

Doomsday 1111

Chapter 1111: Buy potion complex strength

There was silence above and below the city. Everyone was staring at the King Kong falling in a pool of blood. It seemed that they couldn't believe that the previously powerful and irresistible King Kong fell like this.

Bang bang bang...

Di Ping stood quietly holding the knife, listening to the beating of King Kong's heart, beating more and more faintly, and then until it disappeared without seeing silence, then a huge dark green soul energy slowly rose and poured into his body , Then he exhaled a long breath.

King Kong is really dead!

He suddenly jumped onto King Kong's body, stood on its chest, slowly raised the saber in his hand, kept it above his head, and then let out a long roar.

The long howling sound like a tiger roar and a dragon roar straight into the sky, and the dark clouds in the trembling sky dissipated in an instant. The aura that dominates the world spreads like a panic, seeming to vent its sovereignty to this world.

Everyone turned their eyes on Di Ping, who was shrouded in holy white light like a god, with fanatical worship and awe in his eyes. At this moment, Di Ping was the * in their hearts.

The young white people who came with Han Zhongguo saw this scene with shock and horror in their eyes!

"Oh oh oh..."

Suddenly, a shocking cheer erupted from the city, and everyone raised their weapons in their hands and yelled frantically.

"Long live the city lord!"

I don't know who shouted, and then a neat roar erupted from the head of the city: "Long live the city lord!" The shouts were neatly arranged as if they had been rehearsed, and the neat and loud voices resounded throughout the world.

The people in the sanctuary city trembled one by one, listening to the terrifying beasts roaring from outside the city from time to time, their bodies trembling, but at this moment they suddenly heard the cheers of victory. They couldn't believe it for a while. After a while, When I heard it really, I realized that the battle was really won. With smiles on everyone's faces, they began to walk outside, raising their hands and jumping for joy.

"Victory! Victory!"

"Long live the city lord"

Liu Bingyu and Yu Shujie were busy greeting the staff to move supplies to the city, their heads were sweaty and there was no time to wipe them. At this moment, they heard the shocking cheers from the city head, they finally straightened their waists, their faces showed joy, the eyes A touch of worry finally faded.

Although they did not go to the top of the city, they watched the * people lifted down from the top of the city one after another. They knew how tragic the battle was, and they were extremely worried about Di Ping's safety.

Ning Nan, who was sweating the rescuer, raised her head and listened to this sound. A faint smile appeared at the corner of her eyes, but she quickly converged, lowered her head and was busy stitching up the wound. , Her hands are firmer and her movements are faster.

There is only one voice in the entire sanctuary city, that is, "Long live the city lord!"

Everyone was screaming desperately and venting the fear and uneasiness in their hearts, and it seemed that only in this way could it be vented.

Even if it was Liu Zhenya, Liu Minsheng, and the soldiers he brought, they raised their hands and cheered with excitement at this time, but the two of them would not call the city lord long live like the soldiers, but they looked at the domineering road standing under the city. The figure, can't help but admire and admire in my heart.

The Sanctuary City has such a human existence, and the Bianzhou base can only befriend it, not be an enemy with it. This has surpassed the category of normal human beings and is no longer human.

Their grandfathers and grandchildren have already strengthened the idea of cooperation in their hearts. The Awakened is so powerful. All the hope of mankind will be in the Awakened. This will become a trend. If you don't understand this trend, it will eventually be swallowed up in the last days.

After frantically venting for two or three minutes, Di Ping saw that everyone was almost venting, and then he raised his hand to stop everyone.

As soon as he gestured, the cheers on the city's head gradually stopped, and then the entire city fell silent. Although the faces of the soldiers on the wall were still enthusiastic, they all quietly looked at Di Ping.

"Open the city gate, clean up the battlefield and treat the wounded!"

Di Ping's voice suddenly sounded, loud and loud like Huang Zhongda Lu, everyone heard it really.

Chapter 1112: Teleported into the world

This siege battle was too hard. The city of Sanctuary suffered heavy casualties, and the awakened were basically injured. People like Owen Buji and others were basically in a half-worn state, and they were almost killed, if not for upgrading their skills. , It wasn't the desperate rescue of Mok and Angela that he would also fall today.

A long scream vented all the depression and depression in Di Ping's heart, and the whole person was full of fighting spirit again.

At this time, he found that Mokya Angela was still treating him. Looking at the beads of sweat on their foreheads, he knew that the two were approaching their limits, and hurriedly waved at them.

"call!"

Only then did Mok and Angela stop, and the two of them fell to the ground without an image, panting heavily.

Although the two of them are Level 1 and Level 4, the consumption of mental power by casting spells at a high frequency is quite astonishing. If they were at Level 1 and Level 3, they would have passed out a long time ago.

