

Doomsday 1061

Chapter 1061: Defeat by one blow

Ouch! A roar.

Owen, Boogie and the others had already jumped down from the top of the city for the first time, rushing towards Di Ping, and they were completely panicked when Di Ping was slapped by the palm of the giant palm.

At this moment, what they regret most is that they didn't come down for the first time, even if they died, they could block the master and exchange their own lives for the master's life. They were also willing.

As followers, their mission is to live for and die for the master, and now they don't know the master's life and death, and they are still alive, this is unforgivable, this is the most unacceptable for them as followers. Shame.

At this time, the musket in Daniel's hand rang three times, and three bullets shot into King Kong's eyes. He wanted to draw King Kong away, fearing that King Kong might hit Di Ping in the pit.

After firing a shot, he also jumped off the wall, chasing Owen and others.

Owen, Boogie, Mok, Daniel did not rush out a few steps as soon as he fell down the city, and there was another bang behind him, and many people jumped down like dumplings.

But at this time Owen and the others were not in the mood to look back, they just rushed towards Di Ping's accident.

All the awakened people who jumped from the top of the city jumped down, and even a few women jumped down. At this time, they could no longer care about the danger, but the women were better than these men. The physique is weak, but it is also stronger than the awakened person. As long as the height of twenty meters is well prepared, it will not be damaged.

The city's head was silent. The defenders of the sanctuary city were almost frightened. Di Ping fell into a pool of blood, his eyes full of disbelief. They still can't believe that the city's lord has been defeated. King Kong slapped him to death?

With such a terrifying palm, can the city lord survive?

Many people reacted and began to collapse. Many people actually started to cry in grief, murmured: "This is impossible? This is impossible....." It seems that I can't believe the scene before me is true. of.

"Look! The city lord is moving! The city lord is still alive!"

When everyone was desperate and sad, suddenly someone in the city screamed.

"Ah! Yes, yes! The lord is alive!"

There was a stagnation on the top of the city, and then thunderous cheers erupted. People wept with joy and jumped wildly with excitement.

When they heard the cheers from the top of the city, Owen and the others stopped in their footsteps and hurriedly looked in the direction of the battlefield. When they saw a shattered armor on the battlefield, they slowly climbed up from the pit covered in blood. The figure, the joy gushing out of the heart for a moment, could not stop the ecstasy in the heart, they only felt the body suddenly explode with greater strength, and the speed accelerated again.

Di Ping spit out a mouthful of blood, resisting the intense pain that the bones all over his body would break, and crawled out of the pit with difficulty.

Although he looked miserable, the problem was not big. It was all the damage to the five internal organs caused by King Kong's strong counter-shock, bleeding from the seven orifices, and bleeding from the vomiting he felt much better.

The strongest blow that broke out with all his strength still saved himself and blocked most of King Kong's attacks. Otherwise, he would really let King Kong's palm take it off, and he had to slap himself down, and then he wouldn't even want to stand up.

However, the shock injury he received was not mild. He felt that his five internal organs had been displaced, and his arm was more like a broken arm, and the pain was painful when he tried hard, and there was no pain in his body that was not torn, and the bones seemed to fall apart. , Came the heart-wrenching pain.

Standing on the edge of the pit, rejoicing that he was alive, Di Ping let out a sigh of relief and couldn't help feeling that it's good to be alive!

"Ah! Master, be careful! Run!"

Di Ping just stood up laboriously, when he heard Owen's roaring sound suddenly, he was shocked, and just about to make a move, there was a sudden angry roar behind him.

Chapter 1062: Irving Fury Activation Talent

"Wow!"

The madness and anger in this voice were felt by Di Ping. A strong murderous stabbing hurt his back, and Di Ping's sweat burst out.

He did not expect that King Kong, who was still roaring madly and horribly, stood up when he saw the person who had injured his hand stood up. He actually endured the pain, forgot to vent, and stared at the enemy who had hurt him. It really hates Di Ping for nothing!

This made Di Ping a little helpless. This was really careless about Jingzhou. People who drink cold water will also be stuffy! Fart on the heel!

He didn't know that this was really blamed on Daniel. Originally, Daniel had a good intention. He shot King Kong to attract away, but didn't want to not only not hurt King Kong, but woke up King Kong. He stopped the rage and smashed it, and he saw it as soon as he turned his head. Di Ping, who stood up, could not be angry, and suddenly roared and rushed over.

"My god! Run!"

Di Ping Yuguang swept behind him, and met a pair of blood-red eyes full of crazy killing intent. He just felt cold all over his body, so he dared to turn and run away!

"Master, rush here!"

Owen, who had rushed two hundred meters away, let out a cry of exclamation, his speed aroused the beast again and rushed towards Di Ping.

