

Doomsday 1021

Chapter 1021: Iron mountain

"Zero, shoot me, kill this panther!"

Di Ping's face changed as he watched the mutant black panther avoid the energy cannon attack, and cried out.

"Master, the crystal coins have been consumed, it is not enough to fire the next shot, you need to replenish the crystal coins!"

At this time, Zero's voice rang in Di Ping's ears. Di Ping was taken aback when he heard this voice. He was still waiting for the energy cannon to kill the mutant black panther, but the energy was insufficient.

He was stunned, but the scene had changed. No matter how horrified the soldier screamed, it stopped abruptly in the next moment. The mutant black panther landed on the head of the city and bit the upper body of the soldier with a strong bite force. , Shengsheng bit the person in half, and blood spurted out, the scene was extremely bloody.

Di Ping was more than a hundred meters away from the position where the black panther rushed up. He did not expect that the black panther was so fast that he rushed to the city head within a second or two, so that he had no time to react. , He has been so stupefied for too much time, he can't save this soldier at all. .

Seeing that the mutant black panther had jumped to the head of the city and killed a soldier, he was instantly angry. Seeing the movement of the black panther raising his neck and swallowing, the blood flowing out of the corner of his mouth felt that his head was about to explode and his body As soon as he moved, he rushed in the direction of the Panther. His movements were also extremely fast. He could reach him within two or three seconds at a distance of 50 meters.

But the black panther was faster than him. It did not stop after killing a person. At this moment, it seemed to be a ferocious wolf rushing into the flock, and it quickly rushed to another soldier, stunned the soldier. The soldier killed him, then flung the corpse into the air and rushed towards another person.

"what!"

The soldier watched as his two companions were killed instantly, and he roared in anger, brandishing a knife and slashing at the black panther who leaped at him.

Just as soon as his sword was raised, the black panther had arrived, and he shot the soldier flying out with a single claw. Blood splashed in the air, and half of his body was almost torn apart.

The awakened one who guarded this period was Liu Han. He was dumbfounded by the sudden mutation. At this time, he finally reacted. He watched several fighters killed by the mutant black panther in front of him, and he yelled in anger while holding his battle axe. He rushed to the mutant black panther.

"A blow from the universe!"

With a roar of anger, Liu Han suddenly pulled up his forward body, raised his battle axe high, and smashed Huashan. The battle axe screamed and slashed at the top of the mutant black panther's head.

The mutant black panther seemed to feel the threat. It coldly turned its golden eyes and glanced at Liu Han. There seemed to be disdain in its eyes. Its body suddenly moved and rushed towards Liu Han.

Liu Han saw that his battle axe was about to slash the mutant black panther's head, and a trace of excitement flashed in his eyes, but his excitement only lasted for a moment, and the next moment he became frightened.

The speed of the mutant black panther suddenly increased, and everyone felt that there was a flower in front of them. The black panther had appeared in front of Liu Han, swept away a giant claw, and was hitting the tomahawk that was slashing down.

With a loud bang, Liu Han's battle axe was stunned by the tremendous force, and he was taken to one side. He rushed out five or six steps, his hands trembled, and he could hardly grasp the battle axe. There was even a trace of blood flowing out, and he was actually injured by a blow.

But in the next moment, his face changed, and before he could stand firm, the mutant black panther had rushed in front of him again, opening a * mouth and biting at his neck.

"Wild Dance"

Seeing that the mutant black panther's mouth was about to be bitten down, Liu Han instantly exploded, he screamed, and suddenly used the skill wild dance, his body turned sharply to avoid the black panther's causing kiss, and the battle axe was even more powerful. Driven by his sharply turned body, he whirled towards the panther's head.

This move was a trick that Liu Han used urgently. It was a magical stroke. There was enthusiasm in Liu Han's eyes and his lips were closed. He put all his hopes on this move.

The Panther didn't seem to expect that the meat that had already reached its mouth would suddenly change like this, but the Panther was so sensitive that it suddenly turned aside.

"puff!"

The tomahawk flashed a cold light, with a line of blood passing through the ears of the mutant black panther. The black panther escaped the blow at the most critical moment, but the ears did not escape. Liu Han's sharp tomahawk cut the ears. Cut in half, and half of the ear flew out.

Chapter 1022: Tiger Leopard Thunder

A trace of disappointment flashed in Liu Han's eyes, but he did not stop. With his strength, he could only spin ten times at high speed now, and his body turned at high speed toward the mutation and then cut off at the mutant black panther.

