

Dont mess 1041

Chapter: 1041

“Yo, your kid came in too?”

Just now Yu Sheng followed Mr. Gu to find a place to sit down, and a contemptuous voice came in his ear. Hearing the sound, he saw that it was the previous Zhao Juncai who was able to enter without an invitation.

He didn't care about Zhao Juncai, and Yu Sheng planned to ask Gu Lao about the family affairs in detail. After all, this old man helped himself, and he was still a very good old man.

If the blood evil spirit on his forehead cannot be resolved, he will surely die within seven days.

When Zhao Juncai saw that Yu Sheng was ignoring him, his arrogant temper came up instantly, let go of the beauty in his arms, and stood in front of Yu Sheng with a few noises. He raised his hand and planned to push him.

The hand still didn't touch Yu Sheng's body, and he was caught in the air, while Yu Sheng's eyes were looking at him coldly.

“You pauper quickly let go of your dirty hands, do you the fuck know who I am? I am Zhao Shao, I am talking to you to give you face, don't know what the hell is good or bad!” Zhao Juncai looked angry. Said. The reason why he was angry was because the hand he was grasped by Yu Sheng, no matter how hard he struggled, he couldn't get rid of it, as if he was tightly restrained by an iron claw.

Can't figure out where this pauper who looks ordinary dressed comes from so much strength?

“Sorry, I don't care about your face!” Yu Sheng shook Zhao Juncai aside with a wave of his hand, and sat back to his original position without a firm foot.

That anger in Zhao Juncai's heart! This pauper did this to himself in front of so many people, and he simply didn't put his Zhao family in his eyes.

“Boy, you're going to die on horseback!” Zhao Juncai squeezed a few from his teeth, looking at Yu Sheng with hatred in his eyes.

Seeing that things had developed to this point, Old Gu on the side didn't intend to sit back and ignore him, so he stood up and smiled and said to Zhao Juncai: “Master Zhao, this young man is my nephew. If anything is offended, Don't take it to your heart.”

Zhao Jun was in anger when he heard someone talking to him. When he saw that the old man in front of him was Old Gu, the anger on his face was instantly extinguished.

“Old Gu, I never thought that you would have come to participate in this auction. It's a coincidence to be able to meet you here.”

At this point, Zhao Juncai paused. He looked at Yu Sheng and asked Gu Lao: “Gu Lao, you said this young man is your nephew?”

Old Gu smiled and nodded, answering Zhao Juncai's question.

Seeing Old Gu actually admitted that the young man in front of him was his nephew, Zhao Juncai's resentment towards Yu Sheng disappeared.

With a relieved smile on his face, Zhao Juncai came to Yu Sheng and apologized: “Brother, I didn't know you turned out to be Old Gu's nephew. You are offended and offended. Don't take it to your heart. I have time. Please drink!”

Yu Sheng nodded, he didn't intend to care about anything with Zhao Juncai, on the contrary, he had a more favorable impression of Gu Lao.

It's just that he has stayed in Qiancheng and paid little attention to the affairs of Shangjing. He didn't know that Shangjing had an extra family member.

At this moment, a woman in a red cheongsam walked slowly on the auction stage. She had a rugged figure and a variety of styles in her every move, but she was steady and elegant. These two auras were just right.

Woman, as soon as he took the stage, he caught all the eyes of the men under the stage. Zhao Juncai simply took off his sunglasses and stared straight at the woman on the stage.

For the rest of his life, he was also a man, and couldn't help but look at this woman on stage more than twice, and there was no evil thoughts that shouldn't be generated.

"Hello everyone here! I am Wen Ya in charge of this auction host." The woman in the red cheongsam on the stage introduced herself to everyone, and then announced the official start of the auction.

Chapter: 1042

"The first lot is the original piece of Tang Bohu's "Lushan Waterfall View". This painting has been confirmed by the top master appraiser Wang Huaizhi to be authentic. The starting price is 2 billion!" As soon as the gentle voice came to an end, the calligraphy and painting on the exhibition table opened the "Lushan Waterfall View" and displayed it in an angle that everyone could see.

Tang Bohu's authentic works have always cost hundreds of millions at every turn. Only this pair of "Lushan Waterfall Viewing" is one of the finest works. Looking at the landscape in the painting gives people an immersive feeling. The starting price of two billion is not even available. It feels very exaggerated.