Di Ping underestimated his injury too much. As soon as he took a step, he knew it was broken. The intense pain in his whole body made him unable to take a breath of air-conditioning. His body was a stagger. When he clenched his teeth, he ran again. It's too late.

He felt the strong air current fluctuations behind him, followed by a strong gust of wind, and his face was hurting like a knife.

After the light swept away, only a giant wood swept over. King Kong didn't even rush up. Instead, he grabbed a giant wood from the ground and used it as a weapon and swept it at Di Ping. This is what Di Ping never expected. This one King Kong is too smart, and can be so wise in extreme anger.

Originally, he thought King Kong was still thirty or forty meters away from him. If he rushed over, it would take a second, and his speed was not much slower than King Kong, and he could always avoid him, but he did not count that he was injured. The speed was affected, and he was unable to explode with all his strength. Second, King Kong knew how to use weapons and was not a beast completely controlled by anger.

It was too late to hide. His saber was stunned by King Kong's palm. Now he couldn't destroy the giant wood without the wave chaser in his hand. He could only take it with his fist.

Di Ping suddenly turned around, slammed out his fists, and the third layer of Bengquan erupted with full force.

"Fuck!"

The pair of fists go out to sea like a dragon, with strength and strength, and the fierce fist strength can't bear the explosion of space.

The pair of fists collided with the giant wood nearly one meter in diameter, and with a loud noise, the giant wood collapsed, turned into thousands of pieces, and flew away. The momentum was amazing, and the power of King Kong was so powerful.

People can clearly hear the sound of cracking bones, which makes the scalp numb.

Di Ping seemed to be hit head-on by a high-speed train, and he flew out instantly, spewing blood in the air.

Di Ping flew 20 or 30 meters away, slammed on the ground with a bang, spouting blood again.

This is simply worsening the blood. He was already injured very seriously. With this blow, he was injured again and tried to endure the pain. But he didn't get up. He felt that his arm bone must have been broken, and his sternum was even more broken. , The strong tingling sensation made him a little dizzy, but he couldn't get up after struggling twice.

"Master...City Lord!"

All of Owen who rushed forward were dumbfounded. Seeing Di Ping being swept away again, they became angry and roared wildly. Their speed increased sharply again, rushing towards Di Ping like a galloping horse.

"Wow!"

King Kong swept Di Ping away with a single blow, and he suddenly roared with excitement, and then rushed towards Di Ping with the giant wood, raising the giant wood in his hand and smashing it down towards Di Ping who was lying on the ground.

"stop!"

Owen's eyes were almost split when he saw this scene, he roared wildly, but he was still fifty or sixty meters away, and couldn't stop the giant tree of King Kong from falling on him. Before he could think about it, he suddenly threw the broad sword in his hand. When he came out, he could imagine his angry blow, and the broad sword shot towards King Kong with a scream.

Chapter 1063: Bengquan Five Forces Back King Kong

Di Ping watched the giant wood hit him with an astonishing whistling sound, but he fell apart and couldn't stand up. What should I do?

This stick can't be hit by any means. It's lying on the ground without a bit of defense. It's really a blow. It might really be squashed by life. Maybe it won't even have the opportunity to use the upgrade ability. This stick is too powerful. The power of King Kong is much greater than that of Di Ping. According to Di Ping's estimation, he must have at least seven to eighty thousand catties. Otherwise, it is impossible to knock himself into the air. The power of King Kong plus the huge trunk of several thousand catties, its How terrible it is to wave it.

Clenching his teeth, agitating his whole body's strength, a lazy donkey rolled on the spot, and a burst of colic came from his whole body, and a burst of tingling in his chest. The strong pain made him unable to groan, but he abruptly survived. After rolling two laps, Di Ping didn't care about his image anymore, so he said before he survived.

The broadsword that Owen threw directly hit King Kong with an astonishing scream, but at this time, only Di Ping was in King Kong's eyes. He didn't even look at the broadsword, and the giant stick suddenly fell.

The giant stick fell to the ground, the earth cracked, and the earth and rocks crumbled. A deep trench two or three meters wide, five or six meters long, and about half a meter deep appeared where Di Ping lay just now.

Di Ping avoided the head-on fatal blow, but still couldn't dodge too far. He only felt a shock in his body, followed by a roar in his ears, and then a huge impact struck Di Ping's body. The impact force was directly thrown up, rolling out five or seven meters away like a ground gourd.

Di Ping's blood churned, and another blood spurted out. The powerful impact made his injury more serious. During the rolling, his chest stabbed with bursts of pain. The obvious broken muscles pierced the internal organs, and even blood flowed out from the nostrils. .

