Chapter 671

Hearing his voice, Rose hurriedly wiped away her tears.

Roderick squatted down. "You had a fight with Jimmy?"

"No." Rose denied.

After leaving her family for Jimmy and marrying into his family, she didn't want anyone to know about it when she was aggrieved in the Watson family.

After all, it was her choice in the first place. They would only laugh at her if she had a bad time now! Roderick said, "I'm going to the Calsis family later. Do you want to come with me?"

Rose said, "No."

Roderick looked at her and said, "Actually, you should talk to your family if you have been aggrieved at Jimmy's place. You don't have to hide it. Jimmy is not a good man and they want you to find out about him. I believe you know that everyone in your family loves you very much. They'll help you if you ask them."

Rose said, "No, they'll just laugh at me."

"I'll go check on him."

After saying that, Roderick went upstairs.

Leticia looked at Rose, "Why did you suddenly come over?"

Rose didn't say anything about Jimmy but just said, "I saw Theresa at the mall today, who was with Cristina and the two kids. Grandma, why haven't you brought the kids back yet?"

Leticia said, "The two kids were fine at Theresa's and they liked living there, so, we didn't bring them back. What's wrong?"

Rose said, "But Theresa has divorced my Uncle Charlie, and it's not good to still let the kids live with her, right?"

Looking at Rose, Leticia said, "Don't worry about that, as we know what to do. Your Uncle Chandler is back and you can talk to him for a while!"

Looking around the house, Rose said sadly, "Forget it. I've been an outcast since the day Theresa married in."

She should not have returned to this place after she left it in the first place.

She was already in a bad mood, and now she felt even worse after hearing Leticia's words.

She stood up and left the Calsis Villa directly.

She wanted to go back to Watson's Residence but didn't feel good about it, so she simply found a hotel and got room to stay.

Roderick arrived upstairs and sat down with Charlie.

He glanced at Charlie, "I went to see Leonard and Ben today."

"How are they?"

"Charlie, you're a father, and you can't just think about your own feelings when you do something." When he thought that Leonard and Ben were unhappy when Charlie was mentioned, Roderick couldn't help but come over to communicate with Charlie about the issue today.

Ben was so young that Charlie didn't know if he could make video calls on WhatsApp.
Ben replied, [Yes, I can.]

Ben said, "Oh."

He didn't want to tell his mom either, because his mom was still angry with his dad right now.

If she knew, she should be upset!

"Dad, do you love Mom?" Ben said, "Do you hate her a lot?"

"..." Thinking about Theresa, Charlie had very mixed feelings about her.

He loved her and was only attracted to her.

But what she did recently really touched his bottom line.

Ben turned to Charlie and said, "Actually, my mom misses you."

"Yeah?" Hearing this, Charlie raised an eyebrow, "She told you that?"

There was some expectation in Charlie's tone when he asked this.

On New Year's Eve, they got up early in the morning.

Even Johnson, who was usually in poor health, got up and wanted to help Theresa with something.

The family went about preparing the New Year's Eve dinner.

Leonard and Ben were also busy with their own things.

In the afternoon, Theresa was busy in the kitchen when someone suddenly came. Ben and Leonard went to answer the door, and Ben walked ahead, very happy because he thought it was Charlie, but it turned out that it was Dick who came.

Leonard saw Dick and said, "Uncle Dick."

Dick looked at Leonard and then his gaze fell on Ben, who was on the sidelines.

Leonard said, "This is Ben, my younger brother."

"You look the same." Before when Dick saw Leonard, he was shocked already, and now when he saw these two identical kids, he could hardly describe how he felt inside, but just looked at them with shock.

"We are twins, so we look the same." Seeing him looking at them, Leonard explained.

"Did you get the gift?" Dick asked.

Mr. Garson said, "Mr. White said he wanted to come over to see the kids. And... it's New Year's Day. Can you let him spend New Year's Eve with you?"

"Huh?" Theresa asked in disbelief, "Why? Aren't New Year's Eve supposed to be spent with the family?"
"Mr. White's family are not here, and he has spent New Year's Eve by himself all these years. I see that your place is quite lively. If possible, I hope you can let him join you."

Speaking of that, Mr. Garson glanced at Dick from a distance.

He looked cold.

Mr. Garson looked to Theresa with pleading, "Is it okay? Dr. Cameron, we promise not to cause any trouble."

Theresa said, "I... actually don't want him to come here."

“Why?”

“I’m afraid he’ll hurt my children.” Theresa looked to Mr. Garson and said, “He and Charlie have a bad relationship, so it’s not good for me to get so close to him.”

Dick had a bad temper, and she still remembered the situation in his house when she first met him.

Plus, Dick was unkind to Charlie.

She was going to pick Johnson up, but now, she had to stay here because she didn’t dare to say anything!

Theresa said, "Of course, I know you won't get a divorce because you still can't part with my family's property."

Leah rolled her eyes at Theresa, "Theresa, you don't have to be so sarcastic, and I've been with your father for years. Whether you admit it or not, I'm his wife."

Theresa said, "Yes."

Theresa was not stupid and she knew this.

On this particular day, she didn't bother to say much.

Leah didn't dare to upset her either, especially when Dick was still here.

After being busy in the kitchen for a while, when Leah saw Dick still sitting on the couch, she asked Theresa in a whisper, "Isn't today New Year's Eve? What's Dick doing here? When is he leaving?"

Looking at her so scared of Dick, Theresa said, "He's not leaving, and he's eating here today."

After hearing that, Leah was embarrassed.

From Leah's words, Theresa could probably imagine what kind of image she was in Leah's heart.

Leah said, "You didn't? The children were so pathetic that they couldn't be with their own mother for New Year's Eve! Although those two children were born when you cheated on Jimmy, they are innocent and you can't be so heartless!"

"..." Hearing Leah's words, Theresa looked at her with cold eyes, "Whom are you saying cheated?" Leah knew exactly what was going on in this case, but she still said Theresa like that on purpose. Some people in this world were just like that, only willing to believe the bad. Even if you explained to them, they were not willing to believe what you say.

Leah was stunned by the look in Theresa's eyes and seeing Dick and Johnson both looking at her, she hurriedly apologized, "I'm sorry!"

Sitting aside, Sarah looked at Theresa's reaction and said, "My mom is just worried about the kids. If you didn't abandon them, could it be that you take them to Eugene's?"

'After all, Eugene was the father of the children.'

It could make sense for her to take the kids to Eugene and keep Charlie's kids.

Hearing Eugene's name, Cristina, who was drinking Coke, almost spit it out.

But after thinking about it carefully, she thought it was quite unreasonable to hate him.

Because Dick had not done anything bad to her since they met, and he had even been helping her.

Not only did he help her keep Cameron's Group, but he also helped her when Charlie came to take the kids away.

After all, she was just an ordinary person.

Theresa said, "I'm sorry, Mr. White."

Hearing her apologize, Dick let out a laugh, "What are you apologizing for?"

Theresa said, "For being a regular person myself."

Dick said, "Go ahead."

"Since we met, you haven't done anything to hurt me, but I still think you're not a good person because of those outside comments. In fact, I have also been deeply hurt by gossip, but I am doing this to you now."
