

Doomsday 1231

Chapter 1231: The strength of the giant python is weak

One second, ten seconds, one minute passed, and there was no movement at all. Qingfeng and a few brothers couldn't hear the master's movement. They were extremely worried and listened to them from time to time.

At this time, Feng Lingzi, who was sitting and practicing, suddenly felt a fever in her belly, like drinking a cup of hot wine. The heat from her belly made her whole body warm.

However, this kind of warmth is getting stronger and hotter, getting hotter and hotter, gradually like a ball of fire, exuding heat, his whole body is hot, sweat began to gush from his body.

The heat rushed everywhere in the body, as if it could penetrate the skin, bones, meridians, and the hot pain gradually rose. Feng Lingzi, who had been quietly meditating, finally could no longer maintain her calm, her body began to tremble, and sweat flowed down the futon. On, wet the yellow satin.

If Di Ping is here, he must be able to see that Feng Lingzi's appearance of taking Dragon Tiger Gold Pill is almost the same as taking the Awakening Potion.

Qingfeng and the other brothers heard the muffled hum from the master in the room, and they were very worried. They pressed their ears to the door of the room, and wanted to observe the master's movements to prevent any changes to the master.

Feng Lingzi's resilience was unexpectedly strong, and he closed his eyes tightly to endure the intense pain of his whole body burning like a fire. Under such circumstances, a trace of joy appeared on his face.

Because he could actually feel that some kind of strange energy in the air was slowly buffering into his body as the power of the medicine dissipated and wandered through his body, but this speed was relatively slow, and he was blessed to stand up slowly and start practicing Dragon Tiger. True pill.

Because of the pain caused by the intense burning, every movement was very difficult for him, but he persisted one by one. With the movement, he meditated on the method of qi movement, and he found that the strange energy between heaven and earth entered the body. The speed is accelerating.

If it was ten miles before, it has now been directly increased to twenty or thirty miles, which has nearly doubled. With the influx of these energy, the medicine in his body dissolves faster and the heat is more surging, as Flames generally spread to all parts of the body, burning his bones, skin, muscles, and meridians. He could feel the changes in his body every minute.

His physique is getting stronger, his bones are becoming tighter, his muscles are becoming stronger, and the movement of Qi and blood in his meridians is more surging.

Feeling this change, Feng Lingzi's eyes surged with excitement. He knew that the master was right. The Dragon Tiger Golden Pill was true. After taking it, it would change the world, burn the body and cut the marrow, and become the foundation of the extraordinary.

Gradually Feng Lingzi couldn't resist it. The pain became stronger and stronger, as if it was actually burned in a fire. The body was originally covered with sweat, but now it was all evaporated by the heat, and the whole person was steaming with heat. The whole skin is red, like cooked dried shrimp.

His movements are becoming more and more difficult to maintain, and almost even standing has become a problem. Feng Lingzi prawns his waist and swings his movements little by little. At this time, his consciousness has been completely blurred, and he is supported by perseverance.

And a group of disciples, seeing the painful look of the master through the gaps in the doors and windows, all of them were filled with worry, and some of the young disciples' eyes were already full of tears.

If it weren't for the master's order, they had already rushed in.

Puff!

Finally, Feng Lingzi couldn't hold it anymore, and his body softened and fell to the ground slowly, which made the apprentices look shocked.

"master!"

For a moment, everyone didn't know whether to enter or not, they all turned their eyes to Qingfeng, as the senior brother, at this time the master had something wrong, he could only make up his mind.

"Go in!"

Qingfeng struggled for a while, still gritted his teeth and pushed the door.

The brothers rushed in. Qingfeng hurried to Feng Lingzi's side. After checking, he let go of his heart, and the master just passed out.

Therefore, most people hurriedly lifted Feng Lingzi onto the bed to lie down. They all waited nervously in front of the master's bed.

Chapter 1232: Three people suffered heavy losses

When Feng Lingzi woke up, he was pleasantly surprised to find that his body had undergone a qualitative change. The strong physique made him shocked, his strength increased greatly, his strength became infinite, his mind was clear, his limbs were light and healthy, and he found I have some special abilities.

He even more carefully discovered that the body has become extremely close to the heavens and the earth. The previous feeling of being suppressed or rejected by the heavens and the earth disappeared and turned into acceptance. The alien energy in the air is slowly pouring into the body, although this process is extremely rare. Slow, but the victory is going on all the time.

This is still a normal state. After practicing the exercise, the influx speed increases again, and the energy in the air becomes more active, and the rate of absorption by the body is more than twice that of the normal state.

This change makes him excited and makes him happy!

This is just as the classics say, leaving the mortal womb, now he is not what he is detached from the mortal womb, he has entered the ranks of new biological evolution, and finally has the opportunity to leap forward in life.

