

Doomsday 1241

Chapter 1241: Killing from the Holy Light to disperse

However, Di Ping still looked indifferently at understanding Xueyi and had no interest at all, as if talking to him would stain his mouth.

"Hey!"

Suddenly he understood Xueiyin and laughed twice, looking at Di Ping with a fierce light in his eyes: "This is the young young man who came here. I wanted to let you live a little longer. Who knows that you just want to die early, then I will fulfill you. !" As he said, he waved his hand: "Come on, take them down for me!"

"Wow!"

More than 20 people standing around suddenly pulled out a weapon from the darkness, and five or six people rushed out from the shadow, holding guns in their hands and pointing at Di Ping and his party.

"I don't know who is looking for death? Now I can put down the weapon and I can give you a chance to survive. If you are stubborn, there will only be one word in the end,'death'!"

Di Ping didn't have any nonsense at all, his icy eyes swept across the group of people present, and he threw a word out.

As soon as he came in and glanced at him, he understood that the positions of these people were very problematic, and they surrounded himself and his group intentionally or unintentionally.

One by one seemed to be watching the prey staring at them, especially the eyes of Gina and Angela scandalously, without any disguise.

Seeing this, Di Pingna was still in the mood to deal with it, and didn't want to run into a dirty hand who knew the righteousness. He didn't have any mood to talk with him anymore. He didn't need to guess to know the situation of this base.

"I think you are the one looking for death!"

Knowing Xueyi was panicked by Di Ping's cold eyes, his face flushed, and his heart was even more ashamed. He gritted his teeth and spit out a word, and then his body moved towards Di Ping, his fist with vigor. The wind hit the Di plane door.

He wanted to smash the face of this young man, and anyone who dared to look at him with this kind of eyes would have no corpse.

It stands to reason that this should not be the case for understanding the meaning of learning. He must be very shrewd and cunning for many years. He could see Di Ping's extraordinary coming long ago, but since the end of the world, he has relied on his awakening strength to enjoy unscrupulously. With the pleasure brought by his strength, he has lost himself a little bit, and he doesn't know it because of the expansion.

If this were before the end of the world, he would not easily bring Di Ping's line of work to make him feel strange people close to him, but now he does not care about it. If he wants to destroy people, he must first make him crazy. It really is.

Understanding Xueyi rushed up like a big bear, with a strong wind on his fist and howling.

Di Ping didn't expect that this knowledge of learning is indeed very strong, speed and strength are not bad, and it can also be ranked in the middle and upper tiers among the awakened people in Sanctuary City, which is not much different from Zhang Hengcheng's strength, and should be around the first level and second level.

Thinking of this, Di Ping also made a move, and he gently swung his right hand around, throwing it out like a fly.

Snapped

Suddenly, a crisp sound of bone cracking sounded in the supermarket, and then Xueyi flew out instantly like a shrimp, banged on the shelf with a bang, and smashed a large piece of shelf to the ground.

puff! Understand Xueyi spouted a mouthful of blood, and then he looked at Di Ping in horror, his mouth trembled, "You...you..." You haven't swallowed a word for a long time.

In this sudden scene, all the people present except those in the Sanctuary City were all stunned, as if they could not accept such a thing for a while.

"Take them down!"

At this moment Yue Lie finally reacted, shouting loudly, and rushed up with a measure, knocking a gunman to the ground with a punch, and then rushed to another person.

But the people in the city of refuge shot one after another, and in the blink of an eye, there were already people lying on the ground, one by one holding the wound and wailing.

What surprised Di Ping was that there were two awakened people besides those who knew the righteousness of learning, but they were too strong, and they met Tang Zhandong, but they were knocked to the ground with just one punch.

puff!

At this time, the Dongxueyi who had been staring at this side spouted blood again, and the person also fainted in the debris with his eyes closed.

He was stunned. He didn't expect that these people here are all awakened!

Chapter 1242: I'm tired and thinking about the future

The thick quilts on several windows on the third floor were all pulled down, and the strong sunlight came in, making the supermarket a lot brighter, and you can generally see the situation inside.

The scholars lie down on the ground, all of them are not lightly wounded, their bodies are covered with blood, lying on the ground unable to move, there are two sharp-eyed sanctuary cities nearby awakening and watching, they dare not even hum, strong Endure the pain and close your mouth tightly!

When the eyes are swept down in the pile of debris, the body is bloody, and the eyes are full of fear. They have experienced the power and dominance of learning, but now they are lying like a dead dog. In the pile of debris!

Gengzi Mountain was not injured. He held his head and squatted to the ground early when he saw the bad situation. So he didn't get beaten. He secretly glanced at the young and shameless city lord standing in front of the window. His eyes turned quickly. What idea!

"City Lord!"

This is Yue Lie's pale face, walking over breathlessly, watching Di Ping hesitate to speak!

