

Divorcement 431

Chapter 431

As if her throat was damaged, Theresa found it challenging to even speak normally. When Charlie heard her voice, his cold eyes finally had some emotions in them. He turned around and quickly walked towards Theresa. Jonathan immediately stood up and gave way to Charlie.

Charlie squatted down and looked at Theresa. Seeing Theresa had come to her senses, he asked, "You okay?"

The care and concern in his eyes were almost pouring out. Theresa looked at this man and suddenly felt like crying. She decided to follow her heart, leaned over and into Charlie's arms. Suddenly, Charlie felt like his heart was fulfilled somehow. He held her in his arms, carried her up, and walked out the door.

It was not long ago that Charlie could walk again, so walking was already a difficult enough task. for him. He should be resting and recovering right now, but what happened today was too important for him to care about that.

Jonathan looked at Jimmy, who was squatting on the floor, bleeding. Rose and Rosales were checking his injuries.

Calsis, what at the door, looked at Jimmy who was guarded by two women,

Theresa

Seeing Charlie and Theresa, Johnson asked, of them since Theresa was in a bad state, so he told them to go home for now who was carrying her, and little fuzzy earlier, only now did she realize the situation she was in. She wanted to speak to her father, but she his lips and continued walking without saying anything. Theresa his legs won't last her and continued carrying her out the gate. Jonathan already called the driver, who was waiting at the gate with the car. Charlie her injured son. She wanted to send him to the

Car

Chapter 432

Charlie sincerely wanted Jimmy to die. 'Why didn't I kill Jimmy just now?' He thought.

Even Theresa thought the state Charlie was in now was scary, but she was not scared of him, she was worried instead. 'Was he really going to kill Jimmy because of me?' She wondered. If she had not stopped him earlier in the washroom, she had no doubts he would do exactly that. Theresa placed her hand on Charlie's face, caressed it and said, "I thought I'll never see you again." Although the whole thing only lasted a few minutes, she thought about a lot of things. Like seeing her entire life flashing in front of her, a lot of images appeared in her mind. At that instant, the person she thought about most was surprising this man, Charlie Calsis, the man who was giving her all his care and concern right now.

Charlie said with a deep voice, "If that's the case, I would kill Jimmy and then come to be with you."

Theresa chuckled.

The finger marks from Jimmy grabbing her neck were still visible, and Theresa's throat was hurting when she spoke too, but when she looked at this man she still wanted to laugh for some reason.

his life in a wheelchair, now he just had to do some rehabilitation. exercises and he would finally be able to lead a normal life. One could say Charlie's life had her and said, "What are is she laughing? Does she not know how think you'd be so worried glared at her

Her

to better that way.

looked at her, moved coat when she got in the car and was covered in a blanket.

and cold, Theresa replied. Charlie did not reply face, feel his heartbeat, and hear his

She felt safe.

at the Calsis'. Charlie opened out.

her but held his

Chapter 433

‘What is going on?’ Mrs. Calsis stared blankly at the two of them and thought.

Charlie held Theresa’s hands and brought her upstairs. He then told her to lie down in bed, gave her a pillow, and said, “Rest.” He sat beside the bed and looked at her as if she would disappear the moment he looked away.

Theresa did not want him to be so worried and said, “Charlie, I’m fine.” She already felt much better on the way here.

Charlie looked at her with the word worry written all over his face.

“Mom.” It was Leonard and Ben Cameron who had just walked in. Ben walked to the bedside and said, “I prepared a present for you.” It was his drawing of his father, mother, himself, and Leonard.

was a drawing of and Ben. Back in the washroom, she was Charlie able to stand up. Just as she was about to she saw Jonathan walk in together with Jimmy, slowed down on the way here, but his coat was open and the shirt inside covered in blood stains.

brought Jimmy in. Rose and Rosales were following and was worried he might die at asked, “What

“Jimmy laid his hands on he glared at Jimmy. For a man to lay his hands on a woman, to hear this. She looked at Jonathan and a bastard! Mr. Calsis was furious. He beat him up and told bring him here.”

Chapter 434

Jimmy really lost control in front of Theresa earlier. When he was reminded of what he went through lately, his emotions accumulated and exploded, so he wanted to teach her a lesson. Now that he got beat up by Charlie, he came to his senses and remembered to explain himself.

"You didn't?" Jonathan sneered. "Yeah you didn't hit her, you only just killed her. If we were to arrive later, would you have snapped her neck?"

Mrs. Calsis sat down on the sofa and looked at Jimmy. She never expected him to be such a bastard. It was no wonder both Charlie and Theresa had such long faces when they returned.

