

Dont mess 1381

Chapter: 1381

"It's just a mass grave in every place. It won't be so evil, right? Auntie, is there anything in it?" Yu Sheng came to be interested and asked curiously.

During World War II, there were mass graves in every place, not only in remote mountains, but also in large cities. For example, many schools were built on mass graves, which suppressed those evil spirits with righteousness. The method is inferior.

When the middle-aged woman said that there was a mass grave in the mountain, Yu Sheng was not shocked. This is a very normal thing. It is only necessary to tell the child not to go there and it is not necessary to fight like this. The middle-aged woman is so serious. Explain that there may be a problem with this matter.

"This is different. The mass grave in the back mountain has heard that tens of thousands of people have been buried, and they were all buried alive. The yin spirit over there is heavy, and they will be entangled even when they pass by." The middle-aged woman was full of faces. In fear, he whispered to Yu Sheng. With tens of thousands of people buried alive, I feel uncomfortable for the rest of my life thinking of that kind of scene. You can think about how desperate and scared those people were when this happened.

At this time, Huzi wiped the tears from his face, and said aggrieved: "Grandma is Er Lengzi, Longlong, and Fatty. They let me pass. They said that there have been ghosts who want to go and see, and they are about to get to the place. At that time, we felt goosebumps all over, and we didn't dare to go, and then Longlong said we were cowards and passed by himself.

I didn't even go there to play, I just took a look and came back. On the way back, I felt tripped by something, and then a purple spot appeared on my leg."

The middle-aged woman had already lost more than half of her anger. When she heard her grandson say this, she became angry in time and kicked her grandson in the ass.

"I said that Longlong is a good young man, who is sick and devastated as soon as he falls asleep. The feelings are that you went to play in that place. You really think you are dead! If you also go in, Then don't you just go with him?"

I also heard that those who were killed by those things were trapped in that place, and those who were unable to come out were not even able to reincarnate. You are mad at grandma!"

Speaking of the middle-aged woman holding the tiger child and crying, her face is full of fear after the rest of her life. People in the mountains have a low income. Most young people have gone to work in the city, so the children are given to the elderly. Come and bring it, if something goes wrong with the child, it would be too guilty.

"Grandma, don't cry, I know I was wrong, I won't go over again next time, don't cry, I really know I was wrong." Seeing his grandma crying so sad, Huzi started crying too. .

Yu Sheng watched from the sidelines and couldn't say anything, and told them how to treat the tiger's legs when their emotions turned back, but the mass grave in Houshan was confident of Yu Sheng's curiosity.

There are often opportunities in places where there are dangers or evils. Maybe you can find a way to treat Xiaoshui by mistake. Even if you have the rest of your life, you want to go and see it.

As for Xiaohu's problem, it was probably that when he came back, he was tripped by human bones, and that's what happened.

For the rest of my life, I was thinking about burning a piece of paper for the person Xiaohu offended to help the child apologize and talked about it. The thing that entangles Xiaohu can't be received either. Since this is the case, Yu Sheng could only use other methods to find some cinnabar and yellow paper. Yu Sheng drew a talisman to prevent evil and avoid evil, then put it in a bowl and burned it to ashes, and finally mixed it with some water. It became mud and smeared it on the purple spot on the little tiger's leg.

Yu Sheng just helped Huzi apply it, and the tiger reacted. He immediately pulled his leg back, crying and said to his grandma: "Grandma, I hurt, and the place where the thing was wiped seemed to be burned by fire. It hurts!"

"Doctor, do you see what's going on? Why does the child keep screaming?" The middle-aged woman held Huzi, and her heart started to feel so uncomfortable watching the child.

"Nothing, this is a normal reaction. That thing will grab the child's leg at night. There are corpse qi and marks on his leg. I used talisman paper to eliminate the corpse qi on his leg. In the future, that dirty thing will not find Xiaohu." Seeing that the middle-aged woman was so worried, Yu Sheng explained it to her.

At this moment, Hu Zi stopped screaming, and said to the middle-aged woman: "Grandma, my legs don't hurt anymore."

"The time is up, just wash off the ashes of the talisman on his leg." Yu Sheng said lightly.

The middle-aged woman completely surrendered to the rest of her life this time, and after listening to his arrangement, she washed off the ashes on the tiger's legs.

Sitting in the room, Yu Sheng clearly heard the sound of surprise outside.

"It's amazing, it's really amazing! The purple piece on my leg disappeared."