When he was happy, he became very interested in this dragon and tiger pill. Dragon and tiger pill actually existed in Longhu Mountain, and it also had special effects that awakened people. He didn't know that it was passed down from that generation. of.

What's even more surprising is that the guardian monk practice "Dragon and Tiger True Pill", which has been passed down for nearly a thousand years in Longhu Mountain, turned out to be true.

Cultivating in these last days can attract heaven and earth energy to nourish and strengthen the body.

No wonder there was not much feeling before. It turned out that the spiritual energy of heaven and earth was exhausted. In any case, there is no such strange energy in cultivation. This can only be regarded as an ordinary exercise method for strengthening the body.

Feng Lingzi took the Dragon Tiger Golden Pill to become the Awakened, which surprised and envied all the apprentices. They all knew that there were many records in the classics of the sect. They have always been legends, but they did not expect to be today. But I saw it, and even more so, I saw the powerful effects of the Dragon Tiger Golden Pill. Everyone looked at the master with deep desire, and Feng Lingzi's scalp was numb.

There were two more awakened people in Longhushan, and both of them had long-term practice of martial arts, fine and martial arts. Once they were awakened, they were still much stronger than ordinary people.

The master and apprentice often went down the mountain to save people, and they also saved many people.

But as the mutant animals became stronger and stronger, Feng Lingzi also felt strenuous. Several times the two almost failed to return and were besieged and killed by groups of mutant beasts, which made him feel a little heavy and a little weak, thinking Just want to awaken more so that such a dilemma will not arise.

So he came up with the idea of the Dragon and Tiger Golden Pill, and he couldn't hold back this idea as soon as it appeared. He delved into the ancient books of Menzhong Dao Tibetan madly, hoping to find the pill for the Dragon and Tiger Golden Pill.

But let's not say that the hard work paid off, he really found a few words in the classics left by his ancestors in several books, and then formed a broken prescription.

It's just that although Danfang contains a lot of precious herbs, it shouldn't be difficult to solve. The most important problem is that there are two ingredients that are harder to find: gentian and tiger bone.

Of course, this dragon does not refer to the real dragon, but the snakes and pythons that have been cultivated, and the tiger bone does not refer to the ordinary tiger, but the demon tiger in the mountains.

If it seems to normal people, this is arbitrary judgment, what is the difference from Zhiguai novels, who has seen snakes and tigers.

However, today, Feng Lingzi has his opinion, what is the difference between the current mutant beast and the previous monster beast?

Maybe, this classic refers to the current mutant tigers and mutant snakes, who knows?

Ever since, Feng Lingzi hit his idea on the mutant tiger and the mutant snake!

However, it is of course impossible to hunt down mutant giant tigers and powerful giant pythons by Feng Lingzi's strength, which brought his research to a halt.

What he didn't expect was that the matter of swallowing dragon and tiger gold pills to become the awakened was spread by the disciples, and it spread more and more widely.

At the foot of Longhu Mountain, there happened to be a military gathering place. After getting in touch with Kyoto, the incident was reported. This attracted the attention of the Kyoto high-level officials.

Kyoto sent people to contact Feng Lingzi. Although Feng Lingzi is a Taoist priest, he has the grand ideal and noble realm of saving the world and the people. There is no second word and he directly led the apprentices to Kyoto to study the dragon tiger pill.

With the strong support of the Kyoto military, they hunted down some powerful mutant snakes and mutant tigers, and learned to make dragon and tiger golden pills, but the pills were not complete, and they made some useless things at all. People could not eat them. , Even if a mutant animal eats it, it will explode and die. The medicine is extremely violent and difficult to control.

After countless failures, the high-level leaders have lost their confidence, because the loss was too great. Just hunting mutant tigers and mutant pythons, the army lost two to three thousand people, and the light awakening killed seven or eight people. Don't miss it.

Chapter 1233: Three teams attacked Zhongzhou

The loss is so great that even the root hairs have not been studied. This has made many people in the Kyoto base strongly opposed to conducting such experiments.

Feng Lingzi fell into an awkward situation, and once there was no material supply, his research would be interrupted.

At this time, Feng Lingzi has completely fallen into crazy research. He feels that he will succeed soon, how can he let it go!

He adjusted the new pill recipe and re-refined five pills, but at that time there were no mutant animals to test. He directly approached his disciples and asked them to choose who to test. At this time, he was completely crazy. Disregarding danger at all.

However, a few disciples trust the master very much. Five brothers stood up for the great grand cause of the master and the belief of saving mankind. Among them was the senior brother Qingfeng. At this time, he did not take the lead.

But I didn't expect the medicine to be so violent. The four disciples broke their meridians without even holding on for five minutes and burst into death.

But Qingfeng is a magical awakening success like **** luck, and the strength is not weak.

This success is like a bomb falling into a calm lake. The high level of Kyoto exploded. At this time, those who originally opposed it would not object to the experiment. Since it works, it means that the direction is right. Now Kyoto fully supports Fengling. To conduct research, materials are fully supplied.