"I'm giving out 2.1 billion!" At this moment, the middle-aged man Yixie had already begun to bid with the sign in his hand.

Those who were able to receive invitations to enter and exit, both of them were worth more than ten billion yuan in this auction, and they continued to offer bids to those who wanted to collect the authentic works of Tang Bohu.

Yu Sheng had nothing to collect about Tang Bohu's authentic works. The reason for participating in this auction was all because of blood ganoderma. If he could come across some genius treasures that could be used, Yu Sheng would also make a move.

Yu Guang accidentally caught a glimpse of Gu Lao sitting beside him. At this time, Gu Lao's muddy old eyes looked at the "Lushan Waterfall" displayed on the stage.

"Old Gu, do you like Tang Bohu's calligraphy and painting?" Yu Sheng asked.

Hearing this, Old Gu nodded heavily and said: "The old man has nothing to do at home. He likes to collect some calligraphy and paintings, but he loves Tang Bohu's calligraphy and painting very much. The reason for participating in this auction is also for this painting."

At this time, the bidding sound gradually became less, and the price was also called 3.5 billion, which seemed to be almost reaching the transaction price.

Seeing this situation, Old Gu raised the sign in his hand and said loudly: "I'm out of 3,800 million!"

"3.9 billion!" The voice of another man rang.

"Four billion!" Old Gu stretched out the sign in his hand, and the kind smile on his face slowly receded, instead of his seriousness and determination to win.

Although this painting is really an authentic work of Tang Bohu, it is estimated to be around 3.6 billion, and it is already outrageous to be called four billion now.

The person who competed with Gu Lao also had no bids for a long time, presumably he was also considering four billion yuan, is it worth buying a calligraphy and painting?

In the end, the person still didn't speak until the deal, and the painting fell into Gu Lao's hands with a total sale price of 4 billion.

"After all, this painting is in hand, and it would be worthwhile for the old man to come here all the way."

Gu Lao breathed a long sigh of relief, and said refreshingly.

"Oh? Isn't your old man who went to Beijing?" Yu Sheng asked curiously.

"I'm from Jinling. In recent years, my son's business has been getting better and better. I came to Shanghai to settle down. I don't like the environment here and I like to take it with my hometown. I heard that there was another auction in Shanghai a month ago. I just happened to have something I like. This calligraphy and painting, so I came all the way."

After listening to Gu Lao's account, Yu Sheng couldn't help thinking, Gu Lao's son's business is not so big! So that even people from upper-class families in Beijing treat him respectfully.

The following auction items are all antique calligraphy and paintings, but they are also very precious, until the seventh auction item was a huge cage, which was covered by a huge red cloth.

"The following lot of ours is a special lot. It must be the gospel of all the men present, that is Catwoman!" Wen Ya said slowly, her voice sweet.

Catwoman? Hearing these two words, the rest of my life is also energetic...

Chapter: 1043

The existence of a half-human and half-beast like Catwoman is unheard of for the rest of her life. Now in a civilized society, there is even the existence of this kind of creature, even he has a strong curiosity.

Two of the men present sat up straight, their eyes fixed on the iron cage covered with red cloth.

Host, Wen Ya stretched out her hand to pull the red cloth off the cage after she finished her story to Catwoman.

A huge iron cage appeared in front of everyone for a short while, and there was a girl in the iron cage with a naked figure. She looked the same as an ordinary girl as a whole, except that she had a slender cat's tail and a long head. Two little fluffy ears.

Suddenly exposed to everyone's eyes, Catwoman flashed a trace of panic, and then she curled up together, looking like a frightened little beast.

When the men in the audience saw this catwoman, their eyes lit up, and their eyes were all greedy. They wanted to take this catwoman as their own and take it home for a good time.

Yu Sheng also had to admit that this catwoman was much more beautiful than the host Wen Ya, and her figure was even hotter, coupled with the fact that she was half-human and half-animal, it was more able to provoke a man's sex.

Originally, I was still entangled in the existence of half-human and half-animal creatures like Catwoman in this world, but now I really saw it and understood why.

There is no such thing as the so-called catwoman in this world. The stunning girl in the cage is a person, a real human being.

