

Doomsday 1101

Chapter 1101: Mutated giant tiger to rescue

Seeing Fang Liancheng's complexion returned to normal, Li Zhongtian secretly observed it with a sigh of relief!

To say that Fang Liancheng is a straw bag, then this Li Zhongtian is an absolute villain. Many times Fang Liancheng's decision is made by him, including preventing Han Ming and others from entering, which is his suggestion.

Li Zhongtian has no other abilities. He is strong at playing conspiracy theories and tricks to cause internal chaos, especially his sharp lips. He insists on letting him climb to this position step by step, so he is the most vigilant and timid. He can think of anything dark. On the one hand, this may also be related to a person's character. Oneself always harms others, so it is always afraid of others harming oneself.

A large group of mutant spiders followed Han Ming and others. He was afraid that they were deliberately attracted by Han Ming and others. He was willing to let these people in. Fang Liancheng was also afraid, so the two hit it off and ordered the soldiers to shoot.

The atmosphere in the car became more relaxed again, but they did not hear the horrible roar from the mountains when they were hiding in the car. They just felt their bodies sank and felt a little flustered, but they came and went quickly. Did not pay attention.

If they were outside, they might not be so calm at this time.

Han Ming led a group of people out of the mutant spider group and quickly rushed into the jungle and ran to the south. The roar of the beast came from the north. Of course, he wouldn't run to the north stupidly.

"what!"

At this time, there was a scream from behind, Han Ming hurriedly looked back, only to see He Gensheng was thrown to the ground by a mutant spider, a sharp front paw of the mutant spider pierced his back heart, blood from behind The back gushes out.

Originally, the two of them just had to follow the open road ahead, but He Gensheng's mood had not been relieved from the previous shock. When he stumbled inadvertently, the speed slowed down, and the mutant spider chasing behind swooped. Threw him down.

He Gensheng's mouth was sprayed with blood, and his eyes were full of desire for life. He supported his arms angrily and wanted to get up, but his strength was quickly lost with the blood, and he lay on the ground again.

"Root!"

When Liu Mingyuan turned around to see this scene, his eyes suddenly became red, and he yelled and turned and ran back.

"do not go!"

He Gensheng suddenly tried his best, suddenly propped up and roared at Liu Mingyuan.

"puff!"

The mutant spider bit the back of his neck and pressed him to the ground again, blood gushing out, his eyes began to glow!

At this time, another mutant spider had already leaped over He Gensheng and rushed towards Liu Mingyuan, who was running back. Suddenly, the movement of the mutant spider stopped. He didn't know when, He Gensheng stretched out a hand and held onto the mutant spider tightly. A hind leg pulled the mutant spider vigorously, and the spider screamed and began to struggle violently.

"Squad leader...go!"

He Gensheng's eyes burst into flames again, and he firmly grasped the mutant spider's hind legs and let out a stern scream!

At this time, two mutant spiders pounced on He Gensheng frantically.

"Gensheng...you die for me!"

Liu Mingyuan let out a crazy roar and waved his army thorn to kill the mutant spider, and then he was about to pounce on He Gensheng.

"Boom!"

At this time, a bowstring rang, and a sharp arrow rubbed Liu Mingyuan's face and shot a mutant spider that was leaping towards him. The strong wind made a blood mark on his face, irritated by intense pain. Liu Mingyuan. .

"Go! You can't let your brother die in vain!"

Han Ming's anger came over at this time, awakening Liu Mingyuan in madness.

"Class...Long...Go!"

He Gensheng sprayed blood in his mouth and shouted vaguely.

His eyes looked at Liu Mingyuan's pleading look, which made Liu Mingyuan more sad, his heart twisted, especially when he saw a green grenade in his hand, his eyes began to blur, and tears fell silently.

Chapter 1102: Recruiting heroes is useful

After all, Liu Mingyuan is a soldier. He knows the most correct choice. He knows that He Gensheng is out of help at this time, and he is also desperate to die. A sting of the mutant spider hits the back of his heart, and his neck is also bitten off. Whoever Also powerless.

"what....."

Liu Mingyuan let out a roar of grief and indignation, then looked deeply at the direction of the temple, turned and chased Han Ming and the others, the tears in his eyes had dried up, only thick hatred.

He Gensheng watched Liu Mingyuan's back running away, his face showed a smile, as if relieved, there was a loud noise, the grenade exploded, and the three mutant spiders instantly exploded into fragments under the powerful impact. .

