

Doomsday 25

Chapter 25: Someone is visiting

Di Ping always has a sense of urgency. If he doesn't use the system's functions for a day, he feels uneasy. He can feel that this world has undergone a fundamental change from the emergence of the super mutant crocodile in Emperor Lake. The speed of the mutation was too rapid, and the mankind's original overlord of this land seemed to have fallen behind in this mutation, so far he has not touched or heard the information of any human mutation.

When you see that the trees in the community are still growing day by day, they are getting bigger and bigger, and the wild mutated like a wild world full of crises! Trees are like this, it is conceivable that animals are also accelerating day by day, just mutated cats and dogs are no longer able to deal with, and the mutated python encountered today made him worry to the extreme. He has seen this kind of python. It was originally a black python that often appeared in the countryside. He has only seen the size of a pole when he grows the largest, but today this one has grown into this, and it has been compared with the Amazon giant anaconda. .

This series of changes gave him a strong feeling that human beings will be more and more difficult to survive, especially the fast-growing vegetation, which is squeezing the space of human activities at a crazy speed, once humans lose the last part of urban buildings. Protection, how many humans can survive has really become a question.

Today's potential opened up, which made him particularly excited. It was only then that he had a strong desire to turn on the system, because he saw hope from it. The potential was there and it was extremely similar to the game. The system prompted him to open the tavern as soon as possible to complete his career. The transfer made him see another world. He is eager to know whether this professional system is only for him or everyone can do it. He has to say that only now has he really valued the system from the bottom of his heart. There seemed to be a voice in his mind saying that the system must be turned on. This is the last hope of mankind.

Sitting on the sofa, Di Ping did not speak and thought carefully. Li Sheng lay on the sofa and couldn't move. Fatty Cheng Chao and Lao Luo looked at the things they were going to bring, and made sure that Di Ping put down the tea cup and stood up. He took his Han sword from Yu Shujie, and gently pulled the sword out of its sheath. The original sharp body of the sword had cracked a lot, and he felt a little sad. This sword was getting more and more unable to keep up with his progress. , This sword can be regarded as a weapon that represents the most advanced human skills at present. It can't keep up with the mutation speed of mutant animals. If you replace it with a sharper sword today, you can slash the python with just one sword. Almost lost his life on the spot, and Li Sheng would not lie down and motionless.

Di Ping sighed lightly. The opening of the system was imminent. At this time, he really wanted to realize the system immediately and buy a weapon to see what the weapon of the system looked like. Is it as powerful as in the game?

"Let's go!"

Di Ping put aside all the distractions in his heart, greeted the three people who were ready to stop, and walked to the door.

"Toot!"

Suddenly there were two very light knocks outside the door. Di Ping's body became stiff, and his feet stopped in the air. Several people were shocked. There was no one in this building. Why would someone knock on the door suddenly.

Di Ping was a little annoyed that he was distracted just now, but he didn't find anyone approaching. He motioned to several people not to move. He walked over with his feet and looked out.

Through the cat's eyes, Di Ping saw a very young girl outside. She was not too low and was about 1.7 meters tall. She had long black hair and smooth hair that fell straight to her shoulders. She had a fair complexion. She had a standard, popular awl face, and her big, thin eyes. Long eyelashes, two thin eyebrows hanging in the air like a crescent moon, can be said to be a very standard beauty. Among the beauties Di Ping has seen, she can only score 90 points or more; but this beauty is sweaty and anxious. Panicked again, her pretty black eyes swept around, full of panic.

"Who are you?" Di Ping looked at it and felt that the woman didn't seem to have any problems. He listened closely to the sound of the woman's rapid breathing, and asked in a low voice.

"Ah! You...Hello! I...I am in Building 2...2!"

The woman was startled by the sound first, and immediately looked at the door of the room in surprise, and asked urgently with joy.

"Is there a problem?"

Di Ping watched the woman's every move from the cat's eyes. It's not that Di Ping was too careful. Everything could happen in the last days. There is nothing wrong with being careful. He also has to guard against whether this woman is playing fairy jumping, so he has been watching the woman carefully. Look and manners.

"Yes! Let me in? I...I am afraid!"

While answering, the woman swept around in panic, then looked at the cat's eyes, her eyes were full of panic and aspiration, and her face was pale as a piece of white paper.

"Ok!"

Di Ping thought for a while, and decided to open the door. He didn't think this woman looked like a pretend. Her eyes were very real. The fear and panic didn't seem to be pretended. If she was really pretending, she could only say that this woman was too good at it. It's acting; Di Ping gestured back after speaking. Several people understood that Yu Shujie carefully retreated, while the other three took up their weapons and could deal with emergencies at any time.

"Ah! Thank you thank you...!"