"Crunch!"

There was a sound of steel friction, and the heavy huge city gate slowly sank. The gate was completely opened, and waves of people emerged from the city.

Some of these people stepped forward to rescue Owen and others, and some had already carried their weapons and started to clean up the corpses of mutant beasts in the city, but many of the corpses of mutant beasts had been torn apart by the battle between Di Ping and King Kong.

"Di·Get a copy of the mutant Ironback Ape bloodline, which has been stored in the backpack, please check it out by the host!"

Di Ping, who was watching the people surging out of the city gate, suddenly heard the cold voice of the system, but he felt so cordial when he heard the voice, and he gained a strong blood, and it was an ironback ape blood. This is simply a surprise.

With joy, Di Ping jumped down from King Kong and came to its head. He raised the wave-breaking knife high and slashed it on King Kong's head. With a crisp sound, the knife only cut in ten inches. When he encountered King Kong's hard skull, he bounced his war knife like it hit steel.

"Break it for me!"

The living have been killed, and now they continue to cut their skulls?

A cold light flashed in Di Ping's eyes, and the sword was raised again, and the sword strength condensed. The five-layer sword strength did not take much effort against the current Di Ping. The sword hummed joyfully, as if to cut through the space, it slashed towards King Kong's head.

"Crack!"

With a crisp sound, King Kong's hard skull was not enough to see in front of Fifth Layer Dao Jin, and a deep crack was instantly cut open, but it was not enough.

"Zhan Zhan Zhan!"

Di Ping shouted three times in a row and chopped three knives. He heard the human scalp numb with the crisp sound of "Kaka". Di Ping's huge head was quickly chopped in half by Di Ping. The white brain plasma mixed with blood and water flowed all over the floor.

"call!"

Di Ping let out a sigh of relief. This diamond bone is really too hard. He also smashed it with four knives for 50% of the sword strength. Fortunately, if he is facing its heart, if he is facing the first seven layers of sword strength, he can't do anything. Can't stop it.

He also didn't expect that after the six layers of sword strength, the power stack would be so powerful, it was difficult for him to control it. If he wanted to stack eight layers of sword strength, he felt that it would only be possible to reach the first rank and nine ranks.

Without thinking about it, the long knife stirred and picked out a table tennis walnut-sized fat jade crystal nucleus from the diamond brain. There was no trace of blood stained on the crystal lattice, and there was a glorious flow in the sun, and the beauty of beauty was like a treasure.

"The Lord of the City...The Lord of the City!"

Suddenly there was Han Zhongguo's anxious cry from the city gate. Di Ping raised his head and looked over. He saw Han Zhongguo rushing out of the crowd with sweat, shouting and shouting. While Di Ping waved his hand and shouted, "The lord...something happened!"

"I wipe it!"

Di Ping felt that his brain exploded and he almost didn't throw away the crystal nucleus in his hand. He is now most afraid of hearing something wrong, and it has become a conditioned reflex. His head buzzed: "What's wrong with this again!"

Chapter 1113: Guard the cave for rescue

Han Zhongguo separated the crowd and rushed in anxiously. Behind him was Cheng Chao, Lu Guoliang, and even Liu Zhenya and Liu Minsheng. He was even more disturbed when he saw these people rushing over anxiously.

"Did something really happen?"

Pressing down on the doubt in his heart, put the crystal core into the backpack, and greeted several people.

"What happened?"

Di Ping looked solemnly at Han Zhong Guodao who had just rushed out of the crowd.

"City.....City lord.....find....."

Han Zhongguo ran too fast just now. He was gasping for breath and didn't even know what to say. This Di Ping anxiously burst into flames and cast his eyes on Cheng Chao and the others behind Han Zhongguo. Seeing Di Ping's questioning gaze, he shook his head and didn't seem to know what was wrong.

Okay! It seems that we can only wait for Han Zhongguo to finish off!

Han Ming seemed to feel the anxiety in Di Ping's eyes, and he didn't care about breathing. He grabbed a white young man standing behind him and panted roughly: "Come...you say it!"

"I...I" the young man was not prepared to be caught by Han Zhongguo in front of Di Ping. The sudden change made him unable to react for a while, facing Di Ping, who was full of blood and evil spirits, and was nervous for a while. His face turned pale, his body trembled, and he stammered for a while and couldn't speak. It was better than panting Han Zhongguo, Di Ping's nose almost crooked.

Di Ping suppressed the anger that was growing in his heart, and asked in a gentle tone: "Don't worry, slowly tell me what happened!"

The young man seemed to be infected by Di Ping's tone, and his excitement and fear were relieved a lot. He swallowed, watching Di Ping tremblingly and said: "I...I am... Han...Han Mingda.... Brother sent... sent it!"