At this time, Owen's broadsword also arrived. It was in the middle of King Kong's chest, and there was a sound of stone impact. The broadsword was actually shot out, leaving no wounds.

At this time, King Kong in the rage had amazing defenses, and even Di Ping's second-rank weapon, the Wave Cutter, could not break its defense at this time, let alone Irving's first-order weapon.

King Kong ignored Owen's harassment at all, and once again raised the huge tree trunk and threw it down at Di Ping.

"**, this is bullying Lao Tzu!"

Di Ping clutched his chest, lay on his back on the ground, watching King Kong's smash again, a little shame flashed in his eyes, he was hit by a local rat, how could this not make him angry.

He can't help but use energy to upgrade, his power is almost under control, although there is still a trace of incompleteness, but there is nothing wrong, but the last trace of reason makes him reluctant to use it, and Owen has already arrived. , He can exchange time for himself, as long as the treatment of Mok, Zhang Zhengyi and others keep up, he will soon be able to regain combat effectiveness.

Irving did not arrive, but Ava was the first to arrive. Among a few people, Ava was the fastest, pulling the second place Owen nearly 20 meters away.

As soon as Ava arrived, her body instantly turned into a phantom, and she approached under King Kong, with two short knives in her hand, piercing King Kong's calf like lightning.

"Dangdangdang..."

More than 30 gold and stone impacts sounded in a row. Ava hit more than 30 knives in an instant, and the hard skin of King Kong, like steel, made the sound of metal clashes. Ava had more than 30 knives only on her calf. There were white spots left, and her knife couldn't break the defense.

"Slash!"

Owen also arrived. He leaped high, caught Bengfei's broad sword, and dropped a sword from the sky to King Kong's chest.

"Huhuhu!"

At this moment, two fist-sized fireballs slammed into King Kong's door with hot flames.

"boom!"

With a crisp shot, two bullets cut through the air and shot towards King Kong's eye pupils.

Chapter 1064: Tieshan fell by Zhoushan

King Kong was naturally wary and afraid of fire. When he saw the fireball, he didn't care about attacking Di Ping on the ground. He involuntarily hid, the fireball hit its face and exploded suddenly, and a huge fire light emerged. Surrounded by his face, King Kong hurriedly slapped the flame on his face with his palm.

With its movement, Daniel's bullet went off the target, and did not hit King Kong's eyeballs, but hit King Kong's right cheek. It was as powerful as the powerful bullet of a machine gun, and only one bullet was left on King Kong's face. Shallow blood stains.

At this moment, Owen jumped high, with a broad sword in his hand and strong wind that had already cut to King Kong's chest, but at this moment King Kong suddenly opened his eyes, seeing Owen flying from flying, King Kong's eyes flashed. With a trace of disdain, he waved his hand at Owen like a fan.

Even Di Ping is not King Kong's opponent, and Owen is not even more so. With a full-strength sword, he is slashing on King Kong's giant palm. With a muffled sound, Owen is swept away more than ten meters away with his sword.

Owen spurted blood in midair, then hit the ground with a "bang", and spurted blood again. He shook his body a few times and sat down on the ground. He turned his sword and tried to stand up, but struggled a few times. But he didn't sit up, but he vomited blood again, which seemed to be badly injured.

Owen's eyes were full of horror at this time, knowing that King Kong is very strong, but he never knows how strong it is without a confrontation. He is not an enemy of one move. King Kong is crushing him regardless of speed and strength, and no one is killed. Luckily enough, this is due to his armor, blocking it a bit, if the palm is slapped directly, he will not die or use it.

After dismissing Owen, King Kong lifted his foot to Ava, who was constantly attacking him like a fly. It seemed that he wanted to trample Ava to death.

Ava was fast enough, and her body drew a phantom, slipped from King Kong's feet, and escaped King Kong's fatal kick. With a step, her body slid to the other side of King Kong, and the double knives cut again, one after another. Superficial blood stains appeared on King Kong's legs.

Although this series of attacks did not cause much damage to King Kong, it finally interrupted King Kong's lore on Di Ping.

At this time, everyone in the rear finally rushed over, and the three holy rays of light had fallen on Di Ping's body for the first time, and the surging holy energy quickly merged into Di Ping's body. Di Ping's face turned red with naked eyes.

Di Ping felt that the pain in his body was recovering quickly, and the stagnant qi and blood slowly re-flowed. It seemed that the strength that had been sleeping for a long time was returning.

After feeling the power again, he knew how long power was important to him. He really didn't want to experience the powerlessness just now.

With the return of power, a strong fighting spirit surged in his heart again. He didn't believe that King Kong was a perpetual motion machine and could continue to be so violent.