It's just that the pill is so easy to study. This dragon and tiger golden pill doesn't know where it came from. How Feng Lingzi can make a real pill with some fragmented information obtained from ancient books. Jindan.

Sure enough, after Qingfeng, the following experiment was unsuccessful. Nearly a hundred people tried to take the medicine and all died. No one could withstand such violent medicine.

The Kyoto side is also crazy. It has increased its investment and has recruited a large number of biological experts to participate in the research. They want to use scientific and technological means to observe and research the data of the test body, and use the data to improve the prescription.

They found that the more powerful mutant snakes and mutant tiger materials, the more moderate the energy.

This is really a pain for the group of people in Kyoto who are responsible for hunting mutant snakes and tigers. They want to hunt more powerful mutant snakes and tigers.

And Hu Jun is one of the people in charge of providing materials for the laboratory, and now he really complains.

Although there are more than one hundred awakened people in Kyoto, it is difficult to know that these awakened people are not all controlled by the state, and a large part of them are individuals, like Quancheng Base, which form groups, and the forces are very complex. Return these powers for national use.

And now, instead of adding one person, he has lost several people, and two of them are Hu Jun's men, which makes him very painful.

Had it not been for military orders, Hu Jun would have long since quit! .

Looking at the giant python rushing forward, Hu Jun felt despair. This giant python was the strongest one he had encountered. The military ordered this giant python to be taken down anyway, because it was about Dragon Tiger Gold. Dan's final success.

The last time he had suffered a heavy loss, he was fully prepared this time but ended in failure. He now knows that such a powerful mutant python is no longer what he can deal with, even if it is useless to pull all the awakened in Kyoto, this It is no longer something manpower can do, and thermal weapons are even more useless, and the powerful armor-piercing bullets have not been able to kill them, only a few pieces of scale armor have been injured.

"Take someone to retreat, I'll stop it!"

Just as Hu Jun was stunned, Qing Feng suddenly yelled and awakened Hu Jun from despair. After all, he was not an ordinary person, he was just lost in consciousness. Now that he came back to know what to do, he shouted: "Retreat, retreat quickly!"

In fact, without his order, the army is in chaos. These soldiers are elite, but they are not fools. Such a powerful mutant python is not something they can deal with. They shoot and retreat. Now the Hu Jun shouted, these people The retreat was quicker, and the respective chief officials led them quickly to leave.

After Qing Feng shouted a word, the whole person turned into a clean breeze and floated down the hillside, "Chang!" A sound of the sword being unsheathed, the long sword behind his back was pulled out by one of them, and the silver sword reflected violently. The cold light can be seen as a sharp weapon.

Chapter 1234: The king of the northern district understands the righteousness

"Om!"

The long sword made a hum, and then a dazzling light appeared on the snow-white sword. In the air visible to the naked eye, there was a substance in the air that threw on the sword like a moth, and quickly condensed on the long sword.

When the light disappeared, the whole sword seemed to be given life suddenly, the brilliance of the sword flowed, and it was shining with the cold light in the sun. It felt hard, sharp, and cold. The light seemed to have the sharp edge that could stab the eyes. .

This is Qingfeng's talent skill "Metal Enhancement". With his enhancement, the long sword becomes stronger and sharper, and it chirps and screams directly between strokes, as if it can split the air.

The breeze greeted the python like a wind, and the sword in his hand pierced the eyes of the python with a few cold rays in the air.

The speed of the python was also very fast. One person and one python ran into a piece like lightning. The python ignored the breeze and still rushed towards the army.

Dangdang...

The long sword rained down on the giant python's eyelids, and it made a sound of metal crashing, accompanied by clusters of sparks.

Of course Qingfeng knew this result, but he didn't expect that his swords could cut marks even with steel, and even the steel bars of the arm's thickness could be chopped off, but only a dozen of them were left on the scales of the python. The white marks are nothing more than white marks.

No wonder the hardest chromium alloy can't cut into the scales. His strong sword is not without attack, but Qingfeng is not the first time to fight a mutant beast. He is extremely combative, and he is not a hit. A kick on the python's head, the body landed on the python's back, and then the long sword in his hand was turned upside down, and the swords held in both backs slammed straight down toward the area where the armor-piercing projectile had injured.

"When...Puff"

The long sword pierced straight down from the cracked scale armor, making the sound of tingling sharp blades into the flesh. Qingfeng struck the long sword to a depth of half a foot. The powerful and tough muscles of the giant python were strong and strong. Dense, blocking the long sword from continuing to penetrate.

Ouch!

Suddenly he was attacked by a long sword, and a strong pain hit, the giant python let out a horrible roar, suddenly stopped, and the huge body shook.