Liu Mingyuan's running body paused, but he didn't look back. He still ran towards the jungle, tears falling with the wind.

Standing in the attic, Yang Linshan and Li Shufu clearly saw the hatred in Liu Mingyuan's eyes through binoculars, and the cold hatred made both of them tremble.

This look made them feel uncomfortable, and it also made them helpless. They knew that they had deeply pierced the heart of this soldier, and believed that from now on this soldier would become an endless enemy of Jincheng Base.

This scene was seen by the soldiers defending in the temple, and tears welled up in the eyes of many people. This was their comrade-in-arms, falling in front of them, but they were powerless. What made them most uncomfortable was that they played together. The executioner, the murderer, was the main criminal who personally sent his comrades into the mouth of the mutant spider.

Many soldiers shed tears silently, a little bit of hatred in their hearts is also gathering, and their dissatisfaction with the chief officer is also accumulating, only at a certain time.

Han Ming ran ahead and didn't care whether Liu Mingyuan could keep up. He could shoot an arrow at the last moment to help Liu Mingyuan. He didn't want to see this soldier die in front of him again. He tried his best. If he doesn't keep up, it's a man. He could not interfere with his choice.

He has only five arrows now, so he can't waste it anymore. The mutant spider madly chases after him, but Han Ming is thinking violently in his heart.

The army of mutant spiders is here, and the army that knows nothing is bound to die this time. There are tens of thousands of mutant spiders. This line of defense is simply unstoppable. How to stop the mutant spiders like a tide?

He doesn't want to control the life and death of these soldiers, and he can't control it, but Di Ping's parents and cousin are still in the military. He can't care about it, but now he can't control it. He is nothing but a drop in the face of the mutant spider army. It didn't make much difference, and he didn't know what to do for a while.

"Brother Han, what should I do now to escape first?"

Han Ming naturally slowed down because of his thinking, and Lu Fang asked in a low voice from behind.

"No, we find a place to defend, we can't leave here!"

Han Ming suddenly flashed a cold light in his eyes, and said in a deep voice.

Although Lu Fang's question interrupted Han Ming's thoughts, it also made him make up his mind!

He decided not to leave. If the mutant spider army rushes here, the defense line of the army may soon collapse. At that time, the city lord's parents will not be able to escape. At that time, it will be too late for him to rescue him. He has already thought about it. The perfect solution is to leave this difficult problem to the city lord to decide!

He has tried his best, he can be regarded as the trust and support of the city lord, and now he feels that the matter is beyond his ability, and he can't solve it by himself.

Chapter 1103: Chasing the waves and the sword is like a cold moon

"boom!"

There was a loud noise, and everyone couldn't help covering their ears. The terrifying shock in the air seemed to rupture the eardrum, and pain appeared on every face.

Although the head was shocked, the faces of everyone in Chengtou showed joy. The city lord gave such a terrible punch, I believe that King Kong will definitely not survive, but the next moment everyone's face changes wildly, with surprise in their eyes. , It seems that I can't believe what I see.

Di Ping flew backwards for more than 30 meters at a faster speed than before. The person sprayed a **** mist in the air, and then hit the ground with a "bang", and the powerful impact carried his body out three or four. Meters away, his feet were deeply stuck in the ground, and a half-foot deep ditch was plowed on the ground.

"Wow!"

Di Ping's color was red, like a piece of red cloth. The next moment he opened his mouth a lot of blood spurted out of his mouth. There was also blood overflowing from his ears and nose, and his head was scattered, looking very miserable.

He never thought that his combo hadn't made King Kong lose his combat effectiveness. He actually greeted King Kong with a punch at a critical moment, blocking his full blow. His strength was still too far behind King Kong, violent. Power poured into his body and almost shattered his body. If it hadn't been for him to rise by another level, his body would probably collapse. But that's why his injuries were extremely heavy. Not only was his body injured, but his internal organs were also damaged. The tremor split, and waves of severe pain hit him, and he had to grit his teeth and insist.

The mutant King Kong was also uncomfortable. It was attacked by Di Ping one after another, and his internal organs were blown into a mess, but the super strong physique and tenacious vitality made it persist.

It also knows that if it is hit by this human being with this full-strength punch, it can really break its heart. By then, it has only a dead end, so at the last moment it exploded with potential and slammed a punch. This punch was beyond Di Ping's expectation, so this punch is very strong, Di Ping was almost beaten.