Di Ping's eyebrows just condensed: "Han Ming?"

For a moment he even forgot Han Ming who!

"Are you the Lord Di Ping?"

This person is not someone else but Zhang Zheng. He was anxious when he saw that Di Ping didn't know Han Ming's name. He anxiously forgot that he was afraid of speaking and didn't stammer. He looked at Di Ping and asked anxiously.

Di Ping nodded and said: "I am Di Ping!"

Zhang Zheng said with a puzzled look: "That's not right? Brother Han Ming said that he is performing the task you handed in. You will know him when he mentions his name!"

Hearing that Di Ping's body was stiff, and a bright light flashed in his brain. He instantly remembered who Han Ming was. Wasn't it the person who had been subdued in the small town and arranged for him to pick up his parents at Jincheng base, but then there was no news ?

After a moment of stunned, Di Ping suddenly returned to his son, grabbed Zhang Zheng's shoulder excitedly, and asked anxiously: "You mean Han Ming? Come on! Where is he now?"

"Ah!" Zhang Zheng felt his arm about to be squeezed, and he screamed in pain.

Only then did Di Ping realize that he was too excited, and quickly let go of his hand, forbearing his heart anxiously, staring at Zhang Zheng and asking: "Sorry, I'm too excited, you speak slowly!"

Zhang Zheng rubbed the painful arm that was caught by Di Ping, and barked his teeth and said, "Big Brother Han is trapped by a mutant spider. He sent me back to find you, saying that your parents found it. They now have Danger, you need to help!"

Hearing this, Di Ping felt his head buzzed, and he was stunned on the spot, and the sentence "parents found, parents found!"

Originally he thought that his parents were no longer there, and he was desperate, but now suddenly he heard that his parents were still alive, and the momentary happiness and excitement were so strong that he couldn't bear it and was a little confused.

Chapter 1114: Resentment is hard to eliminate

"No, they are in danger!"

Suddenly this sentence rang in Di Ping's mind. He was shocked and struck a spirit. He woke up suddenly, grabbing Zhang Zheng's shoulder and shouting anxiously, "Go, take me to save people!" "When he finished speaking, Zhang Zheng was frightened and stupefied. Di Ping just lifted him up, both feet were off the ground, and his face turned pale for a while.

"The City Lord.... The City Lord wait a minute!"

However, as soon as he took two steps, Cheng Chao and Lu Guoliang reacted, grabbed him and shouted anxiously.

"Get out! I'm going to save people!"

Di Ping's eyes were red, staring at them like wild beasts, a tyrannical killing intent was raging, and the two people who watched only shuddered.

Fortunately, he still has a trace of reason, otherwise he might really shake the two of them flying.

Although Cheng Chao and Lu Guoliang were afraid, they did not let them go. Lu Guoliang suppressed the fear in their hearts, and He Yan watched Di Ping persuade him:

"City Lord, we are not blocking you from saving people, I think it's better to arrange it properly, you are in a hurry to go alone now for fear of omissions!"

Cheng Chao also nodded again and again and said, "Yes, yes, yes! The city owner only needs to bring his guards to be more secure!"

"Yes... Yes, the mutant spiders on the side of City Lord Di are terrible, there are so many overwhelming numbers, you can't go alone!"

Zhang Zheng was grasped by Di Ping and said with a nervous expression.

Di Ping's body shook, and the raised feet were put down again, and the dangerous light in his eyes gradually dissipated. He was not a person who couldn't hear people. He was too nervous and excited just now. Cheng Chao and Lu Guoliang's words are not unreasonable. , Especially Zhang Zheng's last words, if he rashly used to fail to save his parents if he didn't have enough strength, then his guilt would be even greater.

"Owen, inform the guards..."

Di Ping shouted suddenly, but he stopped halfway through the call, and he remembered that Owen could not afford to be seriously injured.

After a pause, he quickly thought about drawing circles in his mind. A cold light flashed in his eyes, and his thoughts flashed toward the system's command: "System, except for Mok and Angela, all recruited heroes are upgraded to one level!"

"Di·It's the host, recruiting heroes to upgrade begins!"

The cold voice of the system sounded in his mind.

He had to give this order. Now most of the recruited heroes and awakeners have been hit hard, and there are few who can stand now. If the recruited heroes are not healed, he has few people to use.

After giving an order to the system, he turned his head to look at Cheng Ava and commanded: "Ava, now you take someone to collect the lattice, and you will bring it over in a minute, no matter how much!"

"It's the master!"

