Chapter: 1781

"Sister Pig...what a weird name is this? So you are a pig!"

Jia Ming listened to Wang Hu's shout, and laughed constantly while holding his belly. It was really funny. He never thought about the playful Zhu Xiaoshu, but he also had a day of eating turtles.

"Jia Ming, I think you are itchy!"

Zhu Xiaoshu became even more angry when he heard this, and stretched out his hands to pull Jia Ming's ears to see if her face turned blue for a while, now that Jia Ming and Wang Hu's hearts are probably cut off.

"It's all right, the girl's house is quieter."

Zhu Qingshan quickly stopped her granddaughter's movements from the side. These little children shouldn't stay together and think about each other every day. It's enough to stay together. It's easy to be bitter and easy to scold.

To stop their childish behavior, Zhu Qingshan, as an adult present, finally asked Wang Hu on the side: "Why are you here? Did you stay here for the rest of your life?"

"No...no." Wang Hu shook his hand frantically. He said, "He didn't tell me for the rest of his life, so he went in, and I'll wait for him here."

Greet this person who looks tall, fat and strong but speaks weakly, just like those five, six or seven-year-old children.

He didn't think he was stupid when he first chatted a few words, but he just felt that his mind stayed at that time and he hadn't grown up. After a few more conversations, he found that he was indeed a little bit stupid.

"According to what he said, it must be my master who rushed in, and then forgot him here." Zhu Xiaoshu curled his lips to the side to take the conversation.

Jia Ming rolled his eyes and said, "You still need to tell such obvious things, as if only you know it."

"Jia Xiaoming! I think you are itchy on your skin."

"I wish Xiaoshu! Would you like to compare who is itchy?"

The two uttered these two big sentences in tandem, and they were quite in agreement. Zhu Qingshan didn't stop him this time, and Wang Hu was shivering on the side, because he had never seen such a grumpy person. Sister and brother.

When he met Sister Zhu last time, Sister Zhu was still very gentle. When did he become like this?

Yu Sheng heard the roar outside the door, the Alliance comforted Magnolia and told him to lie down on the bed obediently and not to walk around.

So he rushed out of the room to see what had happened. When he came out, Zhu Xiaoshu's entire face was flushed, and Jia Ming was swaying and provoking triumphantly.

"What are you two doing?" Yu Sheng looked at them helplessly and asked faintly.

The two heard the following question and the familiar voice, and immediately put away their arrogant appearance, like two big-tailed wolves with their own tails between them.

Zhu Xiaoshu awkwardly tugged at the corners of his mouth, turned his head and said to Yu Sheng: "Master! My voice is particularly uncomfortable recently, and I have a cold. I am practicing my voice."

"Yes, yeah! Master, he was embarrassed to practice alone, and I was with her." Jia Ming came over and patted Zhu Xiaoshu's shoulder. The two brothers looked good, and they couldn't tell at all. Small things are tit-for-tat.

"Really? Are you sure this is the case?" Yu Sheng went on to ask amusedly. The two nodded their heads, and said in unison: "That's it. If you don't believe me, ask my grandfather."

"That's it, if you don't believe me, ask the genius doctor Zhu."

In this way, Zhu Qingshan lay down the gun for no reason, doing nothing or doing anything, but was taken off by his granddaughter and Jia Ming.

Zhu Qingshan looked at the pitiful appearance of the two of them and it was not easy to expose them, so he nodded helplessly and turned back: "Yes, that's it."

"Okay, the old man will definitely stand with you. I asked Wang Hu, his mind is simple and he can't lie."

The girl walked to Wang Hu's side as she spoke, and asked him in a low voice what had happened just now.

Wang Hu looked at the people around him, and under Yu Sheng's firm eyes, he said, "I wish my sister had a quarrel with this brother. The quarrel was so loud, it was really scary."

Hearing this is stupid and naive, but murderous!

If Zhu Xiaoshu had a knife in his hand now, Wang Hu would never want to live tomorrow.

"I'll just tell you! As long as the stupid kid can't tell lies."

Yu Sheng patted Wang Hu on the head and gave an admiring look, then gave Jia Ming and Zhu Xiaoshu a vicious look.

That look seemed to say, let them remember what they did today.

"Master, master, I was wrong. He forced me to do this." Zhu Xiaoshu quickly pointed to Jia Ming, who was shirking his responsibilities when he saw this look.

At this moment, a big man Jia Ming also slumped his mouth, pretending to be like Zhu Xiaoshu and said coquettishly: "Master, I was wrong too. She forced me to do this."

Sure enough, he is a dude, he loves to learn from others, good and bad, and he is especially tricky when he learns.

For the rest of his life, he was dumbfounded by the two of them, and he didn't want to really hold them accountable, or teach them a lesson.

A child is a child, and it is necessary to maintain his own nature. Although both Zhu Xiaoshu and Jia Ming have grown up, they will always be children in the eyes of the rest of their lives.