She asked Jonathan, "He's quite badly injured, you sure he's fine? Did Charlie say what to do with him?" Mrs. Calsis could not look at Jimmy directly. Although she knew he deserved it, she was still worried seeing how badly hurt he was.

Jonathan replied, "Mr. Calsis did not say. He was worried about Theresa, so he sent her home first and only told me to bring Jimmy here."

"Send him upstairs first then." Mrs. Calsis said. She did not want to speak for Jimmy, as she knew Charlie definitely brought Jimmy back with a plan in mind.

Rosales walked over and said, "Mrs. Calsis, Jim knows he's wrong. What happened today is all my fault, Jim just acted out. How could he want to kill someone? It's impossible. He's always been a good kid, he'd never do something like that. It's just too much happened today and he lost control. He already got beaten up bad enough, isn't that enough?"

not to mention he was always on Theresa's side, so there was seemly no chance Charlie could forgive only hoped Mrs. Calsis would say some nice close, Mrs. Calsis moved away and said, "Don't touch me. Why are you still speaking he's done? You really taught him well, congrats on in the future and things to beat her too?"

glanced at

and followed him all this time. She was worried seeing him so do. After all, what was still standing beside Jimmy even after what happened, Mrs. Calsis said, "Rose, come here." Rose glanced at

Mrs. Calsis, "I'll bring

Calsis nodded and two bodyguards a sign and the two of

She walked over and yelled, "Let go of my son!"

course, the bodyguards only listened to Jonathan and Calsis. Seeing Jimmy getting brought upstairs, Rose was worried if he was going did not hold back from hitting him. If not

Jimmy would probably not even be able to speak

Chapter 435

Although Rose was hurt by the fact that Jimmy was angry at her and did not want to speak to Jimmy, she did not want to see him end up like this. If even Leticia did not help Jimmy, god knows what Charlie would do to Jimmy. Rose really liked Jimmy and did not want him to be hurt..

Hearing Rose's words, Mrs. Calsis secretly rolled her eyes. "He's really got you in the ropes."

Rose changed the topic and said, "Grandma, Uncle Charlie stood up, right? Didn't the doctor say he won't be able to stand again? How?" Rose was very confused, she never thought Charlie would be able to stand again.

She was not the only one who felt this way, everyone present today did.

Rose's intention to change the topic was quite successful. Mrs. Calsis' attention was diverted and replied, "I have no idea too," about Charlie being able to stand again under Theresa's care. Leticia still shocking when she saw Charlie walk in with her own eyes. Her son needed a

glanced at

Coalka

wind, stood up, and walked upstairs. "I'll take a look." Now was not

she had something

Leticia upstairs when Rosales held her hand and said, "Rose." Rose panicking and knelt before her saying, "Please save to bleed out like this, I'm begging

She looked at Rosales and asked, "What happened? Has -Jim gone mad? Why did he touch Theresa?" Even Rose, who on Theresa. No matter how unhappy Jimmy was, this returning the tone, he

Uncle Charlie like this, it's like he really wanted to beat him to death." If Theresa did not stop Charlie, Rose could not imagine lose his temper

Chapter 436

She patted her two children on their heads. They listened to her and left right after. Charlie looked at the two children as they left and asked, "Why are they so obedient to you?"

"They ignored him completely but did whatever she asked them to do! What happened to 'Blood is thicker than water'?"

If not because they looked almost exactly like him, he would probably do a DNA test!

Theresa did not know what to tell him. To her, they were her kids too..

"Charlie!" Mrs. Calsis walked in.

"Mom," Charlie responded.

hand and sized

a few days

it before but I thought he was mother, hugged her, and said, "Sorry the past two years, not only hated himself for making them worry so much. Now that he could stand again, everything became again," Leticia said with tears the two of them were, her eyes became wet knew he

expression, Charlie let go of his mother and said

Theresa and said, he do something

our home ever again!"

past Charlie's eyes as he sat down on the side. His legs had yet stand

a raspy voice, Theresa said, "I'm fine, but Charlie."

Chapter 437

"We're a family, all families fight sometimes. What happened is all Jim's fault, I apologize for him. He wasn't thinking straight, if Aunt Theresa can forgive him this time, I promise something like this will never happen again." Rose said.

"Leave." Theresa did not even want to see her face. She coughed, laid down in bed and wrapped herself up in the blanket, clearly expressing she did not want Rose here.

She was not kind enough to accept Rose's apology. In fact, she hoped for Jimmy to die. After all, Jimmy wanted to kill her, how could she forgive him? Preposterous!