The giant python's tumbling force is so great that it directly threw the breeze out dozens of meters away, and slammed it against a big tree. The tree shook violently, but the breeze spurted out blood and covered his chest with one hand. The pale face was pale.

puff! The blood is like a fountain, spraying directly from the sword mouth, forming a blood mist.

Ouch! The giant python roared again, his voice full of anger.

It turned around, turned the huge snake head to look at Qingfeng, and stared at him with blood-red eyes. The violent killing intent was shocking, and a terrifying aura straight through the leaves like a raging sea. Qing Feng pressed over, and Qing Feng was hit immediately, with another mouthful of blood, his back slammed into the big tree behind him, and the hand holding the sword trembled more violently, his face pale like a piece of white paper.

Whoosh!

The giant python moved, like a high-speed train rushing towards Qingfeng Road. The snake's head was high, and its thick body swayed as if it were swimming on the surface of the water. It was shot within a second from a distance of more than 30 meters.

Qingfeng looked at the python that was rushing quickly, his eyes shrinking, and he stood up forcibly, and ran to the distance as soon as his body moved. He wanted to draw the python away.

"Lead your troops and quickly withdraw to the base!"

Hu Jun also saw the python spurting and wounded. His eyes burst with strong hope. Seeing the python chasing Qingfeng, he gritted his teeth fiercely, yelled at several generals and looked at A few awakened people who had just gathered said: "Bring the armor-piercing bomb, follow me, and support Dao Qingfeng!" As he said, he grabbed the bazooka from a soldier nearby and loaded the armor-piercing bomb to the giant python. The direction of departure followed.

The awakened people that Hu Jun brought did not talk nonsense at all, and they also picked up the rocket launcher to chase Hu Jun.

Several awakened people, including Leng Jun, took a look, and finally had no choice but to grab the rocket launcher and put it on, and also chased the Hu Jun people who had run more than 30 meters away.

All of them were soldiers. Although they knew that they were chasing giant pythons to death, no one dared to disobey. The nature of service orders of soldiers had been written into their bones, and no one wanted to be accused of disobedience.

Chapter 1235: Come in with a ghost

The speed of the breeze is not slow, it shuttles as fast as a snake in the jungle, but the python is faster than him, and it is impossible to think that such a thick body can have such a speed, like a black lightning shuttle in the jungle.

After almost a few breaths, it chased Qingfeng behind, and its huge and hideous mouth was already open, and the serpent letter like a spear was constantly huffing, tweeting, and the momentum was amazing.

Click!

Qingfeng didn't know how to take out two grenades from there, pressing the tension spring, the two pull rings collapsed and flew, paused in his hands for a second, and then suddenly threw them back.

The python didn't care what Qing Feng threw at all, it just wanted to rush up to kill Qing Feng with one bite, and still had two grenades falling under him.

Boom!

Two huge explosions sounded, two groups of fire lights suddenly erupted under the giant python, and the powerful impact blasted the giant python's body high.

What Qingfeng threw was not an ordinary grenade. It was a powerful temperature-pressure grenade. Its power was equivalent to the power of one kilogram of TNT. The explosion range was nearly 20 meters, and it could form a powerful shock wave. , It couldn't bear the intense explosive force that was generated instantly, and its body was lifted up to a height of more than two meters.

Originally, the giant python's blood basin had already been bitten by the breeze, but suddenly he was hit by this heavy blow. The explosive force blasted his body. The huge mouth bite empty, and the sharp snake teeth slammed together like steel slamming. ring.

The strong wind spurred by the bomb suddenly hit, and the breeze fell forward into the grass like a heavy blow. He only felt a bang in his ears, and his head was a little dizzy from the shock just now, puff! Blood spurted out again.

In just a short time, he had already vomited three mouthfuls of blood.

But Qingfeng didn't just get down. He gritted his teeth and hit the ground and jumped up. He turned his head and rushed towards the python. He knew that he couldn't escape if he wanted to escape. Even the armor-piercing bullets couldn't break the python, let alone grenade. Now, as long as the python chases over again, he will be helpless again.

He was about to stop while the python was blown up. He was about to rush forward and then give the python a heavy blow. Just now he stabbed the python with a sword, and he seemed to see a little hope.

The python was stunned by the strong explosion. Although the explosion could not hurt him, it was dizzy and swayed for a while. It seemed to be drunk. At this time, the python was even more angry, but it hasn't waited. It reacted, and Qingfeng had rushed over again.

Qingfeng leaped to the side of the giant python, and the long sword shining with cold light suddenly pierced into the largest wound on its waist.

puff!

The long sword pierced straight in, the three-foot sword body almost pierced halfway in, and then the breeze gritted his teeth and twisted the handle with all his strength. The long sword stirred in the body of the python.

