

Doomsday 22

Chapter 22: Man and Snake

The snake swam out slowly, and then erected a sea bowl-sized snake head standing upright. The snake's head about a foot in length was spitting out a scream, and a pair of blood-red eyes shot out cold eyes staring at Di Ping. , Gave him a shuddering feeling, the black scales on his body were dense and hard, his body was ten meters long, his head was standing in the hall, and the giant snake's tail was not fully exposed behind it.

There was a shallow scar on the head of the python with a trace of blood. This should have been injured by the sword that Di Ping had cut just now. Obviously Di Ping was shaken back, and the python seemed to be uncomfortable.

Seeing the wound, Di Ping was not without disappointment. Originally, the Han Jian was his best weapon, but with the growth of the mutant animals, the Han Jian became more and more unable to make contributions; this sword can also be regarded as a world-class sword. The craftsmanship of the craftsmanship, but still can't really hurt this mutant snake, let alone the super mutant crocodile that wiped out the tens of thousands of people.

"Hey..."

The giant python seemed extremely angry at this time, and the erected body slammed at Di Ping, and the blood basin was as big as the top of Mount Tai, and Di Ping could see the two huge fangs clearly.

Di Ping's mind was highly concentrated. Seeing the python rushing, his figure retreated sharply, avoiding the python's mouth, while the long sword in his hand was raised, and he slashed at the head. The long sword flashed with cold light, and the blade pierced the air and made a sting sound.

"when...."

With a loud noise, the long sword slashed into the air and hit the ground, and sparks shot in all directions. The floor tiles were broken into several pieces. Di Ping's hands were also numb, and he threw the sword.

Di Ping did not expect that the python reacted so quickly. It would retreat as soon as it missed a hit. It came and went as fast as lightning. To say that Di Ping was fast enough, it was only the first time he fought with animals like snakes. Can imagine the snake's attack speed so fast.

"call!"

"boom!"

As soon as Di Ping was about to lift his sword back to defense, a black shadow screamed with a strong wind and turned in front of him. Di Ping didn't even have time to return the sword, and he flew out from the middle of his chest with a bang.

"puff...."

A mouthful of blood spurted out, and his body was hitting a table. The elm wooden table smashed to pieces with a click. When Di Ping was lying in the pile of broken logs, he felt like his chest was about to explode. He was so stuffy that he wanted to vomit blood. , This blow was powerful enough, and his eyes were black when he hit.

With one hand on his chest, he realized that the black figure that was drawing him turned out to be the snake's tail of a giant python. At that time, he was patronizing the attacking snake's head. I thought the snake was so cunning. When the attack was retracted, the snake's tail was secretly pulled, making Di Pinglian react for time nothing.

"Pooh!"

Di Ping sprayed the blood in his mouth and wiped his hands, and slowly stood up. The giant python was still standing there and did not attack, but the blood-red eyes seemed to be full of mockery, as if he was laughing at Di Ping overpowered.

"What the * is being despised by a snake!"

"Others despise me, and your dead snake dare to despise me!"

"Come on! Fight again!"

Di Ping felt his heart burst into flames, his eyes were blood red, and a murderous intent came out of his body, kicked off the broken wood on the ground, and slammed his sword towards the python.

Di Ping was irritated. The most hated person in his life was that others looked at him with this kind of eyes. Of course, Su Xiao's family looked at him with such contemptuous eyes. It seems that he is just a small reptile that can easily be crushed to death at any time. , But he endured everything for love.

Because of this look in three years, he had eaten, suffered, tired, endured how much humiliation and making things difficult, but he gritted his teeth and stood up; he wants to prove to everyone that he is not a small reptile, he is a man upright and can give The happiness of your beloved.

But in the end, everything he suffered became a joke. The woman he fought for did easily become someone else's bride. He became a complete fool and idiot. His own success was just a joke in the eyes of others. It's a joke, he understands that he has wanted to die because he has lost the pillar of forge ahead, but when he remembered that his elderly parents finally stopped the pace of death, from this moment he decided that he would never bear anyone trampling on his dignity. , Even the eyes are not good.

As if feeling Di Ping's monstrous killing intent, the giant snake also made a long hiss, the snake body bent into a bow, and then shot out like lightning, coming straight toward Di Ping, five or six meters away in a blink of an eye.

"cut!"

Di Ping stepped forward, pressing his feet, and violently jumping. His sword raised his arms in the air and smashed down with all his strength. The sword thundered, and the potential energy split the mountain and opened the rocks.

"Tweet!"

The long sword screamed, and the air seemed to be cut through.

The giant python did not expect that Di Ping would suddenly accelerate and jump up. At this time, it was too late for the snake's head to hide. The sword was in the air, but the giant snake swung its tail in the air, turning its body to the side, and its giant whip-like tail was in the second direction. Di Ping swept.

"call....."

The snake's tail is vigorous, whirring.

"Snapped!"

Nagao was sweeping behind Di Ping's right back with a loud sound, Di Ping cried out that his clothes were all pulled into pieces, and his body flew out at an angle, knocking down a table and chair again.

