

Dont mess 971

Chapter: 971

Patrol room.

"Brother policeman, I was wronged! He found someone to beat me for the rest of my life, so I couldn't be mad at all..." Wang An said as he said, he had no confidence, and his voice became smaller and smaller. .

"So you find someone to smash their company? Your retaliation is really cruel! If you get beaten, you call the police, and the police will sanction those people."

Xia Feixue's subordinates, Mo Yang's 30-year-old middle-aged policeman, are very good at examining prisoners. Facing a person like Wang An who doesn't put the law in his eyes, he won't have the slightest bit. polite.

"Yeah! Someone beat you, you report the case in the patrol room! Why do you bring a group of people to my company to drop things, how can you be sure that I did it?" Yu Sheng, who was sitting next to Wang An, said unconvinced.

As soon as he heard Yu Sheng's words, Wang An couldn't beat him. This man was too shameless. If the police hadn't arrived early, his group of security would be able to dispose of this pesky guy.

But who made this guy lucky? At that time, the police came to catch him and let him escape the catastrophe.

"Fuck, although you were covering my head, but I heard your voice at the time." Wang Anzhen said angrily.

When he thought of what happened in the small alley, he felt a throbbing pain under his crotch, and he didn't know whether it was kicked or broken there.

The more I thought about Wang An, the more angry he felt. If he were not in the patrol room, he would have wanted to deal with Yu Xian.

"There are so many people with the same voice in this world. How can you be sure that that person is me? Officer Mo, you have also heard it. This is the chairman of Shengyuan Company, who indiscriminately brought a bunch of people to me. The company was messed up for a while, this has caused a lot of loss to our company!"

Yu Sheng looked aggrieved at Mo Yang, who looked like an ordinary citizen bullied by Wang An.

Seeing Yu Sheng's face, Wang An felt even more angry. He really wanted to take off the stinky socks he had worn for a week and put it in Yu Sheng's upside-down black and white mouth, and then see if he can be sloppy.

"You shut up as you stepped on horseback. The security guards of your company who dare to do or deserve to be your company refuse to accept you. We are a man and we will go out to settle accounts. I will find someone to kill you!" Wang An was frustrated.

Originally, the company exchanged the files for Sihai Group, and let Yusheng wait for another hour in Yirenju. Wang Anxin was happy.

However, during the meal, Yu Sheng not only mocked his kidney deficiency with words, but also let people beat him up, and was beaten again in the Sihai Group.

Wang An has suffered so much in a day, and the hatred in his heart for Yu Sheng has made him no way to think normally.

As soon as he put down his harsh words, he was severely beaten on the head. He was in a state of violent walking and was about to yell at the person who beat him.

Looking back, it turned out to be Mo Yang, he could only swallow a bit of swearing that had been brewed in his stomach.

“What do you think this is? This is the patrol room. I wonder if the murder will shut you down for a few years? You can reflect on it.” Mo Yang said angrily.

Hearing that he was going to jail, Wang An’s face was like a frosted eggplant, and he wilted in an instant. He stared fiercely for the rest of his life and dared not talk nonsense.

Wang An was very cooperative with the next thing. He didn’t want to go to jail because of this incident. He still has a great youth and enjoys it! I don’t want to spend it in a dark cell.

Then it was negotiated that Shengyuan Company should make a certain compensation for the losses caused by Sihai Group.

Wang An didn’t take it seriously, and they just smashed the building of the Sihai Group. If they couldn’t beat it, they would cooperate with one or two hundred thousand times. He was worth tens of billions and he wouldn’t care about a small amount of money.

“The loss that Shengyuan Company brought to the Sihai Group this time is not small. There are no five hundred million dollars in this matter. Otherwise, I will sue you for malicious damage to other people’s property and put you in jail.” .

Seeing Wang An flushed with anger, he still didn’t want to give up for the rest of his life. He looked at Mo Yang indifferently and asked: “Officer Mo, deliberately destroying other people’s property, and it’s still a large amount of money, and doesn’t cooperate. How many years does this kind of person need to go to jail?”

Chapter: 972

Five hundred million?

When he heard Yu Sheng’s words, Wang An thought he had misheard his ears. He felt that although he had smashed the Four Seas Group, he had paid 500,000 yuan for the day, and it was almost the same!

For the rest of his life, he was so shameless, he opened his mouth for five hundred million. Isn’t this a fucking robbery? Robbery is not so greedy.