"Ow", the giant python shaking its head was hit hard by this and let out a horrible roar, and the body shook like an electric shock, bang! Qingfeng was hit by the python body with such great force, and immediately flew out. He also took the long sword away from the python body, and another stream of blood sprayed from the python body, straight out more than ten meters away.

The breeze flew out for nearly twenty meters and fell into the grass, but he didn't stop at all. He gritted his teeth again and rushed towards the python, his face was twisted, his lips were tightly pressed, and his eyes were crazy.

Snapped!

There was a loud noise, and the sudden rush of breeze was hit by a huge force, and it flew out instantly!

He had just rushed three steps away when a huge snake tail swept across the air. All the trees on the way were swept to pieces. The breeze was too fast to hide, and the huge tail was hitting his back. Flew dozens of meters away, hitting heavily into the grass.

The blood sprayed in midair, accompanied by the sound of cracking bones, showed the multiple of the blow.

"Cool breeze!"

Chapter 1236: Into the mall

Hu Jun, who had just arrived, happened to see this scene and yelled anxiously, then looked at the giant python angrily, suddenly raised the rocket launcher in his hand, and roared grimly: "Go to death!"

boom!

The rocket launcher in his hand was fired, and the armor-piercing projectile with a long flame shot at the python.

At this time, the awakened people who followed saw Hu Jun's movements not neglecting, they also shot the armor-piercing projectile at the giant python, just listening, banging, ten loud noises, the giant python was once again caught The violent explosion overturned, and the shattered scales flew around.

The distance is so close, and the elites of this way shot, the rocket gun accurately hit the wound of the giant python, the impact force generated by the explosion blew up dozens of scales of the giant python, and the flesh wounded flying everywhere. A washbasin-sized wound appeared on his waist. A large piece of flesh was blown to pieces, and blood spewed out like a stream.

Ouch!

The python was severely injured and stood upright. The hideous snake's head was raised high and let out a horrible roar, and then it suddenly looked at Hu Jun, the coldness and resentment in its eyes made people feel palpitation, even Hu Jun was also a scalp There was a tingling, and the air was cold behind him.

"Run away and meet at the meeting point!"

When Hu Jun saw that the wounded python was okay, he knew there was nothing to do, so he could only shout helplessly, and rushed into the woods first.

When everyone saw this movement of Hu Jun, they immediately reacted and hurriedly turned around and ran.

Snapped!

There was a clear sound, and then clicks and clicks to the ears, the giant python's powerful tail swept over directly, and an awakened man brought by Hu Jun could not be dodged by the giant tail and flew out more than ten meters. Far away, blood was splattered in the sky, but before anyone fell to the ground, the giant python's big mouth snapped up and swallowed it in one bite.

Then the giant python moved to chase another awakened person again, "Ah!" Three or four seconds later, a scream came, and another awakened person was killed, but Hu Jun did not know who this person was. He is rushing to the direction where Qingfeng just flew down.

He wants to save Qingfeng. Qingfeng's strength is absolutely top-notch during awakening, and he can't even beat himself. Such a person can't just die.

Finally found the breeze in the dense jungle, he was lying face down in the grass at this time, and he overwhelmed a large swath of weeds on the ground, covered with blood, looking shocking.

"Cool breeze!"

Hu Jun hurried over and gently moved Qing Feng over his body, and saw that his face was pale and his eyes closed, as if he was dead, but as Hu Jun yelled, Qing Feng's eyelids moved, and he seemed to be able to hear him. Hu Jun's call relieved Hu Jun's nervous heart a lot.

The screams and screams of giant pythons came from the jungle. Hu Jun didn't dare to neglect, he put Qingfeng on his back, plunged into the jungle and ran towards the assembly point, hurriedly and embarrassed.

He made a long scream while running! Like the song of a bird, more like an eagle, he was sending a retreat signal to several awakened persons.

After half an hour, Hu Jun circumnavigated a few sections and finally rushed to the meeting point out of breath. There were only two people, one Leng Jun and the other Zhou Keming. The two looked very embarrassed, with wounds on their bodies. Leaning on a boulder to rest, the two saw Hu Jun quickly stand up.

Hu Jun was also very tired, he even ran the long road holding Qingfeng, he didn't talk nonsense with the two of them, and put Qingfeng down and gasped.

The three people waited anxiously. Ten minutes passed before the awakened people rushed in. It just made everyone's mind confused. The nine awakened people rushed back to six people, and three more died in the mouth of the python.

Among the dead were his subordinates, as well as Chu Dingbang's subordinate Li Zhengyang, and Song Hanbai's subordinate Chu He.

I don't know what Song Hanbai will do if he knows it. Now the only awakened person under him is dead. There is no one available under him. How miserable it is. I am afraid that it will be difficult to do anything under Chu Dingbang's suppression.

Chapter 1237: Direct hands-on full rolling

The newly released tasks of the system tightly suppressed Di Ping so that he did not have time to rest. After the base reform was completed, he scattered several large teams and advanced to the city in three ways.

