

Divorcement 661

Chapter 661

"Charlie's brother?" Theresa wondered.

Rawlins nodded. "Yes."

"I can see that he's very close to Mr. White."

Rawlins smiled. "Yes. He is nicer than Mr. Calsis and helps Mr. White a lot."

So, Dick only had a grudge against Charlie, but not against Chandler.

Theresa found it interesting.

Theresa gave Dick the acupuncture and then went downstairs. With Rawlins' introduction, she met the lawyers from the White's Group and consulted them about the kids.

Hearing what Theresa said, the lawyers discussed it and gave Theresa the answer. "We think the chances of winning the lawsuit are very good. The other party does not have any right to take the children away from you."

After all, the kids had been raised by Theresa and they had always been with her.

Charlie had no right to take them away.

Rawlins said, "Mr. White couldn't sleep well before, but since Dr. Cameron started to help him, he's been sleeping much better. Is there anything wrong?"

"No, I'm just asking." He had talked to Charlie yesterday and knew that Charlie seemed to be having a bad relationship with Dick lately because of this woman.

Theresa had just arrived home when the two kids came running. "Mom, what's this?"

Theresa looked at the big box and said, "It's a gift from Uncle Dick."

"It's Lego!" Ben said.

Leonard said, "I told you Uncle Dick is a good guy."

Theresa was surprised to hear Leonard's words.

This boy was so wary, but just because Dick helped them once, he was saying that Dick was a good guy? Just then, a familiar voice came from the side. "So, Uncle Roderick is not a good guy?"

Theresa looked up and saw Roderick standing right at the entrance.

She hadn't expected him to be here. "What are you doing here, Dr. Hill?"

"I came here with Eugene. He has something to talk to you about and I stopped by to visit the two kids." said, "No wonder they look

"I can trust none other than you," Eugene said "I don't know Keith well and my mother is in a special condition." Hearing this. Theresa glanced at Eugene and noticed that he was looking at her sincerely.

She was angry at the thought of how he had hurt Cristina.

However, she found her heart softened a bit when she saw the look in his eyes at the moment.

They had a lot of talk over lunch at home today because Roderick and Eugene were here.

Cristina sat at the table. She was displeased to see Eugene. "What are you doing here? Who told you to come?" Eugene lowered his eyes, looking like he didn't really want to talk to Cristina, and explained, "I'm here to see Theresa about something."

"What do you have to do with Theresa?" Cristina got angry when she saw him like this. "Don't show up in front of me if you can. It's annoying to see you!"

She thought of how he had treated her with disdain that day and found the man really annoying.

Except for that, he had nothing to do with Dick.

Roderick said, “I’m just warning you. I’m sorry if you don’t like it.”

Theresa looked at Roderick. “Thank you, Dr. Hill. I know you are doing it for my own good, but you don’t have to worry too much about me. I am not a child.”

Hearing them talk about Dick, Leonard said, “Mom, the gift from Uncle Dick is great.”

They had taken the Lego out of the box just now when they were upstairs.

It was the first time Leonard had seen such a great gift, an out-of-print one at that. It made him very happy. Roderick glanced at Leonard. The boy didn’t like Charlie while he liked Roderick and Dick. If Charlie found out about it, he would be pissed off.

Roderick turned to Leonard and said with a sad look, “So, you think Uncle Dick is better than Uncle Roderick now? I’m so sad. What do you want for your birthday, Leonard? I’ll buy it for you.”

"Why don't you come with me then?" Theresa said. "It happens that I need an assistant."

Hearing that, Cristina said, "I'm not going. It's not like I want to see him."

"You don't want to see him?" Theresa asked.

Cristina paused.

She looked sad. "Do you think I'm really that bad? Otherwise, why did he dump me over and over again?"

She was quite upset inside.

Eugene had given her such a heavy blow that she started to have doubts about herself.

Jimmy saw this and came over as well. He stood next to Rose and glanced at the two children.

Roderick said, "I came with Theresa."

"Theresa? Where is she?" It was Jimmy who asked.

Roderick glanced at Jimmy with a strange expression.

Why was Jimmy so concerned about Theresa?

Who did he think he was?

Roderick said with a polite smile on his face and a cold look in his eyes, "Mr. Watson, your wife is right next to you. Do you think it's a good idea to care so much about another woman?"

Upon hearing Roderick's words, Jimmy froze and shut up immediately.

He was just surprised that Roderick could take out these two children.

Why did Jake have to do that? Ben didn't know what to say.
Leonard glanced at Ben, took what Ben had just looked at back from Jake, and gave it to Ben. "Take it."
Ben looked at Leonard. "Mom told us not to snatch others' things."
"It's not his."
Leonard glared at Jake and clenched his little fists. Seeing that, Jake thought of how Leonard had beaten

Jake was reluctant, but he was tempted by the thought that he could get all those gifts if he did.
Jake said, "Uncles."
Jimmy suddenly came over and picked up the boy, saying, "You don't have to do that. I'll buy you those

With that, Jimmy glanced at Rose and said angrily, "Whom are you trying to humiliate by talking like

Rose actually told Jake to call those kids uncles when Jimmy was already pissed off at Roderick.
How could Jimmy stand it?
Rose was stunned. She hadn't expected that Jimmy would suddenly get so mad.

Theresa was afraid that he would use violence and said, "What? You want to beat us up? I dare you!"

Jimmy looked at Theresa and said, "Why wouldn't I dare? Do you think you are still Mrs. Calsis now and Charlie will come to help you?"

Theresa said, "I don't know if Charlie will help me, but I know I could get you out of Dick's company."

Jimmy was angrier when Theresa mentioned Dick. He had been doing well at the White's Group, but now he had to settle for a small place like the Cameron's Group because of Theresa.

It was not even as big as Gentry's company!

Jimmy said, "If you hate me so much, why do you let me go to the company of your family? Do you still have feelings for me, Theresa?"

"I didn't know you are not only ugly but also good at daydreaming."

"I'm ugly?" Jimmy said. "Even if I am ugly, you fell in deep love with me, didn't you? The wedding photos that were taken when we got married are still kept at my place. Do you want to have a look at them?"

Theresa looked at Jimmy. She knew that he had been afraid to get involved with her before. He didn't want Rose to know that he had been married to her.

Rose froze for a moment and instantly told herself to calm down. She said, "Well, I know you're angry. You don't like what Roderick said, right? It's okay if you don't want Jake to call them uncles! I shouldn't have done that today."

Jimmy didn't say anything.

Rose said, "However, I was heartbroken when you wanted to divorce me because of such trivial matters. How could you say something like that so easily if you really love me? Do you know how sad I am?"

Back then, all her family members told her to leave him.

For him, she gave up her nice and comfortable life and came to the Watson family.

In the Watson family, her life was naturally not as good as it used to be. Sometimes, she had to do housework at home.

She believed that it was the right thing to do as long as the two of them loved each other.

However, she hadn't expected Jimmy to say something like that!

Jimmy said, "How sad can you be? They all think I don't deserve you. and I'm trying to live off you in the marriage. Tell me honestly, do you think I've taken advantage of you by marrying you? No. In fact, I even lost my job for which I had worked hard for years because I got married.