With the surprised voice of the middle-aged woman, she walked in with her grandson Huzi, thanking Yu Sheng for a while, if it weren't for Yu Sheng to stop her, she would kowtow to Yu Sheng.

After being grateful, the middle-aged woman wanted to pay for Yusheng and had no income for the rest of her life. In the end, she left a few hundred dollars and the middle-aged woman left with her grandson.

"Doctor Yu, you are indeed a god, and there is no cure in your hands." Zhu Qingshan exclaimed convincingly. He only found out that he had said something wrong when he said that, but the words have already been said. I can't take it back if I want to collect it.

Yu Sheng sighed heavily, and thought of Xiao Shui who was unconscious and what Xu Qianqian said before he died.

There is no antidote to cure Xiaoshui's current situation, no matter how great he is, watching his son's organ failure slowly but unable to do anything, there is no more pain in the world than this.

"It would be fine if I told you that." Yu Sheng sighed.

Seeing Yu Sheng's sad look, Zhu Qingshan didn't know what he could say, and could only lead the topic elsewhere.

"By the way, the ginseng plant that you sent me with God Doctor Yu lasts for three thousand years. This year's ginseng is simply too rare. I think it's a little overkill to refine the soul injection pill."

Hearing the name of the soul-injecting pills for a moment, Xiao Shui is unconscious now because he is unsteady, so there is no way to save it with any medicine. Will this soul-injecting pills be effective?

Although Yu Sheng thought this way, he would never try until the last moment, Xiao Shui's body couldn't stand the toss.

“Hmm, I just know, what kind of function does that Linghui grass have?” Yu Sheng asked.

“This kind of herb is very rare, and it grows in places where large beasts do not exist. It grows on their feces, so it is very dangerous to get this kind of herb. I didn’t think that the magical doctor Yu was so powerful.” Zhu Qingshan said.

There are only places where large beasts come out. No wonder Du Fei took brother No. 20. He is the only one who really survived. What a danger is self-evident.

Yu Sheng didn’t have any explanation for Du Fei’s hardship in obtaining this herb, and he continued to listen to Zhu Qingshan’s explanation. What he mainly wanted to know was that the medicinal efficacy of Linghuicao could not cure Xiaoshui.

“The main medicinal effect of this linghui grass can strengthen the heart and body. People who are born with weaker and more sick people can take this medicine to improve their physical fitness. I don’t know much about other refining aspects.” Zhu Qingshan slowly He said that he knew medical theory but didn’t know alchemy, so he didn’t say it too badly.

Yu Sheng nodded, strengthening the body and improving the physique, which is completely indifferent to Xiao Shui’s current situation!

“Help me take good care of it! I’ll go to the Houshan Mass Burial Ground!”

Chapter: 1383

By the time Yu Sheng came to the back mountain, it was already evening, and the rain had already started at this time. The mountain roads were difficult to walk because of the rain, but these were not difficult problems for Yu Sheng at all.

When he was about to approach the mass graves in the back mountain, he really felt that the surrounding atmosphere was a little bit wrong. From time to time, the gloomy wind would blow over, making people’s backs cold.

After the rain, a lot of mushrooms grew on the mountain, and the air smelled of soil, but after approaching the mountain, there was a faint smell of rotting corpses in the air.

Because the bones buried in the ground were washed out by the rain before the heavy rain washed away, the rest of my life can now understand why the tiger would feel caught by something before. It seems that what the middle-aged woman said is not exaggerated. , There is nowhere to go! With so many bones walking, it is unimaginable for the rest of my life when I actually arrive at the mass grave. At this moment when Yu Sheng was still thinking about things, there was a scream not far away. Hearing this scream, Yu Sheng walked over quickly, wanting to see what happened.

When Yu Sheng approached, she discovered that there was a woman who had rolled down from the mountain, her body was covered with muddy water. It seemed to be indistinguishable from a clay figure. The only thing that could be distinguished was her long muddy water. send.

The woman was still rolling down, and a few meters away from her, there was a big rock. If it rolled down like this, it would definitely hit the big rock. In this way, it would be difficult to save her life.

Yu Sheng didn’t have any hesitation, so he rushed up and looked at her dirty look. Yu Sheng didn’t intend to touch her, but used internal force to slow down her rolling tendency. When the woman stopped rolling, the distance The big stone is still one or two meters away.

Seeing this woman’s troubles, he stopped to worry about it for the rest of his life, but everyone in the curious mountain knew that this mass grave can’t come casually.

