

Doomsday 1081

Chapter 1081: Sharp arrow strikes to rescue the two

Hearing what Han Ming said, everyone fell silent, and they didn't know what to say.

To save people?

They themselves are chased by mutant spiders who have no way into the sky and nowhere. They still have the capital to save others, but it is not easy to say anything. Han Ming has rescued them many times, and now he is led by Han Ming. People, even his elders cannot be saved.

Therefore, the atmosphere was a little depressed for a while, and everyone was waiting for Han Ming's clear meaning.

Of course, Han Ming also felt that the atmosphere was not right. How smart he was to understand everyone's concerns at a glance, and smiled slightly: "This elder is someone I must save, but there are so many dangers in it, I can't hold it. Brothers are in danger with me. You will find a place to hide for a while. I will walk in and have a look. When I come out, I will meet you again. Then..."

"Brother Han, what are you talking about? How can we let you take risks alone!"

Lu Fang interrupted before Han Ming finished speaking, saying with a serious face.

"Yeah! Brother Han, that's an exception. We are brothers who live and die together. Your elders are our elders, so there is a reason to leave!"

Yu Yuanhua also looked solemnly.

Yu Yuanhua was grateful and respectful to Han Ming. Before he had a hole in his abdomen by a mutant spider to protect Liu Changhe. Had Han Ming rescued him desperately and then treated him with herbs, he might have died.

Liu Changhe, Zhang Zheng, and Chen Fang, who had never received Han Ming's life-saving grace, all expressed their views, resolutely not to leave, and want to advance and retreat with Han Ming.

Han Ming looked at the few people with serious and solemn expressions, smiled bitterly, shook his head and said: "Don't worry, I really don't mean anything else, but this is a private matter, and it's too dangerous. It's easier for me to act alone. Why should we bring all my brothers into danger!"

"No matter what, Brother Han, I will definitely keep up. I will never let Brother Han's actions be burdened!"

Lu Fang shook his head firmly and said.

"Yes, yes! And me, I promise that it won't affect your actions, Brother Han!"

Yu Yuanhua also said hurriedly.

"OK then!"

Han Ming looked at it difficult to persuade everyone, so he nodded helplessly.

"That's right!"

With Han Ming's consent, the seriousness of everyone's faces disappeared, showing some cheerful smiles.

"Brother Han, do you go down now, or wait a little longer! Or do you have any plans?"

Lu Fang asked in a low voice.

Han Ming shook his head and said, "The situation is unclear, and there is no plan to talk about. What we have to do now is to make sure that my elder is in this large army, and then we can make a plan!"

"How can I confirm this?"

Everyone was dumbfounded when they heard it, but they knew the horror of mutant spiders, and now it is not easy to rush through the encirclement and enter the temple.

"It's not easy! The range of these mutant spiders is too large, and they will be encountered if they are not careful. It is difficult to get close?"

Yu Yuanhua said with a solemn face.

"This is the difficulty. If we want to explore and understand, we have to rush in. It's better for me alone. I should be able to rush in. But now Changhe has injuries and can't act. Zhang Zheng and Chen Fang are also weak. They want to rush in. It's difficult to be safe again!"

Han Ming said in a difficult way.

When the three Liu Changhe heard Han Ming's words, the three immediately lowered their heads, feeling very sad. It was indeed that they had burdened Han Ming's actions.

"Brother Han, or leave the three of us behind and pick us up when you come back. It's a burden to take us with you!"

After a moment of silence, Liu Changhe suddenly said.

"nonsense!"

The voices of Han Ming and Lu Fang sounded at the same time. Both of them looked very serious. In the end, Han Ming looked at Liu Changhe and said, "You can't talk nonsense like this in the future. We are brothers, and no one is burdened!"

Chapter 1082: Where to bury the chaos

Liu Changhe was stared at by the two of them, and suddenly became a little nervous, and stammered: "I...I don't have any other intentions...thinking, I... . I just thought that we would not be able to help with following, and... I want you to distract and take care of you!" His voice became low and his eyes dimmed, looking at his injured leg, his eyes were red. The red one didn't cry only by holding back.

Han Ming and Lu Fang fell silent while looking at Liu Changhe, and Lu Fang patted Liu Changhe on the shoulder without speaking.

Liu Changhe's mood can also be understood. He can't move his legs now, and he has to carry everyone behind his back. It's a great kindness to be able to do so in this dangerous end time. He feels a little guilty in his heart. After all, it's he who has tired everyone. , I feel a little depressed.

