That was interesting! Cristina looked at Charlie and said, "Mi Calsis, I have a question for you." Charlie said in a bad tone. "Just say it." Cristina said, "Do you love your wife?" The reason why she asked this was toscethe personality of Charlie. When he took the children back to Calsis's Residence, would the things that Theresa was worried about happening? Theresa did not want to take the children back to Calsis's Residence, because she had worries in her heart. So she should ask this question for Theresa, Charlie looked at Cristina. Ile thought Cristina wanted to marry him, so she asked this question! But this was simply impossible! Not to mention that he married Theresa, Charlie was not a person who liked to be threatened by others He said, "Ms Lagarde, instead of marrying me, you should explain why you have my children. If you did not explain it clearly, you could not marry me, and I will sue you for stealing my child" Cristina felt terrible when she heard this. Then she said, "Who are you? Do I want to give birth to your child? You think too much. How dare you say that you will sue me?" Fuck! This man was so shameless! Didn't pretend to be a child because it suited you! Charlie said, "If you don't explain clearly, I'll let the lawyer talk to you." He thought about it last night. If the child was his, he should take them back to Calsis's Residence, and Theresa would support them. He would never marry this woman But how did this woman have his child? He should know this well. Otherwise, if other women also did a thing like this woman, what should he do Crist said, "I've never seen such a shameless person as you!" It seemed that he would sue Theresa when he knew Theresa was the mother of the child in the future. He was so stmeless! No wonder Thera resisted letting him know the existence of the children. Theresa kanew him well. Jonathan said, "Ms. Laparde, you should be polite." "Didle stow us polifeness to me? Do you think it's easy to give birth to two children? Do you know how much I suffered when I gave birth tothese twochildren/" Stor

Charlie and Jonathan came out of Cristina's house. Jonathan said to Charlie, "By the way, Mr. Calsis, where is Mrs. Calsis?" Charlie answered in a loud tone, "I said something to her, and she was angry. Thus she ran away angrily. I just said she should not involve in this matter." He would deal with the matter related to Cristina.

Theresa came here to Cristina alone, and it was not good for her. Hearing this, Jonathan said, "It seemed that Mrs. Calsis did not want you to take two children to Calsis's Residence! Although she loved

There was in a bad mood. Seeing that Charlie talked in such a bad tone, she said directly, "I am such an irresponsible person and what's the matter?" Charlie retorted when he heard this. "In this case, we can just let Cameron's Residence go bankrupt! And I am unhappy with the word from your Dad yesterday"

"You... Theresa became anxious when she heard that he was going to let Cameron's Residence go bankrupt." She looked at him and said, "Charlie, what do you want to do? "I just want you to give me acupuncture, and is that OK?"

Charlie looked at her and softened his tone. "Be obedient, don't make trouble. Your temper is getting bigger and bigger!" Jonathan stood beside them and looked at Mr. Calsis. It was your fault, and you spoiled her so much! Otherwise, how could she say this in front of you? Theresa glanced at the two men. She knew that she could not ignore them directly. She was about to leave. To ensure that she could leave safely, she could not raise his attention. She said to Charlie, "I'll get my things upstairs. Wait for me a minute."

him to stay in her house, because no one would go to her house except Cristina. There were so many things of children at home, and she could not let Charlie see this. She said, "My house is a mess, and I don't want you to see it." "I don't care." Charlie insisted on going upstairs with Theresa. Theresa glanced at him and had no choice but to take Charlie upstairs. When she got upstairs, she took out the key and opened the door, Charlie knew that she didn't want to let him

When it was over, Theresa said, "All right." She began to pack her things. Seeing that Charlie and Jonathan still stood there, she said again, "It's over. Chapter 095 "... Theresa was much angrier when she heard Jonathan's words. Charlie said, "Of course, I know my identity Jonathan, you don't have to remind me. However, here is my house, and I naturally have the right to let irrelevant people leave." Hearing Theresa's words, Charlie said to Jonathan, "Jonathan, you go out first." Hearing this, Jonathan was worried. But Charlie asked him to go out, so he took the initiative to walk out of the door. When he went out, he closed the door, leaving Theresa and Charlie alone in the room. It was quiet in the room. Theresa turned her back on him. "You should go, too. You are not welcome in my house." Because Theresa was in a bad mood, Theresa was not in a good attitude. But Charlie said behind her back, "You can cook now, and I'm hungry." Theresa looked at Charlie. "I asked you to go out. Can't you understand me?" "You said that you would let the irrelevant people leave. Jonathan had left, and I could stay here now." Charlie said. Theresa. "... I was so reasonable that she couldn't refute it! Theresa said to Charlie, "Acupuncture is over. What else do you want to do?" "I want to have lunch with you." Charlie was not stupid. Now, Theresa was angry, and she asked him to leave. But if he really left, she would be angrier. He needed to stay here to coax her! Theresa said, "But I don't want to have lunch with you." "Don't worry." Charlie said, "Even if I take the children back, you are still my baby. How old are you? Don't be angry, and you look

It was hard to imagine that Mr. Calsis, who had never waited for others, would wait for her for a long time in the lobby downstairs. Charlie said, "Someone signed an agreement with me, but she was lazy. How could there be such a good thing? Hurry up, and cook for me! I am your sugar daddy. Didn't you want 200,000 dollars this month?" Theresa had no