“If you don’t cooperate with the negotiation, this kind of malicious damage to other people’s property, and the amount is relatively large, you will be sentenced to three to five years in prison.” Mo Yang said without hesitation.

Upon hearing this, Wang An subconsciously stretched out three fingers, swallowed and murmured: “Three...three years!”

At the thought of squatting in a dark prison for three years, Wang An felt that his scalp was numb, and that place was not human at all!

Now he has a company with a market value of tens of billions, and he still wants to have something to happen to Ma Xiaoman and his goddess! How could it be possible to go to jail.

“Yu Dong, I was confused for a while. This is what caused people to smash your company like that, but it won’t cost 500 million yuan?” Wang An, even if he is angry in his heart, but at this time he has to pull it out. An ugly smiling face said to Yu Sheng in a good voice.

“There is no way, the company has been smashed by you. If you want to redecorate, it will definitely cost a lot of money. In addition, you are making trouble today, which has brought a lot of impact to our company, and it also affects my employees. I was taken aback.

Decoration costs, lost work costs, and employees’ mental damage costs, as well as the reputation of the Four Seas Group. Add up to 500 million yuan. This is not too much, right? “Yu Sheng stretched out his fingers and counted the accounts decently.

Wang An was so angry that he wanted to tear the nasty guy in front of him to pieces, feeling that his lungs were about to be blown up by Yu Sheng.

I want to lose my temper, but here is the patrol room. I can only swallow the bad breath in my heart, pull out an ugly smile, and talk to Yu Sheng with a good voice: “Yu Dong, no matter how far we are, the two of us are also cooperating. Is it a relationship? In the past, it was only 100 million in terms of face!” Wang An felt that it was painful to be able to put out one hundred million. This guy who doesn’t know what is good or bad, he can accept it when he sees it well!

Wang An didn’t talk about the relationship of cooperation before, and for the rest of his life he almost forgot that Mr. Wang gave their company a fortune!

Not only did they find someone to change the contract they had signed, but also made some poor quality equipment to fool them. This account is also put together today.

Yu Sheng patted Wang An’s shoulder and pulled out a kind smile on his mouth. Seeing this look, Wang An thought that Yu Sheng had agreed to his own statement, and it would be fine if he asked for 100 million in compensation.

Just when he wanted to express his gratitude to Yu Sheng, he heard the remaining voice and said: “Mr. Wang, I almost forgot about the contract if you didn’t mention it. Although you changed the contract, there is a backup in the computer!

It happens to be in the patrol room now, so I will have someone take the contract and let the police comrades calculate the account for us. For your fraud crime, it is not a problem to go to jail for two more years.”

Wang An’s jaw was almost astonished when he heard this. He didn’t think of something foolproof, but now something went wrong, and the people from the Four Seas Company still had a backup. Why didn’t he know?

If the crime of fraud were to be counted, he would have to squat for two more years.

No, no, he is a man with a face now, how could he be stuck in jail with such a stigma? Nothing can allow this to happen.

At this point, Wang An can only admit his death, and accompany Yu Sheng with a bitter expression: “Yu Dong, I was joking with you before, and there will be no problems with the equipment in the future!”

Yu Sheng smiled coldly and said: “You are so generous to make fun of Mr. Wang with a contract of 200 million! If this is the case, you will have to pay me 700 million in total.

If you do not plan to accept the account, the boss of the patrol room is looking forward to your stay.” Seven hundred million?

When Wang An heard this, he almost fainted. He was only thinking about finding a way to talk, but he didn’t expect this sentence to bring him directly into the abyss.

Regardless of whether there are people watching? Wang An raised his hand and kept beating at his own mouth. He lost another 200 million yuan for his excessive mouthing.

Chapter: 973

“Five hundred million is five hundred million, can’t I take it? It’s good to discuss and discuss, I will call Shengyuan’s finance company and ask him to transfer money to your company.” At this time, Wang An has already appeared on his forehead. Cold sweat.

Originally, I wanted to give a little less money, but Wang An was really in a terrible mood when he thought of adding so much more. Now I can only hope that the rest of his life will not be too careless, and will accept it as soon as it gets better.

Who thought Yu Sheng directly shook his head, and said without a doubt: "There is no discussion about this matter. If you don't compensate me 700 million, then wait to go to jail!"

"Yu Dong, don't go too far! Five hundred million is not enough?" Wang An gritted his teeth and said, angrily with blue veins appearing on his forehead.