"Don't think too much about Changhe. Since we are a team, it is normal to help each other. Don't have any burdens in my heart. Maybe it's your turn to save us next time!"

Yu Yuanhua also smiled and patted Liu Changhe on the shoulder, then his eyes swept across Zhang Zheng and Chen Fang and said gently.

Although Han Ming didn't speak, the same meaning was expressed in his eyes, which made Liu Changhe and the others very moved, with excited expressions on their faces.

"Let's do this! Find a safe place to hide, or I should rush in alone to see if the person is there. It's easy to say if the person is there, and if you are not, it will save everyone from getting involved and risking!"

Everyone was silent for a while, and finally Han Ming spoke.

"This... is not appropriate!"

Lu Fang hesitated.

Although the words have already been said, it is not that everyone is unwilling to help Han Ming, but the actual situation is like this. Han Ming must also be good. He has a higher success rate alone. Only Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua in the group can give. Han Ming had some help, and the other three were too tired to help. Maybe they would be destroyed by the regiment before they rushed in. But Lu Fang still felt that it was not justified to let Han Ming fight alone.

"There is nothing inappropriate, I am more flexible by myself, fast in and out, so I can figure out the situation, rest assured that these mutant spiders don't want to trap me!"

Han Ming interrupted Lu Fang's words with great pride.

"That's right. Brother Han is strong and fast, and we will definitely burden his actions if we keep up!"

Yu Yuanhua nodded in agreement.

"Go, let's find a place to hide first!"

Han Ming saw that everyone agreed, so he was not talking nonsense and led everyone back down the hill.

This place is too close to the battlefield, no more than two or three hundred meters at most. Mutated spiders may appear here at any time. If you find everyone, it will be troublesome, let alone saving people.

Everyone had just got off the hill and had not gone for a hundred meters. Suddenly Han Ming stopped, waved to the people to stop, and then listened to something with a solemn expression.

"What's wrong with Brother Han?"

Lu Fang saw Han Ming's solemn expression in his heart, and asked in a low voice, getting closer.

"There is movement ahead, like someone is fighting!"

Han Ming whispered.

Lu Fang frowned, "What should I do, do you want to take a detour?"

Han Ming nodded first, and finally seemed to think of something again, then shook his head and said, "Wait, I'll see what's going on!"

"Brother Han, let me accompany you!"

Lu Fang stepped forward.

"No, you stay and protect them, I'll go and see and return!"

Han Ming shook his head.

Then he turned his head and glanced at everyone, motioned for everyone to pay attention to safety, turned around and quickly rushed into the dense woods and disappeared.

Chapter 1083: Remittance contract with clues

Everyone looked at Han Ming who disappeared in the dense forest. They were helpless for a while. They knew why Han Ming didn't take them. If there was a battle there, it would be a cumbersome thing for them and others to follow the past. Not only would they not be effective. It will also drag Han Ming.

It is because they know that everyone feels a little uncomfortable. They are basically relying on Han Ming to live until now. They can't help too much, which makes them feel very angry.

"Let's go! Let's find a place to hide first, and wait for Brother Han to come back!"

Lu Fang looked at the direction of Han Ming's disappearance for a while, then looked back at everyone, then turned and took the lead to walk forward.

Han Ming went all the way, carefully paying attention to the surrounding situation, and touching the direction where the sound came from, the sound became clearer and clearer. It was obvious that there were human shouts and animal roars, but the sound was a little muffled, like It's ordinary from the underground, and it sounds very unreal.

After three hundred meters, Di Ping finally reached the place. Only then did he know why he made such a sound. It turned out that the sound came from a cave. He could hear the sound clearly when he reached the entrance of the cave.

"Hurry up, get on... hack it to death, can't let it go!"

A man screamed from the cave.

"No, it's too fast, we can't stop it!"

Someone shouted with a vibrato in their voice.

"If it doesn't work, we have to do it. If it runs away, we will die!"

Someone screamed.

"Ah! I bit my leg!"

At this time, a horrible roar came and someone was injured.

Han Ming drew an arrow from the quiver behind his back. This is a dozen old-fashioned white-feathered iron-headed arrows he found from a hunter's house in the small mountain village where he had been resting.

