate person!

The sympathy in my heart disappeared instantly.

She raised her head and looked at Su Jin, her tone was indifferent and rational:

“To make a deal with the devil, you must be prepared to be pulled into the water, and we are not qualified to forgive the dead person, we will hand it over to the police.”

Su Jin originally I don't plan to let this scarred man go, no matter what the reason is for him, if he dares to do something to Su Nan, it will definitely not end well.

But he was worried that Su Nan knew the reason and was emotional, so before the police exposed it, he wanted to do ideological work for her, but he didn't expect Su Nan to be more decisive than he thought.

Thinking of this, Su Jin knew it.

“Okay, I'll arrange the rest, don't worry, we won't meddle in our own business, and we won't make it worse for him.”

This is the bottom line.

The implication is that the Su family will not be stupid enough to take money for her daughter's treatment, nor will it be despicable enough to do something to his daughter.

Su Nan nodded, Su Jin patted her head and looked at Su Qi, “I'm back to the company, call me if I have something.”

Su Qi looked indignant, thinking of countless ways to get revenge in his mind, but when he heard Su Jin's words are a little dazed...

it's too cheap for their family!

The room fell silent again.

Seeing that she was unhappy, Su Qi planned to install a projector in her ward to watch movies, and then set up a karaoke, and was explaining to her with great interest.

Su Nan looked at Su Qi with a hopeless expression. Is he planning to live here?

No need to go home to accompany Su Yifeng, the third brother must be a little overjoyed!

She covered the quilt and sighed, “I'm going to rest, third brother, go out and play...”

Su Qi: "...” No

conscience!

He angrily opened the door and ran out. There were so many people who wanted him to accompany him to the bed. This Su Xiaosi was really ignorant!

Chapter seven hundred and fiftieth I want her to die

Chapter 750: I want her to die

. The internal structure of the hospital has been carefully constructed by famous foreign designers. The space is clean, atmospheric, and extremely comfortable.

Said to be a hospital, it is more like a casual semi-open area, except that the access control block is set at the only entrance.

The environment inside is quiet and elegant, with some modern Chinese style, which makes people feel calm.

Su Qi walked all the way and received the envious and amazing eyes of many doctors and nurses, but when the corridor was turned, he suddenly saw a man sitting on a bamboo chair not far away.

He narrowed his eyes, huh, Fu Yechuan?

Gradually approached, watching him sitting there alone, with a lonely back, I'm afraid it must be uncomfortable now.

After all, the person standing beside Su Nan became Shang Qian.

Thinking of Su Yifeng's attitude towards Shang Qian, perhaps, the two of them are really having fun.

Fu Yechuan raised his eyes and saw Su Qi standing in front of him, smiling.

"What a coincidence, Mr. Fu!"

Su Qi looked at him with surprise.

His eyes were full of red blood, as if he hadn't closed his eyes for a few days, but also seemed to be anxious and uncomfortable. In short, he looked very bad.

He had never seen Fu Yechuan like this.

At the moment, the feeling of wanting to tease him has also diminished a lot.

Fu Yechuan lowered his eyes and his voice was hoarse, "Is she feeling better?"

Sure enough, it was for Su Nan.

Su Qi sighed and sat beside him.

"It's much better. Apart from not being able to leave, there are no major issues. President Fu is worried."

Fu Yechuan's eyes moved slightly, and he lowered his head in silence, not knowing what he was looking at.

Su Qi blinked and raised his eyebrows, "Mr. Fu, why don't you go in and have a look?"

This is not his style of Fu Yechuan!

Fu Yechuan froze for a moment. Of course he wanted to see her. He wanted to fly over to see her for the first time.

But approaching the door, he backed away.

I don't know why, but I felt a little uneasy in my heart.

Especially knowing that Shang Qian and she are of the same blood type, this kind of unease seems to be rooted in his heart, sour and painful.

He always had a feeling of being faceless to her.

After a few moments of silence, Fu Yechuan opened his mouth slowly, with a gloomy expression between his brows.

"No, next time..."

With that, he stood up and wanted to leave.

Sitting here for an hour, he was so close to her, but he felt very far away, and he was getting further and further away.

Su Qi's eyes froze, and he suddenly sneered.

"Fu never dared to see her, right? You used my sister's blood to save your lover in those three years. Now when she lost too much blood, it was another person's blood that saved her, but this person I still like his Shang Qian..."

Fu Yechuan's back froze fiercely, and his eyes instantly turned cold.

His eyes were dark and sharp, he turned around, his face was gloomy, and the air pressure around him was extremely low:

"Su Qi..."

The person in front of him was Su Nan's third brother, so when he said this, he was safe.

Su Qi sneered, this is a fact, what is there to argue about?

Not a single lie, he didn't even have room to refute!

"Do you know how precious her blood is? Do you know that the corners of our furniture are soft bags? Did you know that she has never cut fruit by herself since she was a child, and even a fruit knife will not appear in front of her?"

Su Qi sat there, raising his chin slightly, with a faint smile on his lips.

"You don't know anything. When she insisted on marrying you, she gave her life to you, but you always wanted her to die..."

"I didn't... ."

His tone was deep, his voice was hoarse and dry, like the wind and sand in the desert, and the image in his heart was a thin thread wrapped around his heart, gradually tightening, suffocating him.