Angela, Mok, and Zhang Zhengyi were busy treating Di Ping, while the rest of them screamed and rushed towards King Kong with their weapons in exchange for Di Ping's treatment time.

All kinds of weapons greet King Kong!

The diamond skin is thick and thick, and it is not afraid that everyone will cut it like this. It may not even be able to break the defense, but its dignity as a strong man can be trampled on. Let a group of people cut it like this, and the diamond is extremely angry.

In particular, Ava was like a monkey, crawling on him from time to time, attacking weak spots such as his eyes or ears with double knives, and he was disturbed by the annoying fireball.

Chapter 1065: Fierce battle

"Wow!"

King Kong was furious, roaring in anger, roaring like thunder, loud and powerful, a violent wave of vitality suddenly erupted, and the horror aura turned into substance, sweeping away like a tornado, and everyone could bear it. At such a close range, everyone was swept upside down like leaves, and when they landed, there was an expression of pain on everyone's face.

The weak people like Yue Lie, Liu Han, Li Shuang, Xu Sheng, and Fatty had blood flowing from the corners of their mouths, even the faces of Buji and Ava were pale and they hurriedly backed away. At this time, they really realized how powerful this King Kong was. They watched Di Ping deal with King Kong for a long time, but they couldn't stand it even if they met each other. Just a loud roar, the terrifying aura hurt everyone. .

After King Kong roared wildly, then raised a pair of iron arms, and shot it towards several people. The strong coercion crushed the audience, and the vigorous raging force seemed to be pressed down like a mountain, tightly locking everyone. There is no way to hide, no way to avoid.

The giant palm carried a terrifying pressure like a mountain. The bodies of the people who pressed it were all bent down, and the surrounding air was thick and liquid. For a while, they couldn't get rid of this terrifying pressure. Finally revealed extreme fear!

Under the giant palm, the terrifying coercion enveloped them tightly, and their faces changed a little under the strong wind.

Under this palm, these people have absolutely no possibility of surviving. They don't have the strength of Di Ping, but no one is hiding at this time, because Irving, who is lying on the ground, is also covered by the giant palm.

"Drive me!"

Buji suddenly yelled, his whole beard flew like a madman, his whole body was full of momentum, and finally broke free from the coercion of King Kong and soared into the sky, waving his battle axe to the giant palm.

He was going to use his power to block it, in order to save the four people under the giant palm.

Immediately afterwards, a series of roars sounded, and several figures rushed.

Tang Zhandong, Fatty, Li Shuang, Xu Sheng, Luo Xinyi, Liu Han, and Yue Lie all roared and suddenly broke out with all their strength. The whole body was violently violent, and the veins violently broke out. They abruptly broke free from the coercion of King Kong. Xiang Jingang's giant palm.

Even Ava on the other side exploded with full speed, and the double knives struck King Kong's calf like a lightning.

"Boom..."

More than a dozen people rose into the sky, all kinds of weapons greeted King Kong's giant palm with amazing howls, and a series of loud noises sounded on the battlefield.

How terrifying is the power of the ten people's combined attack. The sword and light sword shadow flying all over the sky crashed into the giant palm sword and the light sword shadow instantly collapsed and collapsed. The image of the ten bodies was a bird with wings that fell to the ground faster before.

"boom!"

More than a dozen people fell to the ground, like a meteor falling, stirring up dust.

The giant palm was also abruptly pushed up by this blow, and the ten attackers were able to compete with King Kong. King Kong stepped back and then stood still, and the palm finally failed to fall.

But then Buji and the others stared at the giant palm that fell again in the sky with ugly expressions. King Kong actually took a step backwards and waved his palm again, giving everyone no time to breathe.

Their eyes were filled with despair, and they were all injured now, they could no longer stop the blow, and now they could not hide even if they wanted to, they could only close their eyes and wait for death.

When Owen saw this scene, water mist suddenly appeared in his eyes. He also suddenly yelled "Unyielding", and he instantly activated the talent skill "Unyielding".

Irving is generally reluctant to use this skill, because it is more like a Jedi strike, which instantly stimulates the potential of the body and restores the injury for the final blow. However, the injury will be more serious after the war, so he will never Not willing to use it.

Suddenly, Owen's eyes were instantly congested, and a cloud of blood rose up all over his body, and blood was cracked in his skin, like a devil.

An astonishing aura suddenly ignited from him, and he suddenly jumped up from the ground, suddenly his figure moved, and his body turned into a phantom, rising to the sky and greeted him with the giant palm of King Kong.

Chapter 1066: The violent end is happy

Owen watched his brothers and sisters get hurt in order to save themselves. How could he bear the heart to let these lives die again? He has a talent for "unyielding" to stimulate the potential of his body, and he intends to stop King Kong from shooting his lovely brothers even if he died. They.

