

you are mine

Alex (Monster's p.o.v)

This morning, I received a strange call. Vanessa's dad asked if I could come into his office with my lawyer. He would like to discuss some business ideas he has for the town. I was not expecting that call or even a call from him, especially that early, but any business is good business, so now Law and I are on our way to his new building. We park and I get off and see Vanessa's ugly ass van. I laugh to myself. She loves that van, but more importantly, she is here. Unless her dad is driving that thing. We get to the receptionist and ask for him. This woman has no shame. Her flirting is at 100 percent. She leads us to the office and before she opens the door, she fake drops a pen in front of us and bends down to pick it up. I roll my eyes. "Need help with that?" Law asks her and she gets up and giggles. "No, now follow me in." she says, giving him fuck me eyes. He looks at me and shrugs. We walk inside and take a seat while Vanessa's father is on the phone. He quickly hangs up and greets us. "So, lets get to work. I want to invest in your restaurant. I want to open another one. I also want to open up a mall, a hotel and fund some schools and I need you to get me in contact with distributors. I want to work with you so I need you to sign a contract, so that's why I asked you to bring your lawyer." he tells me. I am surprised. I didn't think that was what he wanted to talk to me about. More business here means more jobs for people. This is great. Sounds good to me. "Yes, this can be done." I say. The door suddenly opens and Vanessa walks in looking like a goddess. She is wearing a black pencil skirt and white blouse, with black high heels. My dick instantly reacts to her. I have to remind him where we are at.

I walk into dad's office and I am shocked to see the man I see in my dreams every night. What is Alex doing here? "Oh, if you are busy, I can come back." I say, and dad shakes his head. "No, come here. Now that you both are here, I can inform you that you will both be working together. Those things I spoke to you about, you will be working with Alex on them all." dad tells me and I frown. He didn't tell me I would be working with Alex or bikers. He mentioned the Mayor. "What about the Mayor?" I ask. "That corrupt man." The Lawyer who I am just now noticing says. "Exactly, I had a meeting with him and guess who is now working closely with him?" dad asks and I shrug. "Eric the snake. I am sure he is up to something, but after meeting with him, I realized how corrupt he is and he tried getting me to invest in something. We found out that it is drugs and weapons, but it is named something else. They are trying to pass this stuff through the town. We found out he has ties to the Mexican mafia and I want no illegal business. I did my research and I found out that Alex and his biker crew are the real deal in this town. You and your men keep everything illegal out of the town," dad says, and I look at Alex and he looks so handsome. Learning that he does so much for everyone here makes me see him in a different light. He actually cares about the town he lives in. "You are the top dog here, the mayor thinks he is though. Am I right?" dad asks. Alex does not say anything. "You are right." The lawyer answers instead. Alex still does not say anything, but his gaze is on me and I am feeling things I should not be feeling right now.

"We will be living here, so I want you to be in charge of the business. With Alex and his people, you can decide what to open and invest in. I do not care sweetie. I trust your judgment, but you might have to meet with the Mayor or his people, including Eric, because I know they have to approve of everything that goes on in this town. Alex, I am sure you will handle the illegal business," dad says, and the last thing I want to do is meet with Eric and I am afraid what handle the illegal business means. I don't want Alex to be in any danger, but he just nods. "I'd rather not." I mumble to myself. Even breathing the same air as Eric seems like hard work right now. "Why did you switch lawyers? Am I not good enough? Just wondering if I did something wrong?" the lawyer asks me out of nowhere and I shake my head quickly. "You did nothing wrong." I say. "We thought it was best for my lawyers to take over, but now with him showing up with his mistress to my daughter's house and asking to move in with her, I think we need you back on her case. The more the merrier, right?" dad says. "He came to your house with his mistress?" Alex asks, standing up, looking pissed off. I don't say anything. "Why haven't you returned my calls?" he asks. Dad stands up. "Why don't we step out and let them talk." dad says, and the lawyer follows him out.

Alex walks over to me. "Answer me!" he demands. I say nothing. It is too early for all of this. This escalated quickly. This is about work, not my private life. "Why are you dodging me Vanessa? You should be talking to me. Telling me what is wrong, not avoiding and ghosting me. What kind of shit is that?" he asks me. Fine, he wants straight up answers. Well then, I decide I want straight answers as well, and I want them right away. Why prolong this? I knew we had to talk sooner or later and if dad expects me to work with him, then it's best we clear the air. "Did you have sex with Brea?" I ask him. "I did not have sex with Brea or anyone else since I met you." He tells me. "What do you mean? She said Buck saw you two." I tell him. "Yeah, he saw us, but I didn't fuck her." he tells me. "So what did you do?" I ask him, dreading the answer. What if he says something that will shatter me? "I went to sleep and when I woke up, she was naked in my bed. She climbed into my bed, hoping I would wake up and fuck her. Of course, that didn't happen. I only have eyes for you. The moment you agreed to be mine, every other woman died for me. I only see you." he says, and I feel silly now. "So, she lied to me?" I ask him. "Look baby, she came here, hoping that I would make her my old lady. Her president said that she did the same thing to him, but unlike me, he was weak. He fucked her and Brea ran to tell his old lady everything. Well, she was kicked out of her club chapter so she came here and when she found out I have you now, she lost it. I did not fuck her and I didn't even know she was still around, but apparently she has been getting drunk and fucking all of my brothers. She said she wants to be demoted from a club member to a club girl. Baby, I would never do anything to hurt you." he tells me and I know my mouth is now open in shock. "Wow." is all I can say. That is a lot of information to take in, but I am glad that he did not lie. "You believe me right?" he asks me and I nod. "I do, now I feel silly. Buck tried to get me to listen and tell me things, but when I found out that you were both in bed, naked together, I didn't want to hear anything else." I say. "I was never naked with her baby. Look, the day I asked you to be mine, and you agreed, there was no going back. Being a biker doesn't mean we cheat, at least I don't. I know a lot of us who are faithful. So, we are good right? Nothing has changed, you are mine." he asks me, or I think he is telling me. "Yes, sorry for doubting you." I say. "Don't ever apologize. I would be upset if you were in bed with another male," he says with a frown. "I don't even want to think about that. You are mine" he says again and grabs my face and kisses me. "Fuck, nally. I missed you so much." he tells me. I hug him. "I missed you too", I tell him. "Now, tell me everything that has happened. Why did your ex bring his mistress to your house?" He asks me. I explain everything that happened and he is fuming by the time I am done. "I am going to fuck him up again. He knows he needs to stay the fuck away from you." he tells me and I shake my head. "Can we get back to work? Maybe you can come over tonight. The kids miss you and we can talk about everything then?" I ask him, hoping he calms down. "Fine" he says.

I am so glad we cleared the air and that my girl is not dramatic and believed me when I explained everything to her. She also invited me over tonight. I get to see the kids and I am so excited for that. We dive into work and when the secretary comes in with her flirting, Vanessa dismisses her. Vanessa says she will have Verlene come in to help with this because she knows the town more and she knows the places that they should invest and donate to. The day is long, but I am excited to spend all of my days working with her for the time being. I have another week before I have to go out of town on club business, so I will make the best of my time.

I decide to follow her to pick up the kids once we are done with work. "Alex" Julian yells when he sees me. He runs to me and gives me a hug. "Cool bike. Your dad is so cool," a kid says. Julian has the biggest smile on his face. I am not sure if he heard him. If he did, he did not care to correct him. Neither did I. That's when it hits me hard. Vanessa is mine and that means her kids are too, so I will start treating them as such. Not that I ever treated them bad, but I can do more for them. Time to step it up.