"boom!"

King Kong's huge body was hit by Di Ping, and the hit body fell backwards and hit the city wall. The tall city wall shook again, like an earthquake, and the city wall shook for a while. At this time, everyone on the wall reacted. There were multiple exclamations!

"Sanctuary...Master!"

The awakened people hiding under the city gate also saw this scene. They were all terrified and they were about to rush up screaming.

"do not come!"

Di Pingqiang swallowed the blood in his mouth and screamed at everyone.

Although he was extremely embarrassed now, their awe of Di Ping was already deep in their bones. Di Ping screamed, and his natural reaction stopped just two steps away, standing in place anxiously looking at Di Ping.

Di Ping stayed on the ground with his hands on the ground, his eyes were red, and he stared closely at King Kong who fell on the city wall with a messy breath, speeding up the movement of blood to heal his severely damaged body.

Fortunately, at this time, the strange energy in his body is running at high speed, repairing the injuries in his body, and the escape energy in his body is also madly blending into his body, not only maintaining his body from collapsing, It has enhanced his strength.

At this moment, his heart was clear. He knew that he had just taken care of it. He was too eager to win, so he concentrated on a blow. However, he did not expect that King Kong was so strong, so many powerful attacks did not make him lose his resistance. Backed by it.

If you just used the Wave Chase Knife just now, King Kong might have been solved by yourself, and you have been playing crazy, and you have forgotten to attack with all your strength. This should not be the case, such as how to not lose your mind.

Chapter 1104: Stack the knives and cut the King Kong

In Di Ping's horrified gaze, King Kong slowly supported the city wall and stood up. At this time, its pupils were also red with blood, and its eyes, nostrils, ears, and mouth were all bleeding, and it looked terrible.

Di Ping's combo punch almost smashed it to death. The internal organs were in a mess. If it were not for the super vitality, it would have fallen. King Kong gasped for breath, and looked at Di Ping with hatred. Slowly walking towards Di Ping, the angry killing intent in his eyes made Di Ping a little frightened.

Seeing King Kong walking step by step, Di Ping felt anxious, but at this time his body was empty, his muscles cracked and bones were broken, and his whole body couldn't lift a trace of strength. How to resist King Kong.

"Protect the master!"

At this time, Gina, Ava, and Daniel reacted, shouting loudly, Ava rushed towards King Kong, and now she could not ignore Di Ping's order.

The fireball in Gina's hand was rapidly condensing, her eyes were anxious, and the gun banged, Daniel's musket rang, and the bullet instantly hit King Kong's right face, leaving a blood hole on King Kong's face. Being collapsed, there is no iron armor, and the defense of King Kong cannot be broken by Daniel's musket.

King Kong didn't even turn his head back, and still walked towards Di Ping step by step. Although its pace was slow and heavy, it was like the sound of death drums that hit everyone's hearts, dong dong dong... ..

"boom"

Ava's fireball also exploded on King Kong's face, and the flames shot in all directions, but King Kong didn't even sway, and still approached Di Ping step by step.

Seeing this scene, Ava showed despair on her face, but she did not stop, still igniting the fireball crazily.

At this time, Yun Mengsi finally reacted, and she suddenly took a step towards the collapse. The flame energy on the staff quickly condensed, and a series of dozens of fist fireballs took the wind to shoot towards the King Kong.

"Boom boom boom..."

A series of explosions exploded on King Kong's back, and the hair on King Kong's back was instantly burned into a curled state, but its lofty body was unaware, and it was still striding towards Di Ping. Although its steps were slow and heavy, it was a bit heavy. The span is also four or five meters away, and thirty meters or so is at most five or six steps. Now it has walked three steps, and in three more steps it will reach Di Pingyuan.

Seeing this scene, Di Ping was a little helpless. King Kong now regards him as his life and death enemy. Seeing this, he wants to kill himself in order to feel at ease.

He can't move at this time, and the main gun on the main tower of the city can't be used at this position. The view has been blocked by the city wall. The energy cannon on the city head is also incapable of King Kong. He has no means to deal with King Kong. There is a kind of The feeling of being exhausted.

"Grandma's, isn't Lao Tzu really going to die here today? I had known that letting it run was not!"

Di Ping looked at the King Kong staring at him with blood-red eyes hatefully, and his heart felt bitter for a while.

"Boom boom!"