This is a group attack skill, used by Liu Han in a hurry, the effect is also extraordinary.

"boom!"

Liu Han, who was spinning, seemed to be hit by a fast-moving train. His body flew out instantly, and blood spurted in the air.

It turned out that the long tail like an iron whip behind the mutant black panther happened to be drawn to Liu Han's chest. He was drawn out four or five meters away. His body was smashed into a pile of rocks. The pieces shattered, the armor on his body was drawn in half, his chest was bloody, and Liu Han was spraying blood.

Liu Han stared at the mutant black panther, his hands trembling holding the handle of the battle axe to stand up, but he tried several times and failed. Instead, he vomited a few more blood, and the black panther was a pair of golden With fierce brilliance in his eyes, he pushed towards Liu Han who fell in the pile of rocks step by step.

All this happened within two or three seconds, Di Ping wanted to save it too late.

"stop!"

Seeing that Liu Han was about to die at the mouth of the mutant black panther, Di Ping's eyes were cracked, he roared in anger, blood spurted all over his body, and his speed surged again. He had already reached the limit of his snake.

"kill!"

At this time, the three soldiers looked at each other, then roared and rushed up with the weapon in their hands, raising their swords to cut at the back of the mutant black panther.

"Wow!"

The black panther suddenly turned around, as if irritated, and knocked the soldier in front of him with one claw, and then bit the other soldier in half with a big mouth and splashed blood. The third soldier was frightened by the blood in front of him. Back and forth again and again, turning around to try to escape, but the Panther chased him instantly, threw the person to the ground, lowered his head and bit his head, and the bright red blood spewed out like a fountain.

But Black Panther seemed to kill the last soldier, rushing towards the silly soldiers on the side again.

"Stop, come to me! Come and bite me!"

Liu Han's eyes were also red, his face twisted, he yelled at the mutant black panther, desperately trying to get up, but his body was hurt too badly, blood spurted from his mouth, but he couldn't stand up. .

But obviously, the Black Panther would not stop killing because of his roar. It was originally a cold-blooded killing machine in the jungle, cruel and ruthless. It rushed into the crowd and slaughtered the warriors in the city. Di Ping rushed out for twenty. Mi, when the two were killed by it again, its speed was so fast that no one could resist it.

"Ah! Clash!"

Di Ping was really angry. His eyes were instantly bloodshot, he roared, his speed was instantly aroused, and the powerful kicking force shook everything on the head of the city, and his body became blurred. The next moment people appeared in twenty Outside Miduo, like a teleportation, behind him was a trail of vague afterimages.

"kill!"

Roaring again, the murderous spirit on his body rose to the sky, and rushed towards the mutant black panther, a long and narrow black long knife appeared in his hand, and he swung to the mutant black panther abruptly.

The mutant black panther also seemed to feel a strong threat. It did not rush to kill again, but after slapped a soldier with one claw, it suddenly turned around, looking at Di Ping with cold eyes.

Suddenly it moved, and the whole body suddenly bowed like a bow, with its four feet gripping the ground suddenly, like a spring, its body instantly ejected, the speed is extremely fast, and it leaped ten meters in the blink of an eye. , The blood basin gushed toward Di Ping's neck and bit it.

Chapter 1023: Panthers get hurt

Di Ping's long knife slashed out laterally from his side, slashing straight towards the head of the mutant leopard, the long knife hung in the wind, and the knife whispered softly, like a dragon roaring and phoenix roaring, and the sound was extremely sweet.

Di Ping replaced the saber knife and used the wave chaser provided by the system. This second-order powerful war knife is four feet and four inches long, and the handle is one foot one inch long. It has a gilt moire handguard and a jet black carving. The handle is empty to prevent the sticky blood from slipping. The tail of the knife has a golden beast head shape and a golden ring in the mouth; the knife is three feet three inches long, four fingers wide, one thick back, and the whole is straight. Only the front end is raised diagonally. The blade is slender and sharp. The entire blade is long and narrow. The blade weighs one hundred and thirty catties and the whole is half gold and half silver. Some strange runes faintly appear on the blade, and it shines with a bright green halo in the sun. So strange.

With the knife in his hand, Di Ping felt that his body's strength had increased out of thin air, and his speed and dexterity had increased along with it. His combat strength was soaring, making him so excited that he almost wanted to yell.

The reason why rank weapons are strong is that they are strong in craftsmanship and materials, but the most important thing is the increase in attributes. The attributes added for each level are different. The higher the level, the more the increase, and the second level weapon is strong. After the first level, there is an overall leap in technology, materials and properties, and the difference in properties has more than doubled.