When a woman heard Di Ping's voice, she seemed to be like the sound of nature, and her smile immediately bloomed like a flower. The originally frightened and somewhat distorted Five Views also showed her original beauty. Di Ping could not see her own master's admiration in her eyes. It's so beautiful!"

If Yu Shujie is compared to flowers blooming, then this woman is just beginning to open the buds, a mature charm, with a kind of intellectual and softness, giving people a kind of warmth and restlessness, and the other is youthful and beautiful, exuding all over the body. An indescribable freshness and tenderness, seems to be the throbbing of the morning dew flowers in the morning.

Di Ping, who has been in a struggling state, had only his Su Xiao in his eyes before, and he could no longer tolerate others. It was not that he had never seen a beautiful woman in these years, but he had never seen it in his heart. Passed, and when he woke up from Su Xiao's dream, his solid heart was smashed into pieces. It seemed that after the obsession with Su Xiao dispersed like a mist, he lived more comfortably. He Only then began to truly ignore everything in this world, which also includes the perception of women.

Di Ping shook his head and pressed the throbbing in his heart deeply. He had his own final insistence in his heart. He didn't allow himself to be here. The last days of inhumanity also fell and perished. He had the most basic bottom line of being a human being. This is the key to his Di Ping's success, super self-control ability.

The door opened a gap. Although Di Ping felt that this woman was not like a bait for the next set, he still had some care. The door opened a gap and enough for the woman to enter, but he believed that with his current power, there were not many people. Can push open the door he wants to close.

The woman rushed in through the door with a surprised expression, as if there was a wild beast behind her, she leaned against the wall and panted heavily after entering the door, pressing her hands on her chest, as if she wanted to make a beating heart. Suppress and save to jump out.

The woman wore a loose-fitting short-sleeved mix-and-match tunic chiffon shirt on the upper body, revealing a white and slender waist, and a pair of elastic cropped jeans underneath. The straight and curved long legs were vividly reflected on the door. Pausing for breath, the loose chiffon shirt couldn't conceal how stalwart the undulating towering place is.

Di Ping was also stunned by the beauty of a woman. Just looking out from the door mirror, she felt that the person was very beautiful. Now she feels that this woman's 90-point score is a bit low at close range. She is indeed the best, but Di Ping's steadfast mind, which had been honed in the killing in the last days, was only reflected in an oversight. Looking at the three big men, they looked stupid. The fat man looked like a pig brother, and he almost drooled and his eyes were straight. He also looked admiring, but Lao Luo of the three was the most unremarkable, scanning his eyes up and down and he didn't respond.

Di Ping sighed inwardly that people are indeed different. Different lives, different situations, and different lives do not create different characters.

The fat man is really handsome, never concealing his views and attitudes. He is a super soldier with good self-control and has his own bottom line. And Lao Luo has been engaged in labor for a long time and is at the bottom of society. He knows best what he needs and what he needs. , And the performance of these three people satisfied him, because they didn't have any licentiousness in their eyes. This was enough to show that the three people's dispositions were not bad. This made Di Ping very relieved. He didn't want anyone in his team to have a heart. Obscene thoughts, such a person is definitely a harm in the team, and accidents will always happen. Whenever one of the three shows a little performance, he will definitely kick this person out of the team. Fortunately, all three have passed his test. .

From the moment he saw this woman, Di Ping had this idea in his mind, so he opened the door to let the woman in, and then took a step back to fully expose the woman in front of everyone, so that he could observe the performance of the three.

"what!"

As if feeling too quiet, the woman opened her eyes and found that the three men in the room were looking at her, whispering in fright.

"Say it now! What's the matter with you!"

Di Ping held Han Jian in his arms, looked at the woman with a plain face and asked.

"me!"

The woman shrank back in fear when she looked in front of her. She was a little nervous and frightened, and she couldn't speak properly.

"Girl! Don't be nervous! Speak slowly!"

This is Yu Shujie coming out of the room, stepping past a few people lightly, and pulling the woman forward and comforting softly.

"Woohoo!"

The woman seemed to have found her support at once, she suddenly hugged Yu Shujie and lay on her shoulders and started to cry, tears in her eyes flowing down like a spring.

Yu Shujie glanced at Di Ping and saw that he nodded, then gently patted the woman's back to soothe her, softly comforting her mouth, "It's okay! It's okay! Don't be afraid! Don't be afraid! It's safe now, don't be afraid" .

It took a full two minutes for the woman to slowly relax, leaving Yu Shujie's arms, wiping tears with the back of her hands, and crying "thank you" silently. Yu Shujie was like a confidant sister, gentle Comforting the woman, and then pulling the woman to the sofa to sit down.

The two were talking in low voices, while the four men looked at me and I looked at you, not knowing what to do at this time.
