

Doomsday 23

Chapter 23: Potential

"Brothers!"

Di Ping felt a surge of enthusiasm in his heart, his eyes blurred, and his heart was moved violently.

"rustle"

The giant python swims out leisurely, the blood-red eyes are cold and ruthless, it seems that they are not looking at life, but a stone; when they sweep over the fat man, they are even more ignorant, just staring at Di Ping behind them. Taking these two people seriously, only Di Ping, who was lying on the ground, could arouse its interest.

Di Ping thought to himself that he might have to confess here today. He did not expect to have the golden finger and he did not escape this final fate, but at this moment, his heart was quiet. It seemed that these were not terrible. Looking at the two of his own Brother, although the two of them were trembling all over, they could not give up, what else can they expect in this life with such a brother?

"Come on! Want to kill Brother Di, pass me first!"

The fat man suddenly yelled, raising the steel bars in his hand and rushing towards the python.

"Snapped"

The giant python seemed to slap a fly, and swept out a fat man weighing more than two hundred catties with a light sweep of its tail.

"boom"

The fat man fell down the steps, rolled on the grass twice and stopped moving, and blood came out of his mouth frantically.

"Fuck your ancestor!"

At this time, Li Sheng screamed angrily when he saw the fat man injured.

"Snapped"

The python swept its tail again, and Li Sheng flew against the wall, spurting blood, and slid down the wall. People could no longer move, but the python didn't even look at it, but just stared at himself.

"Fuck! Beast! I want your life!"

Di Ping originally wanted to wait for his death, and his body was in pain, but when he saw the two brothers protecting him from being taken away by the giant python, he didn't know his life or death, blood surged up, his eyes were breathing fire, he gritted his teeth and shouted, cheering up. Thinking of working hard with the python; it was just his futile, the heavy injury made him unable to get up at all, and after working hard several times, he fell back again.

The python just watched silently, the disdain in his eyes heavier.

"I fuck, I fuck!"

Di Ping worked hard over and over again, blood staining the entire ground, his hands kept scratching across the broken glass on the ground, turning into wounds, blood cooing out; his eyes were full of blood and tears.

"Di...Congratulations to the host through its own efforts to break the awakening potential of human beings, potential level B"

"Di...Congratulations to the host for unlocking the potential, obtaining the talent skills, and the flame strengthening level B"

"Di...The host opens the potential system independently and presents the system skill exploration technique"

"Di...The host has unlocked the potential in advance, please build a tavern as soon as possible to start the career system and complete the job transfer!"

Di Ping, who was struggling to fight the python again, suddenly felt a shock in his body. It seemed that something opened in his body. He immediately relaxed, and his mind kept beeping. Then something suddenly appeared in his mind. As soon as things entered quickly Melting into one with myself, it seems that this is my memory, so clear.

After a while, the body shook again, and a powerful energy suddenly rose from the depths of the body and quickly flowed through the body. This time it was stronger than ever before, so that Di Ping's whole body trembled.

Every time the warm current flows to one place, the injury of the body is quickly healed, the skin and flesh are itchy, and the bones all over the body are creaking, and I feel a force of awakening in the body, and the warm current is coming and going away quickly, ten After a few seconds, he disappeared, and Di Ping's expression of joy, thinking that it was a truly unparalleled road, did not expect to awaken at this last moment, and once such a powerful enhancement, more than the previous total.

Di Ping felt his own surging power at this time, with a strong killing intent in his heart, his eyes fixed on the python, the coldness in his eyes seemed to be looking at a dead thing.

"Bah!"

Looking at Di Ping, who was slowly standing up, the giant python also seemed to feel that something was wrong. Suddenly a horrible aura appeared on this little bug that was already the flesh of his mouth. What was wrong, its brain It can't turn around for a while; but the animal's sensitivity tells it that it can't wait, and it must kill the little bug immediately, so it makes a piercing sound and shoots straight at Di Ping.

"kill!"

Di Ping raised his head fiercely, his momentum suddenly exploded at this moment, feeling that he was receiving only twice as much strength as before. His previous strength must be more than one thousand catties, but now only three thousand catties are up, and his heart suddenly rises. With pride, he shouted wildly and swung his boxing at the python. The python who had just rushed in front of Di Ping was shocked by Di Ping's tyrannical aura.

But Di Ping didn't stop. This fist seemed to be thunderous, and it came with thunderous wind and thunder. The giant python had no time to react. The fist had already hit the lower forehead with a loud bang, and the giant python rolled and flew out like being hit by a train. With blood flying in the air, we can see how powerful Di Ping's punch is.

Before the giant python landed, Di Ping made a "boom" with one foot on the ground, like a flash of electricity, and followed him, a whip leg in the air, the leg is like a steel pillar with endless strength, pumping air They all made a crackling sound, hitting the python's waist.

"Boom!"

Nearly ten meters of the python's body twisted together and flew out.

"Come again!"

Di Ping moved his body again, moved away, grabbed the python's tail, shouted with his arms, and slammed the python to the ground.

"boom"

There was a huge noise, the ground shook for a while, the cement flew around on the steps, and the blood was spurted by the giant python. Di Ping grinned and smashed the giant python again.