He could only look at Mo Yang asking for help, and said with a bitter expression on his face: "Comrade police! Look at him like this, it's simply asking prices, do you care about it?"

Mo Yang shrugged helplessly: "You come to negotiate this. If he does have a contract, you must compensate him for the loss, or you will be left in prison in the patrol room."

"Turn, can't I turn it?" Wang An gritted his teeth, and his voice seemed to be squeezed out of his teeth.

"That's all right, Mr. Wang, don't be stunned, and call your company's financial affairs as soon as possible!" Yu Sheng urged anxiously.

Glancing at him, Wang An could only cut his meat with pain in order not to go to jail, and let the finance transfer 700 million to the Four Seas Group.

"Mr. Wang, are you turning over?" Yu Sheng said with a successful conspiracy smile on his face, looking at Wang An.

"You..." Wang An looked at the rest of his life like this, and suddenly realized that what he did today was the trick of this kid.

From the very beginning, when he covered his head and beat people, the boy deliberately asked him to guess that he was the chairman of the Four Seas Group.

It was probably in his expectation to take people to smash the Sihai Group by himself, so the group of security guards didn't stop him, and they just smashed the Sihai Group into nothing.

All of this was planned for the rest of his life. He just wanted to take the opportunity to blackmail himself. It is very possible that the contract backup he mentioned before does not exist.

Thinking of Wang Anqi's mouthful of air, his chest was blocked for a while, and he felt that his lungs were about to be blown up by the rest of his life.

puff!

Wang An spit out a mouthful of blood and sprayed the face of Mo Yang who was sitting opposite him.

Seeing this situation, I was amused for the rest of my life. I couldn't hold back and laughed directly. This Wang An's psychological endurance is too bad, right? Didn't I just rectify him, and then caused him to bleed heavily, and only paid 700 million, I didn't expect to vomit blood directly.

Holding the smile on his face, Yu Sheng patted Wang An on the shoulder pretending to be concerned and asked: "Mr. Wang, are you okay? Why did you suddenly vomit blood? Is there something wrong? Is there any hidden disease? Didn't you find it?"

Wang An's lungs are throbbing now, and now Yu Sheng looks like this, he is even more uncomfortable, regardless of the three-seven-two-one directly pushed Yu Sheng aside, and said angrily: "I'm sick even if I'm sick. , Will die behind you."

Mo Yang was the most unlucky one in the audience. He was interrogating the prisoner, investigating the evil incident this time, and now he was vomited with blood. Who would he talk to to reason?

After dealing with Wang An's affairs, Yu Sheng followed Xia Feixue to his office and asked her what it meant to find herself before.<

Chapter: 974

The door of Xia Feixue's office was not related, Yu Sheng walked over and stopped at the door, and there was no direct entry.

At this time, Xia Feixue was talking on the phone with a serious face.

"OK."

"I will find a way to deal with this case as soon as possible."

"Don't worry, I will do my best."

Yu Sheng didn't know what was being said on the phone, but just listened to Xia Feixue's words at the door, and then hung up the phone. After seeing Yu Sheng, he knocked on the door.

Xia Feixue put the phone back and looked up to see that it was Yu Sheng. The haze on the previous face was swept away, revealing a gentle smile: "You are here! Come in."

Yu Sheng walked in without being polite to Xia Feixue. He found a chair and sat down. Then he asked, "You said to ask me for help. What the hell is it? I'm sure there is no way to patrol the room. Is it resolved?"

Who has such great ability, even the people in the patrol room are helpless, so it seems that they are not ordinary people.

After all, everyone in the patrol room is well-trained, and everyone can have a pistol, and Xia Feixue's expression is so serious, it shows that this matter is definitely not easy.

After repeated speculations, Yu Sheng didn't intend to directly agree to Xia Feixue, but first listened to whether this matter was within his ability.

If the opponent is too strong, Yu Sheng doesn't plan to gamble with his life, after all, he has only one life, and he can't stand the toss.

Xia Feixue gave Yu Sheng a cup of tea. When she heard Yu Sheng mentioning this, the smile on her face gradually faded and was replaced by seriousness. She sighed and said, "Hey! This matter is a long story. Some time ago, a vicious event occurred in the area under my jurisdiction. A middle-aged man was killed in the parking lot of the World Trade Plaza.

At the time, I thought it was a murder, but when I started investigating, I discovered that it was not as simple as I thought.

At the same time, similar things have happened in the past few days and before. Before, homeless people suddenly disappeared. One disappeared may not be noticed, but the homeless people in most places seem to have evaporated and disappeared.