Others may not be able to see the details. As a strong man in the realm of a half-step great master, how could Yu Sheng not understand the reason.

The catwoman in the cage still looked very weak and pitiful, but Yu Sheng knew that she was definitely not as weak as she saw, but an extremely dangerous woman.

If it's not dangerous, would you use a big iron cage with the thickness of your wrist to trap a girl?

Moreover, the catwoman's wrists and ankles were also imprisoned by a special chain, with faint strands of internal force on it.

Only the rest of her life discovered that this catwoman hated danger, and the ordinary men in the audience couldn't discover this problem at all. The bid price was quickly copied from one billion to three billion.

Three billion are just to play with a special woman. The rest of my life is also very curious. After looking at it, I never thought that the person who finally photographed Catwoman was not someone else, it was Zhao Juncai.

After the deal, Wen Ya also specifically told Zhao Juncai: "Young Master Zhao, this cat is violent and bloody. You must not untie her bracelet and anklet."

Zhao Juncai waved his hand indifferently, and didn't take the gentle words to heart, but came to the stage in a hurry, wanting to take the catwoman that was photographed home.

Everyone present has already turned envious eyes to Zhao Juncai, this is the only catwoman!

"Brother Yu, almost all the men present just made bids, why don't you compete?" Gu Lao looked at Yu Sheng with a smile on his face and asked curiously.

"It's just a woman full of dangers, staying around is like a time bomb that outweighs the gains. What's more, I don't have that kind of habit. My goal is blood ganoderma!" Yu Sheng said firmly.

The auction started so long, and Yu Sheng also had a general understanding of the people present. His six senses were different from ordinary people. Basically, everyone present could not escape the ears of the rest of his life.

There are probably more than a dozen people who have ideas about blood ganoderma. Most of them want to buy back this kind of natural treasure as a collection, but only two elders reveal a good temperament, which is also a cultivation practice. People are probably the strength of the early stage of the Grand Master Realm.

After listening to their conversation, Yu Sheng was almost certain that these two people were also from the hidden gate, and the sect's suzerain ordered them to get the blood ganoderma.

At this moment, another lot was pushed up, and it was the blood ganoderma that Yu Sheng had been thinking about for the rest of his life.

Chapter: 1044

"Hundred-year blood Ganoderma lucidum, blood Ganoderma lucidum is a rare treasure, and this strain is a century-old blood Ganoderma lucidum. A strong drug effect.

At the very least, it is disease-free and disaster-free, and it can even achieve longevity. These are just the most basic functions that it can achieve.

If the people present understand the pharmacology, they must understand the preciousness of this century-old blood Ganoderma lucidum. I won't explain much about it. The starting price is 2 billion! Each price increase shall not be less than 100 million yuan. "Wen Ya said loudly.

As soon as this remark came out, the people present were in an uproar!

Just a blood Ganoderma lucidum, even if it can be disease-free and disaster-free, the bid of 100 million yuan for a longevity is too expensive.

Therefore, there are not many people who bid, and the rest of my life couldn't be more happy seeing this situation, and it would be better if someone robbed him.

Looking at the two elders, the two elders were talking with serious faces, as if they were also surprised that the price of the starting shot was too high.

Yu Sheng did not intend to give them time to consider, if they were allowed to think clearly, it would simply be an extra opponent!

After making up his mind, Yu Sheng directly picked up the sign in his hand and bid: "I'll pay 5 billion!" Many people have already given up when buying a blood Ganoderma lucidum for two billion. It was unexpected that someone would directly bid for five billion, which suddenly increased by three billion, more than doubled!

When they were planning to make a bid, the two old men heard the price of blood ganoderma lucidum at five billion, and they almost vomited a mouthful of old blood.

When they came out this time, the Sovereign gave a total of 5 billion. I thought that the price of just one billion of blood ganoderma would be the highest. When they came, they discussed the remaining money to buy some that they could use. The herbs that you get boost your strength.

Now the price has been directly called to five hundred million, and the eyes of both of them gave birth to retreat. Now the price has reached five hundred million. Wouldn't it be even higher in the future?

When the time comes, not only will you not be able to get some oil and water from it, but you will have to fill this loophole at your own expense. The two old men don't even want to think about this matter.

"Five billion to buy a blood Ganoderma lucidum, isn't this kid really here to make trouble?"