"boom!"

The python was smashed on the wall, and the wall tiles splashed. Di Ping was like a violent steel, carrying the python's tail and smashing it madly.

"boom....."

For a while, the banging kept on, the ground kept shaking, like an earthquake, the giant python flew around.

"Brother Di!"

At this time, a weak cry awakened Di Ping from his anger. He looked at the voice, and saw that the fat man did not know when he had climbed up and leaned on the steps, and Li Sheng was also awake by the other two. It was Cheng Chao and Lao Luo who protected him.

"boom!"

Di Ping dropped the corpse of the python casually, and walked over quickly with a surprised expression.

"Fatty Li Sheng, are you all right? Great!" Di Ping looked excited. He thought he was going to lose these two brothers. He didn't expect that they were still alive. He hugged them, tears involuntarily flowed down.

"Brother Di! We are too useless to help you!" The fat man said with a disappointed expression, his voice full of guilt.

"What nonsense? You are all my brothers. Can the brothers be separated from each other? Don't say such things in the future!"

Di Pingyan stared at several people and rebuked.

"Brother Cheng, Lao Luo, did you hide there? I thought you were eaten by this beast?" Di Ping saw Cheng Chao standing in front of him intact, so he asked with some confusion.

"George Di! After you left, I found a huge python skin in a broken glass box with a few huge snake eggs underneath. At that time, I thought this might be a snake nest!" Cheng Chao said. , With a startling look on his face, then he looked at the ***** giant python over there before continuing.

"At that time, I was shocked, so I hurriedly wanted to notify Lao Luo, leave together, and go back and notify you!"

At this point, he seemed to be frightened, his face turned pale for a while, and he slowly said with a long breath after a pause.

"Lao Luo and I were about to go out when we heard the croaking noises in the grass, and the grass was shaking constantly at a super fast speed. Before we could react, a huge python head stuck out of the grass, just in time to see The two of us."

Cheng Chaoyue said that the more frightened, he didn't seem to wake up from the fright at the time. Lao Luo was obviously too frightened, his lips turned purple and his body was still trembling.

"What happened then? You ran there!"

Di Ping patted the shoulders of the two of them, and the two of them slowly passed away.

"At that time, we were scared. I saw this big snake. At that time, it was definitely too late to run outside. I had an idea, thinking that the cold storage could hide first, so I pulled Lao Luo and ran in," Cheng Chao said excitedly while wiping his sweat. .

"The python also saw us and rushed in. It happened to hit the glass door and the glass broke." Cheng Chao glanced at the broken glass on the ground.

Only then did Di Ping realize that the glass door was so broken.

"Fortunately, this glass door was blocked. As soon as Lao Luo and we entered the door and closed the cold storage door, the python rushed over. Fortunately, the hole I had opened before was blocked by me, otherwise it would be a big trouble today!" Cheng Chao Said with a sigh of relief.

"In it, we heard Di Ge yelling that we dared to come out, but as soon as we came out, it became like this!" Lao Luo also followed, with some regrets on his face: "We didn't help, and it made you all. Injured?"

"Haha! Speaking of your own brother, don't care too much!" Di Ping laughed and patted the two to comfort him.

"Go, look at this big guy! Fatty, did you two get together?" Di Ping, the fat guy who was half-lying under the steps, asked with concern.

"Able to get up, this dead snake is quite powerful. Fortunately, the master is thick!" The fat man spit out bloody, spitting curse, and slowly stood up on the steps.

Li Sheng seemed to be seriously injured. He was supported by Cheng Chao and his body softly. He looked at Di Ping weakly and said, "George Di, I'm fine, just rest!"

Di Ping asked the two of them to support Li Sheng and walk towards the giant python lying in a pool of blood. The fat man was really good. He actually raised his leg to keep up. Although Budai was still a little vain, he withdrew his worried gaze, and his eyes swept to the ground. Python.

Suddenly a message appeared in front of Di, and Di Ping thought to himself: "Is this the system skill exploration technique!"

"Mutated Black Python: Bloodline Level: Low, Talent Skill: None, Strengthening Level: Level One and Level Two, Skill: Lightning Strike"

"Could it be that this is the information of the giant python, this detection technique is indeed very useful, and you can see the information of some mutant beasts in the future. You don't need to touch the black one by one and don't know what is strong." Di Ping carefully looked at the information and thought to himself .

"Lightning thump, dear, no wonder this dead snake's tail flicks so fast and can't avoid it. If it weren't for the potential excitation at the critical moment, he would definitely die!" Di Ping secretly said lucky.

"Brother, are you sure you are not King Kong?" The fat man asked with horror when he saw the deformed body of the giant python on the ground.

"Fatty guys watch and fight!" Di Ping bit his face! This fat man became more and more mean and dared to call himself a gorilla. It seemed that he had to put some eye drops on him.

"Hey! Brother Di, I was wrong, I am a wounded!" The fat man saw Di Ping's feet sinking and wanted to lift up and pretend to be pitiful, like a wounded lamb.

"Rolling ball! Don't disgust me!" Di Ping looked helpless, this fat man was too shameless.
