

Doomsday 100

Chapter 100: If the day is not reported by someone

Gina looked angrily at the land and sea that had turned into a mass of black coal, with her palm still held flat and pointed at him, the flames kept burning, as if she wanted to burn it to ashes.

Only when Di Ping raised his hand to stop her, did he withdraw his hand, but the hatred in his eyes did not dissipate much.

At this time, everyone looked at this beautiful black-robed woman with blue eyes, as if seeing a wild beast, with fear in their eyes.

This woman was so cruel that she burned a person to death. She didn't try her best, and she wanted to burn to ashes. This kind of cruel heart could have such a method, and each of them was afraid of Gina.

Although Di Ping was calm on the face at this time, he was actually not at peace. He was staring at the five people just now, and he thought that Lu Hai, who had previously thought that the straw bag, would suddenly shoot at him so boldly and decisively.

He didn't have time to think about it at the time. Behind him was Gina. If he dodges the bullet, Gina will definitely be injured. His high body strength doesn't mean that Gina is also high, so he can't hide.

His reaction was quick. He saw Lu Hai raising his gun, but it was too late to stop it, and the bullet had already appeared. Fortunately, after strengthening it many times, he could actually see the appearance of the bullet when it popped out of the hall, and he could clearly see all the trajectories of the bullet hitting his front door.

He thought of picking up the bullet with his hand. He didn't expect that he caught the bullet in an instant when he stretched out his hand, as if he had practiced so many times, and he did it easily. The bullet was caught by his fingers and the momentum was not less than 100 catties.

But he had a huge force of five thousand catties, and it was completely trivial to catch the bullet fired at high speed, and he didn't even move his fingers. It was just a shortcoming to use too much force to control, and the bullet was flattened by the lack of strength.

In fact, there was a thin layer of sweat behind him. Just now, if there was a squeeze with divine assistance, it was completely beyond his expectation. He also did his own destiny just now, but he didn't expect to do it.

But if he missed his hand, then he would be in danger, the bullet hit his door directly, and he felt like he had walked through the ghost door.

There is a reason for Gina's anger. Her duty is to protect her master. An oversight did not expect someone to attack her master. Fortunately, the master didn't hurt him, but it was a humiliation to him and made her extremely angry. Shot to burn Lu Hai alive.

"Kill them!"

The people who had been stunned by the sudden situation suddenly woke up at this time and shouted angrily, looking agitated and furious.

"Yes! Kill them"

At this time, more people became angry, their eyes began to red, and they stared at a few people in the court fiercely, shouting frantically, and some people rushed out directly.

The shot just now was to kill one's own hope, to block everyone's way of survival, how could they be angry.

"boom"

It seemed as if the explosive was ignited and exploded directly in the crowd. The madness spread rapidly, and countless people rushed up like a swarm of madness.

The five team members who were blocked by the crowd directly paled, and they reached out into their arms in a panic to take out their guns, but before the guns were taken out, they were crushed on the ground by the swarming crowd.

It seems to have suddenly released the beast in the heart, the invariable bloodthirsty mania, some with fists, some with teeth, they are so cruel to these people, they are usually persecuted and dare not speak but today are under the suppression of Di Ping They finally had a chance to take revenge, all of them were extremely excited.

Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang were shocked at this time, and the angry people red eyes at this time, and they rushed in like crazy, seeing that they were about to rush into the torrent of terror.

Suddenly the two of them shook their bodies and they were pulled out. They looked back in amazement and found that Di Ping pulled them out. They immediately looked at Di Ping gratefully. If the crowd rushed in. , Immortality also has to drop, the basic people's hatred of the high-level people can also include both of them!

Ge Zhongping and the ten companions were overwhelmed by the crowd, and even the few officials who were with Han Zhongping and Lu Guoliang were not so lucky that Di Ping rescued them.

They were also thrown to the ground by many people, biting and beating, and a scream sounded like a small boat, tumbling in the angry crowd.

The more people gathered, the countless people rushed forward and then rushed forward, not to mention madness, and there were people coming in continuously.

"Mr. Di, this won't work, something will happen!"

Han Zhongguo looked at the crazy crowd anxiously and said.

Di Ping also discovered that it was possible that everyone had released their previous backlog of fear and anger during this meeting, and gradually got out of control. Some people had already started to attack people around them with blood red eyes.

"Stop it!"

Di Ping's voice was like a thunder in the air, exploding in everyone's minds, and everyone was stunned. They stopped the movements in their hands, and then slowly woke up, the red light in his eyes gradually disappeared.

When I saw the blood on my hands and the terrible condition on the ground, my complexion changed drastically, and many people began to cry in low voices.

Di Ping watched quietly. He knew that these people were really persecuted and had hardships to say, and they were on the verge of collapse under the package of extreme fear and hunger. It was a good thing to release them now.

The crying lasted for half an hour, and it gradually subsided, and it seemed that after the diarrhea, everyone's spirits improved a lot.

"Well, the first evil has been eliminated, and the grievances in my heart have been vented. In the future, although you can rest assured that there will be no such people again, you can all live safely!"

When Di Ping saw that everyone was quiet, he slowly smiled in a peaceful voice, with a gentle smile on his face, which made everyone relax in this voice.

Everyone looked at Di Ping gratefully, and then persuaded each other to help the old and the young to turn around and leave.

This underground tragedy was revealed. It was really tragic. Ge Zhongping had no human appearance. He was covered in blood and lying in a pool of blood in a strange posture before, and his facial features were completely invisible.

The other ten people were not getting better there. They all fell in a pool of blood and none of them could move. Di Ping took a look and knew that these people were dead, and many people had their necks bitten and how could they survive.