At this moment, there was only the ***** huge palm in his eyes. He seemed to have forgotten how he was slapped flying with a palm, and even forgotten that the ten people didn't even block King Kong with their hands, so how he could block it alone.

"Owen!"

Boogie clutched his chest and looked sad.

"Instructor Owen!"

Seeing the utterly dead Owen rising to the sky, there was silence above and below the city. Everyone watched this scene silently, and their hearts were filled with tragedy.

Owen's eyes were blood red, the skin on his body exploded, blood streaks all over him, like porcelain that was about to crack, blood spurted, and the blood mist around his body became more dense, just like a blood demon, but his eyes were still staring at the giant palm. , The expression is grim and crazy.

"Cross Slash!"

Owen's **** eyes opened with an angry roar, and the broad sword slammed, two sword lights formed a cross in the air and slashed towards the giant palm of King Kong.

Although the sword light was dazzling, everyone did not dare to look at it. With this frontal blow, how could Irving block King Kong's palm, they seemed to have predicted Irving's fate.

There was a loud noise, as if the sound of a punch to the flesh, followed by a terrible roar of wounded beasts, the sound was stern and frightened.

This is not right! It should be Owen instructor screaming, right?

Why did you hear the miserable roar of King Kong?

"What's going on! What's going on!"

Everyone opened their eyes one after another, and asked without being surprised.

Even though Owen was a little vague in his consciousness, he was still awake, and he also had some doubts. He felt that his own blow had been cut in the air, and he had been prepared to take a fatal blow, but he did not feel it.

Is it too fast, I die without feeling it?

Owen unexpectedly raised a strong question in his heart!

"Wow!"

At this moment, he suddenly heard a loud cheering in his ears, and he quickly opened his eyes, seeing the scene before him, his eyes widened, there was incredible and surprise in his eyes.

"Long live the city lord!"

At this time, the head of the city and the battlefield violently roared with excitement.

Buji and the others, who were shot flying by the palm of King Kong, roared in excitement, as if their injuries were alleviated a lot. They originally thought that Owen was dead this time, but suddenly they saw a body image that struck like lightning. When he hit King Kong's chest, King Kong was caught off guard. Pangdang unexpectedly withdrew three or four steps, and its killer palm fell through.

Owen's "Cross Slash" was cut off, but his eyes showed ecstasy, even if he was exhausted now and his body crashed down, he didn't care about it. He still slammed his body on the ground and caused a lot of dust, but his eyes still kept With joy.

It was Di Ping who saved him at the last moment!

That's right, this is Di Ping. He is recovering quickly under the full treatment of Angela, Mok, and Zhang Zhengyi. He originally wanted to wait for the three to throw a few more injuries and heal the injuries.

But when he saw Owen and his party being shaken off, he could no longer heal his wounds with peace of mind. He had already seen that these people could not stop the mutant King Kong at all. If they did not stop Owen, he would definitely die.

Di Ping didn't care about his injuries and jumped up from the ground, rushing towards King Kong, trying to save Owen and others, and arrived at the critical moment.

It's too late to say, then fast;

We wrote so many words. In fact, it took only a few tens of seconds for Owen and others to save Di Ping, and it was so fast that everyone couldn't react.

When Di Ping was ten meters away from King Kong, the combined force of Buji and others was crushed. Everyone was shot in the air. Everyone spurted blood and could no longer stand. This made his worry and anxiety reach the extreme, and the anger was also The same goes to the extreme.

Seeing Owen's sudden madness to activate his talent and launch a death blow, he was also violent, and also ignored the physical damage, and used the collision skill.

He didn't use a knife in this blow. He knew that the saber couldn't seriously injure King Kong. He just wanted to save Owen, his general, so he directly used the third layer of Bengquan.

A punch moved the mountains and rivers, and Di Ping's full punch, as if to shatter all the space, with unmatched strength, was right in the heart of King Kong.

The speed of his rush and the impact of the collision, this punch reached the peak of his strength, and this blow was more than 30,000 or nearly 40,000 jin.

With a muffled sound, like a heavy hammer hitting a war drum, the sound was low but powerful and powerful, and Buji and others felt that their chests were stuffy.

A figure flew back upside down, faster than before, slammed on the ground, arousing dust and smoke. This is not someone else but Di Ping.

In Di Ping's boxing, it was his full blow, full punch, full punch, five punches, but when boxing, King Kong's chest seemed to be hit on a flexible cowhide drum, with nowhere to focus and strong rebound force. , He felt the punching force coming out of his body just about to penetrate into the diamond body, and a strong invisible resistance suddenly appeared in the diamond body, and he bounced the boxing power back abruptly.