Ava finally rushed up. She jumped up and slashed the waist of King Kong like a series of lightning with a pair of knives in her hands, but her knives seemed to be slashed on the hard leather, only two or three inches long. The shallow wound, it seems that even the cortex is not broken, and her knife can't be broken, even if King Kong doesn't need iron armor.

King Kong leaped again, and the "boom" seemed to hit Di Ping's heart. He tried to stand up, but there was tearing pain from his body and his bones creaked. He did not stand up.

At this time, Mok, Angela, and Zhang Zhengyi were also panicked, but at this time their mental power was exhausted, their mana was exhausted, and no matter how hard they tried, they couldn't stimulate their skills.

Angela even broke down in tears, and Mok's eyes were flushed. They wanted to watch their master die under the Diamond Fist, but they were powerless. This sense of powerlessness made them desperate.

Chapter 1105: Dead end roars sad

"boom!"

King Kong crashed to the ground with one foot, and the other big foot was already raised high. This time it was only two steps away from Di Ping. The crazy killing intent in King Kong's eyes was shooting, and excitement was mixed in it. It seems that this enemy is about to die at its feet.

Di Ping raised his eyes with difficulty and watched King Kong walking slowly. King Kong's momentum was not great, but this step was slowly coming. It seemed like the footsteps of the **** of death were approaching, and a fear of death had grown in Di Ping's heart.

Although he is strong, after all, he is just an ordinary person who came in peacetime. He has been struggling in the last days after he gained the system. In just one month, no matter how fast he grows, how strong can he be?

Facing the pain in his whole body and the crazy killing intent of the mutant King Kong, he faintly lost his heart. At this moment, there were many illusions in his mind, and various pictures appeared.

In the picture, there is his complete life, from childhood to elementary school, junior high school, college, to three years of social life, and then to this month of struggle in the apocalypse. The most appearing is that he carries infinity. Pictures of the life of nostalgic and regretful parents.

There is also the bit by bit that Su Xiao, who he loved, hurt and hurt, walked through!

These pictures flashed past, and he was watching so peacefully at this moment. It seemed that he did not hate Su Xiao much at this moment. In fact, he already knew that the reason for persisting was only to give himself an confession and paint this love. A period.

The picture turned around again. Aunt Yu Shu's gentle and concerned eyes, Liu Bingyu's soft smile, and Ning Nan's icy blue faces appeared in his mind one by one. Only then did he realize that these women, Yuan Yi They were already in his heart, and even Ye Lu's sunny and timid appearance flashed out.

The last thing that suddenly appeared in front of him was the hopeful and eager faces of the people of the asylum city, looking at him with longing and admiration in their eyes.

Suddenly all the pictures collapsed and disappeared, forming countless frightened and desperate faces. With this sudden change, the shocked Di Ping hit a spirit, and his whole body was shaken and he woke up instantly.

"No...no, I can't die, so many people are relying on themselves, how can he let these people down!"

Di Ping roared in his heart. He suddenly gave a low growl. His eyes were instantly red, and the blood began to flow all over his body. He wanted to stand up and fight.

"Fuck!"

There was a burst of sound, the skin on his body burst open, and blood spewed out instantly, his body could no longer support such a violent eruption.

He wants to stand up in one fell swoop, he has to block the attack of King Kong no matter what, he wants to live, he can't die, he has decided to use the upgrade skills, although he has not fully mastered the strength of the first and eighth levels, and then upgrade to the next level. At level 9, the waste was too much, he was unwilling, but now there is only one method, even if he is unwilling and helpless.

He is a little helpless, why every level up is basically in a near-death state, can't it be used once in normal times?

Originally it was a powerful booster to improve his strength, he was transformed into a life-saving straw!

He didn't know whether his mental power could sustain this upgrade, but he felt it should be about the same. When he was upgraded to the first and eighth levels, he felt that he was still unfulfilled. It was not too wasteful to think about this upgrade.

"Wow!"

Just as he was about to activate the upgrade skill, a tiger roar came, and a huge white tiger suddenly rushed out, rushed on King Kong, and bit it frantically.

The seriously injured King Kong was still able to block the pounce, his huge body suddenly fell to one side, and a loud bang stirred up dust in the sky.

Chapter 1106: The behemoth died after breaking the heart

"call!"

The entire sanctuary city seemed to be exhaling a long breath. Whether it was the people on the top of the city or Ava and others under the city, they all exhaled a long breath after seeing this scene, and the original desperate eyes restored a hint of joy.