"what happened?"

Di Ping looked at Yue Lie up and down, and asked puzzledly.

"The city lord... you should go and see!"

Yue Lie glanced at Angela and Gina who were standing not far from Di Ping. After opening a few mouths, he didn't say anything.

"Oh!" Di Ping had a strange expression on Yue Lie, his brow furrowed, but he didn't ask too much. He saw that Yue Lie should have something to say in front of the two women, so he turned around and said to the two women: "You stay, pay attention to the movement outside, I will go over and take a look!" After speaking, Yue Lie led the way to the depths of the supermarket.

When Geng Zishan looked at the direction Di Ping was going, his face immediately showed extreme fear, and he hurriedly buried his head deeper, not even daring to lift his head.

"City Lord!"

Seeing Di Ping's arrival, the two soldiers hurriedly opened the door.

Suddenly, an unpleasant smell mixed with various unpleasant smells rushed to his face, and Di Ping almost lost his breath!

His brows were frowned, but he didn't say anything. Instead, he looked inward along the door. At this moment, the two soldiers turned on the two lights and illuminated the room clearly.

Di Ping only glanced to see what was inside. When he saw the things inside, the anger in his heart immediately rose, his eyes bursting with a strong killing intent.

He had never had such a strong urge to kill. He regretted that it was too cheap to kill him with just one punch.

He really couldn't imagine that the end of the world had arrived. How could some people's hearts become so evil, even more like the devil than the devil, and what they did might not even be able to do the devil.

What did you Dao Diping see?

In a room that is less than two hundred square meters, there are women lying on the floor everywhere, all unkempt and mad, no one is intact, and there are scars and blood everywhere, either knife marks or teeth. The female parts are even more inaccessible, and the flesh and blood are blurred. From time to time there are flies crawling over and buzzing, and these people move without moving, as if they are dead, even the room lights up. The lamp seemed to be invisible at all, and his eyes looked straight at the ceiling, as if dead.

And there was a group of women huddled together in the corner. When they were illuminated by the light, they seemed to have a reaction. In Di Ping's puzzled eyes, they actually crawled slowly into the middle of the room and buried their heads on the ground. Turning to face Di Ping, all of them were expressionless and numb, like a walking corpse with only the body left.

Seeing this, why Di Ping still didn't understand that these people had been destroyed and formed a conditioned reflex, how much harm would they have to endure to change themselves into this way.

He felt boring in his heart as if he was about to explode, how sinful it was to be a woman, and to endure even more tragic injuries in the last days.

Chapter 1243: Enjoy calm telecommunications

This is not the first time he has saved people, except for the last time he saved Liu Bingyu's three daughters, and after seeing Wang Dequan's atrocities, he hasn't seen anything like this so many times.

Even if it was to save Han Zhongguo and the others, the situation at the base was already very poor. Ge Zhongping and his ilk regarded the women in the base as playthings, but they only exchanged food for food, and they did not appear to be as wild as they were in front of them.

He thought that something like this would happen, but he didn't think it would be so tragic.

During this period of time to save people from Zhongzhou, what he saw was more of watching and helping each other in the last days. Husbands and wives, fathers and sons, relatives, and friends remained inseparable, supporting each other in the last days and struggling to survive.

This touched many people, and it also touched Di Ping. It made him feel that the rescue that had originally completed the task had become more meaningful and motivated.

Seeing so many beautiful things made him think that the world is very beautiful and sunny, but today he saw this scene that sent him from heaven to hell.

It turns out that there is still darkness in the world, and the darkness is scary and makes people feel cold.

"City...Lord, what...what to do!"

Yue Lie's voice was a little choked. The college student hadn't seen too much darkness in the world and couldn't bear the image in front of him. His eye circles were already red.

"If you can save it, you can't save it..." When Di Ping stopped, there was a little pain in his eyes, and he exhaled a long, low voice: "Just send them away! Maybe! To live is the cruelest to them!" Di Ping couldn't stay any longer and turned away.

Di Ping never expected that the scene he saw just now could only be regarded as an appetizer. When Chen Gang led the team in and completely controlled the base, everyone was shocked by what he discovered.

This is a gathering place for life-saving, this is simply a magic cave. There are a lot of people in the base, more than 1,000 people, but they are like cattle and raised in captivity, and their only function is as blood food to attract mutations. Beastly.

As he understood the meaning of eating mutant meat and realized the benefits of eating mutant meat, he tried every means to hunt mutant animals, but he did not dare to face mutant animals, so he used people to attract mutants under Gengzishan's suggestion. The beast, led it into the trap and hunted it down. With this method, he hunted dozens of mutant beasts back and forth.

The result was that he had three more awakened people under his staff, and the people who were used as bait suffered heavy casualties. More than 500 people were killed by mutant animals in the process of being bait.

