

Doomsday 1251

Chapter 1251: Tibetan phonetic

After discussing for a long time, no results came out. Liu Zhenya didn't come forward, no one wanted to be the first bird, and Chu Dingbang didn't know what to say.

"General Liu, is there really a spell in this sanctuary city that will bring the dead back to life?"

Hu Jun, who had been cold and silent at this time, suddenly asked.

For Hu Jun, he is now more concerned about Qingfeng's life and death, because the threat of pythons has not reached the most serious level. As long as guards are strictly guarded, it will be difficult for the pythons to rush in, but Qingfeng can't wait anymore and lies in the intensive care unit at any time. It is possible to die.

"Yes!"

Liu Zhenya nodded and said: "I have seen with my own eyes that the severely wounded and dying people were magically rescued by magic. I also participated in the defense battle of the sanctuary. At that time, three or four hundred people were injured slightly and seriously, but three people used the magic. All have been rescued, the scene is quite shocking!" At this point, there was a trace of horror on his face.

As soon as his words fell, the entire venue uttered an exclamation again, and everyone was talking with unbelievable expressions on their faces.

Hu Jun got Liu Zhenya's affirmative reply. His cold face finally showed a trace of relaxation. After a moment of silence, he suddenly raised his head to Chu Dingbang and said, "Chu Si Ling, I think I can contact the Asylum City to recruit personnel from them for support. !"

Chu Dingbang was taken aback when he heard the words, and then looked at Hu Jun unexpectedly and said, "Support!"

"For support!"

Hu Jun nodded affirmatively, and then looked at Chu Dingbang with a serious expression: "Dao Qingfeng was seriously injured during this task, and he needs to be treated quickly. Besides, I am not satisfied with everyone. The goal of the mission is this giant python. Now that the mission is not completed, I cannot explain it when I go back. This mission is of great importance. Once it fails, you will not be able to hand over special to the military at that time, so we need manpower to help me take it down. Instead of driving away!"

A hint of hesitation flashed in Chu Dingbang's eyes, and he said, "This is a bit difficult, I'm afraid they won't agree!"

Hu Jun smiled coldly and said: "Don't agree? Just tell them that if someone can be arranged to help us take the python this time, I can recognize their legal status on behalf of Kyoto, and afterwards, I will apply to Kyoto to give them some The benefits are made up!" He glanced sharply at Liu Zhenya and said, "I believe General Liu must have a way to get them to agree!"

Liu Zhenya's face changed as soon as he heard it, he felt that Hu Jun's eyes seemed to penetrate people's hearts and see through his mind.

Only now did he understand that he really underestimated this major general. The first time he met this person, he gave him a very bad impression. He was just a stunned young man. He did not put the people of the Bianzhou layer in his eyes at all because of the power of Kyoto. Extremely arrogant and rude.

But now it seems that this is really not what he thinks, he is shrewd, but he doesn't show it that much. The words and the meaning in his eyes just now seem to have seen that there is definitely a mess between himself and the sanctuary.

The person on the scene was not a human spirit, and he heard something in Hu Jun's words, and his eyes looked strange at Liu Zhenya, even though Chu Dingbang's eyes also had a sense of scrutiny.

Liu Zhenya is not a fuel-saving lamp either. He stabilized his mind and looked at Hu Jun calmly, saying: "General Hu has passed the award. I can't help Mr. Liu. If it affects the sanctuary, the people's livelihood will not stay. Sanctuary City can't come back!" After speaking, his eyebrows drooped in silence.

As soon as this sentence came out, Hu Jun's eyes were frozen, and the scrutiny in Chu Dingbang's eyes disappeared for it. Did anyone in the audience know that Liu Zhenya's love with his grandson Liu Minsheng could indeed leave his grandson only for generals and soldiers. We brought it back, they really had no reason to doubt this old man.

The atmosphere in the room was a little embarrassing for a while, everyone turned their eyes to other places, embarrassed to look at Liu Zhenya again.

"Oh...!" Chu Dingbang coughed to break the embarrassment, then looked at Liu Zhenya and said:
"General Liu, it was not said that they sent someone to contact us last time. Where are they now? "

"People are arranging in my home!"

Liu Zhenya raised his head and nodded to Chu Dingbang.

"Well! Let them come now! Since the agreement has been signed, should we implement it! Don't let people wait for a long time, thinking that our Bianzhou base is not keeping our promises!"

Chu Dingbang suddenly smiled and said slowly.