The mutant tiger was upgraded to a level by Di Ping's upgrade skills. Not only did his injuries heal, but his strength was once again upgraded to the first and ninth levels. Regardless of this level, the increase is not even a little bit. It looks like a crazy tiger, King Kong. Pressing down, constantly hissing, sharp claws slashed down King Kong's body.

The claws of the mutant tiger are sharper than the sword. King Kong left a series of wounds on his neck, all deep and within reach, blood flowed out along the wound, and the armor disappeared. The defense of the flesh and skin alone was not enough to resist the mutant tiger. Claws.

"Roar!"

King Kong reacted, let out a horrible roar, and swept the mutant tiger away with a palm.

"Wow!"

The mutant tiger rolled on the ground twice with a roar, one turned over and jumped up, and once again pounced on King Kong's body and screamed his claws frantically. Its huge body forced King Kong to the ground, and for a time King Kong Ni could not turn over. .

"good chance!"

At this time, Di Ping's eyes burst into intense joy, and he finally didn't need to use his upgrade skills. Upgrading to Tier 1 and Tier 9 would only be harmful to him. Continuous upgrades would have a lot of bad effects on his successors.

However, he himself cannot be promoted, but others can. Only since the last time he was promoted to Irving and Boogie, he has never promoted the recruited heroes, so that he almost forgot this function.

Now Mok and Angela are all mentally exhausted and their mana is exhausted. As long as they level up, they will be saved from their injuries. There is no need to use upgrade skills, and the two have never used upgrade skills. I believe they won't be able to use them once or twice. has a problem.

When Mork and Angela were anxious, they suddenly felt a powerful mysterious energy gushing out of their bodies. This energy quickly traveled through their bodies. It was uncomfortable before. It seemed to burn all the muscles and bones and blood. At this moment, they were sweating like rain, and couldn't help but snorted, but the pain came and went quickly. Before the two of them could react, the energy became as gentle as a spring rain. And moisturizing, nourishing their bodies, they soon felt that their strength had actually improved, from the first level and third level to the first level and fourth level.

And most importantly, their state is fully full, the previously exhausted mental power and mana are all fully restored at this moment, the exhaustion and pain all over their bodies have disappeared, and the full energy of their bodies makes them feel extremely satisfied and excited.

"Healing!"

Both of them seemed to feel each other's mutation, looked at each other, and then shouted at the same time.

They understand that this is the master upgrading them, and naturally they want them to treat themselves.

"Om!"

Strong energy fluctuations are generated around them, and little holy light spots quickly condense around them like swarms of bees returning to their nests. In just an instant, a dazzling group of light has formed in their hands, and then they leave in an instant, like a benefit. The arrow was shot at Di Ping like a smash, but it didn't cause any harm. Instead, it was like ice and snow quickly melted into the sun, and instantly melted into Di Ping's body, repairing his injury.

Feeling the influx of two healing energies, and the injury is repairing quickly, Di Ping's face finally showed joy.

The energy fell in lumps, the repair speed accelerated again, and his face was turning ruddy at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Mok and Angela quickly condensed the spells in Zhang Zhengyi's extremely surprised eyes, and the white as sunlight energy did not stop falling on Di Ping, and the strong dazzling light surrounded Di Ping.

Chapter 1107: Long live the city lord smiles

In the glorious light, Di Ping's power is getting stronger and stronger. His injury is getting better quickly. Mok and Angie received the energy injection regardless of the cost. Although he was injured badly, he also recovered in a short time. Minute.

"Oh..."

King Kong, who was fighting with the mutant tiger, seemed to feel Di Ping's change. It suddenly became anxious, and suddenly roared, unaware of the power coming from that, suddenly jumped up and knocked the mutant tiger to the ground. Suddenly kicked out, the mutant tiger let out a horrible roar, the huge body rolled out directly, and blood spurted wildly in the giant tiger's mouth.

Although the giant tiger is strong, it is still too far behind the second-order mutant King Kong. The crushing between the stages is a qualitative difference. Although the mutant tiger has left scars on the body of the King Kong, it is impossible to make it. The damage is qualitative, and it cannot be hit hard.

This means that King Kong can gain the upper hand when Di Ping is too fast to beat him. As soon as King Kong takes off, the mutant tiger is smashed out instantly.

King Kong kicked the mutant tiger and rushed towards Di Ping!

"late!"

Di Ping watched King Kong's movements through the misty light, a sarcastic smile appeared on his face, and a wave of wave-driving knives radiating the cold light appeared in his hands.