A good name for learning righteousness is good, but being a man is not righteous at all. It is a bird or a beast. There are plenty of supplies in the supermarket, but he never gives more. These thousands of people can only survive.

Moreover, all the women in the past that could be seen among the more than 1,000 people were forcibly arrested and used for their lust. There were more than three hundred women, but now there are fewer than fifty women alive, and they are all tortured alive. Die, understand Xueyi and his gang, one by one like the devil, become unscrupulous and vicious under the collapse of the legal system.

All the soldiers in the sanctuary city have seen countless  soldiers. When they see everything in front of them, their eyes are red. They gritted their teeth and wished to hack all these people to death. This time, the people who understand Xueyi are miserable, and the soldiers pass by. There is always a kick, sometimes a punch.

They experienced a heavy blow from this group of people, breaking the bones with one punch, and swallowing blood with one kick. For a time, there were screams and screams from time to time in the mall.

When Di Ping heard it, he didn't hear it, and he didn't need to say anything about kindness to people who were no longer human.

"City Lord, the number is ready, there are a total of 1,250 people. The transportation convoy has been arranged and can be pulled in one trip. You can rush back to the base before dark!"

Yue Lie walked over and reported to Di Ping.

"Okay! Go ahead and arrange it!"

Di Ping felt a little depressed, but just nodded lightly.

"Then what about these people?"

Yue Lie's eyes swept toward the two hundred squatting underling thugs who knew how to learn justice, and asked bitterly in his voice.

"What else? Just killed the matter?"

At this time, the fat man came over with a murderous axe, his eyes bursting with a brutal light, like a bloodthirsty beast.

Chapter 1244: Changes in Bianzhou Base

"No... don't... kill me... it's all a bad thing to do, no... it's my business!"

Hearing the murderous words of the fat man, Geng Zishan shook his body, and he knelt and threw himself on Di Ping's side while crawling and crying.

He was really scared. He was lying on the ground just now, thinking about a lot of ideas, thinking about how to get away with his own eloquence, but what he didn't expect was that this fat guy would kill them all when he came, so he didn't. Can't help but begged and threw it out.

"roll!"

It's just that he just rushed over, the Fatty stared, and kicked him directly with a kick, and a clear sound of broken bones sounded. Gengzi Mountain flew more than ten meters away and hit the wall with a "bang" When he went up, his brain suddenly burst out, and the sprayed white wall was full of blood.

In this sudden scene, panic flashed in the eyes of all the people standing on the ground. It was too cruel to say to kill, they didn't even think about how they killed others before, so they all screamed.

"What is it called, I'll call you to see the King of Yama!"

At this time, the fat man was like a  of murder, lingering all over his body, feeling like a murderous violent when he didn't agree with him.

The fat man who has experienced many  battles has completely escaped from the previous timidity and cowardice, and has become abnormally bloodthirsty and warlike. It seems that after awakening, the fighting will in his heart is also activated, and he has become brave and never afraid of death.

Moreover, the fat man is kind-hearted, and he can't see these things in front of him the most. He really wants to chop all the axes in his hand for these scumbags. Therefore, kicking Gengzi Mountain he will confiscate even a little bit of strength.

Gengzishan was also unlucky. He was afraid that he would hit the muzzle as a result. He had calculated countless plans in his heart to see if he could take refuge in the new master, but he died before he left the school.

After drinking this group of people, the fat man turned his head angrily to look at Di Ping, and said in a rough voice: "City Lord, what is left of this group of beasts for is a waste of food, I can't better deal with it!"

Di Ping was actually thinking about it too. His eyes swept towards more than a hundred people squatting on the ground. He hesitated. After all, these were one or two hundred people, not chickens or ducks.

"Brothers fight with them, they won't let us go!"

Suddenly a big man in the crowd stood up, and his blood-red face roared hideously.

"Yes, fight, you will die if you don't fight!"

At this moment, a few people stood up, yelling frantically.

Di Ping's eyes were cold. Originally, he was still hesitant to deal with so many people, but now it seems that these people are completely dehumanized. They are all crazy like beasts. They are agitated, and they start to rush. .

"court death!"

A mass of killing intent burst into the fat man's eyes, and Yue Lie also drew the giant sword behind his back, his eyes surged, and the five or six City Guard soldiers standing around also drew out their weapons and surrounded them fiercely. , One of the soldiers kicked the one on the most side to the ground, holding a knife in his hand, pointing at the restless crowd and shouting: "Everyone squat down, who is moving...dead!"

"They are going to kill us, brothers fight, if you don't fight, there will be no chance!"

At this time, the first person to stand up looked at the beating fighter with grim eyes, roared, and threw out directly from the crowd, as strong as a madman.

"court death!"