Di Ping formulated a detailed plan, this time he was ready to take down Zhongzhou City in one fell swoop!

There are many small gathering places in Zhongzhou City, thousands of people, and dozens of people. The development of the asylum city is inseparable from the population. He can't bet the treasure on Bianzhou Liu Zhenya. He still has to find a way by himself. He hit the idea to Zhongzhou City.

So far, no organization has dared to attack the city where mutant animals gather, and Di Ping will be the first person. More than forty of his men have awakened, and sufficient coins give him enough confidence to do this.

Each awakened person has a bottle of healing fluid and a bottle of vitality potion. Each team is equipped with a priesthood, which can basically ensure safety, so the three teams are implemented faster.

The first team is led by him, the second team is led by Irving, and the third team is led by Buji.

I don't know if the mutant beasts that attacked the sanctuary came from the city last time. Now there are fewer mutant beasts in the city, and sometimes they don't even meet one when they go far. So the three teams advancing quickly make people feel uncomfortable. Dare to believe it.

Compared with Hu Jun's misery, Di Ping was in a good mood at this time. He was really proud of the spring breeze. This time the Zhongzhou Raiders have been quite successful so far. He did not expect that more than a month has passed since the end of the world, and he could save so many people. .

Before every time he entered Zhongzhou City, he walked quickly out, never dared to make big moves, but this time it was a carpet cleaning. Only then did he discover that there were so many survivors. He had to admire the survival ability of human beings.

More than 300 people have been rescued by clearing the four communities. These people are hiding so tightly that they have not been discovered by the mutant animals. Although all of them are thin and skinny, they can be blown down by a gust of wind, but they are only alive.

When they were rescued by Di Ping and his team, one by one seemed to be unable to believe that it was true, and they burst into tears, and a few others were so excited that they couldn't bear it and died out.

This made the city guards sigh. Compared to these people, they were lucky. When they arrived at the sanctuary, they had food and drink, and these people were really using their lives to simmer, and they were almost exhausted.

These people were quickly sent to the sanctuary by a vehicle prepared in advance, and then a medical team was specially treated to ensure that more people survive.

When the unpopular victims were sent to the base, looking at these refugees who seemed to have come out of African refugee camps, one by one suddenly felt how wonderful their life is now, and today all this benefits from the city owner.

Invisibly, many people respect the city lord even more in their hearts. If they are not the city lord, they may be the same as these refugees, or even they may be inferior. They have long died in the mouth of mutant animals and turned into a bunch of smelly feces.

Three teams, one street, one neighborhood, and one neighborhood were cleaned up. They only cleared out more than 20 neighborhoods in the morning, saving more than 1,300 people in total, and the harvested materials are countless, one truck The car drew towards the sanctuary, so that all the residents could hardly shut their mouths.

Of course, it was not completely safe during this period. I have encountered mutant beasts several times, but they are all ordinary mutant beasts. Three teams and dozens of ordinary mutant animals kill their roots. Everyone feels that they are not addictive. Encountered a powerful mutant beast.

"City Lord, according to the record, there should also be a gathering place here!"

Yue Lie opened a city map, pointed to the location marked on it, and then pointed to a shopping mall in front.

Chapter 1238: Angry in the last days

This is an independent three-storey supermarket-type shopping mall covering an area of more than ten acres, RT-Mart. Di Ping also came here before and is familiar with this mall.

The shopping mall was built earlier. At that time, the land was cheap and I bought a lot of land, but only a standard three-storey shopping mall was built. The surrounding area was surrounded by open spaces. It was built into a green belt about forty to fifty meters wide and surrounded on all sides. The street forms a special plot. It is a good choice to hide here. The sight line is good all around, and the nearest building is a hundred meters away.

And the building is very interesting. It looks like a large bunker. There are no huge glass windows in the current building. There are only a few long and narrow glass windows, which are like shooting openings, so people can't see the inside. Case.

"Yue Lie, take a few people to explore!"

Di Ping stared at this mall from a distance for a moment, feeling a little lost. The bustling and bustling place that used to flow through the edge was so desolate as lonely, with weeds and weeds everywhere. He couldn't help feeling a little bit in his heart. It took a long time before he told Yue Lie.

"It's the city lord! Come with me!"

Yue Lie nodded excitedly, then nodded the three awakened ones, and the four quickly moved towards the mall.

Tweeted!

They had just touched a place less than fifty meters away from the shopping mall, and suddenly there was a scream, a sharp arrow shot directly from a window of the three-story building, and it slammed into a tree trunk not far in front of Yue Lie and the others. It was only three or four meters away.

Yue Lie paused for a while, and waved to the three people behind to stop as well. Yue Lie, who had experienced many killings, no longer had the immaturity of a previous college student. His eyes changed extremely when he looked at the window where the sharp arrow was shot from the third floor. Sharp.