How can you care about something with the children for the rest of your life?

"Okay, you two look like this, you are not disgusting you two, you two are disgusting me."

Yu Sheng pointed to Zhu Xiaoshu and said, "You go in and stay with your wife. It's okay to walk with her occasionally, but don't have strenuous activities and take good care of her, you know?"

"Yes, Master." The little fellow Zhu Xiaoshu was anxious to leave this place of right and wrong, nodded and rushed to Yu Sheng's room.

Seeing that Zhu Xiaoshu was gone, Yu Sheng sent Jia Ming down to practice martial arts. Then he said to the only doctor Zhu Qingshan who stayed here: "I have to leave you behind and I have to ask you for something."

Yu Sheng pointed to Wang Hu who was standing there, and said to Zhu Qingshan: "You should probably understand him. I want to heal his brain and heal him.

Can't let him stay like this, otherwise, what will happen to life in the future?

The reason for leaving you here is that I want you to help me protect the law.

When the treatment is up, I will use martial arts as a supplement, and I will not pay attention to it. I am afraid that I will confess the lives of both people. They are some children. I can only trouble you. "

Yu Shengyu finished a dalian string with heart, every word he said came from the heart, but the doctor Zhu was shocked when he heard it.

Zhu Qingshan looked at the person in front of him incredulously. What this person in front of him just said was that he wanted to cure a fool?

Is this serious? Stupid people are stupid, he is stupid, naturally there is a string in his mind that is stretched to make him stupid.

Yu Sheng now said that he was going to cure a fool. He seemed to have said the problem so heavily, but he looked at the appearance of the other party firmly holding the power.

Obviously, with full confidence, heal Wang Hu!

It was replaced by who was standing here. Hearing these words, I didn't think it was whimsical.

"I know you are shocked by such a thing, but please don't worry, I won't make fun of myself and his life. Could you please come with me?"

Yu Sheng beckoned to Wang Hu on the side, and then walked to a quiet room with the two people behind him.

It is very quiet and is a place for meditation for the rest of my life. No one will bother you and it is best for this kind of thing.

Wang Hu didn't even think about it. He only knew that it was good to follow Yu Sheng. He hurriedly followed Yu Sheng, keeping a good distance not far away, so as not to bump into Yu Sheng.

I wish Qing Shan, you will follow, don't look at him getting older, but walking like those young people, walking like a young man.

His whole person is particularly flustered and nervous now, and he can see this feat of curing a stupid person in his lifetime.

No matter which healer can see his heart will be extremely excited.

Healers want to explore all kinds of incurable diseases, which are incurable, and they always maintain enthusiasm and interest in such things.

Sure enough, there is nothing wrong with Yu Sheng, this young man will take himself to see the broader sky.

Chapter: 1783

Xuan Tianzong, quiet room in the backyard.

The ground was full of precious medicinal materials, and the fragrance of Chinese medicinal materials overflowed. Zhu Qingshan looked at the two people sitting among the medicinal materials, rubbing his hands anxiously in his heart.

It has been a day and a night since the treatment of the two of them, and the cell phone of the rest of his life was turned off, and the people of the sect had not been able to find him after searching for a day.

Finally, I found that even Zhu Qingshan and Wang Hu were no longer there. I called Zhu Qingshan. Only then did I know that Yu Sheng was administering Wang Hu's mind, and the phone was turned off, and they couldn't receive the call.

The medicinal materials on the ground are Zhu Qingshan's favorites on weekdays, but he is not interested in these medicinal materials now. He looked at the time for a while, and then looked at the Yusheng Wanghu, and he was too busy to handle it.

"If it succeeds, it will be a feat, and I am the one who witnessed the birth of the feat."

Zhu Qingshan kept holding his eyes closed all day and night, and the whole person was extremely excited. It was the kind of worry and excitement that was really contradictory.

Time was fast, and another morning passed unconsciously.

The two people who were sitting still like Buddha finally made some moves. Zhu Qingshan saw the fingers of the rest of his life and moved slightly, and then Wang Hu opened his eyes fiercely.

"You...you finally woke up." Zhu Qingshan was very excited and hurried forward.

Wang Hu smiled slightly, and he whispered softly: "I wish the genius doctor is awake, and I am still awake for the rest of my life. He has spent martial arts blessings, and he is too tired to take a rest."

Wang Hu's words were reasonable and well-founded, and his lips were soft, Zhu Qingshan unexpectedly saw such a little gentle temperament in this four hundred catties fat man.

Zhu Qingshan felt that he must be crazy. He watched the Wang Hu in front of him attentively. The Wang Hu in front of him was very different from the Wang Hu the day before yesterday.

His eyes swept away from the stupidity of the day before yesterday, and all that was left was Qingming, and the youthful vigor as he is now.

Zhu Qingshan instantly became excited again from the original bewilderment. He came over to take a look at Wang Hu and said in disbelief: "You're really better, you're really not stupid."