This soldier is also an old man of the city guard. He is already a predator. Although he hasn't awakened, his strength is not a little bit stronger than ordinary people. A group of murderous intent bursts in his eyes, and he kicks the big man who is coming." With a bang, his foot on the man's chest, the man flew out with a scream, and smashed into the crowd.

Chapter 1245: Raider the North District to win thousands

The big man knocked down a few people in the crowd. When someone supported him, he discovered that his chest was sinking, he vomited blood in his mouth, his eyes were staring unwillingly, and he let out a roar, and his body became soft when he tilted his head.

With this sudden change, the crowd became extremely quiet, and a strange atmosphere slowly gathered. A group of captives turned their eyes from the big man to the soldier, their eyes bursting with extreme anger, and their eyes began to turn red and gradually faded. Crazy.

There was a sudden roar from the crowd, like firecrackers were lit, and it exploded. Countless people jumped up and rushed towards several soldiers.

And the six soldiers of the Sanctuary City are not fuel-saving lamps. They are all veterans who have been fighting for a long time. They also greeted a group of thundering bandits with a roar. They took no mercy and waved their weapons, and blood spattered suddenly. Many, more than a dozen people rushed up at once, and six of them were in a hurry.

There were also a few people who jumped towards Di Ping recklessly.

"City Lord!"

The fat man saw that his eyes became extremely sharp, he looked back at Di Ping, with anxiety and request in his eyes.

Di Ping's eyes were as cold as ice, and he nodded expressionlessly as he watched the rush of thugs.

"kill!"

There was a beam of joy in the fat man's eyes, then he suddenly turned around, his eyes became extremely bloodthirsty, and he rushed up with the giant axe with a roar, and the axe rushed to the front of the two and cut them in two, and then yelled again. Pounced into the crowd, swung the axe, and blood splashed for a while.

Yue Lie also rushed up and shot one person away with a swipe of his sword. He is no longer an immature college student at the time. He is no longer resistant to killing, but he still can't do what a fat man does. Killing without scruples.

Fatty and Yue Lie rushed into the crowd as if two tigers plunged into the flock. No one could stop their impact, and they turned their backs on their backs for a while.

At this time, the city guards below heard the movement upstairs and rushed to support them. Five or six awakened people rushed into the crowd like wolves. They attacked each other ruthlessly, and they screamed blood spurting violently for a while.

Ten seconds later, this group of people was finally * slaughtered, and they were terrified to kill. They called their hands to hold their heads and squatted on the ground to surrender, but this time it didn't work. This made the group desperate. They turned around and wanted to run, but when they ran there, the soldiers immediately caught up and slashed.

Di Ping kept watching with a cold face. This was a crushing killing. He didn't have any sympathy. These people didn't need to check it. They knew that there was blood and sin on their hands. They all looked wrong and crazy. And tyrannical, so there is no mercy at all for their current fate.

Gina and Angela had already caught up, seeing the  killing in front of them, their eyes were a little bit unbearable, but no one chewed.

In less than a minute, there was no one alive on the battlefield except for the more than 30 people in the asylum city. The soldiers were covered in bright red blood, standing in the blood with their weapons, panting heavily, His eyes were cold and bloodthirsty, like Shura from Shura hell.

However, these city guards and the awakened were fully adapted after the last defensive battle, seemingly ignoring the broken limbs and blood on the ground, and began to check if there were any missing persons, and even made up for those who were not dead.

"Angela, disperse!"

Di Ping looked at Angela and said softly.

"It's the master!"

Angela waved the staff in her hand, and a fist-sized holy light group suddenly burst on the battlefield, and countless rays of holy light spilled on the soldiers, and the whole dark,  third floor suddenly became as holy and bright as heaven. .

This calmed down the mentality of the soldiers who had just experienced the madness in the heart of the killing, without the tyranny and restlessness.

This is why Di Ping is not at ease, afraid that living and killing will affect the mentality of the soldiers, leaving behind some bad demons, which allows Angela to use the dispelling spell to dispel the negative state.

Chapter 1246: The news was jealous

When the people from the RT-Mart Supermarket were sent to the sanctuary, the entire sanctuary was almost fried, of course not because they knew that a hundred people were ordered to be killed by the city lord.

It's because the thousands of people who were picked up by the city lord are too miserable. You can imagine that in the dark underground garage, lack of food and clothing, and face life crisis from time to time, once you get sick, you will be understood. Xueyi's group of minions threw Chuyun to feed the mutant dog.

So everyone was worried and afraid, even if they were sick, they would not dare to fall asleep, and they would be dragged away for fear of falling asleep. More than a thousand people would have no human beings. They were almost like savages, in the duality of spirit and hunger. Under pressure, many people have reached the brink of collapse.

Even if it is a tough personality, I have seen countless * city guard soldiers seeing the miserable appearance of the basement, tears in their eyes, I can imagine the impact on ordinary city residents.