Then there is the body found in the underground garage of the World Trade Plaza that I told you. Since that day, people have come to report the crime, saying that the family members suddenly disappeared. These are still not finished, and in some relatively remote places, people were dragged into the car and taken away.

There are already 86 missing persons known to our patrol house. Those homeless people are not among those known missing persons. The specific number may be hundreds.

This matter is very irritated. Someone above just called me to pressure me to solve this matter as soon as possible. Otherwise, there is no way to hide it. When the time comes, the people in Qiancheng will be very worried and it will be difficult to handle it. NS."

With this, Xia Feixue's face showed fatigue, and he sighed. Then he continued: "I was too weak to put pressure on me. For this matter, I didn't have a good rest for almost two days and two nights. , I don't know when it's possible to save those missing people for one more day, and there will be one point more danger."

After listening to Xia Feixue's account, Yu Sheng also sighed in his heart. The police couldn't find this kind of thing. How could he find it?

But what is the use of arresting those who do this? For the rest of my life, I couldn't understand.

"I can't help with this kind of thing. After all, you don't even know their location, and I have no idea about this." Yu Sheng said helplessly.

"I..." Xia Feixue just remembered. Indeed, they don't even know the location of those people now, so she wanted to ask Yu Sheng for help.

She doesn't know why, but in her heart, she already regards Yusheng as a person to rely on, so she subconsciously thinks of Yusheng when she encounters something that cannot be solved.

Even Xia Feixue didn't know why she had such emotions. Thinking of this, she glanced at Yu Sheng again. When she saw Yu Sheng's face, Xia Feixue's heart thumped and thumped fast, and she noticed that she was strange. Xia Feixue quickly turned her head.

Now in such a crisis situation, as the captain of the patrol room, she must be the person in charge of the people, how can she think about it at this time.

Adjusting his mood, Xia Feixue solemnly said: "You should know a lot of people for the rest of your life. I want you to check it together. The safety of the people cannot be delayed!"

Chapter: 975

"If it's to help check people, it's okay." For the rest of his life, without hesitation, he directly agreed.

Seeing Xia Feixue's solemn appearance, Yu Sheng had to say that the outstanding female captain in front of her was indeed a good policeman who had the courage and caring for the people, and she did not lose to men at all.

Even many men are not as good as Xia Feixue.

There were indeed a lot of people under Yu Sheng's hands, and it would not take much effort to give Du Fei an account and ask him to help investigate this matter.

Seeing that Yu Sheng had agreed to this matter, Xia Feixue pulled a smile on his originally heavy face, and said gratefully: "Thank you, Yu Sheng."

Yu Sheng waved his hand, he was just doing something within his power, and he was not very helpful.

After all, this matter has not been found out yet.

"Shengyuan Group has already sent the compensation to our company. I will go back and reorganize the decoration of the Sihai Group. There are still many things to be done, so I will retire first." Yu Sheng stood up from the chair and wanted to go. Leave.

There are indeed many things that need to be dealt with in the company. As the chairman of the board, he is inseparable. He can't leave everything to Xiao Zixin to deal with, right?

For the rest of his life to leave, Xia Feixue also stood up and said, "Then I will see you off."

When he came, Yu Sheng was pulled by a police car, and he didn't drive his own car, and sent Yu Sheng to the door of the patrol room to accompany him to stand there waiting for the bus.

When they were bored, the two people talked about some irrelevant topics, passing the time.

While the two were talking and laughing, a small shop not far from them suddenly heard people calling for help.

When the two heard the sound, they saw it, and saw four or five people in black clothes drag a pedestrian on the side of the road, and then dragged them onto a small van.

Pedestrians passing by were shocked when they saw this situation. They didn't know what the origin of this group of people came from, why they dragged them into the car, and they didn't dare to step forward to help for fear of getting into trouble.

Seeing this situation, Yu Sheng and Xia Feixue had the slightest hesitation and rushed in their direction. The young man caught by the black man was still struggling desperately with greater strength, but still couldn't help but four or five men in black. At this time, she was only a step or two away from the van. Now, he is about to be dragged into the car.

At this moment, another man got off the car. With great strength, he raised his hand and directly dragged the struggling young man into the car.

Yu Sheng quickened his pace, but he was still a step late. At the moment the car closed the door, when he wanted to forcefully break the door, the car had already started, and he was driving far in the blink of an eye.