The rebounding fist strength entered Di Ping's arm in an instant, and it actually wanted to drill into his body.

"Break it for me!"

Di Ping's eyes condensed, his whole body suddenly exploded, his strength vomited, and he forced his fist into the body.

"Snapped.....!"

There were five violent blasts in the air, fist strength exploded in front of him, and the air was distorted visible to the naked eye, showing how fierce the fist strength was, if it broke out in the body, he would not feel good.

At this time, Di Ping's eyes again filled with horror and doubt!

What is this invisible strange energy in King Kong?

How could he be so strong that he couldn't even penetrate his punching power. Could it be his iron armor skills?

Shouldn't!

Iron armor should be the outer defense, definitely not this kind of strong and soft power, this kind of power is very strange!

Suddenly, Di Ping's eyes lit up. He thought of the weird energy in his body that was not under his control but was always walking along a strange route in his body. This force was very strange, even though it was just a ray. , Very small, but every time Di Ping looks inside, he can feel the powerful energy contained in it, from steel to soft.

Could it be said that this kind of energy is also in the diamond body? But how can it be controlled, but I can't?

However, this kind of thought only flashed in Di Ping's mind, and he immediately threw it out. When is it now, I have time to think about it.

With a punch just now, although the power of the fist did not penetrate the body and hurt him when it entered the body of King Kong, the strength of the punch was so fierce that King Kong didn't notice it for a while. Di Ping punched him with all his strength, staggering his body.

After retreating three steps in a row, it stood firm. With this retreat, its giant palm could no longer fall, and it was finally accomplished, only to save Owen.

Owen fell to the ground as soon as he knocked down the sky. The attack just now had exhausted all his energy, and now he was completely empty and weak, like a bird with its wings folded.

However, in the next instant, a body rushed over and caught Owen to prevent him from falling to the ground. This figure was not someone else but Ava.

"Wow!"

King Kong was hit back by Di Ping, which made it extremely angry, and rushed towards Di Ping with a roar.

It is really angry. It has been blocked from going down the city for a long time in the past half a day. Jin Rongge was already irritable. After this mutation, he became more violent. If he didn't agree with him, he started to do it. King Kong ran to the side to fight with the mutant lion, showing how aggressive and overbearing he was.

The entire zoo has become its woodland, as strong as rhinos, lions, and tigers, all driven away by it, including the King Kong python that was killed by it.

King Kong roared and rushed towards Di Ping, crazy and scary. Di Ping didn't dare to neglect. He couldn't wait for King Kong to rush over, knowing that Buji and others could be on its attack line.

Di Ping also roared wildly, his body shot out suddenly, facing King Kong, a trace of blood overflowed from the corner of his mouth, and he was blown away by the strong wind in an instant.

Chapter 1068: Block King Kong Hundred Cannons

In fact, he was shaken back just now, and he didn't feel well. His chest was stuffy, his blood surged, his whole body was even more painful, and the newly healed wound on his skin burst again.

The previous injury has not completely improved. The treatment of the three people is developing in a good direction, but it takes time and process, but he just doesn't have the time to make a hasty shot, which makes his injury worse again.

However, at this time, Di Ping's fighting spirit was boiling. He felt that after the previous battle and treatment, his strength was further consummating. Every time he leveled up, the energy hidden in his body was quickly integrating into his body.

Moreover, the most important thing is that he feels that the strange energy in his body is speeding up swimming, wherever he passes, not only the injury is slowly improving, but the muscles and bones are slowly getting stronger.

This made him feel joy!

He is going to throw away his sword and use his fist. Since the sword can't break through King Kong's armored defense now, use his fist!

This King Kong has the blood of the ancient beast Ironback Ape, and it is a bit outrageous. His second-order powerful Zhulangdao can't break through its defense. How can he make sense?

The excitement that had originally obtained the wave-breaking sword has now disappeared. He found that in the end, he still has to be strong, otherwise the strongest weapon is useless.

King Kong's giant palm swept towards Di Ping, who was rushing with a gust of wind, and the killing intent in his eyes was so intense that it was heart-palpitating. King Kong had no intention of underestimating the enemy, and his attack was a full killer move.

Di Ping, looking at the giant palm that swept over, his face was as calm as jade. Although his eyes were red as blood, there was no hint of madness. On the contrary, it was as cold as ice. The chill in his **** eyes made people shudder at a glance. .

"Tieshan rely on!"

With a loud roar, the power of the whole body suddenly broke out, one foot stepped on the ground, the ground shook, and a strong momentum rose to the sky. At this time, its body, which looked like a child compared to King Kong, stood upright like a towering tower. .

"boom!"

The sound of spring thunder on the ground was dull and uncomfortable. At the same time, there was a crisp sound of bone fracture. Di Ping's right shoulder hit King Kong's left leg, and it was unknown whose bone was broken.