It was his carelessness before. The armor of King Kong dissipated his interest in hitting and forgot to use a knife. If King Kong had been killed by himself with a knife at that time, but he had not used Beng Fist, thinking that he could kill King Kong. , But didn't want to almost overturn the boat in the gutter. It seemed that he couldn't be careless at any time. This was Di Ping's deepest experience this time.

"Crazy Wave Knife Technique Third Style·Wind Surge"

Di Ping's icy voice shot out from the misty light, and the chill in it was as chilling as a thousand years of ice, as if to freeze the soul.

"Om!"

The body of the blade trembles as if a butterfly shakes its wings, and even the entire space is trembling. The ripples spread to the surroundings, and the ripples seem to carry endless edges even the air is cut through, and the surrounding leaves and branches are broken. Unexpectedly, they broke silently under the sharp edge.

Rushing...

The waves rise gradually, and the sound of the waves can be heard throughout the sanctuary city. The sound is astonishing, as if standing on the beach and watching the boundless sea. The majesty of heaven and earth is shown in everyone's hearts at this moment.

"Fold it for me!"

A low drink came from the bright light, cold, gloomy, and cold!

"Om!"

A louder humming sound was produced, and the violent trembling of the Zhulang Dao, a wave of knives escaped from the knives, and countless sharp edges were tortured, even the ground was cut.

Di Pingyuan was sinking like water, and his eyes were icy and cold. Like a glacier, he swung his sword quickly, and layers of sword strength quickly overlapped.

The first layer, the second layer, the third layer, the fourth layer, and the fifth layer of sword strength were all superimposed by him effortlessly.

The third use of stacking was a lot easier than the last time. With the battle, his understanding of Dao Jin took another step, and it seemed that he was improving every moment.

But at this time, Di Ping had no sadness or joy, and seemed to have entered another realm!

The terrifying sword momentum has risen in the red sun, venting his power to the heavens and the earth. King Kong felt a strong threat. He stepped in front of Di Ping, suddenly raised his fists and slammed down at Di Ping. With strong wind.

"Six floors!"

Di Ping focused on King Kong, and he spit out two words coldly.

"boom!"

The Zhulang Knife suddenly lit up as if it was charged, and Senhan's blade suddenly rose up like a clear moon.

Chapter 1108: I heard that the city owner was shocked

King Kong's fists were already smashed, and Di Ping's clothes spurred the hunt and his hair was flying even more.

However, Di Ping's eyes were half open, his face sinking like water, not at all moved by the crisis in front of him, as calm as a mountain, unshakable, his lips moved slightly, speaking like ice:

"Seven layers of sword strength condense to me"

The sound was not loud, but it rang across the whole world. Although it was as fast as lightning, everyone heard it really.

"Om!"

There was a louder buzzing sound, and the world was trembling, and Zhulangdao was no longer in sight. I saw the cold light everywhere, bright and dazzling.

Di Ping felt that he was about to be unable to grasp the battle body. The seven-layer sword strength was too fierce. The powerful strength urged the sword as if it was a great dragon struggling violently. He had to use his full strength to fight. The blade was under control, and the terrifying blade strength was like a suppressed volcano about to erupt in the next moment.

"cut"

Knowing that the sword strength can no longer be folded, Di Ping suddenly opened his eyes, staring at King Kong's fists like an angry King Kong, screamed, and the sword in his hand slashed towards King Kong.

The sword comes out like a dragon, it seems slow and fast, the terrifying energy seems to collapse even the space, and it pounces on the King Kong with an unrelenting will. This is not a sword, but a mountain, a planet, with irresistible momentum slowly advancing, destroying everything.

The violent aura suddenly rises, the pressure descends like the might of the sky, like an ancient giant beast awakens, like the troll of the abyss opens its magic eyes and stares at the void, endless fear enveloped everyone's hearts, and once again faced this terrifying sword power King Kong. Without the fearlessness it had before, a trace of terror flashed in its eyes, but at this time the arrow was already strung, it could not hide, nor could Di Ping.

"boom!"

The sword and King Kong's fists collided, and the two energies collided together, as if two missiles collided together, making a loud noise. The terrifying vigor rolled around, the sand on the ground was scraped off a layer, the sand was shot in all directions, like a violent tornado, and smoke and dust covered everything on the battlefield.

"Invisible!"

At this time someone exclaimed.