"If you dare to make trouble at this auction, it is simply too long for you. The person holding the auction this time is your most powerful man! Have a good show to watch!"

"Hey! Boy, I won't be able to get so much money when the price is arbitrarily asked. There is no difference between this and death! Have you thought about it?"

Don't say that others don't believe in Yu Sheng, even the old Gu next to him looks at Yu Sheng with a weird look. This ordinary-looking young man doesn't even have invitations for this place. If he is not his own, he would simply Can't get in, can he really come up with 5 billion?

At that time, Yu Sheng really couldn't get the money, and even he couldn't save this little brother Yu's life.

Thinking of this, Old Gu kindly reminded: "Brother Yu, although blood ganoderma is very precious, but it is not worth five billion yuan, you still think about it? Taking advantage of the fact that there are still no photographs, I will work The staff explained, maybe they will give me the face and don't care about re-auction."

Knowing that Mr. Gu said these things for his own good, Yu Sheng's affection for the old man became stronger.

With a relaxed smile on Yu Sheng's face, he said, "Thank you, Mr. Gu for your kindness. I dared to pay this price, and of course I can pay this money."

"Five billion once!"

"Five billion twice!"

"Five billion three times, a deal!" The hammer fell, the bid was over, and the blood ganoderma was completely owned by the rest of his life.

Chapter: 1045

Now that the auction of blood ganoderma is completely over, even people like Old Gu have no idea about this matter.

This time he came to the auction and brought a total of only 5 billion yuan. The purchase of Tang Bohu's "Lushan Waterfall Map" cost 4 billion yuan, and only one billion yuan is left.

Besides, the little brother in front of him and him only met today. I have helped her so many times, and he is still so unrepentant. Gu Lao just wants to help him, but he is powerless.

If this young man does not listen to persuasion, he will suffer in the end.

For the rest of his life, he was in a much better mood after photographing blood Ganoderma lucidum. He even had the same mentality as Zhao Juncai's impulse to pay directly for something. But in the end the rest of his life still suppressed that impulse. Maybe there is something in the future. If there is a hundred years of Polygonum multiflorum, it would be great. Then he can start refining and building. Kidan too.

At the end of the auction, Yu Sheng still didn't meet the Centennial Polygonum multiflorum. Instead, he photographed the materials needed to refine the Huisheng Pill.

Nothing was missed, Yu Sheng directly bid for those things to be photographed.

Elder Gu on the side was getting more and more shocked. Originally, he was still worried about whether he could come up with 5 billion for the rest of his life, but he didn't expect that he would still be bidding for the rest of his life. The total amount to be paid was 6.5 billion.

Even if he were to spend 6.5 billion on an auction, it would be very distressing. Old Gu even wondered if this young man was not as simple as he saw.

When he went to pay, Yu Sheng's expression remained unchanged, and he took out a black card from his pocket and handed it over.

When he saw the black card, a look of surprise flashed on Old Gu's face, and he was relieved. This is the black card of the World Bank. It seems that this young man is really not as simple as what he saw.

"Old Gu, I think it's better to tell you clearly about some things. There is a layer of blood on your forehead, which can last for seven days at most. If it can't be resolved, your life is worrying." Yu Sheng's face was cautious. Said.

The old man in front of him wanted to help himself many times, although some things he could do without his help, but this kindness was felt for the rest of his life.

He told Elder Gu all what he had said, and if he didn't let himself help him, it was up to him. For the rest of his life, he would not be able to rush to ask for uncomfortable things.

Old Gu looked at Yu Sheng, and he was a little confused when he heard what he said. Before, because Yu Sheng took out the World Bank's black card, he felt that the young man in front of him was not an ordinary person.

But the words he just said sounded similar to those of the false priests on the flyover.

Gu Lao didn't even go to spend money to ask the priest to help him see the picture, because he never believed this, but was a little bit touched. He has seen many tricks that pretend to be Taoists and deceive people, which are very similar to what Yu Sheng just said.

What's more, the rest of my life looks so young, and I don't want to be a capable person.

Seeing that Gu Lao Jiujiu had no words, the rest of my life was able to guess that others did not believe in me. He smiled helplessly and said: "Since Gu Lao doesn't believe it, then I won't say much, just give me what happens. Call, I'll be there then."