However, no one paid attention to this at this time, and was even more concerned about the results of the battle with one man and one beast.

At this time, the powerful Qi Jin produced by the collision suddenly blasted out, and the terrifying waves of air blasted away, flying sand and rocks, and the wind was raging.

The people at Chengtou Station saw the most real thing. In the shocking eyes of everyone, King Kong's huge body actually flew up in the sky, flying directly out of more than 30 meters, and then "Boom!", hitting the ground, The earth trembled like an earthquake, and the momentum was frightening.

Di Ping's blow hit King Kong's calf, blocking its forward momentum, and its huge body could no longer stop the momentum, and it flew out directly.

"Oh!" King Kong let out a scream!

The fall was not light, and his huge body gave him great strength, but it also affected his flexibility.

His body was violently knocked out by King Kong five or six meters away, and his feet made a deep mark on the ground. A gust of wind passed and the smoke dissipated. He was still standing on the spot, clenching his teeth, his shoulder bones had been broken, violently The pain made him afraid to use his hands.

There was still a clear blood stain on the ground, which seemed to be vomited out by him! Small cracks opened on the skin, and blood permeated outside along the cracks.

However, at this time, his eyes are brighter, and he obviously feels the collision. The strange energy in his body moves faster, like a cheerful little fish, quickly swimming around his body, every time it passes. At this point, the injury began to heal faster, and the hidden energy was shaken out from everywhere to accelerate its integration into the body, enhancing the strength of the body.

Buji and the others looked at King Kong leaping above their heads, their eyes widened in shock, and when King Kong crashed to the ground, everyone woke up. Several of them with minor injuries got up and hurriedly set up and ran to the side without moving.

This was something Di Ping hadn't expected. King Kong didn't fly out and fell like this. He had to break a few, and that would be a big loss.

"Wow! City Lord Wan Sheng!"

Everyone on the top of the city saw it most clearly, seeing King Kong being hit by Di Ping and flying out. It was first stagnant, but then thunderous cheers erupted, as if the city lord had already won.

"Roar!"

At this moment, the fallen King Kong finally recollected it. It jumped up from the ground and turned to watch Di Ping let out an angry roar.

Chapter 1069: Enraged King Kong to strike again

"Ava takes them out of the battlefield!"

Di Ping yelled at Ava and the others who were still standing, and then rushed towards King Kong again.

Although his shoulder was still in severe pain, and his left arm was a bit hard to lift, there was not much time to adjust his breath to recover from his injury.

He has found the trick to battle with King Kong, that is, the previous strategy, the bottom attack, thus weakening King Kong's offensive, and can also use his advantages, that is, being more flexible than King Kong.

Di Ping, who was running, suddenly felt something different, and when he looked up, the energy group of the Three Paths of Holy Rule fell from the sky and landed on him.

Energy quickly poured into his body, moisturizing his injured body, and even the shoulder bones were trembling slightly. They seemed to be absorbing energy joyfully and repairing themselves. Healing techniques are domineering. As long as the energy is sufficient, the injury can be quickly healed. .

Feeling the quick recovery of the injury, a group of hot flames exploded in his eyes, and his heart was burning like magma.

It is more certain to have three nurses supporting him at the back. Today, he must take down this King Kong, otherwise I am sorry for so many dead soldiers and wounded guards of the city lord.

One person and one beast slammed into each other, and a strong energy erupted, scooping up the dust and screaming in all directions.

King Kong's huge body tumbled out again, crashing to the ground, and the ground trembled.

Di Ping is clever now. He stared at the left leg that was attacked before. He believed that he was uncomfortable and King Kong would not be able to.

"Roar!"

Being knocked into the air again, King Kong turned up from the ground and roared in anger. Its eyes were already red, and its limbs rushed towards Di Ping frantically.

Boom boom boom...

For a time, one big and one small, one person and one beast, the two figures constantly collided on the battlefield with constant roars. The battlefield seemed to have countless tornadoes, flying sand and rocks, and dusty, so that they could be seen outside the battlefield. Unclear of the situation.

This was even more shocking than the previous chase battle. It was not like one person and one beast, but like two terrifying giant beasts fighting from the ancient wilderness.

In the battlefield, the terrifying roar of giant beasts sounded from time to time, mixed with the rumbling impact, the earth trembled, and everyone looked scared.

The awakened people who retreated to the edge of the city saw such a horrible scene, and they felt excited for a while. They thought that they were strong, but now they know how shallow they are, especially Zhang Hengcheng. He still has a hint of wanting to be with Di. Ping the thought of competing, the eyes are full of shock and worship at this time.

"boom!"