"I... what happened to me before?" Wang Hu's mind was dizzy. He remembered the past, but he didn't remember clearly.

Seeing his appearance, Zhu Qingshan immediately came over to explain to him that he had already asked Wang Hu about something.

Wang Hu was able to answer a lot of things, all he remembered, but he had completely forgotten what he had done.

For the rest of his life, this is to cure a person, and the cure can also make the person forget that he was once stupid. Who can believe this message?

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, if he had guarded for so many days, if he hadn't seen the rest of his life treatment with his own eyes, Zhu Qingshan would probably say he was idiotic and dreaming just like those laymen.

Yes, lay people. Those people are lay people. Others can't. The rest of their lives that others can't can do. For the rest of their lives, they are a god-man.

Zhu Qingshan looked at the rest of his life with his eyes still closed. At this moment, his eyes were full of worship, and at the same time, there was a little bit of enthusiasm.

“Don’t look at him anymore. He is asleep, lest you wait and wake him up.”

Seeing this, Wang Hu smiled helplessly and said, “Although, I don’t quite understand the past. , But I don’t really want to know what to do now, is to send him back to the room to rest first.”

Wang Hu pointed at Yu Sheng with his eyes closed, and spoke to Zhu Qingshan.

Zhu Qingshan heard this and immediately nodded in agreement: “Yes, yes...

After these two days, I must be tired. I will send you down to rest.”

When the words were over, Zhu Qingshan stretched out his hand and wanted to support the rest of his life, but people still had to admit defeat. He was too old to have enough strength, and he simply couldn’t support the rest of his life. Wang Hu, who was on the side, gave him a hand, which helped him up for the rest of his life.

Chapter: 1784

When the rest of my life was awake, it was already night, the sky was already dark, the stars also climbed up the sky, and the bright moon was high.

He opened his eyes tiredly and looked around. The layout of the surroundings was very familiar. It was his room.

Yu Sheng squeezed his hands and sat up from the bed. As soon as he lowered his head, he saw a small group of white magnolias sleeping beside the bed.

Sleeping next to her obediently, she knew that Yulan was beside her, but she was not seen for the rest of her life.

Yu Sheng looked at her now, touched her little head with affection, and called out easily: “Magnolia~Magnolia~”

The other party slept too well, and no matter what the rest of his life called, there was no response. The rest of his life felt a little worried about the pulse of Magnolia. The pulse was stable and there was nothing wrong with it.

Only then did Yu Sheng put his heart back in his stomach, he got up directly from the bed, and stretched out his hand to take the Magnolia who was sleeping next to the bed back to the bed.

He moved very quickly, and he held Magnolia in his arms in an instant. Even though he was pregnant now, Magnolia was very thin, and he held it extremely lightly.

“Why is it so light?” Yu Sheng said with a frown.

“What? Why is it so light?”

Bai Yulan opened her eyes slightly, looking at the man’s chin holding her in confusion, smelling a familiar smell, Bai Yuren’s hands were ringed directly on Huan Yusheng’s neck, and the two of them moved at this time. Very close.

Yu Sheng lowered his head and the eyes of the two met, Yu Sheng said helplessly with a smile in his eyes: “I mean why you are so light and don’t eat more, where will the baby get nourishment in the future.”

Hugging Magnolia’s waist, because she was very thin, her hand just touched Magnolia’s belly, and she touched it lovingly for the rest of her life.

Sometimes, for the rest of my life, I wonder if Magnolia is so thin, can it really be able to give birth to a child?

Because there are countless women who gave birth and died in the delivery room, even though Magnolia has martial arts, when you love someone deeply, you will unconsciously worry about things that haven’t happened yet, and take precautions for the unknown.

This is all because there is a lover in my heart, and I have ribs, so I think of so many retreats.

For the rest of his life, he liked children very much and there was no mistake, because it was the inheritance of life, but he was a mother who loved children more than children.

Seeing that Yu Sheng’s face was a little wrong, Magnolia’s entire hairy head rushed towards Yu Sheng’s chest. She asked, “What’s wrong with you? Why do you look like this?”

“I am a little worried about you. You have a baby now. I always worry about you like this.” Yu Sheng rubbed her head and said bluntly.

He has never been a person who likes to hide his thoughts. When he was with Magnolia, he said one thing to Magnolia.

That is, when the two of them are together, you must tell each other if you have anything, don’t hide it.

How many lovers do not tell each other because they encounter certain things, causing an inevitable tragedy in the future.

He really likes Magnolia, and has always believed that Magnolia is the woman who will accompany him to the end, so he dissects himself bit by bit and puts it in front of Magnolia.

Seeing Yu Sheng frowning, Bai Yulan felt very distressed, she retracted the hand that was holding Yu Sheng, and then bit by bit to smooth Yu Sheng’s frowning brows.