Yu Sheng left his mobile phone number to Old Gu, and then the blood ganoderma and other genius treasures that he had photographed turned and left.

After walking for a while, Yu Sheng's footsteps suddenly stopped, and he shouted toward the deserted street: "There are no people now, but it's a perfect phone meeting. Are you sure you can't come out?"

Chapter: 1046

As soon as Yu Sheng's voice fell, two white-haired old men walked out of the secret corner, and directly sandwiched Yu Sheng in the middle.

When the two elders spent five billion dollars to buy the blood ganoderma for the rest of their lives, they discussed that they would take the blood ganoderma in Yusheng's hands directly after the auction, which means they would take the money and blood without paying a single cent. Ganoderma has been obtained.

Both of them are the strength of the initial stage of the Grandmaster Realm, and it is easy to deal with an ordinary person and they can directly crush them.

"Boy, you know that we are following you, so naturally you understand why we are doing this, right? The bleeding ganoderma will spare you not to die, otherwise, don't blame us for being rude!" The blue-clothed old man in front of Yu Sheng said.

Yu Sheng sneered and asked, "You're welcome? How can you be your kind? Let me listen to you!"

The two elders did not even think of being so ignorant for the rest of their lives, and even dared to speak to them in such a tone, it was almost death!

The two elders looked at each other and immediately changed the aura of a Grandmaster Realm master to oppress the rest of their lives. Ordinary people would definitely be overwhelmed under this aura, and even those with weaker bodies would instantly die.

The two looked at them to give Yu Sheng a little bit of color, so that he could understand what he should not offend.

The two elders turned on their aura at the same time. At the beginning, the rest of their lives did not have any reaction, until they continued for a few minutes for the rest of their lives, they still looked at them with a smile, and the two elders realized the young man in front of them. Nor is it an ordinary person.

How could ordinary people persist for a few minutes under the coercion of the strength of two masters? I was afraid that I exploded and died.

"I am in a better mood to be able to photograph the blood ganoderma today. I will give you a chance to survive and roll now. Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!" Yu Sheng smiled and said to the two elders.

The faces of the two people who heard this turned ugly. What could the young man in front of him represent even if he could hold on to them for a few minutes?

Even if he was in his twenties, he could not be the opponent of their two master-level masters.

Thinking of this, both of them have confidence in their hearts and plan to learn a lesson. This young man who doesn't know what to do.

So the two looked at each other, and at the same time they wanted to launch an offensive for the rest of their lives.

A joking smile appeared on the corner of Yu Sheng's mouth, but he had given them a chance to survive, but they didn't know how to cherish, so it's no wonder he.

For the rest of his life with a half-step great master's strength, dealing with two people in the early stage of the grand master is not too simple. The lightning speed directly pinched the necks of the two old men. With a hard hand, he heard "瞬" in my ears. Screamed.

The two elders might not have thought of it until they died, and the strength they were so proud of would die in the face of the rest of their lives.

Yu Sheng rummaged through their bodies, just some small things that Yu Sheng didn't look at. Finally, he found a five billion cheque in the pocket of the old man Lan Yi. Yu Sheng hesitated and stuffed it directly into himself. In the pocket.

After resolving the two, Yu Sheng left contentedly, so if you count it, buying the blood ganoderma by yourself is equivalent to having no money to spend.

The materials for making Zhujidan are only a hundred years away from Polygonum multiflorum. I don't know when I will meet...

Chapter: 1047

"Dad, you are back. Seeing that you are in such a good mood, you must have photographed Tang Bohu's "Lushan Waterfall", right?" A middle-aged man hurriedly greeted him when he saw Mr. Gu come back. Old Gu nodded, and then went into the house. Then he took a closer look at the calligraphy and painting that he had taken. The more and more he loved it, the more he loved it.

Old Gu took off his eyes, then closed the calligraphy and painting, and said with a long sigh of relief: "It's not in vain that I run in vain!"

"Dad, you like it, since you are all surprised. How about staying a few more days? So that I can do my filial piety to my son, and besides, your grandson Aming will be back tomorrow." The middle-aged man suggested with a smile. road.

This looks somewhat similar to Gu Lao, the middle-aged man is Gu Tiancheng, Gu's son, and the A Ming he just said is Gu Ming, the son of Gu's father.