Don't underestimate this kind of arrow. Although it is made of old-fashioned craftsmanship, it is very particular. The arrow shaft is made of oak. This kind of wood has a high density and is not only hard but also heavy. The specially treated arrow shaft is smooth and moist. The dust is not short, but there is still no trace of deformation; the arrow is not an ordinary iron, but a tungsten steel arrow with good hardness. Simply wipe the black and shiny without a trace of rust, and you can know its sharpness at a glance. Absolutely easy and unusual; the arrow feathers are made of wild goose feathers, and the bonding process is quite good. It can be seen that the handwork is very good.

When Han Ming saw this bag of dozens of arrows from the wall of a farmer, he was ecstatic when he took it in his hand. He couldn't imagine such a good arrow in such a rural village and a bow on the wall. The hundred-year-old sangzhe wood bow, but although it was good, Han Ming didn't like it. Compared with his double-headed gold-winged war bow, it was not at the same level, so he only took the arrow.

Although this arrow is not as good as his carbon fiber arrow, or even the heavy arrow given to him by Di Ping, it is a delight for him, who now has a bow in his hand but no arrows.

Han Ming put the arrow on the bow and moved lightly toward the cave. Hearing the movement in the cave, there should be five or six people, as if they were being attacked by some mutant animal. He had to be careful not to overturn the boat in the gutter.

"Ah! Damn it dare to bite my ass!"

At this time there was another scream, followed by a roar of a beast!

"Quick, quick, quick cut!"

A few anxious shouts followed, but these people were obviously more restrained, and the shouts did not scream before they were suppressed.

"what!"

At this moment, a screaming scream suddenly came from the cave again. This scream did not suppress the extremely loud buzzing sound in the cave.

Chapter 1084: Sunny always after rain

"It's not easy to go, there is a bigger one!"

A horrified cry broke out in the cave.

"Run away!"

There was a jumble of exclamation in the cave.

Then came the sound of messy footsteps running out of the cave, Han Ming hurriedly backed away, hiding in a corner and staring into the cave.

"what.....!"

At this time, there were two screams in the cave again, and it was obvious that someone had died again.

"Roar!"

A beast roar, the sound is as deep as rolling thunder, it is especially loud in the small space of the cave, and the trembling Han Ming's ears makes his face change. It is obvious that this mutant beast is not weak, he thought After a while, he finally decided to quit, and he moved out of the hole again.

Hearing the increasingly urgent footsteps and gasping sounds in the cave, he hurriedly climbed up a big tree three times and stood on a branch of more than 20 meters high, staring at the entrance of the cave, on the tree. With a sharp arrow in hand, his heart burst into arrogance.

"Run!"

There was a mess of shouts from the cave, and immediately after the shadow of the cave entrance flashed, three figures rushed out of the cave and ran toward the jungle frantically.

It's just that they were late. The moment Han Ming saw them rushing out, a gray figure shot out like lightning and suddenly rushed to the last person, who screamed and fell to the ground.

Han Ming saw clearly that it was a gray lynx the size of a cheetah. After the lynx threw a man down, he bit the back of the man's neck with one bite, and suddenly blood spattered.

This person only came and let out a terrified roar, and immediately twitched on the ground, a blood spread quickly on the ground.

"Xu Da!"

The two of them just ran a few steps and heard the screams behind them and immediately looked back, and saw that their companion was bitten to death by the mutant bobcat. They suddenly screamed, and they instinctively rushed to save people.

At this time, a bigger bobcat flashed out of the cave. His body was as fast as a gust of wind. It instantly jumped and flew over the two people's heads and landed on the ground, staring silently at the two of them, their bodies tight. Stretched like a bow, he roared in a low voice, and seemed to be ready to attack at any time.

The legs of the two of them froze as soon as they stepped out. The mutant lynx suddenly rushed over and blocked the two retreats. The lynx that killed Xu Da also raised its head and stared at them with fierce eyes. The corner of its mouth was dripping with blood, ferocious and bloody, which made people shudder.

The scene of Han Ming hiding under the tree was really seen. When the three people were clearly dressed, a smile appeared on his face.

Why do you say he is happy?

It turned out that these three people were all wearing green military uniforms with guns on their backs, but they should be out of bullets if they didn't use guns. Both of them were standing with a military stab in their hands.

Regardless of whether it is from the equipment, wear, or demeanor, it can be basically determined that he is a soldier.

The reason why Han Ming came to have a look was to see if he was from Jincheng Base. Maybe he could find out about Han Ming's parents. You must know that Diping's cousin Wei Sicheng is the battalion commander. He must be among the soldiers at Jincheng Base. I know, he was happy when he saw these three soldiers dressed up.

