Chapter 005 Don't Fall Love with Me

Rose was chatting with Leticia. When she saw Jimmy coming in, she said gently, "You are back! Where have you been?" Jimmy sat down beside her and said softly, "Just took a walk outside." Rose smiled and continued chatting with Leticia, "How is Uncle Charlie recently? I heard that he wants to hire an acupuncturist?" Leticia replied, "His legs are hopeless. But the doctor suggested that we find him an acupuncturist. Make every possible effort!"

On mentioning Charlie's legs, Leticia sighed.

Rose held her hand and comforted, "Grandma, don't worry, Uncle Charlie will get better. I'll say hello to Uncle Charlie."

Rose was the eldest child of her generation in the family. Ever since she was born, she was spoiled by the whole Calsis family, especially Charlie, who used to dote on her. However, in the past two years, he closed himself from the outside world for his broken legs. That was why he even absent from Rose's wedding ceremony. Rose wanted Jimmy to meet Uncle Charlie.

"Okay, go." Rose stood up and took Jimmy upstairs. They went directly to Charlie's room. Theresa was preparing to have acupuncture for Charlie. She tried to calm herself down from her encounter with Jimmy. I can't... can't let that scumbag affect my work. She tried to be composed when she suddenly heard a knock on the door. Jonathan opened the door and said, "Mrs. Watson."

Rose and Jimmy appeared at the door. Rose walked in and saw Theresa standing there at first sight. She was surprised, "Ah, she is also here!"

Jonathan glanced at Theresa and asked Rose, "What, you know each other?"

Rose said, "I met her in the yard when I came over in the morning. I heard that she came to apply for the acupuncturist. You've hired her already?"