Xia Feixue, who ran to the place slowly, watched the car disappear on the road with a frustrated expression, but was helpless.

This is the door of the patrol room. What happened to the arrogance of those gangsters? Actually doing something here, you can hardly put them in the eyes of these policemen.

Xia Feixue clenched her teeth tightly with her fists, looking at the van disappearing on the road. Just a little bit, if she could find out earlier, she might be able to catch a clue that one of them found. But the car was already far away, and even the license plate on the van was tampered with. The clue was broken again, and Xia Feixue's mood fell to a peak.

"Just watching the people being taken away, I can't even do anything. I really don't know what the point of being a policeman?" Xia Feixue lowered his head and said very reproachfully.

Yu Sheng patted Xia Feixue on the shoulder and comforted him: "Don't be sad, even if you don't catch up, it's a good thing."

Xia Feixue was taken aback, wondering what Yu Sheng said? What does it mean that it's a good thing not to catch up with you?

Chapter: 976

"Yu Sheng, why do you say that? After catching up, you will be able to find out where the gang's lair is, and you will be able to annihilate them in one fell swoop and find out all those who have disappeared." Xia Feixue said.

Yu Sheng glanced at the road subconsciously. At this time, he couldn't see the van.

"The group of people just now, it was an ordinary person who came out to drag the passerby, but there was a martial arts practitioner sitting in the car, and he was very strong."

At that time, Yu Sheng had been watching the direction of the car. When the scar face showed his head to pull the arrested young man, Yu Sheng saw a layer of internal force lingering from his body.

If they catch up to their old nest, they will not be able to save a fight, maybe they will accidentally explain there.

Xia Feixue didn't know much about martial arts, such an ancient and mysterious thing, but looking at the serious expression on Yu Sheng's face, he knew that this matter was not that simple.

"Well, you are right. You should really prepare for this matter before you start to take action. I will send someone to check the surveillance to see where the car is going."

Speaking of Xia Feixue, he told Yu Sheng to return to the patrol and house inspection.

Yu Sheng looked at Xia Feixue's back and shook his head helplessly. Xia Feixue had an outstanding appearance, her gender was a woman, and when she was serious, she was more vigorous than a man. Such a woman's own charm is very powerful, but it is difficult to find a man worthy of her.

Because a woman like Xia Feixue is either better than her or smarter than her. In short, she is better than her in every aspect, otherwise how can she conquer a strong woman?

After returning to the company, Yu Sheng gave everyone a bonus to Sihai Group to make up for the intimidation they received today.

When the people from the Shengyuan Group came to the Sihai Group to smash things, it was really scary. Besides, Yu Sheng received 700 million today!

Even the reconstruction of the Four Seas Group would not cost 300 million yuan, not to mention just asking someone to redecorate it.

With the help of this incident, Wang An Yusheng's heart was still very happy. When he returned to the company, he looked at the 700 million in his account and hummed happily.

When Wang An came out of the patrol room, he went to the hospital for the first time and asked the doctor to check why he suddenly vomited blood, and what was wrong with his body?

After doing a check, there was nothing wrong, but the blood attacked the heart, which caused the vomiting of blood. When he left, the doctor also told him not to be too angry and control his emotions.

Wang An, who was walking on the way home, became more and more angry as he thought about it. He couldn't say anything about this matter. He must come back with revenge, or he would not have his surname Wang.

But this time, he won't do something as stupid as the last time, and the matter of revenge has to be considered for a long time, and he must figure out how to make the rest of his life suffer.

Suddenly a thought came to Wang An's mind, and a weird smile was subconsciously pulled out on his face.

"Yu Sheng, Yu Sheng, isn't your kid horrible? When I destroy your Sihai Group and there is no scum left, I think you can get horrified?" Wang An said to himself.

At this moment, he heard the comments of passers-by around him.

"Husband, look at that man, his pants were wet by him? Isn't it too funny that such a big person is still peeing his pants?"

"I'm going, really, he still smells of urine, he just walked out of the hospital, I'm afraid something is wrong with his brain!"

The couple passing by around Goodnight, you and I are talking about each other, looking at Wang An's eyes is like looking at a mental illness.

At this time, Wang An realized that he was scared to pee because Xia Feixue was holding a gun at him, and then he was blackmailed by Yu Sheng. His heart was full of resentment, and he didn't even think of it.

After all, he is also the owner of a company with a market value of 10 billion. How can he be so humiliated?

