

Doomsday 24

Chapter 24: Finally eaten meat

In fact, not only Fatty has such a question, Cheng Chao and several people also want to ask, "Brother Di, are you Superman?" It's just that everyone is not as thick as Fatty. If you really provoke Di Ping and suffer twice, you will die. Yes, I didn't look at the dead snake lying on the ground. If I can still call it a snake, or look closely, I thought it was a broken sack, cracking everywhere.

Di Ping took a closer look and found no valuable information. He picked up the Han sword that fell on the ground, broke open the python's head with a sword, and took out a group of jujube-sized delicate jade beads, this crystal core It is a lap bigger than any of the previous ones. Di Ping did not have any exploration skills before. I don't know what level the mutant dog is. Maybe the mutant snake is stronger than the mutant dog at the level. Just look at Di Ping's misery. Just know.

"His mother!"

Di Ping suddenly cursed in secret! The figure took a step back, with a look of disbelief.

At this time, a fist-sized green soul energy suddenly rose from the body of the python, and it rushed into its body quickly.

The reason why Di Ping scolded was that he didn't expect this giant python to be so strong, and only now died. Just now, he only cares about smashing it and not paying attention to the energy. He also thought that it should be dead if it was smashed like this. Being alive really scared him.

"Di...found that the soul energy cannot be stored, consume energy to strengthen the host body"

A mass of energy rises in Di Ping's body at a time, but with Di Ping's current feeling that this mass of energy flows through the body, the body's feeling is very weak, and the body's strength is not strengthened much, and the strengthening power is even less pitiful. Better than nothing! With his current strength, the increase of a few dozen kilograms, which is really small, is really not big, but it is better than nothing.

"Brother Di! How do you deal with this giant python?"

Cheng Chao asked when Di Ping looked at the giant python's body after receiving the crystal core.

Di Ping grabbed the snake's tail of the giant python and walked a few steps forward. With a stronger arm, he turned around and threw the giant python easily up and out. With a "whoo", the giant python rolled like a twine. It flew out and hit the big tree on the side of the road with a crash, then hung on the tree after rolling a few times, shaking constantly.

"Put it here to frighten mutant animals!"

Di Ping clapped his hands and laughed.

The eyes of a few people were shocked. Although they had seen Di Ping's courage just now, they only saw Di Ping throw a giant python like a twine to a tree 30 meters away. It was really breathtaking. hard to accept.

"Go! We have to move the gas tank!"

After taking two steps, Di Ping seemed to feel that the crowd hadn't followed, and then turned around and greeted him again. He saw the shock in the eyes of the four people and the worshipful look at him. Although he had experienced a lot and has grown a lot, this He still enjoys the look, knowing that aside from everything, he is only a twenty-five-year-old young man.

"Oh! It's coming!"

The crowd withdrew their shocked gazes, followed Di Ping quickly, and walked into the store.

After a while everyone walked out of the hotel again, only to see Di Ping connected the two gas tanks with two ropes, holding two gas tanks on one side, as if they were weightless, and only Lao Luo was carrying the remaining one. Chao helped Li Sheng and the fat man seemed to have recovered a lot, and he actually followed along, and his footsteps were already a lot easier.

In Yu Shujie's worried gaze, Di Ping and his team returned to their house, placed Li Sheng on the sofa and lay down, and then moved the gas tank into the kitchen. Lao Luo is an expert here, and he installed it three times, five days and two. The gas stove, everyone was relieved, and finally they could continue to eat hot meals.

Di Ping went to the bathroom again and pulled off the clothes that were out of shape on his body. There was not much water, so he didn't dare to waste too much. He simply scrubbed and found that all the injuries on his body were healed. Even the broken ribs were a little bit painful. The feeling is gone.

Feeling the violent power in his body, Di Ping sighed. Although the injury was serious and he almost died, the gain was huge. He always thought that he had to wait until the tavern was built to unlock his potential. He didn't expect to open it in advance. Has reached the potential, and the potential has reached the b level.

He has been playing this game for quite a while, knowing that the d-level and c-level heroes are the easiest to obtain, and the b-level will be more difficult, but how difficult it is to get to the a-level and the s and ss-levels here. The chances of the phone call are too low, and most of Di Ping's S-rank heroes are also obtained by recharging.

It's just that I don't know if this real world potential level will be the same. At what level the b-level potential is considered rare, he doesn't know it now, and can only take a step by step.

In fact, he was a little disappointed in his heart. He didn't expect that he was only a B-level potential. You must know that the difference in potential levels is obvious. First, at the beginning, the higher the potential level, the higher the start. The increase will be different for each upgrade. For example, for each level of D level, the increase is 1, then C is increased by 1.5, and B is 2, so you can directly increase to 4 when you reach ss level. What is the difference in the middle? The larger, so the potential level determines your future development, how can the B-level potential not let Di Ping down.

In addition, the biggest gain today is that he has acquired two skills, one talent skill. He hasn't checked the usefulness of this skill until now, but he has already used another skill exploration technique. It is too practical. He has a feeling. In the future, this skill will help me greatly.