When Yu Sheng was about to turn around and leave, several people’s voices came from the mountain. Listening to their worried tone, they seemed to be the companion of the woman who fell down before.

“Nebula, are you okay? This is going well, why did you suddenly fall down? It really scared me to death.” A man with a flat head and a 183-meter elder brother rushed towards the woman without feeling that the mud on his body was dirty, so he lifted the woman from the ground.

Several other people, including men and women holding some equipment, and cameras for shooting, did not come down, but were there.

“Lao Lin, what’s wrong with Xingyun? Do you want to take her to see a doctor in the county town?” a fat man with a camera on his back asked.

The young and beautiful woman beside him snorted coldly, and said contemptuously: “This is going well, no one else has troubles, but she has a lot of troubles, so she fell off for some reason, and it was almost there. It’s a place, isn’t this a matter of trouble? Really!

It’s bad enough to climb up in the rain, she’s a sly, she’s so annoying to know so many things today, I won’t come!”

The woman said that she was angry and stopped hitting her. She stomped her feet suddenly, and almost fell off as soon as the soles of her feet slipped. Fortunately, the fat man beside her grabbed his clothes in time.

The man called Lao Lin inspected it, and Nebula found that there was no injury, but after scratching a little, he let go of his heart.

“Nothing is fine, nothing is fine. When I look back, I will get some water to wipe, wash the mud on my body, and then change clothes.” Lao Lin breathed a sigh of relief, and climbed up with the woman on his back.

Nebula was lying on Lao Lin’s body. The experience just now felt as if she had walked through a ghost gate. She almost hit the stone when she saw it. Without thinking of a buffer, she stopped before hitting the stone again. Down.

Lao Lin, who was about to go up the mountain, suddenly discovered that a man was walking not far from him.

“Little brother, are you from this mountain? Are you going to the mass grave too?” Lao Lin asked with his throat.

“Um.”

Yu Sheng just faintly said an um. After listening to these people’s conversations, Yu Sheng could also guess it. They also went to the mass grave.

Obviously that place is so evil. The middle-aged woman knows that her grandson has gone to that place and fights her grandson. These ordinary people have to go there. Are they really going to die?

He had just taken action to save that woman, and the life and death of the world were not for him to decide for the rest of his life, so he didn’t want to care too much this time, as long as he did his own thing well.

Yu Sheng was about to leave, and the tall man named Lao Lin behind him spoke again: “Little brother, this mass grave is very evil here! I don’t know what to do there, if I have to go. , It’s better to be with us, so that we can take care of each other.”

The sudden kindness still made Yu Sheng a little uncomfortable, but Yu Sheng still wanted it and refused. “Thank you for your kindness. Why do you still come here if you know the evil here? If you are not sure, I advise you to go back. After all, there is only one life.”

I thought I would soon part ways with this group of people, but I thought that Lao Lin quickly followed the rest of his life with Nebula on his back.

“Little brother, I know that what you just said is very reasonable, but I still advise you to join us. This mountain road is really dangerous, and you don’t take anything. If you are hungry, we can still give it. You order food.” Old Lin said warmly.

Thinking that this young man had a good heart, he didn’t intend to continue to refuse for the rest of his life. If he refused again, this young man would still persuade him indiscriminately.

He quickly followed Lao Lin and his party to the mountain. There were three people on the mountain, two men and one woman, the fat man who was relatively fat, and there was another man named Zhao Kang who was older and seemed to be in his thirties. There is also Anna, a beautiful-looking woman. After inquiring, Yu Sheng realized that their group of five members was a small team doing live broadcasts, and they did adventure live broadcasts on a certain software. According to the strong recommendation of local fans, they came to this place to prepare for adventure.

“Actually, you don’t need to listen to the opinions of fans. This place is still quite dangerous. If there is nothing necessary to do, I advise you to go back quickly.” Because I have a good impression of that enthusiastic Lao Lin, the rest of my life kindly reminded me. One sentence.

Xingyun is Lao Lin’s girlfriend. After she came to the mountain, she found a small river to help her wash the mud off her body. While sitting in Yu Sheng, the three people next to him ignored what Yu Sheng said and took his words into ears. .

The woman named Anna coldly snorted and looked at Yu Sheng’s eyes as if she was looking at a hillbilly: “You come from the mountains? Sure enough, you have never seen anything in the world. We just have to go to the mass grave this time. We stayed overnight, and that local fan gave us twenty rockets.

This rocket is only one thousand yuan! Twenty rockets cost 20,000 yuan. Why don’t we do something as good as 20,000 yuan a day? Besides, I don’t believe that there are ghosts in this world, and we have so many people, even if there are ghosts, I dare not provoke us.”

