

Doomsday 16

Chapter 16: Peoples mind

"No, I still have a system! Yes, I still have a mysterious system. I will definitely get stronger and stronger. I want to let the existence threatening my life step on my feet one by one!" Suddenly Di Ping's expression was shocked, and he remembered He still has a system, he has a hole card, and he doesn't believe that he can't live in the last days with gold fingers, then he really becomes a fool and incompetent;

Thinking of this, he once again raised infinite motivation from the bottom of his heart and renewed his fighting spirit. Since God has given me this opportunity, I must live a different life.

"How many people survived and where did they go?" Di Ping thought for a while, then slowly raised his head and looked at everyone.

"The radio said that people were broken up. Some people from the army and the government managed to rush out of the city. Others were chased and fled. It is no longer possible to hide. The radio car escaped into a shopping mall to be safe. There were still hundreds of people following, and the message was sent out after it was safe to hope that everyone would not go in this direction!" Cheng Chao had completely calmed down at this time, and told Di Ping about the matter.

"Oh! This is an era of disasters and disasters! Death may be a good thing, but it will be more difficult for those who are alive!" Di Ping stood up, walked to the window, and gently opened the curtain. , Looked at the distance and sighed softly.

"Yes! It's harder to live!" Cheng Chao also sighed.

"I don't know, what are your plans!" Di Ping suddenly turned to look at the crowd and asked.

"Planning?" Several people looked at Di Ping and looked at each other again. Even Yu Shujie stopped crying and looked at Di Ping with tears up.

"Go there, I will go!" At this moment, the fat man stood up suddenly, looking at Di Ping with excitement and said firmly.

"Me too!" Li Sheng was also sitting on the sofa, cutting his nails with a knife, his expression relaxed, but his tone was extremely firm.

"Brother Di what's going on?" Cheng Chao seemed to ask casually.

"I am going to stay. I want to build this place into a safe base. I want to give thousands of people a place to live and live." Di Ping's eyes flashed, and he said firmly and forcefully.

At this moment, there seemed to be a glow in his body, and the eyes of a few people looking at him were full of enthusiasm. Yu Shujie seemed to be suppressed by his momentum at this moment, and the eyes were also brilliant. The little girl's eyes were even more starry. She I think my uncle is really handsome at this moment.

"Okay! Brother Di, this is the last time I call this since today. From today I call you Brother Di, and I won't go there. I'll mix with you!" Cheng Chao also stood up with a call. He is a soldier, and he prefers people like Di Ping with heart and blood.

Di Ge also recognized Di Ping's leader status. Cheng Chao was a man who had made a lot of money as a boss. He was even better than Di Ping's before the end of the world. He had a hotel management company and his dozens of hotels reduced assets. He is also a person of more than 100 million yuan, so it is difficult for ordinary people to get his approval, so he is willing to call his brother.

Whenever the business reaches this level, he is a fool. He has been a soldier and he has seen blood. He knows the strength of the army best, but he has seen the powerful combat power of these mutant dogs, and the crocodiles whose artillery can't help. He knows this. The times have changed; when you see Di Ping's powerful abilities, this is definitely not something ordinary people can have. If animals can mutate, then humans can mutate. If you guess it's right, then this era will be a strong one. In the age of respect, following powerful talents is the most correct way. Of course, he must follow the correct way. What's more, Di Ping is a person who values love and righteousness and is a person who can safely follow.

"Di·Dige! I confuse you too!" Lao Luo also stood up and expressed his opinion.

"Di···Ge Di! I...I will stay too!" Yu Shujie also stood up, blushing, her eyes still stained with tears firmly.

She stood up and flashed the little girl who was sitting on her lap. The little girl stood on the ground with her mouth and her hands stuck in her waist.

"Haha, good! Let us help each other in the last days!"

Di Ping originally didn't have much confidence that these people would follow him, but he didn't expect that these people would follow him so firmly. One was that he was moved, and the other was that he was so proud, thinking that he was also a team member, and he was also happy. Haha smiled and stretched out his palm.

"Come"

"Come"

Several people stretched out their hands at the same time and placed them on Di Ping's palms. The five of them looked excited, and their eyes were full of warm flames. All the sadness and decline just now disappeared at this moment.

"And me!"

Suddenly, she quickly climbed onto the coffee table, and stretched out her fat little hand and put it on the public.

"Haha good! And our daughter!"

Everyone laughed, Di Ping also laughed.

"Come, let us help each other in the same boat!"

"Together in the same boat"

Several people said in unison. Although their voices were not loud, they were strong and rooted. Everyone looked at each other, and there was no more decadence in their eyes. Some just had an extremely firm belief in the future.

After a long time, the excitement of the crowd came over. Everyone sat down, Di Ping took out a cigarette, and a few people divided one, while Yu Shujie asked her daughter to enter the room to play.