"Who saw it and how did it turn out?"

Another exclaimed.

"Quickly, how is the city lord? Have you won!"

After the initial silence on the top of the city, the next moment there was a violent exclamation, and there was a chaos, all inquiring about the result.

The awakened people in the city stand or lie down, but without exception, they all look at the battlefield. Gina, Yunmengsi, Daniel, Ava, Angela...etc. are all watching the battlefield. There is expectation, worry, and expectation in his eyes.

A gust of wind blew the smoke away, and the figure of a person and a beast appeared. One person and a beast stood facing each other. There seemed to be no change. The change was that Di Ping plunged his feet into the ground half a foot deep, with one hand resting. War Sword, with blood flowing from the corner of his mouth, it looked like he was injured.

For a while, the entire battlefield was quiet and terrible. Everyone looked at the pair of people and beasts standing opposite each other. There was no speech or communication, just standing silently.

At this time, no one spoke out, no one asked, but everyone's attention was focused on one person and one beast. Everyone still had deep worries on their faces. Many people with a bad heart, such as Lu Guoliang, had already Holding their chests to prevent their hearts from jumping out, they scared them too much today, more than in their lifetime.

"puff!"

Suddenly, there was a sound that seemed to be a leak of a leather ball, and suddenly a rain of blood spurted out of King Kong's body, like a fountain, spraying a lot of blood.

Chapter 1109: Let's hear that Han Ming's parents are there

At this time, people saw that King Kong's chest suddenly burst open with a wound of more than one meter long. The flesh and blood turned out, and the scarlet internal organs were almost visible. The horror was abnormal. At this time, the blood was bleeding, and it At this time, a pair of huge palms were cut with fingers, only half of the roots of the palms remained, and blood was gushing.

Di Ping, who was standing in front of King Kong, was full of blood at this time, and King Kong's blood sprayed all over him, staining him like a blood gourd.

Not waiting for everyone to exclaim!

Suddenly, King Kong's huge body shook for a while, and "Dong Dong Dong" took three steps backwards before standing still, with an unbelievable expression in his eyes, as if he didn't believe what was happening before him.

"kill!"

Di Ping yelled violently and burst into anger, and shot all the blood out, and the whole person rushed towards King Kong again.

Di Ping will not give King Kong a chance to turn over again. Although his condition is not good at this time, his injury has increased again after just seven points in the previous blow, but he can't wait any longer, fearing that something will happen again.

"Om!"

Zhu Lang Dao seemed to have drunk blood, it was extremely excited, and it uttered joyful vibrations, which turned into a series of sword lights to slash towards the King Kong.

"Roar!"

King Kong seemed to have been aroused to be fierce. The panic in the eyes disappeared and brought madness. It screamed at Di Ping, letting the blood gush from his chest regardless, and rushed towards Di Ping like a madman. Two Only the broken palm smashed Di Ping, blood swayed all over the sky.

One person and one beast rushed together again!

Puff puff.....

At this time, the Zhanlang Knife showed its true power. Without the protection of the iron armor, the King Kong could no longer stop the edge of the second-order powerful weapon. The swords slashed on the King Kong's arm, with deep wounds that could reach the bones. Appear, the blood does not need to spray out like money.

The hard bones of King Kong still blocked Di Ping's blade. Without the power of the sword, Di Ping's battle knife was not enough to cut the steel-like bones of King Kong. Although the scars were scary, it was not fatal.

King Kong was crazy at this time as if he didn't feel pain. He still waved his arms regardless. Di Ping didn't dare to touch him again and ran a snake with all his strength. Like a snake, he moved around around King Kong, but the knife in his hand Without stopping, a sword fell on King Kong's body, slicing deep wounds on it.

King Kong screamed frantically, but it was helpless. He Di Ping, who was no longer in a head-to-head collision with him, looked like a snake. It was seriously injured and its movements became slower and slower. It couldn't keep up with Di Ping's speed. There was blood everywhere on the body, and the whole body was stained red with blood. It was terrible to see, and wailed, many people actually gave birth to sympathy.

Di Ping's speed is getting faster and faster, and his sword is getting stronger and stronger, because the healing energy that enveloped him has never stopped. Mok and Angela, who are already Tier 1 and Tier 4, are already handy in their healing skills. You can throw dozens of healing light **** in succession, and the two of them alternately throwing healing energy to Di Ping to quickly heal his injuries.