Anna’s woman seemed to be very confident and didn’t treat mass graves as the same thing. She thought that this trip was like traveling, so she took out a cigarette and started smoking.

The two men beside her didn’t talk, but they looked exactly like Anna’s thoughts.

Seeing this for the rest of their lives, they didn’t say anything anymore, when they really met that kind of thing, they would know what regret is too late to regret.

Chapter: 1385

When Lao Lin came back with Nebula, who had been washed and changed into his clothes, Yu Sheng was a little shocked.

The one who was covered in mud before, looked like a clay figure, and Nebula, who couldn’t distinguish between men and women, was also a beautiful beauty after washing.

The long hair is scattered around the waist because the tip of the hair is dripping because of the fresh washing. The slender eyebrows are tall and slender, giving people a charm that can only be possessed by ancient beauties, although they are wearing simple casual tops and jeans. , But it also has a special flavor when you look at it. It is much more beautiful than the woman named Anna’s facelift.

“Brother Yu, this is my girlfriend. Nebula and we are on the same team. By the way, I don’t think you have any meals? I’ll bring you something to cushion your stomach.” Lao Lin said as he came to his backpack. Unzippered, took out a few bags of compressed biscuits and handed them to Yu Sheng.

In fact, the reason why he came to this place and didn’t bring any dry food is because he is not able to use it for the rest of his life. He has now cultivated to the peak of the great master’s initial stage, and he can hold on even if he does not have food and water for more than ten days. Besides, it only took him a day or two to come here.

It can be seen that this old forest is still very good. He didn't refuse for the rest of his life. Even if he didn't die, he would feel hungry in his stomach. It is better to eat something than nothing.

For the rest of my life, this was just received by Lao Lin, compressing the biscuits, and Anna on the side sneered: "Lao Lin! You have a good heart. The food we bring is limited, and I don't know how long we can shoot here!

Besides, we bought all these things with money. Why should this guy feed him for nothing?"

Lao Lin used a color like Anna to tell her to stop talking, but Anna refused to listen, and ridiculed a few more words, and the words were all targeted words for the rest of his life.

For the rest of his life, he was a little helpless, and he didn't offend this woman again. This woman just made trouble for him. I really don't understand what's going on. Some people are like dogs, who like to bite, bark and ignore her. That's it.

Although I didn't bring anything for the rest of my life when I came here, I always kept money in my pocket. This habit has always been preserved.

Yu Sheng took out several thousand dollars in cash from his pocket and handed it directly to Lao Lin: "Thank you for the food, but you can't just take the money for nothing!"

The pocket is not too big, so I have a few thousand dollars and a black card from the World Bank. It is convenient to go anywhere with some money.

Lao Lin was a little dazed. Looking at the thousands of dollars in his hand, he just gave Yu Sheng a few bags of worthless compressed biscuits. How could he be embarrassed to ask for so much money?

Not to mention that Lao Lin was stunned, Anna on the side was also full of envy, looking at Yu Sheng, she looked like a hillbilly, and she was jealous for a while at the thought that the shot was so lavish.

"Brother Yu! How can I ask for your money? Besides, we are also very destined. Going to the mass graves together, we also have mutual care for each other. The money will be returned to you. If you give it to me, I'm going to turn my face with you." Lao Lin said very seriously, not at all as if he was being polite with the rest of his life.

Upon seeing this, Yu Sheng could only put the few thousand dollars in cash back into his pocket, and Anna on the side whispered: "Damn."

After dinner, the group of six people set off again. After all, they were going to the mass grave before dark, and looking for what he wanted for the rest of their lives. These people continued their shooting without any delay.

Chapter: 1386

When they were only two to three hundred meters away from the mass graves, the group of five people would encounter bumps and bumps, accidentally falling down, or being scratched by branches and hurting their legs.

For the rest of his life, he was on the same footsteps as the other person. There was neither injury nor fall. Among the few people, he was safe.

"This is about to reach the place, now it's just some bumps and bumps, and it's really going to the place. The danger is unpredictable. You have figured it out clearly. It is still too late to go back now." Yu Sheng reminded again.

Even if these people and him are only one side fate, it is very unworthy to watch these people die for 20,000 yuan in vain.