Rose said

"Can't you see even speaking is difficult for Aunt Theresa? She needs leave," Sitting on the badly injured now, can we at least get him a doctor? Please? What if he dies?" Rose just for Jim, but for Uncle Charlie too. Uncle Charlie out!" Charlie said, "Someone, bring her out." He was realized Theresa and Charlie were made for each went to the room Jimmy was in and saw him laying in bed, taken care of by Rosales. "Jim, are you okay? Look at you, why did you have and coughed. Rose stood on the side. Her heart was hurting too watching him like this. She clenched once her father returns. Pat Nandlall picked up the call and Rose asked, "Dad, when when I'm there," Pat Nandlall said before hanging up. Not long after, a look at Jim, he's badly hurt and almost dying, I'm

Chapter 438

Jimmy and Roderick did not see each other much, this was their first official encounter. Jimmy's red eyes stared at Roderick and complained, "Dr. Hill, did you do that on purpose?"

It hurt so much!

'Is he here to treat me or torture me?' Jimmy doubted.

Roderick did not deny it and said, "You got that right." He heard Jimmy almost killed Theresa today, it was unbelievable. As an outsider, things between Jimmy and Theresa never bothered him before. However, when about what happened today, even he eyes twitched having heard what Roderick said. Leave it to Dr. Hill to and said, "Aren't not care and said, "Problem?" He never had a good impression of the Watsons. After all, between Theresa and Jimmy, he just did not bother talking about them. Roderick took off his gloves, threw out the door. Rose to treat Jimmy, why

came to see how hurt Jimmy was so he would have going to prescribe him to see Charlie and Theresa. Seeing that he had left, Rose walked to Pat and stopped him from leaving with Roderick. "Dad, please say something to Uncle Charlie and let Jim go! Jim was Charlie. He heard Charlie beat up Jimmy. Charlie could not even stand before, yet now he could beat up someone, what a

Chapter 439

In that situation, Charlie would be a piece of garbage if he did not help his wife!

Roderick said, "You need to rest, don't be so impulsive next time! There's finally hope, don't get yourself in at wheelchair again and burden Theresa."

After scolding Charlie, Roderick looked at Theresa and asked the doctor who had just finished checking up on Theresa, "How is she?"

"She's fine, don't worry," The doctor assured.

"Are you okay?" Roderick asked Theresa. Theresa nodded and said with a hoarse voice, "I'm fine, take a look at Charlie. He kept saying he was fine when I asked him about it today, are his legs okay?"

Roderick glanced at Charlie and said to Theresa, "Should be fine, he doesn't mind it anyways, so leave him be."

Charlie was speechless.

Pat already sat down beside Charlie and was staring at him like he was an exhibition animal.

about Charlie being of the day, Leah and Johnson Cameron had returned you've been running around all how's Theresa," Johnson replied. He originally wanted to go with them, but back. He did not want to he was worrying for is there!

his fists and said, "Jimmy, that bastard!" Leah glanced at him, and seeing him be. She went upstairs and called you?" Leah what is it?" Sarah was sitting at the corner table of a restaurant and with someone. She did not give up even after what happened last time, she was looking at him from the side when she got a from her mother.

come home, I later, are you guys home?" Sarah knew hosted a birthday party for Johnson, but she did not go because she did not want to mention today was not the date Johnson

Chapter 440

"Fine, fine, I'll come home once I'm done here," Sarah said. Seeing Eugene stand up, she quickly hung up and stood up as well.

'Why did her mother suddenly call her and lie to her about something like that?' Sarah wondered.

She walked over and grabbed Eugene's hand, who was just about to leave. Eugene turned around, saw it was Sarah, and said, "What are you doing?" He had already made things very clear after he found out who Sarah was. He did not want anything to do with her. This woman left Charlie as soon as something happened to Charlie and even rubbed salt in the Calsis family's wound. He despised her.

Sarah said, "Eugene, you're not really going to ignore me like this, are you? I know I was wrong for doing that to Charlie, I was too young to know what was right. Plus, he's in love with my sister now, you saw how love-dovey they are, he doesn't need me! Don't stay mad at me, please?"

in love with her! Women chasing men always works! It was not like she was hideous her?

that cripple Charlie's fault, why did he have to cause me trouble even after he got married?' Eugene was absolutely disgusted hearing her talk. He did not hold back and shoved Sarah away onto the floor. "Stop annoying me, got it? I have nothing to do with you, and neither do I know who you are." Then, Eugene walked right everyone around saw how embarrassed she was. She was boiling. She stood up and said angrily, "Eugene Oneill you jerk! You should feel honoured I like home. She parked the car in front of her house, got out and

Sarah said,

asked, "Keep it down, good to him lately?" After Sarah's father's relationship with Charlie got better, she was no longer as hated by widened with disbelief, happen? Theresa totally