Ava quickly rushed out, shouting loudly: "The city lord has ordered everyone to take the crystal core with all their strength and hand it in within a minute!" After she shouted, she had already swung a knife to the head of a mutant dog and took out a crystal. Nucleus then rushed towards the other one.

Di Ping turned his head to look at Cheng Chao and commanded: "Big Brother Cheng, after I leave for a while, you clean the battlefield and guard the wall to prevent the mutant beasts from attacking again. You just need to keep it, and I will talk about everything when I come back!"

"Don't worry! City Lord, people are in the city, we must wait for your victory!"

Cheng Chao respectfully saluted Di Ping.

"Brother Han, Brother Lu, after I leave the base, you have to worry a lot. The wounded will be treated and the city residents will be comforted. The base will be stabilized as soon as possible!"

Di Ping solemnly made arrangements to Han Zhongguo and Lu Guoliang.

"Good City Lord, don't worry!"

The two responded with military salutes.

After the arrangements were made, Di Ping looked at Zhang Zheng and said solemnly: "Now you can tell me about the situation over there!"

Chapter 1115: Tit for tat

At this time, Di Ping seemed to be an emperor in charge of life and death. His majesty and imposing manner were astonishing. Zhang Zheng didn't dare to look at him with his fierce eyes. He couldn't help being in awe, and even his brain was more than usual. It's coming soon, and quickly tell Di Ping what happened.

It turned out that Han Ming finally decided that he did not retreat. Instead, he arrived at the cave where he rescued Liu Mingyuan before, guarding the entrance of the cave. He arranged for Zhang Zheng to use the return scroll to find Di Ping to rescue him, and he opened the locator and placed it in the cave. In, here is not far from the military station, and only one kilometer or less, Di Ping can quickly support after arriving.

Han Ming had already gambled his life on Di Ping. He was betting that Di Ping had the strength to save people, otherwise he would face the mutated spider army that was about to arrive, and even he himself didn't know if he could survive.

I don't know why he thinks that his mysterious city lord can solve this crisis.

After listening to Zhang Zheng's quick speech, Di Ping felt even more anxious. Tens of thousands of mutant spiders besieged the garrison that was only guarded by more than a thousand soldiers. He didn't think the military could hold it, so what would his parents do? Leave Zhang Zheng to reach the shelter. More than ten minutes have passed since the city time, and it was anxious to come.

Thinking of this, Di Ping couldn't stay any longer, wishing to fly over now.

"Master, the crystal nuclei have been collected!"

At this time, Ava had shot over like a bolt of lightning, and reached out and handed Di Ping a small bag.

"Great!"

Di Ping was overjoyed, took the cloth bag and put it in his backpack, and said to the system: "Exchange all crystal nuclei for crystal coins!"

"Di·Crystal core 130 cores, exchange for 910 crystal coins!"

At this time, Di Ping had suffered a loss regardless of the system's exchange of crystal coins. More than 900 crystal coins had exceeded his expectations. All the crystal coins had been used by the city system and used for energy supply and energy cannon. No, they didn't even have the money to buy medicine, and they had to rely on Mork and others for treatment. If he had money to buy medicine before, he might have killed King Kong long ago.

With a thought on his mind, he ordered the system to purchase ten bottles of Tier 1 Supreme Healing Potion, and the 900 crystal coins were instantly lost by three hundred.

With a move of his hand, Di Ping handed ten tiny glass bottles containing green liquid to Ava:

"Ava will take these medicines to the injured guards and let them rest, knowing that Owen will lead the wounded to come and gather!"

"It's the master!"

Ava turned around and ran away.

In less than half a minute, Owen had rushed over completely undamaged, a strong impossibly restrained squirting outwards, behind him followed Ava, Gina, Daniel, Boogie, Mok, Angela, Yunmengsi.

"This is for you to drink now!"

At this time, there were four more blue glass bottles in Di Ping's hand and handed them to Mok, Angela, Gina and Yunmengsi one by one.

"Recovery potion!"

Angela exclaimed in surprise after receiving the bottle, a person who knew the goods.

The three of Gina then looked at Angela from the bottle. They hadn't seen this thing, of course they didn't know the value.

"Take it now!"

Di Ping did not answer, glanced at Angela and shouted.

The four of them hurriedly drank the blue recovery potion. They only felt a refreshing taste. It was neither good nor bad, but in a flash, their faces were surprised, and their mana and mental powers were fast. Recovery, the speed of recovery frightened them, Jiji recovered one layer every second, but their mana and mental power had recovered more than five layers in three or four seconds.

"Now let's go!"

Seeing that the four of them were energetic again, they knew that they had almost recovered. Di Ping had already waited impatiently, and gave a low voice to the others, then grabbed Zhang Zheng and prepared to leave.

Chapter 1116: Know people, be good at understanding people

"City Lord Di!"

