

Chapter 5, Don't Mess with this Son-in-Law, Don't Mess with this Son-in-Law novel, Dont, Mess,

"Who are you? What do you do?" Xia Jun raised his head and frowned as he looked up at the rest of his life who had suddenly entered his office.

"President Xia, he is a security guard for the rest of his life in the Security Department. He insists on seeing you. I can't stop him." The secretary hurriedly chased Yu Sheng in to explain.

She looked at Yu Sheng with an angry face, and she hadn't seen such a man of demeanor before, so she pushed her away without letting him in.

"security guard?"

Xia Jun frowned, a look of anger appeared on his face, "Where are the two of Yu Hu?"

He was talking about his two bodyguards.

He didn't believe that his two bodyguards were outside the door, and a security guard could rush in.

"They went to the bathroom," the secretary said.

Xia Jun frowned and looked at Yu Sheng.

"You can fire me for no reason, but why don't you pay me the salary? You don't even refund the deposit? Mr. Xia, please give me an explanation." Yu Sheng walked to Xia Jun and sat down, looking at Xia indifferently. military.

"What's the situation?" Xia Jun looked at the secretary. Remember http in one second:

A security guard ran to his office to coax, what is this?

Xia Jun's eyes were obviously angry.

"Mr. Xia, it's like this. The fact that Yu Sheng's wife put a green hat on him spread all over the city. Quancheng people are laughing at Yu Sheng, and our company employees are also discussing this matter.

Security manager Li Jian felt that this incident had too much impact, so he came to ask for instructions to expel the rest of his life, so as not to affect the image of our company. At that time, you still didn't come, so I agreed for you. "The secretary explained.

Xia Jun turned his eyes to Yu Sheng, with a touch of disdain in his eyes.

To be a man to do this, he feels sad for the rest of his life.

“For the rest of your life, right? Your family affairs have seriously affected our company’s image, so it is natural to fire you.” Xia Jun said.

“I have no opinion on expelling me, please settle my salary.” Yu Sheng said indifferently.

“The company has always stipulated that the expelled employees can’t even refund their deposits, and they will definitely not be paid again.” Xia Jun frowned, his face already ugly.

“Mr. Xia, do you also think that I am just a little security guard, very good bully?” Yu Sheng smiled.

Xia Jun frowned, Yu Sheng’s attitude made him very upset.

“I said, this is the company’s regulations. If you don’t go out again, don’t blame me for being impolite!” Xia Jun was a little angry.

“Okay, after taking my salary deposit, you still have to be rude to me.”

Yu Sheng looked at Xia Jun with a smile on his face, and said, “General Manager Xia is Manager Xia, and he deserves to be the richest man in Qiancheng, he is awesome.

But I am also a principled person, and I cannot take away the things that belong to me.

I’m going to see how Mr. Xia treats me impolitely today. “

“presumptuous!”

Xia Jun yelled, challenging his majesty for the rest of his life.

As soon as he shouted, the office door opened, and two tall and mighty young men rushed in.

It was Xia Jun’s two bodyguards.

“Yu Sheng, you’re a f*****g trash who can’t even look at your own wife. You don’t dare to say anything when you are wearing a green cap. What are you fighting against me?”

“Boom out for me!”

A rubbish thing that even his wife can't watch, dare to come to coax him in the office. This is going to be spread out. Isn't it embarrassing to him?

Such a small role, let him collapse, and he can't make any fart.

As soon as his voice fell, the two mighty bodyguards were on one side, grabbing Yu Sheng's shoulders, trying to throw Yu Sheng Sheng out.

There was a fierce stern in Yu Sheng's eyes, half a step behind his body, raised his hands, and grabbed one of their wrists with one hand.

“哧!”

“哧!”

The two crisp sounds of broken hand bones sounded almost at the same time, and the muffled sound of two big men suddenly came.

The right wrists of both of them were broken instantly by the rest of their lives.

At this moment, the two of them were holding their wrists in pain, and their eyes were full of fear when they looked at Yu Sheng.

They are all mercenaries from the battlefield in the Middle East, and ten people usually don't even think about getting close to them.

Unexpectedly, when the two of them shot at the same time, they were broken their wrists by a young man who looked a little thin.

How strong this kid is!

Xia Jun and his secretary were also dumbfounded.

The eyes of the two watching Yu Sheng were full of shock.

The two bodyguards he hired at a high price were killed by a small company security guard.

What is this...

It's ironic!

“Anything else, let's call it out together.” Yu Sheng clapped his hands and looked at Xia Jun jokingly.

Xia Jun was furious.

This is humiliating him for the rest of his life!

“Boy, are you trying to irritate me completely?”

Xia Jun stared at Yu Sheng and threatened in a deep voice: “You have to think about it clearly. I am Xia Jun, the richest man in Guizhou Province. With my energy, just a phone call can make you fall into a disaster!”

“Yes?”

Yu Sheng smiled disdainfully: “Believe it or not, I only need a phone call to make you fall into a disaster.

President Xia, do you want us to have fun? “

“You are looking for death!” Xia Jun was furious, and his majesty was provoked endlessly!

“You do not believe?”

Yu Sheng smiled jokingly, quickly found out a number he hadn't called in eight years and dialed it out.

“Uncle Zhong, it's me.” Yu Sheng said after connecting.

“Master, it's been eight years, you finally called the old slave!” An excited voice came from the other side.

“Give me a look at Xia Jun, the first richest man in Qiancheng, and his Sihai Group. I will give you five minutes.” Yu Sheng said in a deep voice.

“Does the young master want to punish him? Do you want the old slave to take action?” asked the opposite.

“No, just give me his deadly evidence within five percent.”

“Ok, three minutes at most.”

Xia Jun sneered, he would not care about the boring threat of Yu Sheng at all.

If the rest of his life had the ability to wrestle with him, how could he come to his company as a security guard?

If Xia Jun knew Yu Sheng's identity, he wouldn't be able to laugh.

The reason why Yu Sheng came here as a security guard was because he had difficulties and didn't want to reveal his identity in advance.

He is the son of the Yu family of the northern tribe.

How can Xia Jun, the richest man in a small Qiancheng city, dare to fight with it?

"Okay, I will spend a few minutes playing with you today." Xia Jun laughed angrily.

Didn't Yu Sheng talk on the phone for three minutes? He just looked at what waves Yu Sheng could make after three minutes.

The secretary next to her also sneered. She felt that the rest of her life must be crazy and tired of life.

More than two minutes later, Yu Sheng received a new e-mail on his mobile phone.

He opened it and looked at it with a smile on his face.

"Mr. Xia, take a look at my email first, before you decide whether to fight with me." Yu Sheng smiled and handed the phone to Xia Jun.

Xia Jun sneered, he also wanted to see what tricks Yu Sheng wanted to play with him.

But no matter what tricks he played for the rest of his life, he wouldn't care at all.

However, when he saw the content of the email, the sneer on his face froze.

Soon, fear appeared in his eyes, and his hand holding the phone was trembling.

"Mr. Xia, he is not showing you a little yellow book, right?" The secretary saw the change in Xia Jun's face and laughed while watching Yu Sheng.

At this moment, Xia Jun put down the phone tremblingly, staring at Yu Sheng, his voice trembling a little.

"You, you, who are you?!"

Hearing something wrong with Xia Jun's voice, the secretary turned his head to look, and his heart jumped fiercely.

She saw fear and fear in Xia Jun's eyes.

President Xia, is he afraid of this little security guard?

The secretary opened his mouth and couldn't believe it!