"Squad leader, what should I do now!"

The darker and thinner soldier of the two asked in a low voice with a pale face.

"Get ready to work hard!"

The whiter person called the squad leader also had a pale face, but his expression at this time was more anger than fear. He held the military thorn in his hand, and his eyes stared sharply at the mutant lynx's gritted teeth.

"Squad leader, I will hold it, you go first!"

Although this soldier was also very scared, he was indeed extremely brave. He held the assassination in front of the squad leader and said firmly.

"He Gensheng, you nonsense! I want to walk together, I want to die together, Liu Mingyuan has never had the habit of leaving my brother!"

The monitor pulled He Gensheng back with a solemn expression.

Chapter 1085: The news is sure

Han Ming stood on the big tree and watched the scene below. He couldn't help feeling that this kind of affection only appeared in the army. It has never been in the assassin world. The assassin world is that people do not want to destroy the world. Who Regardless of other people's life and death, they are based on taking human life as the way of survival, and most of them look down on life and death.

And seeing this scene made him feel envious. It is really hard to maintain such a life and forgetting in these last days. That's why he cherishes the friendship formed with Lu Fang and others. This makes him After the death of the master, there was a trace of warmth in the lonely heart for many years.

"Wow!"

The two bobcats suddenly let out a low growl, and suddenly moved towards them.

The two of them looked nervous and raised their military stabs in their hands to prepare to fight the Bobcats, but from their trembling hands, it could be seen that they were not as brave as they were. They were still afraid, because they knew that it was death, who could be true Face it calmly!

"Boom!"

Suddenly, there was a sound of bowstring breaking, an unexpected sharp arrow fell from the sky, and the biggest lynx was nailed to the ground with a "poof", and the lynx let out a miserable roar.

Until then, there was a scream of sharp arrows piercing the air. The bobcat was nailed to its waist. It did not die immediately, but was struggling and screaming!

This sudden scene not only frightened Liu Mingyuan and He Gensheng, but also frightened the other smaller lynx. It originally pounced on the two of them, but it actually frightened like an electric shock halfway through. Nothing in the air jumped back by turning over, and the quick action was even Han Ming's tongue.

"Woo!"

As soon as it landed, its eyes watched vigilantly and horrifiedly at its struggling companion who was nailed to the ground, and it let out a whimpering low growl. Its eyes turned out to be humanized fear, which was as cruel as before.

Not waiting, Liu Mingyuan and He Gensheng reacted, and it turned around and ran, moving very quickly, regardless of the companion who was nailed to the ground with blood rushing forward.

But it was still too late. While it was moving, the bowstring sounded again, "Boom!", and then a sharp arrow screamed in the air, nailing its newly raised body to the ground, and the arrow penetrated its head, firmly nailed to the ground, blood gushed out quickly, and its limbs stopped moving after a twitch.

This sudden change quickly made Liu Mingyuan and He Gensheng unable to react at all. They didn't wake up suddenly until the Bobcats stopped struggling, and looked up in the direction where the arrow was shot.

At this time, a figure fell straight down from the tree and was about to land. The person's foot suddenly kicked on the trunk, and the person turned a somersault in the air, and then floated to the ground. His movements were indescribable and elegant, watching Liu Mingyuan. There was a fiery envy in He Gensheng's eyes.

But then the two of them shook their bodies, and vigilance flashed in their eyes, their bodies tightened involuntarily, staring nervously at the mysterious person falling from the tree.

"Don't be nervous, I am not an enemy!"

Han Ming smiled slightly when he saw the tight bodies of the two.

Liu Mingyuan and He Gensheng saw that the person here was a very handsome young man, with a harmless smile on their faces, and the vigilance in their hearts was mostly gone. No matter how personally speaking, they saved both of them. Life, if you refuse people thousands of miles away with such a posture, you can't justify it.

"This...brother...brother, thank you for your help!"

Liu Mingyuan licked his dry lips, clasping his fists in a dry voice.

"Thanks...thanks!"

He Gensheng also reacted at this time and hurriedly followed with a fist.

Han Ming smiled and waved his hand: "You're welcome, just call me Han Ming. This is a small effort. It's normal to reach out in the last days!"