Hearing that Amin is coming back, the smile on Old Gu's face grew stronger: "Well, well, there are still grandsons who haven't seen me for a long time, so let's stay a few more days!"

Gu Tiancheng heard that Mr. Gu was really going to live in Shangjing for a few days and quickly asked the servants of the family to clean a room and come out.

"Dad, did you encounter anything interesting at the auction today? Let your son listen to it!" Gu Tiancheng said.

Gu Tiancheng and Gu Lao have similar personalities. They are both kind and kind people. In addition, he has been busy doing business in recent years and neglected to take care of his father, so he wanted to take advantage of this time to do his filial piety.

Suddenly asked about this question, Gu Lao subconsciously appeared in Yu Sheng's mind. At first, he had a good impression of Yu Sheng as a young man.

But when he said that there was a layer of blood on his forehead, he would die within seven days, which made all of Gu's good feelings towards him disappear.

"No, I'll be back after taking this picture." The smiles on Old Gu's face slowly disappeared, and he immediately asked Gu Tiancheng next to him: "By the way, I've been back for so long, why? Didn't you see Ayang? Where did his bastard go?"

Gu Tiancheng has two sons. The eldest son is named Gu Ming and the younger is named Gu Yang. The elder son is diligent and studious, and he is very upright. But he was stubborn by nature. At the age of twenty-three, he was ignorant of learning and skill, and he was idle all day.

"This bastard really didn't know anything about him. I didn't find a home yesterday. Today I don't even have a movie if I have something. I'll call him and ask." Gu Tiancheng sighed and took it. When you get out of your cell phone, you have to call Gu Yang and scold him.

This son is simply not a little worry-free! If you let it go, you will have it in the future.

Listen to the noise outside. Gu Tiancheng was not in the mood to call, and stood up, frowning, and said with a displeased expression: "Why are Gu's servants so noisy? They have all the manners and etiquette taught before."

This kind of an unknown premonition of Old Gu flashed through. Although he ran here to live for a month, he also felt that the people in the Gu family were calm at the time. Now that this abnormal situation has occurred, could it be something wrong?

At this moment, the Gu family's servants started making noise outside, and then five or six strong young men rushed in carrying a stretcher.

"It's not good, it's not good, something happened to the young master!"

Chapter: 1048

Hearing this sentence, Old Gu, who shook his whole body, fell back. Fortunately, Gu Tiancheng held him swiftly and quickly, so that he did not fall to the ground.

"Dad, are you okay?" Gu Tiancheng asked Old Gu anxiously, no matter what happened.

Old Gu clapped his hands, but said on the stretcher: "Quick! Go and see what's wrong with Ayang! Go and see!"

Hearing what Old Gu said, Gu Tiancheng only came to the stretcher. When he saw the person on the stretcher, even though he was accustomed to seeing the world, he was shocked in a cold sweat.

At this time, the face of the person on the stretcher was black, like a person fished out of carbon. If he were not familiar with the facial features of his son Gu Yang, Gu Tiancheng would even think that this person was not his son.

If the whole body is only black, there is still a way to make people accept it, but there are bright red blood vessels in his black skin exposing the surface of the skin, as if it may explode anytime and anywhere.

"This...this...what the hell is going on? Why did this happen to the young master!" Gu Tiancheng asked Gu Yang's bodyguard.

The bodyguard knelt on the ground in shock, and said quickly: "Master, we don't know what happened! Yesterday I followed the young master to the heaven and earth. The young master called two girls, and we kept taking them there. Now, there are no strange people encountered, and the young master does not eat anything messy.

Just now, while the young master was still singing, suddenly his body seemed to be electrocuted, his whole body trembling ceaselessly, and then he fell to the ground and foamed at the mouth, and then his body began to turn black. This was the first time I encountered In this case, a few people were called to send the young master back.

Master, you are going to think of a way to save the young master, the young master looks very uncomfortable like this."

Gu Yang, who was lying on the stretcher, was not even clear anymore. Even the whites of his eyes slowly turned black. Is his body twitching? The expression on his face seemed to be suffering from some great pain.

Old Gu stepped forward, and when he saw Gu Yang look like this, he was shocked, and his face was full of care and worry.

"How come you have become like this? Go and call a doctor!" Old Gu said anxiously at the servants of the Gu family.