Wang An yelled at the couple: "If you guys dare to say one more thing, believe it or not I will find someone to kill you? Do you know who I am? How dare you say that?"

Seeing that Wang An was angry, the couple quickly speeded up their pace and walked away. They still muttered, "Is this man afraid of being a lunatic?"

Chapter: 977

The Sihai Company was reorganized. As the chairman of the board of directors, Xiao Zixin, the secretary turned out to be a lot of things that required him to visit, and worked overtime until nine o'clock in the evening before leaving get off work.

After packing up, Xiao Zixin plans to go out to eat something. After a busy day, there is no time to fill his stomach.

She had just left the company, and two people surreptitiously followed. Xiao Zixin didn't notice anything unusual but bowed her head to play with her mobile phone.

When they reached a place with few people, the two people walked out of the dark corner, picked up a black cloth bag and covered Xiao Zixin's head.

Xiao Zixin still didn't know what was going on, struggling desperately, suddenly a huge force came from the back of her neck, and her eyes fainted.

Because the place is relatively remote, almost no one noticed what happened here, and the car started to stop at the door of a relatively remote villa.

The door opened and Wang An walked out of the villa. When he saw a comatose and graceful woman lying on the car, a smug smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

"Not bad, not bad, well done." Wang An said as he took out 20,000 yuan from his pocket and gave it to the two of them.

Looking at the big banknote in his hand, the expressions on the faces of the two people who helped Wang An did not look good. How could this be 10,000 yuan? Before, Wang An promised them 50,000 yuan each?

One of the two of them unconvincedly patted Wang An on the shoulder, with a fierce look, patted Wang An's face with the banknote in his hand, and asked, "What do you mean by being a fool? Huh? Someone caught it for you, and just gave such a small amount of money. Are you fooling the beggar?"

Seeing this, some of Wang An's bodyguards surrounded the two people.

Wang An clutched the painful face that was slapped by the man just now with the banknotes, and he was so angry that such a small character would dare to treat himself like this.

Relying on his large number of people, Wang An didn't even put those two people in his eyes, spit, and cursed aggressively: "I am looking for you to do things because I can count on you. Give you 10,000 yuan. You take it. That's it, it's too damn small."

With that said, Wang An kicked the man who threatened him before and took back the money he had previously given him.

He is not willing to give it only 20,000 yuan!

If it were on weekdays, he might not take the money in his eyes, but today he lost 700 million in Yu Sheng's hands, which is enough to make Wang An's meat painful for a while.

The two brothers were not so popular. They helped Wang An get people over. Not only did they not get the money, they were even beaten by the kid.

"Wang An, how can you say that you are also the boss of a big company, how can you be so untrustworthy?" The older of the two asked Wang An.

Wang Anzhen was going to be verbose with these two men. He gave them a disdainful look, and said to his bodyguard: "Hit these two men before throwing them out. Damn, you dare to find me. Things, don't you know I'm in a bad mood today?"

The bodyguard dragged the two people out, and Wang An put his mind on the car again on Xiao Zixin's body, came to the car and pulled off the black headgear from Xiao Zixin's head, revealing that stunning face.

Looking down at Xiao Zixin's small figure, she was exquisite and elegant, this small waist, this beautiful leg, and some perfect and impeccable double peaks.

Seeing a moment of dryness in Wang An's heart, I wanted to give this beautiful woman to Fa-rectification on the spot directly in the car.

Chapter: 978

The rest of my life had arranged the company's affairs and planned to go home. After a busy day, there was still no time to accompany Xiao Shui in a hurry, saying that he had missed the appointment to accompany him to the amusement park.

I don't know that Xiaoshui and Xu Qianqian get along well or not. Xu Qianqian is also a mother with children and should be very tolerant of Xiaoshui.

Looking at the time on the watch, it is already around 11 o'clock. Shouldn't the sales during this time be asleep? It seems that I can only spare time tomorrow to accompany him.

After getting in the car, Yu Sheng planned to go home. When he was halfway down the road, Yu Sheng suddenly noticed that several cars were following him.

Could it be that the person that Wang An found did the job? Thinking that he was so neat in the daytime, he made some small tricks that was within the expected range.

Yu Sheng plans to find a place to stop the car and look at that guy Wang An. What the hell is he trying to do? But just as his car decelerated, the following cars speeded up and ran into him here and here. boom!

The car in the back slammed directly into the back of Yu Sheng's car, and Yu Sheng's head and ears roared due to the powerful perk. If it weren't for Yu Sheng's habit of wearing a seat belt, he would have been shaken to death by the powerful recoil.