For example, if a Tier 1 weapon increases its strength by 100 Jin, then a Tier 2 weapon may increase its strength by 200 to 300 Jin. This is already a qualitative change.

Each level of weapons is divided into four qualities, weak, medium, strong, and extreme; weak weapons only add one attribute, for example, only increase power or speed, or toughness, or sharpness.

Medium-grade weapons increase two attributes, while strong-grade weapons increase three attributes. As the name suggests, do extremely high-quality weapons increase four attributes?

In fact, why doesn't the system provide the best weapons?

That is the rare thing about the best weapon!

Some top-quality weapons may surpass the weaker ones with a higher power and price.

The reason why the best product is precious is not only that it can increase four attributes, but the most important thing is that it has additional skills. Every best weapon must have a skill. This skill does not need you to learn, but is inspired by the weapon, saving time. It is labor-saving and convenient to fight, and it is possible to save lives at critical moments.

If this attached technique is strong enough to be practical, the value of this weapon will skyrocket again, and it is possible that it may surpass the middle and strong grades.

Therefore, every time the best weapon comes out, it will attract a lot of people to berserk, and the forge who can refine the best weapon is extremely popular.

It's just that Di Ping hasn't gotten the best weapon yet, nor can he appreciate the power of the best weapon. For him now, he is quite happy to be able to get a Tier 2 weapon.

Di Ping's second-order powerful weapon is equivalent to adding three attributes. This knife increases strength, speed and sharpness. He holds it in his hand and increases combat power out of thin air, which makes him feel like he has met the mutant emperor before. Scorpion, he can cut the scorpion tongs with a single knife, and will never fight it for so long. Even the mutant golden eagle would dare to fight, unlike before, he could not even break the defense.

When the wave of the wave of the knife was swung, it seemed that even the air was cut apart, extremely light and spirited, so that De Di Ping had the confidence to take this mutant leopard.

It's just that Di Ping underestimated the speed of the mutant black panther. The black panther felt the horror of the knife. It flexibly adjusted its body in the air, tilted its head to one side, and dodges the blade lightly, and then a thick and long tail Flicked like a steel whip, sweeping on the sword.

"when!"

A sound of golden and iron strikes sounded lightly and sweetly. Di Ping felt a huge force from the knife. He deflected the strike to one side and cut the long knife into the air. Although he felt that the power of the black panther was not as good as his own, this Leveraging a blow is extremely clever, taking one's strength away, a bit like using Tai Chi to use force to fight.

Of course, the mutant black panther certainly doesn't understand Tai Chi, but as the most terrifying cold-blooded killer in the jungle, its fighting instinct is too strong.

Chapter 1024: Slashing Black Panther

Di Ping exerted too much force, which was unable to stop the momentum in his area, and dashed a step to the left. His heart was shocked, and the battlefield was changing rapidly, and a loss of force might lead to an overall accident.

The mutant black panther jungle killer is extremely refined and fighting. It touched the ground, as if with elasticity, and suddenly turned over and pounced towards Di Ping's hijab. A pair of sharp claws flashed like a sharp blade of cold light. Di Ping is now He was unstable, and he couldn't turn around to deal with it. He saw a pair of sharp claws grabbing the back of his neck.

At this moment, all the people present were shocked. Many people have already exclaimed, wanting to remind Di Ping to be careful.

Di Ping completely swept his eyes on the movements of the mutant black panther. After the initial panic, the cloud was calmed down in an instant. By this moment, he didn't panic anymore. He had gone through life and death battles, and he had become extremely calm. His heart is as quiet as water, and his mind is extremely calm and clear. At this time, he has no emotions like a machine, and some only has instinct and extremely cold thinking.

He didn't forcibly stop the momentum, let alone turn his head. Instead, he stepped forward and took a step forward. In his hand, he drew a knife and slashed back to the right, slashing straight towards the mutant leopard's claws.

This knife was fast and urgent, it was a knife in Di Ping's limit state, even the mutant Panther didn't expect Di Ping's knife to come so fast and so strange.

The mutant black panther turned into a pat, and with a soft "dang" sound, its sharp claws were on the back of the sword, and its body was in the air and rolled in an unreasonable volley, while Di Ping's sword was swiped from under him. Then, rubbing his back, a few dark and shiny leopard hairs were cut off with a knife, and its tumbling had reached Di Ping's head, a pair of sharp claws fell straight down in the air again, the black panther's yellow eyes flashed with cold light .