“Brother Yu, I also know that this place is unusual. But I want to really see and see whether there are ghosts in this world. We are supernatural anchors. We have been to many dangerous places, but we have returned without success. Part of the time, they are pretending to be ghosts to deceive fans. It’s always been seen by fans. We have lost a lot of fans. Now our income has decreased a lot. Now we want to take advantage of this opportunity to come to some fans to earn more money and get some fame.” Lao Lin Chen explained that he had concealed anything for the rest of his life.

The fat man on the side covered his mouth and coughed slightly. The troubled Anna was anxious, and immediately became unhappy when he heard Lao Lin say this.

“Lao Lin, you just met him just now, so why tell him everything? It feels like you treat him better than us.”

Lao Lin smiled, and said with some embarrassment: “I think Little Brother Yu is pretty dear. He wants to talk to him about everything. Besides these things are known to fans, and they are not secrets.”

For the rest of my life, I can see that a person like Lao Lin is an honest person who treats people well, and that Nebula looks strangely honest. The reason why he is so beautiful and able to be with Lao Lin is probably because of the good others.

I have persuaded them more than once, but still so persistent, wanting to go to that place, for the rest of my life, I don’t plan to continue to intervene.

When he was about to come to the mass grave, Yu Sheng glanced at the 9:13 on his watch. The mass grave not far away did not have any strange place. It was a huge pit with some depressions. Few bones. After walking for another two minutes, everyone arrived at the place. Everyone felt uncomfortable when they came here, as if being stared at by countless eyes.

But when they think that as long as they stay in this place for one night, there will be 20,000 yuan rewarded by the local fan. If they are lucky, other fans are rewarding, they can earn 30,000 yuan.

“The fat guy is almost half past nine. I have prepared the facilities for shooting. Look at this place, there should really be something like that, right? No matter what! Even if there is one, that local fan will give us 20,000 yuan. Money.” Anna said, tightening her coat tightly, feeling a little frightened, and subconsciously leaned against Zhao Kang.

After making an ok gesture, the fat man began to organize the facilities. When the live broadcast was about to begin, Anna stood at the forefront with an approachable smile on her face, which was a world away from her usual style.

The two most important people in the live broadcast are Anna and Nebula. Both of them are big beauties and can attract the attention of many fans.

Fatty is the main filming crew. In the past, Lao Lin was responsible for the props of some fake ghosts, but Zhao Kang was the boss of a few of them, and the changes were more complicated. In fact, he just sat and watched and managed the live broadcast.

After arriving at the place for the rest of his life, he began to examine the situation of the mass graves.

After arriving at the place, the smell of rotting corpses became more and more serious.

Things have already happened, and these smells still existed for so long. It seems that not only the people who died during that period, but the rest of my life guessed that people who died in the mountains were also thrown here.

“Hello everyone, welcome to Anna’s live broadcast room. At the request of the fans, we came to the most famous mass grave in this mountain. After going through ups and downs along the way, Anna went to the place for the fans.

While on the way, our beautiful girl from Nebula fell from the mountain. Fortunately, there is nothing wrong with people. It is rare to bump into the place when we are about to reach the place. It seems that this place really has a supernatural event, so stay tuned. Let's explore Anna and Nebula down! "

Chapter: 1387

Because the pre-commercials were still very full, but at the beginning there were two or three thousand people in the live broadcast room. At the beginning, there were so many people and the effect was very good. Anna and Nebula were also very motivated.

The barrage below the live broadcast also quickly turned up.

"Beauty Nebula is something wrong, right? Come to my brother to help you see if there is any injury in your body?"

"It is definitely uneasy and kind to visually observe that there is a big scorpion upstairs. Beautiful Nebula, you can't believe what he said to come and come to uncle. Uncle is a medical student and can definitely examine it for you."

"Beauty Anna, you wear a lot of clothes today! Considering that your 36-year-old man feels very uncomfortable."

When the two big beauties started the live broadcast, a small part of the people in the live broadcast room were old-fashioned people, and the other large part was the audience who really wanted to see excitement.

"Does it look ordinary? It's not that scary. Beautiful Anna, did you find a place to fool us?"

"That's right! It's black, there's nothing to see, it's just a big pit. I would have left if there were two beauties."

The barrage below is still developing rapidly. Although the oral reviews are not particularly good, the number of people is increasing. Anna also found two topics that looked pleasing to the eye and answered them.

Looking at the curse below, many people thought they were deceiving, and found a place to fool the audience.

Now I don't do this kind of thing very much, and now I finally came to this place, and the result is not believed, this feeling is not exciting at all.

Just before this time, the local fans who promised that they would play 20 rockets in this place suddenly entered the live broadcast room.