A car crashed into Yu Sheng's car, and there was no rest, and the following cars also rammed into Yu Sheng's car in several directions.

This situation has already happened to one car. If all these cars crash into it, Yu Sheng feels that his life will be accounted for here.

escape!

The only way to escape now was to endure the pain from his head. For the rest of his life, he had no time to think about pushing the car door and got out of the car at a very fast speed.

Boom!

In the loud noise of his life, Yu Sheng's car was almost deformed, and strong smoke emerged from the car.

Those people were a little shocked when they discovered that Yu Sheng had run out, but they just hesitated, and for a while they drove into the direction of Yu Sheng.

"Is this fucking real?" Even in this environment, Yu Sheng still sighed that those who came to chase him were so crazy.

Who on earth did Wang An invite? Since he was killed in this way, it was simply too frantic.

Although the speed of the rest of his life is much faster than that of ordinary people, it is still a lot worse than the car. There is no way, he can only run to the nearby shopping mall.

He doesn't believe it, those people can still drive the car in the mall? When the time comes, as long as those people get out of the car, with the strength of their master realm, are they afraid that they can't deal with ordinary people?

There was a loud explosion from behind, and Yu Sheng could not turn his head to imagine the explosion caused by the oil leak after his car was deformed.

The situation here was stunned. The pedestrians on the road didn't know what was going on, but they all knew it was very dangerous, so they fled in all directions. They didn't dare to watch the heat in this situation.

At this time Yu Sheng had already hid in the supermarket, looking at so many people around him, Yu Sheng thought that under this situation, those who came to chase him should be restrained!

Before he had time to find a place to sit down and catch his breath, he saw a few cars rushing in at the entrance of the supermarket.

One after another screams came from my ears, as well as the cries of people around, even those cars didn't care about the lives of others, and they didn't even look at them when they hit them.

This situation is beyond what I expected for the rest of my life! He didn't have time to hide from those people, he had already been spotted.

Regardless of a few cars, three seven twenty one rushed in the same direction as Yu Sheng.

Chapter: 979

The rest of the life center hit a joke, who the hell did he offend? How did you get a few lunatics? I want to kill myself like this.

There was constant screaming around, and the rest of his life was helpless. He didn't want this to happen, but now there is no way, no matter how strong he is, he will have more than enough energy to deal with a few cars!

After all, people in the Grand Master Realm are not immortals, and they are helpless for the rest of their lives.

After avoiding a car that nearly hit him, Yu Sheng found out that a foreign man with yellow hair, blue eyes and a high nose was sitting in the car.

The same goes for the people in several cars. They are all foreigners, and they don't look like good people. There are messy tattoos on their faces, noses and necks.

I thought that those people were invited by Wang An, after all, he offended Wang An during the day, and he just got him rectified.

Now Yu Sheng doesn't think that way. He thinks Wang An should not be able to do such crazy things.

After all, he is still in China, and he is a normal person who would not despise Wang Fa so much, right?

Running away all the way, Yu Sheng hid himself and ran to the elevator, pressing the elevator button with trembling fingers, praying constantly in his heart, hurry up, hurry up, hurry up.

As long as you can go up to the second floor, or a higher floor, and let those cars have no way to get up, the rest of your life will not be so passive.

Before those people caught up, Yu Sheng finally got on the elevator. Seeing the cars getting closer and closer to her, Yu Sheng's elevator closed the door.

He randomly pressed a stair floor, and then sat on the elevator for the rest of his life, taking a long sigh of relief.

At this time, the mall on the first floor had been smashed by the cars that crashed into it. Many people were injured as a result. The staff in the supermarket even called the police.

Those people got out of the car, all of them were strong and strong, and they looked like one-meter-old foreign men in their 20s and 30s. There were nearly 20 or 30 people in total.

Looking at the floors that Yu Sheng had pressed before, they also got on the elevator one after another, with no intention of letting go of Yu Sheng's posture.

The elevator reached the second floor. As soon as the door opened, the people inside still didn't react. For the rest of his life, he smashed into the elevator holding a refrigerator.

Seeing this, the people in the elevator were stunned. One of them wanted to run away. The people standing outside successfully ran away, but the people inside were not so lucky.

The refrigerator that was thrown by Yu Sheng was completely intact, and some even died on the spot. For the rest of his life, those who want to kill him will not be merciful. After all, being kind to the enemy is cruel to oneself.