"Stop going any further, who are you?"

At this time, a sharp male voice came from the third floor, and the reason was harsh on this quiet street.

"We are from the north of the city, and my name is Yue Lie. I am here to rescue you. Please don't get me wrong!"

Yue Lie shouted at the upstairs in a deep voice.

However, Yue Lie did not immediately wait to respond. The upstairs was silent for a minute, and when he was a little too late, there was a question from the upstairs:

"You really came to save us?"

"Of course, we have saved thousands of people, and we will be here when the radio receives your signal!"

Yue Lie replied loudly again.

The upstairs fell silent again, and Yue Lie turned his head to look at Di Ping with some puzzlement, watching Di Ping look upstairs with a calm smile on his face, not anxious, he had to wait patiently.

At this time, there were a dozen people standing in the window on the third floor. One of them was a big man with short hair and a square face. He was pulling out the thick quilt hanging on the window and looking out through a seam.

"Big brother, what shall we do, do you want to do with them?"

This was the sharp voice who was the first to shout. He was a thin, black, middle-aged man. His voice was like his own, with sharp-mouthed monkey cheeks and a pair of small eyes running around. At first glance, he knew he was an extremely shrewd person.

"Don't worry, let's get to the bottom first, don't do it rashly, don't cause trouble, don't cause trouble!"

A cold light flashed in the big man's eyes, and he said coldly.

"Brother wise!"

The thin black man flatly complimented.

Looking at his villainous appearance, a sneer of disdain flashed in the eyes of the few big guys standing around.

This person is called Gengzishan, black and thin, and his name is good, but his character is too far from his name. This is a complete villain who has a bad mind and devotes himself to bad ideas.

The big man who is looking out is called Tang Xueyi, who is the leader of this gathering place.

Speaking of the name "Understanding Xueyi", most people may not know it, but as long as people who are in the North District don't know who knows Xueyi, he is the meaningless underground king of the North District.

This Xueyi was originally a boxer, but later moved to a foreign country to fight black boxing. His subordinates had some strength. Later, he was interrupted in a boxing match. After he was well raised, he was a little weak and had to come back. His hometown is Zhongzhou, so he returned to Zhongzhou to work hard. With his fierce skill and shrewd mind, he really made a name for himself.

In the North District, there are three bathing centers, four entertainment centers, two underground casinos, and his elite fighters. Hundreds of people.

After the end of the world, he had successfully awakened, and his strength was greatly increased, and he was more refined and fighting. A group of entangled men occupied the RT-Mart and formed a small base.

Chapter 1239: The devil in the heart does evil

"You are here, we hope Xingpan Moon finally waited for you!"

Geng Zishan yelled below the window, his voice trembled with excitement, and a sad expression appeared on his face. It seemed to be really agitated. The faces of everyone behind him showed amusement, so he continued to yell: "We are here. There are many people, how many of you! Can you take us out?"

Hearing the meaning, it seems that Yue Lie is too few people to be relieved, just asking at random, Yue Lie was about to answer, but suddenly heard Di Ping's faint voice behind him: "Tell them, there are only ten people here this time. And ask how many of them there are!"

Hearing this, Yue Lie nodded and shouted to his face: "Our base is under-staffed. Only ten people came this time. How many of you are there!"

"There are only ten people here, boss, this time I will make sure to take them down!"

A beaming expression of joy appeared on the face of a strong man behind Xueyi.

"What hurry, it will be your turn sooner or later!"

Understanding Xueyi glared at the brawny man with a displeased face, then looked outside again, his face solemnly said: "Zishan, what do you mean by how many of us they asked us?"

Gengzishan frowned and screamed for a moment: "They came to the rescue after hearing the signal from us. Maybe they wanted to ask how many of us would like to help?"

"Hmm! It's possible!"

Understand Xueyi nodded in agreement.

"Then, boss, how many people do you want to tell them now?"

Gengzishan Road.

Understand the meaning of learning: "Tell him to halve the number of people and see what they mean!"

Gengzishan nodded, and leaned down to the window again and shouted, "We have more than 500 people! You guys are useless?"

Yue Lie said: "We are just the vanguard. Let's confirm the situation first. If necessary, we can contact the base and send someone over!" Having said that, Yue Lie urged: "You guys will open the door soon. That's too late!"

Gengzishan looked at understanding Xueyi and asked, "Boss, let them in?"

"Ten people!"

After thinking about learning righteousness, his face was fierce, and he sternly said: "Let them in, first explore the reality of the other party's base, and then take the person down!"

"Boss has a good idea, I think the boss can win another gathering place this time!"

Geng Zishan smiled flatly.

"You wait!"

Gengzishan was instructed to open a slit in the quilt and shouted down.