In particular, what was discovered on the third floor was spread out, and the whole sanctuary city was in an uproar. Many people knew that someone had had such a miserable life, and that the human heart was so dark and evil, and the human nature was horrible.

The women of Sanctuary City, seeing twenty or thirty women who have been tortured, both human and ghost, are full of pity, but at the same time they have extreme fear. They can't imagine what they would do if it fell on them. do?

Today, the impact on the entire sanctuary city is very big. In contrast, they realized how beautiful it is to live in the sanctuary city. It is a heaven-like place. There is still a trace of different thoughts in the sanctuary city. I love and cherish my life more.

This incident also had a great impact on Di Ping. After all, killing was not a very comfortable thing. Nearly two hundred people fell in a pool of blood under his nose. Although he thought these people should be killed, he really did it. , But he felt very uncomfortable.

After returning to the sanctuary, I didn't even eat any food at night. After beating my parents, I went back to my room and took a shower and fell asleep. Do my parents know what's going on? They asked Liu Bingyu's daughters. , And the women didn't know, and finally asked Gina to find out what happened.

For a while, everyone was embarrassed. Liu Bingyu thought of her previous experience, and suddenly felt cold. If she had been treated like this at the beginning, she felt that no matter what, she would not be able to survive. Fortunately, the city lord saved herself and thought about this. Water-like tenderness came out of her beautiful eyes again.

Di Ping felt too tired, not only physically exhausted, but mentally exhausted!

When he matures, in fact, a young man who is only now in his twenties, today's impact of human nature shocked his mind. When he closed his eyes, the body full of scars and blood flashed before his eyes, and that one. Both empty and hopeless eyes looked at him, as if looking at him through time and space. He looked at him with fury in his heart and cold back, as if accusing him of the injustice of the world to them.

The end of the world!

Di Ping sighed, feeling extremely depressed.

Originally, he was just an ordinary person. With the system, all he wanted was to rescue his parents and build a safe place for the people he cared about to survive in the last days.

But with the development of the last days, he saw too much misfortune, and saw too many life and death separations. He gradually felt that the function of the system should be used by more people, so that more humans can benefit, and humans can truly be inherited. Continue the fire of human life in the last days.

What happened today made him feel a little ashamed of himself. With such a powerful tool as the system, he is still spinning around in Zhongzhou. No wonder the system is adding tasks to himself.

If he thought that the system had too many tasks before today, he now feels that he really failed the system. Such a powerful system would be the greatest harm to mankind if he didn't really use it.

He felt that he had to face up to what he had, make full use of it, truly shoulder the name of inheritance, and fight for a survival path for the future of mankind, and save more mankind from this cruel apocalypse.

He was originally a small person who was forced to struggle because of love. He didn't have much ambition. He just wanted to protect love and family relationship.

But under the persecution of these last days, he slowly established his ideals and beliefs in his mind. If it was only a vague idea before, then at this moment he has truly had the idea in his mind, and he understands how the future is going.

After thinking about it for a long time, Di Ping fell asleep in a daze until the latter half of the night. He didn't even practice rainlessly today. His heart was too tired and he needed a good rest.

He is indeed tired. Since the end of the world, he has not stopped for a moment, either in full practice or in battle outside, which makes him not have much time to stop and think about the way he should go.

Today's incident can be considered as an opportunity for him to really stop and think about what he should do in the future, and finally determine his mind.

He also knew how difficult the road he had determined would be, and it must be difficult.

The danger of the last days is even more terrible than he thought. Mankind still has a long way to go, and he also has a long way to go, and there is more to do.

Chapter 1247: Forced to ask for help

After figuring out the major events in his heart, Di Ping fell into a deep sleep and woke up on time at six o'clock. He no longer felt the heavy feeling of yesterday, and his whole person became more energetic again and opened up.

Di Ping was surprised to find that his mental power seemed to improve again, and his mental power had increased to five meters, which was almost double the previous one.

He didn't expect that the improvement of his state of mind would actually be beneficial to the improvement of spiritual power. He suddenly thought that it seemed that the legendary sitting and enlightenment soared overnight, maybe it was true.

Holding the surprise in his heart, Di Ping stopped thinking about it, and started practicing almost non-stop every day!

He can feel the increase in his cultivation strength every day. This increase makes him feel happy. If he felt that cultivation was a pain before, then cultivation now is a kind of enjoyment.

Two hours later, Di Ping, who had just finished his practice, came to his parents' room. Yesterday he was in a bad condition. He was afraid that he was scaring his parents. He had to explain in the morning. Only after his parents came back, he rarely went to the restaurant to eat. Parents like to cook at home, and there is everything in the room, so cooking is completely fine.

When Di Ping arrived, the food was already on the table, Liu Bingyu and Yun Mengsi were there, but Yu Shujie was missing. Since the last incident, she has rarely come here. At her age, she knows the most about proportion.

