

Divorcement 61

Chapter 061

Cristina used to do live streaming for a short period of time, she could spend all day having a fight with people on the Internet and she always won. Later she quit the live streaming circle because Leonard and Ben were much more popular than her. So as for quarrels, Luna was just a kid.

Luna was furious, "Theresa, this is how you teach your children? It's no wonder your children are such uneducated with a mother like you."

"What's wrong with my son?" Theresa retorted.

Luna said, "Your son can lie at such a young age! You want to slander Jake? I'm not gonna let that happen. I tell you what, everyone saw my son being beaten anyway, so think about the consequences! If you don't explain it, you won't be able to get away with it."

She was so angry, "This family is disgusting! And this Cristina, I don't know where she came from, but obviously, she's not a good person! Hopefully, she will get her mouth shut.'

The shopping assistant stood aside and said, "How about checking the surveillance video?" They could see who fired the first shot from the video, so they would know whether Ben is lying.

Theresa said, "Then let's do it!"

She trusted Ben and believes that Ben would not lie. She had confidence in her son.

Cristina said, "Yeah, let's check the video."

Luna looked at the confident two, and then looked at her own son, remembering that Ben said Jack wanted to be the boss, she probably knew how things were. Jack usually told her that he was the boss at school, and the kids in the neighborhood had to call him boss or big brother. If they really had checked the video, maybe they would have found out that Jack hit Leonard first.

She glanced at Jack and said, “Go over and say hello”

Perhaps children were more likable and it’s easier for them to please people than adults. She also did not want her son to fall behind.

But Jack said, “No!”

“Why?”

“I don’t know her.” Although Jack always said he was the boss among the children, but in front of his elder relatives, Jack was introverted, he was a little shy and not too good at speaking in front of adults. This is also because “I don’t want to” Jack was urged by Luna, so he was simply lying on the ground.

Luna didn’t know what to do.

Leticia only paid attention to Leonard and Ben, and did not care about these irrelevant people. After greeting Leonard and

Ben, her gaze fell on Theresa, "Why are you here too?"

Theresa did not realize that she had met Leticia by chance together with Cristina until she was asked by Leticia. She afternoon, since you are here, maybe you should go over and take a look."

Theresa nodded, there was nothing to do anyway, so she went to see her Grandpa Old Mr. Calsis.

When Old Mr Calsis saw her, he smiled and said, "Sarah."

He had the chess in front of him and was playing it himself, Theresa sat down and said, "Grandpa, I have told you I am Theresa"

"Right, Theresa." Grandpa said, "Where have you been? I didn't see you at lunch today."

"Got some work to do." Theresa picked up a chess piece, put it on the board, and accompanied Grandpa to play chess. Grandpa remembered her name at first, but after a while, he only remembered Sarah. Halfway through the game, Charlie and Jonathan came. Charlie parked his wheelchair beside her, looking at the way she was playing. Charlie's appearance reminded Theresa of the conversation she had with his mother Leticia in the car when she returned.

Theresa coughed, "Did I say that? I don't remember..."

Charlie's lifted his eyes from the book and landed on Theresa's face, looking at her, who was playing dumb, and said, "I

Charlie said, "I'm sleepy, go to bed with me."

"Uh....." Theresa raised her eyebrows.

"No, no need, I'm afraid I'll squeeze you," Theresa said awkwardly. Whoops, she now deeply understood what it was like to tell one lie and have to make up for it with more lies. For the sake of the two babies, she was really willing to do anything!

Charlie saw her moving farther and farther away, then simply reached out to pull her back and held her in his arms, making her not able to move anymore.

Theresa coughed, looked at the man who had closed his eyes, and said, "Charlie, what are you..."

"If you roll farther, you'll fall off the bed," Charlie said, "Just go to sleep."

It must be that she was so excellent that this man would be so humble. In that case, she had to let him take the initiative. Theresa looked at this man beside her, and for a moment, she didn't know what to say. She could only be held in his arms, watching him sleep. When she had been with Charlie before, she had always kept a distance. Although the two Theresa raised an eyebrow and said calmly, “My nephew-in-law is so polite today? This is not like you.”

Before she had asked him to call her Aunt Theresa to make fun of him. Since today he asked for it, she would satisfy his peculiar taste.

Jimmy’s face darkened. He looked at her and said, “You are satisfied now.”

Rose and Jimmy sat together Jimmy saw Theresa following Charlie and pulled the corner of his mouth, waiting to see Theresa's show. He had never seen someone so unruly and arrogant as Theresa. Charlie had married her just because Old

Mr Calsis was senile and mistook her for Sarah, but she even had offended Rose and thought of herself as Charlie's baby! What a laugh! She was just a divorced woman with no attraction. What kind of women hadn't Charlie met? Would he keep indulging her?

Theresa didn't pay attention to Jimmy, followed Charlie, and sat down next to him.

Old Mr. Calsis was also there. Everyone looked at Theresa with a complicated look except him who still treated Theresa the same as before. Seeing Theresa having sat down, he quickly handed over the bowl next to his own, "Sarah, this is for Her brain was baffled for a moment, while the man beside her, who didn't seem to feel anything wrong, was just waiting patiently Theresa picked up the bowl, used a spoon to scoop a small mouthful of soup, and carefully fed it to his lips. Charlie lowered his head to drink the soup she fed him. As he drank the soup, he was staring at her at a very short distance with a hot gaze, making Theresa's face burn.

The Calsis family had always been very strict and serious, especially, in the presence of the elders, the two showed affection like this, looking really a little embarrassing. However, Charlie didn't seem aware of it, patiently enjoying Theresa's care.

Leticia sitting aside put her chopsticks on the table, opened her mouth, and said to Charlie, "Charlie, those two children, what's your plan?" He wouldn't really listen to Theresa and indulge her, would he!

Charlie knew that his mother was now trying to force him to take those two children back. He said, "My baby doesn't like those two children, so I won't take them back."

Theresa, who was sitting right next to him, feeding him soup with the spoon, choked when she heard his words. "What the hell, why do I think he just played a trick on me?' She looked at Charlie next to her and noticed that he had said this kind of stuff without his face flushing and his heartbeat speeding up! This man... Obviously, it was him who did not want to take the children back, but he had said those. The family would hate her more, wouldn't they?