A cold wind hit the top of Di Ping's head, and he only felt a chill at the top of the door, with a deep chill, pouring straight in from the top of his head, as if freezing him and his soul together.

Di Pingdao pressed his lips tightly. He didn't expect this mutant black panther to be so difficult to deal with. It could swiftly evade his own attack. Its speed was only three times lower than his own. It was too fast. It was a little bit at his own speed. Can't keep up, feel passive everywhere.

His long knife was hit by the mutant leopard on the back of the knife, and the long knife sank violently, bringing his body to a stop, and the forward pounce was reduced. At this time, the mutant leopard had already plunged straight down from the sky. For a moment he was really in crisis.

At this moment, he was very calm, his head turned quickly, and Fulin's mind, he suddenly used a move, his body collapsed, lying on his side, and the sword in his hand was facing the body, using the force of the oblique sword to move upwards. cut.

This is the Tiger Ling Jue's first crouching tiger pose. It was originally a body-building exercise, and at the same time, it was a martial skill, but at this moment he used a knife to use it.

The whole body was humming with the sound of a tiger, and the long knife cut out a golden knife shadow in the air with strong wind, slashing towards the claws of the mutant black panther.

Seeing that the saber was about to slash the claws of the mutant black panther, Di Ping also had a flash of excitement. As long as he could hurt the mutant black panther, he would have a chance to kill it, but there was no relaxation in his heart. He knew this one. The speed of the Panther.

Sure enough, a pair of giant claws disappeared at the moment when they were about to collide with the saber. The mutant black panther's body suddenly turned upside down in the air, miraculously evading the blade of the saber, and its pair of hind legs turned toward Di like a rabbit. Push on the flat chest.

When the sword slashed the phantom of the giant claw, Di Ping secretly said that it was not good, and hurriedly closed the sword and wanted to retreat, but his mutation move slowed a bit. He only felt that his chest was hammered by a heavy object, hit by a huge force. His sternum was about to split, his whole body flew upside down two or three meters in an instant, and then he retreated three steps in a row before he settled down.

Di Ping felt a hot pain in his chest. He looked down and saw that six bloodstains about ten centimeters long were drawn on his chest. The blood gushed out instantly, and he was scratched by the claws of a black panther without checking. My chest feels tight, and there is a dull pain in my breathing.

Chapter 1025: No fear of all wars

Di Ping was shocked, and the mutant black panther was too good and fighting to let it go for such a good few moments. It landed lightly and suddenly ejected again and rushed towards Di Ping.

Di Ping only looked at the wound between the lowered head, and the mutant black panther came to him. The speed was too fast. He only came and saw a black shadow, and the huge mouth of the mutant black panther bit Di Ping's head. If this is bitten, one bite can bite him in half.

Di Ping had no time to think carefully at this time. The mouth of the blood basin had already reached him, and a fishy smell had already come to his nose. At this time, Di Ping's heart was like a spring of ice, calm and abnormal, and the increase in mental power made him feel strong. The control of mastering and fighting rhythm is getting better and better.

"Snake!"

He ran the snake with all his strength suddenly, his body was like a snake, and suddenly flashed in several directions, escaped from under the sharp mouth of the mutant black panther, and ducked to the side of the mutant black panther.

"boom!"

The black panther bite the air, and the huge mouths merged suddenly, making a terrifying sound of steel slamming. You can know this terrifying bite force without even thinking about it. Once you bite it, you will die or be disabled. Di Ping's heart flashes with palpitations. Let him rise full of anger.

He was a new S-rank talent and was full of confidence, but he was injured by a black panther in the first battle. How could this make him happy.

"Tieshan rely on!"

Di Ping flashed past the black panther's bite, and reached its side with a roar. The whole movement changed from being elegant to heavy as a mountain. His feet shook the ground, and the earth roared. With the force of the earthquake, his whole body exerted his strength, shoulders as heavy as a mountain toward the mutation. The panther hit his waist.

This Tieshan relies on many martial arts moves, and Baji and Xingyi bring this to the fullest. However, Di Ping did not learn from Zhang Hengcheng and Tang Zhandong. He learned martial arts to collapse boxing. With the use of this momentum, this blow is even more terrifying under his already increased strength Cui moves.

The qi is in the dantian, and the force rises from the ground, the whole person gives people a kind of extremely violent as if it is a fire girl erupting, it seems to be a powerful aura that is overwhelmed by a big mountain, invincible and unbreakable.