A figure flew out from the smoke and dust, and blood spewed in the air to form a blood mist.

"City Lord!"

Mok and others saw who the flying out was, and they cried out in shock.

Di Ping fell to the ground, his feet slammed on the ground abruptly, smashing a one-foot-deep pit, he half-kneeled on the ground, with one hand covering his chest and the other against the ground, his face was as pale as paper, and his body was covered with blood. , A body of armor was broken, and blood was constantly coughing up from his mouth.

The Mok trio were taken aback for a moment, and then immediately reacted. The trio rushed forward and ran a few steps, the energy in their hands quickly condensed into three holy **** of light, and then the three threw them towards Di Ping.

Di Ping's whole body was suddenly surrounded by a rich clean energy, as if suddenly turned into a glowing cocoon, his body greedily absorbing energy like a sponge.

Chapter 1070: Evenly matched

Di Ping is bathed in healing energy, which is very peculiar, as long as it enters the body, it will quickly repair damaged cells and relieve the injury quickly.

But at this time, he had no time not to think about the origin of this energy, but the thoughts in his heart flashed by, and he turned his attention to the body.

The magical energy that has been floating in his body has also become extremely active. It is swimming fast, and the energy that makes Di Ping happy has grown a lot. If it was the previous one, it has now changed. It became three strands, more than twice as thick.

However, this time the injury was a bit serious. The muscles all over his body were cracked and cracked everywhere. It was like a broken house that had been in disrepair for many years and leaked everywhere. The five internal organs had been displaced. The spleen and liver were also cracked everywhere, and the bones were even more extensive. Fragmentation, shoulder bones, arms have been completely shattered, if this is placed on ordinary people, it is destined to be a dead end.

In the battle with King Kong, he was completely down. Although he took advantage of King Kong's shortcomings and played the King Kong not lightly, it did not do much damage to King Kong. However, he danced on the tip of the knife and hit him every time. More or less will be injured, King Kong's defense and strength are really too strong.

Just then he was still concentrating, dodge the frontal attack of King Kong, and under high-intensity battle, this made his whole spirit a little tired.

In the end, he still failed to dodge the shock attack of King Kong, his body stagnated, and King Kong seized the opportunity to swipe and flew 30 to 40 meters away. This blow almost didn't kill him, and his whole body was fast. Fell apart.

Although he was injured in the previous battle, it was because he was training himself with King Kong, and the injury was within a controllable range, and the last blow was the real cause of his serious injury.

Di Ping's heart is like a mirror. Although Mok and the others are trying their best to heal himself, this healing energy is still a little too weak for his injury. The recovery from the injury is extremely slow. The muscle injury is easy to heal, but the bone and internal organs are injured. It is much slower.

Moreover, Mork, Angela, and Zhang Zhengyi are also very exhausted. The battle has been going on for a whole morning. They have rescued many people. The three of them are already using their skills with all their strength. Their bodies are shaking with sweat on their foreheads. Congeal like soybeans, rolling down pieces.

At this time Di Ping regretted not leaving some medicines for the injured awakened to use before, and now he does not have a cent of crystal coins to fully charge into the control center, otherwise he can buy some medicine to treat the injury, no matter how bad it is. You can also get some healing potions to restore the lost mana by the three Mork.

"Wow!"

A loud roar came from the smoke and dust, a gust of wind blew, the smoke tip dispersed, and King Kong's huge body appeared on the battlefield.

King Kong's condition is not very good either. There are mud and blood stains all over his body. There are also blood stains between Bai Sensen's teeth. It is on all fours, with one left foot slightly raised, and it seems to be injured behind him.

It was gasping for breath, and it stared at the city of refuge with human hatred in its eyes. The strong hatred and killing intent in it made everyone who looked at it feel palpitation.

"Its body has become smaller, isn't it?"

Di Ping suddenly saw that King Kong was different from before. His eight-meter body was now shrunk, returning to his original height of more than six meters, and the metal-like muscles cast in steel also returned to their normal colors. , With the texture of flesh and blood.

As soon as he thought about it, he understood that this was the disappearance of King Kong's rage and iron armor skills!

There was ecstasy in Di Ping's heart. He had been waiting for this moment. King Kong was indeed very strong. The violent and iron armor lasted for more than ten minutes, and these ten minutes were spent by him and the soldiers.

In its heyday, the Sanctuary City has nothing to do with it. Even the energy cannon can't hurt it. If King Kong doesn't fight with him all the time, but directly attacks the Sanctuary City, that's what Di Ping fears most. If it does that, The sanctuary city has been destroyed at the moment.

Although King Kong returning to a normal level is still very strong, Di Ping, who possesses the wave-breaking knife, has the ability to hurt it.