Gu Tiancheng looked distressed when he saw his son become like this, but he couldn't do anything about it. After all, he saw this situation for the first time.

As time passed, Gu Yang's face became more ugly, and the whites of his eyes had completely turned black. This was not the worst. The most disturbing thing was that Gu Yang held his neck with both hands and his facial features looked like It's almost suffocating.

Gu's servants saw this situation and tied his hands with ropes, but there was still no way to solve the problem. Gu Yang's hands were imprisoned, his body convulsed constantly, and some strange things came out from his throat. sound.

The more famous doctors in Beijing came in batch after batch. After inspecting Gu Yang's condition, they all shook their heads, and there was no cure.

The dean of the more famous hospital in Shangjing is also an old friend of Gu Lao, and the respected dean personally came to inspect Gu Yang's situation and was helpless.

"My old friend, I don't think your grandson's situation seems to have some kind of disease, but it seems to be contaminated with something dirty. If you ask someone in that area, there may be a way to solve this situation." Before leaving, the dean He also deliberately said to Old Gu, his own views.

Old Gu has never believed in ghosts and gods, and now he doesn't know what to do after listening to his old friends. There are so many swindlers now, and the waste of money is the second best thing. The most important thing is that the opportunity for Gu Yang's treatment has been delayed.

Just as he was at a loss, Old Gu suddenly thought of someone, and even shook his head, he still felt a little unreliable.

But now there is no other way to deal with this situation. Only a dead horse can be used as a living horse doctor, so he picked up the phone in his hand and dialed a number.

Chapter: 1049

"Brother Yu, the old man's grandson has something wrong, can you come and help me see it!" Gu Lao dialed Yu Sheng's phone and said anxiously.

"Okay, you tell me your address, and I'll go over." Yu Sheng was still a little surprised. Before, he only saw that there was a bloody feeling on Gu Lao's forehead, and he didn't expect his family to appear so soon. Problem.

Without any time wasted, Yu Sheng looked at the address sent by Gu Lao on the phone, and drove over after a taxi.

It took about half an hour for the rest of his life to drive to the place, and he didn't care about anyone, and he went straight to the room and took a look at Gu Ming who was lying on the bed.

At this time, Gu Ming's situation is worse than before. The whole person is like a madman, gnawing his own flesh. If it is not the servant of the Gu family, if he is found tied up in time, maybe she can see on her arm now. To the bones of Bai Sensen.

Yu Sheng looked at Gu Yang with a heavy face, with an uncertain expression on his face. When he entered this room, he finally understood why there was a layer of blood on his forehead. It turned out that this was all because of This Gu Yang rises up.

The reason why he invited him to come, Gu Lao is also a dead horse as a living horse doctor, there is no great hope, but if Yu Sheng can really cure his grandson, it would be a great thing.

Looking at Yu Sheng's expression, Gu Lao didn't know what happened. Could it be that this little brother Yu really saw something?

So, Old Gu asked, "Brother Yu, do you see something? What is going on with my grandson?"

Yu Sheng turned around and looked at Old Gu and replied, "Your grandson did a lot of wicked things! The reason why this situation became like this was entirely because of retribution.

At that time, not only will he die, but your family will also be implicated."

The reason for saying this is that Yu Sheng didn't have any basis. When he first entered this room, he saw a female ghost in blue staying by Gu Yang's bedside, burning him with the flames, looking at Gu Yang. With those uncomfortable struggling but helpless appearances, the female ghost in blue showed a hideous smile on her face.

The same goes for ghosts!

When ordinary people die, they will become wandering souls, translucent, or gray. Of course, ordinary people can't see them. Only those with yin and yang eyes can see. Wandering souls can't bring anything to people. Substantial damage, at most, will hit the wall with a ghost.

Those who complained about death, were brutally killed by others, or were wronged, and those who have obsessions in their hearts, after death, still can't let go of the obsessions in their hearts. Only then can they become ghosts, and the characteristic of ghosts is to wear red clothes. , Can be turned into an entity, the ghost is quite dangerous.

Wandering spirits are more common, and ghosts rarely appear. Yu Sheng also saw a ghost when he was saving Xiao Zixin's mother.

And the female ghost in front who stayed on the head of Gu Yang's bed and controlled the flames to torment him was quite terrifying in blue.