Di Ping was about to take a step, but someone suddenly stopped him.

This made him feel a little upset when he was anxious. When he was about to get angry, he saw that Liu Zhenya stopped him out loud. He suppressed his reluctance and said: "Old General Liu, I have something important to do now. Thank you when I come back. The old general helped this time!" He raised his leg again after speaking.

"City Lord Di please be slow!"

At this time Liu Zhenya stopped him again, Di Ping only felt that the flames in his heart were rising, but he forced it down, and looked at Liu Zhenya with cold eyes.

At this time, Lu Guoliang, Han Zhongguo and the others also showed a touch of discomfort, thinking to Liu Zhenya no matter when?

Can't you wait for the city lord to come back?

Liu Zhenya sensed the faint anger in Di Ping's eyes, and hurriedly said, "Don't get me wrong, Di City Lord, I mean the mutant spider army is not easy to deal with, should you let the people's livelihood take the army with you? It's more certain!"

Hearing this, Di Ping was taken aback for a moment, and then the fire in his eyes dissipated for most of the time. He grinned reluctantly and said: "Thank you, General Liu, the distance is relatively long, it is not suitable for bringing so many people!" Said: "General Liu will stay at the base for one day first. I will come back soon. I will thank General Liu again when that time comes!" After he finished speaking, he gave another hand, then grabbed Zhang Zheng and said in a low voice, "Go "Then the man shot out like an arrow.

"go!"

Owen waved his hand and shot it out as well. A group of people followed quickly. The group ran toward the city like the wind, flashing lightning along the way, watching the masked expressions of the soldiers cleaning the battlefield, I don't know. What happened.

"Wow!"

Suddenly there was a tiger roar, and a huge white tiger also ran over. A crowd of people dodged, with fear in their eyes. How terrible the giant tiger over two meters high is.

"Let's go and see too!"

Cheng Chao glanced at each other, and rushed to follow.

Liu Zhenya and Liu Minsheng also glanced at each other, with deep doubts in their eyes. They didn't understand how they ran into the city instead of saving people, and what Zhang Zheng said just now is that the place is here. How are they going to get past five to six hundred kilometers? These questions make them confused.

The grandfather and grandson did not need to communicate at all, they both nodded at the same time, and then hurriedly followed Cheng Chao and the others in front of them. They wanted to see what the reason was.

However, their speed was too slow. When they arrived, they saw Di Ping and the others were already standing on the platform of the teleportation well, and there was a big white tiger nearby.

Di Ping did not object to Da Baihu's follow-up, but bought a wound healing liquid again and poured it into the big cat. Bai Hu and King Kong still had some injuries in the final fight.

When Di Ping saw them coming, he only activated the teleportation well with a glance. Had it not been for the time required to search for Han Ming's location, he would have teleported away.

In everyone's horrified gaze, the crystal of the teleportation well lighted up, and then countless lines and runes also lit up. A few seconds later, a white light burst into the sky and dazzlingly made everyone couldn't help but close their eyes. When they opened again, the people of Di Ping on the platform suddenly disappeared without a trace. If it weren't for the rune on the teleportation well was still on, it means that something really happened just now, otherwise everyone thought Di Ping and the others had never been there. Existed here.

It wasn't until the line runes on the teleporting well were darkened, and even the crystal was restored to its original state.

"This this....."

Liu Zhenya looked at the teleportation shaft with trembling lips and was speechless for a while, as if she couldn't believe her eyes.

Even Liu Minsheng did the same. He never knew that this building had such a magical power, capable of transforming people away, as if it were a teleportation array in a game. Could it be that this thing is a teleportation array?

Is this still not the earth, or is it a chu, it is simply too illusory?

Chapter 1117: Wisdom has a way out

"Damn it! It's really bad!"

Liu Minsheng swallowed his mouth water to moisturize the dry noise and cursed in a low voice.

Don't blame him for being gaffe, if ordinary people suddenly see this scene, they will be shocked, the original atheistic world suddenly appears in the world that is not in accordance with the times but is in fantasy novels, how can it not be shocking.

Although Han Zhongguo and others were surprised by the magic of the teleportation array, they were not shocked. They knew the function of the teleportation well, because Di Ping had used it twice before.

Many buildings in this sanctuary city have magical functions, such as large scary warehouses, such as castles, and the Biyoshi tavern. That is not a magical anomaly, so after only a little surprise, the peace was restored.

However, this is different in the eyes of Grandpa Liu Zhenya. They originally thought they already knew many secrets of this mysterious sanctuary, but now it seems that they still know too little.

"This...what is going on?"

Liu Zhenya couldn't suppress the horror in his heart, or pointed to the transmission shaft and asked Lu Guoliang and others.