The mutant leopard is a speed mutant. It lives in the mountains and forests. It is best at refining its body. It has excellent physical roots and strong coordination. It is not only fast, but also strong. If you say that the weakness of the body is the weak waist, like The wolf is the same animal with a copper-headed iron-tailed tofu waist, and the leopard is the same. They have a very thin waist for super speed, and they are also very weak. If Di Ping hits the mutant black panther by an iron mountain. Not necessarily able to withstand it.

Obviously Di Ping was too happy. The mutant black panther took a bite. Di Ping in his eyes suddenly disappeared. It felt bad. At this time, it felt the suffocation rising from the side, and it let out a terrified roar. , The hair all over his body exploded in an instant, his body shot and bowed suddenly, and his body jumped forward instantly, reaching its limit.

But it was still too late. Although it avoided the waist but not the hind buttocks, Di Ping bumped the iron mountain against its hind buttocks with a muffled "bang" and burst out with all his strength. How terrifying and mutated Di Ping's power was. The Panther's body was violently knocked out five or six meters away.

"Ow" the mutant black panther let out a horrible roar, and his body rolled over on the ground more than ten meters away, staring at Di Ping with vigilant eyes.

"boom!"

At this time, there was another muffled sound at the buttocks of the mutant black panther, and the "Oh" black panther screamed again. This is the dark energy that Di Ping played broke out in its body, but unfortunately it only hit his buttocks. It may directly shock its internal organs at the waist.

But that's the case, the mutant black panther was not comfortable. Its black hair fell off where Di Ping hit its buttocks, as if it had been pulled out, with a large blood red on it, bulging high.

Chapter 1026: War is boiling

The right hind leg of the mutant black panther was injured. Its right hind leg kept lifting, as if it did not dare to land, and it was accompanied by a slight tremor, which made Di Ping happy, but he didn't know the bones of the black panther. There was no injury, he felt that the panther's bones should be fine.

Because at the moment he hit, he could clearly feel the strength of the mutant black panther's bones. It is not a very hard one, but it has an indescribable feeling, and it seems to be very soft, but it is full of elasticity, like It was hitting an iron plate covered with a thick and high-elastic sponge, and there was a feeling of power being buffered. There was no blunt feeling of hitting the bones, and there was no sound of bone breaking.

Moreover, the mutant black panther reacted too fast just now. I wanted to make Tieshan back and hit the link, and then hit a few punches, but the black panther reacted too fast, and it flew a few meters away. Without waiting for Di Ping to catch up, it rolled on the spot, rushing out more than ten meters in an instant like a civet cat, frustrating Di Ping's plan.

He followed with two quick steps, but the mutant black panther was far away from his attack range. He did not pursue it out of vigilance. From the sensitive movements of the panther, the injury should not be too serious.

"Wow!"

The mutant black panther was angry, its golden eyes became more cold and bloodthirsty, and it let out an angry growl in its throat, staring at Di Ping firmly.

"Ka Ka Ka"

The mutant black panther's body suddenly burst into bursts, as if the sound of thunder was rolling.

When Di Ping heard this sound, his eyes condensed. He himself made this sound. He couldn't tell whether it was a bone sound or what kind of sound. There is a kind of master kungfu in the novel that he has practiced to the depths of his muscles and bones. It is the performance after physical training reaches a certain level.

He felt that his judgment should be good, because as the voice sounded, there was a strong wave of vitality and blood on the body of the mutant black panther. With subtle perception, he could clearly feel the strong power of the black panther's vitality and blood coming out of his body. A puff of energy shot out from the pores of the mutant black panther, screaming like a strong air current.

Di Ping looked at the black panther in disbelief. The energy he had left in it was shaken away by his life. With Di Ping's current strength, he could make three shots, but only one burst. The other two.

Dao's internal energy was scattered along the pores by its shock, which was no different from a human internal energy expert, who even knew how to drain energy.

Exhausting energy, the mutant black panther stared at Di Ping with a pair of golden eyes, cold and spiteful, with a low growl in his mouth, his body low, his whole body tight as a bow, and his hair was exploded, as if a fierce blow will be launched in the next moment.

Di Ping was not afraid of it before, and now he is even more not afraid of being injured. The saber in his hand shakes and makes a hum. He screams and rushes towards the mutant black panther with his feet on the ground.

The strained body of the mutant black panther resembled a sudden open bow, and it ejected in an instant, with an astonishing speed, like a black lightning flashing across, leaving only an afterimage in everyone's eyes.

However, in Di Ping's eyes at this time, he had already seen that the speed of the mutant black panther was indeed slow. Its hind legs could not keep up with the rhythm, and the speed was a bit slower. Although it was still faster than his speed, Di Ping I think I can keep up.