When Anna saw this, she smiled and said enthusiastically: "Brother Liang, you see that we are here too. Is the place you mentioned now to fulfill your previous promise?"

As soon as Anna's voice fell on the screen of the phone, one by one rocket special effects appeared, and she stopped after 20 rockets.

When other viewers saw this situation, they stopped questioning Anna and the others, and just found a place to fool them. Now that Brother Liang has brushed up the present, it means it is true.

The expedition started and there were no supernatural incidents. The mass graves were not too big. It only took more than half an hour to walk around, and only some bones could be seen.

When the number of people in the live broadcast room was the largest, it was barely tens of thousands. Now that there is no excitement, it is almost gone. If it weren't for the two beauties, the number of people would definitely not exceed four digits.

For the rest of my life, knowing that there was no time, I found a place to stay. When the time came, I decided to do it again. Watching them live broadcast, I couldn't help but slander. Today's young people are really dying in a different way!

While the live broadcast was tepid, the fat man suddenly yelled, "Why is Brother Zhao missing? Didn't he still do it there? How come there are no personal images now?"

Hearing what the fat man said, Lao Lin Anna and Xingyun both looked at the place where Zhao Kang had been sitting before. As expected, there was a bench there, and people didn't know where it was.

Yu Sheng on the side also looked in Zhao Kang's direction. He had been paying attention to these people's live broadcast and he had not paid attention to Zhao Kang. This inexplicable disappearance was also a bit strange.

"Fatty, what are you shouting? Maybe Brother Zhao went to the bathroom? Is it necessary to make such a fuss? We have been here for so long, and we haven't encountered anything. We really think there is a ghost in this place!" Anna was shocked when the fat man yelled suddenly, but now she is a little unhappy.

Lao Lin was a little worried. After all, this place is still quite wicked. Although there is no time to encounter any spiritual things, but there are bumps and bumps along the way. It is definitely impossible to say that it is real.

Lao Lin had nothing to do when he was idle, so he started looking for Zhao Kang, shouted a few times to the surrounding bushes and no one responded. After waiting for a while, no one came back. Now everyone knows that he is anxious.

"No, no! No! There is really something dirty in this place, right? Otherwise, let's go, I don't want to die!" Anna was still arrogant before, and now she knows that Zhao Kang is really gone. Panicked again.

"No, there is no one who has found Brother Zhao. How can we leave like this? Let's find Brother Zhao first!" Lao Lin stopped Anna and said that she would not let her go like this.

Speaking, Lao Lin came to Yu Sheng's side and begged him: "Brother Yu, I have a friend I can't find. Can you help me find it?"

If you come to meet someone else, Yu Sheng would definitely not agree, but Lao Lin personally came over to beg him, and Yu Sheng did not refuse to think that others were good.

Chapter: 1388

For the rest of his life, he didn't get up to find someone. Instead, he reminded Lao Lin righteously: "I advise you to leave now, it's almost 12 o'clock, and this place won't be as simple as you see by then. Besides, you are now looking for people scattered around, so things can easily happen. I only remind you if you are a good person. If you don't believe it, I won't care about what happens."

When Yu Sheng was talking to Lao Lin, something went wrong.

"Fat, why are you lying on the ground and eating dirt? Don't scare me. If you are hungry, you still have something to eat in your backpack. Don't eat dirt here and get dirty." Anna pushed her with her hand. Pushing the body of the fat man persuaded.

Although the scene is a bit weird, but this person is a good friend with him, Anna still came forward and asked.

Who ever thought that the fat man ignored Anna's kindness at all, opened Anna's hand and pushed her to the ground.

Anna was a little angry. She was covered with mud, and when she was about to get angry at the fat man, she realized that there was something wrong with the fat man's eyes, which scared him back a few steps.

The fat man was holding the mud in his hands, his eyes were staring at Anna like a hungry wolf, his mouth was still chewing, his mouth was dirty.

“If you bother me again, I’ll eat you!”

Although the person speaking is a fat man, his voice is completely different from the usual fat man’s voice. He can hear the voice. It is the voice of an old man.

Anna knew she was scared, oh my god, she ran towards Lao Lin with an exclamation, hid behind Lao Lin, and said shiveringly:

“Old... Lao Lin, Fatty... Fatty has something wrong. He lay there eating dirt, and the voice he spoke was not his at all. Is this a ghost... a ghost possessed?”

Still looking for Zhao Kang’s Nebula, something went wrong and ran back hurriedly.