Chapter 1086: Determined to rush to surround

After Han Ming greeted the two of them, he walked to the mutant lynx that was still struggling and roaring. He swiped the gold-winged warbow in his hand, and the sharp double-winged gold knife gently slashed the lynx's neck with a sharp "poof". The sound of passing the flesh and skin sounded, the lynx's cry stopped abruptly, and the animal head rolled to one side.

The two saw Han Ming beheading the mutant lynx in an understatement, and even the indifferent expression on his face hadn't changed. They only felt chills. This method is that the army has seen countless * blood war veterans without him. So indifferent.

This gave the two people a deeper understanding of Han Ming. This kind of person must not be provoked lightly. They are too cold-blooded and ruthless. They are definitely people with countless blood on their hands. Only this kind of person can have such a method.

"This is not a place to live for a long time, do you two want to go with me?"

Of course Han Ming saw the expressions of the two, but he didn't seem to be aware of it, and smiled faintly.

"This... Okay!"

The two hesitated for a while and finally nodded. Then they turned to look at their still-still companion in the pool of blood, with a sad expression on their faces, and then said in a low voice: "Can Mr. Han wait a minute? We thought Bury your comrades!"

Warriors bring back the bodies of their comrades. This is the persistence in the hearts of the fighters, but they also know that this is impossible in the last days. Many comrades have fallen in the jungle along the way. They can't get the corpses and can only escape. That was a helpless move, and now if they leave a few companions in place and be eaten by the beasts, they really can't bear it.

Han Ming is not a soldier, he can't understand it, but he still agrees with this concept of a soldier, nodded and said: "It's best to be quick. There was a lot of movement just now, I'm afraid it will attract mutant animals!"

"Thank you!"

With red eyes, the two paid a military salute to Han Ming, and then, with sorrow on their faces, walked to the side of their comrades-in-arms and moved them to the jungle.

And Han Ming thought for a while, walked into the cave, and when he came out, he was holding a person in each hand. The two of them had died, their necks were half-broken to one side, and his body was covered with scars and blood. People walked up to the two of them, and they were digging a hole to see Han Ming carrying them over, with gratitude in their eyes, but their eyes fell on the two comrades in arms, and tears could no longer be held in their eyes, even though it was He Gensheng. While digging a hole with tears, he wiped the tears from his face with his sleeve, making his face dusty.

Han Ming saw that the two of them were digging holes and using military thorns. He looked around, then chose a tree with the thickness of a hand and shoulder, cut out a two-meter-long pointed wooden stick with a golden wing bow, and then With his back on his body, Zhan walked forward with a wooden stick and said: "You let me go, let me come!"

Without waiting for the two of them to react, the wooden stick plunged into the ground with a puff, a large piece of mud flew up with a move of his shoulders, and a pit of a size of a meter and a half appeared on the ground. Han Ming's strength was more than a thousand jin, but he moved. How terrifying, in the horrified eyes of Liu Mingyuan and He Gensheng, a big hole was picked out five or six times, enough to put down the three of them.

"It's OK!"

Han Ming almost stopped as he watched, and smiled slightly as he watched the two people who were horrified.

"Oh!"

The two of them reacted, swallowed their saliva, looked away from Han Ming's face, and hurriedly put the bodies of the three comrades in the pit. At this time, they also forgot their grief and began to fill the soil with Han Ming. Help, and soon a new grave appeared in the jungle, a sad atmosphere filled the scene, even Han Ming felt uncomfortable.

He cut off the half-thick tree pole again, split it in half, and then inserted it in front of the tomb in front of the tombstone. It was a bit of his own mind. The three of them paid three salutes to the tombstone. Led and left quickly.

There is only a grave covered in new soil standing alone in the secluded jungle.

Chapter 1087: Three lines of defense keep safe

"Why Brother Han hasn't come back, nothing will happen, right?"

Lu Fang took the four of them and hid in a small depression not far from where Han Ming had just been separated. Liu Changhe looked anxiously at the outside from time to time, and kept talking.

"Can you be safe? How many times have you asked back and forth, and your head is making you noisy!"

Lu Fang yelled at Liu Changhe in an angry voice, but his eyes kept drifting outward, and his eyes were no less worried than Liu Changhe.

Although they only got along with Han Ming for just a few days, these few people have forged a deep friendship. They didn't realize it before. Only after they were with Han Ming, they seemed to be out of strength after leaving Han Ming. Sense of security.

This may also be a kind of habitual dependence of people. Han Ming has become their backbone now. He is not in the hearts of everyone. He used to be Lu Fang, but now he is transferred to Han Ming!