"puff"

Di Ping spurted blood again, feeling half of his body numb without feeling, but at this moment he seemed to be in madness, and he immediately stood up on the ground, his eyes full of fierceness and madness.

"Ah! Come again!"

With a loud shout, Di Ping rushed to the python again.

The python seemed to have the mentality of cats and mice. Snake vomited and pierced his ears, and his eyes became more disdainful. Seeing Di Ping rushing again, the snake's body shot again.

"Wrong body cut!"

Seeing that the giant mouth of the giant python's blood basin was about to bite Di Ping, Di Ping suddenly turned to the left to let the giant python snake's head, and the man turned with his sword in the air, with his arms strong, the long sword slashed down with howling.

The python bite empty, and it seemed to feel wrong, but at this time it was no longer in a hurry to pull away, and wanted to repeat the trick, the snake head swung to the left and opened the sword front, the snake tail swished to keep up.

"puff!"

The giant snake was still a step late, Di Ping used the fastest speed, the snake head passed the sword body but the neck did not pass the blade. The blade passed by, huge power and speed. The giant python's scales are as strong as steel. A wound of more than ten centimeters deep can reach the bone.

At the same time, there was a loud noise, and the tail of the snake was drawn on Di Ping's back, and Di Ping exhaled in pain.

"Bah!"

The giant python screamed in pain, blood ran out from the neck wound, pattered on the ground, and quickly gathered into a small beach; it seemed to be injured by a small bug, making it very bad. Angrily, the giant python screamed, and Di Ping, who was still struggling to get up, was charged like electricity, and it seemed that he was not going to play anymore.

"Haha Enough! Come again!"

Di Ping stood up again at this time, his face covered with blood, and his clothes became torn apart, holding a long sword with a crazy smile on his face, and rushing towards the python again.

Although Di Ping's face is full of madness, in fact, his heart is extremely calm. He knows that he can't match this giant python in terms of speed and strength. The only factor that can win is to use the giant python's carelessness, so he has to be mad to provoke him. The python, it was very successful just now, but the python seemed to know that he had been fooled, so now he was extremely angry and wanted to kill the little bug.

Enduring the huge pain in his body, Di Ping rushed towards the python. The python suddenly opened his mouth and let out a loud roar, and the tail of the snake came again with wind.

"Again!"

Di Ping saw that the snake tail was as thick as a bowl of snake tail and swept over with a shocking power, and hurriedly rolled on the spot. The snake tail swept over his head with a whirr, and several wooden tables suddenly shattered into a piece of sawdust.

"Woo..."

Before Di Ping stood up, the snake's head slammed down like a heavy hammer.

"Fuck!"

Di Ping cursed secretly. At this time, the sword could no longer stand, so he had to press the palm of his hand on the ground, and his body rolled on the ground like a gourd, turning back the fatal blow.

"boom"

The ground was smashed, and the python snake head hit the ground, and the tiles on the ground suddenly shattered, but when the power was so great, if Di Ping smashed it into meatloaf.

"I cut!"

The giant python seemed to have a little dizzy head hit by the huge impact. His head shook again and again. He wanted to break free from the vertigo. Di Pingna, who had already stood up, could let go of this opportunity. He roared and rushed forward with a long sword. It is cut down in the air.

Di Ping was still in the air, seeing that the long sword was about to be chopped off the python's neck, his face was full of joy, if this blow hit, the python would not die and it would be seriously injured.

"boom!"

It's just that Di Ping thought well. When Di Ping was happy to hit, the giant python head suddenly slammed into his arms without warning.

Without a trace of defense, Di Ping suddenly felt like being hit by a high-speed car. There was a loud noise, which seemed to be mixed with the sound of broken bones. People flew straight out in the air, and blood spurted out of the nose like money. .

"Bang... Wow!"

Di Ping flew straight to the door and hit the glass door. The glass door broke into pieces, and the person flew out and fell asleep on the steps.

"Brother Di!"

Fatty Li Sheng had long heard the ping-pong thinking inside, and was extremely worried. At this moment, he suddenly saw Di Ping flying out of blood and blood, and immediately screamed and rushed up.

"Brother Di! How are you?"

The two ran over and hugged Di Ping. Their voices had changed, and the fat man's face was full of tears and he couldn't make a sound.

"You...men,,, go!"

Di Ping's vision was a bit blurred at this time. He felt that his body was no longer like his own. He did not expect that the python was so cunning, deliberately pretending to be dizzy, and attacking by accident. The head impact force of the python was too great, and Di Ping He was also unprepared, hitting it straight, he could hear the click and know that his ribs must have been broken.

"Brother Di, let's not go! Let's go together!"

The fat man shook his head violently with tears, Li Sheng also said nothing, holding the baseball bat in his hand, slowly standing up, his face was full of determination, and he seemed not ready to leave.

"Go!"

Di Ping bit the meat fiercely, drank it with strong strength, and then tried to stand up with his arms, but he overestimated himself, the injury was really serious.

"No, we won't go! Die early and live early!"

With tears in his eyes, the fat man picked up the steel bars placed on the ground, stood in front of Di Ping and stood with Li Sheng, his eyes resolutely looking at the giant python that was slowly swimming out.