After hearing what Anna said, Lao Lin was half-believing. When he really saw the fat man lying on the ground eating dirt, he was also taken aback by the weird scene in front of him.

Even if normal people are hungry, they won’t lie on the ground to eat soil. What’s more, this is the soil of a mass grave. Maybe the soil here is rotted by those who died here before.

“Fatty, what’s wrong with you? You’re going to be sober!” Even though he was a little scared in his heart, Lao Lin left, and pushed Fatty’s body in the past, trying to make him sober.

Who would have thought that the fat man turned his head and said without saying a word, he bit down directly on Lao Lin’s arm, biting off a piece of meat alive.

what!

Lao Lin let out a scream, his aching facial features were distorted while holding a piece of meat off his arm, and there was fine sweat on his forehead.

The fat man was chewing on the meat that was bitten from his mouth. There was blood all over the place. He murmured as he ate, “It’s delicious, it’s delicious, it’s delicious...”

Nebula and Anna on the side were both scared and stupid. They were just women. In such a situation, they would have lost their masters a long time ago.

“Old Lin! Let’s go quickly. I’m afraid I want to go home. I won’t earn this money. I’m so young and I don’t want to die!” Anna said, she cried and wanted to stand up. But there is no strength in the legs.

Although Nebula on the side was frightened, Lao Lin was her boyfriend no matter what, and quickly stepped forward to help him examine the wound, looking at the arm with a piece of flesh missing.

At this time, Yu Sheng also came over, just by looking at the fat man, he could conclude that this guy was upper body by the evil spirit.

“You stay away from him. He is no longer your friend. He has a ghost on him. He just tasted human flesh. Maybe he wants to eat you now.” Yu Sheng reminded.

Chapter: 1389

At first, she was still in a state of uncertainty, but when Anna heard that it was really a ghost, she would be terrified and scream, she wanted to run, but there was no way to get up from the ground.

After Xingyun helped Lao Lin bandage the wound, he hid in his arms and kept shaking. Although Anna’s reaction was not as big as Anna’s reaction, he was also scared in his heart.

Lao Lin didn’t know why Yu Sheng understood this, but this situation also shows that what Yu Sheng said was right. If it were not for the upper body of the ghost, the fat man would not be so abnormal, let alone bite off his arm.

“Little brother Yu, do you understand this? Please, can you help me save my brother?” Lao Lin pleaded with Yu Sheng.

Zhao Kang disappeared, and the fat man was overtaken by a ghost again. He was the last one to save him. A man who has nothing to do must take charge of the overall situation. If he wants to run, he can run with Nebula, but he Don't want to leave the fat man.

Yu Sheng nodded slightly, even Sha he can deal with the upper body of the ghost is just a piece of cake for him.

When I came, Yu Sheng knew that Yu Sheng knew this place was evil, so I drew some rune papers for emergencies, and now it comes in handy.

Yu Sheng took out a piece of talisman paper in the surprised eyes of everyone, and threw the piece of talisman paper casually, and the piece of talisman paper fell accurately on the fat man's forehead.
what!

Accompanied by a stern cry, Fatty's body kept twitching as if suffering from some pain.

This situation didn't last for too long. Suddenly a black shadow emerged from the fat man's body. After coming out, he drilled on the ground and disappeared.

The previous ghost that haunted the fat man moved very fast, and Yu Sheng was about to make a move, and he had already gone underground.

The fat man on the upper body of the ghost had eaten so much soil before, coupled with the lack of Yang Qi, now he is very weak, his lips are white and his face is blue, as if he has lost his life.

"What was the dark shadow just now? Is that a ghost... a ghost?" Anna said shiveringly. This is the first time she has seen a ghost, and her face is not much better than that of a fat man.

Anna was afraid that Nebula was no better than her, and Lao Lin was worried about the fat man's safety, and when he discovered that the dark shadow was hidden underground, he went forward to inspect the fat man's situation.

For the rest of his life, it is impossible to answer Li Anna, so Anna's words are not treated at all, and the air is quiet and scary.

"Hurry up! Those things come out more frequently. It's almost twelve o'clock in the evening. When the time comes, all those things will come out. When the gods arrive, they won't be able to take care of you." Yu Sheng is serious. Said.

Now that this happened, and he was still fat, Lao Lin was convinced by Yu Sheng. If Zhao Kang does not disappear now, they will not be right and the money will go back, but now Zhao Kang is not there, if they just leave like this , What about Zhao Kang?