“Don’t keep frowning, you have become a little old man, don’t worry, as long as I have you by my side, I will always be fine.”

Magnolia’s voice was soft and gentle like a stream by the river, moisturizing Yu Sheng’s heart bit by bit, making Yu Sheng’s blocked heart instantly comfortable and cheerful.

Yu Sheng hugged the woman in her arms and bowed her head and said, "Okay."

The two warmed up for a while, but the next second Magnolia suddenly beat him on the shoulder, causing it to be inexplicable for the rest of his life.

"What's the matter?" Yu Sheng asked puzzledly.

I didn't know that when I just fell, the woman in her arms suddenly burst into tears.

Magnolia stretched out her hand to wipe her tears and said, "You will never disappear for so many days like this time. Do you know how worried I am when I look everywhere and you can't find it."

This person finally returned safely from the Wang family's sect, but when he had just entered, he suddenly disappeared for nearly two days.

I couldn't find it no matter how to find it, and the phone couldn't get through.

Bai Yulan was pregnant with her pregnancy and her worries became even greater, and she suffered from insomnia last night and couldn't sleep all night. After listening to Magnolia's explanation, Yu Sheng then knew what was going on.

Yu Sheng explained with a guilty conscience: "I was also because of the treatment of Wang Hu..."

He didn't finish speaking, so he was interrupted by Magnolia. Magnolia rolled her eyes and said to him, "If I knew you were because of Wang Hu, do you think this thing could be ended so easily? ?"

If she disappeared for the rest of her life, Magnolia would have troubled him a long time ago. How could she have only said these few things until now.

Don't Mess with this Son-in-Law Chapter: 1785

Chapter: 1785

Seeing the woman's serious expression, Yu Sheng knew that it would be more wrong to say this, and it would also stimulate the pregnant Magnolia. He stopped immediately, stopped arguing with Magnolia, and listened quietly to the woman's chatter.

Other people may be particularly annoying, women's chattering, feeling particularly noisy, particularly speechless.

However, Yu Sheng will not, Yu Sheng likes to listen to Magnolia's talk, because it is caring for himself.

The white magnolia, who is cold and cold outside like a fairy, has a unique and different side in front of him. It makes me happier thinking about it for the rest of my life.

"I told you that you heard nothing, you must pay attention, or the baby will be born...Anyway, you must remember what I said."

Seeing that she had been talking for a long time, Bai Yulan had no reaction at all for the rest of her life, and she slapped him on the shoulder again angrily.

"Good, good... I remember, don't get angry anymore, okay?"

Yu Sheng squeezed the small fist that hit him, his eyes overflowing with love, and his mouth comforted the woman not to get angry.

Bai Yulan noticed Yu Sheng's eyes, and the eyes of her whole person also dodged immediately, and a flush of red appeared on her face, as red as the afterglow of the setting sun.

"Although you still don't officially marry me, but you are already an old husband and wife, can you not always be so shy?" Yu Sheng raised his brows and said in her ear deliberately. There was a big breath in the ear.

It was a rush of heat, directed at Magnolia's neck, his entire neck stiffened and itchy at the same time.

"You give me less poverty, and then I will be angry."

Magnolia stretched out her hand and pushed Yu Sheng, her whole person struggling to leave his arms and go to bed, but the power between men and women was huge after all, no matter how hard she struggled, she couldn't leave Yu Sheng's embrace.

When you call me, there will always be some people coming to make trouble. The two people in the room are affectionate, and the knocks outside the room are endless. Magnolia pushed Yu Sheng. She said: "You don't know who it is if you don't hurry over and see? Is there anything urgent?"

"There should be something urgent, right?" Yu Sheng looked out the door with deep eyes, but unfortunately through a closed door, there was nothing in sight, only a few more breaths could be clearly felt outside.

The matter of Xuantianzong is still not found behind the scenes, and it has been delayed. Wang Hu's matter has been resolved, and there is basically nothing wrong with it now! The rest of my life thought to myself.

"How do you know that something is wrong if you don't go and see? You hurry out and have a look."

While losing her mind for the rest of her life, Bai Yulan escaped from his arms, lying on the bed, pulling the quilt to wrap herself tightly, and at the same time urging him to go out and see what happened.

Yu Sheng saw this movement of her, amusedly lowered his head and dropped a kiss on the side of her face, and then walked out.

The door was opened when Yu Sheng looked outside, and saw his two apprentices Zhu Xiaoshu and Jia Ming, followed by a chubby man, Wang Hu. Seeing this for the rest of his life, he asked puzzledly: "Did something happen? Let the three of you come together?"

Yes! If it wasn't for what happened, why did the three of them come together? Yu Sheng turned around and closed the door, slowly walking towards the three of them, Zhu Xiaoshu and Jia Ming who stood in front shook their heads one after another, and then pointed at Wanghu.

"What's the matter with us, it's that guy who wants to see your master."