"Snake Step·Slash"

Seeing the lag between the mutant black panther's movements, a cold light flashed in Di Ping's eyes, and the snake traveled to the limit, crossing a space of more than ten meters in an instant, and one person and one leopard met.

Chapter 1027: Heroes show their majesty

The long knife ran across the air, splitting the air, tweeting and screaming, a cold light suddenly appeared, like a thunderbolt, bright and dazzling.

A fierce light flashed in the eyes of the mutant black panther, and its sharp claws more than ten centimeters long were exposed, like a sharp steel knife, flashing with a sharp white light, intertwined with claws in the air, facing Di Ping. Under the hood.

"Dang!"

A crisp sound struck the city head, and a string of sparks splashed.

"Wow!"

Immediately after a horrible roar, everyone Ding Qing looked at it, and saw that the mutant black panther's left front paw was cut off by Zhulang knife.

The mutant black panther obviously didn't know the power of Zhulangdao. He thought that a battle axe like Liu Han was comparable to its claws, which was a loss.

The mutant black panther was injured in one blow. Like a frightened cat, it quickly jumped more than ten meters away. Finally, there was a trace of fright in its cold eyes. It stared at Di Ping vigilantly, and made a low roar in its mouth. The forelegs were half lifted, afraid to land, half of the broken toe was bleeding downwards, and after a while, it was all over the floor.

Taking advantage of your illness to kill you, Di Ping's heart was already burning with anger. The speed of this black panther was too fast. It was still three layers faster than himself. He had been holding it and couldn't help it. Now it has suffered two injuries. , The knife cut half of its toe just now, and its movement is bound to be more affected.

He has no time to fight this black panther anymore. This is only a Tier 1 and Tier 6 mutant, one Tier lower than himself, but this is a speed type mutant Black Panther, which is faster than himself. Mastering the rhythm, losing the first battle, wasting a lot of time and energy.

He is no longer ready to fight anymore. After all, there are still unknown powerful mutant beasts staring at this place, so he has to cut the mess quickly and solve this mutant black panther.

"Crazy Wave Knife Technique·Breeze and Drizzle"

The sword in Di Ping's hand suddenly roared like thunder, and there were waves of fine waves in the space, as if nothing could be heard without being careful.

The light of the sword exploded in the sky, like a blossoming wave, each wave was a blade, flashing and reflecting the cold light in the sun, and rolled towards the mutant black panther.

"Wow!"

The mutant black panther screamed in horror, and its entire body's hair exploded. It already knew the advantages of Di Ping's saber. It was still willing to fight Di Ping hard, and wanted to run away.

"Flee there!"

Dipinnaken let it run away, with a burst of shouts, his whole body burst out, blood gushing, "boom", and the whole person was like a falling arrow, suddenly shot out, and instantly chased across the space to the mutant black panther. Chopped down.

The Panther's speed was not as fast as before. Physical injuries prevented it from giving full play to its speed advantage, especially the injury of the forelimbs, which seriously affected its speed.

It just flashed three or four meters away, Di Ping directly launched the collision skill, chased it, and faced the endless light that was swiping down, the black panther's eyes suddenly rose up, and it roared and its body suddenly turned around. Pounced towards Di Ping.

The speed of one person and one leopard is too fast, only seeing the claw shadow and the sword light in the sky, everyone is staring at the two thumping figures to see how the result turns out, every sound comes from everyone's heart. Many people were sweating in their hands.

The nearest awakeners are Yue Lie and Tang Zhandong. They will come to support them as soon as they arrive, but when they arrive, Di Ping is already fighting with the mutant black panthers, and the two of them can't get close at all after the intense battle. He couldn't keep up with the speed at all, so he had to stand not far away and wait and see.

Chapter 1028: Defeating the city tragically

It's too late to say, then fast;

The battle took place between the lightning and flint, and it ended in a flash. When one person and one leopard separated again, everyone was taken aback.

Di Pianyan looked cold, his lips pressed tightly, his eyes fixed on the mutant black panther, his sword pointed at the ground obliquely, the blood on the blade was dripping down, and it fell on the ground, his chest, arms and back. There were wounds on his back, blood stains on his clothes, shocking, but seeing his unusually bright eyes and standing body, everyone felt that his injuries should not be serious.

On the other hand, the mutant black panther's condition is not very good now. There are staggered wounds all over the body, especially the wound on the neck. It is nearly half a foot deep, flesh and blood turned out, and blood is spraying outwards. The meeting has flowed all over the ground, merged with the blood of the soldiers before the ground, and covered the city.