"Haha! General Liu, this is a teleportation well. The city lord said that he can directly teleport people to far away places!"

Lu Guoliang, Han Zhongguo Chengchao, and others all smiled when Liu Zhenya looked like a curious baby, and Han Zhongguo laughed and explained.

"My God! Isn't this only in the myth?"

Liu Zhenya was already aware of it, but he still cried out in horror after getting confirmation.

"it is as expected!"

Liu Minsheng also showed an expression of understanding, and at the same time, a warm flame flickered in his eyes. There is so much magic in such a place, and he will never leave anyway.

Liu Zhenya was also shocked. He felt that his heart was almost unbearable. He doubted that this was still on the earth. Could it be that they had already passed through the age of myth.

When Han Zhongguo and others saw the shocked grandson and grandson who were silent, the three of them looked at each other, and their faces showed some meaningful smiles.

Xindao, if this doesn't scare the grandson to death, it's up to you whether you are interested.

Di Ping had already left, and they didn't have time to watch here. They had just gone through the war and the base had too many things to do. The three of them and Liu Zhen's grandfather and grandson retreated and hurried to their own affairs.

Not to mention the post-war cleaning in the base, we return to Han Ming's side.

"Han...Brother, this...Zhang Zheng has been there...for so long, why...not yet... come back, we will soon... can't stand it!"

Lu Fang hacked a mutant spider to death, and shouted out of breath.

"It should be soon!"

Han Ming also waved the bow in his hand, chopped a mutant spider in half, and gasped slightly.

At this time, Han Mingna had the same handsome appearance as before, covered in blood, and he knew it was his own at a glance. The clothes had been torn into strips, blood stains everywhere, and the quiver on the back was empty. The arrows have run out.

"kill!"

With a roar, Lu Fang flew a mutant spider out to vent his anxiety.

At this time, some stones were piled up at the entrance of the cave to block the cave halfway, and there was still a gap for the two to pass, and the cave was densely packed with thousands of mutant spiders attacking the cave frantically, and the two guarded the cave entrance to block the mutation. Spider attack.

Han Ming and his party fled to the cave, and dozens of mutant spiders were killed. Han Ming could only block the entrance of the cave to prevent the mutant spider from rushing in, and arranged for a few people to move stones to block the entrance of the cave, but the cave was so big and there were not many inside. After moving a movable stone, it was only half blocked.

Han Ming couldn't help seeing the hole, so he had to defend himself with all his strength. He and Shi confessed that Liu Changhe was injured among these people. Chen Fang didn't speak much, so Zhang Zheng looked smarter. He had to fight Zhang. Zheng called over, stuffed the teleportation scroll to Zhang Zheng, and confessed his task in Zhang Zheng's expression of consternation.

Chapter 1118: The army of fear finally hits

When Han Ming finished speaking, everyone was still crazy! Talking nonsense!

Zhang Zheng thought the same way, but seeing Han Ming's serious and anxious expression did not seem to be joking, so he tried it. When his figure was wrapped in a dazzling white light and disappeared into the cave, everyone was shocked.

Lu Fang and Yu Yuanhua were stunned by the mutant spider that rushed in. Fortunately, the two reacted quickly, otherwise they had to be injured, but everyone saw Han Ming's eyes change.

And Han Ming didn't have time to explain to them now. He took out another small stone-like object from his body and pressed it. Seeing a flash of red light, he threw the teleportation stone to the widest place in the cave. Then he took a deep look and ran back to fight.

Everyone wanted to ask, but no one asked at this time, and Han Ming had been fighting tightly.

At this time, he was also extremely disturbed. He had already bet his life here. If this thing didn't work or Zhang Zheng didn't find anyone or Di Ping couldn't come, then only death would be waiting for them.

He regretted that he was too anxious just now. He should also transport Liu Changhe and the others. The teleporting scroll could transport five people at a time, but he forgot about it. If something really happened, he felt a little sorry for these brothers.

They hadn't killed the dozens of mutant spiders they were chasing, and the mutant army came, but fortunately, there were more than 1,000 mutant spiders, but that was also a great pressure on everyone.

They have been fighting for almost ten minutes, and they have killed two or three hundred mutant spiders, but the mutant spiders surrounding them have not diminished. Lu Fang feels that his arms are almost unable to lift up, even if the three of them are changing into battle. I can't rest.

The mountain knives in the hands of the two have already cut the rolls, and now they can only be used as sticks, and sometimes they can't kill the mutant spider with one knife.

"Brother Han, let me come! Ahem...you take a break too!"

Yu Yuanhua, whose clothes were stained with blood, stayed at Chashan and insisted on getting up from the ground. His face was pale and he coughed from time to time, showing weakness.