"sand!"

Suddenly there was a rustle of leaves swaying in the jungle. Everyone was shocked. Lu Fang's expression condensed and he waved his hand to be quiet. His eyes were fixed on the direction of the sound, and his body began to tighten. Resting Yu Yuanhua also grabbed a long knife in his hand, his body also tightened, his eyes staring vigilantly in the direction of the sound.

The atmosphere froze for a while, Liu Changhe no longer dared to talk nonsense at this time, his eyes were frightened, and he stared nervously in the direction of the voice. Chen Fang and Zhang Zheng closed their mouths tightly.

"rustle....."

The rustling in the jungle became clearer and clearer, and it got closer and closer. It was towards their direction, and everyone's already nervous expressions became even more anxious. Lu Fang half arched his waist, pressing the rocks with one hand while holding another. Chopper, like a cat that finds its prey, ready to attack at any time.

Suddenly, the sound stopped, the rustle disappeared, and even the originally swaying branches stopped shaking, but Lu Fang and others did not dare to relax at all, but became more tense.

"Lu Fang, are you in front?"

Suddenly a low voice of inquiry came from the jungle ahead.

"Ah! It's Brother Han!"

Everyone who had been nervous when they heard this voice suddenly loosened their bodies, with surprise expressions on their faces, and Liu Changhe couldn't help shouting, "Brother Han, we are here!"

Immediately after the leaves swayed in the jungle, Han Ming's figure sprang out of the jungle. Seeing that everyone in this figure looked like a pine, Lu Fang straightened up with a sigh of relief and said with a smile: "Brother Han!"

"Wow!"

Everyone was about to step forward. At this moment, the leaves moved, and two people walked out of the jungle. It was Liu Mingyuan and He Gensheng. The appearance of the two made Lu Fang and the others stunned, but they immediately realized that the two people should be rescued by Han Ming. .

"Brother Han, you are back, we are still worried about what happened to you?"

Although Liu Changhe sat halfway on the ground, he said with a bit of excitement.

Before Han Ming could speak, Chen Fang suddenly smiled and said, "Brother Han, don't you know how much Changhe misses you. This guy has been talking about you for a long time, but our ears are all pierced!"

Han Ming revealed two white teeth with a rare smile and said with a hearty smile: "Brothers are worried, don't worry, nothing will happen, I can't run if I can't fight!"

"Haha!" Everyone smiled, although they were afraid to laugh, which made the scene a little weird, but everyone was really happy.

With a greeting to everyone, Han Ming introduced the two to everyone. After everyone passed their names, they entered the mountain valley, and Han Ming asked straightforwardly: "You two don't know if you know Battalion Commander Wei Sicheng?"

Chapter 1088: The hard siege begins

"Of course, he is..."

He Gensheng said excitedly.

However, Liu Mingyuan who hadn't finished speaking was startled by Liu Mingyuan's eyes, and shut his mouth and didn't dare to talk nonsense.

However, even though Liu Mingyuan interrupted him, they had already shown that they knew Wei Sicheng. Han Ming was overjoyed in his heart and turned his inquiring gaze to Liu Mingyuan.

Liu Mingyuan's eyes hesitated, but when he saw Han Ming staring at him with scorching eyes, he knew that he wouldn't be able to stop speaking. After a moment of silence, he still opened his mouth and said, "I don't know what is the relationship between Mr. Han and Captain Wei?"

Born as a scout, Liu Mingyuan's character is more cautious, and he is subconsciously wary of everything.

Of course Han Ming understands Liu Mingyuan's thoughts. In a sense, the two personalities have similar parts due to their professional relationship. He smiled indifferently: "Chief Wei's cousin is friends with me. Let me find him!"

"Oh!" Liu Mingyuan's slightly tense expression eased, then looked at Han Ming and nodded, "We belong to the Second Battalion Independent Reconnaissance Company led by Battalion Commander Wei!"

"What a coincidence!"

Han Ming was also a little surprised that he saved one person at will and he saved Wei Sicheng's subordinates. This is no wonder He Gensheng was excited. It turned out that he was asked by the battalion commander, but Han Ming was also a little surprised. The task was finally completed, so he Zai Jiannai couldn't help feeling anxious, and said, "Then Battalion Commander Wei is now in the team behind it?"