The body of the mutant black panther was shaking continuously, and the cold eyes gradually disappeared. Without the cruel and fierce brilliance before, there was a trace of desolation.

Its speed is faster than Di Ping, but Di Ping's strength with the sharp blade in his hand rises straight, suppressing his speed advantage. With the 100 knives that Di Ping quickly cut just now, it can no longer escape, nearly three points. One of the sword lights slashed on it.

A blow on the neck caused it to take its life away. The * and cold jungle hunter walked to the future. It swayed a step forward, then crashed to the ground and fell into a pool of blood.

Di Ping's heart loosened, and he exhaled a sullen breath, and finally took the mutant black panther under his own calculations. Although he lost five or six people, even Liu Han was seriously injured, and he was hurt a bit, but finally Taking it down did not cause much loss, nor did the city fall.

The Black Panther incident reminded Di Ping that this first-class city defense system is not a panacea. If the energy is insufficient, these energy cannons will all become dumb and useless at all. This will definitely be a big consumer in the future. In the future, the city defense system has to be charged with enough energy. If a shot fails like today, the second shot will run out of energy. This is a mistake.

Furthermore, the attack of the energy cannon is indeed very strong, but the damage to some faster mutant beasts is still limited. The senses such as the mutant black panther are extremely sensitive and fast. The energy cannon may not be able to damage it in one or two shots. , If there were more energy cannons like this mutant beast, it would be quite enough.

Di Ping blamed himself for inadequate preparation. If the crystal coins were enough and the four shots were fired, the mutant black panther would not be able to escape, and the soldiers would have to lose much less.

"Roar....."

The head of the city fell into a weird silence. After four or five seconds, the crowd reacted, bursting out cheers.

The mutant black panther was too terrible just now, and no one could resist it. The wanton killing of the city defenders, even the Awakened was not an opponent, and was severely injured by a single blow, which brought heavy pressure and extreme fear to everyone. , Many people are already a little desperate, despair of life.

And now this powerful mutant black panther was actually dominated by the city lord, which made many people unable to react at first, and when they reacted, all of them were ecstatic. The stronger the city lord, the more they felt safe.

Liu Zhenya grasped the battlements tightly with both hands. Seeing how hard he exerted, he seemed to be crushing the bricks of the city wall. Only then did he feel that Liu Minsheng said that Di Ping was very strong and there was no exaggeration. This young man was really strong. Up.

Chapter 1029: Heavy casualties

Yue Lie and Tang Zhandong hurriedly stepped forward to support Liu Han and inspected his injury. After the initial panic, the medical staff quickly rushed to rescue the injured, but it was only secretly that everyone except Liu Han was mutated. The soldiers attacked by the Panthers have no life cycle, which makes the soldiers who have just been a little joyful feel a deep sadness.

For a while, an atmosphere of sorrow condensed on the city, making everyone feel depressed, and many soldiers had tears in their eyes.

Di Ping looked at these faces. There were young and middle-aged people. At this time, everyone's expressions were very sad, and the sadness and anger in his eyes made him look very uncomfortable. His life is so fragile at this moment. Watching his companions fall one by one, everyone feels uncomfortable. He Diping is equally uncomfortable. He doesn't want to die alone, but who can have it in this * end. The method, who can guarantee that he will survive well, even Di Ping can't guarantee that he will survive. There are many crises in the apocalypse, it is better than he is still a member of the struggle in the apocalypse, and he can give Who guarantees!

Di Ping shook his head abruptly and threw out the sadness in his heart. It is not the time to be sad. The mutant beasts under the city have not dispersed yet. The battle may continue. People will still survive. He cannot guarantee that everyone will survive. , But he has to ensure that more people live anyway.

"Roar!"

At this time, there was another beast roar from outside the city, and a terrifying might overwhelmed from the jungle, making everyone's heart tremble. The beasts that had stopped attacking once again surged and yelled toward them. The wall attacked.

Di Ping suddenly turned his head, staring at the direction of the sound, his eyes were as cold as ice.

This mutant beast stays in ambush like a poisonous snake, commanding thousands of mutant beasts to attack the city of refuge. He really wants to know what kind of mutant beast it is. He has already labeled this mutant beast a death mark in his heart. As long as it dares to show its head, he will definitely kill it first.

After watching for a while, Di Ping retracted his gaze. He walked to the wall with a heavy expression and watched the mutant beasts swarming outside the city. He suddenly shouted: "Brothers are not afraid!"