"Wang Hu wants to see me?" After hearing this, Yu Sheng turned his gaze to Wang Hu. Wang Hu's eyes were clear. Although he looked chubby, his temperament was different from the previous few days.

Yu Sheng stepped forward and patted him on the shoulder, and glanced around at close range: "Brother, how do you feel?"

The rest of his life called out cordially, his mouth was wide open with two big white teeth, it could be seen that he was very happy looking at Wang Hu today.

Don't Mess with this Son-in-Law Chapter: 1786

Chapter: 1786

Wang Hu didn't speak, he knelt before Yu Sheng abruptly, and said, "Thank you, Yu Sheng."

"I heard a lot of things you did for me, and I felt a lot of things in my heart. I have a lot of words to thank you, but I think it's too hypocritical for a man to say these things.

Except for a thank you, I never think I can say anything again. For the rest of my life, as long as you need me, I will always be there. I will be the cow and horse for you in this life, and I will follow you. "

Wang Hu's words are heartfelt and heartfelt, and he is deeply grateful. His words are also very uncomfortable for the rest of his life.

Having been silly for so many years, suddenly sober, Wang Hu faced this strange place, listening to those things that had happened before, whether he was confused, confused, and helpless.

Yu Sheng stretched out his hand to pull Wang Hu up on the ground and hugged him. Wang Hu was too fat, and Yu Sheng was not a thin person. Now he is standing with Wang Hu and looks really slim.

"Don't say such things, how can we be bullies and horses? We are brothers and we are friends. I do this just to hope that your future life will be more open. I never thought about asking you to do something for me."

Both of those who said this were sad, yeah! They are brothers! They are people who can be self-friends when Wang Hu is stupid!

They never thought about asking the other party for anything, they just unconditionally and intuitively treat each other well and do things that can make each other good.

"I know, I know everything you say, because I know, so I..."

Wang Hu wanted to say something, but he couldn't say it again later, and the whole person's voice seemed to be dumb at that moment.

Since the whole person woke up, Wang Hu's mood was very complicated. His own uncle made a fool of himself and abandoned himself. However, his friend took himself home, healed his brain, and made himself look like Live like a normal person.

The relatives who have blood relationship are like this, but the friends who have met are like this. How can this make Wang Hu not sad.

I used to be stupid and didn't understand, but now people understand when they are sober, and because they understand, they feel uncomfortable.

If he can, Wang Hu really hopes that he can be stupid for a lifetime, but he doesn't want to be stupid for a lifetime. If he is stupid for a lifetime, how worried they should be!

"It's okay, you don't need to say so much between you and me, you can understand it without saying it!"

Yu Sheng motioned to Wang Hu to stop speaking. By looking at his expression and the words he stopped abruptly, he knew how uncomfortable he was going on.

As a good friend, how am I willing to look at another good friend so sad.

Wang Hu nodded and suffocated the tears in his eyes: "Okay, don't say so much, anyway, in the future! I'll be by your side, don't despise me!"

"How come you, a master, will be by my side, I am too happy to be too late."

Yu Sheng chuckled lightly, saying that he would not.

After that, Yu Sheng said solemnly: "You don't have to have so much psychological burden. We are friends and brothers! As long as you want, you can always be by my side, and Xuan Tianzong will always be you. s home."

I brought him out of the Wang family's sect. Wang Hu, the Wang family's sect, couldn't go back. After coming out from there, Wang Hu was a person who had no family to return.

When Yu Sheng thought about this, he was actually very guilty, so he said that Xuantianzong would always be Wang Hu's home, and he also hoped that Wang Hu would treat this as his home.

When Zhu Xiaoshu listened to the words next to her, she burst into tears and said with a small mouth flat: "Yes! This is your home, and we are family."

It's really a day when I am striving for the friendship and love of my master every day. What kind of fairy friendship is this?

It's so good to cry. Zhu Xiaoshu tilted his head and buried it on Jia Ming's shoulder. Tears slipped from his cheeks and got half of Jia Ming's sleeves wet.

Don't Mess with this Son-in-Law Chapter: 1787

Chapter: 1787

“Dirty!”

Feeling the wetness of his shoulders, Jia Ming pushed away Zhu Xiaoshu who was leaning on him, muttering in his mouth with disgust on his face.

Wang Hu and Yu Sheng were shocked when they heard this, saying this to a woman, wouldn't they just wait and be beaten?

The two of them turned their heads one after another and looked at Jia Ming and Zhu Xiaoshu. As expected, when Zhu Xiaoshu heard this, it was revealed that the two immediately quarreled.

“Dirty? It makes you so clean. You smell your own big sour smell. It's fine if I don't dislike you. You are even embarrassed to dislike me?”

Zhu Xiaoshu's small mouth was like a machine gun, Barabara talked non-stop, and followed Jia Ming with his hand pointing and scribbling all over.

What does Jia Ming want to refute? However, Zhu Xiaoshu was stunned back soon. When Zhu Xiaoshu's firepower was reopened, Jia Ming said that she couldn't help but stand there shivering and let her speak.