"It's okay, I can still hold on. If you are injured, first understand it and come to replace Lu Fang later!"

Han Ming's face was tight and his voice was low.

He has always paid attention to saving his physical strength, unlike Lu Fang's efforts to make every blow, and his physical strength is naturally consumed quickly, and his every cut is basically on the weak part of the mutant spider, with very little effort and precision waste, so until now Just panting slightly.

However, Han Ming also knew that his physical strength was exhausted very quickly. He has been fighting intensively for more than ten minutes. If he continues to do this, he will eventually be consumed. The mutant spiders outside are now three-tier and three-tier outside. It's gone now, and it's hard to get out even if you want to.

"Brother Han, do you think the military can stop it?"

Yu Yuanhua was not arguing anymore, he sat down slowly, with a knife in one hand, and frowned as he listened to the close gunfire outside.

"Think... now! It's good if you die!"

Liu Changhe who was sitting half-sit angrily scolded.

Was he embarrassed about the military preventing them from entering, and Liu Mingyuan sat on the ground with his knees hugged, and looked at the ground with his eyes and remained silent, as if stupid.

"Listen to the guns, it hasn't been breached yet, but it won't be easy to say later, there are too many mutant spiders!"

Han Ming said with a solemn expression.

He was anxious now, and secretly shouted: "City Lord! Come on! There will be no chance if you are late!"

He understood very well that once the military line of defense was broken, the mutant spider army could drown the temple in an instant, and no one inside would even want to run.

Chapter 1119: Fight again and fall into life and death

Fang Liancheng and Li Zhongtian didn't hear the horrible roar in the jungle, but Yang Linshan and Li Shufu in the attic heard it really. The two rushed to the window and raised their binoculars to look over. The white figures that flashed by from time to time made their faces pale.

Through the binoculars, they could see clearly that they were all mutant spiders, which were approaching here quickly, at most two or three kilometers away.

"Hurry up! Inform the troops to prepare for defense!"

Yang Linshan didn't dare to neglect, he didn't need to count, the number was absolutely amazing in terms of the area where the trees swayed in the jungle. It would be absolutely terrifying if the impact on the defense line was not what the hundreds of previous ones could perform.

And there was that terrible neigh, which was definitely made by the extremely terrifying beast.

Both of them panicked. Now it is a life-and-death crisis and they must command the army. With such a large number of mutant spiders, an army that can't defend well can be all over.

Fang Liancheng and Li Zhongtian were talking carefully in the command vehicle, and were discussing the next plan. They saw that the mutant spider had relieved the tension and worry in their hearts and let them go, and they were discussing preparing to take a rest for the night before rushing to the secret base.

"boom!"

There was a loud noise on the door of the command vehicle being kicked open from the face. The movement frightened the two of them. Fang Liancheng looked at the door and shouted angrily: "Who kicked the door? Want to rebel!"

"it's me!"

Yang Linshan smashed into the command vehicle, and the two battlefields outside the door were holding guns with a panic expression and hesitating to point at Yang Linshan. After all, this was their deputy commander.

"Yang Linshan, what's the matter with you, are there any rules!"

At first glance, Yang Linshan Fang Liancheng's eyes flashed a stern look, but he still disappeared quickly, and his face sank and shouted.

This Yang Linshan is Fang Liancheng's most headache. After all, this army has always been carried by him. It is very prestigious in the army. He tried to take it several times and resisted it for fear of causing unrest. Fortunately, Yang Linshan has always been He was very low-key and didn't earn power with himself, which made him feel relieved, but today Yang Linshan actually kicked himself the most!

Who gave him the courage, do you really think you dare not move him?

Yang Linshan suppressed the anger in his heart. Just now, he asked the army to prepare. As a result, a group of officers did not listen to him. They reported that the soldiers outside the door blocked him from letting him in. He kicked the door open when the fire broke out. He saw Fang Liancheng and Fang Liancheng. Li Zhongtian, he suppressed the anger in his heart and saluted the military salute: "Commander, I have an emergency military situation to report, so don't worry about it!"

"Oh! There is an emergency military situation, this one doesn't..."

Fang Liancheng didn't want to fall out with Yang Linshan right now, so he went down the donkey, his expression softened.

However, he interrupted Li Zhongtian before he finished speaking. Li Zhongtian jumped up and shouted with a serious expression: "Yang Linshan, do you still have organizational discipline? If there is an emergency military situation, you can't make a report and have to kick the door. I think you're Proud and arrogant, without superiors!"

"you!"

Yang Linshan looked at Li Zhongtian almost wanting to jump up and give him a palm, but Fang Liancheng's expression was already a bit ugly, the overall situation was important, and his anger was abruptly suppressed.