It can also be said that it is not possible to call her a ghost. Wearing a blue dress is obviously a characteristic of Cheng Sha. Such a thing as Sha, no one survives within ten miles of an angry.

But this Sha is quite special, and he didn't directly kill him. Instead, he pestered Gu Yang alone and didn't kill him. Instead, he slowly tortured him.

If there were no grievances between the two before, it is absolutely impossible for this situation to happen, so for the rest of his life, it must be this Gu Yang who did some anger and grievances during his lifetime to force a person into a life. One evil!

Chapter: 1050

Old Gu distressedly glanced at Gu Yang, who was tied to the bed and was in great pain, and asked in a puzzled way: "Brother Yu, what do you mean by this? My grandson became like this because of what he did. Is it?"

In his impression, although his own grandson has a stubborn personality, he is not doing anything wicked, right?

Originally, Gu Lao didn't hold too much hope in Yu Sheng, but after listening to what he said, he felt that he was making a fool of himself.

"Then you have to ask himself, what exactly did he do to force a girl to be like this." Yu Sheng said with a sneer.

Gu Tian, who was listening to these words, was not happy with Ma Ma. His son was about to die now.

The young man who had been invited didn't seem to be reliable, and he said some messy things.

"Little brother, you can eat and talk indiscriminately. Although my son has a stubborn character, he won't do anything angry and complaining like you said, right?" Gu Tiancheng said in a bad tone.

"Nonsense?" Yu Sheng sneered, looked at the evil spirit on Gu Yang's bed again, and then said coldly:

"Since you don't believe what I said, then ask him what he did. What's the matter!"

Yu Sheng didn't want to care about the attitude of Gu's family, but Gu Lao was pretty good, so Yu Sheng could bear it.

Besides, if you really let this bullshit go, he might really be stunned by him.

"Brother Yu, how can Ayang make this situation clear now?" Mr. Gu sighed as he spoke.

For the rest of his life, he did not speak, and took out a talisman from his pocket and stuck it on Gu Yang's body. It was as simple as that when the sha saw the talisman, there was a panic on the ghost's face, and he stepped back and did not dare to come closer. Gu Yang turned to look at Yu Sheng with a bitter expression on his face.

“Why? Why do you want to help this kind of person! He damn it, even the lower eighteen layers of hell is not a pity.” The blue ghost said with gritted teeth, two lines of blood and tears were left in her eyes because of her anger towards Gu Yang.

“Calm down first, if this person really deserves to die, I won’t intervene.” Yu Sheng said.

Although the female ghost in blue was angry at Yu Sheng’s intervention, but due to his strength, it was too strong, so he had to calm down.

Old Gu and Gu Tiancheng didn’t know why Yu Sheng was talking to the air, but a cold wind blew at that moment. It felt like the whole person had fallen into an ice cave. Everyone couldn’t help but beat. Chills. Just as they didn’t know what was going on, the black on Gu Yang’s face on the bed gradually receded, and the whites of his eyes slowly returned to normal.

“Grandpa, Dad, why are you all here?” As soon as Gu Yang opened his eyes, he found a group of people watching him. Just when he was about to get up from the bed, he realized that his whole body was sore, as if he was unwell. The same.

“Oh, what’s wrong with me? Even if I called two girls last night, I wouldn’t be tired like this, right?” Gu Yang said puzzledly.

Hearing this, Gu Tiancheng walked over to Gu Yang with a look of anger, slapped his face twice without saying a word, and said angrily: “Smelly boy, did you know that you just became What did it look like? Almost died!”

Gu Yang was slapped twice on the face, and his mood was naturally not much better, but he couldn’t figure out why he was clearly in the heaven and earth, why did this teacher come back home when he woke up?

“Dad, what’s going on? Is there anything I can’t say well? Why do you have to do it?” Gu Yang said with an unconvinced face.

When Yu Sheng stepped forward, he didn’t have time to be a mistake here. Although the thunder talisman attached to Gu Yang for the rest of his life could make Sha not close, it only took half an hour.

“You are targeted by a Sha, not only you will die, even your father, your grandfather, and everyone who has a relationship with you will die because of you. If you don’t want to die, just follow this matter honestly. Let me make it clear!” Yu Sheng said directly to Gu Yang without any nonsense.