Yu Sheng looked at it and shook his head, then smiled helplessly. How could his two apprentices now feel more and more like the atmosphere of a happy enemy.

“Isn't it okay for them to keep arguing like this?” Wang Hu's face froze from the side. After he became sober, it was the first time he saw the quarrel between the two.

The quarrel was very emotional, and he talked about Yu Sheng, wanting Yu Sheng to step forward to stop Zhu Xiaoshu and Jia Ming from arguing.

Yu Sheng waved his hand indifferently and said, “It's nothing, I won't make a noise when they have enough noise.”

For the rest of his life, he really got used to the quarrel between his two apprentices, and I didn't even feel anything when I saw it. I would advise you when I first started.

Seeing that Yu Sheng had said so, Wang Hu didn't speak any more. The two of them stood there and watched the quarrel between them. There were only two sunflower seeds left. What a crowd eating melons.

Zhu Xiaoshu was panting because of the quarrel. After she had done enough frying and realized what she had done, she turned her head awkwardly and smiled at Yu Sheng.

“Master, I'm not to blame, he owes it too much.”

Zhu Xiaoshu pointed at Jia Ming as he said, and kept shaking his head and said that it had nothing to do with him, it was all Jia Ming's fault.

“Ancestor, are you embarrassed to say this? Do you want to face it?” Jia Ming was scolded without saying anything, and in the end he was embarrassed, angrily complained at Zhu Xiaoshu.

Zhu Xiaoshu: “Why am I embarrassed? This matter was originally your fault, so you are ashamed to say me.”

“Enough, you two don’t want to quarrel with me anymore.” Yu Sheng was so quarreled that his forehead hurts, so he directly punished the two and threw them down.

The two little troublesome spirits are gone, and today’s affairs are over. Yu Sheng took out the mobile phone in his bag and checked the time.

At around 9 o’clock in the evening, Yu Sheng said to Wang Hu: “Okay, go and rest. Don’t think too much in the future. Just treat this as a home, just like the two of them.”

Yu Sheng pointed to the two little apprentices who had just been blasted down by him. These two were really awkward.

The ages are almost the same, and they have also been used to grow up since childhood. It is really no one to let anyone, a dude, a naughty girl.

“I will, don’t worry.” Wang Hu nodded at Yu Sheng, saying that he would, so that he doesn’t have to worry about himself.

After Wang Hu left, Yu Sheng opened the door and returned to the house.

After he entered the house, he heard a steady sound of breathing.

When she got to the bed, Magnolia had already fallen asleep unknowingly, her eyes closed deftly and her eyelashes were particularly slender.

Yu Sheng stretched out his hand, scraped Magnolia’s nose lovingly, fixed his eyes on her belly, and then withdrew his eyes and hands.

After sleeping for a whole day, the whole person’s bones fell asleep, and the rest of his life was arranging the quilt for Magnolia and left the room.

He decided to practice martial arts, after all, he couldn’t sleep now, and there was no need for Song Huiyu to deal with those things in the sect. He just had time to practice.

His martial arts have been stagnant for a while because of his busy schedule. The doctor is preparing to hit the bottleneck!

Don't Mess with this Son-in-Law Chapter: 1788

Chapter: 1788

The next day, the rising sun was born.

For the rest of his life after practicing martial arts for a whole night, he stared at the rising sun in the distance and lost his senses.

Yu Sheng stretched out his hand and grabbed it into the void, looking at his movement and direction, as if he wanted to catch the rising sun.

"The sky is shattering, the sun is rising, and the darkness has nowhere to hide!" Yu Sheng whispered with lips open.

What he said is not only suitable for the situation, but also a little uncomfortable. It always feels that it is inexplicable and confusing.

In the silent space, there was a sudden ringing of a mobile phone and the vibration of the mobile phone. Yu Sheng stretched out his hand and took the mobile phone out of his bag, and looked down at the call from Du Fei.

The hand quickly slashed away, and then put it to the ear to answer, the familiar voice came from the microphone of the mobile phone.

Du Fei said on the other side of the phone: "Yu Sheng, are you back from Wang's sect now? I have something to talk to you."

Yes, Yu Sheng has been busy since returning from Wang's sect, and he has never told Du Fei that he has returned.

Therefore, Du Fei didn't know that Yu Sheng had returned from Wang's sect. Yu Sheng listened to the opposite, thinking about something in his heart, Du Fei needed to talk to himself personally.

"I have come back. It has been two days since I arrived at the sect. Do you need me to come and find you? Or do you come and find me directly?" Yu Sheng asked over the phone.

"Come and find me. I used to be inconvenient on your side. Moreover, even though they are all my own, it is a bit bad to go to Xuantianzong in my capacity."

Du Fei is the king of underground forces in Guizhou. He was originally a person who acts in the dark, but things like Zongmen are on the bright side, upright and sacred, which is desirable.