"Brother Yu, I don't know why I came here. Thank you for saving the fat man just now, but I can't leave my companion just like that. Brother Zhao doesn't know where he is going, we must find him." Lao Lin Said the fat man.

Anna didn't even think that Lao Lin would be so reluctant, now that he is still going to Zhao Kang at this juncture, isn't this letting them die?

"Lao Lin, you used to be nosy, love to do good, pretend to be a big tail wolf and I don't care about you. Now this situation is a matter of life and death, maybe Brother Zhao is dead, let's go quickly!" Anna hated Said to Lao Lin as if iron was not made of steel.

As soon as her voice fell, she suddenly saw a figure not far away. Upon closer inspection, she discovered that the figure was Zhao Kang who had disappeared...

Chapter: 1390

"Brother Zhao, where did you just go? You can't run around in this place, but this place has...yes..."

Anna's tone was a little anxious, and even more complaining, but when she wanted to say it was ghostly At that time, I was still afraid of saying that word.

Now that Zhao Kang has found them, they can finally leave this place now, which can make the fat man a different person, and also bit off a piece of meat from Lao Lin's arm.

Moreover, Yu Sheng also said that there is no time now, and when the time comes, there will be more ghosts here. Although Anna likes money, she doesn't want to give her life here.

Suddenly, Zhao Kang secretly disappeared in the darkness. Now Anna was a little anxious. She got up from the ground and wanted to catch up. At this moment, a hand held her down.

"That person is not Zhao Kang, but a ghost. He wants to lead you over."

Anna heard the voice a little familiar, but when she looked back, she realized that it was the rest of her life that she had met halfway through. There was no time to target this guy in this situation.

Anna said anxiously: "That Brother Zhao was... a ghost? What should we do now? Lao Lin's hard-hearted man will not find Brother Zhao and let us go, I'm afraid I want to go home."

"You can't go, even if you go down the mountain now, it's too late. Although there is not much dirt on the way back, it is more than enough to deal with a few of you ordinary people." Yu Sheng said lightly.

Anna sat down on the ground as if she had lost her soul, murmured in her mouth: "It's over, it's over, this time I'm really going to die here. I should have listened to your persuasion if I knew it, because you didn't earn these 30,000 yuan. Can't come to this place!

I'm still so young, and I still have a lot of youth to enjoy, how can I just die here? I'm not reconciled!"

Anna talked and stared at Yu Sheng, and knelt down directly to Yu Sheng, grabbing his pants and begging: "I saw you can get rid of the dirty stuff from the fat man. You must be a capable person. , Please, save me! It was my fault for you before.

As long as I can live and get out of here, I agree with what you want me to do, please, I really just want to live. "

Yu Sheng looked at Anna who was kneeling on the ground and sighed slightly.

But at this time, Yu Sheng still felt a little unbearable. Even if this Anna had targeted him before, it was only aimed at him, and there was nothing wrong with it, and the crime would not die.

"I will do my best." Yu Sheng said lightly, then took out a piece of talisman paper from his pocket and handed it to Anna: "Take this talisman close to your body, it can ward off evil spirits."

Hearing the words of being able to ward off evil spirits, Anna didn't even think about it, she took the talisman from Yu Sheng's hand and placed it on her chest as if it were a treasure, holding it tightly.

The talisman given to Anna is an evil talisman, which can make some dirty things afraid to approach. He also gave it to Lao Lin and Xingyun just now.

Taking a look at the time on the watch, Yu Sheng walked to Lao Lin's side, patted him on the shoulder, and said, "Your companion may be dead. Take it with you. The talisman I gave you just now, now hurry down to return it. There is a possibility of living. If you insist on staying here, you will definitely die!"

Listening to the tone of Yu Sheng's speech, Lao Lin knew that he was not joking with himself, but he still hesitated, not knowing whether to leave or not.

"Lao Lin is my elder brother. Although he is not a pro elder brother, he is better than a pro elder brother. He is only in his thirties. There is a two-year-old son in the family. , No explanation!" Old Lin covered his face with a tangled look.

"I know you have a good relationship with Brother Zhao, but you also have to think about it. I think about your own family. Let's listen to Mr. Yu's words and leave!" Xingyun next to Lao Lin also persuaded him.

Just as Lao Lin was hesitant, the huge pit of the mass graves changed, and the wailing of ghosts and wolves came from his ears. Hearing people's goosebumps all fell to the ground, the air seemed to drop to a freezing point in an instant, cold. People shivered.

“Can’t leave.” Seeing this situation, Yu Sheng said lightly.