It's no wonder that Han Ming has always been a calm-minded killer agitated, because this task has indeed caused him a lot of suffering and can't bear the less sins. How can he not be excited if it is finally possible to succeed.

"Yes! Now the second battalion is the main battalion for this retreat. We were sent out to explore the way, but when we encountered mutant spiders, they were scattered and the temporary station was also surrounded. We could not go back and we had to hide. When I went to the cave, I ran into a mutant lynx..." At this point, Liu Mingyuan's eye circles were a little red.

He was thinking of his brother who was killed by the mutant bobcat again!

However, Han Ming doesn't care whether he is sad or not. He just wants to know whether Di Ping's parents are in the team this time, so he asked urgently:

"Do you know if Camp Commander Wei's relatives and family members are also in the retreat team?"

"family?"

Liu Mingyuan looked at Han Ming with a puzzled look: "Campaign Wei is in the army himself? No family members!"

"No!"

Han Ming's head buzzed on the spot, and his face turned pale. He asked in surprise, "Are his parents not with him?"

"Captain Wei's parents and his sister have gone to the new base several days in advance, and they are not with Captain Wei!"

Liu Mingyuan replied.

Han Mingxin sank even more, and asked with the last gleam of hope: "Are they just their parents and sister going there? Are there any other intimacy together?"

"No! Because the number of places is limited, only the immediate family members of the base high-level personnel can be retired in advance, and no relatives can follow!"

Liu Mingyuan shook his head.

Han Ming suddenly had a bad feeling that the city lord's parents might be in an accident. How could this be good? For a while, he felt a little out of control. If the city lord knew about it, it would be sad.

"But!" Liu Mingyuan said again at this moment.

"But what?" Han Ming saw a light in front of him as he walked in the dark, his eyes lighted up and he recovered, staring anxiously at Liu Mingyuan.

Feeling Han Ming's anxiety, Liu Mingyuan scratched his head in embarrassment: "But I heard that it seems that Battalion Commander Wei has an aunt in the camp of relatives, who retreats with the troops this time!"

Chapter 1089: Three kills with one arrow

"what?"

Han Ming jumped up, grabbed Liu Mingyuan's hand, and said, "Are you sure it is Camp Chief Wei's aunt?"

Liu Mingyuan was startled by Han Ming's actions, and a sharp pain came from his hand. His cold sweat broke out, and he gritted his teeth and said: "OK! Hey! It hurts...!"

Only then did Han Ming realize that he was too excited, so he quickly let go, and said with a look of sorrow: "I'm sorry, I'm so excited!" But after letting go, he looked serious and said in a solemn tone again: "Are they also in the retreat team now?"

"Hey! It's...in the camp of relatives!" Liu Mingyuan pressed his sore wrist and sucked in the air.

He didn't expect this young man to be so powerful, but he almost didn't squeeze his wrist with a quick grip. He is a warrior in the army and not a small woman. It takes so much effort to make him feel this way. Liu Mingyuan stroked his wrist. Calculating in his heart, from his previous performance when he saved them and his current strength, he has guessed that this person should be an awakened, because there is an awakened in their army, he has seen it, and his strength and speed are far beyond ordinary people. , The strength is terrible.

"What does kinship camp mean?"

Han Ming asked puzzledly.

"The kinship camp is specially set up by the military region for the relatives of some officials who have not retired in advance. There is a special company to look after. The security is much higher than that of ordinary people! Aunt Wei Ying is also here. I have been worried that no one has been injured in the camp at the moment!"

Liu Mingyuan had already seen that Han Ming was very concerned about the aunt of Battalion Commander Wei, so he clarified the problem all at once to save Han Ming from worrying.

"That's good!" Han Ming sighed, and the tension in his heart finally eased a lot.

Knowing that they are in the army of retreat, and there is no danger at present, Han Ming no longer has the despair and worry before, but immediately thinks about how to rescue them, and his brows are tied together again.

"Brother Han, is this aunt Wei Ying the elder you are looking for?"

At this moment, everyone in Lu Fang understood what was going on, and Lu Fang asked with some concern.

"Yes!"

Han Ming nodded.

"Then what shall we do now?"

Lu Fang was silent for a while and asked in a low voice.

Lu Fang's words asked Han Ming's heart. This was exactly what he was thinking about. He already knew that the person he was looking for was in the army, but he was besieged by mutant spiders. What should I do now? Should I rush in to save people? Waiting for the mutant spider to retreat.