In her daily life, she needed to take care of her two children. Since she gave birth to her sons, she taught them to do everything, including: teaching them to hold chopsticks. Now she looked at Charlie's bowl. Theresa told some to Charlie her, "Cancel the agreement? Theresa said, "Your family member doesn't like me anyway, and I am not good enough for you. Let's cancel the agreement!" Charlie thought that she was angry because of the two kids. He was a divorced woman, we signed an agreement when we got married. But now, I can't obey the agreement. I am afraid if I stay with you, I will be more greedy. So can we cancel the agreement?" Seeing that Theresa said this seriously, Charlie said, "No way." "..." Theresa said, "Why? Aren't you afraid I will not let you go in the future? I am a woman who loves money. If I continue to stay with you, you will suffer great losses, am I right?" Charlie listened to her and said, "You have already signed the agreement. What am I afraid of? I have the best team of lawyers. You can rest assured that if you don't want to leave in the future, I will force you to leave." Theresa twitched the corner of her mouth when she heard this. She thought Charlie was killing her with his words! Yes! If she tackled this problem head-on with Charlie, she was kicking against the pricks! Theresa sneered coldly. "Then I will thank you." Theresa lowered her head and drank two mouthfuls of soup. She tried her best to suppress her anger. Seeing that Theresa was angry. Charlie smiled, raised his hand, and put his palm gently on her head. He thought he was crazy now! Although he said this, he even wanted to

"..." Cristina was speechless when she heard Rose's words. It seemed that she was abusing the children according to what Rose said. Mrs. Calsis said gently. "Let us help you look after the children. You can come and pick them up when you are free" Seeing that they insisted on taking the children to dinner, Cristina couldn't leave the children alone with them.

Cristina sat in the car and sent Theresa a message "Theresa, I'm sorry, Mrs. Calsis insisted on inviting us to dinner." Theresa was still waiting in kindergarten and had seen them get into the car. She had thought about moving home after taking the two babies back. As a result, Mrs. Calsis and Rose directly disrupted her plan! Cristina was afraid that Theresa would worry, so she comforted her and said, "I will deal with it. Why don't you go back first? I will bring Leonard and Ben back" babies. "Leonard, Ben, what would you like to eat for the evening? Would you like grandma to invite you to have dinner?" Leonard sat without saying anything. He wanted to eat the food cooked by his Mom. But... Cristina told him yesterday that he should not mention his mother in front of others and should take Cristina as their mother. So he didn't want to say anything, But Ben was all right. In his opinion, his mother had something to do, and he couldn't cause trouble for his mother. This grandma was willing to invite them to dinner, which was also very good. He said, "Yes, but it should not be too expensive." When Mrs. Calsis heard Ben's words, she smiled and felt a little sad. She decided that she must bring the two babies back to the Calsis Residence. When they got to the restaurant, they asked for a private room. Cristina sat down with the children and sent the address to Theresa. Rose was in charge looked at Mrs. Calsis and asked directly, "How did you know that Leonard and Ben are in this kindergarten?" "Last time I saw them in the hospital, they had the name of the kindergarten written on their hats." Mrs. Calsis said. Then she checked and found out. Hearing this, Cristina wiped her sweat in her heart. She had to say that Mrs. Calsis really observed carefully. Mrs Calsis looked at her and said, "Has Charlie come to see you?" Hearing Charlie, Cristina wasn't the children's mother, so she wasn't worried. But if Charlie did the same to Theresa in the Now, Cristina found that she couldn't marry Charlie, so she deliberately made trouble. So Rose said to Cristina, "Ms. Lagarde, my grandma doesn't mean that she just cares about the children. As for the matter of your marriage with my Uncle Charlie, we need time to deal with it." 111 "...Cristina looked at Rose when she heard what Rose said and asked, "What do you mean? Will Charlie marry me?" At first, she didn't know that Charlie was married to Theresa, so dinner with Rose yesterday, she felt that Rose was very gentle, highly cultured, and steeped in propriety, so

Chapter 100 Rose didn't expect Cristina to get angry suddenly. She looked at Cristina with some doubts. They chatted happily What's wrong with her? Rose asked, "Does something seem wrong?" She looked blankly at Cristina Cristina wanted to scold Rose now, she should pretend that she was unfamiliar with Theresa. Cristina held her fists tightly and suppressed the anger in her heart. Then she said to Rose, "I just think Theresa had married the Calsis's Residence, but you still treat her like this. Are marriage and divorce such a casual thing for your family? Isn't your family responsible for her? In that case, if I let you take my children back to Calsis's Residence, how do I know what you will do to my children? Rose looked at Cristina, and she appreciated Cristina. "Ms. Lagarde, although what you said was not very friendly, it was reasonable. When other people heard that I was speaking ill of Theresa, they would be very happy. Unexpectedly, you will be angry about this." "What? Don't you like to hear this?" Cristina was not afraid of Rose. Rose said, "Of course not. On the contrary, I like you better. For this reason, you are a thousand times better than Theresa." She also appreciated Cristina more. 11 Cristina was her Aunt Theresa, she would get along well with her. "..." Cristina scolded Rose, but Rose did not get angry, and she even said she liked her more. Cristina thought Rose was seriously ill! She looked at Rose, who was still scolding Theresa, and said, "Are you still saying this?" She had a good relationship with Theresa, and she could not bear it when others said something bad about Theresa. Rose apologized quickly. "I'm talking nonsense. I won't say that." Mrs. Calsis looked at Cristina and said, "Cristina, I like you and hope you can marry Charlie. I will talk about this with Charlie. But I need time to solve this problem. You are very busy now, and we can take care of your sons first." "No" Cristina said, "They are used to staying with me, and they won't want to leave. If I let you take them away, they will be unhappy, right? Ben? Do you want to leave your mother?" She looked at Ben She was afraid that Ben wouldn't understand, so she even added the key points. Sure enough, Ben heard it and shook his head violently. "No, I won't leave