"I'll talk to everyone about my plan first!" Di Ping lighted a cigarette and took a deep breath before slowly saying.

He never smoked before. When he was in college, the six people in the same dormitory did not smoke. After Su Xiao left him and went to the United States, he was under strong pressure to smoke. He knew that smoking was not good, but every time he was stressed. When he couldn't breathe, he would draw one, and he felt that it would make him feel more peaceful.

Seeing everyone lit a handful of cigarettes and focusing their attention on his face, he slowly said, "The first step is to collect food and water. Without sufficient food, we can hardly survive; the second step, we The mutant animals in the community must be cleaned up as soon as possible, so as to ensure the safety here." He paused and took another cigarette. The smoke was inhaled into his lungs and then exhaled. His face was immediately trapped in the smoke." Third, The other is to search for people living in the community. We have to recruit as many like-minded people as possible. There are so many people and the community is so big. If we want to be safe, we must build a high courtyard wall. The current wall cannot stop mutant animals from entering. ."

Having said this, Di Ping pinched out the cigarette butts with only a little tail in the ashtray, then looked up at the people and said, "This is my current thinking and plan. Do you have anything to add? You can talk about it!"

"I have nothing to say! I will do what Di Ge asks me to do!" Fatty Chen Gang was the first to express his opinion.

"It's a foodie who eats without thinking! It's true that he can't think of anything." This is Li Sheng's sudden mouth.

"You are paralyzed, just say that my rice bowl is ready! It's still stern, can you talk about it?" The fat man pointed to Li Sheng's face and gritted his teeth.

"I have no problem either!" Li Sheng shrugged and said indifferently.

"I... fuck, dead face paralysis! You can't take care of yourself if you come to see my brother!" The fat man yelled in anger, spitting into his palms and rubbing his hands quickly, screaming that Li Sheng should come out for practice, but he was alone. Stand firmly without moving a point.

"Cut!" Li Sheng hugged his shoulders and leaned against the sofa.

"Okay, fat guy, sit down and talk about business!" Di Ping knew that these two people love to have fun and wouldn't really persuade him, but now that they are business, they can't let these two live treasures have trouble here.

"George Di, I feel that the gas is a little broken for cooking today, and it may stop at any time. Are we collecting some gas fillings? There are three restaurants outside the community, and there must be some of us inside!" At this time, Yu Shujie After thinking about it, he said crisply.

"Well, this is also a problem! Okay, let's check it out tomorrow!" Di Ping also knew that gas would not last long, and the fuel had to be prepared early. It was enough to eat bread and instant noodles.

"It would be great if I could collect some frozen meat! I don't know if there is a cold storage in these restaurants?" The fat man asked with bright eyes when he heard that the restaurant seemed to be suddenly excited.

"You are all pigs and still eat meat?" Li Sheng is an interesting person. He never talks very little, but he likes to accompany fat people, and he never let it go as long as he has the opportunity.

"You are envious and jealous!" The fat man laughed proudly.

"Haha, fat man, I finally know why you are so fat!" Di Ping also laughed and teased the fat man.

"Brother Di, I'm so good. If I don't eat meat for a day, I feel bored!" The fat man smiled and touched his head with embarrassment, and then suddenly he slapped his thigh with regret. Get it up and eat it, you have to let it go, the gods can't stand still even if the dog meat is rolling three times. You people are really a waste."

"Oh..." Suddenly Yu Shujie covered her mouth and retched!

"Sister Yu, do you have it?" The fat man watched Yu Shujie suddenly covering her mouth and retching, as he suddenly understood.

"You're a big-headed ghost! You're a fat man, these dogs have eaten people, so you dare to eat!" Yu Shujie gave the fat man an angry look, and then vomited twice after speaking.

"Then what's the matter, dogs still eat shit! Don't some people still eat dogs?" The fat man retorted, rolling his eyes.

"Oh..." Yu Shujie couldn't help it anymore and ran to the bathroom.

"I said fat man, can't you pee without **** and shit?" Di Ping was also a little bit responsive when he was said by the dead fat man. He had also thought about the mutated dog meat and wondered if he could eat it. He was about to experiment! This caused the fat man to bother him a little too much, so he hurriedly stopped.

"Fatty man, don't eat my cooking next time you have this idea!"

At this moment, Yu Shujie walked out of the bathroom, staring at the fat man viciously as he walked and said, her face was still a little pale, she seemed to be disgusted by the fat man.

"Oh! Okay! It's a pity! It must be fragrant when stewed!" The fat man was a little impatient, and then murmured with regret.

"Fatty!"

This aroused public anger, and even Cheng Chao stood up with a blue face and shouted in a low voice. Li Sheng lifted his foot and stepped on the fat ass, and the fat fell on the sofa; and Yu Shujie vomited and ran again. Into the bathroom.