Fighting of this intensity is simply a unilateral slaughter. If King Kong hadn't been violent and added iron armor before, Di Ping had no choice but to do it, and would not be made like this, and would have killed King Kong long ago.

Although King Kong roared again and again, its movements were getting slower and slower and slower. Its blood flow was too much. It had reached the end of its way. It seemed to have realized this, and the roar was connected with sadness. The heart of the listener is sour.

But no matter what, Di Ping will not let it go. Its destiny is destined. If you dare to attack the sanctuary, you must have the consciousness of death. What's more, Di Ping was almost killed by him, so many of his men almost died. Di The hatred in the heart is not enough to kill it.

Chapter 1110: Arrange everything in detail

While Di Ping Kong was fighting, Han Zhongguo hurried up to the city with a man, stepping on the rich blood, his face turned pale, and the people behind him trembled and could hardly move. Without Han Zhongguo pulling him, he might turn around and run.

"Where is the city lord? Where is the city lord?"

Han Zhongguo yelled anxiously as soon as he got on the viewing platform.

"Why did you come up, Lao Han? Is something wrong?"

Cheng Chao looked at Han Zhongguo with some doubts and asked.

"Let's talk about it later, tell me where the city lord is?"

Han Zhongguo looked anxious, and he didn't have time to answer Cheng Chao, but asked eagerly.

He has been organizing and setting up personnel in the city. He has no idea about the situation on the city. He ran towards the city as soon as he went to the city. Rows of soldiers stood by the city wall at this time, blocking his vision. He did not see the situation outside at all. Think the monster has retired?

"No! Over there!"

Seeing Han Zhongguo's anxious look, Cheng Chao thought something was wrong, and pointed at the road outside the city.

"what!"

Han Zhongguo and the man behind him only saw the battle outside the city at this time. The two of them crashed on the spot, their mouths opened wide, and they were shocked and dull, as if they had seen a ghost.

On the battlefield, Di Ping has been spinning around King Kong, slashing towards its body, with a burst of blood bursting out of each knife, but only Di Ping knows the truth. Although King Kong's condition is extremely tragic, he has nothing to do. He didn't dare to relax his vigilance, facing powerful mutant creatures like King Kong, he had to guard against the recurrence of the previous thing.

King Kong didn't seem to care about the pain. He just attacked Di Ping frantically. As time went on, Di Ping was anxious but reluctant. King Kong's arms protected the entire vital point. His sword could not go in and out, and could not cause fatal injuries. And his fighting pace is so fast now, and there is no time for him to gather his sword strength.

"Wow!"

When Di Ping was anxious, a tiger roar sounded, and the mutant tiger that had just been smashed by the King Kong slowed down, and threw on King Kong from behind, biting frantically.

King Kong was hit by the giant tiger's huge attack force, his body involuntarily slammed forward, his body lost balance, King Kong involuntarily opened his arms.

"good chance!"

Di Ping's eyes lit up, and he shouted "Crash". His body shot out in an instant, and slammed into King Kong's arms like a bolt of lightning. He held a knife in both hands and slammed into King Kong's chest.

"Roar!"

Suffering heavy damage, King Kong suddenly stood upright, Yang Tian let out a horrible roar, and the roar was miserable and angry. Suddenly, his eyes burst with fierce light, and his two huge arms suddenly hugged Di Ping.

"Fuck!"

Di Pingna thought that King Kong was so cruel, and in the end he didn't let himself go. If he could hold it, he would have to smash his own bones. He had experienced the violence of King Kong. He didn't even dare to draw a knife. Song Ren slipped from King Kong's body and let go of this lore.

King Kong's arms hugged in the air, but he pressed down on the wave-chasing knife. The force of the war knife was unable to directly enter. "Roar" King Kong let out a stern roar again, as if this was the last blow to overwhelm it. Its huge body burst into light. It shook, and then fell straight down, with a loud "bang", like a jade mountain falling down.

And Di Ping flashed again, jumped onto King Kong, and pulled out the wave-breaking knife that had been submerged in the wound, and then flew back. At this time, a stream of blood spurted out five or six meters high like a fountain, and the blood spilled into the clear sky. A cloud of blood was formed, so coquettish in the sun.

Di Ping was not attacking. Just now he drew his sword and knew that King Kong was out of help, and his heart had been pierced by the knife. If it was still alive, King Kong was really too strong, but that was the case, he still retreated carefully. Come back to prevent King Kong from temporarily exploding and counterattack.