Not seeing Yu Shujie, Di Ping was slightly disappointed, and at the same time feeling helpless. How could he not see what happened that day, but he could only pretend that he didn't know anything.

When he was totally uncertain about what he was thinking in his heart, he would not give any promises to these women at will, because he was afraid that he would hurt other people, and he still had some resistance to feelings in his heart, perhaps the last bit of resentment. Did not disperse.

The last time he experienced life and death, he also understood. He had always thought he hated Su Xiao, but when he was facing life and death, he discovered that he did not hate her, and he still had unforgettable emotions in his heart. This is why he In the face of Liu Bingyu and Yu Shujie, they refused to reveal anything.

If something happened with Yu Shujie that time, maybe he would let go of himself and accept new feelings, and when Yu Shujie called out that name, it not only stimulated him, but also made him understand that Yu Shujie was thinking of his husband, and He still has that Su Xiao in his heart.

Compared with Liu Bingyu and Yun Mengsi, he has more good feelings and likes for Yu Shujie in his heart. Perhaps he has been chasing after others during his first love, and he always gave them deep love and care. After this relationship failed, he I become timid and withdrawn, unwilling to give my sincerity at will, and yearn for the warmth and care of others.

And Yu Shujie gave him the strongest feeling of warmth in a few women, and it made him the most comfortable and satisfied, and whether Liu Bingyu, Ning Nan, including Yun Mengsi did not give him such a feeling, at most it was a little moving. And impulse.

Seeing Di Ping's face full of spring breeze coming in, it was not as lifeless as yesterday, and everyone in the room exhaled a long breath. When Di's father and mother saw his son restored to his original shape, the worry in his heart was also let go, let alone mentioning Di. Ping come to eat.

At this time, Di Ping had completely become a barometer of the base. His face was gloomy, and the whole base was going to rain. Everyone was terrified. When he was happy, the whole base immediately passed the weather, and the people all smiled.

He can no longer be counted as an individual anymore. His emotions are all related to the mood of too many people, but he has not yet realized this level.

After having breakfast happily with my parents, Liu Bingyu accompanied him to observe the placement of the rescued yesterday. The smart watch on his wrist rang as soon as he walked downstairs.

Di Ping saw that it was Yun Kuohai who had sent it. He was a little puzzled for a while. Is there any major issue that Yun Kuohai sent a message this early?

Chapter 1248: Summon representatives

After listening to Yun Kuohai's report, Di Ping fell into deep thought, followed by Liu Bingyu's pretty face beside him, and the beauty contact lenses kept turning, and he was digesting the news from Yun Kuohai.

It's about these Hu Jun and his party!

Hu Jun returned to Bianzhou with the breeze of serious injuries, and it caused a shock in Bianzhou. Nine awakened men died in battle, and one was seriously injured. The loss was not serious.

When Song Hanbai learned that Chu He, the only awakened under his hand, had died in battle, he was stunned for a long time without speaking. After that, he stood up suddenly and slammed his fist on the table. The shocked teacup was turned over, reporting the news in shock. The Secretary-General Liu Shuhan jumped, but he did not dare to come out.

"Asshole!" Song Hanbo cursed angrily. He didn't know who he was cursing. His face was flushed, and his eyes were cold and scary, like an angry lion.

Song Hanbai was extremely angry. There was resentment at Hu Jun, a * who did not succeed, and Chu Dingbang, who was constantly suppressing his rights, and refused to speak for him this time. Liu Zhenya was angry.

Because of Chu He's death, there is no more powerful person under his staff. In the future, Bianzhou's right to speak will be further suppressed. Now almost everyone has realized the importance of the awakened, and whether there are any awakened under his staff is extremely important in the future. The key, and now that the only trump card in his hand is gone, how can he not be angry or angry.

Chu Dingbang slapped the table angrily and scolded his mother!

Although he had five men in the light and dark, but all of them were treasures, he lost one. This made him feel heartbroken, but he couldn't say anything. Hu Jun's men also died and injured another seriously. He couldn't get angry, so he could only slap the table and sulking.

Liu Zhenya and Zhang Beiwang felt more comfortable at this time. Zhou Keming and Zhang Haiyang returned safely. The two finally let go of their hanging hearts. They looked at Chu Dingbang and Song Hanbai's awakening and death.

Originally, they were in an alliance with Song Hanbai, but this time Kong Fandao's back blow made the two people very upset, and Song Hanbaiguan did not say that this made the two people very unhappy and disappointed with the ally they pushed up.

The most important thing is that Liu Zhenya is now close to the city of refuge, and he doesn't care much about the cooperation with Song Hanbai.

Hu Jun returned with a cold face and sent Qingfeng to the intensive care unit. A group of doctors were busy with the rescue, but the situation was not very optimistic. Qingfeng's injury was too serious. There was almost no bone in his body intact, and all his ribs were broken. There are fewer broken bones inserted into the internal organs, but fortunately the awakened person has a strong physical body.