Those foreigners saw their companions dead, and the expressions on their faces became more and more angry, and they wanted to kill the rest of their lives.

Several other foreigners rushed in the direction of Yu Sheng with long knives in their hands.

Without the assistance of a car, these people simply don't have the capital to be arrogant in front of the rest of their lives, how many ordinary people can turn the sky in front of him?

There was the slightest fear on Yu Sheng's face, and the internal force between his palms turned, Yu Sheng's eyes became cold and looked at the man who was running the fastest and was about to rush in front of him.

boom!

Yu Sheng raised his hand and hit the man's body with a palm directly. When he was hit by the internal force of the Grandmaster Realm, that person was directly blown into the air.

I knocked over a lot of things, stopped a few tens of meters away, and became unconscious after spitting out blood.

Several people who still wanted to take a shot at Yu Sheng saw this posture, and stopped involuntarily, feeling terrified in their hearts.

Just... just happened, what happened?

There were shocked expressions on the faces of several foreigners? The mouth was so open that the boss couldn't close it for a long time, and the things in front of them were beyond the scope of their worldview.

Chapter: 980

"You...who are you?" The headed foreign man with tattoos on his head looked at Yu Sheng in surprise and asked subconsciously.

When Yu Sheng heard this, he was immediately happy. Shouldn't it be him who asked them who these people were? Why are they asking themselves now?

"I'm your father!" Yu Sheng said angrily.

The posture of the group of people just now was to fix themselves to death! Now it was their turn to be unlucky. Yu Sheng had no hesitation, his body turned into a phantom, and he came behind the foreign man with the tattoo on his head in a second.

Yu Sheng snatched the long knife in his hand with his backhand, put it on his neck, and asked sharply: "Say! Who are you? Who sent you to kill me?"

When Yu Sheng held a knife against his neck, the foreign man was completely shocked! Intuition tells him that this ordinary Chinese person is definitely not an ordinary person.

Ordinary people can shoot a foreigner who is one meter tall in the palm of one hand? Ordinary people can come behind him in the blink of an eye?

The ancient and mysterious Hua Xia is really not as simple as they seem, perhaps the previous contempt has caused him this fate now.

"We are from the French Gangsters. Someone gave us $1 million to give you something, and we just took money to do it." The man who took the lead didn't dare to conceal it, and directly confessed everything.

France?

These people are all from France, but in the rest of his life, he has never been to France, so how could he offend the people there?

Among the people he knew for the rest of his life, Xu Qianqian came back from France. Could it be that the people from the black hand gang he invited came to kill him?

But what exactly is Xu Qianqian for? For the rest of my life to kill myself, I can't figure out the reason for this, so I can only ask the gangster in front of me again: "Quickly, who asked you to come and kill me?"

The tip of the knife hit the foreign man's neck, and a blood stain appeared on the man's neck because of the hard work for the rest of his life.

Although the foreign man is a member of the gang and lives a life of licking blood on the tip of a knife, it is still very scary to let him die.

Now he was about to regret his death. He knew that this Huaxia was so powerful, and he would not have travelled far and wide to come to Huaxia to die.

"Don't kill me, I really don't know! The employer pays us to do things. People in our industry never ask employers for information, but as far as I know, it should be a son of a French nobleman." Foreign man said tremblingly.

The other gangsters saw that Yu Sheng was still questioning their boss, thinking that they couldn't fight, and just took advantage of this time to escape. After all, everyone was afraid of death.

A lanky man with a tattoo on his neck took a look at Yusheng and found that he didn't pay attention to his direction and wanted to escape.

As soon as he turned around, he still didn't take a step in his foot. The next second he felt a pain in his chest and a long knife came out of his chest.

Puff through.

The foreigner who wanted to escape was pierced by a long knife, and died on the spot. His body fell to the ground with a "puff".

The gangsters who saw this scene were so frightened that they were out of their minds. They wanted to run away just now, but it was too late, that thin and tall one step.

Now that the thin and tall man has been lying on the ground and turned into a corpse, now thinking about them, they all have lingering fears, and they don't know how to provoke a murderer.

A kind of gangster, now he can't expect to be able to kill the rest of his life, thinking about how to save a small life in front of this killing god.

Seeing that they couldn't ask for other useful information from these people, Yu Sheng didn't plan to let them die, so they solved them directly.

These black-handed organizations from France dare to be so arrogant in China, even if they release their lives, it will be a malignant tumor. It might as well be solved directly.