This Li Zhongtian has the rank of deputy regimental lieutenant colonel at the same level as him, but he has never looked down on this villain who relies on his beard and slapped his head, so the two have often met in the Jincheng Military Region. This Li Zhongtian hates him deeply. Originally, Li Zhongtian had the opportunity to be promoted to the rank of a regiment-level colonel, but Yang Linshan's bad opinion survey caused Li Zhongtian to be beaten down, so the two forged enemies.

But he didn't think that this person was so inferior. He didn't forget to stumble him at this time, and this Fang Liancheng had the most soft ears. If he was bewitched by him, it would be troublesome, so he suppressed his anger. , Not looking at him but looking at Fang Liancheng anxiously: "Head, something really happened. Thousands of mutant spiders are rushing over. Please arrange defense as soon as possible or break through immediately, otherwise it will be too late!"

Chapter 1120: Fireworks on the ground

"Nonsense!" Before Fang Liancheng could answer, Li Zhongtian shouted angrily: "The mutant spider just now has been repulsed by us, and now there is nothing outside. You dare to lie to the military, saying what is your intention?" Then he pointed to the command car. The observation screen on the screen looked at Yang Linshandao sarcastically.

He was irritated by Yang Linshan's ignorance just now, and today he vowed to make Fang Liancheng not be able to do anything against him. This person will not be relieved of him.

"Me!" Yang Linshan almost spit out a mouthful of blood, looking at Li Zhongtian's annoying face, he couldn't wait to take out the gun and kill him, but he found that Fang Liancheng's gaze towards him had gradually changed, which made him angry. , Now when is it, there is no time to delay, the anger in his chest can no longer be suppressed, pointing at Li Zhongtian and roaring: "Shut up for me!"

Li Zhongtian was taken aback by Yang Linshan's murderous aura, and backed away in horror. Yang Linshan was a veteran of the army, a soldier who had seen blood on the real battlefield, and his murderous aura was not something he could resist. Even Fang Liancheng's expression changed when he was frightened by Yang Linshan's momentum.

After retiring Li Zhongtian, Yang Linshan stared at Liu Liancheng and grabbed his army and said sternly: "Commander, I promise my military duty to ensure that my words are true, please let me down! Otherwise it's too late!"

Fang Liancheng stared at Yang Linshan for two seconds, his expression became serious, and he grabbed the walkie-talkie next to him and shouted: "I am Fang Liancheng. Now I order the whole regiment to enter the highest combat state. Give me all heavy weapons. Stand it up, guard against it, and hit it hard whenever there is a movement!"

"Head!"

Li Zhongtian looked at Fang Liancheng with a little disbelief and called out anxiously.

"Needless to say, I believe Lin Shan will not talk nonsense. I have never seen a few soldiers who dare to take the military position!"

Fang Liancheng stopped Li Zhongtian from speaking with a serious expression, and said solemnly.

Li Zhongtian was stunned on the spot, with doubts in his eyes, as if he had met Fang Liancheng for the first time!

And Yang Linshan was also taken aback on the spot. He didn't expect Fang Liancheng to have such a knowledgeable side, and he was decisively different from what he thought. He thought he would argue for a while!

"Lin Shan, you will command the front line of defense for a while!"

Fang Liancheng didn't seem to see Li Zhongtian's expression, but looked at Yang Linshan mildly and said, "I will give you the lives of all the soldiers and civilians. This battle must be won for me!"

"It's... the leader!"

Yang Linshan was taken aback for a moment, then reacted, and immediately directed at Fang Lian's achievement as a military salute.

Yang Linshan was very puzzled at this time, and even more surprised. This Fang Liancheng squeezed himself out of the command system, and now he gave himself the right to command the army?

"Minister, why did you hand over the army to Yang Linshan? You know that he is very dissatisfied with us?"

Waiting for Yang Linshan to get out of the car and walk more than ten meters away, Li Zhongtian looked at Fang Liancheng with a puzzled look.

"Ha ha!"

Fang Liancheng still had a gentle smile on his face at this time, but it was rather cold. He glanced at Li Zhongtian and said, "Although I don't like Yang Linshan, I have to say that he is indeed more powerful than us in commanding the army. Spiders can't stand it with you and me!"

Li Zhongtian could not secretly nodded in agreement with Fang Liancheng's words, but he was worried and said, "What if what he said is false and wants to deceive the military power?"

"Can't fake it, I still know Yang Linshan, he will never lie, let alone spy on the military!"

Fang Liancheng stared at the screen on the command car and said slowly.

If Yang Linshan heard this, I wonder if he would feel that it was Fang Liancheng who really knew him, and would he be grateful.