In the evening, the army that had set off with the Hu Jun also returned. There were less than 300 elite soldiers remaining in the 1,000 elite soldiers. They were extremely embarrassed. Now the entire base shook, and Fang Daocheng watched his hundreds of elite soldiers return less than 50. People, almost vomiting blood.

At this time, even Liu Zhenya Zhang Beiwang was heartbroken. You must know that this was his true elite team, and he lost nearly a hundred people.

It turned out that Hu Jun returned by plane with the awakened, but the python couldn't find them. There was nowhere to vent his anger, so he hit the target with the last retreating soldier. As soon as he chased it over, a thousand elite soldiers couldn't meet the python. The power to fight back.

If it hadn't been for the python to retreat on its own, none of the thousand people would come back!

Hearing this result, a group of people became more angry with Hu Jun. If it weren't for his identity, the people of Chu Dingbang would have liked to shoot him.

Di Ping just thought for a while and ignored the news. The task of attacking Zhongzhou City was not completed yet, and only a small part was cleared yesterday. If you want to completely attack Zhongzhou, you don't have to think about it for ten and a half days.

So he didn't have much time to manage the affairs of Bianzhou. He just wanted to know what Hu Jun was doing here from Kyoto. When he learned that he was hunting giant pythons, although he was curious about their intentions, he didn't think much about it. It's ok.

But she didn't notice that Liu Bingyu seemed to have something wrong with her expression, and she felt a little bit ungrateful.

Chapter 1249: Major General Changed in Style

After Di Ping's inspection was over, he took three teams out again, and didn't come back until the evening, leaving the matter of Bianzhou aside.

The next day went out again early in the morning, and returned when it was dark again. A large number of people and materials were continuously transported into the refuge city from outside, and the whole refuge city was operating efficiently.

Di Ping fought with the city guards and guards for two days and finally cleared the northern part outside the outer ring of the sanctuary. A total of five small gathering places were found. The smallest number was only 100, and the largest was nearly five. Hundreds of people.

Coupled with the scattered people rescued, the total number of people rescued in these two days reached 4,500!

The completion of the clean-up of the entire North District has increased the number of people in the Sanctuary City by nearly 8,000. This number is quite large, and has exceeded the total number of people in the Sanctuary City.

This made Di Ping's heart full of motivation. He felt that if the entire Zhongzhou was cleaned up, the number of people would definitely exceed 100,000.

You know, the North District is the district with the smallest population density in Zhongzhou, and even in this way, the North District has also produced tens of thousands of people. The number of densely populated urban areas will be even more impressive, and hiding hundreds of thousands of people should not be a problem at all.

In the main cleanup process, not only the population was collected, but the other gains were also great. Nearly a thousand mutant beasts were eliminated and a large amount of meat was harvested, and there was also a surprise that two awakened people joined to further enhance the strength of the base.

Not to mention the materials. Dozens of big trucks have never stopped, and they have been transported into the sanctuary. Now the huge warehouses of the system are filled up and can only be stacked outside the warehouse. It is really piled like a mountain, and it looks people. happy.

Looking at so many materials, everyone in the asylum city was happy to see flowers. With the materials, there is food and clothing. How unpleasant this is.

And as nearly 10,000 people poured into the sanctuary, the population doubled, and the popularity of the sanctuary became more and more prosperous.

But a lot of problems followed, that is, the food and clothing of so many people, but Han Zhongguo was troubled. So many people came in within three days. Think about how easy it is to solve it. Twenty thousand people are already equivalent to the population of a town.

The entire villa in the front yard is full of people, and this is hard to squeeze together, otherwise it will not fit at all.

And it will increase to 100,000 within a month, and let these people live there, so the villa can only be demolished and built into a building with a larger population.

Di Ping had to speed up Delin's previous proposal to tear down the villa and build a collective housing. The shelter city has entered a period of large-scale construction. The construction team has been expanded to 1,000 people, and various construction equipment roared all day. The villas were flattened and residential construction began.

Fortunately, we have captured one of the largest building materials market in the North District, solved the material problem, and the base is ready for rebuilding.

Luo Quanyou's construction office has now become one of the busiest locations on the base. The progress is amazing. Luo Quanyou is a pragmatic man. He worked hard and demolished more than a dozen villas in just one day. Ten mu of land is enough for many people to live on.

Today, Di Ping did not attack Zhongzhou again. For three consecutive days of high-intensity action, the city guards and the Awakened had to repair, and the Sanctuary City had to digest the gains of these three days and put the newly added people away.

Early in the morning, Di Ping had just had a meal, and had a meeting with several high-level officials of the base to discuss the next plan. At this time, his wristwatch sent an emergency signal again, and the caller was still broad.