Although Du Fei was the Deputy Sect Master, he was always afraid that he would tarnish the reputation of Xuantianzong. Although Yu Sheng didn't care, he was still very worried.

Except for something that must come, Du Fei seldom stepped into the door of Xuantianzong, and the rest of his life didn't know Du Fei's knot.

Du Fei couldn't come, his only thought was that Du Fei was too busy.

"Xingba, then you just leave it there and wait for me, and I will come over as soon as I tell my fiancée."

A certain little woman just complained to herself last night, if she waits for a moment when she goes out without telling her, she can't find herself again, she must be worried again.

Especially the other party is still pregnant, and for the rest of my life I don't want her to worry about it.

"Yes, then I'll wait for you to come over." Du Fei expressed his understanding, and then hung up the phone.

Du Fei hung up the phone, Yu Sheng shook his head to make himself more awake, left the practice room, and walked towards his room in the backyard. The air in the early morning was particularly fresh, and I took a big breath, and I was in a good mood. The air was still sweet and sweet.

Yu Sheng came to the room to look for Magnolia, but no one could find Magnolia after turning around. The quilt was folded neatly, and everything around was also neatly placed and spotlessly clean.

It was obvious that someone had just cleaned it. Yu Sheng frowned. Where did Magnolia go? She is pregnant now, and she can walk occasionally, but don't run around.

Walking outside the house, the rest of his life was about to look for Magnolia. As soon as he opened the door, he saw a person standing at the door, and that person was Magnolia.

Magnolia's eyes were red, she looked like she had cried, and her nose was also pitifully twitching.

"What's wrong with you? Where did you go?" Yu Sheng saw her look like this, and hurried forward.

She stretched out her hand to straighten out her messy hair, Yu Sheng asked softly: "Did something happen? Why do you cry?"

Magnolia didn't answer his words, she turned around and hugged Yu Sheng tightly, whimpered quietly, crying very sadly.

Hearing how sad she was crying, Yu Sheng didn't know how to comfort her. He could only hold her, pat her shoulder constantly, and whispered, "Don't cry, don't cry, I am here."

After a long time, Magnolia stopped her crying. After repeated questioning for the rest of her life, she knew why Magnolia was crying. The reason for crying was simply because she couldn't find herself.

The rest of my life made me laugh and cry, and said to her: "I don't even run anywhere, just to practice martial arts, how can I become more sentimental when I am pregnant? Don't cry, I will tell you wherever I go."

Soothing Magnolia's emotions, after eating breakfast with her, Yu Shengzhi talked about her appointment with Du Fei.

Let Bai Yulan wait in the sect obediently, go to see Du Fei by herself and come back after talking about the matter.

Magnolia itself is not an unreasonable coaxing person, on the contrary, she is very empathetic, nodded after hearing this, and urged Yu Sheng to hurry up to avoid Du Fei waiting in a hurry.

Now this point happens to be the working hours of office workers. There is no traffic jam on the road. For the rest of his life, he drove the car and came to Bauhinia Mansion without hindrance.

He skillfully parked the car in the underground garage of Bauhinia Washington, then got on the elevator, pressed the elevator floor, and went straight to Du Fei's office area.

As soon as I came in, I found that all the people were busy in their posts, and occasionally a few passing by came across Yu Sheng, and would greet Yu Sheng softly.

Others are busy working with their heads down, and they don't know who is here.

I passed them for the rest of my life and walked to the deepest place. I didn't seem to be so busy when I came here some time ago. Why is it so busy today? I don't know what happened to Du Fei.

Coming to the door of Du Fei's office, Yu Sheng stretched out his hand and knocked on the door. The knock was crisp. The people inside heard the knock and immediately whispered to the outside: "Come in."

Hearing the soft call, Yu Sheng immediately opened the door and walked in. Du Fei was holding a pen and was constantly writing and drawing on the file. He didn't even look up to see who the person was?

Only felt a burst of fiery gaze, staring at himself, Du Fei said: "If you have something to say, hurry up, and if something happens, go out."

As soon as he said this, Yu Sheng knew that he regarded himself as a staff member, and Yu Sheng reached out and knocked on the desk.

He said amusedly: "You called me, and you are telling me to go now. Don't call me later and call me back."

As soon as his voice fell, Du Fei lifted up from his desk and looked at the visitor. When he saw that the visitor was indeed Yu Sheng, he immediately curled his lips and smiled: "Even if I call you back later, you still have to come back, right? ?"

"Sit down quickly. Calling you over today is a big event."

Du Fei put away his hippie smile, let Yu Sheng sit down in a serious manner, then turned around and walked to the password box behind him.

After a while, the lockbox was opened, Du Fei took out what he wanted from it, and closed the lockbox by his hand.

This thing is a file. The file was laid out in front of Yu Sheng. Du Fei said: "You asked me to check it. I have basically found it out. The process of checking is really not easy. Take a good look, I think you will be shocked after reading it."