Han Ming's silence made the atmosphere at the scene serious. Yu Yuanhua, Lu Fang, Liu Changhe, Chen Fang, and Zhang Zheng all looked at Han Ming closely and waited for his decision. Before, Han Ming was going to go alone. Ying, now that we have the exact information, he should even break in!

But Han Ming was thinking about the plan, he hesitated for a while what to do!

The best plan is that he rushes in now and finds Di Ping's parents to take them back with the return scroll. But at that time, what about people like Lu Fang? After a few days with these people, they have formed a deep affection, and just like this They really couldn't do it.

Although he is a killer, he is really cold-blooded without a watch, but his feelings are deeper than ordinary people hide. He took the city owner's parents and went back, and these people may be dangerous if they keep here, and they may die at any time. , How could he bear to do so.

And this can be regarded as his most primitive team. It is better to have these people help Di Ping than to be alone. After all, there are two awakened people among them, and he is reluctant to give up!

Chapter 1090: Speed through the level

"Brother Han, is this elder important to you?"

Suddenly Lu Fang looked at Han Ming and asked.

Han Ming nodded solemnly: "Very important!"

Although there are only three words, everyone feels from his expression that this is by no means an ordinary importance, it is obviously a person who cannot be saved.

Lu Fang was silent for a moment and seemed to be determined to say: "Brother Han, make arrangements! Since it is a group, then we have no reason to hide behind, you go there, we will follow it!"

"Right right! Brother Han, give the order! We promise to keep up and not back down!"

Yu Yuanhua also said solemnly.

As for Chen Fang, Zhang Zheng, and Liu Changhe, their expressions were extremely firm at this time. Although they did not speak, they knew what they meant by looking at their expressions.

Han Ming didn't speak, his eyes swept across Jianyi's face, and he was suddenly moved. These people are very good brothers, people who are willing to be born and die with him, which made him feel the warmth that he has never had before.

Now he was even more reluctant to leave everyone behind, so his brain started to work, thinking about how to do it.

The teleporting scroll can teleport five people. This is what Di Ping told him. After receiving Di Ping's parents, they must be sent back first. Then some of these people must stay and wait for him to come back to pick them up.

He still has a locator in his hand. The city lord told him that it can be used for positioning, and the city lord can send it over. That means he can also ask the city lord to let him come back and then pick up the remaining personnel. ?

After the calculations were clear, Han Ming finally settled in his mind. He nodded to Lu Fang and said, "Well, since everyone is willing to advance and retreat together, then we will rush in and save people!"

Liu Mingyuan and He Gensheng looked at the six people and suddenly felt that these six people were crazy. The average people wanted to flee as far as they would go. They still want to get together. They are a team of twelve, and now only two of them survive. Mutated spiders are so powerful, and these people are not afraid of death but want to rush through the blockades of mutant spiders.

"Should you two leave or rush into your army's garrison with us?"

At this time, Han Ming turned his gaze to the two and asked softly.

"I... we will also go in with you!"

Liu Mingyuan wanted to say nothing, but thinking of his identity, he still couldn't do anything to leave the army, so he gritted his teeth and nodded.

Han Ming saw that the two of them were willing to go together, so there was no delay. You should know that once the mutant spider army arrives, it will be difficult for them to rush in. He suddenly stood up and said: "Go, let's go now and fight for mutation. The spider army rushed forward and rushed in!"

"Yes!"

Everyone stood up in unison, even Liu Mingyuan and He Gensheng also stood up.

Under the leadership of Han Ming, the group left Shanwa and rushed towards the temple again.

It was almost noon, the sun was just above the sky, the moisture in the jungle was steamed up by the sun, and the wind did not appear to be very sultry. Even after walking for a short distance, everyone's clothes were completely soaked and felt extremely uncomfortable.

The gunfire in the direction of the army station has not stopped, and there is still a gunshot from time to time, but the sound is not as intense as before.

This time Han Ming didn't let Lu Fang lead the way, but he led the way by himself. He glanced vigilantly at the movement in the jungle, and he was approaching the range of the mutant spider's movement. He had to be careful.

Han Ming had to be careful. He now has only ten arrows left in his hand. Although this kind of hardwood arrow is good, it is not enough to use on his golden wing bow. The super-strong ejection force puts a lot of pressure on the arrow body. A crack appeared in the arrow body after one use, which was considered useless. He didn't dare to waste too few arrows in his hand, so he couldn't bear to use it without using it.