Di Ping frowned. Yun Kuohai always liked to receive information early in the morning, but he still let Zero in. However, when Yun Kuohai explained the matter, Di Ping's expression remained unchanged, but his brows wrinkled. And everyone in the room also heard the content of Yun Kuohai's report, looking at each other one by one, but their expressions were extremely strange.

Chapter 1250: If I dare to talk nonsense, I will kill you

The thing is like this!

On the second night of the army's return, a mutant python attacked the base during the night and killed thousands of people. In the end, more than a hundred tanks of the army attacked and fired with all their strength, and then fired with armor-piercing rockets. , And then drove it out.

But the matter didn't end. The mutant snake didn't even leave, and was active outside the Bianzhou base, as long as the people inside dared to come out and attack immediately.

The whole person was trapped in the Bianzhou base, and the people inside were unable to get out. This time, a group of people in the Bianzhou base could not get out. They could not collect food if they could not get out. Collect food, this is a big problem.

And this python was finally confirmed to be the one that the Hu Jun and the others wanted to hunt. No one thought that this python was so vengeful. After two days of repairing the wounds, it actually followed the traces left by the army. Bianzhou City has revenge.

This is simply unbelievable. It happened. Hu Jun felt like a dog. The giant python was not killed. Now he was chased by it and attacked the base overnight. It was just bashing him in the face. , Which made him feel very embarrassed.

Finally, a group of high-level discussions organized a thousand-man assault group. Hundreds of tanks were dispatched in hopes of taking the python, but the strength of the python was released to the greatest extent in the wild. Without a shadow of it, every attack can cause a lot of casualties. Even the tanks can't stop its tail slam. In the end, it lost nearly 300 people and more than a dozen tanks, without causing any damage to the python. Had to order back.

In the end, even Hu Jun's fighter plane took off, and two tactical missiles were sent to level the entire forest. As a result, the giant python was still not severely damaged. It traveled through the flames in a good manner, and seemed not afraid of the flames. This made everyone very angry, but helpless.

Someone suggested using a fighter plane to carry a nuclear bomb, but it was rejected. The giant python is so close to Bianzhou. The power of the nuclear bomb is too strong. Maybe even the entire Bianzhou base will be wiped out. Who dares to bear such a big responsibility? .

At this time, Chu Dingbang, Hu Jun and other high-level officials were badly worried, and the entire base was also surrounded by clouds, making the people panicked.

Originally, this matter had nothing to do with Di Ping, but Liu Zhenya's body was bad.

They considered everything, but they missed an important aspect, that is, the army Liu Zhenya brought last time was not entirely a diehard member of the Liu family. There were more or less chess pieces laid by others.

These people gave their masters the defensive battle of the sanctuary city. Even the magical spells that the sanctuary city's strength can defeat the powerful King Kong and save people have been revealed. Originally, Chu Dingbang was just a joke. Listen, what is the difference between this and storytelling? Be a myth!

But in the helpless situation forced by the giant python, the news was injected into his heart like a strong heart needle, so he chose to ask Liu Zhenya for confirmation on the spot at the meeting.

This time, Liu Zhenya was caught off guard. Chu Dingbang asked in front of so many people at the venue. He couldn't lie at all. Of course, Chu Dingbang knew that someone in his team had already revealed the news, and he wanted to lie in front of his colleagues. If Liu Zhenya wants to mess with him, he can only tell the truth.

It was confirmed from Liu Zhenya that the venue blasted the pot on the spot. Originally, they thought the Sanctuary City was just a small base. How did the thousands of people compare to Bianzhou? After receiving the news, they still didn't believe it, thinking it was these insiders who were talking nonsense for credit. Eight Roads.

Only at this time did they realize how ridiculous they were. It turned out that the small base that detained Liu Minsheng was so strong that there were as many as a dozen people in Light Awakening.

Even Hu Jun looked horrified. It is a large base with nearly two million people in Kyoto, and there are only more than a hundred awakened people, and there are so many in this small gathering place.

They don't know yet. This is because Liu Zhenya didn't tell the truth. If he said that there were three dozen or so, Hu Jun would jump up directly.

After the venue was chaotic for a while, someone suggested that the Awakened be recruited from the Sanctuary City to support the Bianzhou base to deal with the mutant python, and many people supported it.

As a result, Liu Zhenya turned his face on the spot, and coldly threw a sentence: "Whoever has the ability, who is going to recruit!" After that, he stopped speaking.

Afterwards, the venue was quiet, the old faces of the proposed people were blushing, and everyone remembered that they had just signed a peace agreement with them. The previous expedition of Wang Dequan and Liu Minsheng was defeated by them, and all the soldiers were captured. It shows that people didn't treat you as a dish at all, and wanted to recruit other awakened people. I really don't know how big the face is and how thick the ground is.