Upon hearing the words, Yu Sheng immediately looked at these files, his face changed drastically while looking at his face, from the indifferent at first to the shocked, there was no wave behind.

After reading all the files, Yu Sheng suddenly sighed and said: "If you can find this kind of thing easily, I should doubt if you are in the same group with this group of people. It's messing with me and putting these things in front of me, just to set me up another trap."

The files Du Fei showed to Yu Sheng this time were about the Bai Family and the Xuantian Gate. The relationship between them was intricate and complicated, and many things had been done to cover it up.

And this person who was involved in the rest of his life and the Bai family behind the scenes was precisely someone they didn't know and had no contact with.

Looking at the information on the file, Yu Sheng could clearly understand how powerful the other party was. He couldn't understand why this group of people would mess with himself, he didn't remember that he had anything to do with this group of people!

"If I were you, I would have this kind of thinking. For the rest of your life, what you have to do now is tell me honestly how you offended these people."

Du Fei came to Yu Sheng's side, squeezed his shoulders, and told him to tell the truth to himself.

Yu Sheng helplessly patted his shoulder and said, "Do you believe me if I tell the truth?"

"I don't even know them, how do I know when I offended them? And I really rarely touch people at that level."

What Yu Sheng said was true. When he saw these files, he was stunned. He had no idea what reason the other party dealt with him against the Bai family.

"I believe in you." Du Fei said lightly on the side.

Yes! He believes in his friends.

As long as Yu Sheng says there is no existence, it is no existence.

For the rest of my life, I will not lie to myself, and I don't believe my friends.

Should I trust a group of strangers I don't know?

"Thank you! Brother." Yu Sheng turned his head and gave Du Fei an affectionate hug.

Although he knew the black hand behind the scenes, Yu Sheng really couldn't figure out when he had offended such a group of people.

The Chen family, the marriage partner of the Xu family, the first family in the hidden Sejong gate, is behind them.

He remembered that he had no intersection with this group of people, and that this group of people did not come to the secular world all year round. They looked down on the small place of the secular world, and they established Xuan Tianzong in the secular world.

Even if they are valued by the Lord, as long as they are in the secular world, they will not grab their big cake. What is their purpose for doing this?

“I don’t need to explain to you too much, I think you should also understand how huge the power behind this family is.”

Du Fei talked about another file and said earnestly: “I didn’t find this information before. It was someone who happened to meet me, and it was exposed at the time. I think they will come to the door openly soon. ”

Passing the file to Yu Sheng, Du Fei motioned to Yu Sheng to look through it quickly, and Yu Sheng began to look at the file under Du Fei’s eyes.

Turning over the outer layer, Yu Sheng saw the things displayed inside. They were all photos. There was a person on it that Yu Sheng felt very familiar, and seemed to have seen it somewhere.

Seeing Yu Sheng’s doubts, Du Fei hurriedly explained to him: “This man is the eldest son of the Chen family’s generation. It is said that he is a genius. This time, what happened to the Bai family and Xuan Tianzong is related to him. The one from the Bai family was even planned by him himself. I suspect he was the one who bumped into Jia Ming, because he likes to wear black clothes the most. ”

“The eldest son of the Chen family? The one called Chen Tianming?” Yu Sheng frowned. He remembered why he had a familiar feeling, because he had seen this Chen Tianming at the Great Heaven Conference.

I just saw it and didn’t have a match, because this Chen Tianming withdrew halfway while participating in the atmosphere of the sky, saying that he was unwell.

At that time, many people felt sorry for him, and they missed the Hengtian Conference, and they didn’t know that they would have to wait a few more years.

This is such a person, why does he have to find so many things for himself? Is he alone trying to find things for himself, or is it the Chen family behind this? Yu Sheng looked at the photos with deep eyes and fell into deep thought.

“Jia Ming, once told me that when something like this happened at the Zongmen, it was because a man in black who couldn’t see his face hit him, which caused him to lose the opportunity to find evidence.

Later, a message came from Jia Rou that when she was investigating the affairs of the Bai family, she met the man in black that her brother said, and compared the surveillance to the same person. ”

Yu Sheng stretched out his hand and clicked on the photo and said, “Now we have determined that this so-called mysterious man in black is Chen Tianming, then what is the purpose of this Chen Tianming?"

"I can guarantee that I have never had any intersection with him. Since I don't socialize with him, why would he do such a thing?"

"Okay, don't worry about it. Look at your frowning man, just like that old man."

Du Fei patted Yu Sheng's shoulder to relax him a bit, and at the same time he did not forget to comfort him: "Some people have brain diseases. right?"

"Maybe that Chen Tianming is this kind of person. Normal people like us cannot understand their brain circuits."

Du Fei chuckled lightly and joked. He said it lightly, but the expression on his face was not the same, his expression was extremely heavy.