Di Ping's qi and blood urged, and the voice sounded like Huang Zhongda Lu throughout the sanctuary. Everyone heard it clearly, as if in the ear.

"Not afraid!"

Everyone shouted in unison in the city's head, everyone shouted with all their strength.

"Brothers, follow me!"

Di Ping was silent for a moment, and suddenly raised the sword in his hand, and roared toward the sky. The sound shook the clouds, especially the last word of the war. It was like a spring thunder in the tongue, and the whole earth was reverberated. The leaves all around were rustling. The beast was also quiet, and was panicked with a roar, shaking expression.

"War...War...War"

All the soldiers raised their weapons and yelled frantically, their eyes were full of enthusiasm, and their faces were full of madness.

At this moment, the thousands of mutant beasts in the city are no longer in their eyes, and even the more powerful mutant beasts dared to rush to fight.

With extreme fear and pressure, they bottomed out and rebounded. At this moment, they were inspired by the madness in their hearts, from extreme fear to fearlessness.

This is the most terrifying psychological state of mankind, instantly changing from weak and timid to fearless, invincible predator who dares to fight the sky and the ground.

Chapter 1030: No matter how passionate it is

Liu Zhenya has commanded tens of thousands of troops in his whole life. He has never seen what kind of aura. The general is on the battlefield in autumn. Thousands of predators are overwhelming, boundless, majestic, and swallowed like tigers. All are in awe.

But today he feels different. The rigor and solemnity of these people's missing army is spewing crazy murderous aura, like a war soul from hell. Everyone is extremely bloodthirsty, forgetting pain, forgetting death. All their beliefs are war.

This is a terrible will. They dare to rush to and kill even the most powerful enemy, even if the last person killed in the battle will never retreat. Once an army has this will, he is invincible. They The madness will make all enemies feel fear.

Seeing the screaming warriors, Liu Zhenya seemed to have seen such a scene. He felt a chill on his back. This sanctuary city had become more and more terrifying. He felt that he should make a decision. Immortal, will definitely shine in the future.

The siege began again, but this attack became even crazier. There was a roar from time to time in the jungle, which made the siege mutant beasts mad, and a large number of mutant beasts were stacked one after another close to the city. , Which enabled some of the mutant beasts that bounced to rush to the city.

At the beginning of the battle, it fell into Jiaozuo, and all the reserve personnel were transferred to directly participate in the battle.

Owen was wearing a battle armor, a war machine that moved with his broad sword in both hands. The sword swung like a wheel, and there was a  wind everywhere, and countless broken feet were scattered on the city's head, and his whole body was covered with blood. Like a killer.

Today Owen is desperate, and when there is a problem, he will support there. His powerful combat power is undoubtedly revealed at this moment. None of the mutant beasts that rushed to the head of the city could only block him with a sword and watched him charge and kill coldly. From the back, many people look at their eyes brightly.

Ava is also no worse than Owen. She wields a pair of short knives at an astonishing speed, like a flashing ghost. Her body flashes on the battlefield from time to time. Every time she passes, she sees countless blades surging, and there must be countless variations. The beast fell silently, and she turned into a cold-blooded killer, reaping her life.

Gina waved her staff, and a bunch of fireballs fell into the mutant beast group, "booming" and exploded, the explosive mutant beasts flew up, and the flames plunged into the beast group, igniting each mutant beast for a while. In a large piece, the mage showed the group damage vividly at this moment, which attracted countless people's envy.

The musket in Daniel's hand didn't stop roaring, and a mutant beast was killed with every sound, and the lethality he caused was amazing.

Boogie is worthy of his title of butcher. He waved his tomahawk and rushed into the mutant herd like a wolf into the flock. It was like killing. The warrior spins like a wind wheel, bringing up patches of blood and countless broken limbs. The stumps and limbs were flying all over the sky, and the mutant beasts were twisted and strangled by his death. He roared while killing. As long as the mutant beasts that rushed up were taken into the whirlpool and tripped into pieces, his whole body was always lingering. Knowing the light is like Shura.

Zhang Hengcheng is worthy of being called the violent fist. After he came to the sanctuary and changed his job, his strength greatly increased, but he did not want to rely on a pair of iron fists with weapons. He took the violent aesthetics of fist attacks to the extreme, he was like a The human-shaped tyrannosaurus rushed directly into the mutant beast group,  every step of the way, every punch was trembling, as long as the mutant beast encountered no flesh and blood, it roared and fell.