After a new set of clothes came out, everyone was sitting around in the hall talking, the fat man was talking excitedly, talking about the thrilling scene of his brave giant python.

"It seems you flew into the grass with one move!"

Li Sheng seemed to be unable to listen to someone bragging, and said in his weak voice.

"The dead face is paralyzed, I'm not dead yet! You can die suddenly without speaking!"

The fat man blushed immediately after being exposed, staring at Li Sheng gritted his teeth.

"Can be suffocated!"

Li Sheng still had a calm expression on his face, ignoring the fat man's irritability, and said lightly.

"Puff!"

Yu Shujie was amused by Li Sheng's words, and couldn't help but laugh out loud, and everyone laughed in shock.

"You you!!" The fat man rolled his eyes for a while, pointing at Li Sheng, you were speechless.

"Brother Di!"

Cheng Chao was sitting by the window, he saw Di Ping as soon as he came out, and hurriedly stood up and said.

"Di Ge....."

Several people stood up when they heard the sound. Even Li Sheng, who was half-lying, was ready to get up, his eyes were full of respect. He was their inner respect, without a trace of force.

"Okay! Sit down! Feel free at home, don't do this, I am uncomfortable!" Di Ping waved reproachfully, and then looked at Li Sheng who was half-straightened on the sofa. "Just be honest." You think you have the flesh of a fat man! Lie down!"

"Brother Di! Didn't I mess with you?"

The fat man was shot while doing it, complaining innocently.

"You fat man, are you complimenting you? Your body is equivalent to armor, otherwise you have to lie down like Li Sheng!" Di Ping scolded with a smile.

"Hey! Don't say it, this is also our advantage! If the facial paralysis comes, should you teach you to gain weight? You will be fine today like me!" The fat man seemed to feel that Di Ping was right, and he immediately grinned. Turning to sell the treasure to Li Sheng.

Li Sheng gave the fat man an angry white, then lay on the sofa and ignored him.

"Li Sheng, how are you feeling? Did you hurt your internal organs?" Di Ping asked carefully, seeing the slight pain on Li Sheng's face.

"I don't know if it hurts! It's just that sometimes when I breathe, there is a faint pain in my chest!" Li Sheng's feeble main road seemed to dare not speak loudly.

"It may be injured, and no one of us can heal!" Di Ping looked at everyone and shook his head when they saw everyone, and then he said, "You try to lie down and don't move around. Let's see if we can find a doctor in the afternoon!"

"Thank you! Dige!" Li Sheng struggled to get up, a trace of gratitude flashed in his eyes.

"Brother life and death, what are you polite? Don't say anything like this in the future!" Di Ping smiled and pressed Li Sheng to the sofa to lie down again.

With gas at noon, I can start a fire to cook. Yu Shujie simply cooked a few dishes. This time there was an extra meat dish in the dish and served it in a pot. Di Ping ordered this. I know how many people are there Heaven hasn't eaten meat, and he himself is a bit greedy, and he just suffers from being a vegetarian.

A pot of stewed mutton, solid pieces of mutton, and a bit of carrots, it is a fragrant, the corners of everyone's mouth are oily, and the little girl is sweating profusely, even the talkative little mouth is busy today Chewing meat has no time to speak, and Di Ping also ate two large bowls of meat before feeling warm in his stomach.

Di Ping feels that as his body functions increase, his demand for energy will also increase, and ordinary foods will become more and more difficult to fill his stomach. Before there is no other better way, he will have more energy. Meat will be his main source of food.

Di Ping had two thrilling battles in the morning, which was extremely exhausting, especially the giant python battle. He once thought that he was going to die here, but finally relied on his potential to stimulate and survived. Now the lamb is in his stomach and he has food in his stomach. , As soon as he relaxed, he immediately felt lazily without a trace of strength.

"I'll go to bed, wake me up at two o'clock!"

Di Ping instructed Yu Shujie, who was packing the tableware and chopsticks, and then walked into the room with heavy steps.

Lying on the bed, I wanted to study the skills I had acquired, but as soon as my head touched the pillow, my eyelids couldn't open, and I fell asleep soon after.

At this time, Di Ping was sleeping very heavily. He didn't even dream. He was awakened abruptly only when Yu Shujie knocked on the door. The time was just two o'clock. After feeling the fatigue in his body, the surging power was finally wiped out. It feels very refreshing to fill the whole body.

Turned to get up, washed briefly, and came out of the room. Everyone had already gathered in the hall and was talking casually. Seeing Di Ping coming out, everyone got up and gave up a seat on the sand. As soon as he took a seat, Yu Shujie brought a glass Tea, the fragrance of tea overflows, and the smell is refreshing.

"Brother Di! What shall we do in a while?" Cheng Chao asked Di Ping, who was drinking tea, softly.

"We will sweep the next building in a while and collect the food and water!" Di Ping said while drinking tea without looking up.

This is a plan set a long time ago. The two buildings in this community will be cleaned up and then the villa area will be swept. After ensuring the safety of the community, he dared to show the buildings in the system. He does not want to expose his secrets. In front of too many people.