"You guys go in with me!" Di Ping ordered five more Awakeneds to be with him, then looked at Chen Gang and said, "Fatty, you lead the team to stay behind, be concealed, and be ready to support!"

"It's the city owner!"

The fat man took his command and waved to the team behind him. More than fifty people quickly quietly retreated back and concealed them so that no one in the mall would notice.

Di Ping had already brought five people to Yue Lie's side, and then looked in the direction of the mall, waiting for the other party to open the entrance.

Di Ping felt wrong. Although the voice of the other party trembled, as if he was very excited and scared, he could not hear how much fear the other party had. What made him suspect most was that this person's voice was full of anger. Unlike the people rescued before, they were all sick like Lin Daiyu, speaking like mosquitoes and flies, so that they were as powerful as they are now.

Therefore, he had to go in and take a look. Although Yue Lie had gone through good experience, he was still too young and had too little experience. He was worried about what happened to him.

Chapter 1240: Depravity and riots

"Boss! Look there are women!"

"My dear, so white, so big, I can't stand it!"

When Di Ping brought people to Yue Lie's side, a strong man who was peeking down behind Xingyi's eyes suddenly brightened and exclaimed.

"Sucking... These two women are so beautiful, look at the watery eyes and itchy heart, you are looking at the tender skin that can squeeze out water, my god! I'm going to die!"

The companion standing next to him also saw it, and his eyes suddenly burst into red, and his expression screamed.

"Grab, grandma, who is robbing me this time and who is in a hurry!"

The other burly man's eyes flushed, his thick eyebrows raised, and he yelled while rolling his sleeves.

"Snatch it! Of course it belongs to the eldest brother who is so stunning, and you dare to think about it!"

Geng Zishan glared at the rough heads of this group of worms.

Understand Xingyi was also in a daze at this time, staring at the two women in the crowd, only feeling fiery in his heart, a certain part of his body was about to move, as if it was spring, he was restless.

Di Ping felt so sensitive. He saw the pair of lewd eyes through the gap at a glance. He didn't understand when he saw them, and his judgment was absolutely correct.

He is already 100% sure that these people are by no means good birds. It seems that his knife is going to be bloodied today.

Standing behind him is Angela, who is wearing a ***** dress like a holy angel, and taking off her black robe, wearing a fiery red tight-fitting leather battle suit, chest and beautiful belly, and slender thighs exposed, perfecting her figure. Gina completely exposed.

The charm of these two women is not bad, each has its own merits. One is as holy as an angel and the other is as seductive as an elf. Both are extremely eye-catching and stunning beauties. Di Ping sometimes can't stand it, let alone the things that a bunch of worms have on their minds. .

"Be careful, I don't think these people are easy!"

The boss is the boss in the end. Knowing the righteousness is not a person who is completely thinking about the lower body. He lost his mind for a moment, but he quickly reacted. He saw this group of people carrying weapons in their hands, including men and women, dressed in strange clothes. Realize that something is wrong.

This is Di Ping's intention, like Gina and Yue Lie are still wearing battle armor, this strange costume will arouse the speculation of others.

At this moment, a window less than one meter wide on the second floor opened, and a ten-meter-long aluminum ladder was slowly stretched out and placed on the ground. At this time, a head protruding from the window whispered. : "Come on, the mutant animal should be here soon!"

"City Lord!"

Yue Lie looked back and asked Di Ping.

"You go up first and react accordingly, the situation can be dealt with!"

Di Ping looked at the window on the ladder, and his voice was murderous. .

"It's the city owner!"

Of course, Yue Lie heard the murderous aura in Di Ping's tone. He understood at the time that his expression suddenly changed to seriousness, turned to Lingming and ran towards the mall.

Yue Lie swiftly climbed up the ladder, and the next three followed him. After a while, Yue Lie poked his head out and nodded to Di Ping, and Di Ping led a few people to follow. .

Di Ping was the last one to come up. There were a few candles in it, and the room was illuminated. He could see the form inside.

Here is an open field, with people number 20 or 30 standing around, and Yue Lie and several people are among them. Looking at the location, several people are surrounded by these people, and they are surrounded by these people. Di Ping just turned his face and turned Back to normal.

Seeing Di Ping come up, three or four people immediately came forward, pulled the ladder back, closed the window tightly, and put the quilt on, the sunlight was instantly blocked out.

"Hello! Hello! This must be City Lord Di Ping, and I am the person in charge of this place. I am very grateful to City Lord Di for coming to the rescue!"

Understanding Xueyi walked forward with a smile on his face, stretched out his hand and enthusiastically wanted to shake hands with Di Ping, but his hand was stretched out in the air but froze there, because Di Ping had no intention of reaching out to hold him. Just looked at him coldly.

"What does City Lord Di mean, do you look down upon me and understand someone?"

Tang Xueyi's face suddenly turned extremely ugly, and two cold lights came out of his eyes and looked at Di Ping Yin's way.
